Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The will of Heman Thomas Clark, of this city, brother of Walter and Charles Clark, of Plainfield, was offered for probate here today. After several bequests are made, the balance of the estate is equally divided between Nettie A. Kert, Margaret C. Lavin, Walter Clark, Charles Clark and John S. Clark, brothers and sisters. The instrument, which was signed in the presence of three witnesses, is dated August 4, 1914. Nettie A. Kert, Margaret C. Lavin and Walter Clark are named as executors. The value of the estate is not given.

Included among the bequests are the following: Rose Noethiger, of Brooklyn, 300 shares of capital stock of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad Company; also a bond and mortgage made by Jessie A. White in the principal sum of $1,500 upon premises at Bridgewater, Bay Shore, L. I.; George and Marguerite D. Clark, son and daughter, each $100; Greenwood Union cemetery, at Rye, N. Y., $200 for the care of grave; Mary McCarthy, aunt, $1,000. If not living then to her children. If no children then this sum is to become part of the residuary estate; Milton Clark, Hannah Wadsworth and James Tyler, uncle and two aunts, each $250; Nettie Stanley and her brother, cousins, each will receive $125.

Mr. Clark, who was 47 years old, died in the Presbyterian Hospital New York, August 30, following an operation. He was a native of New York city and was a son of the late Heman Clark. He lived at 828 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn.

WESLEY GARTHWAITE DIES FOLLOWING SHORT ILLNESS

Wesley W. Garthwaite, of 25 Somerset place, died at an early hour, this morning, from an attack of acute indigestion, after an illness of a few hours. Mr. Garthwaite, who was thirty-seven years of age, was for several years an employe of the New York Telephone Company. During the past summer he played on the baseball team representing that company. He was injured in a game recently with the team representing the New Brunswick offices of the company, and it is thought that this injury was indirectly responsible for his death.

Mr. Garthwaite is suvived by a wife and two children. The funeral services will be held from his late home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

The First Ward Republican Club will meet Monday evening at the Republican headquarters at the Frost building at 8 o'clock, when matters of importance relative to primary day will be discussed. A meeting of the followers of John H. Capstick will meet in another room at the same hour, the meeting have been called by James F. Buckle.

MANY CHANGES AMONG TEACHERS

Several New Instructors Will Be Found in Local Public Schools This Year.

LIST IS ANNOUNCED

Fall and Winter Terms Will Be Resumed on Tuesday When the Regular Schedule of Classes Will Be Followed.

The opening of the public schools next Tuesday will see a number of changes in the teaching staff. Among the new teachers are the following: Clarence L. Woodman, of Peekskill, N. Y., a graduate of Colgate University, will teach physical geography and general science in the science department.

The Franklin School has two additional teachers: Frances K. Brokaw, formerly teaching in Dunellen, takes grade 2. Miss Clara J. Churton, who has been away on leave of absence, returns to fourth grade.

The kindergarten has Miss Mary Radford, of Plainfield High School, 1910, and Montclair Normal School, 1914, as the new assistant.

In the Irving School, Miss Laura E. Hellegas takes the position as general assistant in place of Miss Annie S. Holden, who takes the class of Miss Jones during her year's leave of absence.

In the Washington School, Miss Charlotte Norris, of Providence, R. I., takes the class of Miss Lilla F. Bateman, who is transferred to the Whittier School to the class of Miss Beard during her year's leave of absence.

In the Jefferson School, Miss Ethel Sleight, of Whitehall, N. Y., who was formerly a teacher in the Irving School, takes the class of Miss Teasdale.

In the domestic science and manual training department Henry Oesting, Jr., of Concord, N. J., takes wood-working in the new manual training room in the High School; Miss Alice M. Lindsley, of Middleton, N. Y., will take sewing and millinery in the High School; Miss Lucile Jackson, of Teachers' College, New York, has the cooking department; Miss Ruth Klein, Plainfield High School, 1910, and Pratt Institutes, takes charge of the cooking department in the Whittier School:

The following new teachers will be at the High School: Miss Gertrude C. Anderson, of Hackensack, a graduate of Vassar College, will teach English; Miss Helen Biddle, of Morristown, a graduate of Monmouth College, will teach history; Miss Pauline Denton, Plainfield High School, 1910, will teach typewriting in the commercial department; Miss Ruth Elliot, of Northfield, from Wellesley College, will teach history; Miss Almire Gifford, who had a German class the opening of the year, and was obliged to leave on account of her mother's illness, returns to that department in the fall; Miss Nellie M. Waterbury, of Nyack, N. Y., teaches penmanship, bookkeeping, and stenography in the commercial department.

The following teachers who served last year will not return this year: Miss Anna M. Cuddeback, of the High School, goes to Columbia for a year of study; Miss Mildred C. Beard, of the Whittier School and Miss Mary M. Jones, of the Irving, take a year's leave of absence for rest and recuperation; Miss Ruth F. Stryker, of the High School; Miss Alice R. Barlow and Miss Grace Berry, of the Whittier School; Miss Estella C. Butler, of the Washington School; Miss Gladys M. Teasdale, of the Jefferson School, and Miss Mae A. Taber and Miss Bertha Hill, of the domestic science department, give up teaching for housekeeping. This makes eleven teachers whom matrimony has induced to leave the schools during the past year.

INFORMATION REGARDING REGISTRATION OF PUPILS

Parents having pupils entering or returning to public schools this year, are notified that all schools will be opened on Tuesday at 9 a. m., to receive the registration of both new and old pupils.

Application for registration should be made at the school building nearest the residence of the pupil, unless other arrangements have been made previously with the school authorities.

The High School will be open for registration on Monday next at 8:30, and application for entry of pupils should be made to Principal Best.

HARRIET M. BAILEY.

Mrs. Harriet M. Bailey, aged 81 years, formerly of this city, died at her home in Rutherford, last night at 8:30 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at her late residence, 278 Carmita avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 and interment will be made at Hillside cemetery, this city, at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon.

RECOGNITION OF 50 YEARS' SERVICE

Michael Moynihan, Veteran Engineer, Completes Remarkable Record.

GUEST AT A BANQUET

Throughout His Long Career With New Jersey Central He Never Had An Accident—Ran the First Royal Blue Train.

Michael Moynihan, of Bound Brook, one of the best known engineers on the New Jersey Central and widely known throughout this section, is today celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of his employment with the New Jersey Central, throughout which he has made an enviable record and one of which any man might feel justly proud.

The remarkable thing about Mr. Moynihan's record is that not once throughout his railroad career has he had an accident nor caused the loss of a life, nor in fact, has he ever been called before his superiors for the slightest infractions of rules. In other words he has an absolutely clean record. Mr. Moynihan today enjoys excellent health, which he attributes to exemplary habits. He has never tasted liquor nor used tobacco in his life. Throughout his life he has always observed the rule of "early to bed and early to rise."

In recognition of his long record, officials of the New Jersey Central are this afternoon giving a banquet to Mr. Moynihan at the Jersey City Terminal of the road. President W. G. Besler and other officials of the company are included among the guests.

Mr. Moynihan first entered the employ of the New Jersey Central at the Hampton shops on September 12, 1846, he then being fourteen years of age. He was a close student of mechanical appliances and made rapid progress. After general experience in the shops he applied for a job as fireman and in 1869 made his first run on engine No. 34, known as the "Morris" wide guage type of engine. He was promoted to the position of engineer in the spring of 1879, his first run being made on engine No. 81, running from Hampton to Port Johnson, and in the years following he continued to make a study from the engineering point of view, to produce the best results with the greatest degree of economy. On July 4, 1888, Mr. Moynihan was promoted as a passenger locomotive engineer, and ran ran from Dunellen and Sigfreid, Bridge, Pa., on the Lehigh and Susquehanna and one year later he ran the first Royal Blue train between Bound Brook and New York, it being the custom then to change engines at Bound Brook. He continued in this service until further promotion on local passenger train No. 123, the Plainfield express leaving New York at 5:10 in the afternoon. His extensive knowledge of machinery and his engine on many occasions overcame dicffiulties which are likely to arise.

An illustration of Mr. Moynihan's quick foresight was shown at one time when a coal car left the rails, which was immediately felt along the train and to the engine and, as a mark of mention to a good first brakeman, he jumped up on back of the tender and shouted, "Moynihan, string them out," which was quickly obeyed. None but the one car left the rails and the train was carried along to a point where the momentum of the rear cars was exhausted and a serious wreck was averted.

Mr. Moynihan was married to Miss Sarah Kenney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kenney, of Whitehouse, in 1876. By the union there were six children, all living. They are Mrs. James Slattery, Miss Nora Moynihan, John, Harvey and Louis Moynihan, all of Bound Brook. Mrs. Moynihan, as well as her husband, is enjoying excellent health and is pleased to share with her husband in his well-earned honors.

TEACHERS' GRADED UNION CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Robert Love, of Grove street, entertained the members of the Plainfield Graded Teachers' Union at her home Thursday. The event was in honor of the sixteenth anniversary of this organization and the guests spent the entire day with Mrs. Love, the hostess serving luncheon at noon.

The main event of the afternoon was the presentation of a silver knife to Mrs. Love from the society. The president made the presentation speech. Mrs. Love was the founder of this organization and was the president for several years. There were about fifteen present.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

ALLIES REPORTED TO HAVE TAKEN 6,000 PRISONERS IN HOT FIGHT; NAVAL BATTLE MAY BE UNDER WAY

Movement of German Fleet and Firing Off Coast So Indicate--Belgians Continue Offensive and Regain Positions--Russians Claim Victory Along 39 Mile Front, Saying Germans Have Been Driven Back--Kaiser's Men Claim Victory at Lyck, in East Prussia--German Retreat Rapid.

London, Sept. 12.—An official press bulletin says today: "Our troops have crossed the River Ourco and are moving this morning in rapid pursuit of the enemy. Two hundred prisoners were captured. The enemy are retreating north of Vitry-le-Francois. The first French army captured all the artillery of one corps. The aeroplane corps of the Allies reports the retreat of the Germans as rapid. A despatch received from Paris says that an automobile has brought information from the front that the first and second divisions of the British army, assisted by French cavalry and artillery, have cut off and defeated a large force of Germans 60 miles northeast of Paris. The message says that 6,000 prisoners and 15 guns were taken. The Allies' losses were declared to be severe, but they were slight when compared with the losses of the Germans, who are now retreating north of the Marne and west of the Ourco.

A despatch from Copenhagen to the Times says that it is reported from Sandhamn, Sweden, which is 29 miles northeast of Stockholm, that a German Fleet consisting of 29 vessels has been sighted between Gotska, Sandden Island in the Baltic, and Kopparsdenarne, nine miles north. Swedish newspapers report that heavy cannonading has been heard on the line between Kotska, Sandden Island, and Nymo.

Antwerp, Sept. 12, (Central News Cable)—A special message from Hogstadt, a city near Malines, by courier to Antwerp, says:

"General fighting is in progress today. I am out of touch with headuarters but at three this afternoon (Friday) things were going well when we passed through the town. The King and his staff have joined the troops by motor, which are engaged in a warm conflict in which the German artillery figures heavily. The Belgian infantry supported by guns has been gradually forcing back the Germans.

"I reached the Belgian firing at 4:30 o'clock. It was on a railway embankment running east and west from this point. Entrenchments had been completed with a Terrain front, which will make headway extremely difficult. Behind lay the shattered village. I joined a lieutenant of infantry in a hastily improvised shelter. The Belgians are glad to see Englishmen and welcomed me like a comrade."

Amsterdam, Sept. 12. (Central News Cable)—The following official statement has been given out by the Belgian war office:

"The Germans bombarded Waereghem, near Courai, yesterday and today many prisoners arrived in Antwerp. The Belgian army is taking the offensive and the provinces of Antwerp and Limbourg are entirely free of Germans, as is also East Flanders.

"Yesterday the Belgians engaged in heavy fighting near Termonde. The Germans retreated with great losses. The Belgians re-occupied Termonde and Alost. During the night the Germans left in the direction of Audenterde, attempting to return they were repulsed near Sename.

"The Belgians also continued the offensive against the Germans masking Antwerp. Fierce fighting occurred yesterday and was in progress today. The Belgians have retaken Aerschot. The Germans were repulsed near Louvain with very heavy losses."

The Belgian government is opposing the delivery of army necessaries requisitioned by the German general from the subjected cities. Belgian forces have again occupied many of the towns and necessaries which have been prepared for delivery have not been sent.

Berlin, Sept. 12, (Central News Cable)—The general staff announces that the Twenty-second Russian army corps of Finland tried to force a way into East Prussia by way of Lyck, and has been defeated there. Lyck is on Lake Lyck, in East Prussia, fifty-five miles south of Gumbinnen.

Petrograd, Sept. 12. (Central News Cable)—A strongly fortified line extending 60 versts (39 miles) between Opolyle and Turovin was stormed Thursday night by the Russians, who routed the Austrian forces and pursued them 30 versts. The Russians also captured Tomashoff after hard fighting.

The Ravo Russki Dneister line is still the scene of stubborn fighting.

The Germans in East Prussia have been driven back with great losses near Neurshenets but German reinforcements are stil lcoming up directing their efforts chiefly in the region of the Masur Lakes (Mauer See).

Russian reinforcements marching through Petrograd to the railway station today occasioned an extraordinary and enthusiastic demonstration.

(Continued on page 4)

TURKISH SITUATION GROWS MORE ACUTE

A. Rustem Bey Gives Out Insulting Interview to Washington Newspaper.

Washington, Sept. 12.—A. Rustem Bey, the Turkish ambassador, today managed again to affront the Washington Government in the face of a quiet and interrogative note from The White House asking that the Turkish envoy state whether the caustic criticism of the United States, attributed to him in a recent statement, were true. The diplomat gave to a local newspaper the following:

"The pretence of importance given to the statement made by me a few days back, and arising out of the rumors sedulously disseminated in the United States that a general massacre of Christians in Turkey was to be feared, I think it expedient to say that my object was to react by a straightforward appeal to the press of this country against the unthinkingly hostile attitude it has adopted for many years toward Turkey, an attitude which in the present state of intense excitement existing in the Ottoman Empire, as well as in every other European country, may cause a great deal of mischief by its unfairness.

"There is no clause in the press laws of the United States, as there is in those of European countries forbidding attacks on presidents of country, their religions or their governments. This and the tremendous issues involved in the present situation make me feel convinced that I was morally right, though conventionally I may not be, in taking the strong course I did of asking the press not to forget the shortcomings of this country when dealing with Turkey. This in view of inducing it to take a more responsible view of its attitude toward that country. I firmly believe the interests of humanity should not be sacrificed to conventions."

The State Department declined to discuss the situation today. It was apparent, however, that the action of the Ambassador was not taken kindly. Reports that the diplomatic corps as a body was about to protest against the Turkish activities was neither admitted nor denied.

FOOT RACE WITH CARVING KNIFE URGING LEADER

Jack Rubin heard shouting, while busily engaged in his drug store on West Fourth street, last night, and he went out to investigate. He saw Theodore Lane pursuing Oscar Anderson, with a big carving knife. Both are couored, so Rubin decided that it was time to call the police, knowing the cutting tendencies of the race. Patrolman Kelley was sent post-haste to the scene, and gathered in both men, each claiming that the other was responsible for the job. They told conflicting tales to Judge DeMeza in the police court, and the court decided that both needed a lecture. He gave it to them, and let them go suspending sentence.

PERUVIAN VILLAGE DESTROYED.

Lima, Peru, Sept. 12 (Central News Cable).—News has reached here that a tremendous earthquake has destroyed Caraveli, Peru, a place of about 4,000 inhabitants, 130 miles northwest of Mollenda. The report says the people are in a panic. The loss of life is not stated.

Ritz Cabaret Tonight.

Demonstration of latest dances at The Ritz tonight.—Adv. 9 11 2

Saturday Specials as Usual--Prices That Talk!

NOTHING TO EQUAL BUYING A GOOD ARTICLE BELOW ITS WORTH.

THIS STORE OFFERS MERCHANDISE AT PRICES THAT OTHER HOUSES WILL NOT EQUAL.

READ EVERY ITEM OR YOU MAY MISS A RARE VALUE.

POPULAR SHEET MUSIC at 7c

SOME OF THE LATEST HITS

Let's Fill the Old Oaken Bucket With Love.
Where the Oceans Meet in Panama.
He Was Always Fooling Around.
They Had to Swim Back to the Shore.
They All Had a Finger in the Pie.
Why Don't You Marry The Girl.
My Croony Melody.
Oh, My Love.
Hands Off.
California and You.
Hesitate Me Around Bill.
He Had the Time of His Life.
I'm Looking for a Shady Tree.
When It's Springtime in Virginia.
When It's Moonlight in May.
You Are Here and I'm Here.

NOTE—Until Further notice the price of 7c will remain on all sheet music; sold elsewhere from 10c to 25c a copy.

69c SHEETS 49c.

Made of good bleached muslin; size 72x90; welted seam; Saturday only ..... 49c each
Limit 4 to a customer.

$1.25 BLANKETS 95c.

Fine cotton blankets, double bed size; Saturday only at 95c pair

15c DRESS GINGHAM 11c A YARD

Saturday only, fine 32-inch dress ginghams, in Fall styles and colorings; at only ..... 11c a yard

WOMEN'S DRESSES 79c.
Values to $2.00.

Saturday only, if the lot lasts so long; women's fine Wash Dresses for street and house wear; nearly all sizes in the lot—plenty of sizes for small women; various styles and colors; your choice at only .. 79c

BUY A WIZARD MOP ON SATURDAY
SPECIAL PRICES—49c, 69c and $1.19.

You know what a splendid mop this is—the 49c size usually sells at 75c; the 69c size usually sells at $1; and the $1.19 size is the regular $1.50 size. With the new adjustable handle; Saturday is the last day for these low prices 49c, 69c, $1.19

Ribbons at 19c ayd

25c to 39c Kinds.

Another lot of fine Silk Ribbons in plain and fancy colors; school opens next Monday; here's your chance for new Hair Ribbons at a big saving. Over 300 pieces to select from;

SATURDAY'S PRICE ONLY 19c A YARD.

Waists 79c

Regular $1 and $1.25.

Saturday your choice of our regular $1 and $1.25 waists; long and short sleeves; various styles; all sizes, at only ..... 79c each

WOMEN'S DRAWERS 25c.
39c Value

On sale Saturday 300 fine muslin drawers with deep ruffle of embroidery; would be a big 39c value, at only 25c

SILK UNDERWEAR FOR WOMEN 20% LESS.

Fine all Silk Vests in plain and embroidered, white, pink and blue colors; were $1.69 to $2.25; your choice at 20 per cent. less.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S&H Green Trading Stamps

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

APPROACHING WEDDING.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Gertrude Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Giles, of New Market road, to Walter Muller, son of Mrs. Emilie Muller, of Lincoln avenue. The ceremony is to take place at the home of Miss Giles' parents, at 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening, September 22.

Edward Daniels is laying a concrete walk in front of his residence on First street.

The stables of George W. Churchill, on Washington avenue, are at present occupied by three horses belonging to the estate of his brother, the late Mayor R. F. Churchill, of Secaucus, of which he is administrator.

NEW LIGHTS IN CHURCH.

Electrician Edward Herlich completed installing new lighting facilities in the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday. The lights will be used for the first time tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Giddes, of Port Richmond, S. I., are spending the week in the borough as guests of Mr. Giddes' mother, Mrs. Joel Giddes, of Lincoln avenue.

LAYING NEW WALKS.

For the first time in its history the borough has actually entered into the business of layingg concrete walks. This is a very common practice in other municipalities. The idea is to push ordered improvements through. The Mayor and Council meet and by ordinance order a certain thoroughfare sidewalked. Some of the property-owners immediately complied with the ordinances and others apparently pay no attention whatsoever to it. In such instances, the borough now orders Contractor J. S. Hawkyard, whose bid of 11 cents per sq. ft. for laying sidewalks was accepted at the recent Council meeting to go ahead and lay the sidewalks for the delinquents. The cost of laying the walk is then assessed against the delinquent's property. There are instances also when property-owners who reside out of town and have been ordered by ordinance to lay sidewalk, prefer to have the borough lay it for them. Thus the necessity of trips to the borough to see how the work is being performed is done away with. The initial sidewalk that Contractor Hawkyard is laying at the present time for the borough on North avenue between Chestnut street and the Hall Press Works, is work of that character. The out-of-town people who are purchasing property from the Equator Realty and Development Company under contract, all preferred having the borough lay their walk for them.

REV. BROWN RETURNED.

Rev. E. R. Brown and family have returned from Isle Heights in the southern part of the State, where they spent an enjoyable month. Mr. Brown will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at both services tomorrow.

Louis L. Block, of Orange street, was a business visitor at Kingsland, yesterday.

EDWARD LEWIS INJURED.

Edward Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Finley Lewis, of Madison avenue, sprained his ankle quite badly Thursday afternoon and is now obliged to use crutches in order to get about. Young Lewis was assisting Lester Bowlby deliver groceries for George T. Schenck. He jumped out of the wagon in front of the home of Charles Jensen, on Columbia street. One of his feet landed on the slippery iron surface of a water table, throwing to the ground. He at first thought that his ankle was broken and that such was not in fact the case is considered most fortunate.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT.

The enrollment of the local schools to date is 425 pupils, which is an increase of about 15 pupils over this time last year. Two hundred and twenty of these pupils are attending the new school and the balance of two hundred, the Whittier.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Ford Eckerson, the manager of the local theatre, was tendered a birthday surprise party by a number of his friends at his home on Lincoln avenue, last evening. Mrs. Eckerson was responsible for the surprise. She opened her home while the usual evening program was going on at the theatre, to Mrs. Ernestine Berkheiser, Mrs. G. Elston Lowrie and Miss Hazel Runyon, who artistically decorated the parlor and dining-room of the home with greens and golden rod and also prepared a sumptuous supper. When Mr. Eckerson arrived from the theatre at 1:30 all that he could do was to gasp. The surprise was a complete one. After the serving of the supper a general good time was indulged in up to 1:30 o'clock. Mr. Eckerson received many useful and beautiful gifts. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Arnold, Mrs. Charles Berkheiser, Miss Hazel Runyon, Mrs. G. Elston Lowrie, Miss Della Brower, Mrs. Alvira Eckerson, Miss Joy Eckerson and Fred Chesbro.

STYLISH RELIABLE

Correct Dress for Men

YOUNG MEN AND BOYS

We are now showing an extraordinary line of Suits, Overcoats and Balmacaans

FOR THE FALL AND WINTER

The presentation consists of every new idea, fabric and coloring, priced at the lowest figure consistent with good quality and fashion.

Everything new and up to the minute for style.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes
"Most Things Men Wear."
214 W. FRONT ST.
Right East to Proctor's.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Rev. J. Madison Hare will conduct the services at the Baptist church tomorrow. Bible school 9:30, morning service 10:45, and B. Y. P. U. meeting in the evening at 7:45. At the morning service the pastor has arranged to preach a special sermon on the opening of the local schools. The Board of Education has been asked to attend and the school children also. Mr. Hare is in the habit of devoting one Sunday in each year to a "Children's Sunday."

With the approach of fall all of the services have been resumed and will be held at the Methodist church at the usual hours. Morning service at 10, Sunday-school at 3, in the afternoon, Epworth League meeting at 7:30 and evening service at 8. Dr. H. K. Carroll will be in charge of the services.

Rev. George H. Houghton Butler will conduct the regular services at the All Saints' Episcopal church tomorrow at the following hours: Holy communion at 7:45, Sunday-school at 10 and morning service at 11.

William Sisserson has returned to his home in Willow Grove after spending the summer at Point o' Woods, L. I., and will again resume his duties as superintendent of the Willow Grove chapel. He will conduct the regular services at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Chadwick will again conduct the services at St. John's (colored) Baptist church tomorrow.

The borough Board of Health will meet in the Fanwood firehouse on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Because he did not get enough support to enable him to have any chance of winning out in the race for the Assembly, TenEyck Beardsley, of the borough, did not file a petition He has tried for the office three different times now and has failed each time.

Miss Frances Henderson has returned to her home in Scotch Plains after visiting at Mulberry, Mass.

Miss Edith and Miss Elsa Palmer have returned to their home in the borough after spending the summer at Center Moriches, L. I.

Miss Louise Bettman, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Rainer, of North avenue.

Mrs. Robert Pence and son and daughter, of Brooklyn, are visiting the Misses Kyte, of Martine avenue.

Victor Todd, a former resident of the borough and now residing in Bellevail, N. Y., is visiting friends in town.

Rev. J. Madison Hare, pastor of the Baptist church, will conduct special services at the flagpole in front of the Parish House at 4 o'clock this afternoon in observance of the hundredth anniversary of the existance of the American flag. The local Boy Scouts will salute the flag.

Miss Rita DeMott, of Scotch Plains, is visiting relatives at Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Stevens, who have been spending the summer in the borough, have returned to their home in New York, but wil return in October to take possession of the house on Martine avenue recently vacated by George Rainer, which they intend to make as their permanent residence.

The decision arrived at by the Plainfield Board of Education making it necessary for anyone entering the schools at that place from another town to be vaccinated does not apply to those local pupils who have already gone one or more years to the High School, but to those who enter from now on. The local school authorities have been approached by parents of pupils going there to school who do not want them vaccinated and this article is intended to set their minds at ease.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rainer, of the borough, are entertaining Miss Beth Crolius, of New York.

James White, of the township, is in Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, where he was taken last Wednesday to be operated on for appendicitis.

It is expected that in another month the borough will have signs at all of the street corners to help strangers in finding their way about. The committee on streets and sidewalks of the Borough Council is making rapid progress in the matter and will probably made a definite report at the next meeting of that body.

Bound Brook.

The services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be as follows: Sunday-school at 1 a. m., men's Bible class at 10:15 a. m., preaching service at 11 o'clock, sermon by Rev. C. J. Culp, subject, "Not Peace, But a Sword;" evening service at 7:30 o'clock, a picture talk on the making of the Bible. 100 interesting stereopticon slides will be used.

After being away from Bound Brook for eight years, Edward Coriell, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coriell.

Rev. J. P. Searle, of Rutgers Seminary, will preach in the Reformed church tomorrow in place of Rev. Harold E. Green, who is ill.

The funeral services of the late Lewis P. Clark were held on Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. P. C. Bascom. Eastern Star Ladge, No. 105, F. & A. M., held Masonic services at the grave, with W. C. Coriell reading the Masonic burial service, and Rev. P. C. Bascom acting as chaplain. The bearers were J. G. Smith, Sr., R. H. Brokaw, James Vosseller, George Stryker, George Gilespie and Henry J. Garretson.

Watchung.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed tomorrow morning at 10:45 in the Mary E. Wilson Memorial Union church. Rev. Edward Read will officiate. Sunday-school will be held at the usual time. In the evening at 7:45 Harold W. Schenck will be in charge of the service.

The monthly meeting of the North Plainfield Township Improvement Society will be held in its rooms at the Improvement Hall, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. After the business meeting Dr. Henry C. Krebs will make an address.

The many friends of Jens Jensen will be surprised to hear that he has purchased a large dairy farm in Poughkeepsie. Mr. Jensen will move there in the spring.

Richard D. Schmidt, who has been visiting friends at Silver Lake, N. Y., has returned to his home on Sterling Boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Vail and family have closed their summer home, "Lakeview," and have removed to East Orange for the winter.

Miss Isabelle B. Gillie, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Howard J. Vail, has gone to Edgewater.

German Valley. and Chester

The Misses Grace A. and Linnet V. Beams, of Chester, have concluded a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thorpe, of Succasunna.

Burnet LaRue, of German Valley, is ill from lumbago.

The following pupils of the German Valley register High School are taking the fourth year's work in the Roxbury High School at Succasunna: The Misses Viola Smith, Gladys Stephens, Ella Fisher, Esther Pfeiffer and Lillian Downs.

Hilda Ward is taking the fourth year in the High Bridge High School.

Wilbur Apgar, of German Valley, is attending business college at Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dufford, of Plainfield, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Swackhamer, of German Valley.

The Chester Reading Circle held a meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edward P. Gardner.

Supervising Principal Elmer E. Beams, of Chester, will attend a principals' conference in Dover today.

F. W. Rochelle, of Main street, Chester, was fined $5 and costs Thursday in Recorder Sutton's court for running his automobile without lights.

Somerville

Miss Anna Jameson is spending a two weeks' vacation at Harvey Cedars.

Edward P. Johnson has returned from a two weeks' vacation in the White Mountains.

Miss Helen Burke and Miss Marion Enright are in Washington, D. C., visiting Miss Burke's brothr, Robert J. Burke.

Miss Anna Miller has returned from Culver's Lake.

Miss Angie Field, of this place, has left for Hawthorne, where she will teach school.

Mrs. George Sanborn has returned home after a three months' stay in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Moosebruger returned home yesterday from Asbury Park.

Miss Pauline Cowen, of New York, is spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Cowen.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reger have returned from Kenebago Lake, in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gaston have returned from Asbury Park.

Frank E. Field has returned to Penn State College as instructor in electrical engineering.

The Misses Mary and Elizabeth Taylor have returned from Asbury Park, where they have been spending the summer.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles C. Sylvester returned home yesterday from England.

Miss Julia Johnson, of Newark, and Miss Ethel Sharp, of Irvington, returned home yesterday after a visit to Mrs. Alex McIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gaston and daughter, of New York, have returned to New York after spending the summer here.

WILL MEET PARENTS.

Miss Noel Bullock, principal of the Franklin School, will be in her office Monday afternoon from 1 until 4 o'clock, when she would be pleased to meet any of the parents who would be pleased to consult with her in regard to entering their children.

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Newspape men the country over are great admirers of Eugene Walter's play, "The Better Way." Once a newspaper man himself Walter follows the style and etiquette of newspaper writers, and when an American newspaper man sits downs and writes an article it is always bubbling with American spirit. That's why Eugene Walter's plays are rightly called American plays. He doesn't theorize in foreign literature, and it is because of this fact that the theatrical world witnesses another Walter success in "The Better Way," which will bring Charlotte Walker back amid her local admirers. Things as they are is the formula in "The Better Way," which shows how the love of a woman, who pursues her husband through worldly faults, and finally wins him back despite the terrific campaign waged by the vampire of the city lights, makes better Americans of us all, and does away with the rapid proceedings involving the divorce courts. This play will be seen at the Plainfield theatre tonight.

While the coming of "Peg O' My Heart," is in itself a matter of genuine theatrical moment, the fact that it will be presented with the same perfect cast of last season, which Oliver Morosco, the producer, claims is one of the best casts ever assembled for his production of the Manners comedy, lends added expectancy to its engagement here, "Peg O' My Heart" will be the attraction at the Plainfield theatre, Wednesday, afternoon and evening, September 16. With Miss Blanche Hall again in the title role, Miss Alma Chester as Mrs. Chichester, Evelyn Varden as Ethel, her daughter, the snobbish English society girl; Roland Hogue as Alaric, her brother, an English Cad; Pelham Lynton as Christian Brent; J. Irving White as Montgomery Hawkes, the solicitor, and Fred. L. Bruce-Tiden as "Jerry," the nobleman, the engagement here will beyond doubt be one of the banner attractions of the current season.

It would be silly to write anything pretentious about so simple and wholesome a play as "The Old Homestead," and quite unnecessary to tell the tale involved. It is the same old beautiful piece, forgetting entirely the "Problems" and "Triangles" on which fifty per cent. of the shows of today are built. A quarter of a century is a long time, as time goes on the stage. Few players and plays have bridged the gulf from the early 80's to 1914. It may be that "The Old Homestead" brings with it a timely lesson in sound values. At any rate, it sets one to wondering about the "powerful" and "gripping" dramas of today. The best of them. Will they weather the years like "The Old Homestead?" It's worth thinking over. With that touch of nature that will live as long as there is an American stage, the grand old masterpiece returns to the Plainfield theatre, Monday night, with the old favorites and E. L. Snader in the role of Joshua Whitcomb. The scenic equipment is said to be even better than in former years. And attention is called to the celebrated musical features, including the famous double quartet and the choir of twenty voices in the Grace church scene.

A HEAVY BURDEN.

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable For Many Plainfield People.

A bad back is a heavy burden.

A burden at night when bedtime comes,

Just as bothersome in the morning.

Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?

Know they are for kidney backache—and for other kidney ills?

If you don't, some Plainfield people do.

Read a case of it:

Mrs. Anthony Wahl, R. F. D. No. 1, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I had such distressing pains in my back that I could hardly stand and it was out of the question for me to stoop. I was all crippled up and I knew perfectly well that my kidneys were the cause of the trouble. A neighbor recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and on her suggestion, I used them. They gave me almost immediate relief and three boxes changed me from a chronic sufferer to a heathly woman. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occassionally, when a cold settles on my kidneys and they act as a preventive of any serious trouble. You may publish this account of my experience for the benefit of other kidney sufferers."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wahl had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

MRS. BERTHA SENGER FLES NEW EXCEPTIONS

Elizabeth, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Bertha Senger has filed new exceptions to the will of her father, Samuel Dreier, of which her brothers, Garret and Harry Dreier, of Plainfield, are executors. The hearing on the exceptions will take place before Judge Connolly, October 18. Argument on the over-ruling of previous exceptions by Judge Connolly will take place in the Prerogative Court in Trenton, October 6.

RALLY SERVICE.

The Epworth League of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church will hold its annual rally service tomorrow evening, when a large attendance is desired. The pastor and the vice presidents of the organization will deliver short addresses, and the membership roll is to be called. Appropriate souvenirs are to be given to those who attend.

—If it would be "good business" for you to sell that real estate now, advertise it NOW

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL.—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (6 colors)—Portraits of 16 European rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy and Aerial Strength, Populations, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Pre-war Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Fleets Involved, European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON
IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT
PRESENTED BY
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

B. Altman & Co.

An Important Sale of Desirable Black Dress Silks which has been arranged to commence on Monday, September 14th, will comprise

Imported Black Dress Satins
35 inches wide . . per yard $1.40
40 inches wide . . per yard 1.85

High-lustre Black Paillette de Soie
40 inches wide . . per yard $1.10

Black Silk Voile
40 inches wide . . per yard $1.10

Black Satin Crepe
40 inches wide . . per yard $1.00

These are exceptional values.

A Sale of Autumn Blouses featuring the newest styles and fabrics, will be held on Monday and Tuesday, September 14th and 15th,

AT SPECIAL PRICES.

Interesting Sales for Monday Only will consist of Misses' and Small Women's Tailor-made Suits; Men's Laced Calfskin Shoes; Imported Broadcloth; Household Linens; Imported Hand-made Filet Lace Pieces, Lace Panels and Curtains; and Reversible Velour Portieres.

Fifth Avenue, 34th and 35th Streets, New York.

G. G. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

150 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful— all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Adv.

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues.

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.

OPP. DEPOT.

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30 *11:15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon, 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 6:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m. 5:00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m, 3:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 2:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:30, 7:30, *11:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 8:15 a. m., bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

L. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 139. Plainfield.

REAL ESTATE
INSURANCE
MANNING & CURTIS
106 DEPOT PARK

ANTI-SUFFRAGE

Conducted by Plainfield Branch New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage.

Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of the New York State Suffrage Association, says in the Brooklyn Eagle. "Church women should let church work rest in the hands of the people who do not believe in suffrage." The Suffragists propose to turn over to the antis not only all the church work, but the charitable and philanthropic work of the country, reserving for themselves nothing but politics. Such generosity on their part is truly touching.

One suffrage Duchess, at the $7 a ticket suffrage party at Newport, gave a brand new reason why women should have the vote. She said: "Many times we are asked why we wealthy want the ballot. Women of wealth whose daughters have married spendthrifts need sorely the opportunity to protect their fortunes from the sons-in-law whose chief aim is to spend aimlessly the money of mothers-in-law." Too bad! But will she take away the vote from spendthrift son-in-law? If not, his vote would offset that of mother-in-law and nothing would happen. Had she thought about that?

On July 4, President Wilson spoke to a mass meeting at Philadelphia, in Independence square. The Suffragists tried to hold a rival meeting with the purpose, as one of them said, "of showing President Wilson that we are still alive and capable of giving him tremendous opposition." The speaker was a Socialist, Miss Marie McDonald. The crowd which collected amused itself by cheering so continuously that the speaker could not make herself heard. They cheered for "grandmother," they cheered for "grandfather," and evidently enjoyed themselves; but were evidently not interested in what the socialist lady had to say about suffrage.

The arithmetic of the Suffragists is a particular brand of their own, quite different from the kind you and I studied at school. For instance, they say again and again that 73 per cent. of the women of Chicago voted at the spring election. The women of Chicago qualified to register numbered 516,297. Of these 163,852 voted. No arithmetic but the Suffragists' very own can make that 73 per cent.

A speaker in Albany, urging that the vote be given to women, said: "We should welcome the help, advice and counsel of the efficient and practical women of the country." But the efficient and practical women of our country are already giving help, advice and counsel constantly and freely in every worthy cause. They are not waiting for suffrage to give their best efforts to the country. What suffrage does is to put the vote into the hands of the inefficient and ignorant women, and the women whose vote can be bought, with which to offset and nullify the vote of the intelligent and public-spirited women. Suffragists deliberately shut their eyes to this fact, in spite of the successes of such men as Hi Gill and Bathhouse John. Both of these officials would have been elected by women's votes alone, without one man voting.

Tammany and the New York Suffragists are carrying on a pretty little flirtation at present. Tammany needs votes and the Suffragists need Tammany, and an alliance may be looked for in the near future.

Annie Kenny, the original Militant, says the Militants propose to make London absolutely intolerable, so that the average citizen will be forced to force the Government to give women the vote. She says:

"No woman ought to go out without a hammer in her pocket. You who cannot break windows, for goodness sake get on with something else! Everyone can 'do' a pillar box. It is the duty of evry Suffragette to go on attacking and attacking and attacking, whenever they can do so without being caught. We must not be keen on getting arrested. We must get off, if we can, so we may go on doing more damage."

Instead of using the municipal vote which they already have, English Suffragists prefer to agitate for the Parliamentary vote, claiming that they need it for social uplift. Violet Markham, one of the best known social workers in England, comments as follows upon the insincerity of this claim:

"Suffragists claim that once they have the vote they will reform and moralize England. But I want to know, if they are honest in these professions, why they do not make a better use of the rights and votes they already possess. If the work of the Imperial Parliament belongs more naturally to men, the work of social government, with its splendid oportunities for civic betterment and the up lifting of the race, belongs more naturally to women. Here her powers of citizenship and service can find the fullest and noblest expression. And yet, while Suffragists tramp streets and smash windows, what do we find? This great field of equal rights and oportunities with men is practically neglected.

"Think of it, in the length and breadth of the United Kingdom there are only 21 women elected on town Councils, only three on county Councils, and you have no less than 232 Boards of Guardians without a woman member on them.

"Those figures are the most ironical commentary as they are the most crushing condemnation of the whole suffrage agitation. They expose its essential hollowness in a dramatic manner.

"The Suffragists are always prating about social reform. I want to know why do they as ratepayers tolerate slums and insanitary dwellings, infant mortality, indifferent education, and child labor—ever one of the gravest blots on the escutcheon of a great nation—all matters with which a municipality can deal if it chooses—all matters with which existing legislation had power to deal if only these powers are put in vigorous execution—al matters which go to the very root of a nation's strength and well-being."

Boston, July 22, 1914.

WILL DISCUSS ORPHANS' FUND

Grand Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle to Meet Sept. 21.

THRITY-FIRST SESSION

John D. F. Morgan Will Be Advanced to Grand Chief's Chair—Local Castle to Be Represented at Gathering.

Knights of the Golden Eagle from the seventy subordinate castles in New Jersey will gather at Trenton on Monday, September 21, for the 31st annual session of the Grand Castle of the State. The session will begin at 10 o'clock in the hall of Mercer Castle, No. 23, in the Ribsam building, with Grand Chief Walton H. Chew, of Pitman, presiding.

It has been the custom for some years to meet on Labor Day, but a change was made at the session of a year ago by the adoption of a new rule. The new date, as it happens, however falls this year on the day preceding the general primary election throughout the State, which fact may have the effect of abbreviating the session. It has already had the effect of causing a change in the plans for celebrating the Grand Castle's 30th anniversary. It was the original intention to have a rather elaborate celebration in the evening of Monday, but as it is felt that so many members will be obliged to get home promptly for matter connected with the election the special committee have decided to recommend to the Grand Castle that the celebration be limited to setting aside a portion of the afternoon to it.

Next to the annual election of officers the most important matter to come before the body will be the project to establish an Orphans' Fund in the State, a project which was proposed at the session of a year ago.

In the election of officers, Grand Vice Chief John D. F. Morgan, of Camden, will be advanced to the grand chief's chair for the coming year. There are several avowed candidates for the position of grand sir herald, which is the first of the "line offices" and leads eventually to the grand chief's chair and then to a seat in the Supreme Castle. There are two castles in the one county of Cumberland which will present the names of candidates for the honor.

A. L. Clark of Trenton, for eighteen years the efficient and popular grand master of records, will doubtless be unanimously re-elected to his post as is the custom. His figures for the year ended June 30 last show that the seventy castles in the State have a total membership of 7,546. The deaths during the year numbered 79. Financial figures of the subordinate castles for the year are as follows:

Receipts.

From initiations, cards, &c.	$ 1,567.10
Dues and fines	57,537.60
Investments, &c.	22,662.26
Total receipts	$ 81,766.96

Expenditures.

Paid out for sick benefits	$ 23.878.82
Paid out for death benefits	5,585.00
Paid out for donations	349.65
Total relief	$ 29,813.47
Paid out for sundry purposes	$ 39,273.85
Paid out for investments	19,143.46
Total	$ 88,230.78
On hand June 30	$ 24,593.26
Invested	116,270.54
Total fund	$140,863.80

Since the organization of the order in this State it has disbursed for sickness and death, including benefits paid by the Funeral Benefit Fund, over $743,800 covering a period of twenty-eight years.

The Grand Temple of New Jersey, Ladies of the Golden Eagle, will meet in Trenton on the same day as the Grand Castle.

The Supreme Castle of the order will hold its 35th annual session at Norfolk, Va., October 13, 14, 15 and 16, next.

SHERIFF WRIGHT GETS A HORSESHOE

County Clerk Aspirant Believes it to Be a Token of Luck.

A compact, heavy package was left in Sheriff William H. Wright's office in the courthouse by the parcel postman the other day, and upon being opend was found to contain a gilded iron bronze horseshoe. It was sent by an admiring old-fashioned friend who has great faith in the shoe as an emblem of good luck, and was intended as a token to convey his sentiments for the sheriff's success in landing the Republican county clerkship nomination.

Sheriff Wright immediately installed the shoe as a paperweight on his desk and said it gave as much pleasure and confidence as anything that has occurred in his eventful campaign. In fact, he said that if horse shoes have any virtue as lucky emblems, he could not see how he is to lose, for he has been picking them up on all of his travels about the county. Several days hand running in the roadway he would have the automobile brought to a stop and alighting would go back and return with the shoe.

Each time they were deposited in the machine and upon reaching home would be taken out and saved. As a result, the sheriff now has a collection that rivals many of the rural blacksmith shops he has stopped at in his canvas. They are all shapes and sizes and in various conditions of wear, and each one is perfect enough in figure and form to embody the lucky theory.

Not only has the sheriff been gathering the good luck emblems on the highways of the county, but while at his summer home at Yankee Lake in New York for a few weeks early in the summer, he cleaned out an old well on the place and removed from its depths nearly half a hundred old rusty shoes that had been thrown into it at some time in the past, by other owners' children after being brought from an old village smithy shop nearby.

"During my campaign for sheriff," Mr. Wright said, "I had three candidates to beat and did not find any horseshoes, but won out. This time there is only one other in the field besides myself and aside from the lucky emblems I have been finding, I have been getting a lot of personal assurances and promises of support which make me feel confident that I will be nominated. The people of the county recognizes that in my administration of this office an earnest painstaking effort to serve them properly. That I have succeeded is attested to by members of the bench and bar, litigants, witnesses, clients and jurors, and it is from them that I am getting my greatest encouragement."

WATER COMPANY WILL BEAUTIFY ITS PROPERTY

Charles L. Stanley, the local florist, has been granted the contract by the Water Company to lay out and beautify their grounds surrounding the works on North avenue, Netherwood. The land around the water works now is very pretty, having a large stretch of level ground which is covered with grass but the officials of the water company wish to make it even more attractive from the railroad and the street.

Work will begin at once and within a short time that place will look like a small park with many trees and shrubberies laid out in Mr. Stanley's artistic way. Gravel pathways and a road will be woven in and around the many varieties of blooming flowers and green plants.

This will add greatly to the scenery around there especially from the railroad side as there is a full view of that section from the trains. The gardens will also lay near the street and passersby will be able to have an excellent view. The Company will spend a large amount of money on this improvement and expect to have one of the finest gardens in the city.

FLOWER GUILD APPEAL.

The Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild of this city makes an urgent appeal to the public for donations of any of the above named things to distribute among the sick. The communication reads as follows: "There is a great need of flowers, fruits and vegetables and other delicacies to be sent to the sick and shut-ins of Plainfield. The Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild earnestly request that an abundant supply be sent in Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 and Tuesday morning from 9 to 10:30 to the basement of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at 10 Madison avenue."

Miss Eva Terry, formerly history instructor in the borough High School, but now in the Summit High School, is visiting Mrs. William W. Hart, of Fairview avenue.

HERR'S SCHOOL

WANTED: TO BEGIN NOW

Young Women and Young Men to prepare for the Active Resumption of Business. It may be a few months off, but it "IS COMING" and those who have faith in the greatness of this country and an ambition to take an active part in the great Business revival should take a THROUGH COURSE in Herr's Business and Secretarial School. 'Phone or Call for complete information. Students may begin at any time with EQUAL ADVANTAGES as the work is INDIVIDUAL to a great extent.

HERR'S SCHOOL. Woodhull & Martin Bldg.

COAL

Egg, Stove, Nut

$6.75 Per Ton Pea $5.25

30c discount for Spot Cash

A charge of 25c extra for carrying coal

Try Davidge Fertilizer for Farm and Garden

CONSUMERS COAL CO.

Tel. 66 225 Madison Ave.

w-s-tf

Store Open All Day Saturday

FOR PRESERVING

Royal Granite Steel Ware

is absolutely pure and safe to use and is very moderately priced.

FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, JAR RINGS, STONE POTS AND JUGS.

Ask to see the new White Crown Vacuum Mason Jar Top, the most successful and sanitary closures yet devised for screw top jars.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen.

Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

Dr. Charles A. Eaton

WISHES TO ANNOUNCE THAT BEGINNING

Tuesday, September 15th

all milk. from his SUNBRIGHT FARMS DAIRY will be distributed to patrons direct by SUNBRIGHT FARM WAGONS.

Sunbright Milk for Babies

and special Sunbright Milk and Cream may be ordered by telephone Plainfield 2543-M, or by letter to Sunbright Farms : Watchung, N. J.

IT IS FATAL TO ADVERTISE

and then fail to "deliver the goods." All large concerns whose commodity is service to the public know this and seek to perfect that service.

Our aim is to give the best service obtainable in our line. If you are not already patronizing this office, give us a trial. We are sure you will be satisfied.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 200 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

Plainfield Daily Press

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY. 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Postoffice as second class mail matter

LESLIE R. FORT, MANAGING EDITOR.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on application. Copy for change of advertisements to insure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1914.

On Saturdays the editorial columns of the Daily Press are conducted by citizens who are free to express their own viewss. The contributing editor for today is William R. Townsend, City Tax Collector.

TAXES.

The question of taxation is one of the subjects which most of us do not understand, more especially, the reason for, and the laws governing the same.

Taxes are levied as of May 20, become due and payable October 1st, and are delinquent and become a lien on December 21; are recorded in the County Clerk's office on the first Tuesday of February as such and are advertised and sold after July 1st.

I desire to state here, however, that a new law (chapter 85, Laws of 1914) allows you to pay your forthcoming taxes in four quarterly installments instead of at one time as heretofore—provided that no installment shall be less than ten dollars. It will be to your advantage to remember this fact.

The amount to be raised is made in this manner, to wit: The chairmen of the various committees of your Common Council go over the needs of the various departments with the official heads thereof, and the amounts determined to be needed are submitted to the Mayor and Finance Committee, who in turn hold several meetings to devise ways and means to economize and keep down the budget so that the rate of taxation will not increase, and I cannot let this opportunity pass without saying that the Mayor, Finance Committee and other officers spend many a night working out this problem.

But our city is growing all the time and naturally, so must our expenses.

When the amount necessary to be raised is agreed upon, an ordinance is drawn and passed by the Common Council as a whole, and later on the Board of School Estimate and Apportionment submits the amount needed to run the public schools and the Common Council must pass this in like manner.

Then in turn the County Board of Freeholders submit their budget for county purposes, and the State submits its figures for State school tax.

These amounts are then certified to the Union County Board of Taxation at Elizabeth by the City Clerk, and the County Board in due time, as prescribed by law, fix the total tax rate. The Common Council contrary to the idea of many people, does not fix the rate.

This rate cannot be fixed until the books of each taxing district throughout the county are in the hands of the County Board, and proven, because the county and State school rates are based on the county valuation as a whole. So much for the budget. Now comes the question, who levies the valuations of your property, upon which you have to pay at the rate per hundred as fixed by the County Board? Why, the Assessors, of course, and not the Collector as some people seem to think.

When do they do it? The law says your property shall be assessed by the assessors as of May 20th each year.

Now to give you some idea as to the procedure your assessment takes in the tax office; it is first put in what is known as the Assessors' Field Book by the assessors; then copied in what is known as the County Board's duplicate.

Afterwards these are footed and proven as to land, buildings, total real estate, personal property and grand total of land, buildings and personal property. These books are then taken to the County Board, after being sworn to by the assessor, and they become the property of Union county. These same Field Books are then copied in what is known as the Collector's duplicate, in the same manner as to detail and totals, and are taken to the County Board for their approval as being true copies of the originals, and until this time these Collector's duplicates are the property of the Assessors.

These duplicates are held by the County Board until the final rate is fixed and are then returned to the Collector as his property.

The rate is now fixed and a table is made up from twenty-five to five hundred thousand dollars at the fixed rate. The amount you are called to pay is then placed opposite your valuations, and after being again proven, your account with the city is ready to be billed.

The Collector then prepares his bills, has them printed, made out and mailed or delivered to you as soon as possible.

If you will look on the back of your 1914 bill you will gain information as to the expenditure of every dollar that is raised.

It is now up to you, Mr. Tax Payer. You have your bill and the Collector would be pleased to receipt same upon payment of the amount due. Now what is the result if you don't pay your taxes by December 20th? You have to pay interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum. What is the result if you don't pay before the first Tuesday of February? Your name goes down to the County Clerk's office and is recorded in the public records. And furthermore, it costs forty cents in each case to release it from record.

Now what is the result if you fail to pay before July 1st? Your name appears in the daily papers, stating the day it will be sold for taxes, together with costs and interest. The above is the law and you must not blame the Collector, as some do. He is only doing what you elected him to do. Needless to say it is a very costly procedure to allow your property to be sold.

The Tax Collector takes a personal interest in this work and sends you a reminder every year, although this is not required by law; telephones you and writes you so that if possible, he can save you the extra costs of advertising and sale of your property.

Some say, "I did not receive a bill." That's no excuse. Come in and get one. We are all human and make mistakes. As I said, we are growing both as to receipts and disbursements. When your present Collector was first appointed by the Common Council there was collected and disbursed $325,618, on a valuation of $22,196,625. Today our valuation is $30,688,230 and we will collect and disburse approximately $587,460. This last amount is merely estimated, so far as the county and State school tax are concerned, the rate therefor not yet having been established. The number of tax payers during that time have increased about 5,000.

In conclusion let me say that the tax office invites every tax payer of this city to come to the office for any information he may desire regarding taxes and assessments, and when the books and maps (which are public property) can be seen at any time when not in use.

WILLIAM R. TOWNSEND,
Collector.

"New Floor Coverings"

It's time to think about new floor coverings for the fall and winter. We are fully prepared to supply you every want in this line with large new stocks and can save you money at the same time for most of our lines were bought prior to the advance in prices.

OUR SHOWING OF RUGS
comprise all the newest designs and color combinations suitable for every room in the house.
Brussels Rugs, size 9x12 ..... $12.00 to $25.00
Axminster Rugs, size 9x12 ..... $18.00 to $30.00
Scotch Weave Rugs, size 9x12 ..... $13.00 to $18.00
Kaba Rugs, size 9x12 at $12.75
Arab Rugs, size 9x12, at $9.00
We are closing out at greatly reduced prices a lot of odds and ends in grass weave rugs. Also heavy Japanese Reversible Grass Rugs, with border, size 9x12, at $8.98

OUR DRAPERY DEPARTMENT is showing new fall lines in Portieres, Lace Curtains, etc. Also a complete line of Brass Extension Rods and Fixtures, and Brass Covered Poles in all sizes with fixtures to match, at lowest in the city prices.
SUNFAST PORTIERES
in brown, green and blue, from .... $3.25 to $8.00 a pair
MADRAS AND SCRIM
Curtains in white and ecru, from .... 98c to $5.00 a pair
WINDOW SHADES
in all stock sizes and colorings; also made to order at short notice. May we give you an estimate on your needs in this line.

LINOLEUM, PLAIN, PRINTED AND INLAID
A splendid showing of patterns for the kitchen, pantry and bathroom, from the best factories; qualities that we know will give perfect satisfaction; then our workmen are experts in this line and will cut and fit it in such a manner that will add to its appearance and wearing qualities.
Printed Linoleums at ..... 39c, 59c and 89c a yard
Inlaid Linoleums at .. 98c, $1.10, $1.50 and $1.50 a yard

This Is Canning and Preserving Time

And even if sugar is high we can save you money on your other needs that will more than offset the difference. Everything we sell you in this line is strictly first quality, don't take chances in buying inferior or second quality in order to save a few cents and then have your preserves spoiled and your labor in vain. We sell you

MASON JARS
Pints ..... 45c Quarts 55c
Rubbers ..... 7c and 10c a doz.
A complete line of Jelly Strainers, Colanders, Measuring Cups, Stone Pots and Jars at the very lowest prices.

E-Z SEAL JARS
Pints ..... 75c Quarts 85c
Rubbers ..... 7c and 10c a doz.
PRESERVING KETTLES
Extra heavy quality, white lined, from 59c to $1.48
Aluminum Preserving Kettles at 89c, $1.25, $1.48

Large Aluminum Spoons at 15c, 20c, 25c
Jelly Glasses ..... 21c, 24c and 29c a dozen
Mason Tops ..... 25c a dozen
Paring Knives at 10c, 15c, 19c, 25c
Columbia Family Scales—will weigh 24 pounds by ounces 98c

VISIT OUR BASEMENT
When in need of House-furnishings. Everything of the best at lowest in the city prices.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

LET US ESTIMATE For You On WINDOW SHADES.
We do first class work and furnish the best materials.

ALLIES TAKE 6,000 PRISONERS

(Continued from page 1)

The second great battle between the advancing Russians and the retreating Austrians in Galicia has resulted in an even greater success for the Russians than the first. The Austrian losses are estimated at 130,000 men of whom 90,000 were taken prisoners.

Washington, Sept. 12—The French Embassy today received the following despatch from Bordeaux, dated Sept. 11: "The French general staff made known today that the first German army continues its retirement south. The German army was repulsed last night between Villers, Colylettes and Soissons. We have in four days gained from 60 to 75 kilometres. In the second army the tenth corps and the guards driven back to Saint Gond swamps are also withdrawing. The third German army is also retreating. The German centre is thus at last giving ground. A fifth German army, after attempting a very serious effort on our right wing, was thrown back.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

In order that all notices intended for this or the column for stated services may be given their proper attention, it is hoped that those in charge will have the notices reach his office, as far as is practical, on Friday afternoons. This will enable the editorial office to have all church notices in their proper places in our Saturday issues.

Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce, of this city, will act as supply for the Park Avenue Baptist church until such time as a new pastor is selected to succeed Rev. Gabried R. Maguire, who preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening. The evening services have been resumed, and will be held at 7:45 throughout the winter.

Rev. Dr. D. F. Randolph, pastor of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church, has announced his sermon subjects for tomorrow as follows. Morning, "Things Worse Than War;" evening, "Young People in the Church." The Epworth League of this church wil hold their annual rally at 7 o'clock. The evening services will resume their regular scheduled hour, 8 o'clock, with tomorrow's service.

Rev. Dr. John S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, who has been spending the past six weeks along the Maine coast, has returned from his annual vacation and wil resume his duties at the services tomorrow.

The evening services of the First Baptist church wil be resumed tomorrow, Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the church, having returned from his trip through England and Scotland.

Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, has returned home and will take up his church duties tomorrow. The morning service at 10:30 and the Sunday-school services at 11:50 will be resumed tomorrow.

Henry Seader will conduct the W. C. T. U. service tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Rev. Elliott, of Orange, will again occupy the pulpit of the Ebenezer Baptist church at both services tomorrow. The sermon-subjects have been announced as follows: Morning, "Wanted, a Man;" evening, "A Prayer that Was Too Late."

"Go-to-Church Sunday" will be observed tomorrow at the South Plainfield Baptist church. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the hour of the morning service, while an evangelistic sermon will feature the evening service.

Rev. E. P. Little, of Christ church, Elizabeth, wil conduct the morning service at St. Stephen's church at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Edward S. Ralston, pastor of the Netherwood Reformed church, has announced his sermon-subjects for tomorrow as follows: Morning, "The World Brotherhood;" evening, "Public Schools and the Home."

THE FORUM

Editor Plainfield Daily Press:

I have no desire to enter into a wordy contest in the columns of the Press concerning the efficiency or inefficiency of my administration of the affairs of the High School. There is not time enough in my days for the other necessary things.

But I wish to call to the attention of those who have read the attacks upon me, recently published in your paper the fact that there is a proper tribunal before which to lay such charges of inefficiency, and that that tribunal would undoubtedly give to such charges the same careful consideration that it gives to all matters brought before it. There is an orderly and dignified way to conduct such attacks.

If a careful investigation of the facts should prove me weak and inefficient, or partial and unjust (which it could not possibly do), I will joyfully retire where the wicked cease from troubling and the wary are at rest.

But when there is every opportunity for a fair and judicial inquiry, why present a one-sided case in the newspapers?

LINDSEY BEST,
Principal of the High School.

BOROUGH SCHOOLS TO OPEN MONDAY

Schedule for Different Classes Announced by the Supervising Principal.

The public schools of the Borough of North Plainfield will open Monday morning. The following hours will be of interest: The High School and seventh and eighth grades' morning session will be from 8:20 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Afternoon session from 2-3 p. m. Morning session for grades one to sixth inclusive will be from 9 to 12 a. m.; afternoon session from 1:30 to 3 p. m. Kindergarten session will be from 9 to 12 a. m.

Parents of children attending the first, second and third grades in the Somerset building will observe that these classes will be on part time schedule on account of congestion. A note will be sent with each child designating the hours children are to report.

The second grade in the Watchung building will also be placed on part time schedule and will be similarly notified. The Somerset kindergarten has been removed from the Somerset building to the building known as Dunn's store at the corner of Duer street and Lincoln place. Congestion accounts for this action of the Board of Education. The dividing line for Watchung and Somerset Schools will be the same as last year. It begins on Fairview avenue and runs to Somerset street; over to Linden avenue and continues out Linden avenues.

Attention is called to the changes in the location of class rooms in the Somerset School. Grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 are all on the first floor. The eighth grades will enter by the south door on the front. The seventh grades will enter at the back of the building. The third and fourth grades are on the second floor at the north end and will enter from Park place. The first and second grades will enter by the north door on Somerset street.

SEPT. 12TH IN HISTORY.

1814—General Ross, the British commander, was killed in the battle with the Americans at North Point, near Baltimore.

1843—Queen Victoria and Prince Albert left England to visit the King of the Belgians.

1848—Switzerland adopted a new Federal constitution.

1850—The Fugitive Slave bill was passed by the House of Representatives.

1869—The National Prohibition party was organized at a convention in Chicago.

Auction Sale

of a large assortment of household goods in fine condition, at 322 West Front St. in the large store lately vacated by R. B. Van Arsdale,

TUESDAY, AT 1:30 P. M.

See adv. in Cent-a-Word Column also.

R. MURRAY,
Auctioneer.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting. Steam and Hot Water Heating. Contractor for Sewer Connection
128 WATCHUNG AVE.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

PEACE AND PLENTY
Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.
W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S RYE
E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

ESTIL'S BOOK SHOP
Will L. Williams, Prop.
School Supplies Ready for School Opening
$1.00—Estil Special Fountain Pen—$1.00
Waterman's Ideal Safety and Self Filler Pens $2.50 up
College and School Posters and Shields, ½ price to close out
Football Goods for 1914 111 Park Ave.

Falling Hair Stopped by Using HIRSUTONE
A scientific, antiseptic Hair Tonic which kills the dandruff germ. Preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair and stimulates its growth. Hirsutone is a non-secret preparation—fragrantly perfumed—a delightful dressing. Start using it NOW before it is too late.
Price 50c. Hirsutone is only obtainable at
SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
Colgate's Shaving Stick, Cream, Powder, 20c.

Carrying Currency Tempts Robbery

It is not wise to carry a large roll of currency about with you, as it may be exposed to robbery.

It is safer to pay by check and thus be protected all the time.

Checking Accounts, large or small, are invited.

3% Interest on balance of $500.00 and above.

ORGANIZED 1875.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.
Broadway and Ninth, New York

The John Wanamaker Store

Store Opens at 8:30
Closes at 5:30 P. M.

"There is Only One Place to Buy Blankets these Days and That is at Wanamakers"

This was the reply of an expert on wool, a member of a large woolen organization to the query of a friend, "where should I buy my blankets."

The advice was given, because the expert knew of our large operations in the blanket market when we secured over seven thousand pair in one purchase at 10 to 50 per cent. under the old market rates—this in the face of a rising cost of wool due to the war.

This purchase has come in in several shipments, the last having just been received, and it has been supplemented by other additional purchases made on favorable terms, enabling us to offer

Standard Wanamaker Blankets at 10 to 33⅓ per Cent. Under the Lowest Market Prices

New York was amazed when we made our first announcement several weeks ago on the hottest day of the summer, and did the largest day's blanket business in the history of the store. "If Wanamaker's can sell blankets on a day such as this," said one man, "what can't they do?."

We Didn't Sell the Blankets; They Sold Themselves

With this touch of cold weather the blankets are selling themselves now faster than ever, and this stock will be exhausted sooner than we anticipate.

While the stock lasts, however, we are in the fortunate position—fortunate for our customers as well as for ourselves—of owning these blankets at prices lower than any other stock is owned in New York City—which means, of course, that they will be sold here at lower prices than any other store can quote on equal grades. We can promise full supplies of the following for next Monday and the early part of next week:

$3.25, regularly $4. Double bed size.
$4, regularly $5. Full bed size.
$5, regularly $6.50. Full bed size, bound with silk.
$6, regularly $7.50. Extra large size, bound with silk.
$6, regularly $9. Full bed size.
$6.75, regularly $8.50. Full bed size, all-wool.
$6.75, regularly $10. Double bed size, extra long.
$7.25, regularly $10. Double bed size.
$7.50, regularly $10. Full bed size, all-wool.
$8, regularly $10. Double bed size, bound with silk, boxed, blue borders only.
$8.50, regularly $11.50. Extra large size.
$9, regularly $12. Extra large size, 80 x 90 in., cut and bound separately.
$10.50, regularly $16. 60 x 82 in., cut and bound separately, bound with 3-inch grosgrain silk.
$12.50, regularly $19.50. Extra large size, cut and bound separately. Bound with silk.
$16, regularly $24. Full bed size, handsomely bound with silk, not separated.
$16, regularly $24. Extra large size, all-wool, Grecian border, cut and bound separately with 3-in. silk.
$17.50, regularly $23. Full bed size, extra long, cut and bound separately, bound with 3-in. silk.
Extraordinary assortment of plaid blankets, $4, $5 and $6, regularly $5 to $8.

SPECIAL—Comforters

Cotton and wool-filled.
Cotton comforters, $1.35 to $5.
Wool comforters, $2.75 to $6, in various colorings. Values $1.75 to $7.50.

Third Gallery, New Building.

SPECIAL—510 New High Grade Wilton Rugs, Monday, at Less

The makers wanted to lighten stocks, and were willing to lower prices to accomplish this. The rugs are standard, in soft colorings and good Oriental designs, from one of the oldest, best mills in America. Our customers buy rugs from the same looms every business day, at full regular prices. There should be an early demand Monday morning for these—

French Wilton Weaves

Size	Regularly	Monday
3 ft. x 5 ft. 3 in.	$ 9.00	$ 7.75
6 x 9 feet	34.25	27.50
8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in.	50.00	39.50
9 x 12 ft.	55.00	42.50
9 x 15 ft.	76.25	62.50
10 ft. 6 in. x 12 ft.	76.25	62.50
10 ft. 6 in. x 13 ft. 6 in.	85.75	70.00

Best Grade Body Brussels Rugs
(Two Sizes Only)

Size	Regularly	Monday
8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in.	$29.75	$21.50
9 x 12 feet	32.75	24.75

Extra Quality Royal Wiltons
Size, 9 x 12 feet
Regularly $42.50 Monday $30

Fourth Gallery, New Building.

VELOUR PORTIERES

The portieres we sell at $12.75 are made in our workrooms. The velour came from a manufacturer who has been trying to get a share of our business for four years. He got it this year because he out-qualified every other matter of velour at or near his price.

These portieres are solid colors, in combination, reversible.

The portieres at $19.50, with embroidery applique, each portiere 48 inches wide, 8 feet long, are also made in our own workroom.

We have 150 pairs of these. When they are gone, we shall not be able to duplicate them for less than $30.

These and the $12.75 portieres are made with open French edges.

The Jute Velour Portieres, imported from France—solid colors, $17.75, with printed borders. $35 pair—are probably the last we shall receive for some time. Roubaix, where the velour is made, is partly in ruins.

The depth and brilliancy of the colorings of the jute velour portieres are wonderful.

Two designs much favored this autumn are the figured velour portieres at $17.50, and the verdure velours at $23.50.

All these portieres have the distinction of confined designs or tone-colorings, and a moderate price.

Third Gallery, New Building.

No man has as much fun at anything
As in conducting a successful business.

It takes good printing—Press printing—and the courageous use of the same—to drive a business and make it grow vigorously.

Study your business carefully and you will discover numerous ways to use good printing to advantage and profit.

If you lack the time or skill to properly prepare your copy, you can always depend on Press Service to perfect the details so that the completed job of printing will possess all the features that invite success.

Press printing—the result of Press service—invariably gets the business and the money.

THE SERVICE SHOP

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
Job Printing Department
105 North Avenue

$500 IN PRIZES TO BE AWARDED BABIES

Healthy Infants to Be Given Premiums In Contest Arranged For Trenton Fair.

With a staff of medical specialists already engaged for the work the Trenton Interstate Fair is making preparations this year to conduct the most notable better babies contest ever held in this part of the country. Mahlon R. Margerum, secretary of the Fair, has selected Mrs. Alice B. Cantwell to be superintendent of this important department of the exposition, which will be held from Sept. 28 to Oct. 2. Mrs. Cantwell is a member of the board of managers of the New Jersey State Home For Girls. There will be a score of nurses in attendance, as it is expected that several hundred babies will be entered. The health development of the child rather than its beauty is to be the standard of the examination.

MRS. ALICE B. CANTWELL.
[Member of board of managers of State Home For Girls to be superintendent of baby contest at Trenton fair.]

In addition to the $500 in money offered in prizes, each infant will have the benefit of the examination by experts in different branches of the medical profession. Mothers will be told how to best care for their tots, and the advice will be free of charge. No fee is needed to enter the babies, either.

Entries in this department close Wednesday noon, Sept. 23, and must be made on special forms which will be provided on application to Secretary M. R. Margerum, Trenton, N. J.

All prizes will be paid in gold and ribbons, awarded on the last day of the Fair. Medals will be forwarded as soon as they can be engraved.

FIRST DIVISION.

Division No. 1 is open only to babies from rural districts or towns of 1,000 population or less and is arranged as follows:

Class number.		First premium.	Second premium.	Third premium.
101a	Boy, 6 to 12 mos...	$10	$5	$2.50
101.	Boy, 13 to 24 mos..	10	5	2.50
102.	Boy, 25 to 36 mos..	10	5	2.50
103.	Boy, 37 to 48 mos..	10	5	2.50
104.	Boy, 49 to 60 mos..	10	5	2.50
105a	Girl, 6 to 12 mos...	10	5	2.50
105.	Girl, 13 to 24 mos..	10	5	2.50
106.	Girl, 25 to 36 mos..	10	5	2.50
107.	Girl, 37 to 48 mos..	10	5	2.50
108.	Girl, 49 to 60 mos..	10	5	2.50

SECOND DIVISION.

Division No. 2 is open only to babies from towns and cities of over 1,000 population as follows:

Class number.		First premium.	Second premium.	Third premium.
109a	Boy, 6 to 12 mos...	$10	$5	$2.50
109.	Boy, 13 to 24 mos..	10	5	2.50
110.	Boy, 25 to 36 mos..	10	5	2.50
111.	Boy, 37 to 48 mos..	10	5	2.50
112.	Boy, 49 to 60 mos..	10	5	2.50
113a	Girl, 6 to 12 mos...	10	5	2.50
113.	Girl, 13 to 24 mos..	10	5	2.50
114.	Girl, 25 to 36 mos..	10	5	2.50
115.	Girl, 37 to 48 mos..	10	5	2.50
116.	Girl, 49 to 60 mos..	10	5	2.50
121.	Champion boy, either division	$20 in gold.
122.	Champion girl, either division	$20 in gold.
123.	Rural baby showing greatest improvement since 1913 show as indicated by the increased score	$20 in gold.
124.	City baby showing greatest improvement since 1913 show as indicated by the increased score	$20 in gold.

SPECIAL AWARDS.

The Woman's Home Companion offers the following prizes:

One better babies gold medal, valued at $25, to the highest scoring baby, boy or girl, city or rural, in the contest.

Four better babies bronze medals, to be awarded to the highest scoring boy and the highest scoring girl in divisions 1 and 2, except when one of these babies wins the gold medal. In this case the bronze medal will go to the child of the same sex making the second highest score in the division.

Better babies diplomas to all first prize winners in all classes and divisions.

A better babies certificate of examination printed in colors will be sent to each baby examined in the contest by the better babies standard score card.

—If you have a really desirable house or apartment to rent, your "ad" will constitute GOOD NEWS to some anxious people in this city.

RECREATION NOTES

The Dunbar Club held a most successful meeting last night at the Washington School. There were over a hundred members present. There was a demonstration of social dancing, which was very much enjoyed by those present.

The weekly Municipal Dance will be held tonight at 8:15 in the Washington School.

The Italian Social and Educational Club will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Lincoln School. Dancing and music furnished by some of the young men of the club will be the chief attractions of the evening.

RED CROSS SHIP A GREAT FLOATING HOSPITAL.

Equipment of Vessel to be on Errand of Mercy to Succor Warring Nations.

Lent to the American Red Cross society by the Hamburg-American line, the steamship Hamburg, which has been rechristened the Red Cross and converted into a great floating hospital, is going abroad to render service in the armed conflict of the nations. The vessel has been completely changed in appearance. It is painted white, with a band of red encircling the hull, and red crosses are painted on the stacks. The name "Red Cross" is emblazoned on her bow, and the American and Red Cross flags fly from her masts.

At Falmouth, England, the ship will land two units—six surgeons and twenty-four nurses—and some of the hospital supplies, and then proceed to Havre to land two units for France. At Rotterdam will be landed the units for Germany and Russia. Belgium has asked for hospital supplies and no nurses, so she will be given an extra lot of supplies.

The Red Cross carries 30 surgeons and 125 nurses. The cargo consists of hundreds of pounds of bandages, absorbent cotton and gauze, thousands of cases of ether and chloroform, hundreds of gallons of iodine, surgical equipments, hospital garments, every thing to make the misery of the wounded soldiers less.

The ship is in command of Captain Armisted Rust, U. S. N. In professional command of the expedition is Major Robert Hugh Patterson of the Medical Corps, U. S. A., while the chief supervision of the nurses is intrusted to Miss Helen Scott Hay, ex-superintendent of the Illinois Training school, from which she resigned to establish, by invitation of Queen Eleanor, a school for nurses in Bulgaria.

Nurses selected by the American Red Cross for European service have received the following instructions:

"Carry if possible a sufficient supply of clothing for a month or six weeks in lightweight suit case or telescope bag. A canvas bag will be supplied to each nurse by the Red Cross, in which additional clothing may be taken. To avoid loss these bags will be plainly marked 'American Red Cross,' and no other luggage, except such as can be carried by the nurse, will be allowed. These bags will be distributed by the local committees.

"The Red Cross badge should be worn and appointment card, together with white immunity certificate, carried in purse or other safe place.

"As a matter of protection nurses will be expected to wear their uniforms on shipboard and, so far as can be determined, at all other times while serving under the Red Cross in Europe."

LODGE ENJOYS EVENING.

Ladies' Nest, No. 1790, O. O. O., held an enjoyable dance and euchre last evening, at K. of P. Hall, at which time over 250 friends and members of the lodge were in attendance. A program of musical selections marked the early portion of the evening. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Frick, Mrs. Braum, Mrs. Hess, Mrs. Marngella and Mrs. Collins.

MORRIS SORENSON.

Morris Sorenson, of 737 Webster place, died this morning, after a lingering illness at Muhlenberg Hospital, at the age of forty-four years. Mr. Sorenson, who was a carpenter by trade, is survived by one brother, Christian Sorenson, also of Webster place. The funeral services will be held from the late home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Charles M. Anderson, pastor of the First Methodist church, will be in charge, and the interment will be made at Hillside cemetery.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

There will be an important meeting of the P. O. of A. in the Babcock building tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE.

The regular meeting of the Women's League of St. Joseph will be held in Debele Hall, Monday night. As this is the first meeting of the year all members are urged to be present.

IT'S A GIRL.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus G. Hoyt, of West Front street are parents of an 8½ pound daughter, born to them today.

—Frand Neidig, the butcher, of Somerset street, has secured a supply of foot rulers which are to be distributed Monday morning to the North Plainfield school children.

CLAN MACKENZIE MEETING.

Clan Mackenzie 204, Order of Scottish Clans, will meet Monday evening at 109 Park avenue. A full attendance of members is requested.

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON, Managers.

TONIGHT--
Positively the Only One Night Appearance of the ORIGINAL JUNE of the Trail of the Lonesome Pine
CHARLOTTE WALKER in The Better Way
PRICES $1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14th--
The Old Homestead
PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15th--
MATINEE AND NIGHT
The Bankers Daughter
A Photo Play

Wednesday Matinee & Night Sept. 16
Oliver Morosco Presents
The Supreme Success of Successes
"Peg O' My Heart"
By J. HARTLEY MANNERS
The Play That Has Given Joy to Millions of Playgoers
Same Great Cast and Lavish Production
SEATS NOW ON SALE AT BOX OFFICE
PRICES
Matinee, Orchestra, $1.00, 75c; Balcony, 75, 50c; Gallery, 25c.
Night, Orchestra, $1.50, $1.00; Balcony, $1, 75c, 50c; Gal., 25c.

Thurs. Sept. 17
MATINEE & NIGHT

Black Patti
Musical Comedy Co. Presenting a New Play
Lucky Sam From Alabam
HEADED BY
SISSIERETTA JONES, Original BLACK PATTI
HARRISON STEWART, Southland's Favorite Comedian
Prices: Mat. 25c, 50c; Night 25c, 50c, 75c

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

An Avalanche of Vaudeville Surprises Awaits You
Monday Tuesday Wednesday
ETTA BRYAN & ROY SUMMER & CO.
Present "A College Proposition," a Comedy Sketch
HAZEL MORAN, The Girl With the Lariat
WALTER J. HAYES, The Musical Rube.
WILSON & LAWSON, Those Odd Acrobats
DANCING LeFEVRES, Artistic Interpreters of Society's Newest Steps
Monday--
THE PERILS OF PAULINE
PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY
PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Mary Bunker and daughter, Lucy, of Montclair, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Grove P. Hinman, of Kensington avenue. Mrs. Bunker is a sister of Mr. Hinman.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Abbott of Carlton avenue, have returned after spending the summer in Europe.

F. A. Green has returned to his home on Westervelt avenue, after spending his vacation at Landing.

Mrs. Henry P. Stevens and family, of Central avenue, Netherwood, have returned from Culver's Lake, Branchville.

W. S. Zimmerman and family, of Jackson avenue, are spending a week at Martinsville.

F. E. Mygatt returned home on West Eighth street, after spending some time at New Milford, Conn.

Mrs. Frank Smith, of Allen place, has returned from visiting in New York State.

INSPECTING SCALES.

Representatives of the American Express Company, successors of the United Express Company in this section, are visiting the various freight and other stations along the Jersey Central to inspect the scales used in weighing baggage and in several cases it has been found necessary to adjust them.

FUNERAL OF MR. MEYERS.

The funeral services of Henry Meyers, of 31 Linden avenue, the borough, who was killed yesterday morning on the Newark Bay bridge of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, will be held from his late home at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and later from the Coontown church. Rev. George Bowers, of Warrenville, will officiate. Interment will be made at the Coontown cemetery.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

MOST DOUBLE PLAYS LED BY MARANVILLE

Boston's Diminutive Shortstop Has Been in Front End of Thirty-six.

Walter Maranville, diminutive shortstop of the Braves, is leading both major leagues in starting double plays this season and probably will set a new record in this respect. The agile infielder, up to last Saturday, had made the pioneer move in 36 two-ply killings, which was eight more than any other National or American Leaguer had set under way. The "Rabbit's" nearest rival at taking the initiative in duplex massacres is Owen Bush, of the Tigers. He has 28 to his credit.

This is the third season statisticians have kept track of the number of double plays each major leaguer has started. The top-notch figure previously was 41, Arthur Fletcher, of the Giants, setting this number of runs smothering stunts in motion in 1912. Last year the National League leader was Bob Fisher, of Brooklyn, with 36 to his credit. The American League's pace-setters were Jack Barry, of Philadelphia, in 1912, with 34, and Owen Bush, of Detroit, and Ray Chapman, of Cleveland, in 1913, with 30. Maranville will undoubtedly smash all previous records to infinitesimal smithereens. Experts are of the opinion that he will be a Chalmers car winner this year, as well.

Maranville has started about 39 per cent. of the double plays made by the Braves. Bush takes credit for setting in motion 33 per cent. of the Tigers' duplex killings, the records of the other shortstops in starting double plays being as follows:

National League—Wagner, Pirates, 35 per cent.; Herzog, Reds, 27 per cent.; Corriden, Cubs, 23 per cent.; Fletcher, Giants, 21 per cent.; O'Mara, Superbas, 13 per cent.; Martin, Phillies, 12 per cent.; Butler, Cardinals, 11 per cent.

American League—McBride, Senators, 30 per cent.; Barry, White Elephants, 28 per cent.; Scott, Red Sox, 25 per cent.; Peckinpaugh, Yankees, 19 per cent.; Wares, Browns, 17 per cent.; Weaver, White Sox, 16 per cent.; Chapman, Naps, 15 per cent.

LAUREL TEAM HAS HAD A GREAT BASEBALL SEASON

The Laurels had a very successful season in the Parker Field Middle League, easily copping the pennant. They had one of the greatest pitching staffs of any young team in the State. With Brennan, Butler and Venable in stock all of the opposing teams found them a hard proposition to beat. They were well fortified behind the bat. Kyle, the Plainfield High School catcher, was on the receiving end and very few dared to steal on him. The infield resembled that of the champion Athletics, with Gleason on first, Trotter on second, F. Mullin at short and "Polly" Snyder on third. Not only do these men excel in the field but they also are good stickers. Venable, Butler, Kline and "Jap" Boos composed the outfield. Besides being good hitters these men are good ground coverers. Butler led in batting for the regulars with an average of .572. Boos and Kane are the other .500 hitters. The whole team batted above the .400 mark. Trotter, Brennan and Kyle were the best pinch hitters.

Pitchers' Averages.

	G.	W.	L.	P. C.
Butler	17	14	3	.824
Bennan	4	3	1	.750

Laurels' Batting Averages.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P. C.
Butler	39	16	22	.572
Boos	36	9	19	.530
Kane	12	5	6	.500
Trotter	39	6	18	.450
Snyder	27	7	12	.444
Gleason	16	0	7	.441
Brennan	14	4	19	.437
F. Mullin	38	6	17	.425
Kyle	38	7	17	.425
Kline	26	6	12	.415
Venable	31	3	11	.355

ASK AMERICANS TO HOLD 1916 OLYMPIC GAMES

Paris, Sept. 12—The International Olympic Committee has reported that it has decided to intrust the organization of the next Olympic games to the American Olmpic Committee.

The committee reached that decision on account of the fact that the war will make the holding of the games in Berlin impossible, and America is best qualified to handle the event at this time. The International Olympic Congress will also be held in New York in 1916, and that, too, influenced the committee.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

SMINCK AND NASH WILL ENTER S. T. S.

Two Local Athletes Have Decided to Take up Y. M. C. A. Work at Springfield.

Donald Sminck and James Nash, both of this city and formerly of Plainfield High School, have decided to enter the Springfield Training School this fall and will go to that place on Monday, with Herbert Stine and George Townley of the borough return to take up their studies of the second year at that institution. The former has been thinking seriously of this for some time and just recently came to this decision.

Sminck was graduated from the local High School last June and while in school was a leading light in athletics. All baseball fans will well remember Don in the four games that were played on Parker Field and Hyde Oval, respectively, in the interscholastic league and how the city twirler bore all of the work on the firing line and stood it like a regular iron-man. He is a remarkable southpaw twirler and will make good wherever he goes. Sminck is also a stellar football player, being a fast man on his feet with plenty of nerve and spirit. He played fullback on the team last year and his place will undoubtedly be the hardest to fill this season. He will probably be right at home at Springfield as this sport is compulsory and every man gets a good chance to show what he can do on the gridiron. Although first year men seldom make the varsity teams there is a good chance of the local boy getting a place on the pitching staff this year as another local pitcher did last year.

While Jim Nash has been taking up practically the same line of work at the Temple School in Philadelphia, he did not get enough of the physical part and he decided to switch to the institution where the majority of time is spent in this line of work. He will take up a physical director's course as will Sminck and will also try for the athletic teams as most all do that go to that place. Jim is another of Plainfield's stellar athletes and should make a good showing. He is one of the few excellent all around athletes in this vicinity, being familiar with baseball, football, basketball and track athletics. In the last named he excells, being an extra fast man on his feet. The Springfield track team is one of the best teams at that place and Nash will stand a good show of making this. He has played on several High School teams while in that institution and also was a good part of the Leal School teams while attending that place. At Temple he was a member of the basketball squad and also was on the track team.

Townley and Stine ae now in their second year and their place on the baseball team is assured as both were regulars last season, forming the best battery that the team possessed. They will also try for football, although George is a little light for that.

PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL ON PHILLIPSBURG'S SCHEDULE

On the football schedule of the Phillipsburg High School, which has just been published, the local school is scheduled to travel to that place on the fourteenth of November. This has always been one of the big games for the season for the local team and last year they succeeded in holding their opponents to a scoreless tie. This year it is the hopes of the Queen City eleven to take the measure of this team and they will probably come home with the bacon.

The Phillipsburg team has a hard schedule to face, which consists of eight games. The schedule is as follows:

September 26, Barringer High School at home; October 3, Allentown High School at Allentown; 10, open; 17, Trenton High School at Trenton; 24, Flemington High School at home; November 3, Dover High School at Dover; 7, Dickinson High School at Jersey City; 14, Plainfield High School at home; 28, Easton High School at Easton.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS IN PARKER FIELD LEAGUE

	W.	L.	P. C.
Laurels	17	4	.810
Red Stars	11	10	.523
West Ends	6	11	.352
Col. Scouts	4	13	.308

LAURELS VS. HIGHLANDERS.

The Laurels and Highlanders will again meet on the Netherwood field tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. This is about the fourth time these nines have met this year and some good games have resulted. Denny and Kyle will be the battery for the Netherwood aggregation.

FIRST WORKOUT FOR HOLY CROSS ELEVEN

Will Be Held This Afternoon on Cricket Field for All Candidates.

The first practice of the Holy Cross football squad will be held this afternoon on the Cricket Field and all candidates are requested to be present. Coach P. V. Martin, of this city, who had charge of the team last year, will again be the coach and will be on hand this afternoon for the first general workout and to look over the material. He will probably give the team a short talk.

There were fifteen members of last year's team present last night at the meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. John Doyle formally accepted the managership again but will have four assistants to help him. At first there was some doubt as to whether he would take that position again or not because of lack of time but with four men to help him Doyle will again take care of the business end of the club. The assistants have not been selected yet but they will take care of the game receipts and the field. The field will be totally roped off this year.

No captain was elected last night, but one will be chosen before the regular practices begin. The practice will start at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

ROD AND REEL

High Water Today.

	P. M.
Sandy Hook	12:00
Morgan's Station	12:10
Sewaren	12:20
Governor's Island	12:54
Jamaica Bay	12:30
Corson's Inlet	11:00
Centre street (Newark)	1:49

High Water Tomorrow.

	A. M.	P. M.
Sandy Hook	12:47	1:40
Morgan's Station	12:57	1:50
Sewaren	1:07	2:00
Governor's Island	1:00	1:52
Jamaica Bay	1:17	2:10
Corson's Inlet	11:47	12:40
Centre St. (Newark)	1:55	2:47

One angler fished the surf at Asbury Park Monday, and among the fish he caught was a six-pound weakfish. He also had a number of fluke and kingfish. He spent three days down there trying out some new rods and caught a mess of fish each day.

The lull in the bay fishing is only temporary. There are a great many weakfish still in the waters of Raritan Bay and Sandy Hook Bay. The fish appear to be scattered, as they always do when we have had a succession of north winds. They will school up when the wind shifts and bite as they did a week ago.

Bass fishermen who have not had much success away from home should try the fishing in the local lakes. It is well worth any man's time to fish either Branch Brook or Weequahic Park Yake, as the fish are there and they are taking the hook. Quite a few bass were caught during the past week at both lakes, and a number of perch were taken as well as catfish and eels. Casting works the best for bass, but some have had success while trolling.

The fishing from the Long Branch pier Sunday was all that could be desired. Weakfish were caught along with the fluke, blackfish and sea bass and some ling will be there tomorrow, in all probability. Hacks will carry the fishermen to the pier if they don't care to walk and they will call and take you back to the station if required. Hundreds of fishermen and "fisherladies" will be there if the weather is clear, as there is lots of fun fishing in the Atlantic Ocean from such a comfortable place.

Rowboat fishing for weakfish is becoming a popular sport. It can be indulged in at Sewaren, Perth Amboy, Morgan and Keyport, where boats of that kind can be hired, and at Tottenville, Princess Bay, Hugenot and Great Kills. Power boats for large parties can also be hired at these places. The water is seldom so rough that a rowboat is unsafe and when it is that bad few power boat captains care to take a chance.

Perhaps the largest sheepshead ever caught in Barnegat Bay was landed at Barnegat pier recently by an East Orange man. He was fishing for weakfish, using common linen sewing thread for a line, and caught the sheepshead, which weighed seventeen and three-quarter pounds, upon it. Upon the other hook, at the same time, was a weakfish weighing about two pounds. These constitute a most remarkable catch for such light tackle.

Weakfishing had its good and bad days this week. Many fishermen had fairly good luck yesterday in Princess Bay, but the water is still rough, and the cold wind proved too much of a change for others who wanted to go out. Catches ran from ten to thirty fish to the boat. They were of a good size generally, many of them being big yellowfins.

THE POINT SCORES IN A. A. U. CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Pos.
1. New York A C.	55
2. Irish-American A C.	24
3. Boston A. A.	20
4. Boston Irish Amer. A.A.	16
5. Chicago A. A.	13

WORLD SERIES WILL BEGIN OCTOBER 10

League Champions Will Meet in Seven Game Series Three Days After Close.

During the meeting of the National Commission in Chicago, last Wednesday, it was tentatively agreed to start the world's series on October 10, three days after the date of the major league season. This date will not be effected, no matter whether Boston or New York wins the National League penant.

The Athletics close their season at home on October 7 with the Yankees, while the Giants finish at home with the Phillies, and the Braves close their season on the same date with Brooklyn at Ebbets Field.

In the event that Boston wins the National League pennant it is the intention of the Commission to play a pair of two-game series and two one-game series, provided the world's series runs that far.

As usual the city which will stage the first game of the series will be decided by the toss of a coin.

LINCOLN WAY MEANS BOOM FOR CYCLECAR INDUSTRY

Los Angeles, Cal.—The Los Angeles Examiner remarks in a recent issue that the Lincoln Highway means to California a yearly visit of thousands of people of wealth who have the time and the money to make the trip in their own cars.

"This will mean an addition to our permanent population as well as a wonderful business impulse. It also sounds a new note—the significance of the Lincoln Highway in connection with the cyclecar industry will be tremendous, as it will mean that thousands of people who could not afford the trip in an expensive automobile can make the journey in a manner full of pleasure and at the lowest cost."

WILL PLAY ST. JOSEPH'S.

The Plainfield A. A. baseball team will go to Bound Brook tomorrow afternoon and meet the strong St. Joseph's team of that place. Maiden and Moulton will be the points for the local aggregation, while McFadden and Teeling will work for the home team.

The Seventh Inning Stretch.

It is a simple ceremonial, but impressive, like all manifestations of the soul of a multitude. I need only close my eyes to call up the picture vividly. It is a day of brilliant sunshine, and a great crowd of men is seated in the open air, a crowd made up of all conditions, ages, races, temperaments and states of mind. The crowd has sat there an hour or more, while the afternoon sun has slanted deeper into the west and the shadows have crept across greensward and hard baked clay to the eastern horizon. Then, almost with a single motion—the time may be somewhere between 4 o'clock and 5 o'clock—this multitude of divers minds and tempers rises to its feet and stands silent, while one might count twenty perhaps. Nothing is said. No high priest intones prayer for this vast congregation. Nevertheless, the impulse of 10,000 hearts is obviously focused into a single desire. When you have counted twenty the crowd sinks back to the benches. A half minute at most and the rite is over.—Simeon Strunsky in Atlantic.

Virtue of Peanuts.

The oil of the peanut has a quieting effect on the pneumogastric nerve, the largest nerve supplying the stomach. Many nervous persons who like peanuts and do not know why, like them for this reason. They quiet the nerves of the stomach. These persons should eat a few fresh roasted peanuts after each hearty meal, as many nervous conditions are due to an irritation of the pneumogastric nerve, and the peanut oil acts as a sedative to this nerve. Of course the nuts must be crisp and well chewed and not too many taken. To get the best sedative effect a handful of the hot peanuts should be eaten just before retiring. This presupposes that the powers of elimination are in good repair. The peanut, a member of the pulse family, is nutritious and would clog the system if not eaten correctly, as it is almost equal to meat.—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

HEROISM, TRAGEDY AND STRIKING INCIDENTS OF EUROPE'S BIG WAR

Thrilling Story of Charge Rivaling That of the Famous Light Brigade.

Grim Realities of Battle and Touches of Humor Revealed in the News.

In dispatches to the New York Sun and London Mail, from a point behind the British troops which the censor would not permit him to name, a correspondent describes a British charge which, he avers, excelled that of the famous Light brigade at Balaklava.

"The campaign so far," he says, "appears to have been a series of stubborn, disciplined, tactical retreats tempered with some offensive feats of extraordinary gallantry.

"One of these as it was recounted to me deserves to be put beside the most notable feats of the British army.

"The Ninth lancers seem to have repeated under almost the identical conditions the charge of the Light brigade at Balaklava.

"Since the beginning of the fighting the German artillery has been the bane of our troops during the action at ——, which is close to the Belgian frontier. Terrible havoc had been caused in our ranks by great shells from a battery of eleven guns inside a wood. By the disposal of large quantities of forage the guns had the appearance of small haystacks or something of the kind. Their first fire caused a terrible loss to our men, who approached unsuspectingly.

Like Charge at Balaklava.

"The same guns continued their fire for several hours with continuous effect, and it seemed impossible to silence their fire, when the Ninth lancers made their heroic attempt.

"They rode straight at the guns, debouching into the open and charging under a hail of melinite or lyddite from other German guns.

"I have not been able to get an accurate estimate of the distance they rode, but they reached the guns—heavy guns almost approximating siege guns in size—cut down all the gunners and put the guns out of action. Then, like their prototypes at Balaklava, they rode back and on their return fell in greater numbers still."

"Get the Guns Back!"

Another gallant deed reported by this correspondent was that of Captain F. O. Grenfell of the Ninth lancers. He was hit in both legs and had two fingers shot off at the same time. Almost as he received these wounds a couple of guns posted near by were deprived of their servers, all of whom save one were struck by the bursting of shrapnel. The horses for the guns had been placed under cover.

"We'll get the guns back," cried Grenfell, and at that, with a number of his men, in spite of his wounds, he did manage to harness the guns up and get them away.

Men who took part in the South African campaign say that the hottest firing there was childish compared with that the troops have undergone in Belgium and France.

Scene of Awful Havoc.

A fleeing resident of Chantilly tells how the British with their Maxims cut the uhlans to ribbons. He was leading off a string of horses along the road when he was held up by English soldiers.

"You had better hurry up," said they, "for those blooming Germans are just around the corner."

"I dropped my horses," he said, "and nipped off into the woods like a fox, made my way to my house, lugged off my wife and wrapped up a few belongings in a horse rug. We had a nightmare of adventures.

"We could not get into Paris, so we drove around it to make our way to Dieppe by the railway line. On the road we were again stopped by English soldiers. More soldiers were behind us, and we thought they were English too.

"'No, they are Germans,' said the soldiers. 'Scuttle around that bend, sharp.' Some scuttled, and I saw in a ditch alongside the road a few dozen English soldiers with Maxims showing their noses through the long grass.

"The Germans were a hundred yards or so away when the Maxims let out, slashing men and horses to ribbons. It was a ghastly sight. More Germans were galloping across the fields, and an aeroplane was flying overhead in a circle. It did not seem real at all.

"The English soldiers were firing as hard as they could at the aeroplane, and at the same time the quick firers in the ditch were going full pelt whenever a raiding horseman came along. Behind them artillery was firing, and as the shells tore over our heads the Tommies would cheer and shout out: 'There goes another blooming rocket! Holler, boys!' And you bet they shouted."

Cool Nerve of Belgians.

Stories of the cool nerve of Belgian soldiers under fire are being told everywhere by refugees and correspondents arriving from the battlefield in lower Belgium. The story is told of one volunteer who returned after a skirmish with uhlans and calmly announced, "Well, I killed two." Then as he filled his pipe he added:

"I hit one right there," putting his finger to his forehead. "His helmet went spinning, and I picked it up later and saw the hole my bullet had made."

Clerks, brokers and business men have been turned into fighting devils. The Belgians were not out of their uniforms for days at a time. Sleeping and eating in the trenches when they could, they became veritable vagabonds. Even when catching a few winks of sleep the men lay with their rifles on their arms ready for action.

Machine Guns In Action.

English soldiers from the front tell some wonderful stories about the terrific execution done by their machine guns on the advancing Germans.

"We take up a position on the roadside and wait for them to come," said one of these soldiers. "When they are 200 or 300 yards away we are eager to fire. Says the captain:

"'Wait a bit till I make sure they are not English.'

"He looks through his glasses and then says:

"'Let them have it, boys!'

"Off it goes, and you see fifty or sixty drop. But it makes little difference. Others come on, and then we move our guns."

Use Mirrors as Signals.

Referring to the recent unfavorable news from the East Prussian frontier, a German officer, talking with a war correspondent, said:

"Now we know how the Russians were able to escape our movements. The espionage service which they have organized is enormous. The Russians are informed of everything that is happening in the daytime by spies, who light fires that produce smoke of various colors, as suits their purpose.

"At night they signal with lights. Mirrors are also utilized for signaling when the sun permits. Once we saw a procession of Russians carrying a sacred picture, which picture proved to be painted on a mirror.

"The Russians always escaped when we had succeeded in getting them on dangerous ground."

Sentimental Side Lights.

When the British expeditionary army landed on French soil the natives went wild with joy, and women overwhelmed Tommy Atkins with kisses. A letter received at London by the wife of one of the soldiers at the front declares:

"You would have been jealous if you had seen the women, old and young, kiss us. I was kissed scores of times. The natives went frantic with joy when they saw us. The women screamed with joy as they hugged us. Many wept bitterly and then wiped away the tears and offered us small presents."

Called to military duty, a Paris painter had to leave his wife and four children almost destitute. When he told his wife of the call she said:

"Do thy duty without worrying about us. The city and state and our associations will look after us women and children."

In a letter to her husband the wife inclosed $1 out of $1.20, the total amount of money in her possession.

All of Servia is enthusiastic in regard to the coming campaign for the conquest of territory from the Austrians.

One of the most remarkable features is the ardent enthusiasm displayed by the Servian women. Many of them have taken a pledge not to love a man who has not killed at least one of the enemy.

When Lieutenant St. Aubyn, killed in the Heigoland naval battle, was buried in London his mother sent a wreath bearing the inscription:

"To my darling boy. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you."

A Reuter dispatch from Dieppe says: "A German girl spy was arrested by English soldiers on the bridge over the Oise river at Lacroix. In her possession were the plans of all the roads and bridges around Paris. She appeared to be not more than seventeen years old."

Drunk With Battle Joy.

To the Paris Matin's correspondent at Chartres a colonial infantryman, wounded at Charleroi, told his experiences in the battle.

"We marched with our African comrades against the Prussian guard," he said. "We advanced in bounds amid the humming of bullets, using every bit of cover we could. We felt intoxicated with the joy of battle.

"I couldn't say how long the action lasted. All I remember is that we fired our last shot within fifty yards of the enemy. Then it was the pitiless thrust of cold steel. It would have given us the victory, for, however intrepid and steady are the troops we fight against, there are no soldiers in the world able to resist the Turkos' bayonet charge."

Jews Brave Fighters.

A corporal and two privates of the Black Watch, one of the four highland regiments, all wounded, arriving in London from the front, were surrounded by a crowd and cheered in the west end. The corporal, telling how his regiment fought, said:

"All around us were the dead and dying. Every now and then the German shells burst, and as we peppered away at 'em we sang 'Roamin' in the Gloamin'' and the 'Lass o' Killiekrankie.'"

Somebody in the crowd asked, "What were the Jews doing?"

The highlander replied:

"Their duty. We had three with us, and bonnier and braver lads I don't wish to see. They fought just splendidly."

"Amerikanisher Roast Beef."

William Parker of St. Louis, who arrived in London from Roumania, told of interesting things he had witnessed on his journey. He said:

"When we got to Breslau the mining of the town's approaches was going on, and I had a good look at it. They were digging trenches about three miles outside Breslau and burying horrible looking bombs eleven inches in diameter, row after row, as far as I could see. They seemed to fear a Russian attack.

"From Breslau we had a slow but not uncomfortable trip to Berlin. German officers who spoke enough 'American' to make themselves understood saw to it that we got coffee and food at stations along the way.

"You must know that 'American' is now officially recognized as a language. Signs up everywhere say 'American Spoken Here.' The bill of fare no longer reads 'English roast beef,' but 'Amerikanischer roast beef.' So all along the line it's all American now, not English."

Magic of a German Hair Cut.

H. B. Elgin, Joseph B. Wingsbury and James B. Leslie, all residents of Washington, after being arrested every day in Nuremberg because of their foreign appearance, had their hair clipped and raised small mustaches according to the most approved German fashion.

"We were all arrested, as nearly as I can remember, every day for the first four days," said one of the party, "and each day it was for something different. If we stopped a street car and talked English they had us. One of us who did not know a word of German was copying a steamship advertisement concerning sailing dates one day on the street, thinking to get the information in German and get it translated at our hotel.

"That move 'fixed' him, and a soldier with bayonet and revolver escorted him to headquarters. He couldn't make himself understood and things looked rather blue for a time, but a young German, who had lived in Tampa, Fla., spotted his high crowned American hat, gained entrance to the room and got him off.

"We finally decided to do as most young Germans do, probably because they are all going to war, and have our heads clipped close and raise mustaches. Arrests were not so frequent then."

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers to the Daily Press who are served by the route boys will confer a favor by promptly reporting to the Press office, either in person, by telephone or by mail, any negligence on the part of the route boys. Phone 1300.

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES AT

Leo Zeisel's

222 WEST FRONT STREET.

Next to Proctor's.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

News of Interest in Building World

SEVERAL PERMITS ISSUED THIS WEEK

New Buildings and Alterations Aggregate a Total of $105,200.

With the best portion of the building season a matter of past history, construction activities in this city have received an impetus during the course of the past week, when Inspector T. O. Doane issued six permits calling for the expenditure of $105,200. The permits cover the erection of three dwellings, two stores, the Evergreen avenue schoolhouse, and the making of several alterations to the Astor theatre. The movement of the past week indicates that many of the local building craftsmen will have considerable inside work to do when the colder weather sets in, and sufficient to keep many of them busy until late into the fall.

Just how much further building operations are being planned for this fall cannot be definitely learned at this time, although it is expected that the contracts for the new edifice for the Netherwood Reformed church will be awarded in the course of the near future, as will the contracts for the addition to Marchant Brothers' store on Watchung avenue. Several minor buildings are being planned for various sections of the city, but those in sight are not expected to create any great stir. Work on the proposed Hope chapel gymnasium and the new Y. M. C. A. building will in all probability be taken up early next spring should the improvement in the money market pave the way for these improvements.

The permits granted thus far this month have been very encouraging to local contactors, a total of $118,900 being the aggregate amount to be invested in these improvements. The First ward is as yet without a permit of any kind thus far this month, while the Second ward is leading in the amounts to be expended for new buildings. The permits granted during the course of the week are as noted below.

Second Ward.

The Board of Education has been granted a permit for the erection of a new school which is mentioned in another column. The cost is estimated to be in the vicinity of $80,000.

S. Goldfarb is to erect a one-story cement hollow block structure at 422 East Sixth street, in which provisions will be made for a store and a milk depot. The building will have a frontage of sixteen feet and a depth of forty feet, while the width of the structure in the rear will be fourteen feet. The base course and foundation will be of concrete, while the roofing will be of rubberoid. The estimated cost has been placed at $1,200. George H. Fisher, of Manson place, is the architect, while the contract for both carpentry and mason work has been awarded to Nathan Eskowitch.

Third Ward.

Cohen & Israelsky, a local contracting firm, has been granted a permit to erect a two and a half story dwelling at 1119-1121 West Fifth street, beyond Monroe avenue, and opposite Vail's Grove. The buildings will have concrete base courses and foundations with hemlock frame super-structures, and shingled roofs. Modern steam heating systems are to be installed. The frontage of the dwellings will be twenty-two feet with a depth of twenty-eight feet. The cost of these dwellings has been placed at $2,000 each. W. H. Clum is the architect of both structures. The work will be done by the owners.

Fourth Ward.

Michael Marson is to erect a two and a half story frame dwelling at 1410 West Third street, at a cost of $1,800. The building will be 18 by 26 feet. The base course will be of concrete, with a brick foundation and a hemlock superstructure with a slate roof. A steam heating system is to be installed. W. H. Clum is the architect and Cohen & Israelsky the contractors.

Nathan Lewis is to erect a one-story building at 511 West Third street on the rear of the lot to be used as a bakery shop. The structure is to be of cement hollow blocks, with a base course and foundation of concrete. The structure will have a frontage of twenty-two feet and a depth of fifty-two feet, with a width of twenty-five feet in the rear. The cost has been placed at $2,200.

George H. Fisher, Jr., is the architect, Cormick Caulfied the mason contractor, and Nathan Eskowitz the carpenter contractor. The National Contracting Company is to put in the oven at a cost of $3,000.

A permit has been granted to Morris Abrams and Harry Dreier to make alterations to the Astor theatre at 224 West Second street as noted in another column. The cost of the improvements has been placed at $16,000.

SUPPLY OF CEMENT IS NOW INEXHAUSTIBLE

The United States imports relatively little hydraulic cement, only 84,630 barrels having been imported in 1913, whereas the domestic production in that year was nearly 93,000,000 barrels. There is little or no need to import any cement, for all parts of the country are now fairly well supplied with mills for the manufacture of Portland cement, and the supply of raw materials is practically inexhaustible. A significant feature of the cement industry, however, is the fact that, though only about 80 per cent. of the normal cement-producing capacity of the country is employed at the maximum, there is often an overproduction; yet the exports of hydraulic cement have scarcely exceeded 4,200,000 barrels in any year, this amount being only about 5 per cent. of the total output—not sufficient to take care of the surplus production in a year of great activity.

There seem to be excellent reasons for stimulating the export trade in cement as rapidly as possible, for, although the export of a relatively bulky and low-priced material such as cement does not promise large direct profits to an individual producer, indirectly the creation and maintenance of an export trade should benefit the industry at large through the opportunity afforded of disposing of surplus stocks and thereby tending to maintain steadier prices. Bulletin 599, U. S. Geological Survey.

ACTIVITY IN REALTY REPORTED IN DUNELLEN

With the building conditions of Dunellen keeping apace, the bulk of the activities of the borough has been shifted to the realty field during the course of the past week. Sylvester Teeple has purchased a lot from the Watchung Investment Company through the agency of John P. Fenner. Another vacant lot on Washington avenue has been purchased from the Dunellen Home and Investment Company by Frank Burdick, of New Market.

It is expected that both of these properties will be improved this fall. Other realty transfers include a house and lot on Penfield place being sold by the Watchung Investment Company to John Rhinehart, who will take possession September 15.

Building operations of the borough are holding their own, with practically all of the local building craftsmen being kept busy.

PERMIT GRANTED FOR NEW SCHOOL

New Evergreen Ave. Structure Will Cost Approximately $80,000.

The Plainfield Board of Education has been granted a permit to construct a two-story school building on the north side of Evergreen avenue, in the Second ward. The details of this building were published in the columns of The Daily Press several weeks ago. The estimated cost has been placed at $80,000.

The building, which is to be modern in every detail, is to have a frontage of 182 feet and a depth of eighty-four feet, and will be constructed of brick and hollow tile. The plans were recently passed upon by the State school commissioner, and it is expected that the board will shortly advertise for bids on the work. While it was expected that the influences of the European war would have a tendency to make it impossible to sell the bonds for the new building for some time, the application to Inspector T. O. Doane for a permit to build indicates that the conditions created by the war have been overcome.

How soon actual work on the building is to be started cannot be stated at this time, but it is believed an effort will be made to start at the earliest possible date, as the school is urgently needed. Should a local contractor secure the contracts for the work, it would mean the employment of a large number of Plainfield building craftsmen. Wilder & White, of New York, are the architects.

REALTY TRANSFERS

The following realty transfers from this end of the county have been recorded at the office of the county registrar at Elizabeth:

Katherine Force to Daniel F. Dugan, northeasterly side Richmond street, corner East Sixth street, Plainfield $2,900

Joseph Sterpone to Christina Sterpone, southeasterly side Downer street, 33 feet northeasterly of Martha Harris, Westfield $1

Oscar W. Richardson to John Dughi, westerly side Summit avenue, corner Anna Richardson, Westfield.$1

New York Suburban Land Co. to Anna Ianniello, lots 256-257, block 4, map of N. Y. Suburban Land Co., Garwood $1

Bernard Brynildsen to Halfdan Brynildsen, lot 23, map of Scandia Heights, Westfield $1

William H. Anderson to Kristian Brynildsen, lot 22, same map, Westfield $1

Kristina Brynildsen to Halfdan Brynildsen, same as above $1

William J. Kelly to William J. Kelly, Jr., lots 49-50, block 11, map of Garwood Land and Improvement Co., Garwood $1

Recent realty transfers recorded at the County Clerk's office in New Brunswick, include the following: William B. McLain Realty Co. to Dora Schultz, property at Lincoln Estate, Uiscataway township; William B. McLain Realty Co. to Edward F. Crowley, land at South Plainfield Heights, Piscataway township; Bound Brook Co. to George E. Davis, two lots in Middlesex borough.

—Your "help wanted" ad makes every worth-while work-seeker in the city an applicant for the position.

ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR ASTOR THEATRE

Motion Picture House Will Undergo a Great Many Changes.

As announced exclusively through the columns of The Daily Press, last week, a permit has been issued to Morris Abrams and Harry Dreier to extensively alter the Astor theatre at 224 West Second street, and having an entrance on West Front street. The improvements to this building, which was recently leased for a term of years to Joseph Coven, of Paterson, who also has an option for one year within which he may purchase the proprety, will cost in the vicinity of $16,000.

The plans of the alterations call for changes to the two exit doors on the sides of the main auditorium, the removal of the old picture booth in the rear of that room, in place of which will be constructed another picture and re-winding room. The cement floor is to be removed through the auditorium, and replaced by a wooden sleeper in that room, while the floor of the entrances are to be re-laid in tile.

The auditorium floor is to be lowered to some extent toward the stage, and elevated at the rear, or toward the Front street entrance, giving the floor a much better pitch for photo-play shows. The roof is to be elevated somewhat, as under the old conditions the iron beams of the roof interfered with the pictures. The curtain wall between the Second street lobby and the auditorium is to be taken down and re-built in a new position.

Provision has also been made for an organ loft at the Second street end of the audience, making a unique feature for picture houses in this city. The Front street entrance is to be improved greatly, and the entire building will be re-plastered throughout. Henry B. Hirts, of New York city, and Edward V. French, of this city, are the architects of the improvements. The Meyer Contracting Company, of New York city, has been awarded both the mason and carpenter contracts.

EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR CEMENT MANUFACTURERS

American manufacturers have not yet made the most of their opportunities to establish greater export trade, according to George Otis Smith in Bulletin 599 of the United States Geological Survey. Statistics show that the export of cement from England, German, Belgium, and France not only have been considerably greater than those from the United States, but have borne a much higher ratio to the production in these countries.

The quantity of cement exported by France in recent years is estimated to have reached at least 23 per cent. of her production, and that of Germany about 17 per cent. There are few cement plants in South American countries, and in the past these countries have been supplied mainly from Europe. There is evidently an opportunity now for the cement industry of the United States to secure this trade.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 1200

In the Churches

Baptist.

First Church — Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor — 9:45, Sunday-school and Men's Conference Class; 11:00, preaching; 6:45, C. E. Society meeting; preaching at 7:45.

Park Avenue—Rev. F. Y. Pierce, supply—9:45, Sunday-school; 11 a. m., preaching; 7:45 p. m., preaching.

Seventh-Day Baptist, corner of Central avenue and Fifth street—Pastor, Rev. Edwin Shaw—Preaching service every Sabbath (Saturday) morning at half-past ten o'clock; Sabbath-school at 11:45 a. m., William C. Hubbard, superintendent; Junior Society prayer meeting at 3 p. m., Mrs. Edwin Shaw superintendent; Young People's Christian Endeavor meeting at 4:00 p. m., Miss Mary L. Hunting, president; prayer meeting on Friday at 8 p. m. All are welcome to these services.

Temple—Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor—9:00, prayer meeting; 11:00, preaching; 9:45, Sunday-school; 7:00 C. E. Society services; 7:45, preaching.

Mt. Olive—M. W Vaughan, D. D., pastor—11:00, preaching; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:15, prayer and praise; 8:00, preaching.

Calvary—Rev. D. Y. Campbell, pastor; 11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Shiloh—Rev. Edward Roberts, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Ebenezer Church — East Third and Washington streets—11, preaching; 7:00, B. Y. P. U. meeting; 8:00, preaching.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—Sunday-school at 9:45, preaching at 11:00, Christian Endeavor Society at 6:45 p. m., preaching at 7:45 p. m.

Netherwood Church, Leland avenue — Rev. Edward Ralston, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, preaching; 7:00, Christian Endeavor Society meeting; 7:45, preaching.

Marconnier — Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor — 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, morning service; 7:45, evening service.

German — Craig place and Duer street — Rev. George Hauser, pastor—10:00, Sunday-school; 11 a. m., preaching by the pastor; first Sunday in each month evening service at 7:45 o'clock.

Presbyterian.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, pastor—Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, minister—10:30, morning worship.

Hope Chapel—Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30, preaching; 7:45, preaching; prayer service Wednesday evening at 8.

Warren Chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—11:00 a. m., preaching; 9:45, Sunday-school and Berean Bible class for men, E. E. Parvin, teacher; 7:45, preaching.

Bethel chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00 p. m., preaching.

Episcopal.

Grace Church, East Seventh street—The Reverend E. Vicars Stevenson, rector—Services, 7:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 10:30 a. m., morning prayer, litany and sermon; first Sunday, Holy Communion and sermon; 4:30 p. m., choral evensong; daily at 5 p. m.; Thursday, Saints' Days and Holy Days, 10 a. m., Holy Eucharist.

Holy Cross Church, corner Washington and Mercer avenues—Rev. Charles H. Kues, rector—7:30 a. m., Holy Communion, 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 7:45 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.

Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue and West Fifth street, Rev. Cortlandt H. Mallery, rector—8:00, Holy Eucharist; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, matins and sermon; 7:30 p. m., evensong and sermon by the rector. Fridays and Holy Days Holy Eucharist at 10:00 a. m.

St. Stephen's Church, Netherwood—Service at 11 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, (Holy communion first Sunday of each month); Sunday-school in the Parish House at 9:45. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

St. Mark's Mission for Colored People—Masonic building, St. Mary's avenue—Evensong and sermon Sundays at 8:00 p. m.; Holy Eucharist second Sunday in the month at 9:00 a. m.; Sunday-school in Parish House, Sundays at 10:00 a. m.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school. 11 a. m., preaching; 7:45 p. m., preaching; Epworth League at 7.

Monroe Avenue Church — Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, pastor—8:45, new members class; 10:45, preaching; 9:30, Sunday-school; school; Men's Bible class; 2:30, probation class; 7:00, Epworth League service; 8, preaching; church class Wednesday at 3:30; prayer service at 8:00.

Grace Church — Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor—Sunday-school, 9:45; preaching service, 11 a. m., with probationers' class immediately following; Epworth League at 7:00; preaching service at 7:45.

Mt. Zion A. M. E. — Rev. J. W. P. Collier, pastor—11, preaching; 12:15, class meeting; 6:45, Christian Endeavor Society meeting; 8:00, preaching.

Roman Catholic.

St. Mary's—Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational Church—Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—Preaching at 10:30; Sunday-school at 11:50.

Swedish Pilgrim Church—Rev. Gottfrid Sjoblom, pastor—1030, Sunday-school; 4:30, young people's meeting; 8 p. m., preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00.

Lutheran.

St. Peter's Lutheran—Grove street and Mercer avenue—Rev. Charles E. Moldenke in charge—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30, preaching in English first Sunday in month.

Swedish Lutheran—Grove street and Mercer avenue—Stated supply, Rev. Carl Anderson; service at 8 o'clock.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Babcock Building, 240 West Front street — Services, Sunday-school, 9:45; service at 11 a. m.; Wednesday, 8 p. m.; reading-room open daily from 2 to 5 p. m., except Sundays and legal holidays. Lesson sermon for tomorrow, 'Substance,' Golden text: James 5:16, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

Unitarian.

All Souls, Park Avenue—Services will be resumed on September 13 with preaching at 10:45 a. m., by Rev. H. N. Pfeiffer, who will preach as a candidate during the remainder of the month of September.

New Thought.

First Unity (New Thought) day service at 11 a. m.; abundance services daily at noon, (12); reading-room open from 9 to 6 daily. New York metaphysician in charge.

Not Classified.

Salvation Army—Adjutant and Mrs. Wall, officers in charge—Public services at 10:30 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.; 2:30, Sunday-school; 6:30 Young People's Legion.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—John LeMatty, superintendent — In W. C. T. U. rooms—8:00, gospel service, Sundays and every week night except Wednesdays.

Italian Mission, 409 East Third street, Aurelio R. Mangione, pastor—Morning service, 10:30; Sunday-school, English and Italian, 2:30; evening service, 8 o'clock.

Evona Chapel—3:00 p. m., Sunday-school 7:00, C. E. Society meeting; 8:00 p. m., gospel address.

W. C. T. U.—Madison avenue—4:00 p. m., gospel temperance service.

International Bible Students' Association—Bible Class meets Sunday morning 10:30, for Berean Bible study, at 436 West Fifth street; Wednesday evening 8:00, prayer and testimony, 403 New street; Friday evening, 8:00, study; 436 West Fifth street; all interested in Scripture studies are invited.

INSURANCE SETTLED.

The damage to the house at 307 Madison avenue and owned by John Walsh has been settled for by William A. Woodruff, agent for the insurance company which had the property covered against occasions of that kind.

MR. BUXTON BUYS.

Herbert Buxton, of West Front street, has purchased of William J. Counihan, a residential property on Park avenue, below Ninth street, and will take possession in the near future. The purchase price was not made known.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.

"The Better Way,, at Plainfield Theatre.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

Baseball—Plainfield vs. Police, at Parker Field.

TOMORROW.

Education Day at churches.

MONDAY.

Tax Sale.

First Ward Republican Club.

Borough Schools Open.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

"The Old Homestead" at Plainfield Theatre.

TUESDAY.

Plainfield Schools Open.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

WEDNESDAY.

"Peg o' My Heart" at Plainfield Theatre.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

THURSDAY.

Registration Day for Special Election in Borough.

"Black Patti" at Plainfield Theatre.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

FRIDAY.

Building Trades Council.

Vaudeville at Proctor's.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals for the construction of an extension of about 600 feet of concrete storm sewer connecting with present storm sewer at Duer Street and extending to the N. E. side line of Somerset Street, will be received by the Mayor of the Borough of North Plainfield, N. J., at the Council Rooms, North Plainfield, September 21, 1914, at 8 p. m.

Proposals must be made upon the forms provided and be accompanied by a certified check for One Hundred ($100) Dollars made payable to the order of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield.

Plans and specifications are on file and may be examined; and information and blank forms obtained at the office of the Borough Engineer, No. 149 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

A bond with approved surety in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars will be required of the successful bidder.

CHARLES DOLLIVER,
Borough Clerk.

Dated September 11, 1914.
9-12 16 15

Vote for

The Restoration of Business Confidence and Prosperity.

For Congress of the Fifth District

John H. Capstick

REGULAR REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

Government is the most important business—upon it depends the success of every enterprise. He who has made a success of his own affairs is competent to handle the affairs of the people.

—Paid for by the John H. Capstick Campaign Committee.

ADVERTISED MAIL MATTER

A. E. Hoagland, P. M.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 7, 1914.

MEN—

Mr J E Andrews, A W Mercer ave, Mr Bannett, Mr LeRoy Barrett, Mr C H Bissell, Mr Thomas Brown, Mr William Brown, Mr Osborne Bruce, Mr John Buckelew, Mr Lorey Conger, Mr A L Crane, Mr A J Craig, Mr J F Doty, Dr L Duncan, Mr L J Ellis, Mr S A Force, Mr James M Farley, Mr C B Harris, Mr Humbke, Mr Rudolph Iffinger, Mr W Jobs, Mr M Knight, Mr Lecarter, Mr W McClain, Mr Wm Martin, Mr William Madden, Mr Alfred Miller, Mr Joe Miller, Mr Alfred Morris, Mr J Myrtlee, Mr J E Orchard, Mr E Pye, Mr William T Perry, Plainfield Auto Parts Metal Works, Mr O L Rose, Mr E S Reoer, Mr B Roberts, Mr C E Rushmore, Mr Ernest Sattle, Mr Wm Schooley, Mr C M Spring, Mr George E Truit, Mr Andrew Walsh, Mr G R Wheeler.

WOMEN—

Mrs J Anderson, Mrs M Bailey, Mrs Frank Bell, Mrs J Butler, Mrs A B Collins, Mrs A A Clark, Mrs J Canary, Miss Margaret Cocoran, Mrs George Cooper 2, Mrs Elizabeth Craig, Mrs Veronica Duefes, Maria Di Andrew, Mrs C Doty, Mrs F Frick, Mrs L Fulton, Mrs Chas Geluricks, Mrs Hattie Gilbert, Mrs C Henning, Mrs D Henry, Mrs C Hill, Mr G Hill, Mr J Hill, Miss Lena Mae Jackson, Mrs E Jackson, Mrs M Kline, Mrs I Kummer, Mrs T Kenney, Mrs W Karge, Mrs C Lane, Clara Lentz, Mrs W E Lewis, Mrs T Lindsay, Mrs A Lindow, Mrs H Little, Miss May Lovjoy, Mrs T Lewrig, Mrs Martin, Mrs J Martin, Mrs E MacDonald, Mrs E Miller, Mrs R H Martin, Miss A O'Berg, Mrs James Green Rock, Mrs Thomas Ryley, Miss Mary Louise Roak, Mrs M A Sanderson, Mrs B Sherman, Mrs Mary F Stevenson, Mrs S Staats, Mrs Hyler Taylor, Miss Gertrude Wendell, Miss Helen Wilbee, Mrs W L Wilde, Mrs W C Woodrop, Mrs W W Young.

"Please say advertised.

Houses for sale or to let; choice farms, building lots or factory sites good investment. Quick sale and small profit.

E. BYERS
148 NORTH AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J.

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.

311 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 888-W

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney troubles, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

FLOORS

Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.

GEO. E. WATT
314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

MAKE YOURS A PUBLIC SERVICE STORE

This is the age of service. The rewards of today go to the men who give the most in return.

Translated for you, Mr. Merchant, this means that the customers are certain to patronize the store that will give them what they want when they want it.

Cut prices may bring some trade, but better service will bring more.

This is the age when people are reading the advertising in their daily newspapers because they are finding it a distinct part of the service they expect their newspapers to give.

When a nationally distributed article of merit is advertised in the newspapers a demand for it sets in right away.

People want to see it and, if satisfied, want to buy it.

They are going to turn to the store that lets them know it has the article. That store will be giving them the service they want at that particular moment.

If it is a good article they are going to remember the store where they got it and will come back to that store again.

Co-operate with the manufacturers who come into the newspapers of your town to exploit their goods and you will be building business for yourself.

SET FREE

By H. G. WELLS

Copyright, 1914, by H. G. WELLS

[illegible] ill.

[illegible] standpoint of [illegible] ambitious social [illegible] difficult to under- [illegible] it would be tedious to follow [illegible] events that plunged mankind into the war that fills the histories of the middle decades of the twentieth century.

It must always be remembered that the political structure of the world at that time was everywhere extraordinarily behind the collective intelligence. That is the central fact of that history. For 200 years there had been no great changes in political or legal methods and extensions; the utmost change had been a certain shifting of boundaries and slight readjustments of procedure, while in nearly every other aspect of life there had been fundamental revolutions, gigantic releases and an enormous enlargement of scope and outlook. The absurdities of courts and the indignities of representative parliamentary government, coupled with the opening of vast fields of opportunity in other directions, had withdrawn the best intelligences more and more from public affairs. The ostensible governments of the world in the twentieth century were following in the wake of the ostensible religions. They were ceasing to command the services of any but second rate men. After the middle of the eighteenth century there are no more great ecclesiastics upon the world's memory; after the opening of the twentieth no more statesmen. Everywhere one finds an energetic, ambitious, shortsighted, commonplace type in the seats of authority, blind to the new possibilities and litigiously reliant upon the traditions of the past.

Perhaps the most dangerous of those outworn conditions were the boundaries of the various "sovereign states," and the conception of a general predominance in human affairs on the part of some one particular. The memory of the empires of Rome and Alexander squatted, an unlaid carnivorous ghost, in the human imagination—it bore into the human brain like some [illegible] parasite and filled it with disordered thoughts and violent impulses. For more than a century the French system exhausted its vitality in belligerent convulsions, and then the infection passed to the German speaking peoples, who were the heart and center of Europe, and from them onward to the Slavs. Later ages were to store and neglect the vast insane literature of this obsession, the intricate treaties, the secret agreements, the infinite knowingnesses of the political writer, the cunning refusals to accept plain facts, the strategic devices, the tactical maneuvers, the records of mobilizations and counter mobilizations. It ceased to be credible almost as soon as it ceased to happen, but in the very dawn of the new age their state craftsmen sat with their historical candles burning, and, in spite of strange new reflections and unfamiliar lights and shadows, still wrangling and planning to rearrange the maps of Europe and the world.

It was to become a matter for subtle inquiry how far the millions of men and women outside the world of these specialists sympathized and agreed with their portentious activities. One school of psychologists inclined to minimize this participation, but the balance of evidence goes to show that there were massive responses to these suggestions of the belligerent schemer. Primitive man had been a fiercely combative animal. Innumerable generations had passed the [illegible] lives in tribal warfare, and the [illegible] of tradition, the example of history, the ideals of loyalty and devotion fell in easily enough with the incitements of the international mischief maker. The political ideas of the common man were picked up haphazard, there was practically nothing in such education as he was given that was ever intended to fit him for citizenship as such (that conception only appeared, indeed, with the development of modern state ideas), and it was therefore a comparatively easy matter to fill his vacant mind with the sounds and fury of exasperated suspicion and national aggression.

For example, Barnet describes the London crowd as noisily patriotic when presently his battalion came up from the depot to London to entrain for the French frontier. He tells of children and women and lads and old men cheering and shouting, of the streets and rows hung with the flags of the allied powers, of a real enthusiasm even among the destitute and unemployed. The labor bureaus were now partially transformed into enrollment offices and were centers of hotly patriotic excitement. At every convenient place upon the line on either side of the channel tunnel there were enthusiastic spectators, and the feeling in the regiment, if a little stiffened and darkened by grim anticipations, was none the less warlike.

But all this emotion was the fickle emotion of minds without established ideas. It was with most of them, Barnet says, as it was with himself, a natural response to collective movement and to martial sounds and colors and the exhilarating challenge of vague dangers. And people had been so long oppressed by the threat of and preparation for war that its arrival came with an effect of positive relief.

The plan of campaign of the allies assigned the defense of the lower Meuse to the English, and the troop trains were run direct from the various British depots to the points in the Ardennes where they were intended to intrench themselves.

Most of the documents bearing upon the campaign were destroyed during the war. From the first the scheme of the allies seems to have been confused, but it is highly probable that the formation of an aerial park in this region from which attacks could be made upon the vast industrial plant of the lower Rhine and a flanking raid through Holland upon the German naval establishments at the mouth of the Elbe were integral parts of the original project. Nothing of this was known to such pawns in the game as Barnet and his company, whose business it was to do what they were told by the mysterious intelligences at the direction of things in Paris, to which city the Whitehall staff had also been transferred. From first to last these directing intelligences remained mysterious to the body of the army, veiled under the name of "Orders." There was no Napoleon, no Caesar, to embody enthusiasm. Barnet says: "We talked of them. They are sending us up into Luxemburg. They are going to turn the central European right."

Behind the veil of this vagueness the little group of more or less worthy men which constituted headquarters was beginning to realize the enormity of the thing it was supposed to control.

In the great hall of the war control, whose windows looked out across the Seine to the Trocadero and the palaces of the western quarter, a series of big scale relief maps were laid out upon tables to display the whole seat of war, and the staff officers of the control were continually busy shifting the little blocks which represented the contending troops, as the reports and intelligence came drifting in to the various telegraphic bureaus in the adjacent rooms. In other smaller apartments there were maps of a less detailed sort, upon which, for example, the reports of the British admiralty and of the Slav commanders were recorded as they kept coming to hand. Upon these maps, as upon chessboards, Marshal Dubois, in consultation with General Ward and the Earl of Delhi, was to play the great game for world supremacy against the central European powers. Very probably he had a definite idea of his game; very probably he had a coherent and admirable plan.

But he had reckoned without a proper estimate either of the new strategy of aviation or of the possibilities of atomic energy that Holsten had opened for mankind. While he planned intrenchments and invasions and a frontier war the central European generalship was striking at the eyes and the brain. And while, with a certain diffident hesitation, he developed his gambit that night upon the lines laid down by Napoleon and Moltke, his own scientific corps in a state of mutinous activity was preparing a blow for Berlin. "These old fools!" was the key in which the scientific corps was thinking.

The war control in Paris on the night of July 2 was an impressive display of the paraphernalia of military organization as the first half of the twentieth century understood it. To one human being at least the consulting commanders had the likeness of world wielding gods.

She was a skilled typist, capable of nearly sixty words a minute, and she had been engaged in relay with other similar women to take down orders in duplicate and hand them over to the junior officers in attendance to be forwarded and filed. There had come a lull, and she had been sent out from the dictating room to take the air upon the terrace before the great hall and to eat such scanty refreshment as she had brought with her until her services were required again.

From her position upon the terrace this young woman had a view not only of the wide sweep of the river below her and all the eastward side of Paris from the Arc de Triomphe to St. Cloud, great blocks and masses of black or pale darkness with pink and golden flashes of illumination and endless interlacing bands of dotted lights under a still and starless sky, but also the whole spacious interior of the great hall with its slender pillars and gracious arching and clustering lamps was visible to her. There over a wilderness of tables lay the huge maps, done on so large a scale that one might fancy them small countries. The messengers and attendants went and came perpetually, altering, moving the little pieces that signified hundreds and thousands of men, and the great commander and his two consultants stood amid all these things and near where the fighting was nearest, scheming, directing. They had but to breathe a word and presently away there in the world of reality the punctual myriads moved. Men rose up and went forward and died. The fate of nations lay behind the eyes of these three men. Indeed, they were like gods.

Most godlike of the three was Dubois. It was for him to decide; the others at most might suggest. Her woman's soul went out to this grave, handsome, tall, old man, in passion of instinctive worship.

Once she had taken words of instruction from him direct. She had awaited them in an ecstacy of happiness—and fear—for her exaltation was made terrible by the dread that some error might dishonor her.

She watched him now through the glass with all the unpenetrating minuteness of an impassioned woman's observation.

He said little, she remarked. He looked but little at the maps. The tall Englishman beside him was manifestly troubled by a swarm of ideas, conflicting ideas. He craned his neck at every shifting of the little red, blue, black and yellow pieces on the board and wanted to draw the commander's attention to this and that. Dubois listened, nodded, emitted a word and became still again, brooding like the national eagle.

His eyes were so deeply sunken under his white eyebrows that she could not see them and his mustache overhung the mouth from which those words of decision came. Viard, too, said little. He was a dark man, with a drooping head and melancholy, watchful eyes. He was more intent upon the French right, which was feeling its way now through Alsace to the Rhine. He was, she knew, an old colleague of Dubois. He knew him better, she decided. He trusted him more than this unfamiliar Englishman.

Not to talk, to remain impassive and as far as possible in profile: these were the lessons that old Dubois had mastered years ago. To seem to know all, to betray no surprise, to refuse to hurry—itself a confession of miscalculation, by attention to these simple rules Dubois had built up a steady reputation from the days when he had been a promising junior officer, a still, almost abstracted young man, deliberate but ready. Even then men had looked at him and said, "He will go far." Through fifty years of peace he had never once been found wanting, and at maneuvers his impassive persistence had perplexed and hypnotized and shattered many a more actively intelligent man. Deep in his soul Dubois had hidden his one profound discovery about the modern art of warfare, the key to his career. And this discovery was that nobody knew, that to act, therefore, was to blunder, that to talk was to confess, and that the man who acted slowly and steadfastly and above all silently had the best chance of winning through. Meanwhile one fed the men. Now by this same strategy he hoped to shatter those mysterious unknowns of the central European command. Delhi might talk of a great flank march through Holland with all the British submarines and hydroplanes and torpedo craft pouring up the Rhine in support of it; Viard might crave for brilliance with the motor bicycles, aeroplanes and ski-men among the Swiss mountains, and a sudden swoop upon Vienna; the thing was to listen, and wait for the other side to begin experimenting. It was all experimenting. And meanwhile he remained in profile, with an air of assurance—like a man who sits in an automobile after the chauffeur has had his directions.

And every one about him was the stronger and surer for that quiet face, that air of knowledge and unruffled confidence. The clustering lights threw a score of shadows of him upon the maps, great bunches of him, versions of a commanding presence, lighter or darker, dominated the field and pointed in every direction. Those shadows symbolized his control. When a messenger came from the wireless room to shift this or that piece in the game, to replace under amended reports one central European regiment by a score, to draw back or thrust out or distribute this or that force of the allies, the marshal would turn his head and seem not to see or look and nod slightly as a master nods who approves a pupil's self correction. "Yes, that's better."

How wonderful he was, thought the woman at the window, how wonderful it all was. This was the brain of the western world, this was Olympus with the warring earth at its feet. And he was guiding France, France so long a resentful exile from imperialism, back to her old predominance.

It seemed to her beyond the desert of a woman that she should be privileged to participate.

It is hard to be a woman, full of the stormy impulse to personal devotion, and to have to be impersonal, abstract, exact, punctual. She must control herself.

She gave herself up to fantastic dreams, dreams of the days when the war would be over and victory enthroned. Then perhaps this harshness, this armor, would be put aside and the gods might unbend. Her eyelids drooped.

She roused herself with a start. She became aware that the night outside was no longer still. That there was an excitement down below on the bridge and a running in the street and a flickering of searchlights among the clouds from some high place away beyond the Trocadero, and then the excitement came surging up past her and invaded the hall within.

One of the sentinels from the terrace stood at the upper end of the room gesticulating and shouting something.

And all the world had changed—a kind of throbbing. She couldn't understand. It was as if all the water pipes and concealed machinery and cables of the ways beneath were beating—as pulses beat. And about her blew something like a wind—a wind that was dismay.

Her eyes went to the face of the marshal as a frightened child might look toward its mother.

He was still serene. He was frowning slightly, she thought, but that was natural enough, for the Earl of Delhi, with one hand gauntly gesticulating, had taken him by the arm and was all too manifestly disposed to drag him toward the great door that opened on the terrace. And Viard was hurrying toward the huge windows and doing so in the strangest of attitudes, bent forward and with eyes upturned.

Something up there?

And then it was as if thunder broke overhead.

The sound struck her like a blow.

She crouched together against the masonry and looked up. She saw three black shapes swooping down through the torn clouds, and from a point a little below two of them had already started curling trails of red.

Everything else in her being was paralyzed. She hung through moments that seemed infinities watching those red missiles whirl down toward her.

She felt torn out of the world. There was nothing else in the world but a crimson-purple glare and sound, deafening, all embracing, continuing sound. Every other light had gone out about her, and against this glare hung slanting walls, pirouetting pillars, projecting fragments of cornices and a disorderly flight of huge angular sheets of glass.

She had an impression of a great ball of crimson-purple fire like a maddened living thing that seemed to be whirling about very rapidly amidst a chaos of falling masonry that seemed to be attacking the earth furiously, that seemed to be burrowing into it like a blazing rabbit.

She had all the sensations of waking up out of a dream.

She found she was lying face downward on a bank of mold and that a little rivulet of hot water was running over one foot. She tried to raise herself and found her leg was very painful. She was not clear whether it was night or day nor where she was. She made a second effort, wincing and groaning, and turned over and got into a sitting position and looked about her.

Everything seemed very silent. She was, in fact, in the midst of a vast uproar, but she did not realize this because her hearing had been destroyed.

At first she could not join on what she saw to any previous experience.

She seemed to be in a strange world, a soundless, ruinous world, a world of heaped broken things. And it was lit—and somehow this was more familiar to her mind than any other fact about her—by a flickering, purplish crimson light. Then close to her, rising above a confusion of debris, she recognized the Trocadero. It was changed; something had gone from it, but its outline was unmistakable. It stood out against a streaming, whirling uprush of red lit steam, and with that she recalled Paris and the Seine and the warm, overcast evening and the beautiful luminous organization of the war control.

She drew herself a little way up the slope of earth on which she lay and examined her surroundings with an increasing understanding.

The earth on which she was lying projected like a cape into the river. Quite close to her was a brimming lake of dammed up water, from which these warm rivulets and torrents were trickling. Wisps of vapor came into circling existence a foot or so from its mirror-like surface. Near at hand and reflected exactly in the water was the upper part of a familiar looking stone pillar. On the side of her away from the water the heaped ruins rose steeply in a confused slope up to a glaring crest. Above and reflecting this glare towered pillowed masses of steam rolling swiftly upward to the zenith. It was from this crest that the livid glow that lit the world about her proceeded, and slowly her mind connected this mound with the vanished buildings of the war control.

"Mais!" she whispered and remained with staring eyes quite motionless for a time, crouching close to the warm earth.

Then presently this dim, broken human thing began to look about it again. She began to feel the need of fellowship. She wanted to question, wanted to speak, wanted to relate her experience. And her foot hurt her atrociously. There ought to be an ambulance. A little gust of querulous criticisms blew across her mind. This surely was a disaster! Always after a disaster there should be ambulances and helpers moving about.

She craned her head. There was something there. But everything was so still!

"Monsieur!" she cried. Her ears, she noted, felt queer, and she began to suspect that all was not well with them.

It was terribly lonely in this chaotic strangeness, and perhaps this man—if it was a man, for it was difficult to see—might for all his stillness be merely insensible. He might have been stunned.

The leaping glare beyond sent a ray into his corner and for a moment every little detail was distinct. It was Marshal Dubois. He was lying against a huge slab of the war map. To it there stuck and from it there dangled little wooden objects, symbols of infantry and cavalry and guns as they were disposed upon the frontier. He did not seem to be aware of this at his back, he had an effect of inattention, not indifferent attention, but as if he were thinking.

She could not see the eyes beneath his shaggy brows, but it was evident he frowned. He frowned slightly. He had an air of not wanting to be disturbed. His face still bore that expression of assured confidence, that conviction that if things were left to him France might obey in security.

She did not cry out to him again, but she crept a little nearer. A strange surmise made her eyes dilate. With a painful wrench, she pulled herself up so that she could see completely over the intervening lumps of smashed up masonry. Her hand touched something wet, and after one convulsive movement she became rigid.

(To be continued.)

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer. Aaron, newsdealer.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

Some Cookery Suggestions

GREEN CORN DAINTIES.

THIS favorite vegetable may be prepared in so many different ways and is so delicious in almost any form that it is no wonder it holds a high place in the housewife's favor. For the fastidious the following recipes may be of special value:

Superior Fritters.

Corn Fritters. — Sift one cupful of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one scant teaspoonful of baking powder and one level teaspoonful of sugar together. Stir in two eggs, one cupful of grated corn and milk enough to make a batter that will drop easily from a spoon. Cook in hot fat and place on absorbent paper before serving.

Corn Salad With Mayonnaise.—Take cold boiled corn, cut it from the cob, carefully removing any shreds of silk. Line a salad bowl with small white leaves from the heart of a lettuce head and then heap the corn in the center. Pour the mayonnaise over the whole, being sure to have plenty of it. The toothsomeness of corn as a salad ingredient is just becoming appreciated. Corn alone is better eaten with a mayonnaise than when mixed with other vegetables.

A Dainty Souffle.

Corn Souffles.—Prepare a cream sauce with a rounded teaspoonful each of butter and flour and a cupful of hot milk. Add the beaten yolks of three eggs, a cupful of grated raw corn and seasonings to taste. Fold in the stiff whites of three eggs, turn into individual cases, well buttered, and bake about twenty minutes in a hot oven. These must be served hot in the molds in which baked.

Corn Timbales. — Take one cupful each of grated corn and milk, two whole eggs and one extra yolk, well beaten. Season, turn into buttered timbale molds, place in a pan of hot water and bake about a half hour in a moderate oven. Remove from molds, garnish with bits of truffle and serve with tomato sauce or with Spanish sauce. This latter is a rich white sauce, into which is stirred small cubes cut from the firm pulp of a tomato and diced green peppers.

Anna Thompson

The Doggie Had Come In at Recess.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Dog That Went To School.

"YOU children have heard of Mary's lamb that followed her to school one day," said daddy, "but I wonder if you ever heard of the dog that went to school more than one day?"

"No, daddy," said Evelyn.

"Well," continued daddy, "this little dog's name was Gyp, and he was a funny little skye terrier, with hair all down over his eyes in the funniest fashion you ever saw, and his little black eyes looked through this long, silky hair just as bright as a squirrel's eyes look at you through the leaves.

"You see, Gyp was the playmate of two children, a brother and a sister. Their papa had brought him to them when they were very little, and they had petted him a great deal, and he had always had his own way, and he thought he was quite an important doggie, for doggies are like people—when you make much of them they sort of swell up and look important.

"This little boy and little girl got older, so that it was time for them to start their school days, and the doggie wanted to go too. He couldn't understand why the children should go away and leave him alone, and for the first two or three days the children's mamma kept him shut up in the house, and all went well. Then she forgot about him one, and he followed them to school.

"They saw him once and told him to go home, and they thought he had gone, but he hadn't, and he trotted right into the schoolroom after them. Now, a doggie shouldn't be in a schoolroom any more than Mary's little lamb should. So when the teacher saw him running in and some of the children laughed, for school hadn't started yet, she sent the little boy back home with him, for he wouldn't go alone, and the little boy scolded him all the way home, and he hung his head and looked so ashamed, and the little boy thought he never would do anything like that again.

"But he did it again time after time, and the teacher told the little boy at last that he mustn't take time to go home with the doggie. He must just put him down outside and come back in.

"So the little dog was set down outside. About fifteen minutes after recess the teacher couldn't imagine what the children were laughing at. Suddenly her foot struck something soft and funny under her desk. She screamed and jumped up. And what do you think?

"That doggie had come in at recess, when neither teacher nor anybody else saw him, and crawled under her desk, and what made the children laugh was his funny little hairy face sticking out around a corner to see if he could see his little master and mistress. Of course the teacher sent him home again, but I think she rather liked him, for he was a cunning little fellow."

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

We have had one piece garments of many sorts, and now here are these drawers, which reduce the labor of making to the minimum.

They are dart fitted, so that there is no fullness over the hips, and the leg portions are just comfortably wide. The upper edge and the edges of the opening require to be underfaced, but there are only two short seams to stitch.

In both these views frills are used, in one case lace and in one the material scalloped; but, if liked, hems can be used or just a straight edge finished with scallops with or without the addition of a little embroidered design above.

For the medium size the drawers will require one and one-half yards of material thirty-six inches wide, with two yards of lace or one-half yard of material for the frills, with one and one-half yard of beading.

DRAWERS FOR YOUNG GIRLS.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for misses of sixteen and eighteen years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 3386, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No..... Size.....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JAMES C. HANSEN
DECORATOR
DEALER IN
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS,
VARNISHES, Etc.
141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
Distributor of John W. Masury
& Son's Pure Colors Ready
Mixed Paints, Etc.

805 North Avenue, Telephone 290-W.
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference
6 17 tf

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
108 Depot Park, Manning Building,
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue,
Will be re-opened September 28th.
A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.
MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades.
Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.
General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.
Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

Miss Sarah Palmer
Teacher of Artistic Piano
Playing, Harmony, Musical Form, Analysis, etc.
Studio at the residence of Mrs. Harriott, 713 Watchung avenue, Plainfield. Pupils beginning study before October 1st will receive four extra lessons without charge.
9 12-19-26.

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914.
Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

MISS IRENE DAY
Teacher of Piano
Rooms 409-410, Babcock Building.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991-J

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations,
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

PHONE YOUR ADS

ONE CENT A WORD

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — THE HARBOR IS—BUT SCOOP DOESN'T — BY "HOP"

New Jersey Central One Day EXCURSIONS

Atlantic City
SUNDAY
September 13
$2.50 Leave Clinton Ave., 7.52 a. m.; Grant Ave. 7.55 a. m; Plainfield 7.58 a. m.; Netherwood 8.01 a. m.

SPECIAL SALE F RESH CUT FLOWERS
This evening 6 to 10 P. M.
Roses .....35c to 50c dozen
Carnations .....15c and 25c dozen
Boxes Assorted Flowers, good value, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00
No delivery—cash only.
STANLEY
159 East Front Street
Woodhull & Martin Building

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

Order Now
SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.
Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.
Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.
Charles L. Stanley
Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St.
Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. | Telephone 2331 | Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St.
Tel. 2094 Gramercy

H. DEMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St
Opposite First Baptist Church

DIED.

HARRIS—On September 11, 1914, Alice M., beloved wife of Walter J. Harris and daughter of the late Henry and Mary E. Giles.

Funeral services from her late residence, Linden avenue, Metuchen, N. J., Sunday, September 13, at 2 p. m. Interment at Samptown.

SORENSON—On Saturday, September 12, 1914, Marius, son of Christian and the late Maren Sorenson, aged 44 years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 737 Webster place, on Monday, September 14, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside cemetery.

GARTHWAIT—Suddenly, on Saturday morning, September 12, 1914, Wesley W. Garthwait, in his 37th year.

Services at his late residence, 25 Somerset place, Monday afternoon, September 14, at 3 o'clock.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework, plain cook, good laundress; reference. 1432 West Third street. 9 11 2

REFINED lady would like to share home with lady desiring companionship, or room and board with private family. Address Home, care of Press. 9 11 3

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only; we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Pair gold spectacles, last Sunday evening coming from Warren chapel, either on Watchung of Summit avenues. Reward; return to Press office. 9 12 2

LOST—Grass scythe between Kensington and Putnam avenues or Webster place; reward. Return 327 Berckman street.

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED—White wyandotte pullets; state price. A. Ross, 1405 Watchung avenue. 9 11 3

WANTED—Steam boiler, also plumbing work to trade for automobile work. O. A. R. Motor Co. 9 11 2

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Five passenger Maxwell touring car, 3 new shoes, new gears. Apply No. 80 Franklin avenue, or Tel. No. 2198-R. 9 11 2

BRUSH runabout, good condition; cheap for cash. 156 Westervelt avenue. 9 12 3

HELP WANTED—MALE AND FEMALE.

I HAVE a contract to distribute a million free packages Borax Soap Powder; want reliable men and women to help; $15 weekly. Waverly Brown, 730 N. Franklin, Chicago.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

TEN-ROOM house and barn, all improvements, corner property, large and small fruit, shade trees and flowers; near trolley and station. "Terrace," care Press. 9 11 6

FOR SALE OR RENT—Very attractive modern property in best section of Netherwood; beautiful view; house has eleven rooms, all improvements, sleeping porch, conservatory, tiled bathroom, one and one-quarter acres of grounds in flowering plants, shrubbery and large shade trees. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; telephone 1515. 9 11 3

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

12-ROOM modern house, 1,100 ft. frontage, big barn, two blocks to trolley; had offer of $12,000 three months ago; must close estate, sell for $8,000. W. R. Way, 308 Watchung avenue. 9 10 6

FOR SALE—Three-quarter acre, city water, celiar, $500. Inquire J. T. Vail. 9 11 3

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Singer sewing machine, practically new, $15. 172 East Front street. 9 10 6

AT MURRAY'S Auction Rooms, 32 West Front street, we have just received a large assortment of odds and ends of fine China, crockery and glassware and they are going fast at the prices we ask; also a large variety of good books at 1c each, reduced from 15c and 20c. 9 12 2

FOR SALE—Grapes, at 922 Watchung avenue. Telephone 816-M. 9 10 3

FOR SALE—200 beautiful single comb white leghorn pullets, cheap; will lay next month. Clifford, King street, Fanwood. 9 11 3

FOR SALE—Three horses cheap. City Boarding Stables, 138 East Second street. 9 11 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

THE WALDORF — High-class boarding-house, special diet in connection with regular table if desired; electrical and mineral baths. Rooms, double, single and en suite. Apply Mrs. Velma Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 8 17 1m

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Young man with office experience. Apply in afternoons, O. A. R. Motor Co. 9 11 2

WANTED—Office boy, age 15 to 16 (white). Apply to Box 50, care Press.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl in private family for cooking and assist in general housework, no washing; references required. 512 Stelle avenue, 'phone 1137. 9 9 4

WANTED—Girl for general housework, small family; good wages. 90 Mercer avenue. 9 11 2

WANTED—Good plain cook, white; references. Call evenings, 905 Watchung avenue. 9 11 4

WANTED—white maid for general housework in family of two, good wages to a competent woman; only those with highest references will be considered. 978 Woodland avenue. 9 11 3

WANTED—Girl to assist with housework, with reference. 433 East Seventh street, 'phone 290-W. 9 11 tf

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework, no washing or ironing. Inquire, Tuesday, Sept. 15, of thereafter, 683 West Seventh street; telephone 2521. 9 12 2

WANTED—Cook for family of two. Mrs. Chauncey G. Williams, 210 East Ninth street. 9 12 2

WANTED—Colored laundress and waitress, best references; good wages. 209 East Seventh St. 9 12 3

WANTED—Experienced child's nurse (white); highest personal references required. 1424 Prospect avenue. 9 12 tf

WANTED—20 experienced cooks, good wages; also chambermaids and waitresses and general houseworkers and nurses for children. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 6

WANTED—Experienced children's nurse, wages $30. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 2

WANTED—A young colored girl to assist with upstairs work. Apply at 815 Kensington avenue. 9 11 3

WE require competent millinery makers. Apply to Bonn's 160 East Front street. 9 11 3

AGENTS WANTED.

AGENTS—Sell guaranteed hosiery, 70 per cent. profit; make $10 daily; orders repeat regularly; best agent's seller in existence. International Mills, West Philadelphia, Pa. 8 29 tf-s

WOMEN—Sell guaranteed hosiery to friends and neighbors; 70 per cent. profit; make $10 daily; experience unnecessary. International Mills, Box 4029, West Philadelphia, Pa. 6 27 8oaw-s

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

FOR RENT.

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FOUR rooms to let. 312 New street. 9 3 tf

TO LET—House (5 rooms) 508 West Third street, rent $12. Apply Wilson, 125 Elmwood place. 8 17 tf -m-w-s

TO LET—Two rooms, all improvements, $6 a month. M. Warren, 85 Somerset street. 9 5 6

TO LET—4-room apartment, 262 Grove street. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 9 12 3

TO RENT—12-room house, improvements, furnished or unfurnished; moderate rent in addition to board of owner. Moderate. Press.

5 ROOMS to rent. 303 Central avenue. 9 12 2

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $1[illegible] to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 324 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

4-ROOM flat to let, 309 West Second street; $10 a month. C. J. McDonough, 222 Madison avenue. 9 9 tf

HOUSE, seven rooms, all improvements; corner Lincoln place and Vine street; $22.50 month. Enquire 36 Lincoln place. 9 11 3

FOR RENT—Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 10 6

FURNISHED rooms to let with board. 433 East Seventh street, 'phone 290-W. 9 11 tf

TO LET—Partly furnished apartment, 7 rooms. Apply after 6, 515 West Front street, left bell. 9 10 3

FOR RENT—Fine six-room apartment, all improvements, handsomely decorated, best location; 8 minutes to station. Inquire J. S. Johnston, care Shirley & Johnston. 9 8 5

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

HOUSE for rent, 8 rooms, all improvements, large lot, from Oct. 1; small, desirable family; $22. 'Phone 1880-W. Inquire 710 Leland avenue. 9 11 3

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 1 tf

MODERN house, Woodland avenue corner Park lane, nine rooms, all improvements. Apply to agents or H. A. Bonn, 160 East Front street. 9 5 tf s-tu-th

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

TO LET—Corner flat of five rooms and bath. T. Callahan & Son, 300 Richmond street. 8 6 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 t

TO RENT—for business or living rooms, free until Sept. 1. Write Dr. Stickle, 79 Halsey street, Newark, N. J. 8 11 1mo eod

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. t

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 t

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 t

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

GOOD 8-room houses for rent, all improvements, parquet floors, rent $30 a month; in a fine residential section, Monroe avenue near Eighth street. Inquire J. Nathanson, 820 Monroe avenue; 'phone 1788-W. 9 10 6

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
200 Baskets
Fancy Alberta Peaches
ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.
ALSO
Fine Bartlett Pears
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.
Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.
Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.
R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL.
TELEGRAM, AMERICAN,
BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

An easy way to safeguard against possible destitution is to insure in

Founded by JOHN F. DRYDEN — THE PRUDENTIAL HAS THE STRENGTH OF GIBRALTAR — Pioneer of Industrial Insurance in America

The Prudential

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President

Executor, Administrator

Guardian, Trustee

THE WIFE'S WILL

There is a popular delusion to the effect that when a wife dies without having made a will her husband inherits all her property. This delusion has led to many serious complications, some of which are described in our booklet, "The Wife's Will," a copy of which will be sent you on request.

Our Officers can give you valuable assistance in connection with the drawing of your will and we will hold the document in our vaults without charge.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Real Furniture Values

By careful comparison you will find our stock of really desirable Furniture at such savings in prices as many others have this past month. Our sales have been remarkable, considering the general conditions, showing our goods are right and the prices much the lowest.

Furniture for the Dining Room in fine polish finish or rich dull brown fumed oak, all in the new plain designs. Furniture for the Bed Room in the bird's-eye, mahogany, circassian walnut and oak, in all the new fall designs and finishes.

The New Rugs are Beautiful

We bought early and have all the new patterns and are quite different in designs and colorings, also the plain colors.

Lace Curtains, Nets, Portieres and Couch Covers

As usual, this department is full of the attractive draperies for any window or door in the house.

NEW LINOLEUMS, MATTINGS, COMFORTABLES, TRUNKS

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON

BABCOCK BUILDING PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Test the Value

Of saving by making a deposit each week in the Plainfield Savings Bank.

It will not be long before you find your surplus fund has climbed to considerable proportions.

Your account is invited.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.

ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
H. A. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS.

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL

COKE AND WOOD

Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WE KNOW

that there is a prejudice in the minds of many against buying clothing, hats and shoes on credit. They feel sure they would be overcharged heavily to pay for the accommodation.

This prejudice is founded on the fact that many credit-giving firms conduct their business on the short-sighted basis of charging too much.

We have found by experience that we can meet cash store prices and yet sell on easy terms of credit.

We can demonstrate this to you if you will let us.

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS

J. A. LAURIE & CO

304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Construction of School Building.

The Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., will receive sealed bids at the Board room in the High School Building, corner West Ninth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at a meeting to be held on Monday, September 28, 1914, at 8 p. m., for the construction of a school building on Evergreen Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Plans and specifications are now on file at the High School Building, Plainfield, N. J., where they can be seen from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on week days, excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, until the day and hour of opening the bids as above mentioned.

Plans and specifications are also on file at the offices of the Architects, Wilder & White, 50 Church Street, New York City.

Copies of the Plans and Specifications may be obtained from the architects by depositing with the architects a certified check for $25.00, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., which will be returned upon the return of the drawings and specifications.

The work will be let in four contracts: 1. For the general construction. 2. For the heating and ventilating work. 3. For the plumbing work. 4. For the electrical work. And separate bids will be received on each contract.

All bids are to be on forms furnished with the specifications and accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J. or a surety bond of a company authorized to do business in the State of New Jersey, in the amount of five per cent. of the estimate submitted.

All bids or proposals are to be in writing and sealed, and addressed to the Secretary of the Board. Each bid must state explicitly upon what portion of the work it is based.

Upon receipt of the bids, or proposals, the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce their contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

No bids will be received by the Board previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any or all formalities.

B. VAN D. HEDGES,
Secretary Board of Education.
Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 10, 1914.
9-11 12 14 16 18 21 23 25 28

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

DR. MANDEVILLE

SPECIALIST

565 Broad St., opposite Shubert's Theatre, Newark, N. J.

Twenty years' experience as a specialist on all chronic diseases of MEN AND WOMEN.

Catarrh, Nervous Diseases, Diseases of Heart, Kidneys, Stomach, Liver or Bladder, Rheumatism and all Lung Diseases.

Office Hours Daily: 2 to 4 p. m.; 6 to 8 p. m. Mornings Tuesdays and Fridays, 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Closed all day Saturday.

ADVICE FREE.

Don't Forget Name, Place and Number.

7-24 tu-th-s tf

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, Executors of and Trustees under the Will of Hannah Marsh, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Friday the eighteenth day of September next.

Dated August 15th, 1914.

THOMAS T. COLLARD.
GEORGE E. HALL.

BENJAMIN F. JONES, Proctor.
Fees, $4.20. 8-15-5-S

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscriber, Executrix of Peter V. Weaver, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Friday the twenty-fifth day of September next.

Dated August 21st, 1914

KATE FRAZEE.

Codington & Blatz, Proctors.
8-22-5-S Fees, $4.20

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

The policy of this Company is to offer every modern banking facility consistent with conservative management.

Our Board of Directors is representative, composed as it is, of local as well as New York business men, and it is our aim to give local business needs careful consideration.

We suggest an interview.

SERVICE

The State Trust Company

At the sign of the clock CAPITAL $100,000.00 201 Park Ave.

Advance Fall Styles For Young Men

Get around TOMORROW and see the new ideas in FALL HIGH SHOES we have for you.

The smack of smart style abounds in them, but with the style appeal is a foundation of QUALITY. Superior workmanship and materials will preserve their smart lines to the very last. Ask to see these new ENGLISH MODELS we're showing at

$4.00, $5.00 and $6.00.

Van Arsdale

127 E. Front St.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5:08, 5:40 (5:52, except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22 (7:26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:55 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:30, 8:36, 8:42 (8:59, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m. 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:13, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12 (3:01, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27 (8:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:56, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:44, 10:37, 11:52 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09 (2:15, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 5:57, 7:14, 8:13, 8:27, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27, (7:05 through train to Newark), 7:41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:44, 10:37 a. m., 12:59, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For East Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m.; 2:00, 2:26, 5:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m.; 5:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m.; 2:26, 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19, 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3:41, 8:12, 8:36, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only), (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:01, 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—7:58, 8:52 a. m., (9.40 Red Bank only), 2:15, 3:17, 8:15, 10:21 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 3:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m. 8:28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43 (11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:13, 6:44 (7:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday—5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:39, 10:43, 11:41 a. m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:39 (6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m., 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8:45, 10:43 a. m., 12:42, 2:45 5:44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 6-4-1-

UPHOLSTERING

WINDOW SHADES

AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff

721 W. Fourth St., Tel. 2525-J.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

Hoagland's Express

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.

Telephone 883-W.

Mrs. Olive Roundey

METAPHYSICIAN

132 Crescent Avenue.

New Thought Teachings, Consultations and Interviewss. 8-15-1mo

---

Kelley Springfield Tires

Made to Make Good

Guaranteed Mileage

We Make Our Own Replacements

No Advance in Price

15% Discount

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR CO.

410-416 Sycamore St. :: Plainfield, N. J.

Buy Your Fall Shoes Now

PRICES WILL BE ADVANCED LATER IN THE SEASON

Owing to war conditions prices on shoes are certain to advance from 25 cents to $1.00 a pair.

The advance will not affect the shoes which are on hand, but as soon as these are sold the prices will go up.

This declaration is not made to stimulate trade, (as it would be more profitable for us to hold the shoes we have until prices do go up and then sell at the advance) but rather to let the people know what they may expect and give them an opportunity to buy their fall shoes at the same prices as last year.

Here is what the Shoe Retailer, a Trade Journal published in Boston, the heart of the leather market, has to say: "Tentative advances ranging from 25 cents to 75 cents per pair, according to the grade, have been figured on men's shoes, and proportionate advances will be made on women's shoes."

Henry B. Endicott, one of the largest tanners and manufacturers in the country, has this to say: "No man can tell what the advance may be. It is a sure possibility, and I think a probability, that shoes may be a dollar a pair higher, in fact, as far as I can see, I don't know why we should limit the price to one dollar. It may be more."

In 1913 this country imported $50,288,228 worth of leather from the war affected countries, and exported raw material and finished shoes, $25,504,184. Besides, this country imports all the chemicals and dyes used in the chrome tanning of hides. These supplies are cut off. In addition to this Africa, Australia, South America and the Far East are looking to the United States for their shoes on account of the European factories being closed, and the countries at war will also have to depend on the United States for their footwear supplies, so that it can readily be seen why shoes will advance.

Our fall shoes are here, and will be sold at the old prices as long as they last. After the supply is gone there is no telling what the price will be. Wise buyers will buy their Fall shoes now.

Stuart's Shoe Shop

Footwear for the Family

215 W. Front St. Opp. Proctor's

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons.

ARE YOU GOING AWAY?

If you are, get a Tourist Policy and

DON'T FRET

The coverage is liberal and the Company's treatment of its policy holders is always satisfactory.

The Little Trunk (or a big one) contains more in value than you probably think. Figure it up.

Baggage insurance in our Companies costs very little for Fire, Transportation, Theft and Navigation risks.

J. C. POPE & COMPANY

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING

113 E. FRONT STREET PLAINFIELD, N. J.

tf-s-t

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

Until September 19, the Daily Press will be published on Saturdays at 1 p. m.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and probably Tuesday, not much change in temperature; fresh northeast winds.

Max., 72; min., 46.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

DEATH SUMMONS FATHER MILLER

Beloved Pastor of St. Joseph's Church Succumbs to a Long Illness.

END WAS PEACEFUL

Ordained to Priesthood by Cardinal Gibbons December 17, 1887—Had Served Borough Church for Nearly Twenty-two Years.

Father William H. Miller, for nearly twenty-two years the beloved pastor of St. Joseph's R.C. church, North Plainfield, and one of the best known among the Catholic clergy of the State, passed away at the parish rectory on Manning avenue, at 3:30 o'clock this morning. With Father Miller when the end came was his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller; his sister, Miss Mary R. Miller; his brother, Frank Miller; Sister Felix, of the Bon Secour Order of Nurses; Sister Justina, of Mt. St. Mary College, and Father Poli, who has been the acting pastor of the church during the past few months.

Father Miller's death follows a long illness from complications throughout which he was a patient sufferer. Never did he complain and it was his constant hope that he might recover and be permitted to continue to minister to the faithful parishioners of St. Joseph's church. Everything known to the medical profession was employed for the restoration of health and strength, but without success and the trouble finally reached that point where it was beyond all aid.

Throughout his long residence in the borough, Father Miller held the highest respect and esteem of all who knew him. He succeeded Father John McKernan and from that time he worked hard and faithfully for the upbuilding of his parish, one of his greatest achievements being the erection of the present handsome new church edifice. On December 17, 1912, Father Miller celebrated his silver jubilee, the event being one of great pleasure to both himself and all the members of his parish.

There survives besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, of South Amboy, a sister, Miss Mary R. Miller, and a brother, Frank Miller.

The body of Father Miller will lie in state at St. Joseph's church Wednesday afternoon after 3 o'clock. The funeral will be held at the church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock with a solemn high mass. Father Leahy, of Spring Lake, will be the celebrant; Father Dittrich, of Atlantic City, will be the deacon; Father Daniel Hogan, of Newark, will be the sub-deacon; Father P. J. Petri, of Atlantic City, will deliver the eulogy, and Father John F. Baldwin, of St. Joseph's parish, will be master of ceremonies. Bishop McFaul, of the Trenton diocese, will be present and take part in the service.

Father William H. Miller, rector of St. Joseph's church, was born September 20, 1863, at Perth Amboy. After finishing his studies in the public schools there, he entered St. Francis Xavier's College, New York, where he pursued the classics and higher branches. He then went to Seton Hall College at South Orange, where he studied philosophy and was graduated in the class of 1884. His theological course was made at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception, South Orange, and at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md.

Father Miller was ordained by Cardinal Gibbons in the Baltimore Cathedral, December 17, 1887. Shortly afterward he was appointed assistant to Vicar-General Kelley, at South Amboy. In July, 1889, he was sent to the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Camden, and after two years was sent as assistant to Monsignor O'Grady, pastor of St. Peter's church, New Brunswick. He remained at the latter place until he was appointed pastor of St. Joseph's church, April 17, 1893, by the late Bishop O'Farrell.

During his life Father Miller found time to travel to some extent, visiting Europe and Mexico, as well as the Pacific coast, and he had a fund of knowledge which he was always glad to impart to his callers. He possessed an unusual disposition and was a man of the highest type. Throughout his long residence in the borough he always took a lively interest in affairs there, and he was constantly being sought for counsel and advice by a large circle of acquaintances. He accomplished a great deal for St. Joseph's parish, being privileged to build a handsome new church at a cost of $80,000, upon which there is only a debt of $15,000. He has built up the Sodality and various other societies of the church.

Mrs. Dan Dillon, of Wilson avenue, is stopping at the Marlborough-Blenheim, Atlantic City.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

The late Father Miller.

DID POSTMASTER SLIGHT LABOR MEN?

Building Trades Council Wants to Know Why Postoffice Was Not Decorated.

Members of the Building Trades Council are expressing considerable comment over what they term apparent negligence on the part of Postmaster Alvin E. Hoagland regarding his failure to display the national colors on the postoffice building Labor Day. Representatives of the council are of the opinion that a Government office should have been appropriately decorated on the occasion of the monster labor demonstration here on that day. It is claimed that it has been an old established custom for local postmasters to respect such demonstrations especially when they fall on a holiday.

Inasmuch as the protests lodged have been most insistent, officials of the council have taken active steps to get at the root of the matter and the secretary has been authorized to get into communication with the postmaster general as well as with Mr. Hoagland. In commenting on the subject to a Daily Press reporter, one of the committeemen in charge of the parade said that he took the matter of decorating the local postoffice up with an official sometime prior to the date set for the demonstration and declared that Mr. Hoagland had been given sufficient notice.

Other matters of a routine nature were discussed at the meeting held Friday night and Business Agent William H. Lunger reported that the improvements made to the Astor Theatre building, a structure that has caused the organization much concern, were entirely "fair" to organized labor and that 100 per cent. of the labor was being done by local men. This action was brought about through a conference between Harry Dreier, part owner of the building, and representatives of the council.

Resolutions endorsing the movement which calls upon the shoppers of this country to demand the "Made in America" label, as well as the union label, were passed after some little discussion. Comment relative to local laborers being discriminated against on the public school building at Westfield ensued, but this matter is to be taken up with the Elizabeth Building Trades Council, and it is expected the question will be settled during the course of the present week.

FIGHTERS GET ANOTHER CHANCE WHEN ARRESTED

Admitting that he was too drunk to know what he was doing, Edward Brown was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, charged by Patrolman Sullivan with fighting on East Front street with William Halloway. The latter was arrested last week on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and fined.

Halloway denied being intoxicated but evidence offered by Patrolmen Sullivan and Neylon convinced the court that he was guilty and both defendants were reprimanded. They were given suspended sentences.

—Fancy canning and table peaches, the best Jersey tomatoes for canning purposes, Bartlett pears and plums are among the offerings at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market for tomorrow's trade.—Adv.

MRS. GUSTAVE MENDEL HOME FROM GERMANY

During Sojourn of Fifteen Months Abroad She Experienced Little Trouble.

Mrs. Gustave Mendel, mother of Milton Mendel, of Holly Park, returned from Germany, Saturday evening, after a sojourn abroad of fifteen months. She returned home on the steamer St. Louis, of the American Line, having a delightful trip across the ocean. Despite Mrs. Mendel's age, she being sixty-seven years old, she made the journey alone, visiting Germany, Holland and England.

Mrs. Mendel suffered some inconveniences from the war during a part of her travels, but for the most part got along exceedingly well. During the past three months she was in London, where she found every convenience. She said that the people in London scarcely know that there is a big conflict on between the foreign countries, except for the occasional departure of troops and the moving of artillery. Otherwise everything is going along as usual. Of course, the English people are enthusiastic and display their patriotism. Like every other returning traveler, Mrs. Mendel deplores the awful war and was deeply impressed with the fact that thousands of families will be left without any support by reason of the fact that so many men will be killed.

Mr. Mendel's cousin, Miss Cora Kahn, of Cincinnati, returned from abroad a week ago today, after an exciting experience.

MOTORCYCLE COP HURT WHEN MACHINE SKIDDED

Patrolman Roy E. Martin, of the local police force, is confined to his home on East Third street as the result of injuries sustained when the police department's motorcycle, which he was riding, skidded.

The rider suffered a number of severe cuts and bruises, but will be about again in a few days.

AUTOMOBILE DRIVER HIT ITALIAN BOY ON WHEEL

Thomas Parsons, a chauffeur, was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, charged by an Italian boy with reckless driving. The automobilist hit the youth while he was riding a bicycle in front of the Queen City Hotel.

Evidence in the case indicated that the foreigner was an inexperienced wheel rider and the court concluded that one party was as much to blame as the other.

WOMEN'S TENNIS AT P. C. C.

The women's handicap tournament will be started at the Plainfield Country Club, Saturday, at 10 o'clock. It is open to all club members. Entries close with Miss Barbara Fleming Friday evening at 8 o'clock. 'Phone 638-W.

CHIEF KIELY BACK.

Following a three weeks' vacation spent at nearby points of interest, Chief of Police Kiely resumed his duties at headquarters this morning. During his absence Captain John J. Flynn has been acting as head of the department.

WANTS $100,000 ALLEGING FRAUD

William P. Meeker, of Newark, Brings Action Against G. E. Sovereign.

RESULT OF REALTY DEAL

Complainant Says He Was Persuaded to Give up Property in Newark for Some in Brooklyn to Which Title Was Not Clear.

That William Passmore Meeker was "by fraud and deception and by artful methods" prevailed upon to convey the Meeker building at 192 Market street, Newark, to George E. Sovereign, of East Second street, this city, in exchange for properties owned by Sovereign, is charged in a complaint in a $100,000 damage suit which has been filed in the Supreme Court of the State by Andrew S. Taylor.

The plaintiff alleges that Mr. Sovereign lacked clear title to one of the properties he gave in the trade. Mr. Taylor is bringing the action against Mr. Sovereign in the name of Waldron M. Ward, of Pitney, Hardin & Skinner, Mr. Ward being trustee in bankruptcy for Mr. Meeker.

The complaint sets out that among the properties given by Sovereign in part exchange for the Meeker property was a tract of land in the Borough of Brooklyn, and that its title was defective in these respects:

The property was encumbered by taxes and subject to a $600 mortgage of the Parkville Improvement Company to Robert Ward, Jr., and subject besides to a judgment against the Parkville Improvement Company, held by Frederick W. Jones, for more than $1,100.

The premises were further encumbered by a one-thirty-second outstanding interest, and also the "Dongan Charter," so-called, granted by one of the Colonial Governors, by virtue of which the State of New York is alleged to have such rights in the premises as to make it impossible for Sovereign to convey them "by deed of warranty or by any other deed so as to vest the fee in the said William Meeker."

The complaint charges also that certain houses in Westfield which figured in the deal were appraised by Sovereign for "very much more than their true value," and that there was no equity whatever in the Westfield property. The same charge is made relative to certain properties in North Plainfield, on which Sovereign is alleged to have put a value of $17,500, and which were subject to encumbrances aggregating $15,000 leaving an alleged equity of $2,500. There was no equity at all in the North Plainfield properties, the complaint states.

MISS BLENDINGER TO MARRY H. W. SCHAEFER

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Blendinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lawrence Blendinger, of this city, and Herbert W. Schaefer, of New York, will take place at the home of the bride's parents on Tuesday evening September 22. Miss Blendinger is prominent in the younger society set. Mr. Schaefer is a graduate of Syracuse University, and is governor of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity Club, of Newark. He is a member of Squadron A and the West Side Clubs. Both Miss Blendinger and Mr. Schaefer were members of the bridal party at the wedding of Miss Frances Zelie to Birney B. Pettigrue in 1913.

DR. SAUNDERS ANNOUNCES CONSOLIDATION COMMITTEE

Former Mayor William L. Saunders, chairman of the consolidation committee of the borough, has appointed the following sub-committee of twelve to arrange for any further meetings which may be necessary to discuss the question which is to be voted upon at the special election to be held September 24.

Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., L. B. Woolston, W. J. Conroy, John M. Lewin, Arthur A. Cannon, George T. Rogers, Samuel Townsend, Henry A. McGee, John P. Emmons, Dr. H. K. Carroll, J. V. E. Vanderhoef, Cormick McDonough, John I. Bower, Edgar Shepard, Allan Coddington and B. A. Paroubek. Plans as arranged by this committee will be announced later.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 63 degrees; 11 a. m., 72 degrees; 1 p. m., 76 degrees.

FRENCH HAVE 500,000 FRESH TROOPS TO PURSUE ROUTED GERMAN ARMY; RUSSIAN RETREAT AT KOENIGSBERG

Germans Abandon Natural Route of Retreat in France and Now Have Only One Line of Communication Left--Are Reported to Have Released Russian Prisoners Because Money Has Given Out--Marne Battle Greatest in the World's History--Confirm Presence of Russian Army in Belgium.

REV. DR. C. A. EATON FAVORS THE ALLIES

Declares They Are Fighting Battle of Democracy Against Germany.

Dr. Charles A. Eaton, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church New York, in his sermon last night on "America and the War" said:

"Things that formerly seemed to be of importance have dwindled into insignificance. The war will arouse our sleeping conscience, will drive formalism and hypocrisy from our religion, universalize our political views and give us an undisputed place of moral influence among the nations of the world. But first we are learning that hate and barbarism are not impossible to civilized countries and that religion has not had the influence we thought it had."

Dr. Eaton, in speaking of America's sympathies, said that citizens of this country were against the German government and for the allies "not from racial or selfish considerations, but because of the deepest convictions and sentiments in our national life." He said:

"It is a question of democracy being imperilled. We believe that the people should carry the burden of government. The allies are fighting the battle of democracy. We are interested in the general uplift and advance of mankind and we believe that further progress cannot be possible until the burden of militarism is removed.

"This war will make America the moral arbiter of the world, the champion of democracy, the exemplar of spiritual authority and the supreme advocate of peace. Whatever our commercial loss, whatever our suffering, we can well afford to make the sacrifice in order to attain such a position of leadership."

INFORMATION REGARDING REGISTRATION OF PUPILS

Parents having pupils entering or returning to public schools this year, are notified that all schools will be opened tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock to receive the registration of both new and old pupils.

Application for registration should be made at the school building nearest the residence of the pupil, unless other arrangements have been made previously with the school authorities.

The High School is open for registration today and application for entry of pupils should be made to Principal Best.

BOROUGH COURT NOTES.

Frank Carroll, of the borough, was picked up at 1 o'clock yesterday morning by Marshal Pope in a helpless intoxicated condition on one of the North Plainfield thoroughfares. Arraigned before Recorder Fred Hand in the borough court, this morning, a fine of $5 was imposed. Fred Jackson, of Westfield, was also arraigned on the charge of being helplessly drunk, but sentence was suspended as this was his first time before the court.

BEATRICE E. FEIRING.

Beatrice E. Feiring, aged ten years, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Feiring, of 304 Central avenue, died yesterday from heart trouble, after a short illness. Beside the parents, the child is survived by one sister, Miss Dorothy, and two brothers, Russell and Louis Feising. The funeral services will be held Wednesday morning.

London, Sept. 14, (Central News Cable)—A message from Paris to the Times says:

"The General in command in Paris has 500,000 fresh troops under his control which will be used, presumably in persuing the enemy."

News that the German forces from Pont a Mousson to St. Die are falling back show that the five German armies are in retreat. The Germans appear to be abondoning their natural route, the valley of the Dise, endeavoring to draw further eastward to the barren and difficult country of the Champagne, where the roads are poor and provisions scant. Beyond is the forest of Ardenne and to the east the wooded and clayey ridges of the forest of Argonne, as formidable a barrier to progress as any that could be had. Beyond the Meuse, most of the bridges of which will be destroyed. They have actually abandoned the Oise valley.

The German lines of communication are reduced to one passing by Givet, Namur and Liege. The other passages, Mezieres, Montmedy and Luxemburg, the next line to the south, is commanded by the guns at Verdun.

A despatch from Petrograd says that 2,500 Russians have arrived by way of Finland. They were captured by the Germans in East Prussia and were liberated, they state, because the German exchequer is exhausted.

The Russian government has rushed a commission of engineers to the recently occupied town of St. Pui, in Galicia, to study the best means for utilizing the Austrian petroleum supply to meet the shortage of naphtha in Russia.

A panic is reported from Vienna. The Servians have captured Semlin, while the Russians are triumphantly advancing 400,000 strong. The unemployed are parading in Vienna. The military stores are insufficient and as there are no uniforms the third levy reservists are joining the troops in Galicia in civilian attore.

Premier Asquith's statement to Parliament on the intention of the government in regard to the Irish Home Rule bill and the Welsh distablishment measure will be made tomorrow.

Petrograd, Sept. 14, (Central News Cable)—The Russians have been compelled to retreat from the vicinity of Koenigsberg. This official statement was issued today:

"Generalissimo Grand Duke Nicholas communicates the following: 'Our rapid movement in East Prussia has been retarded owing to the necessity of giving our main attention to striking in Galicia, consequently the army of Gen. Rennenkampff has suspended its march on Gerdauen, 39 miles southeast of Koenigsberg. On Sept. 7, the German troops began a general offensive movement against this army and a spreading movement in the direction of their southern frontier. It was difficult to estimate the number of Germans engaged owing to the open nature of the country, but the deep overflowing movement against the left wing of Gen. Reennenkampff was revealed on September 10. We were forced to retreat on the following day in order to hinder the enemy's offensive operations, which soon showed the Germans to have a greatly superior force. The fighting, however, continues on this front."

Washington, Sept. 14.—The French Embassy received a despatch from the foreign office at Bordeaux confirming previous reports of the sweeping victories of the Allies. The Germans are reported to be everywhere falling back. The despatch reads:

"Gen. Joffre tells the government that our victory is becoming more and more complete and brilliant. The enemy is in full retreat and is abandoning prisoners, wounded, guns and ammunition. The army is pursuing the enemy in a way unparalled by its extent and intensity. At our left we have crossed the river Aisne below Soissons, Daccarat, Luneville and Renezenville. In Galicia a battle begun seventeen days ago ended with a great Russian victory. The Austrians are withdrawing all along the front."

Bordeaux, Sept. 14, (Central News Cable)—The battle of the Marne was the greatest in history. On this battle line alone more than 2,000,000 men were engaged, of whom 1,780,000 were infantrymen, cavalrymen and artillerymen. The three armies commanded by the German Crown Prince on this line numbered 840,000 men. It would appear from these figures which are the war office estimates, that the Germans were outnumbered by approximately 400,000.

Antwerp, Sept. 14—(From Charles Hudson, special correspondent of the Central News)—Hofstadt today is desert-

(Continued on page 7)

SHOE DEPARTMENT

Corner West Front and Madison Ave.

Children's School Shoes

For best kinds of Children's Shoes—for Shoes that afford most comfort to the growing foot—for Shoes that have good looks as well as good wearing qualities.

FOR SHOES

at the popular prices we are showing

WE ARE SURE

you can't fill the school Shoe needs near as well as here. Come and examine these Shoes and you'll readily agree with us that this is the right Shoe Store to buy Children's Shoes.

NOTICE THE GUESSING CONTEST

See the Pumpkin in the Shoe Store Window

and guess how many seeds there are in this pumpkin.

For the nearest guess we will give a $5.00 pair of shoes.

For the second nearest guess we will give a $4.00 pair of shoes.

For the third nearest guess we will give a $3.00 pair of shoes.

It costs you nothing to guess—simply leave your guess with name and address at the Shoe Department.

Contest continues until October 26th, when the pumpkin will be opened and seeds counted in the window by three disinterested parties.

Note—None of our employes will be eligible to a guess.

New Millinery

We are Now Showing

We have assembled a number of very pretty hats—all breathing newness and novelty. All adaptations of most exclusive models from the great fashion centres. For good styles, individuality and becomingness we believe you can do better here than elsewhere.

Last but not least our moderate prices are a special inducement.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S&H Green Trading Stamps

Fruit Jars and everything necessary for preserving on sale in the Basement.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

RETURN FROM TRIP.

Postmaster and Mrs. Henry S. Garretson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, of Lincoln avenue, have returned from a week's trip to Boston, Portland and Atlantic City. Two days were spent at the latter place and while there Postmaster Garretson attended the annual Presidental Postmasters Convention.

MAYOR RETURNS HOME.

Mayor and Mrs. E. B. Latham and sons, Earl and Samuel, returned on Friday evening from an automobile trip to Marlboro, Mass., where they passed a week. It took them two days to make the trip each way.

Frank Hannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hannon, of Front street, is spending two weeks with a brother, Harry Hannon, at Belvidere.

William De Roner and son, Richard F., of Three Bridges, spent Saturday in the borough as guests of Mr. De Roner's sister Mrs. E. B. Smith, of Front street.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETING.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Alvah Gray, of Washington avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It is requested that members bring their summer offering envelopes to this meeting.

W. C. T. U. MEETINGS.

The W. C. T. U. will resume their meetings at the home of Mrs. J. L. Manning, on Washington avenue, this coming Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. William Stone, of New York city, who has been spending a week in the borough as the guest of Mrs. Albert J. Meyers, of Washington avenue, has returned home.

Walter Stryker, proprietor of the Stryker Garage, has rented the new Dr. M. J. Whitford bungalow on Whittier avenue.

The household effects of Charles Smith and family have been moved by William Kramer from Front street into the new house of Mr Smith's on Columbia street.

Clarence De Roner, of Front street, who has been ill with boils for the past two weeks, returned to his duties at the car-barns today.

Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of Trenton, is spending a week in the borough as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Weimer Snyder, of Front street.

Miss Gertrude Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Day, of Dunellen avenue, has returned home from a visit with her grandmother, in Brooklyn.

Mrs. S. C. Dutcher, of Newark, is visiting her baby daughter, Aurellia, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Arnold, on Dunellen avenue.

TROLLEY AND WAGON COLLIDE.

A horse and rig owned by Henry Wiedenhaupt, of Madison avenue, backed into a trolley car Saturday afternoon, breaking one of the rear wheels of the carriage. Miss Anna Wiedenhaupt had driven downtown with a Miss Keogh who is visiting at her home. Miss Wiedenhaupt left the carriage with Miss Keogh in it, standing in front of Pinza's, while she went into the postoffice. Just as the quarter to two car from Plainfield, which had stopped at the postoffice to let off passengers, started up the horse, a little scared, mounted the sidewalk. Miss Keogh pulled so hard at the reins in backing the horse up that she backed the rig into the slowly moving car, the left rear wheel of the carriage hitting the front step of the car.

Miss Elsie Goodwin, of New York city, visited her sister, Mrs. Grace Gangloff, of Greenbrook road, over the week-end.

GIVES LINE GRADE.

Borough Engineer Churchill and force gave line and grade on Saturday afternoon, for concrete sidewalks to be laid in front of the bungalows that Contractor Raymond M. Whitford has just completed erecting for the Equator Realty Company on First street.

Charles B. Lake, of Jersey City was a week-end visitor in the borough.

Arthur W. Gangloff, of New York city, was entertained by Borough Engineer and Mrs. Lewis T. Churchill over the week-end.

Joseph Goff, of Front street, has returned from Trenton, where he passed two weeks as the guest of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Johnson.

PATRICK DONOVAN ARRESTED.

Patrick Donovan, of Rock avenue, Plainfield, was arrested by Marshal Patrick Tarpey in front of Taylor's Hotel on Saturday evening, in a helpless condition. By morning the effects of "remaining too long at the cup" had worn off and he was given a hearing before Recorder David S. Campbell. The recorder gave him a suspended sentence.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Gaston, of Front street, were out of town visitors over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Giddes, of Port Richmond, S. I., who have been spending a week or so in the borough at the home of Mr. Giddes' mother, Mrs. Joel C. Giddes, of Lincoln avenue, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowrie, of Jackson avenue, have returned from a week's visit at Shippendale, Pa., with Mrs. Lowrie's parents.

FUNERAL OF MISS VAIL.

The funeral services of Miss Nellie Vail, held yesterday afternoon at the late home on Dunellen avenue, were so largely attended that a good many of those in attendance were obliged to stand out of doors while the services were in progress. The services were in charge of the Rev. E. R. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church. There was no music, the family desiring none. The floral contributions were many. Interment was at Bound Brook.

AWARDS CONTRACT.

The Standard Investment Company has awarded C. Lester Rule the contract of erecting a store in the 12 foot alleyway between the L. L. Block building, occupied by the National Beef Company, and the building in which Marien's drug store is located. It is rumored that this store will be rented by one Israel Shapiro, of Bloomfield, who will run a newsstand.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dildine, of Prospect avenue, have returned from a visit at Mauch Chunk.

Mrs. Earle M. Jones, of Prospect avenue, has returned from a week's visit at Philadelphia.

Friendship Council meets this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Sumner Smith, of Grove street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edward Waddell, Sr., and Mrs. Edward Ford, all of Brooklyn, on Sunday.

The Board of Education meets in the Whittier School tomorrow evening.

Miss Grace Reilly, of Richmond Hill, who has been spending the greater part of the summer at the Ellsworth on Grove street, has returned to Fort Lee College.

Miss Bessie Morris, of Dunellen avenue, has returned from a two weeks' visit at Bensonhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Leander T. Stryker, of Bound Brook, spent yesterday in the borough as guests of Recorder David S. Campbell. Mr. Stryker was formerly proprietor of the Pennington Post.

REGISTRATION FIGURES.

The number of voters registered to date in the First district are 361 and in the Second 236, making a total of 597 against 599, the final revision of last year. It is thought that there will be well over 600 voters registered at the final revision this year

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

There were sixteen candidates out at the initial practice of the Monarch football eleven on Maurer Oval, Saturday. The annual election resulted in Allen Frederick being re-elected manager and "Pud" Maurer succeeding George Martin as captain.

EDWARD DIX IMPROVED.

The condition of Edward Dix, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dix, of Prospect avenue, New Market, is improved. He is at present lying in the Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, as the result of the accident in which he was knocked off of his bicycle by an automobile driven by Fred Von Minden, son of Judge and Mrs. Rene F. P. Von Minden, sustaining a fractured jaw. The swelling about his face has subsided somewhat. He is not, however, out of danger. He is still unable to close his jaws and the fracture and the bruises, cuts, etc., sustained are still causing him considerable pain. The doctors, not being able to ascertain the extent or the exact location of the fracture, took an X-ray photograph of his jaw yesterday.

ENJOYED CAMP LIFE.

The members of Camp O. I. C. U. R. M. T. opened up their cottage at Dunbar Villa, Midland Beach, Friday, September 4, for one of the best times of the season, closing up on Labor Day night for this year. C. L. Wahl, Jr., as chairman of the club, left nothing undone for a good time and was assisted by Bob. Fern and Kasper Fuchs. Al. Wareing lived up to his title as chef by putting before the campers some of the best meals in camp life. Mr. Wareing was assisted by Kasper Fuchs, as well as the young women of the camp. Miss Frances Wareing, Miss Ethel Feigel and George Vliet as a committee on social arrangements were the life of the camp. These programs were changed twice daily and Ethel Feigel, Alice Curtain and Frances Campbell were the stars of the camp stage. The members of Camp O. I. C. U. R. M. T. are as follows: Misses Sadie Hynes, Helen Wareing, Annette Hynes and Al Wareing, Francis Wareing, the Misses Ethel Feigel and Alice Curtain, of New York, George Frick, of Brooklyn; Miss Lou Killeen and Charles A. Chabot, of Worcester, Mass.; Bob. Fern, George Vliet, Kasper Fuchs, Miss Nellie Wahl, Miss Mae Wahl and Lewis Wahl, Jr., of Dunellen; George Baldwin, of Scotch Plains; Joe and Benjamin Dale, of New York. Chaperone for Saturday, Mrs. W. E. Wareing, New York; chaperones for Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Fuchs, of Dunellen; chaperones for Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vliet, of Dunellen. The campers entertained Miss Mae Edwards and Ben. Gill, of Scranton, Pa., over Labor Day, and Miss Ethel Biles, of Port Richmond, Staten Island.

The Piscataway Board of Education will meet in the New Market school tomorrow evening.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Several hundred people gathered at the Parish House, Saturday afternoon, to listen to an address by the Rev. J. Madison Hare, pastor of the Baptist church, who spoke on the American flag from its inception a hundred years ago. The three local Boy Scout patrols saluted the flag and "My Country 'Tis of Thee" was sung by the whole assemblage.

Nearly all of the members of the local Board of Education and the greater part of the school children of the 'Plains and borough gathered in the Baptist church, yesterday, at the morning service when the pastor, the Rev. J. Madison Hare, preached a special sermon on the opening of the local schools for the fall term. It has been his habit at all of his previous parishes to devote one Sunday each year to this subject. He is keenly interested in children and their welfare. The other services were the same as usual.

Dr. H. K. Carroll conducted the usual services in the Methodist church yesterday.

Superintendent Sisseron conducted the services in the Willow Grove chapel yesterday for the first time since last spring, before he left for his summer vacation.

The meetings of the Lend-a-Hand Society of the Baptist church have been resumed again, after being discontinued during the summer months. The first meeting was held last Friday.

The regular services were conducted in the All Saints' Episcopal church yesterday by the Rev. George H. Houghton Butler.

A meeting of the borough Board of Health is scheduled for this evening in the Fanwood fire-house.

The monthly meeting of the Fanwood Fire Company for September will be held in the fire-house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Mary Thomae has returned to her home in Dunellen, after visiting her cousin, Miss Rose Thomae, of North avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Hoesen have returned to their home in Plainfield, after visiting Mr. Van Hoesen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Van Hoesen, of the borough.

The Misses Scudder have returned to their home in Willow Grove, after visiting relatives in Hackettstown N. J.

Robert Meggy, of New York, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr and Mrs. R. G. Meggy, of North avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henderson, of Scotch Plains, left today for a several weeks' stay at Raquet Lake, N. Y.

Raymond Ross has returned to his home in Astoria, L. I., after spending the past week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Alberts, of Westfield avenue.

Clarence Bettman, of New York spent the week-end with George B. Spearin, of the borough.

Mrs. E. J. Reeder of Martine avenue, has returned from spending the past week at Beach Haven, N. J.

All of the committees for the coming sale of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church have been formed and are completing plans for what they expect to be the most successful of any previous one. It will be held in the church near the last of the month.

Westfield.

Social services were held yesterday at the Methodist Episcopal church in recognition of Educational Day. Superintendent of Schools Lynn made an address, as did also W. A. Dempsey, president of the Board of Education.

J. W. Knox Clark, who is in charge of the work of the Union County Mosquito Commission in this section, reports that the town is free from mosquitoes and that there are no breeding places in the town. The Commission is to commence this week to raise the dam at Echo Lake and flood the low spots at the head of the lake to do away with the breeding places there.

Bound Brook.

The annual meeting of the Bound Brook Republican Club will be held in Ivy Hall this evening, when officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and a smoker will be given by the club. All Republicans are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Campbell entertained about thirty-five of their friends and neighbors at their home on Bound Brook road on Saturday night, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sturgeon, of Philadelphia. Games, music and refreshments were features. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Conover, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. James V. R. Polhemus, Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Smith Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knee, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Naylor, Misses Gladys Major, Harriet and Elizabeth Polhemus, Mary and Lillie Harris, Messrs. John Sebring, Jr., Benjamin H. Giles.

William H. Frank and family, formerly residents of this place, are again residing here having removed from Fruitland, N. Y., to the Paul Hanke house, on Maple avenue, last week.

William B. R. Mason, manager of the Bound Brook Water Company, with Mrs. Mason, was in Boston last week, attending the thirty-third annual convention of the New England Water Works Association.

The following instructors have been engaged for the Bound Brook public schools for the coming year: Supervising principal, Gains Hoffman; Washington School, principal, George M. Green; history, Katherine B. Van Dyck; latin, algebra, Emma Undrity; English, Elizabeth Zahner, German, French, Katherine B. Rogers, commercial, M. Earle Strevig, science and mathematics; Susanne S. Hartman, Grace I. Kurtz, Lula I. Breisch, Caroline M. Mann, Elizabeth Rawcliffe, M. Verna Hooves, Elizabeth Ferguson. Lafayette School—Robert P. Marsh, Anna B. McIntosh, Florence E. Elliott Maude Walsh, Ada Collins, Vera M. Crist, Sophia Haek, Jessie Glenger, Lillian M. Hall, Anita Johnston, Florence Bagnall, Martha Fraleigh, Beulah Englar, Ella Sheehan, Clara J. Johnson, Hortense Clark, Ruth Webb, Ethel L. Murray Lillian T. Smith, Anne Maine, kindergarten; Olga Clarkson, assistant kindergarten; Susan J. Corson, kindergarten; Florence Ondycke, assistant kindergarten; Jean Webb, penmanship and drawing.

German Valley. and Chester

J. W. Shaw, of Kingston, and Miss Matilda Wilson, of Philadelphia, are visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Charles S Swackhamer, of German Valley.

Mrs. Mary Gillen, of German Valley, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heaney, of New York.

Miss Margaret Swackhamer, of German Valley, has concluded a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson, of Kingston.

Miss Linnet V. Beams, of Chester, returned to the Trenton Normal School today.

George Burr, of Dover, was a recent visitor to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Burr, of Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Croot and Miss Ethel Croot, of Chester, have concluded a visit in Middletown, Conn.

The Board of Registration of Chester township has completed its house-to-house canvass and has found 417 voters two more than last year.

Watchung.

About eighty members of the Young Men's League and Young Women's Association, of the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York, were entertained by their pastor, Rev. Dr. Eaton, Saturday afternoon at Sunbright Farms. The afternoon was pleasantly spent by the young people in following different pursuits and in the evening a "corn roast" was enjoyed.

Rev. Dr. Edward G. Read officiated at the communion service yesterday morning, in the Mary E. Wilson Memorial Union church. In the evening Harold W. Schenck had charge, his topic being "Come Unto Me and Rest."

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Schmidt, of Sterling boulevard have been entertaining Miss Jennie Read, of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith are entertaining Charles Keller, of Poughkeepsie, at their home on Woodledge road.

Frank E. Burd, the new principal of the Watchung School, arrived from his home at Quakertown, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kennedy are entertaining Mr. Kennedy's brother and family at their home on Woodledge road. Mr. Kennedy recently returned from Albania, where he has been a missionary for some time.

Joseph Krist, of New York city, visited friends here yesterday.

Miss Clara I. Harris, one of the teachers here, returned from her home at Giradsville, Pa., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Kingman and son, William, of Hillcrest road, have been visiting friends in New York city.

Somerville

J. Edgar Griggs, Dr. George V. W. Veorhees and Barney Levin have returned from the State convention of Elks, at Long Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weill returned to their home Saturday after a short stay at Northport, L. I.

Miss Bess Lindquist is spending a two weeks' vacation at Harvey Cedars.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Randolph Vanderveer returned Saturday from a short vacation at Allenhurst.

Gilbert S. Griggs returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation at Camp Onaway, Lake Hopatcong.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Cary returned Saturday from a short visit to Mrs. John W. Apgar, of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cron returned Saturday from Toronto and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. VanDorn, of Washington, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Houston Brown and son are spending a two weeks' vacation at Avon.

Mr. and Mrs. William McClure are spending a week's vacation at Atlantic City.

Miss Bertha Messler, of Andover, has been spending a week with Miss Edith Messler.

William P. Snyder and family returned home Saturday from Manasquan, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. Minnie M. VanDerveer, of Allenhurst, returned Saturday from a short stay with her mother, Mrs. Daniel R. Kenyon.

Mrs. George Anton returned home Saturday after a two weeks' visit in Cambridge to her sons, Charles and Edward Kenyon.

Mrs. Frank Drobuy and children, Miss Marjorie and Cornelius Drobuy, have returned from Bangor, Me.

Mrs. John H. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. John Huber are at Niagara Falls.

Miss Elizabeth Tunison and Miss

STYLISH RELIABLE

SR

Correct Dress for Men

YOUNG MEN AND BOYS

We are now showing an extraordinary line of Suits, Overcoats and Balmacaans

FOR THE FALL AND WINTER

The presentation consists of every new idea, fabric and coloring, priced at the lowest figure consistent with good quality and fashion.

Everything new and up to the minute for style.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's.

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (Colors)—Portraits of 16 European Rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy, Land Aerial Strength, Populations, Areas, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Five Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON

IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT

PRESENTED BY

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

Grace Amerman returned Saturday from Niagara Falls.

The Misses Mae Clark and Katharine Wissert are spending a week at Brooklyn with the latter's aunt, Mrs. John Eder.

Mrs. George Thompson returned Saturday from a visit to her brother, Lewis D. Wiltse, of Harrisburg. Mrs. Thompson also visited Gettysburg, York and Boiling Springs.

New Providence.

Joseph Amiano, of Springfield avenue, Berkeley Heights, is ill.

Mrs. John P. Genung and daughter, Miss Loraine Genung, of Springfield avenue, are visiting relatives in Montclair.

"The Christ Connuence" was the topic of Rev. W. A. L. Jett, rector of St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal Mission, of Murray Hill, yesterday morning.

Rev. William H. Evans preached yesterday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church on "Pentecostal Powers" and at night on "Our Warfare."

John Adams, after spending the suummer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Adams, of South street, has returned to Maryville, Tenn., to resume his college studies.

Charles A. Gebhardt and family, who spent the summer at Long View, Chatham township, have moved to New York for the winter.

Miss Helen High, of Passaic street, has returned after spending the summer with the Misses Alice and Gertrude Hickey, at Northfield, Conn.

Hunterdon County.

After spending a few weeks in Glen Gardner and Spruce Run, D. Hendricks Fritts and daughter, Miss Louise Fritts, have returned to their home in Chicago.

Mrs. Isaac Hoffman, of German Valley, is visiting in Clinton.

Mrs. A. D. Manning, of Clinton, is entertaining her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Case, of Binghamton.

Sigler Stiger and family have returned to their home in Brooklyn after a stay in Clinton.

Mrs. C. J. Bunn and daughter, of Newark, are guests of A. C. Bunn and family, at Pattenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gano, of Pattenburg, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Ward and children, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Eugene Opdycke, of Brass Castle, is visiting relatives in Glen Gardner.

Miss Ruth Farrow returned to Newark, Saturday, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Katharine Farrow, of Glen Gardner.

Miss Sara Buttrick, of Monticello, N. Y., is at the home of her brother in Norton.

Dr. and Mrs. William McCracken, of Norton, have as their guests their grandchildren, William, Celeste and Catherine Turton, of New York.

Miss Florence Dalyrmple, of Bethlehem, Pa., is spending a few days with her parents in Norton.

Miss Ethel Marshman, of White Haven, Pa., is visiting in Hampton.

Mrs. Amanda Transue and daughter, Miss Ella Transue, of Hampton, are visiting Miss Ida Lake, of Stroudsburg, Pa.

Mrs. J. S. Alpaugh, of Hampton, is in Stroudsburg, Pa.

Miss Pearl Hunt, of Hampton, is entertaining her cousin, Miss Lelah Stoffet, of Easton, Pa.

Whitehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bertsel and son, of Newark, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Hill, near Peapack, for a few days.

Charles E. Rush, of Whitehouse Station, who has been visiting his parents at Kenvil, will leave this week for Chicago, where he expects to spend several weeks.

Mrs. Wright, of New York, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John M. Harper, at St. Luke's rectory, Peapack.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Romig and son, Frank Romig, of Allentown, Pa., returned home Friday after a visit to Mrs. Romig's sister, Mrs. Martha Luse, at Peapack.

Miss Rita DeMott, of Scotch Plains, is visiting her brothers and sister at Peapack.

Mrs. Daniel Rabey and family, of Braaklyn, are spending a week with relatives at their former home at Peapack.

Henry Kice, an aged resident of Peapack, who has been ill at the home of his son, Harvey Kice, is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Pickell have returned to the San Esther farm near Whitehouse Station, after an outing at the Ocean Spray, at Asbury Park.

David Lindabury, a farmer who lives at Centre, near East Whitehouse, was taken ill last Thursday, but is now improved.

The Sunday-school classes of the Misses Ada and Ethel Birdette, of East Whitehouse, went on a picnic to North Branch, Saturday.

Ford Emple, of Sharon Hill, N. Y., is visiting Rev. and Mrs. Charles G. Emple, at the parsonage of the Lutheran church at New Germantown.

Miss Gladys Wildrick, of Dover, is spending a few days with Mrs. Jacob Melick, at New Germantown.

Mrs. Simon J. Hageman has returned to New Germantown after a visit to Mrs. Howard Foster, at Ridgefield, Conn.

Arrangements have been completed for a sociable, which will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Hall, at Centreville, for the benefit of the Methodist church here.

Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, lectured in the schoolhouse at Centreville yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Misses Blanche and Kathryn Hoagland, of Centreville, have gone to Bound Brook for a visit to relatives.

Joseph Taylor and family returned to Centreville, Saturday, after a visit to Rev. and Mrs. William Mahon, at Roselle Park.

Mrs. Jane Teats is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Isaac Hildebrant, at New Germantown.

Miss Mae Sutton returned to New Germantown, Saturday, after a visit to relatives at German Valley.

Mrs. John Eick, of Newark, is spending a week with Mrs. Mary C. Apgar, at New Germantown.

High Bridge-Califon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Apgar, of High Bridge, had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fritts, of Annandale, and Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Wilson, of Lebanon.

After spending a fortnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David F. Alpaugh, of the Hardon farm, near Chester, Mrs. Leonard W. Dorland has returned to her home in West street, High Bridge.

Miss Florente Cousins has returned to Newark after visiting the family of William L. Alpaugh, Parsonage Heights, Califon.

After spending his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Trimmer, of Lower Valley, Frederick Hardwood has returned to New York.

Having sold his farms at private sale, Goble Blaine will sell his personal property at public sale and move from Little Brook to Califon.

Mrs. Grace Simanton, of Chester, N. Y., has been summoned to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Neighbour, who is dangerously ill at the Neighbour homestead farm at Lower Valley.

After spending several weeks at Flemington, Miss Ethel Apgar has returned to Califon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Apgar, of High Bridge, has as guests last week Judson Vliet, of Dunellen.

Miss Loretta Nagle, of Brooklyn, is visiting her aunt, Miss Ella Nagle, of High Bridge.

INTERSTATE FAIR AT SPOKANE.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 14.—The great fruit crop of the Northwest this year is illustrated as one of the striking features of the Interstate Fair, which opened in Spokane today for a week's engagement. In nearly all other respects the exhibition is more elaborate than ever before and the live stock show, the horse show and the poultry show are the most complete in the history of the association. In the agricultural department the displays are numerous and embrace everything grown on the farm and in the garden. The exhibits of women's work and of machinery are also worthy of special note, and the strictly amusement features of the fair are numerous and of a high class. The city presents a holiday appearance today in anticipation of the arrival of many visitors.

COLORADO STATE FAIR.

Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 14.—This was the opening day of the Colorado State Fair, which this year is larger and in many respects more attractive than any of its predecessors. The mining exhibit, livestock show and display of agricultural and horticultural products are worthy of particular note, illustrating as they do the wonderful products and natural resources of the State. Horses from many States are here to contest in the race program and in addition there will be automobile races, aeroplane flights and other special attractions.

POSTMASTERS IN SESSION.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 14—The annual convention of the Illinois branch of the National League of Postmasters began in this city today and will continue over tomorrow. Postmasters from all sections of the State are in attendance. The officers in charge of the convention are President Charles H. Brown, of Meredosia; Vice-President John Baker, of McLean; Secretary Fred Wilson, of Broughton, and Treasurer John G. Brown, of Fox Lake.

INSURANCE MEN TO MEET.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 14—All preparations are complete for the annual convention of the National Life Underwriters' Association, which is to meet in this city tomorrow for a session of three days. The convention will be the largest and most important gathering of life insurance men to be held in this country this year.

UNVEIL MEMORIAL TO LATE WALTER SCOTT

High Tribute Paid to Well Known Inventor at Chicago.

In the current issue of the Editor and Publisher, a newspaperman's trade paper, appears the following article about the late Walter Scott, the well-known press builder, and his sons, both of the latter being residents of Plainfield:

"One of the notable features of Labor Day in Chicago was the unveiling in the new Henry O. Shepard School of a memorial window donated by the Old Time Printers' Association of Chicago, in co-operation with several other organizations. The window is 9x12 feet in size and was designed by Thomas A. O'Shaughnessy.

"It shows, in addition to the portrait of the late Henry O. Shepard, a printing office scene in the early days together with the portraits of the two greatest modern inventors of the printing trade—Walter Scott, the inventor of nearly all the great improvements which have made the modern printing press possible, and Ottmar Mergenthaler, the inventor of the Linotype.

"The unveiling ceremony was attended by Mrs. Walter Scott, David J. Scott and Walter C. Scott, representing the family of the late Walter Scott.

"Addresses were delivered by Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, at Washington; James Keeley, editor of the Chicago Herald, and others.

"In speaking of the late Walter Scott, Mr. Post specially referred to his many important inventions saying that he was the first to attach a folder to a printing machine and developed the combined rotary printing and folding machine, without which the printing trade could not have advanced to its present modern efficiency. Mr. Scott also invented the angle bar, which is an absolute necessity in every large modern newspaper press and which alone makes possible the production of the many paged newspapers in book form.

"Mr. Scott also invented the first rotary color press, the forerunner of the many color presses now used in newspaper and magazine pressrooms. He had this field to himself for quite a while, and built presses for many prominent publications before other builders took up his ideas.

"Mr. Scott was also the father of the All-Size Rotary Press, which has proven such a versatile money-making press for the job printer who has no control over the sheet sizes.

"Mr. Scott left a large business to his family, which is being conducted by his sons, David J. and Walter C. Scott. They have inherited their father's ingenuity and have shown their ability by the many improvements and successful new machines placed upon the market by them since their father's death. Notable among these new machines are their Multi-Unit' newspaper presses which are used by the most modern newspaper plants; their 'Speed King' newspaper presses, carrying regular semi-circular plates and running at 400 revolutions per minute of the printing cylinders, equal to 800 papers per minute; their wire-stitching multi-color magazine presses for high-grade work; and their offset presses which made possible high class offset color work on a commercially profitable basis. A recent development is their offset perfecting press—the first of which was erected in New York city in July, 1914, and which has performed its work so perfectly that it was accepted and paid for August 20. This is the first offset web perfecting press in the world, and illustrates the perfection of the Scott product under the management of the sons of the founder, and demonstrates that they are experts in their business."

DROPS SEWAGE PLANT SUIT.

New Brunswick, Sept. 14—Common Council has been notified by City Attorney Charles E. Tindell that the State Board of Health had abandoned the Chancery Court proceeding against the city for a sewage disposal plant, the case being dismissed upon payment of the costs of $62 by the city. The State Board has also approved of the plans for laying sewers on forty-seven streets here, this work being held up because of the disposal plant proceedings. Some time ago the State Board came here and made a trip down the Raritan River. The members found the need of the disposal plant not as pressing as had been supposed and this action is the result of this visit.

NATIONAL GUARD CONVENTION.

Boston Mass., Sept. 14.—Militia officers from every State are attending the sixteenth annual convention of the National Guard Association of the United States which held its opening session this morning in the Hotel Somerset. The adjutants general of many of the States are included in the attendance. The sessions will continue three days and will be devoted largely to the discussion of the proposed militia bill and other legislation affecting the national guard. Tomorrow the delegates will be entertained at luncheon by the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston.

—Your "business opportunity" ad will be read by people who never miss real chances for investments.

NEW BRUNSWICK CHIEF TO ATTEND N. Y. FIRE COLLEGE

New Brunswick, Sept. 14—The fire commission today sent Fire Chief Harry J. Francis to the New York Fire College for a six weeks' course, and upon his return he will start a college of this sort here to train the men in the paid fire department.

Chief Francis will have his expenses paid by the city and will also spend some time before returning with the New York firemen getting pointers from them. During his absence Assistant Fire Chief Louis Sass will have charge of the department.

JR. O. U. A. M. AND D. OF L. DEDICATE CRANFORD SCHOOLS

Cranford, Sept. 14.—The Board of Education, in conjunction with the Jr. O. U. A. M. and the Daughters of Liberty, dedicated the new Lincoln and Cleveland schools, Saturday. The school board members and the school children were escorted by 1,500 members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. and four bands furnished music.

At the exercises at the Lincoln School the invocation was offered by Rev. D. Wadsworth Cannon, and a flag presented by the Jr. O. U. A. M., was unfuried by W. W. Mendell, past senior department commander of the G. A. R. A Bible was also presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, State councilor, on behalf of Integrity Council of the Daughters of Liberty. Dr. John Edgecumbe pronounced the benediction.

From the Lincoln School the procession moved to the Cleveland School. There the invocation was offered by Dr. George F. Greene, and a flag presented by J. Morgan Read State treasurer of the Jr. O. U. A. M. A Bible was also presented by order, the presentation being made by Rev. E. M. Compton. The benediction was said by Rev. J. L. Peck.

METHODIST LOCAL PREACHERS TO HOLD ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The annual conference of the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in the John Street Methodist Episcopal church, New York, October 8 to —, inclusive. In connection with this event the fifty-seventh anniversary of the organization will be celebrated.

Rev. John H. Crankshow, of Norristown, Pa., president of the association, will preside over the sessions, which will be inaugurated Thursday, October 8, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Addresses of welcome will, it is expected, be made by Mayor John Puroy Mitchell, former Assistant City Attorney Frank Moss, District Superintendent Rev. Frank B. Upham, Rev. Dr. Lewis R. Streeter, of the conference church, and Rev. Arthur Atkins, of Westfield, president of the Newark branch.

A feature of the annual session will be the assignment of local preachers as pulpit supply in the Evangelical churches of the metropolitan district on Sunday, October 11. On this day, the last of the conference, special devotional services with stirring addresses have been arranged.

AUTO MAN DESIRES LIGHTS ON HORSE-DRAWN VEHICLES

Trenton, Sept. 14—Frequent complaints regarding the improper lighting of vehicles drawn by horses, as well as automobiles, have prompted Commissioner Lippincott of the Department of Motor Vehicles, to devote particular attention to this subject, with a view of bringing about compliance with the provisions of the law. Although the department has no jurisdiction over horse-drawn vehicles, Mr. Lippincott believes that public safety demands some action.

"So numerous have become the complaints against the improper lighting of horse-drawn vehicles, said Mr. Lippincott in a letter to the inspectors, "that the department feels in duty bound to take some action. The inspectors have no power under the act to interfere with improperly lighted horse-drawn vehicles; yet we would instruct you to stop all horse-drawn vehicles that are improperly lighted, ascertain, if possible, the name and address of the owner and swear out a warrant for his arrest before the nearest magistrate.

"The practice must be broken up on the roads of our State, if safety to other users of the road is to be guaranteed; and while the department is not directly charged with this work, it can easily be taken up and handled in the adjustment of other traffic matters."

In another communication, Mr. Lippincott has instructed the inspectors to devote as much time as possible between the hours of 8 and 9:30 p. m. to regulate abuses on the part of automobilists who fail to have their cars properly lighted.

—Is not one of the problems facing you at the present moment a want ad problem?

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

With the announcement that State Tax Commissioner Lucius T. Russell is a candidate for chairman of the Union County Democratic Committee, a contest is now in swing for the place. Abram P. Morris, of Hillside, vice chairman of the committee at present, has been a candidate for chairman for some time. Mayor Percy H. Stewart, of Plainfield, the present chairman, is unopposed for the Senatorial nomination. He will not be a candidate for chairman again, and it is felt that someone not in office or running for office should be the head of the organization.

Cards are in circulation urging the nomination of Assemblyman William A. Leonard for county clerk. They read in part, as follows: "William A. Leonard, Democratic candidate for the nomination for county clerk, requests your support on his record as a Democrat and as a member of the General Assembly for two terms."

A campaign for commission government is now beginning in Belleville. Ex-Judge Carey of Jersey City, who has talked commission government in seasqn and out of season, in city and in village, delivered a speech recently in which he declared that commission government was proving its success everywhere.

Freeholder Wilbur and John H Cose, the two Plainfield G. O. P. shrievalty aspirants, spent Friday in Elizabeth. They were both at the same place at the same time on several occasions and departed for home on the same train.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Chalmers Easton, of Spotswood, has been nominated by the Middlesex County Prohibition Convention as a candidate for Congress from the Third district. The Prohibition opponent to Congressman Thomas J. Scully, who is seeking reelection as the Third district's representative, is widely known. Dr. Easton served fourteen years in Washington, and William Jennings Bryan was a member of his congregation. Dr. Easton came into nation-wide fame when he was sued by Olga Nethersole, the famous actress, for defamation of character, as a result of a pulpit utterance. Dr. Easton is pastor of the Reformed church at Spotswood, served several years in New Brunswick and a time in Highland Park.

"The increased number of voters who registered on the first day in Elizabeth is a splendid sign for Republican success," said Arthur E. Warner, of Elizabeth, Republican candidate for Assembly nomination, upon his visit to this city Saturday evening. "It is said that the registration is twenty-five per cent. heavier in Elizabeth this year than last. Of course, there is a greater number of contests, the ward fights, the mayoralty campaign and the party rivalry, all of which is very important, not only to the city of Elizabeth, but to the entire county." Mr. Warner visited a number of the Republican voters Saturday evening and said that he felt much encouraged and believed that he would be one of the three successful candidates in the Assembly race.

OPEN SPOKANE-AYER CUT-OFF.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 14.—The new Spokane-Ayer line of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company was opened to passenger and freight traffic today. The occasion also marked the opening of the new $500,000 union station built in this city by the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad. The new Spokane-Ayer line cuts down the distance between Spokane and Portland about fifty miles and gives the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company the shortest line between the two cities by approximately seven miles.

NEW BRUNSWICK CLASSIS MEET.

New Brunswick, Sept. 14—The fall meeting of the Classis of New Brunswick will take place October 20. The session wil be held in the Suydam Street Reformed church, this city. The sermon will be preached by the retiring president, Rev. Jasper S. Hogan, of the First Reformed church of this city. Mr. Hogan has the distinction of being president both of the Classis and the Particular Synod of New Brunswick.

COURT WAS LENIENT.

The usual array of week-end drunks were arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, all being allowed to go on suspended sentences following reprimands. Those who imbibed too freely were Samuel Bye, John Roddy and Charles Long.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

A DICTIONARY OF WAR TERMS

Meaning of Military Words and Phrases.

GIVEN IN CIVILIAN ENGLISH.

Cavalry, Artillery, Flying Corps, Minor Units. Miscellaneous Terms. "Covering Troops" Explained—What a Reconnoissance Is—A Guide In Reading the Day's News.

In these days when all the talk is of things military the newspapers are filled with martial terms that are bound to puzzle the average layman. Here is a brief "war dictionary," given in the Albany Knickerbocker Press:

Cavalry.—Squadron, 150 men. Regiment, three squadrons and a machine gun section. Brigade, three regiments; when acting independently, horse artillery and engineers are attached. Division, four cavalry brigades, two horse artillery brigades, four field troops of engineers, one signal squadron, four signal troops, four cavalry field ambulances, together with transport and train; this represents a total of 9,302 officers and men, with 9,307 horses and a number of motorcars, motor tricycles and bicycles.

Artillery.—Battery is composed as follows: Horse artillery, six thirteen-pound guns, 208 officers and men. Field artillery, six eighteen pounders, 203 officers and men. Howitzer six five-inch guns and 161 officers and men. Heavy, four "long toms" and 171 officers and men. Garrison artillery, a variable quantity, according to the men and guns or the size of the forts.

In the French army a battery consists of four guns.

A brigade consists in the case of horse artillery of two batteries and ammunition column (671 officers and men and 756 horses); in the case of field artillery of three batteries and ammunition column (793 men and 733 horses); in the case of held howitzer artillery, of three batteries and ammunition column.

Flying Corps—Miscellaneous Terms.

Aeroplane squadron, twelve aeroplanes. Aeroplane and kite squadron, two airships and two kites.

An airship battalion in the British army consists of from twenty to thirty officers and nearly 200 men.

File, two men.

Section.—Cavalry, four men; infantry, one-eighth of a company (about thirty men).

Field ambulance, three "sections" of medical corps.

Platoon, a quarter company of infantry.

Company Royal Engineers.—Between 180 and 200 army service corps, about 100.

Train, indicates all the baggage and impedimenta of an army which is not carried with the first line transport.

Patrol, a reconnoitering cavalry detachment containing anything from two men to a squadron.

Outpost may consist of anything from a company to a big force of all arms. Its duty is to ward off an enemy long enough to allow the army in the rear to make all its dispositions for defense or attack.

Advance guard, usually one-sixth of the main army.

Column, a force of any size on the march.

Wing and flank, usually interchangeable terms and denote the right and left sides of an advancing line of troops.

Strategical.—A term used with reference to the process by which the army is brought into the theater of operations.

Tactical.—A term applied to the movements of troops when in actual contact with the enemy.

Covering Troops—Reconnoissance.

A screen of troops of all arms is pushed out in front of each army to feel for and get in touch with the enemy and to prevent him from getting in and obtaining information. The outermost fringe of this screen is composed of cavalry split up into small parties or patrols, which work their way, if possible, into the heart of the enemy's country, gathering and sending back information, preventing the destruction of roads and railways which their own army will want to use and doing a thousand and one other things.

The screen increases in strength from front to rear, the advanced horsemen being backed up by artillery and infantry, so that in the event of check or an attempt by the enemy to penetrate the screen, a force can be immediately concentrated for offensive or defensive purposes.

A complete force of all arms, which may be anything from a brigade to an army corps, is sometimes sent on a special mission to penerate into the enemy's country for the purpose of obtaining special information. This is known as a reconnoissance.

Soup Stations For Troops.

When a train of German soldiers arrives at a station the troops prepare hot soup for the next train and have it on the platform ready for the newcomers, who then prepare soup for the next, while the first proceed to the next stopping point. The German armies are accompanied by a traveling printing press for military proclamations and requisition bonds and by official photographers.

—You may have an immediate task for a want ad—and yet not act wisely in failing to read them daily.

UP THE HUDSON TO West Point

And off Newburgh

SUNDAY September 20

Special Excursion VIA NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

Connecting at Jersey City With Swift SANDY HOOK ROUTE FLYER "SANDY HOOK"

ROUND TRIP $1.00 CHILDREN 50cts

Leave Clinton Ave. 8.45, Grant Ave. 8.47, Plainfield 8.52, Netherwood 8.55, Fanwood 9.03 a. m.

9 8 10 14 16 18

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5:08, 5:40, 5:52 (except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22, 7:26 (except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:55 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:30, 8:36, 8:42, 8:58, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:13, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:56, 11:43 p. m. Sundays, 2:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:44, 11:52 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:23, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 5:57, 7:14, 8:13, 8:25, 8:29, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27, (7:05 through train to Newark), 7:41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:15 p. m. Sundays, 7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:37 a. m., 12:39, 1:23, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 5:57, 7:14, 8:13, 8:25, 8:29, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For East Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—8:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m., 2:00, 2:26, 5:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m.; 5:41, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m., 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19, 7:05 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park—8:18, 8:36, (9:29 Red Bank only), (12:34 Saturday only), 2:58 (Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:01, 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—7:58, 8:52 a. m., (9.40 Red Bank only), 2:15, 3:17, 8:35, 10:21 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 5:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m. 1:28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43, 11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:13, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday 7:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:39, 10:43, 11:41 a. m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:39, 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m., 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily 11:45 a. m., 12:42, 2:45, 6:44 p. m. Except March Chunk 8-4-14

TIME TABLE Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. 1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30, 11:15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon. 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon, 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 5:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m. *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m., 5:00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 3:30, 6:50, *1:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m., 3:30, 6:50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 3:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:30, 7:30, *11:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p.

Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 8:15 a. m. bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

L. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. Phone 130. Plainfield.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—New Jersey Supreme Court. Samuel W. Shipway vs. William Buckner defendant. Fi. fa. de. bo. et. In debt.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the sheriff's office in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that certain lot, tract and parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey: Being lots number 77, 78, 79, on Section B, map of property, situate in Netherwood, city of Plainfield, N. J., owned by William Picken, Esq., surveyed by F. A. Dunham, civil engineer, of Plainfield, N. J., March, 1892, and filed in the office of the register of the county of Union, May 14, 1892, bounded as follows: On the north by Radcliffe place, seventy-five feet; on the east by lot number 80 on said map, one hundred and fifteen feet; on the south by lots numbers 102, 103 and 104 on said map, 75 feet; and on the west by lot number 76, as laid down on said map, 115 feet, be the same dimensions more or less.

WEDNESDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF OCTOBER, A. D. 1914,

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.

SAMUEL PRESS, Att'y.

9 14 4tw EDJ&PDP Fees, $11.22

—If it would be "good business" for you to sell that real estate now, advertise it NOW.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on application.
Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

SEPT. 14TH IN HISTORY.

1805—Lord Nelson left England for the last time.
1812—Moscow was burned by the Russians.
1814—The British abandoned their expedition against Baltimore.
1829—Treaty of Adrianople, ending the war between Russia and Turkey.
1847—American army, in command of Gen. Scott, entered the City of Mexico.
1851—James Fenimore Cooper, famous novelist, died at Cooperstown, N. Y. Born at Burlington, N. J., Sept. 15, 1789.
1854—The allied English, French and Turkish forces landed in the Crimea.
1862—The battle of South Mountain, Maryland, was fought.
1867—Sir Robert Napier was appointed to command the British expedition against Abyssinia.
1880—Prince Albert (afterward King Edward VII.) and Prince George embarked on the "Bacchante" for a cruise around the world.
1882—Cairo, Egypt, was occupied by British troops.
1901—William McKinley, twenty-fifth President of the U. S., died at Buffalo. Born at Niles, Ohio Jan. 29, 1843.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 14, 1914.

CONSOLIDATION.

What better argument can there be in favor of consolidation of the city and borough than the fact that the Mayor, Robert Clark, Jr., after serving two terms in that capacity, is strongly in favor of the proposition as are scores of leading citizens. Mayor Clark's views on the subject were well known before he had completed his first term in the office, and the people of the borough thought so much of his work and his ability as an executive that they re-elected him without opposition.

There is yet to be heard one valid objection to the consolidation emanating from the borough side of the brook. In fact, it is probable that the people of the city can suggest more reasons, most of which, however, will have little weight, why the borough should not be annexed to the city than can boroughites. Everything in North Plainfield, outside of the election of county officials hinges on this city. Aside from a few shops the people do all their buying in Plainfield; most of their amusements are gained on this side of the brook; many of their churches are here, and in fact, they are so dependent upon Plainfield that were this city removed the population of the borough would be greatly depleted. The United States Government does not recognize the place as a separate community, as is shown by one postoffice, located in this city. Many officeholders will be done away with, thus saving the borough taxpayers money and in no way increasing the efficiency of the government. The borough tax rate is considerably higher than that in Plainfield, partially due, it is true, to a higher county rate, but under a combined government the local rate would undoubtedly go down, so that those living in Somerset county would not have to pay as much as they do now under the borough form of government.

The matter, of course, is one that the voters will settle, and they will look at it from every point of view. We believe, however, that careful deliberation, coupled with the excellent reasons which Mayor Clark and other leading advocates of consolidation present, as contrasted to the lack of argument against the proposition other than that presented by practical politicians, will result in the people voting favorably on the matter.

The Daily Press will be pleased to print letters on either side of the question from those who may be interested.

MR. BEST'S COMPLAINT.

In a letter to the Daily Press of Saturday, Lindsey Best, principal of the High School, took exception to our printing letters regarding the management of the High School, and said that "I wish to call to the attention of those who have read the attacks upon me, recently published in your paper, the fact that there is a proper tribunal before which to lay such charges of inefficiency. * * * * There is an orderly and dignified way to conduct such attacks."

If Mr. Best means to intimate that the Daily Press was unfair by publishing Mr. Lounsbury's letter after it had been submitted to the Board of Education, which we acknowledge is the "proper tribunal," he must have a very distorted idea of the duty which a newspaper owes the public. The letter in question took exactly the procedure which he suggests, and no doubt the reply will come from the same source, but we'd be willing to bet a sugar cookie that had the Daily Press not published the communication, which was a matter of public importance brought before a public body, nothing would have been heard about the matter.

The Daily Press has no interest in the case one way or the other. There have been lots of similar complaints made to us before, but the complainants have not been willing to put them in writing and sign their names. Hence we have paid no attention to the matter until such time as citizens who are not afraid of offending some one have had their say. We believe that it is time for an investigation and a report of the Board of Education on the matter will be given the same prominence as the original complaint, and as the letter received today in defense of Mr. Best, is given.

It has been the rule of this newspaper to print all signed letters that are sent to it, and which are not libellous, and no matter which side of the question they take they will continue to be accepted.

INTERPRETING THE LAW.

Two weeks or more ago an inspector of the State Department of Labor visited the local newspapers and newsdealers who employ carrier boys and advised them that they must dispose of the services of such employes under the age of fourteen, whether or not their school duties were interfered with. She stated that this was the result of a law passed by the last session of the Legislature. In commenting on the matter at the time the Daily Press cited this as evidence that we have entirely too many laws, and that some of them work a distinct hardship, such as the one in question. The latter statement was made because we knew that in the case of some of the carriers now employed by this newspaper the amount which the boys earned each week had helped their parents materially.

The editorial in question was noticed by J. Brognard Betts, Assistant State Superintendent of Education who is a resident of North Plainfield and Mr. Betts immediately advised the Press not to discharge any of its boys until he had consulted with General Bryant, the Commissioner of Labor. The Educational Department did not interpret the law in the same way as did the inspector who visited Plainfield. As a result we are in receipt of a letter from General Bryant in which he states that all of the local newspaper distributing agencies have been wrongly advised, and that he has so instructed the inspector in question, who was a new member of the force.

The Daily Press through drawing the matter to Mr. Betts' attention has done a distinct service to the local newsdealers and the hundreds of worthy boys in this and other cities where the same inspector had been working. Is it not possible that in many cases minor employes of the various State departments, fired with zeal and conscious of their authority are interpreting the laws in such manner as to cause hardship for hundreds of worthy people who believe in being law abiding regardless of the cost? The experience in this city in the case mentioned should prove an example to all departments employing inspectors, and the heads of those departments should make sure that their subordinates fully understand the laws which they are employed to enforce.

THE FORUM

Editor Plainfield Daily Press:

Will you permit me the use of your columns to speak with reference to recent criticisms of the management of the Plainfield High School?

In my opinion Mr. Best's record as principal of the High School entitles him to some recognition in the Press other than that which obviously bears the earmarks of personal animosity. I speak particularly of the letter printed Friday, signed "A. B. Conlin." The complaints made by Mr. Lounsbury are, I understand, in the hands of the Board of Education, where they belong.

In the meantime, while the Board of Education may be acting upon the charges made, I protest against a man of Mr. Best's standing and position being made the target for the wandering shots of a recent graduate, in whose mind the petty grievances and bitter experiences of his schoolboy days have not yet had time to find their natural level of relative importance.

In Mr. Conlin's letter is seen the chief evil of bursting into print with accusations before they have stood the test of examination by the proper authorities. Conlin sees the Lounsbury attack, reads it with growing enthusiasm, recalling all the pent-up feeling of two years ago, and ends up by giving vent to what he calls an "old fire of resentment."

The method which Mr. Conlin employs to convince the citizens of Plainfield that they are not properly served by the management of the High School is to recite in detail several things that happened to the class of 1912 and to its individual members.

Inasmuch as some of the citizens of Plainfield may not be acquainted with Mr. Conlin and the troubles of 1912, it is possibly safer that his criticisms be presented in their true light.

Conlin says that the president of the class of 1912 was informed that he had flunked in an examination one hour before graduation, and adds "It certainly looked like a case of spleen to have only notified him at that late hour."

I learn from the records at the High School that the president of the class of 1912 failed to pass a chemistry examination on June 1 and was notified of his failure at that time and had, from then until the day of graduation, every opportunity to make up the necessary points. Even on the day of graduation he was given an examination which he failed to pass.

Conlin refers to "Mr. Best's extreme hatred" of his class as evidenced, he affirms, in the fact that "he deprived it of the cherished Yale cup."

I learn that in the case of the presentation of the Yale cup the highest honors in athletics, scholarship and leadership, the class of 1912 failed to qualify in accordance with the standard previously created by Yale cup winners. I find that H. R. Hubbard, vice principal of the High School, and at that time its athletic director, reported the candidates to be absolutely unqualified for the cup, conferred with Yale men who make the award and was advised that Yale would not welcome a lowering of the standard. Upon Mr Hubbard's recommendation in a meeting of the faculty, the award of the Yale cup was withheld, and Mr. Best had nothing to do with it but to preside over the meeting.

Conlin complains that a girl was made valedictorian "who could not have entered any college in the United States." He admits that her marks were higher than others, but finds fault with the subjects she studied and upon which the honor was based. Certainly this gallant observation and its rather startling educational conclusion may be waived without comment until Mr. Conlin presents credentials in pedagogy sufficient to entitle him to judgment in such cases.

Now Conlin's next point is really good. In fact, it's something rare. I think you will enjoy it and I therefore quote it:

"I can name other instances of unfairness as to how only one of twins was graduated when the other lacked a scant point or so."

Think of it, only one of twins was graduated,—the other was several points below the standard for graduation and had to be treated like any other human being. And the worst of it is that the records show this to have been the first time that twins ever reached the graduating class in unison. The only time two ever came to bat in the same inning and one struck out. Deplorable.

No, Conlin, the sad story of the subdivided twins may, if properly told, move a city to tears, but it won't remove a principal. Give it up.

F. K. ANDERSON,
President Plainfield High School Alumni Association.

Editor Plainfield Daily Press:

I have read with considerable surprise, Mr Lindsey Best's communication in Saturday's Press, in which he states for the benefit of your readers, that there is "a proper tribunal" before which all complaints should be made, etc. I agree with Mr. Best fully in this respect and if he will wake up from his long summer nap and put on his "think cap" he will quickly realize that so far as my complaint is concerned, it has been conducted in a most orderly and proper manner. First I appealed to Mr. Best, and not receiving proper satisfaction, I then presented the matter in writing to the superintendent, Dr. Maxson, who decided that Mr. Best had acted within his right as principal and that even tho' a mistake might have been made, there was nothing he could do to rectify it, to which I replied in writing that I should feel compelled to lay the matter before the Board at their regular public meeting last Tuesday evening. My complaint in writing, with all the necessary papers attached, was duly presented, read and referred to the committee on teachers.

It then became a matter of public record and your paper considered it of sufficient interest to request a copy for publication, and later you printed a short but pointed editorial upon it. Pray tell me what was there disorderly or undignified in all this? Why should any objection be made to the publication of the regular proceedings of a public body such as the Board of Education? Must the taxpayers of Plainfield be denied the privilege of free speech and a free press, regarding their public schools for which they contribute so liberally? Mr. Best may think so, but I am satisfied that no member of the Board will take that position. My appeal to Mr. Best and then to Dr. Maxson was an effort to right what I considered a wrong and secure for my son the right to graduate with his class. My complaint to the Board is made solely for the purpose of making it impossible in the future, for Mr. Best or any other principal, to treat any pupil as my son was treated.

As for my son, he will have to begin his career in business wearing his P. H. S., but without that little roll of paper tied with white ribbon and surrounded with a golden halo, and be content with such education as he has been able to imbibe in his eleven-year trip through the Plainfield public schools, which are still sound, as a whole, altho' somewhat decayed in spots. Good schools, like liberty and all its other blessings, can be maintained only by eternal vigilance. Keep your eye on the schools.

FRED C. LOUNSBURY.
Sept. 14, 1914.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.

Tax Sale
First Ward Republican Club.
Borough Schools Open
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
"The Old Homestead" at Plainfield Theatre.
Capstick Club meets.

TOMORROW.

Plainfield Schools Open.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

WEDNESDAY.

"Peg o' My Heart" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

THURSDAY.

Registration Day for Special Election in Borough.
"Black Patti" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

FRIDAY.

Building Trades Council.
Vaudeville at Proctor's.
First M. E. Church Brotherhood lecture.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

SATURDAY.

Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

—"A want ad task" is half done when our want advertising is in the hands of The Press.

It pays to see the advertising columns of The Press.

THE NEW FALL DRESS GOODS

Are Now on Sale. The Best American Mills are Represented in the Splendid Showing Which Comprise All That's Newest in Weave and Color Combinations, and Best of All You'll Find the Prices Most Reasonable

AT 50c AND $1.00 A YARD.
Crowfoot checks, black and white, in all size checks, 40 to 54 inches wide.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
50-inch all wool Serges in neat black and green and black and blue checks.

AT 59c A YARD.
French Flannel, 27 inches wide; all wool, in light and dark grey, brown, green and cardinal.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
All wool crepe suiting, 48 inches wide, in mahagony, navy blue and black.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
Cadet cloth, 48 inches wide, in black, green, navy and cadet blue.

AT $1.59 A YARD.
An all wool black and blue mixture, suitable for heavy skirts and suits.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
56-in. all wool Suiting, in plaids, checks and Roman stripes; in all the new shades.

AT $1.59 A YARD.
Heavy Worsted Plaid Suiting, in all the latest color combinations; 56 inches wide.

AT 59c A YARD.
40-inch Roman Striped Suitings, in a variety of color combinations.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
Silk and wool crepe cloth in cadet blue, wine color and mahogany.

AT 50c AND 59c A YARD.
All wool fancy plaids, 40 inches wide; specially adapted for children's dresses.

AT $1.25 A YARD.
All wool Bedford Cord, 52 inches wide, in black, medium and dark navy blue.

"OUR LIVING DEPARTMENT" is fully stocked with all the Fall shades in clever and Princess Satin, Colonial, Marvel and Dresden feather weight Percalines; also Crinoline, Buckram, Canvas and Queen Coat Foundations.

Agency for Butterick Patterns and the Delineator.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Our Notion Department is complete with every thing pertaining to dressmaking.

PEACE AND PLENTY
Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.
W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting
Steam and Hot Water Heating
Contractor for Sewer Connection
125 WATCHUNG AVE

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S
RYE
E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES
$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WE KNOW
that there is a prejudice in the minds of many against buying clothing, hats and shoes on credit. They feel sure they would be overcharged heavily to pay for the accommodation.
This prejudice is founded on the fact that many credit-giving firms conduct their business on the short-sighted basis of charging too much.
We have found by experience that we can meet cash store prices and yet sell on easy terms of credit.
We can demonstrate this to you if you will let us.

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS.
J. A. LAURIE & CO.
304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Bonn's
150 EAST FRONT ST.

Autumn Millinery

We are displaying for present wear, Tailored and Simply Trimmed Hats, with Fancy Ostrich, Paradise, Wings, Flowers or metallic effects—
$5, $6.50, $7.95 and $9.50 each

Also untrimmed Hats of velvet, latest shapes—
$1.45, $1.95, $2.75 to $7.45 each

Falling Hair Stopped by Using HIRSUTONE
A scientific, antiseptic Hair Tonic which kills the dandruff germ. Preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair and stimulates its growth. Hirsutone is a non-secret preparation—fragrantly perfumed—a delightful dressing. Start using it NOW before it is too late.
Price 50c. Hirsutone is only obtainable at
SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
Colgate's Shaving Stick, Cream, Powder, 20c.

EARLY SAVING

Yes, it is very important that every boy and girl be taught to save money.

By starting an account with the City National Bank for your son or daughter, you help them acquire the habit of making regular deposits in the bank.

4% Interest paid on Savings Accounts

ORGANIZED 1873

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTERN UNION

service is the fastest service to the greatest number of places.

Supplemented by

Day Letters, Night Letters, Cable Letters and Moneygrams

it offers the most complete and effective facilities for telegraphic communications of every conceivable kind.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

Full information gladly given at any office.

Store Open All Day Saturday

FOR PRESERVING

Royal Granite Steel Ware

is absolutely pure and safe to use and is very moderately priced.

FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, JAR RINGS, STONE POTS AND JUGS.

Ask to see the new White Crown Vacuum Mason Jar Top, the most successful and sanitary closures yet devised for screw top jars.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen. Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

Wrench Tools

Every useful Tool that's needed to make things snug and tight. You'll find all the little low cost Wrenches as well as the higher grade Tools—and quality for quality, you'll find lower prices than you've ever seen.

Every useful Wrench and Tool that's needed is here and makes it still more interesting for you to "Come in and Look Around."

F. A. KIRCH & CO.,

205 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Phone 578

Dr. Charles A. Eaton

WISHES TO ANNOUNCE THAT BEGINNING

Tuesday, September 15th

all milk from his SUNBRIGHT FARMS DAIRY will be distributed to patrons direct by SUNBRIGHT FARM WAGONS.

Sunbright Milk for Babies

and special Sunbright Milk and Cream may be ordered by telephone Plainfield 2543-M, or by letter to Sunbright Farms : Watchung, N. J.

ALL READY TO CANVASS VOTE

County Clerk Calvert's Office Has Been a Very Busy Place of Late.

A SLIGHT RELAXATION

Preparations Are Now Being Made by the Clerk for the Opening of the County Courts on October Sixth.

The office of the county clerk, James C. Calvert, has now retained normal conditions. The severe strain which the office force has been working under for the past two weeks preparing the details of the primary election, has relaxed somewhat, and most of the cases for trial have been listed and there is a slight relaxation in anticipation of the opening of the courts on the sixth of October. All of the tally sheets have been prepared for the canvassing of the vote of the primary election on September 22 and removed from the several tables and placed to one side until they will be needed for use the morning after the primary, so that nowadays only the daily routine of the office keeps Mr. Calvert and his staff engaged.

The next big task will be the canvassing of the primary vote which will start the day after the primaries, September 22, and must be completed within time to allow for recounts in the event of any being demanded by disappointed candidates, these demands must be made within ten days after the primaries and in order that any candidate may be voted for on the ticket at the election, the recounts must be completed in ample time for the preparation of the ballots, which must be ready and open to inspection five days before election. There are but twenty-six days for this purpose this year and unless quick and correct work is done by the clerk in canvassing the vote, the time will expire before the formal steps can be taken through the courts to have the ballots examined and counted by the County Election Board and the result declared.

The State convention of each political party under the Geran Act will be held at Trenton, on Monday, October 5, and each candidate for State Senator and Assemblyman must receive his credentials from the county clerk prior to that date so that this vote must be canvassed and declared and certificates issued in ample time to allow the Legislature candidates to participate in the convention of their respective parties.

Few people realize the magnitude of the preparations for the casting of the votes, the preparation of the ballots for the general election is of itself probably the most important. The ballots for the primaries are printed at the direction of the municipal clerks after they get their instruction from Mr. Calvert, as to the county candidates, but the ballots for the general election are prepared in his office and under his personal supervision. Mr. Calvert also examines all the proofs from the printers for errors in the spelling of names and designations.

The Geran Act placed upon the county clerk considerable additional work, and in many respects it was found to be in considerable conflict with other sections of the law, and by reason of suggestions made by Mr. Calvert and enactments of the Legislature in pursuance thereof the machinery has been greatly facilitated. The assurance of support he is receiving in all sections of the county provides a pleasure and creates a feeling of satisfaction and confidence that can be obtained only by getting first hand information personally from the voters and residents he meets.

BIG MEETING OF ODD FELLOWS.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 14—Two thousand delegates, who come from many parts of the country, are attending the fourth biennial convention of the Patriarchal Order of Past Grand Masters of the United Order of Odd Fellows, which opened its sessions in Berkeley Temple today and will continue through the week. Thursday will be the big day of the convention. There will be a parade, to be reviewed by Governor Walsh, of Massachusetts, and Mayor Curley, of Boston. The parade will end at Fenway Park, where there will be a prize drill by the military orders of delegates.

IN SESSION IN INDIANAPOLIS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14—Indianapolis is entertaining this week the annual convention of the Tri-State Association of Physicians, Pharmacists and Dentists of Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana. The membership of the association is composed wholly of colored men and it is said to be the only organization of its kind in the Northern States.

REAL ESTATE
INSURANCE
MANNING & CURTIS
106 DEPOT PARK

He Found It Later

By GEORGE I. SILL

"Where! Where!! Where!!! is that paper-weight?" asked Mr. Blobson, in great excitement. "Do you know anything about it, Miss Somers?—it was on the desk this morning when I went out—I wouldn't—"

"Oh, Mr. Blobson, is it gone? I saw it there myself about eleven o'clock. Have you looked all over—under the papers, in the pigeon-holes and drawers? A good many people came in while you were out, and—"

"Yes, but who would take it—who would want a picture of my Algy?"

No use—the desk, in fact the whole office was thoroughly ransacked, but the glass covered miniature of little Algernon Blobson—departed—painted by a celebrated artist, could nowhere be found.

Mr. Blobson remarked earnestly, "I wouldn't have lost that picture for a hundred thousand dollars," and his eyes blazed. "Oh, Algy, my angel child!—and the best picture of him, I had. Where is it?—who's got it?—who took it?" he thundered.

The fond parent's rage was awful to behold and his language terrible to hear. He even seemed inclined to devastate the premises, and threw a large vase standing on his desk and of considerable value, into a corner of the office where it smashed to smithereens, while his hat and the waste-paper basket followed to keep the pieces company.

"Indeed, indeed, Mr. Blobson," said Miss Somers, "my heart bleeds for you—oh, what can I do—pray, what can I do to assuage your grief? Command me, I beg of you!"—and the beautiful, soft brown eyes filled with sympathetic tears.

"No, Miss Somers, thank you, you can't do anything—I wish however, you'd write to those three infernal horsethieves and pirates who haven't paid, and say to each that if checks are not forthcoming by the fifteenth of the month, their accounts will be placed in the hands of my attorney for collection."

"But, Mr. Blobson, those are three of your best customers."

"I don't give three whoops!—do as I say. Where's William, where's that d—n boy?—oh, here he is. Come here you young scoundrel, and tell me what you did with that paper-weight. Don't lie now—tell the truth and I'll let you off easy.'

"Go! Mr. Blobson, hope to die I aint done nuttin' with no papy-woit—was dat it on de desk, wit a swell kid's mug under de glass an' a dinky froim of gold an' poils?"

"Come now, William, don't affect ignorance—tell me where you pawned it."

"Soaked it?—a-a-ah gwan, you big gazaboo, I don't tink I have to be called no tief for three bones per—Miss Somers, me pay please—what t'ell!"

"No, Miss Somers, don't give him any money 'till his week is up—not a cent. I must go out now, take a walk and calm myself—perhaps I'll go to a detective agency." Then giving William a look calculated to wither and consume, and muttering the hope that conscience would get in its work, Mr. Blobson hied for consolation to his favorite cafe on the corner.

"Willie," began Miss Somers, when the discouraged parent had departed, "I'm surprised and inexpressibly shocked to hear from the lips of one so young, the language you have just used—especially after all I have said, all my endeavor in your behalf. Will you never realize how much poor Mr. Blobson has to irritate and annoy, to perturb and exasperate? Ah, my young friend, I fear you're an egotist and that your whole soul is centered on self."

"What right den, had de big stuff to say I swiped his papy-woit?—for tree cents, I'd biffed him!"

"That will do, Willie, that will do—run along now, to the postoffice and see if you cannot return in a more composed and amiable frame of mind. For shame!—to think how often Mr. Blobson has given you the afternoon off and a quarter, that you might witness the ball game or some other athletic sport."

When five o'clock arrived and Miss Somers preparatory to going home office, was administering a few dabs of rouge and powder to her not unattractive countenance, she made a few remarks as she would have expressed it, sotto voce.

"I knew it would turn out the way it did. Phew! but wasn't Mr. Blobson's anger, though, the real thing! Didn't he swear? How successful it's all been and how perfectly dear of him to help me out! When one's an author, you know, example and illustration are absolutely necessary. Now tonight, when I get to work on 'All for Her!' I can write that second act, where the theft of the jewels is discovered and Reginald D'Arcy's proud father disinherits him, without any trouble and have the old man's rage true to life. Of course, the language will have to be more gentlemanly and refined. But oh, I do love art—really, next to being on the stage itself, I think writing plays the grandest thing!

"Now the question arises, what am I going to do with the paper weight?"—and Miss Somers took it from her reticule. "Oh, I know—Mr. Blobson's so absent minded, I'll simply drop it in the pocket of that overcoat and he'll imagine he put it there himself."

No sooner said than done, and Miss Somers after a careful survey of her face in the glass, and with joy illuminating every feature, left the office and tripped lightly to the subway.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. Phone Plainfield 1000.

New Jersey's Greatest Store

The First Store in New Jersey to Adopt Shorter Hours

HAHNE & CO.

NEWARK

Store opens Daily at 9 A. M. Closes Saturday 6 P. M.

Our Greatest Lace Sale!--

Newest Laces!

—Not a sale of "old stock" laces—but every piece this season's best—this season's most wanted styles. And with a lace season ahead it behooves women to buy tomorrow—buy here—when prices are considerably less than usual. Values have been eliminated in this announcement—the items and prices tell their own story, as you will note by these—

—Silver and Gold Flouncings, 6 to 24 inches wide, at, yard ..... $1.25 to $6.50
—Black Jet Flouncings, 8 to 20 inches wide, at, yard ..... $1.75 to $5.50
—Black Jet Allovers, 20 inches wide, in pretty patterns, yard ..... $3.25 to $5.50
—Gold Nets, fine mesh and also figured meshes, yard ..... $1.50 to $3.00
—Black Jet Tunics, single and double flounce, each ..... $8 to $10
—Cotton and Linen Torchon Edges, 2 and 3 inches wide, yard 3c
—All Linen Torchon Edges, with insertions to match, yard 5c
—Cotton Cluny Edges, in white and ecru, suitable for curtains, in 1, 2 and 3 inch widths, per yard 5c
—Cotton Torchon Edges and Insertions, also imitation Irnsh Edges and Insertions, per yard 5c
—Shadow Lace Edges, all white, 3 to 5 inches wide, per yard 5c
—Point de Paris Edges and Insertions, also shadow edges, 4 and 5 inches wide, yd... 5c
—All Linen Cluny Edges, in cream only, also all-linen Torchon Edges and Insertions, 2 and 3 inches wide, per yard 12½c
—All Pure Linen Cluny Edges, with insertions to match, 5 to 10 inches wide, per yard.. 25c
—Shadow Lace Flouncings, in white and cream, 18 inches wide, per yard 19c
—French and German Val. Edges and Insertions, 12-yard pieces 35c
—French and German Val. Edges and Insertions, matched patterns, 12-yard pieces.. 50c —Hand-made Lace Tumbler and Plate Doilies, in five sizes; prices, each—7c, 10c, 12½c, 25c and 50c
—Hand-Made Irish Lace Picot Edge, yd.. 12½
—Hand-Made Irish Edges and Insertions, 2 inches wide, per yard 40c
—Hand-Made Irish Edges and Insertions, 3 inches wide, per yard 50c
—Hand-Made Irish Lace Edges and Insertions, 4 inches wide, per yard 65c —Hand-Crochet Medallions, 2-inch square, in numerous patterns, per dozen 15c
—18 and 20-inch Oriental Flouncings, in white and cream, per yard 69c
—27-inch Oriental Flouncings, in white and cream and all new patterns, per yard.... 95c
—42-inch Silk Nets, in black and colors, plain and fancy meshes, per yard 59c
—Tucked Nets, in white, cream and ecru; all width tucks, 20 in. wide, per yard..... 15c
—Odd Shades of All Silk Nets, 42 inches wide, also cream heavy mesh net, with large dots, per yard 15c
—18-inch Shadow Lace Allovers, in white and cream, per yard 25c
—Cotton Nets, in white and cream, 36 inches wide, per yard 25c
—Cotton Nets, 36 inches wide, in white and cream, per yard 35c
—Venise Bands and Edges, in cream and white, 4 and 5 inches wide, per yard..... 25c
—Black Oriental Edges, 4 inches wide, yd.. 10c
—Chiffon Cloths, in all shades, 40 and 42 inches wide, per yard ..... 90c and $1.25

TRIMMINGS

—Marabout Trimmings, in all colors,, yard. 25c
—Fur Trimmings, in black, white and brown, ½-inch widths, yard, 25c; 1-inch widths, 35c; 1½-inch widths 50c
—Imitation Ermine, 1-inch wide, per yd... 65c
—Marmot Fur, 2 inches wide $1.75
—Skunk—1-inch wide $1.50
—Hair, 2 inches wide $1.25
—Real Fox, 1 inch wide $4.98
—Fur Heads, in black, white and brown, each ..... 12½c and 25c
—All Silk Tassels, 5 in. long, in all colors 19c
—Jet and Beaded and Crystal Tassels, large size, in all colors 25c
—Jet and Beaded and Crystal Tassels, 3 and 4 inches long 25c
—All-Silk Tassels, in all colors, with cups. 50c
—Black Silk Frogs, in all the new shapes—
35c to $2.25
—Flower Trimmings, in all colors, yard—
12½c, 15c, 25c
—Rose Bud Trimmings, in pastel colors, yd. 75c

BUTTONS AND BUCKLES

—New Jet Buckles, in all sizes, doz. 19c to $2.00
—Crochet Buttons, in all sizes, doz 15c to $3.00
—Fancy Buttons, all sizes, doz.... 10c to $4.00
—Novelty Roman Pearl Buttons, in fancy shapes—dozen ..... 19c to 59c
—Pearl and Jet Buckles, in all sizes, each—
25c, 35c, 50c
—All Silk Aplique, in points, medallions and edges, Bulgarian shades, at, yd... 75c to $4.00

Main Floor

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

BE QUICK

THE DAILY PRESS must now urge its readers to lose no time in taking advantage of the big War Map offer, which must end soon. There are just about enough maps left to supply the demand, but they'll go fast, so ACT QUICKLY.

The Daily Press' War Map

In five colors; contains splendid portraits of great rulers; useful information concerning army, navy and aerial fleets; ALL the FACTS for BUSY people; and given to readers of this paper for ONE WAR MAP COUPON and

Only 10 Cents

Including NINE specially prepared color charts, showing strategic points and principal European capitals FREE.

SENT BY MAIL FOR 12 CENTS

Here's your chance to follow the war news as it comes from the press. Take immediate advantage of it. Don't be one of those "THAT'S WHAT I HEARD" fellows, but join the "I KNOW IT" club, for only 10 cents.

THIS BIG OFFER

Must End Soon

Satisfaction

There is just one and only one human motive that causes men to buy things, and that motive is—satisfaction, contentment in possession, use and enjoyment. This is one of the reasons why this agency is writing such a large volume of insurance.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO.

Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

SAURER AT LAST GETS WESTFIELD

It Took Ten Innings to Do It But They Finally Come Ahead by Two Runs.

HOME PLAYERS HELP

Lambertson Makes Bad Slip and McIntosh Gives Mullin a Pass That Forced in the Tying Run—McLaughlin Allows Only Six Hits.

Lambertson's bad play in the ninth inning and the two free passes issued by McIntosh in this same frame was the cause of the downfall of the Westfield aggregation at the hands of the Saurer team Saturday afternoon at Recreation Park after the home players had about cinched the game. However, the Saurer boys never admit defeat until the last out is made in the final round and when their last chance came they worried the opposing pitcher to hits or passes which gave the same results.

Warry MacLaughlin appeared for the first time this year against the Mt. Ararat bunch of sluggers and had a little on McIntosh, the Garwood twirler and ex-Pingry wonder, through the entire contest. The latter was wild at times and dug big holes in front of the plate with the ball. The home twirler also had something that most left handers do not take advantage of. While in the box he faced first base and when he threw to that bag it was a question as to whether he made a balk or not. The umpire evidently thought he did not as he would pay no attention to the pleas of the local manager.

The game was slow with no interest and McIntosh made it all the slower by taking about thirty seconds of rest before pitching every ball. In the first session Warry was touched for three singles and the Saurer fielders were guilty of a brace of errors. When the inning closed the home club had registered three tallies, which looked big enough to win the game. But in the very next inning the locals began getting those runs back and scored once in each of the next three frames, tying the score. Two more misplays in the fifth gave the home team one run. Kjellmark made first on a fielder's choice and tried to steal second. Mullin threw the ball bad and it went by Martin. Miller ran in to back him up and the sphere rolled past him.

In the ninth frame the Mackmen tied matters up with the help of the opposing players. Wilson walked and Alberts bunted, sending Wilson to second. Miller singled, sending Wilson to third and he took second on the next pitched ball. Harriman hit a slow one to Lambertson who looked all around the field and then it was too late to catch Harriman going to first. With the bases full, Jaeger struck out and when Tommy went to the plate McIntosh knew he was going to have some trouble. Mullin fouled two and let two go. Then he fouled two more and passed up one, making it three and two. He fouled another and finally let a wide one go, drawing a pass and forcing Wilson in with the tying run. Martin fanned.

In the tenth MacLaughlin was passed and stole second. Garretson hit one into right field for a double and Warry scored. He later scored on an error. The home players were helpless in their half of the tenth and Alberts ended the game by throwing to Garretson, after catching a fly, for a double.

The score:

SAURER.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.
Harriman, 3b	4	0	1	1	4
Jaeger, ss	4	1	2	3	1
Mullin, c	4	0	0	6	1
Martin, 2b	5	1	2	2	2
McLaughlin, p	3	1	0	1	3
Garretson, 1b	4	2	1	10	0
Wilson, lf	3	1	2	2	0
Alberts, rf	4	0	0	1	1
Miller, cf	5	0	1	4	1
	36	6	9	30	13

WESTFIELD.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.
Cruttenden, ss	5	1	2	3	3
Kjellmark, 1b	4	2	2	13	0
Recorden, 2b	4	1	1	5	7
Worth, cf	4	0	0	1	0
Lambertson, 3b	4	0	0	1	1
Himmiell, rf	4	0	0	1	1
Wilson, lf	3	0	1	0	0
Hunt, c	4	0	0	5	1
McIntosh, p	4	0	0	1	1
	36	4	6	30	14

Errors: Recorden 3, Cruttenden, Lambertson, Harriman, Jaeger, Mullin, Miller.

Score by innings:

Saurer	0 1 1 1 0 0 0 0 1 2	6
Westfield	3 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0	4

Summary: Two-base hits, Martin, Garretson; left on bases, Westfield 4; Saurer 6; passed balls, Hunt 2; first base on errors, Saurer 2, Westfield 2; stolen bases, Alberts 2, Jaeger 2, McLaughlin, Garretson; double plays, Cruttenden to Recorden, Cruttenden to Recorden to Kjellmark, Alberts to Garretson; hit by pitcher, by McLaughlin (Wilson); bases on balls, of McIntosh 6; off McLaughlin 2; struck out, by McIntosh 5; by McLaughlin 4. Time of game, 2 hours and 5 minutes; umpire, Tobin.

CALENDAR OF SPORTS

TODAY.

Tournament for women's national golf championship opens at Glen Cove, N. Y.

Tournament for Ohio State's tennis championships opens at Cleveland.

Opening of Grand Circuit meeting at Detroit.

Opening of Lake Erie Trotting Circuit meeting at Washington, Pa.

"Kid" Williams vs. Louisiana, 6 rounds, at Philadelphia.

TOMORROW.

Tennis tournament for intercollegiate championships opens at Philadelphia.

SATURDAY.

Senior metropolitan track and field championships at Celtic Park, N. Y.

Motor boat races for American championship and Wrigley trophy begin at Chicago.

BASEBALL NOTES

Although a pennant winner the Belton club of the Middle Texas League, finished the season $5,000 to the bad.

Catcher Frank Snyder, who has been doing such sensational work behind the bat for the Cardinals, is only 20 years old.

Pitcher "Rube" Oldham, recently purchased by Detroit from Providence, had a trial with the Philadelphia Nationals in 1912.

Joe Evers, the Dubuque second baseman and brother of Johnny Evers, of the Braves, is reported seriously ill with malaria fever.

Jack Martin, once a member of the Yankees and later with the Boston Braves, is making good playing short with the Phillies.

"Rabbit" Maranville, of the Braves, has batted at a .397 clip against the Pirates this year, having produced 25 hits in 63 times at bat.

Rumor has it that Hal Chase will pilot the Buffalo team of the Federal League, next season. As manager of the Yankees in 1911, Chase was a good first baseman.

Both Traverse City and Boyne City have been dropped from the Michigan State League circuit. The league will finish the season with four clubs, Ludington, Muskegon, Cadillac and Manistee.

The Pittsburgh Pirates will have to travel some from now on to keep up Fred Clarke's record of finishing in the first division every season since he took charge of the Piratical band.

The Duluth club, of the Northern League, has sold Pitcher Cunningham to the Detroit Tigers and Pitcher Blancke to Toronto. Blancke is the leading strike-out heaver of the Northern circuit.

Pete Kniseley, who was expected to do a heap of heavy clouting for the Cubs, has failed to deliver. Earlier in the season Pete did wonderful work with the stick in the Southern League.

Add the name of George Burns to the list of players who have had the extreme pleasure of smashing a homer with the bases full. The Giant outfielder turned the trick against Brooklyn the other day.

WITH THE BOXERS

Snowy Baker, the Australian promoter, has inaugurated a scheme for the training of Australian schoolboys in boxing and physical exercise.

Middleweights and lightweights have the call at the present time. The crop of heavyweights seems to be getting poorer every year.

Boxing bouts may be resumed in Madison Square Garden, New York, this winter under the old management of the Garden Athletic Club.

Jack Britton figures he is the logical opponent for Freddies Welsh, the lightweight champion. Britton claims he can make the weight and should be given a chance to regain the championship for your Uncle Sam.

—Your "to let" ad focuses the attention of all probable renters on your property.

SECOND ROUND FOR FALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Low Scores Are Made in Exciting Competition at the Park Golf Club.

The chief event at the Park Golf Club, Saturday, was the second round for the fall championship honors, with the following result:

H. H. Woodland beat J. A. Wilson, 7 and 5; H. L. Moodey beat H. E. Blazier, 1 up; Clarence J. Hand beat W. H. Nischwitz, 3 and 1; Dr. H. K. Carroll beat A. C. VanArsdale, 5 and 4. The play will be continued on Saturday, with the finals a week from Saturday.

These scores were returned for the President's and Oakmont Cups:

H. H. Woodland, 89, 9-80; H. L. Moodey, 95, 13-82; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 90, 8-82; Clarence J. Hand, 98, 15-83; Royle T. Phillips, 94, 8-86; W. H. Nischwitz, 100, 12-88; H. E. Blazier, 96, 7-89; Charles B. Morse, 103, 14-91; J. Fred Hillman, 111, 19-92.

S. D. LOUNSBURY AND H. T. EATON WINNERS

Defeat D. O. Rogers and Arthur Murphy in Four-ball Championship.

S. D. Lounsbery and H. T. Eaton by defeating D. O. Rogers and Arthur Murphy, 2 up in a close and exciting match, at the Plainfield Country Club, on Saturday, won the four-ball championship of the club and a cup offered for that honor.

These scores were returned for the Golf Committee Cup:

B. C. Kenyon, 92, 20-72; W. M. Alling, 89, 16-73; S. T. Perrin, 91, 16-75; L. G. Carman, 90, 12-78; H. D. Hibbard, 92, 14-78; C. O. Holmes, 106, 21-85.

The point winners for the Golf Committee Cup, on September 5, not previously announced, were as follows: B. C. Kenyon, 96, 20-76; D. O. Rogers, 90, 10-80; C. O. Holmes, 102, 21-81.

These scores were returned in the weekly sweepstakes event on Saturday:

B. C. Kenyon, 92, 20-72; W. M. Alling, 89, 16-73; T. S. Wheeler, 90, 16-74; Charles A. Reed, 87, 13-74; D. H. Rowland, 95, 16-79; C. O. Holmes, 106, 21-85.

FRANK BRUGGY MAY GO TO BIG LEAGUES NEXT YEAR

Frank Leo Bruggy, formerly of the Plainfield team, but now catcher of the Lawrence team, may be drafted by more than one club. An authority on big league baseball remarked the other day that from what he had heard he was led to believe that more than one draft will be found for Bruggy. The Boston National and the Toronto club of the International League, were known to be sweet on Bruggy. Neither club would purchase him, but they may put in a draft.

In a game against Lynn, Thursday, Bruggy rapped out four hits out of four attempts with the willow. He held down second base, accepting six chances. He made a brace of errors.

EAGLES WILL MEET RAHWAY ON LOCAL ALLEYS TONIGHT

The local Eagles bowling team will meet the Rahway birds on the Second street alleys tonight. Manager Miller hopes to have his regular team present and expects to give the visitors a good rub. Last week the locals lost to Somerville, but there were only two regulars bowling.

The Rahway pinners are considered good and will be seen here more this winter when they appear in the State league. Some time later in the week the locals will meet their Somerville brothers again.

WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

New York, Sept. 14—The eyes of all women interested in the game of golf will be turned this week toward the links of the Nassau Country Club, at Glen Cove, where the annual tournament for the women's national championship was opened today under conditions of a favorable nature. Though the war has prevented Europe and Canada from sending their star players this year, the representation of American experts is all that could be desired and the indications are that the tournament will be one of the most interesting since the annual events to decide the premier title for women were first inaugurated.

MONROE BALLISTS FORFEIT IN TENTH

They Claim That Umpire Did Not Call "Play Ball" When Hope Man Hit Safely.

Hope and Monroe battled for ten innings in the second game of the post-season series Saturday afternoon at Clinton avenue and the latter refused to play the last half of the tenth because they claimed that the umpire had not given orders to start the inning. The game was loosely played throughout and at the end of the ninth the score was six-all. Monroe did nothing in the tenth and the first man up for Hope hit safely. The Monroe players left the field and would not play.

In the first inning the Monroe batters repeated their actions of last week when they scored three runs and held their opponents to one. Hope played uphill ball all the game and was never in the lead. After the Monroe boys had scored one in the third the Fourth street swatters tied matters up with a brace in the second and one tally in the third. Two innings passed without a score and the Monroe batters started to cinch the game in the sixth. Aided by the Hope errors they crossed the plate twice. In their last stand the Hope boys hit the ball hard and tied the score. The tenth session brought no rewards for Monroe and they quit, so the contest was called. The Fourth street team was guilty of seven errors and their opponents made only two, but the former totalled sixteen safeties while Schott was holding his opponents to seven. The game was forfeited to Hope.

The score:

MONROE.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Gunzelman, rf-2b	5	1	1	1	2	0
Savidge, lf	4	1	2	2	1	0
Hendry, 1b	4	0	1	9	0	0
L. Apgar, rf	2	0	0	0	0	0
Beekman, 2b	3	1	0	1	2	0
Pennoyer, 3b	5	1	1	4	3	0
T. Apgar, cf	3	0	1	0	1	0
Downs, ss	4	1	0	2	3	0
Hess, c	4	1	1	6	0	2
Brick, p	4	0	0	2	0	0
	40	6	7*	27	12	2

*None out in tenth.

HOPE.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Snyder, 3b	5	0	2	1	1	0
Grisley, 2b	4	1	2	2	2	0
Brown, c	3	0	2	13	2	1
Luthman, 1b	5	0	4	9	0	0
Walls, ss	5	1	1	1	1	3
T. Heron, lf	4	0	1	1	0	1
Overland, rf	4	1	1	1	0	0
Thorne, cf	4	2	3	0	0	1
Schott, p	3	1	0	0	1	1
	37	6	16x	28	7	7

xGunzelman out twice foul bunt on third strike.

Score by innings:

Monroe	3 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0	6
Hope	1 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 x	6

Summary: Two base hits, Snyder and T. Heron; three base hits, Pennoyer; left on base, Hope 8, Monroe 8; double plays, Grisley (unassisted), T. Apgar to Pennoyer to Beekman; base on balls, off Schott 1, off Brick 3; struck out, by Brick 6, by Schott 13; passed ball, Hess; earned runs, Monroe 2, Hope 2; umpires, Brown and Fraleigh.

FOUR MATCHES TO BE PLAYED IN K. OF C. TONIGHT

The Knights of Columbus one man bowling tournament will be started tonight, and four matches will be played, Moynihan, Hillman, Caulfield and Pasch being the contestants. As this is the opening night of the schedule a large crowd is expected to witness the pinning and some good scores are expected as these men are among the highest in the club.

The schedule calls for matches all winter and the tournament will undoubtedly prove interesting to its close. Prizes will be offered for the winners of the tourney. Tonight's matches will be played as follows:

M. J. Moynihan vs. F. J. Hillman.
J. T. Caulfield vs. H. J. Pasch.
H. J. Pasch vs. M. J. Moynihan.
F. J. Hillman vs. J. T. Caulfield.

HACKETTSTOWN LEADS IN POST SEASON SERIES

Hackettstown, Sept. 14—In the first of three post-season games between Newton and Hackettstown, played at Hackettstown, Saturday, Hackettstown won by the score of 8 to 7. A spectacular play by Irving, stealing home, scored the run that won in the ninth inning. Two men were out and Captain Driscoll was at the bat, with two strikes against him. The score:

Newton	0 2 0 0 0 0 4 1 — 7
Hackettstown	2 3 0 0 0 0 0 3 — 8

Batteries—Lindaman and Egan; Scanlon and Hohman.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

PETS DEFEAT COPS BY 10 TO 6 SCORE

Fourteen Errors Made in All and Three Homers Feature Slow Contest.

The Pets beat the Cops, Saturday afternoon, on Parker Field, by the score of 10 to 6 and fourteen errors were made. The result of the contest was never in doubt after the first inning, when the Pets scored three runs and the bluecoats were blanked. Harney was on the mound for the officers and Jennings opposed him. Only five real cops appeared, so they had to pick up some good men at the field. Frederickson, Bergen and Townley were among those signed and the box score shows that all three contributed to the error column.

Jennings fanned eleven "cop" batters, while Harney only succeeded in fanning one. Homers by Fritts, Stine and Frederickson were the features of the game. In the first inning with two down, two hits mixed with two errors and a pass netted the Pets three runs. Two in the second and third made a comfortable lead. The cops broke the ice in the second with one tally and also made three in the fifth. The score remained 7 to 4 for two innings and then the Pets started hitting again and made three counts in the seventh. These were made when Stine hit for four bases and two scored ahead of him. In their last frame the coppers started to get even but only got a little way and two rounds were chalked up.

The errors that were made kept the scorers busy all the time and the strange part of the game is the Pets only outbatted their opponents by one hit. Bergen caught Harney and only three were able to steal.

The score:

PLAINFIELD.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Seifts, 3b	4	0	1	2	2
Alberts, lf	5	1	1	0	0
Dixon, 1b	4	2	0	7	0
Morganroph, ss	4	1	0	3	2
Stine, rf	4	2	2	0	0
Dorman, cf	4	1	1	1	0
Brown, 2b	4	1	2	3	2
Nelson, c	4	2	2	11	2
Jennings, p	3	0	0	0	2
	36	10	9	27	10

COPPERS.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Townley, ss	5	1	1	0	2
Berger, 2b	5	0	1	2	3
Fritts, 3b	4	2	1	4	3
Bergen, c	4	0	0	3	2
Harney, p	3	0	1	1	3
McCarthy, cf	4	0	0	2	0
Flatley, rf	4	0	0	0	0
Frederickson, lf	4	1	2	3	0
McIntyre, 1b	4	2	2	9	0
	37	6	8	24	13

Errors: Fritts 3, Townley 2, Brown 2, Nelson, Stine, Morganroph, Seifts, Berger, McCarthy, Frederickson.

Score by innings:

Cops	0 1 0 0 3 0 0 0 2	6
Pets	3 2 2 0 0 0 0 0 3 x	10

Summary: Home runs, Fritts, Frederickson, Stine; three base hits, Nelson, Harney, Berger; two base hits, Dorman; sacrifice hits, Seifts; stolen bases, Dixon 2, Jennings, Fritts 2; struck out, by Harney 1, by Jennings 11; bases on balls, off Harney 1, off Jennings 3; hit by pitcher, Fritts.

HIGHLANDERS WIN EASILY FROM ARIONS AGGREGATION

In a close and interesting game on the Highlanders' grounds, the Highlanders defeated the Arions 3 to 1, Saturday afternoon. Inability to hit T. Denny was the chief cause of defeat. Hamilton twirled well for the losers. Stebor and Huffmeister led the hitting for the Highlanders and also played well in the field.

The score:

ARIONS.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Brennan, lf	5	0	1	2	0	0
Morley, 1b	5	1	1	6	0	0
Marsh, ss	3	0	0	1	3	0
Miller, 3b	3	0	0	2	1	0
Maritz, 2b	4	0	0	0	0	0
Russel, 2b	4	0	0	5	3	0
Lane, rf	4	0	0	0	0	0
H. Maritz, c	4	0	1	5	2	0
Hamilton, p	4	0	0	3	3	0
	36	1	3	24	12	1

HIGHLANDERS.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Kyle, 3b	4	1	0	0	1	1
Huffmeister, 1b-rf	4	0	3	10	0	2
N. Luthman, 2b	3	1	2	0	6	1
J. Denny, rf-1b	4	0	3	1	0	0
Dodd, c	4	0	0	10	2	0
T. Denny, p	3	0	0	0	2	0
Hanzel, lf	3	0	1	2	0	0
P. Luthman, cf	4	0	1	1	0	1
Stebor, ss	3	1	3	3	1	0
	32	3	13	27	12	5

Summary: Two base hits, Huffmeister, Morley; three base hit, J. Denny; stolen bases, Stebor, Miller, Morley; base on balls, off Hamilton 2, off Denny 2; umpires, Messrs. Stebor and McQuigan.

—It pays to read the advertising columns of The Press.

School Boys and Girls

The best place, in Plainfield, to have your bicycle put in shape for the school season is at

George L. Simon's

179 North Ave. Opp. Depot.

BICYCLES TIRES SUNDRIES

HOLY CROSS TO HAVE NEW PRACTISE FIELD

Lot at East Front and Church Streets is Now Under Consideration.

Manager "Doc" Doyle, of the Holy Cross football team, is endeavoring to arrange for the use of the lot at East Front and Church streets for practice work. Heretofore the team has been forced to journey to Hyde Oval for the weekly signal workouts and this has proven a great inconvenience to a number of the players. Several other fields are being considered by the gridiron manager, but in all probability the above mentioned place will be decided upon. Arc lights will be installed as a means of facilitating night drills and active work will start this week.

Saturday afternoon, fifteen men, including a large number of veterans reported to Coach Martin and engaged in an informal workout. Present prospects are encouraging for a banner gridiron season and Manager Doyle is planning to open the schedule the first Saturday afternoon in October with one of the U.S.S. teams as the local eleven's opponent.

A number of new candidates who look particularly promising at this stage of the spring training have reported to the management and it is planned to develop several new regulars for the positions that were weak last year. It became known yesterday that the Vikings, of Bayonne, one of the local's strongest opponents, would be dropped from the schedule this year owing to the attitude displayed by several members of the out-of-town aggregation during the 1913 season.

SECOND NIGHT TOURNAMENT WILL START THIS EVENING

The second night tennis tournament, under the auspices of the Westfield Golf Club, will be started tonight on the club courts. Several months ago this feature of playing tennis by artificial light was inaugurated and proved very popular as well as successful. Large arc lights have been placed over the courts and it is just like playing in daylight.

Many entries have been handed in for this tournament and it will undoubtedly prove very successful. Play will continue every night this week that weather permits.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT SCOUT ATHLETIC MEET

The Bound Brook Boy Scouts held their first annual field meet Saturday afternoon, at Bound Brook. About 100 persons witnessed the meet, among whom were scouts from Plainfield, New Brunswick and Bound Brook; but only the New Brunswick and Bound Brook scouts entered in the games.

Scout Master W. L. Clarkson, of Bound Brook, had charge of the meet, with Charles A. Fisher as timer in the track events, and Telford Bailie as scorekeeper.

NORTH PLAINFIELD A. C. HOLDS FIRST PRACTICE

The North Plainfield A. C., a newly formed football club in the borough, held its first practice Saturday afternoon at Hyde Oval. About twenty candidates reported and light signal practice was held. Some fine material has been unearthed and the borough boys will probably have a fine eleven. Most of the players have had experience for the past two seasons with the Holy Cross junior team and know the game.

Manager Daniel Denny is booking some of the fastest teams in this vicinity to meet the locals and his schedule will start about the first of next month.

FOR OHIO TENNIS TITLES.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 14—The annual tournament for the lawn tennis championships of Ohio opened auspiciously today on the courts of the East End Tennis Club in this city. The entrants are numerous and of a class that assures some spirited competitions for the titles.

THREE ROUNDS OVER IN P. C. C. TOURNEY

Beers and Cochran Survive and Will Probably Meet for Club Title.

A good start was made in the annual lawn tennis singles championship of the Plainfield Country Club, on Saturday. There were nineteen entries and the first three rounds were played, bringing the event down to the semi-finals. These and the first round will be played Saturday afternoon.

The draw resulted in A. D. Beers and H. J. Cochran, former title holders, being placed in opposite halves. Both came through, Beers after a hard fight with Harry T. Eaton in one set, and Cochran very easily. The other semi-finalists are C. W. Baker, who will meet Cochran, and T. M. Day, 3rd., who is in the same half as Beers. The summary:

First round—R. W. Harper defeated A. W. West, 7-5, 6-0; A. D. Beers defeated A. Lovell, 6-3; 6-0; Blake defeated H. H. Foster by default.

Second round—C. W. Baker defeated C. A. King, 7-5, 6-3; T. M. Day, 2nd, defeated J. Lyon, 6-1, 6-2; S. Merribew defeated H. Brown by default; H. J. Cochran defeated W. Harper, 6-2, 6-3; Beers defeated Blake, 6-1, 6-1; H. T. Eaton defeated H. W. Brower, 8-6, 3-6, 6-3; T. M. Day, 3rd., defeated H. S. Gough, 6-1, 6-3; H. E. Haws defeated J. Irons, 7-5, 6-1.

Third round—Baker defeated T. M. Day, 2nd., 5-7, 6-1, 6-4; Cochran defeated Merribew, 6-0, 6-2; Beers defeated Eaton, 8-6, 6-3; T. M. Day, 3rd., defeated Haws, 6-1, 6-1.

JACK'S DOUBLE DECKER BEAT THE GIANTS, 1 TO 0

Jack Martin's two base hit in the first game of the double header with the Giants, Saturday, at Philadelphia proved fatal to the New York team and Marquard as that bingle scored the only run of the game, and caused the Giants to fall back in the standing. Jack's hitting has fallen off some lately but he was there in the fifth inning Saturday with the needed hit. That was the only inning that Marquard weakened and after Paskert had singled and taken second, the local player took the stick and dealt the telling blow.

In the field Jack did not have much to do, although he stopped a rally in the second inning that might have won the game for the Giants. He had one putout and one assist to his credit. In the second game Fromme allowed his opponents only two hits and Jack didn't get in on either of these. Instead he made an error and also had two putouts and four assists.

Martin was in town last night. He

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES

AT

Leo Zeisel's

222 WEST FRONT STREET.

Next to Proctor's.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

returned to Philadelphia this afternoon and will play against the Giants this afternoon in another double header.

MANY WILL ATTEND BASKETBALL RALLY

Y. M. C. A. Team to Start the Season Going in Association Wednesday Night.

In response to the call issued by Myrton Glover, captain of the 1913-14 Y. M. C. A. basketball team, for a meeting in the association Wednesday night, marked enthusiasm has been displayed and a large attendance of basketball players is expected at the session. A number of the veterans incluuding Hetfield, Glover, Moulton, Brynariski, Peacock and Dunning have signified their intention of getting back in the game once more and present conditions indicate that the local association will be represented by a particularly strong combination this fall and winter.

At the Wednesday night meeting it is expected that a captain and manager will be appointed for the season and at that time Physical Director Robert Meerman will assume charge of the aggregation. A number of players who were conspicuous in High School athletics last year have signified their intention of trying for the vacant positions and it now looks that the personnel of the aggregation would be entirely changed this season.

Mr. Meerman has under consideration a new schedule of gymnastic work that will broaden the scope of basketball work giving more members a chance to participate in the weekly exhibition games. It is proposed to conduct more than one game each week-end and to give as many men as possible an opportunity to exhibit their prowess. This would also facilitate the work in picking a representative combination and through this channel the management expects to be able to place an unusually strong quintet in the field.

ASSOCIATION TERM USHERED IN TODAY

Gym Classes Started in the Y. M. C. A. Under Supervision of New Director.

Work for the season in the various Y. M. C. A. gymnasium classes got under way this afternoon under the supervision of the new director, Robert Meerman. He will have personal charge of all of the association work including that devoted to boys and men and the regular schedule of classes has been announced by him. This afternoon the Indian League met at 3 o'clock with a large attendance and active preparation for the fall work was started.

At 5:40 o'clock this afternoon the business and professional men meet for the first time this year. At 8 o'clock tonight the employed boys' class, one of the flourishing evening departments, will convene. Tomorrow afternoon the first session of gymnastic work in the College League will be ushered in, boys between the ages of fourteen and sixteen benefitting. At 4 o'clock tomorrow the High School boys from this city and the borough will be given instruction and at 8 o'clock the senior class will start the ball rolling for the fall term.

The association has been renovated and many new features added in anticipation of a busy season. The enrollmen at the present time is large and many new members annually make their appearance around the first of October.

NEW SYSTEM OF LOCKER CHECKING AT Y. M. C. A.

Physical Director Robert Meerman, of the local Y. M. C. A., is introducing a new system of locker checking in the boys' department of the association. Hereafter each member will be provided with a metal check with individual numbers to which his locker key will be attached.

This check will be left at the association office and will be delivered only to the owner. The new method is being tried as a means of eliminating the confusion that has been experienced in the past.

WON IN THE NINTH.

Four runs in the ninth were enough for the St. Joseph's ballists to nose out the Y. M. A. team, of Bound Brook, Saturday afternoon by one run. The final score was 4 to 3. The Y. M. A. players had the game cinched fifty different ways up to the ninth and then their oponents turned defeat into victory. They landed on Mathews for six clean hits and good base running won the game.

P. H. S. PRACTICE TOMORROW.

The first practice of the Plainfield High School football team will be held on Parker Field tomorrow afternoon. A tackling dummy has been erected but the squad will only have a light work-out for the first few days. About thirty candidates are expected to report to the first call.

LOCAL TEAM LOSES GAME IN FIFTEENTH SESSION

The Plainfield A. A. baseball team lost out in the fifteenth inning at Bound Brook, yesterday afternoon, to the strong St. Joseph's nine of that place. Maiden was on the mound for the local team and pitched a fine game against the Brookers and several errors aided in his defeat. McFadden also pitched a fine game and well deserved the victory.

In the fifteenth frame Hannon singled and stole second. He scored with the winning run on a hit. The score by innings:

Plainfield—
0 2 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—5
Bound Brook—
1 1 0 0 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—6

Batteries: Maiden and Moulton; McFadden and Teeling.

BOROUGH SCHOOLS RE-OPENED TODAY

Somerset and Watchung Schools Have a Combined Attendance of 1,230.

The North Plainfield schools opened this morning, with an attendance of twelve hundred and thirty pupils, the largest number in the school history. Others are expected to register before the end of the week and bring the total close up to fourteen hundred. All of the teachers reported on time with the exception of the new manual training instructor.

In the High School there were registered this morning 181 against a total of 163 last year. It is expected that the High School mark will be over two hundred. In the grades there are 658 and the Watchung School has a registration of 341, including the kindergarten. There were fifty present in the new kindergarten building this morning.

Principal Albert Early had charge of the opening exercises of the High School and Supervising Principal Fred Aungst made a short address to the pupils. Dr. Justice Cooley, president of the Board of Education, also was present and make a few remarks. Miss Lanning, who was to take charge of the fourth grade in the Watchung School this year, resigned last Saturday, and her place has been filled by Miss Harold. Mr. Aungst met all the teachers this afternoon and they discussed the problems that the new instructors might be confronted with so that everything will be running in regular order as soon as possible.

HENRY BERGENER, AGED 71, DIES IN THIS CITY

Henry Bergener, who for twenty years conducted a barber shop in the Bronx, died this morning, after an illness of two months, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Angerbauer, 416 East Second street, in his seventy-fourth year. Mr. Bergener, who had been ill for the past two months, was taken sick shortly after returning from a trip to Germany, his native land. He was a member of Cheruski Lodge, I. O. F., of New York, in which he was active for many years.

Mr. Bergener is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Angerbauer, at whose home he died, and Mrs. James McDonough, of Westchester, N. Y.; one son, Charles F. Bergener, of Philadelphia, and one brother living in Germany. The funeral services will be held tomorrow evening at the home of his daughter on East Second street, at 8 o'clock. Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor of the Tinity Reformed church, will officiate. The interment Wednesday will be private.

MRS. BARBARA RICKET DIES IN HER 71ST YEAR

Mrs. Barbara Rickert, aged 71 years, widow of the late Peter Rickert, died yesterday, at her home on Fairview avenue, the borough, after a long illness. Mrs. Rickert had been an invalid for some time, having had a stroke of paralysis about a year ago. She was a member of one of the oldest Plainfield families. Among those who survive are two daughters, Miss Margaret Rickert, of the borough, and Mrs. A. T. Robert, of Elizabeth, together with three sons, Frank, George and John Rickert, all of this city.

The funeral services will be held at her late home tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, while the interment on Wednesday will be private. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate at the services.

DR. STRONG RETURNS.

Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, occupied his pulpit yesterday, for the first since returning from his vacation abroad, and preached two good sermons. The chorus choir, under the direction of Howard Case, organist and choir director, also returned yesterday for the fall and winter.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

WOUNDED BELGIAN SOLDIERS

© 1914, by American Press Association.

Picture made in St. Jean's hospital, Brussels, after the fighting at Liege.

GERMAN ARMY'S FIELD TELEPHONE

Communication is kept up at all times between the various military divisions.

FRENCH HAVE 500,000 FRESH TROOPS

(Continued from page 1)

ed by friend and foe. When I reached here at 4 o'clock yesterday morning I found dreary desolation accentuated by the absence of military life. A heavy rain was falling. While there was no sign of the German army's front, a single Belgian gun near Semhst kept up a desultory booming. The shells fell near Werde, the bone of contention in the fighting of the previous day. The Belgian left wing has not retired.

The Germans have been heavily reinforced all along the line, especially as to guns, which are believed to have been brought from Liege, where there are thousands of German marines. It is rumored that the Belgian retirement was due to the fact that the Teutons would sack Brussels. The Belgian army is well supplied with guns, but has a most difficut task cut out for it to retake the capital.

Rome, Sept. 14, (Central News Cable)—Advices received here from Petrograd say that the number of Austrian prisoners now in the hands of the Russians aggregate about 280,000.

Amsterdam, Sept. 14 (Central News Cable).—Details of the battle in the neighborhood of Louvain show that the Belgians advanced twice toward Louvain. After four days of severe fighting the Belgians retired to the outer line of the Antwerp fortifications. The sally was originally intended to unmask the German positions. The Belgians occupied some of the strongest of them, the activity of the Belgian army having the effect of compelling the Germans to concentrate all of their available troops in Belgium

London, Sept. 14 (Central News Cable).—A complete report of the movements of the allies in France, carrying the operations up to September 10, is given in a communique given out by the Official Press Bureau this morning. The communique says:

"It will be remembered that the general position of our troops on Sunday, September 6, on our line was stated to be south of Marne, with French forces in the line on our right and left. There has been virtually no change in the situation since September 3, which marked the end of our army's long retirement from the Belgian frontier through the north of France. On Friday, September 4, it became apparent that there was an alteration in the direction of the advance of almost the whole of the first German army. That army since the battle near Mons on August 23 has been playing its part in the colossal strategic endeavor to create a sedan for the allies by an outflanking and enveloping movement around the whole left of their line, so as to encircle and drive the British and French south.

"There was now a chance for a change in its objective and it was observed that the German forces opposite the British in the great battle line were beginning to move in a southeasterly direction, instead of continuing toward the southwest and the capital."

The correspondent of the Daily News at Ghent telegraphs that he has confirmed the report that Russian troops are in Belgium, but where the Russians are and what their numbers may be the correspondent says that it would be indiscree to tell. He says that there is a possibility that the Russian is not the only army reinforcing the Belgians The Belgian government issued the following:

"After four days of hard fighting our field troops which left fortified positions at Antwerp to attack the German forces in the Brussels-Louvain-Malines triangle, have returned within the outer ring of the Antwerp fortification. The sortie, which at first seemed to be merely a skirmish operation against covering troops left by the enemy in front of Antwerp, developed into an action on an extensive scale. The enemy's psoition was very strong, owing to the nature of the ground and the earthworks thrown up during the last fortnight.

"The necessity of holding this position at all costs obliged the enemy to call for all available forces, thus the third German army corps, which had left Ninove for Nedebraekel, returned hastily and the ninth corps, which already was marching southward on the Audenarderuyen road, likewise was recalled. The result attained is of capital importance from the point of view of the allies' staff since in consequence of our intervention two German army corps have been unable to go to the assistance of the German armies retreating in France.

"The losses of both sides during the four days of fighting have been heavy, testifying to the stubbornness of the conflict. The fire of the Germans was very poor, however, and the wounds sustained by our men, generally speaking, of a slight character."

Washington, Sept. 14.—Virtually all Americans stranded in Europe will be out of the danger zone by October 1, according to a despatch to the War Department today, from Assistant Secretary of War Breckenridge, now in Paris. There are 500 Americans stranded in Genoa, the despatch relates, and about 40,000 remain in London. These will be moved without difficulty and ships sufficient to move them all already have been arranged for. Virtually all Americans who desired to go have already left France.

MUST SALOONS CLOSE?

The question of whether the borough saloons would be able to do business on September 24, the day of the special election, has been raised in some quarters of North Plainfield. It appears to be the opinion on the part of a large number that the intent of the Geran election laws that these places of business must be closed on all election days, whether they are special, general or primary elections.

PROPERTIES SOLD.

The majority of properties advertised for sale for unpaid taxes for some time, were sold this afternoon from the office of Collector William R. Townsend. In several cases, the sales were postponed for a period of from one to two weeks. A total of seventy-six parcels of property were sold.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The regular monthly business session of the Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church, is being held in the church parlors this afternoon.

The rally and promotion exercises of the Trinity Reformed Sunday-school will be held September 27, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The Dutch Arms Mens' Club of Trinity Reformed church, will hold their first meeting of the season Monday evening, September 21, at which time an informal dinner will be served at 7:15. A number of prominent speakers will be present.

A meeting of the Brotherhood of the First Methodist church will be held on Friday evening. Dr. James R. Joy will deliver an address on "Some Features of Present Euuropean Conditions." Dr. Joy has just returned from the other side of the Atlantic, and is well versed on the conditions there.

The First Methodist church Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet tomorrow afternoon at Vincent chapel at 3 o'clock.

The annual picnic of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church will be held Wednesday afternoon at the summer home of the president, Mrs. L.M. French, at "Hilltop," Johnston's Drive.

The Sunday-school board of the First Methodist church will be held tomorrow evening at Vincent chapel, when matters of importance will be discussed.

The Women's Missionary Circle of the First Baptist church will hold the first meeting of the season tomorrow afternoon at which time the president, Mrs. M. I. Cooley, will deliver a short address. The devotional exercises will be led by Mrs. J. H. Chase. A meeting of the executive committee will be held at 2:30, while a social hour will follow.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Raymond Giles and son, formerly of Grove street, have returned to their home in Brooklyn, after spending a few weeks with her sister, Miss Lillian Bye, of Clinton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Findley and children, of Jersey City, visited relatives here, yesterday, making the trip in their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hallock, of the borough, have gone to Maine on a camping trip.

Albert Zabriskie, of West End avenue, has sold his Marion roadster and purchased a touring car.

GERMANS REPORT VICTORY.

New York, Sept. 14.—A wireless message from Berlin, dated today, says the garrison at Antwerp has been repulsed, the Crown Prince's army is now attacking the forts between Verdun and Toulon on both sides. Prince Joachim arrived today in Berlin and has been lodged in Bellevue Palace. Last night's official details of the battle to the east of Paris cannot be made public. A new battle is in progress which up to the present time has been favorable to the Germans. Reports from Paris and London of a German defeat are declared untrue.

WHEN JENNY LIND SANG.

Only an Old Ballad, but It Touched the Hearers' Hearts.

Whenever Jenny Lind came to dinner my father was careful neither to ask her to sing nor to allow any one else to suggest it in her hearing if he could help it. He did not think it proper to ask any one to confer that kind of favor upon him merely because he or she was his guest.

Jenny Lind, however, fully appreciating my father's taste in the matter, used to go up to him and say quite simply, "Shall I sing?" And, of course, she was at once led to the piano, and an instant silence fell on the whole company. Her husband, Otto Goldschmidt, accompanied her.

I shall never forget one great occasion when, after singing one or two of her songs, she asked my father if there was any particular song he would like to hear. Some inspiration came to him to ask her if she ever sang "Auld Robin Gray."

She began it at once, and something must have moved her to throw all her marvelous power of emotion into the singing of this old world story. Never in my life have I ever heard anything so transporting and overwhelming. Tears were in her eyes and sobs of anguish seemed to swell up out of her heart. Every one in the great drawing room rose and stood around in a wide, spellbound circle, and when at last she had finished and stood with one hand on the piano, looking at the floor in silence, all were too overcome to speak. My father went to her, took her hand and led her away to a sofa, saying some words of gratitude to her, and the wonderful scene was over.—Hon Stephen Coleridge's Memoirs.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers to the Daily Press who are served by the route boys will confer a favor by promptly reporting to the Press office, either in person, by telephone or by mail, any negligence on the part of the route boys. Phone 1300.

At the Plainfield Theatre, Wednesday, Matinee and Night.

Mme. Sissieretta Jones, Original Black Patti, at Plainfield Theatre Thursday Night.

RECREATION NOTES

The Italian Social and Educational Club will mee, tonight at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School. Music and dancing wil be the main features of the evening.

The Washington Dramatic Club will meet tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Washington School. There will be a rehearsal of the two plays, "My Lord in Livery" and "Sarah's Young Man." Mr. White, who is coaching these new plays, will be present and a full cast of both plays is much desired.

FUNERAL OF M. C. SORENSON.

The funeral services of Maurice C. Sorenson, of Webster place, were held at his late home this afternoon, with many friends in attendance. Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, of the First Methodist church, officiated. Interment was made at Hillside cemetery.

MEETING POSTPONED.

Because of the death of Father William H. Miller, the regular meeting of the Women's League of St. Joseph's church, which was to have been held tonight in Debele Hall, has been postponed.

AUTO HIT CARRIAGE.

While driving a carriage on East Fifth street, yesterday afternoon, Jerry Connors was hit by an automobile driven by Dr. P. R. Albanasium, of Union Hill. The lighter vehicle was slightly damaged but the occupant was uninjured.

Charles A. Clarke, of this city, is registered at the Stirling, Atlantic City.

Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, of West Fifth street, was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital, Saturday morning, to undergo an operation.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

MAIL SAMPLE BALLOTS.

Sample copies of the ballots which are to be used in the city and borough on primary day, are today being distributed to the various Boards of Registry and Elections. These samples must be mailed to all registered voters at 12 o'clock noon of Wednesday. In this city, Republican, Democratic, Socialist and Progressive ballots will be mailed, while in the borough, all but the Socialist ballots will be mailed, as that party has as yet not polled the necessary five per cent. of the votes in Somerset county.

MRS. AGNES DAVIS RETURNS.

Mrs. Agnes B. Davis, of Watchung, returned home yesterday from London, Ontario, where she was called by the death of her husband last Tuesday. Mr. Davis had been a resident of London for over thirty-two years and served with No. 2 Company, of the Seventh Regiment, in London, in the Northwest Riel Rebellion in 1885. Besides his daughters, Miss Davis and Mrs. Margaret Griffiths, of Watchung, he is survived by two other grown children.

FUNERAL OF H. M. MEYERS.

A large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral services of Henry M. Meyers held yesterday afternoon, at the Coontown church, after a simple service had been conducted at his late home on Linden avenue, the borough. A large number of floral tributes were sent by many of the friends, among which were several set pieces. Rev. George Bowers, of Warrenville, officiated. The interment was made at the Coontown cemetery.

30TH REGIMENT REUNION.

The twenty-fourth annual re-union of the Thirtieth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteer Association, will be held at the Armory in Somerville, Wednesday, October 2, at 10:30 a. m. Events of fifty years ago will come up for discussion, and a good time is promised to all the veterans who take in this big event.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER IV.

"We'll give them tit for tat."

IT was not a whole man there; it was a piece of a man, the head and shoulders of a man that trailed down into a ragged darkness and a pool of shining black.

And even as she stared the mound above her swayed and crumbled, and a rush of hot water came pouring over her. Then it seemed to her that she was dragged downward.

* * * * * * *

When the rather brutish young aviator with the bullet head and the black hair cropped "en brosse" who was in charge of the French special scientific corps heard presently of this disaster to the war control he was so wanting in imagination in any sphere but his own that he laughed. Small matter to him that Paris was burning. His mother and father and sister lived at Caudebec, and the only sweetheart he had ever had—and it was poor love making then—was a girl in Rouen. He slapped his second in command on the shoulder. "Now," he said, "there's nothing on earth to stop us going to Berlin and giving them tit for tat. Strategy and reasons of state—they're over. Come along, my boy, and we'll just show these old women what we can do when they let us have our heads."

He spent five minutes telephoning, and then he went out into the courtyard of the chateau in which he had been installed and shouted for his automobile. Things would have to move quickly, because there was scarcely an hour and a half before dawn. He looked at the sky and noted with satisfaction a heavy bank of clouds athwart the pallid east.

He was a young man of infinite shrewdness, and his material and aeroplanes were scattered all over the countryside, stuck away in barns, covered with hay, hidden in woods. A hawk could not have discovered any of them without coming within reach of a gun. But that night he only wanted one of the machines, and it was handy and quite prepared under a tarpaulin between two ricks not a couple of miles away. He was going to Berlin with that and just one other man. Two men would be enough for what he meant to do.

He had in his hands the black complement to all those other gifts science was urging upon unregenerate mankind, the gift of destruction, and he was an adventurous rather than a sympathetic type.

He was a dark young man, with something negroid about his gleaming face. He smiled like one who is favored and anticipates great pleasures. There was an exotic richness, a chuckling flavor, about the voice in which he gave his orders, and he pointed his remarks with the long finger of a hand that was hairy and exceptionally big.

"We'll give them tit for tat," he said. "We'll give them tit for tat. No time to lose, boys."

And presently over the cloud banks that lay above Westphalia and Saxony the swift aeroplane, with its atomic engine as noiseless as a dancing sunbeam and its phosphorescent gyroscopic compass, flew like an arrow to the heart of the central European hosts.

It did not soar very high. It skimmed a few hundred feet above the banked darknesses of cumulus that hid the world, ready to plunge at once into their wet obscurities should some hostile flier range into vision. The tense young steersman divided his attention between the guiding stars above and the level, tumbled surfaces of the vapor strata that hid the world below. Over great spaces those banks lay as even as a frozen lava flow and almost as still, and then they were rent by ragged areas of translucency, pierced by clear chasms, so that dim patches of the land below gleamed remotely through abysses. Once he saw quite distinctly the plan of a big railway station outlined in lamps and signals and once the flames of a burning rick showing livid through a boiling drift of smoke on the side of some great hill. But if the world was masked it was alive with sounds. Up through that vapor floor came the deep roar of trains, the whistles of horns of motorcars, a sound of rifle fire away to the south and as he drew near his destination the crowing of cocks.

The sky above the indistinct horizons of this cloud sea was at first starry and then paler, with a light that crept from north to east as the dawn came on. The Milky way was invisible in the blue and the lesser stars vanished. The face of the adventurer at the steering wheel, darkly visible ever and again by the oval greenish glow of the compass face, had something of that firm beauty which all concentrated purpose gives, and something of the happiness of an idiot child that has at last got hold of the matches. His companion, a less imaginative type, sat with his legs spread wide over the long, coffin shaped box which contained in its compartments the three atomic bombs, the new bombs that would continue to explode indefinitely and which no one so far had ever seen in action. Hitherto carolinum, their essential substance, had been tested only in almost infinitesimal quantities within steel chambers embedded in lead. Beyond the thought of great destruction slumbering in the black spheres between his legs, and a keen resolve to follow out very exactly the instructions that had been given him, the man's mind was a blank. His aquiline profile against the starlight expressed nothing but a profound gloom.

The sky below grew clearer as the central European capital was approached.

So far they had been singularly lucky and had been challenged by no aeroplanes at all. The frontier scouts they must have passed in the night; probably these were mostly under the clouds. The world was wide, and they had had luck in not coming close to any soaring sentinel. Their machine was painted a pale gray that lay almost invisibly over the cloud levels below. But now the east was flushing with the near ascent of the sun. Berlin was but a score of miles ahead, and the luck of the Frenchmen held. By imperceptible degrees the clouds below dissolved.

Away to the northeastward in a cloudless pool of gathering light and with all its nocturnal illuminations still blazing was Berlin. The left finger of the steersman verified roads and open spaces below upon the mica covered square of map that was fastened by his wheel. There, in a series of lakelike expansions was the Havel away to the right, over by those forests must be Spandau. There the river split about the Potsdam island, and right ahead was Charlottenburg, cleft by a great thoroughfare that fell like an indicating beam of light straight to the imperial headquarters. There, plain enough, was the Thiergarten; beyond rose the imperial palace, and to the right those tall buildings, those clustering beflagged, bemasted roofs, must be the offices in which the central European staff was housed. It was all coldly clear and colorless in the dawn.

He looked up suddenly as a humming sound grew out of nothing and became swiftly louder. Nearly overhead a German aeroplane was circling down from an immense height to challenge him. He made a gesture with his left arm to the gloomy man behind and then gripped his little wheel with both hands, crouched over it and twisted his neck to look upward. He was attentive, tightly strung, but quite contemptuous of their ability to hurt him. No German alive he was assured could outfly him, or, indeed, any one of the best Frenchmen. He imagined they might strike at him as a hawk strikes, but they were men coming down out of the bitter cold up there, in a hungry, spiritless morning mood. They came slanting down like a sword swung by a lazy man, and not so rapidly, but that he was able to slip away from under them and get between them and Berlin. They began challenging him in German with a megaphone when they were still perhaps a mile away. The words came to him, rolled up into a mere blob of hoarse sound. Then, gathering alarm from his grim silence, they gave chase and swept down a hundred yards above him perhaps and a couple of hundred behind. They were beginning to understand what he was. He ceased to watch them and concentrated himself on the city ahead, and for a time the two aeroplanes raced.

A bullet came tearing through the air by him, as though some one was tearing paper. A second followed. Something tapped the machine.

It was time to act. The broad avenues, the park, the palaces below rushed, widening out nearer and nearer to them.

"Ready!" said the steersman.

The gaunt face hardened to grimness, and with both hands the bomb thrower lifted the big atomic bomb from the box and steadied it against the side. It was a black sphere two feet in diameter. Between its handles was a little celluloid stud, and to this he bent his head until his lips touched it. Then he had to bite in order to let the air in upon the inducive. Sure of its accessibility, he craned his neck over the side of the aeroplane and judged his pace and distance. Then very quickly he bent forward, bit the stud and hoisted the bomb over the side.

"Round," he whispered inaudibly.

The bomb flashed blinding scarlet in midair and fell, a descending column of blaze eddying spirally in the midst of a whirlwind. Both the aeroplanes were tossed like shuttlecocks, hurled high and sideways, and the steersman with gleaming eyes and set teeth fought in great banking curves for a balance. The gaunt man clung tight with hands and knees; his nostrils dilated, his teeth biting his lips. He was firmly strapped.

When he could look down again it was like looking down upon the crater of a small volcano. In the open garden before the imperial castle a shuddering star of evil splendor spurted and poured up smoke and flame toward them like an accusation. They were too high to distinguish people clearly or mark the bomb's effect upon the building until suddenly the facade tottered and crumbled before the flare as sugar dissolves in water. The man stared for a moment, showed all his long teeth, and then staggered into the cramped standing position his straps permitted, hoisted out and bit another bomb and sent it down after its fellow.

The explosion came this time more directly underneath the aeroplane and shot it upward edgeways. The bomb box tipped to the point of disgorgement, and the bomb thrower was pitched forward upon the third bomb with his face close to its celluloid stud. He clutched its handles and, with a sudden gust of determination that the thing should not escape him, bit its stud. Before he could hurl it over the monoplane was slipping sideways. Everything was falling sideways. Instinctively he gave himself up to gripping, his body holding the bomb in its place.

Then that bomb had exploded, and steersman, thrower and aeroplane were just flying rags and splinters of metal and drops of moisture in the air, and a third column of fire rushed eddying down upon the doomed buildings below.

Never before in the history of warfare had there been a continuing explosive. Indeed, up to the middle of the twentieth century the only explosives known were combustibles whose explosiveness was due entirely to their instantaneousness, and these atomic bombs which science burst upon the world that night were strange even to the men who used them. Those used by the allies were lumps of pure carolinum, painted on the outside with unoxidized cydonator inducive inclosed hermetically in a case of membranium. A little celluloid stud between the handles by which the bomb was lifted was arranged so as to be easily torn off and admit air to the inducive, which at once became active and set up radio activity in the outer layer of the carolinum sphere. This liberated fresh inducive, and so in a few minutes the whole bomb was blazing continual explosions. The central European bombs were the same, except that they were larger and had a more complicated arrangement for animating the inducive.

Always before in the development of warfare the shells and rockets fired had been but momentarily explosive, they had gone off in an instant once for all, and if there was nothing living or valuable within reach of the concussion and the flying fragments, then they were spent and over. But carolinum, which belonged to the B group of Hyslop's so called "suspended degenerator" elements, once its degenerative process had been induced, continued a furious radiation of energy, and nothing could arrest it. Of all Hyslop's artificial elements, carolinum was the most heavily stored with energy and the most dangerous to make and handle. To this day it remains the most potent degenerator known. What the earlier twentieth century chemists called its half period was seventeen days—that is to say, it poured out half of the huge store of energy in its great molecules in the space of seventeen days, the next seventeen days' emission was a half of that first period's outpouring, and so on. As with all radio-active substances, this carolinum, though every seventeen days its power is halved, though constantly it diminishes toward the imperceptible, is never entirely exhausted, and to this day the battlefields and bomb fields of that frantic time in human history are sprinkled with radiant matter and so centers of inconvenint rays.

What happened then when the celluloid stud was opened was that the inducive oxidized and became active. Then the surface of the carolinum began to degenerate. This degeneration passed only slowly into the substance of the bomb. A moment or so after its explosion began it was still mainly an inert sphere exploding superficially, a big, inanimate nucleus wrapped in flame and thunder. Those that were thrown from aeroplanes fell in this state. They reached the ground still mainly solid and, melting soil and rock in their progress, bored into the earth. There as more and more of the carolinum became active the bomb spread itself out into a monstrous cavern of fiery energy at the base of what became very speedily a miniature active volcano. The carolinum, unable to disperse freely, drove into and mixed up with a boiling confusion of molten soil and superheated steam and so remained, spinning furiously and maintaining an eruption that lasted for years or months or weeks, according to the size of the bomb employed and the chances of its dispersal. Once launched the bomb was absolutely unapproachable and uncontrollable until its forces were nearly exhausted, and from the crater that burst open above it puffs of heavy incandescent vapor and fragments of viciously punitive rock and mud, saturated with carolinum and each a center of scorching and blistering energy, were flung high and far.

Such was the crowning triumph of military science, the ultimate explosive that was to give the "decisive touch" to war.

A recent historical writer has described the world of that time as one that "believed in established words and was invincibly blind to the obvious in things." Certainly it seems now that nothing could have been more obvious to the people of the early twentieth century than the rapidity with which war was becoming impossible. And as certainly they did not see it. They did not see it until the atomic bombs burst in their fumbling hands. Yet the broad facts must have glared upon any intelligent mind. All through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the amount of energy that men were able to command was continually increasing. Applied to warfare that meant that the power to inflict a blow, the power to destroy, was continually increasing. There was no increase whatever in the ability to escape. Every sort of passive defense, armor, fortifications and so forth was being outmastered by this tremendous increase on the destructive side. Destruction was becoming so facile that any little body of malcontents could use it. It was revolutionizing the problems of police and internal rule. Before the last war began it was a matter of common knowledge that a man could carry about in a handbag an amount of latent energy sufficient to wreck half a city. These fact were before the minds of everybody. The children in the streets knew them. And yet the world still, as the Americans used to phrase it, "fooled around" with the paraphernalia and pretensions of war.

It is only by realizing this profound, this fantastic divorce between the scientific and intellectual movement on the one hand and the world of the lawyer-politician on the other that the men of a later time can hope to understand this preposterous state of affairs. Social organization was still in the barbaric stage. There were already great numbers of actively intelligent men and much private and commercial civilization, but the community as a whole was aimless, untrained and unorganized to the pitch of imbecility. Collective civilization, the "modern state," was still in the womb of the future.

(To be continued.)

Of Interest to Women and the Home

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

This costume consists of a little middy blouse and a plain skirt that are buttoned together, with bloomers that are worn beneath.

In the illustration the materials are all linen, the skirt and trimming being of color, while the blouse is white. For cooler weather the skirt could be made of serge or of other wool material to be worn with washable blouses quite as well as of linen. Among the various fabrics adapted to tub frocks are a great many durable and handsome ones of cotton.

For the eight year size the blouse will require one and one-half yards of material twenty-seven inches wide, the skirt and trimming one and seven eighths yards twenty-seven inches wide, the bloomers one and one-quarter yards any width.

GIRL'S DRESS WITH BLOOMERS.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for girls of six, eight and ten years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 8288, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No..... Size.....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

SHERIFFS SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Mary Rose Muck and Rosa Muck, adminx. of the estate of the late Frederick August Muck, complainants, and Ernest H. Muck and Lizzie Muck, his wife, defendants. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office in the Courthouse, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all tract or parcel of lands and premises, situate, lying and being in the Township of Fanwood, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE THIRTIETH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1914,

Bounded and described as follows: On the northerly side the lands of Jonathan Dolbier, on the easterly side the land belonging to the estate of Samuel Lee, deceased, and on the westerly side by lands of the said Jonathan Dolbier, and on the southerly side by lands of Cutter Dolbier. Containing seven (7) acres of land, be the same more or less. Also granting unto the said part of the second part an easement for the purpose of ingress and egress at all times over the lands formerly owned by Diedrich A. Scheirenbec to the premises herein described.

Being the same premises conveyed to Diedrich A. Scheirenbec by deed of William F. S. McLaughlin and wife, bearing date of January 15, 1884, recorded in the county clerk's office of Union county on the 25th day of February, 1884, Book 166. Subsequently conveyed by reason of a foreclosure suit to one John F. McIntyre by deed of B. Frank Cotlell, sheriff of county of Union, dated the 5th day of July, 1905, and recorded in the register's office of the county of Union on the 28th day of July, 1905, in Book 452, on pages 445, etc.

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.
HENRY CARLESS, Sol'r.
9-7-4-M EDJ&PDP Fees, $15.30

FLOORS
Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.
GEO. E. WATT
314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 68.

Some Cookery Suggestions

A SUBSTANTIAL SUPPER.

SUPPER MENU.
Soup.
Deviled Roast Beef.
Tomato Omelet.
Potatoes au Gratin.
Fruit Salad.
Plums in Batter.
Tea.

THIS supper will be found to be a savory yet nourishing one. In serving vary to suit the taste.

Deviled Roast Beef.—Cream one tablespoonful of butter, a teaspoonful each of lemon juice and table sauce, a saltspoonful of prepared mustard and a few grains of cayenne. Cut thick slices of rare roast beef, spread them with the seasoning and brown in a chafing dish. Serve with brown bread sandwiches.

Vegetable Omelet.

Tomato Omelet.—Take three eggs, one cup strained tomato, one-quarter teaspoonful salt, dash of pepper, one teaspoonful of cornstarch and one teaspoonful butter or bacon fat. Beat the eggs until light and add cold water, salt and pepper. Beat until well mixed. Put the butter or bacon fat into a fry pan. When hot pour in the beaten egg and reduce the heat a little. Shake the pan constantly and with a fork loosen the edges until the egg is firm. Pour in the tomato, which has been thickened with cornstarch, wet with a little cold water. Fold over half the omelet and turn out on hot platter. Garnish with parsley.

Grapes in Salad.

Fruit Salad.—Take one-half pound green grapes, five bananas, juice of lemon and one small head lettuce. Wash the grapes, make an incision and remove the seeds. Skin the bananas and with a French potato cutter cut into round balls. Squeeze the juice from the lemon and pour over the bananas. Put the grapes and bananas in cold place until ready to use. When ready to serve pile on lettuce leaves and cover with French dressing. To make the dressing put one tablespoonful of lemon juice and one-quarter teaspoonful salt into sauce dish; add two tablespoonfuls of olive oil slowly, beating constantly.

A Delicious Dessert.

Plums In Batter.—Make a batter with two beaten eggs, five tablespoonfuls of flour, a little more than one pint of milk and a pinch of salt. Remove the stones from one quart of large ripe plums, crack them, put the kernels inside of the plums again, mix the fruit with two heaping tablespoonfuls of moist sugar and stir it lightly into the batter. Turn it into a buttered pudding dish and bake in a hot oven till done. Sprinkle powdered sugar over the top and serve hot with one-half cupful of butter, one cupful of sugar and one well beaten egg stirred to a cream and flavored.

Anna Thompson

Daddy's Bedtime Story— How They Used to Have Spelling Bees.

The Girl Spelled It Right.

"I WISH they had old fashioned spelling matches as they did when we were children," said mamma.

"Indeed, I do, too!" exclaimed daddy. "The children would be much better spellers, I am sure, if they did. And this reminds me of a story about the great contest between the two best spellers in our school fighting it out to a finish one time.

"I'll tell you about it. Our village school used to have several spelling matches every winter, to wind up with a great big one in which the best spellers in the previous matches fought it out for a prize, which was usually a handsome book or something like that. There was a cheaper prize, too, for the second best, but every one wanted the first best, of course, and there were some great struggles and much studying was done. All the hard words in the dictionary were looked up.

"This particular winter had been a very exciting one, and the two best spellers in the school were two boys—Hiram Cummings and—let's see, what was the other boy's name? Well, never mind just now. I will think of it in a minute, I'm sure.

"The night came for the big test, and all the pupils' parents were there and the selectmen of the town for judges and the schoolmaster, with his big lists of new words that nobody knew just what he had selected. And the pupils—all those who had done the best in the other matches—stood up in a long line and spelled the words in turn as the schoolmaster pronounced them. There were twenty boys and girls, I remember, but the people there all looked for the tug of war to be between young Cummings and this other boy.

"But there was to be a big surprise that night, one that the people hadn't expected. There was somebody else in that school that could spell, and at the end of an hour everybody had been spelled down but three—Cummings and that other boy and a girl.

"Well, after awhile that girl spelled down young Cummings and was having it hot and heavy with the other. They kept it up half an hour longer, when the schoolmaster put the word 'idiosyncracy,' and the boy spelled it with an 'i' instead of the 'a' and had to step down, but the girl spelled it right and got the prize. Now, who was she? Oh, I remember now, to be sure! She was Jack and Evelyn's mamma."

"Daddy," asked Jack breathlessly, while Evelyn "oh'd" and "ah'd" with round eyes, "who was the boy she spelled down?"

"Oh," smiled daddy, "he was Jack and Evelyn's daddy!

"Yes, kiddies, and now you must run along to bed."

STOPS HEADACHE, PAIN, NEURALGIA

Don't suffer! Get a dime pack- of Dr. James' Headache Powders.

You can clear your head and relieve a dull, splitting or violent throbbing headache in a moment with a Dr. James' Headache Powder. This old-time headache relief acts almost magically. Send some one to the drug store now for a dime package and a few moments after you take a powder you will wonder what became of the headache, neuralgia and pain. Stop suffering—it's needless. Be sure you get what you ask for.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Graces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1064.
OPP. DEPOT.

RITZ Inc.
BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

—DON'T MAKE DON'T YOUR CREED. If you have something to sell, some quest to pursue—do these tasks aggressively, through want-advertising!

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JAMES C. HANSEN
DECORATOR
DEALER IN
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS,
VARNISHES, Etc.
141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J
Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

805 North Avenue, Telephone 290-W.
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference
6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue,
Will be re-opened September 28th.
A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.
MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades. Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades. General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.
Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

SECRETARIAL
ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At
HERR'S SCHOOL
(Plainfield Business College and School of English)
"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to. Call, 'Phone or Write
PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal.
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.
m-w-f

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT
SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914.
Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
108 Depot Park, Manning Building,
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave, Plainfield, N. J.

PHONE YOUR ADS

ONE CENT A WORD

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — IT LISTENS LIKE A BAD COLD — BY "HOP"

Auction Sale

of a large assortment of household goods in fine condition, at 322 West Front St. in the large store lately vacated by R. B. Van Arsdale.

TUESDAY, AT 1:30 P. M.

See adv. in Cent-a-Word Column also.

R. MURRAY,
Auctioneer.

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

Order Now

SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.

Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.

Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.

Charles L. Stanley

Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 831-J

DIED.

MILLER—At St. Joseph's rectory, September 14, 1914, Rev. William H. Miller, in his 51st year.

Funeral from St. Joseph's church, Thursday, September 17. Divine office for the dead at 10 a. m. Solemn high mass 10:30 a. m. Interment St. Mary's cemetery, South Amboy, N. J. 9 14 3

BERGENER—On Monday, September 14, 1914, Henry Bergener, in his 74th year.

Funeral services at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Angerbauer, 416 East Second street, on Tuesday evening, September 15, at 8 o'clock. Interment private.

RICKERT—On Sunday, September 13, 1914, Barbara, widow of Peter Rickert, in her 71st year.

Funeral services at her late residence, 68 Fairview avenue, North Plainfield, on Tuesday evening, September 15, at 8 o'clock. Interment private. Elizabeth Journal please copy.

FEIRING—In this city, September 13, 1914, Beatrice E., beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Feiring, age 10 years, 1 month, 21 days.

Funeral from her parents' residence, 304 Central avenue, Wednesday, September 16, at 8:30 a. m. and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a high mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 9 14 2

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St.
Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
642 E. Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. | Telephone 2331 | Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St.
Tel. 2094 Gramercy.

H. DeMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St. 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church.

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework, plain cook, good laundress; reference. 1432 West Third street. 9 11 2

LAUNDRESS would like washing to do at home. 642 West Third street. 9 14 3

WANTED—Experienced laundress would like fine washing, lace curtains, etc., to do at home. Address 332 Bergen street.

WANTED—All kind of mending or darning by day or homework; will call. 932 South avenue, Westfield, N. J. 9 14 3

REFINED lady would like to share home with lady desiring companionship, or room and board with private family. Address Home, care of Press. 9 11 3

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only, we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 8 6 tf

MRS. KEELER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

CHAUFFEUR wants position, four years' experience, thorough mechanic (single man); best reference. Care Mrs. Helstrom, 312 East Seventh street. 9 14 3

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Pair gold spectacles, last Sunday evening coming from Warren chapel, either on Watchung of Summit avenues. Reward; return to Press office. 9 12 2

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

BRUSH runabout, good condition; cheap for cash. 156 Westervelt avenue. 9 12 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Office boy, white; furnish references. Apply to Permanent, care of Press. 9 14 2

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

TEN-ROOM house and barn, all improvements, corner property, large and small fruit, shade trees and flowers; near trolley and station. "Terrace," care Press. 9 11 6

FOR SALE OR RENT—Very attractive modern property in best section of Netherwood; beautiful view, house has eleven rooms, all improvements, sleeping porch, conservatory, tiled bathroom, one and one-quarter acres of grounds in flowering plants, shrubbery and large shade trees. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; telephone 1515. 9 11 3

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

12-ROOM modern house, 1,100 ft. frontage, big barn, two blocks to trolley; had offer of $12,000 three months ago; must close estate, sell for $8,000. W. R. Way, 308 Watchung avenue. 9 10 6

FOR SALE—Three-quarter acre, city water, cellar, $500. Inquire J. T. Vail. 9 11 3

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Singer sewing machine, practically new, $15. 172 East Front street. 9 10 6

AT MURRAY'S Auction Rooms, 32 West Front street, we have just received a large assortment of odds and ends of fine China, crockery and glassware and they are going fast at the prices we ask; also a large variety of good books at 10c each, reduced from 15c and 20c. 9 14 2

AUCTION SALE tomorrow at 322 West Front street at 1:30 p. m.: Parlor furniture, also library, dining-room, bedroom and bric-a-brac, oil paintings, etchings, trunks and contents, bureaus, bookcases, writing desks, center tables and many other articles. R. Murray, auctioneer.

FOR SALE—Five hundred white leghorns. W. T. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue. 9 14 3

WORK horse, has been used on farm. George P. Mellick, Woodland avenue near Ranway road.

FOR SALE—200 beautiful single comb white leghorn pullets, cheap; will lay next month. Clifford, King street, Fanwood. 9 11 3

FOR SALE—Three horses cheap. City Boarding Stables, 138 East Second street. 9 11 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

THE WALDORF — High-class boarding-house, special diet in connection with regular table if desired; electrical and mineral baths. Rooms, double, single and en suite. Apply Mrs. Velma Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 8 17 1m

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl in private family for cooking and assist in general housework, no washing; references required. 512 Stelle avenue, 'phone 1137. 9 9 4

WANTED—Girl for general housework, small family; good wages. 90 Mercer avenue. 9 11 2

WANTED—Cook (white or colored). 632 Woodland avenue. 6 14 2

WANTED—Reliable woman and daughter for general housework, go short way into country; no washing. 'Phone 2836-W-1 Dunellen.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, no laundry work; must be good cook; references required. 524 Stelle avenue. 9 14 2

WANTED—Good plain cook, white; references. Call evenings, 905 Watchung avenue. 9 11 4

WANTED—white maid for general housework in family of two, good wages to a competent woman; only those with highest references will be considered. 978 Woodland avenue. 9 11 3

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework, no washing or ironing. Inquire Tuesday, Sept. 15, of thereafter, 683 West Seventh street; telephone 2521. 9 12 2

WANTED—Cook to do general housework in a family of two. Mrs. Chauncey G. Williams, 210 East Ninth street.

WANTED—Colored laundress and waitress, best references; good wages. 209 East Seventh St. 9 12 3

WANTED—Experienced child's nurse (white); highest personal references required. 1424 Prospect avenue. 9 12 tf

WANTED—20 experienced cooks, good wages; also chambermaids and waitresses and general houseworkers and nurses for children. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 6

WANTED—Experienced children's nurse, wages $30. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 2

WANTED—A young colored girl to assist with upstairs work. Apply at 815 Kensington avenue. 9 11 3

WE require competent millinery makers. Apply to Bonn's 160 East Front street. 9 11 3

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED—White wyandotte pullets; state price. A. Ross, 1405 Watchung avenue. 9 11 3

FOR RENT.

FOUR rooms to let. 312 New street. 9 3 tf

5 ROOMS to rent. 303 Central avenue. 9 12 2

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $10 to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

4-ROOM flat to let, 309 West Second street; $10 a month. C. J. McDonough, 222 Madison avenue. 9 9 tf

HOUSE TO LET—Desirable, centrally located house on East Second street. Address Central, care Daily Press. 9 14 6

APARTMENT to let, 539 West Fifth street, 4 rooms, gas, city water, city toilet; all in good condition, $10 a month. Inquire Paul Symons, 406 East Third street. 9 14 2

HOUSE, seven rooms, all improvements; corner Lincoln place and Vine street; $22.50 month. Enquire 36 Lincoln place. 9 11 3

FOR RENT—Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 10 6

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

HOUSE for rent, 8 rooms, all improvements, large lot, from Oct. 1; small, desirable family; $22. 'Phone 1880-W. Inquire 710 Leland avenue. 9 11 3

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 1 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

TO LET—Corner flat of five rooms and bath. T. Callahan & Son, 300 Richmond street. 8 6 tf

TO LET—House (5 rooms) 508 West Third street, rent $12. Apply Wilson, 125 Elmwood place. 8 17 tf -m-w-s

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 71 North avenue. 11 6 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

TO LET—4-room apartment, 262 Grove street. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 9 12 3

GOOD 8-room houses for rent, all improvements, parquet floors, rent $30 a month; in a fine residential section, Monroe avenue near Eighth street. Inquire J. Nathanson, 820 Monroe avenue; 'phone 1788-W. 9 10 6

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

1200 Baskets Fancy Alberta Peaches

ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.

ALSO

Fine Bartlett Pears

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St. 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL,
TELEGRAM, AMERICAN,
BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Executor, Administrator

Guardian, Trustee

THE WIFE'S WILL

There is a popular delusion to the effect that when a wife dies without having made a will her husband inherits all her property. This delusion has led to many serious complications, some of which are described in our booklet, "The Wife's Will," a copy of which will be sent you on request.

Our Officers can give you valuable assistance in connection with the drawing of your will and we will hold the document in our vaults without charge.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

A Congressman whose oratorical ability thrills the multitude, affords a momentary pleasure, but deeds, not words, count.

Vote for

John H. Capstick

Regular Republican candidate for Congress of the Fifth District,

Who realizes that comfortable, happy home, supported by steady employment at good wages is the one and only lasting pleasure.

—Paid for by the John H. Capstick Campaign Committee.

NOTICE OF PRIMARY ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that in each election district of the four wards of the City of Plainfield, a Primary Election will be held on

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22d 1914

from seven a. m. to nine p. m., to nominate candidates for the following offices

For members of the House of Representatives for the Fifth Congressional District.

For County Offices: One Senator, three members of the General Assembly, one County Clerk, one Sheriff, one Register of Deeds and Mortgages, and one Coroner

For City Officers: At large, One Mayor From each of the four wards, a member of the Common Council, a Justice of the Peace, and a Constable.

From each of the First, Second and Third Wards four members of each of the County and City Committees, also from the Fourth Ward six members of each of the County and City Committee of each of the Republican, Democratic Progressive and Socialist parties.

The following places, with district boundaries, have been designated for registration and for the Primaries to be held Sep 22d:

FIRST WARD.

First District:—At No. 134 North Avenue.

Park Avenue, C. R. R. of N. J., Washington Street, East Front Street, Elm Place, Green Brook, Somerset Street and Front Street.

Second District:—At rear room of store No. 300 East Front Street.

Elm Place, East Front Street, Washington Street, East Third Street, Richmond Street, Norwood Avenue, Green Brook.

Third District:—At No. 545 East Third Street.

Norwood Avenue and Richmond Street East Third Street, Washington Street C. R. R. of N. J., Berckman Street, East Front Street, Farragut Road, Green Brook.

Fourth District:—At No. 249 Johnston Avenue.

Farragut Road, East Front Street Berkman Street, C. R. R. of N. J., Terrill Road, Green Brook.

SECOND WARD.

First District:—At No. 319 Watchung Avenue.

Park Avenue, Cedar Brook, Watchung Avenue, Franklin Place, East Seventh Street, Washington Street, C. R. R. of N. J.

Second District:—At No. 833 Webster Place, garage.

Park Avenue, the City Line, Putnam Avenue as extended and opened, Franklin Place, Watchung Avenue, Cedar Brook

Third District:—At No. 420 Richmond Street.

Washington Street, East Seventh Street, Franklin Place, Putnam Avenue Berckman Street as projected and opened C. R. R. of N. J.

Fourth District:—At No. 1105 South Avenue.

Berckman Street as opened and as projected, Putnam Avenue as extended, the City Line, C. R. R. of N. J.

THIRD WARD.

First District:—At No. 440 West Fifth Street.

Park Avenue, West Seventh Street Plainfield Avenue, West Fifth Street Liberty Street, West Fourth Street.

Second District:—At Fisk's barn on Arlington Avenue between Seventh and Eighth Streets.

Park Avenue, City Line, Plainfield Avenue, West Seventh Street.

Third District:—At Neuman's Barn corner Spooner Avenue and Essex Street

West Fourth Street, Grant Avenue City Line, Plainfield Avenue, West Fifth Street, Liberty Street.

Fourth District:—At No. 937 West Fourth Street, room in rear of store.

West Fourth Street, City Line, Grant Avenue.

FOURTH WARD.

First District:—At No. 200 West Second Street.

Somerset Street, Front Street, Park Avenue, West Fourth Street, New Street West Front Street, Washington Avenue Green Brook

Second District:—At No. 211 Liberty Street.

Washington Avenue, West Front Street, New Street, West Fourth Street Plainfield Avenue, West Front Street Gerlaud Avenue, Green Brook.

Third District:—At No. 205 Grant Avenue.

Gerlaud Avenue, West Front Street Plainfield Avenue, West Fourth Street Grant Avenue, West End Avenue, Green Brook.

Fourth District:—At No. 1219 West Front Street.

West End Avenue, Grant Avenue, C. R. R. of N. J. to City Line, West Front Street, Jefferson Avenue, Green Brook.

Fifth District:—At No. 937 West Third Street.

West Fourth Street, Monroe Avenue as opened and as extended, C. R. R. of N. J., Grant Avenue

Sixth District:—At No. 316 Lymelace.

Monroe Avenue as opened and extended, C. R. R. of N. J., City Line, West Fourth Street.

All boundaries are understood to be the center line of the streets named.

First Registry Day is September 8th from 1 to 9 o'clock p. m., on which day all voters shall appear in person before the Board of Registry and Election and register in order to vote at the ensuing Primary Election. Voters not registered on September 8th can only register September 22nd and October 20 for the General Election, November 3d, and cannot vote at the Primary Election.

J. T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., September 5, 1914
9-5-14-21

UNION COUNTY ORPHAN'S COURT.

In the matter of the estate of Max Smelson deceased, alleged to be insolvent.

Order directing executor to notify creditors to exhibit claims.

Pursuant to an order of the Orphans' Court of the County of Union made on the twenty-first day of August, 1914, upon the application of George Berse, executor of the last will of Max Smelson, deceased, notice is hereby given by the said George Berse, executor as aforesaid, to the creditors of said estate of Max Smelson, deceased, to exhibit to him under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the said estate within six months from the twenty-first day of August, 1914, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., August 22, 1914.

GEORGE BERSE,
Executor.

Robert Newton Crane,
203 Park Avenue,
Proctor

8-24-9t-M

Roth & Co.

Legs of Canada Lamb, lb	15c
Hindquarters of Canada Lamb, lb	15c
Canada Lamb Chops, lb	18c
Fresh Plate, lb	10c
Sirloin Steak, lb	20c
Porterhouse Steak, lb	22c
Flank Steaks, lb	18c

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Construction of School Building.

The Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., will receive sealed bids at the Board room in the High School Building, corner West Ninth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at a meeting to be held on Monday, September 28, 1914, at 8 p. m., for the construction of a school building on Evergreen Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Plans and specifications are now on file at the High School Building, Plainfield, N. J., where they can be seen from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on week days, excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, until the day and hour of opening the bids as above mentioned.

Plans and specifications are also on file at the offices of the Architects, Wilder & White, 50 Church Street, New York City.

Copies of the Plans and Specifications may be obtained from the architects by depositing with the architects a certified check for $25.00, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., which will be returned upon the return of the drawings and specifications.

The work will be let in four contracts. 1. For the general construction. 2. For the heating and ventilating work. 3. For the plumbing work. 4. For the electrical work. And separate bids will be received for each contract.

All bids are to be on forms furnished with the specifications and accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., or a surety bond of a company authorized to do business in the State of New Jersey, in the amount of five per cent. of the estimate submitted.

All bids or proposals are to be in writing and sealed, and addressed to the Secretary of the Board. Each bid must state explicitly upon what portion of the work it is based.

Upon receipt of the bids, or proposals, the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce their contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make a proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

No bids will be received by the Board previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any or all formalities.

B. VAN D. HEDGES,
Secretary Board of Education.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 10, 1914
9-11-12-14-16-18-21-23-25-28

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

The policy of this Company is to offer every modern banking facility consistent with conservative management.

Our Board of Directors is representative, composed as it is, of local as well as New York business men, and it is our aim to give local business needs careful consideration.

We suggest an interview.

SERVICE

The State Trust Company

At the sign of the clock CAPITAL $100,000.00 201 Park Ave.

School Shoes

TRUE SHAPE

Misses' and Children's Shoes

No child can study or play to the best advantage with shoes that pinch or cramp the tender young toes. "TRUE-SHAPE" Shoes are built as nature intended the child's foot to grow. They fit snugly, are mighty beautiful in appearance—but they allow "ROOM-FOR-EVERY TOE."

Made of selected leathers, so they give GREAT SERVICE.

VAN ARSDALE :: 127 E. Front Street

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

An Avalanche of Vaudeville Surprises Awaits You

Monday Tuesday Wednesday

GIRARD AND GARDNER
Present a Comedy Sketch

HAZEL MORAN
The Girl With the Lariat

WALTER J. HAYES
The Musical Rube.

WILSON & LAWSON
Those Odd Acrobats

DANCING LeFEVRES
Artistic Interpreters of Society's Newest Steps

Today--

THE PERILS OF PAULINE

PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY

PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

Notice to Boys and Girls

There are some of the boys and girls of this city who have not yet started a Bank Account, but would like to.

This may mean YOU—so come in and see our Treasurer and let him tell you what the Plainfield Savings Bank can do for you.

Bring this ad. with you.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.

ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
H. A. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

S. C. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

Hoagland's Express

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.

Telephone 883-W.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS.

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL

COKE AND WOOD

Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON
Managers

TONIGHT--

The Old Homestead

Prices—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 15,
MATINEE AND NIGHT

The Banker's Daughter

A Photo Play in 6 Parts

PRICES

Mat., 10c; Night, 5c, 10c, 15c.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16,
Matinee and Night

Peg O' My Heart

PRICES

Matinee—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.
Night, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17,
Matinee and Night

BLACK PATTI

PRICES

Matinee—25c 50c.
Night—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

UPHOLSTERING

WINDOW SHADES

AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff

721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

—Your "furnished rooms to rent" ad will probably afford "opportunity news" to some dissatisfied—yet not over-critical—roomer.

Buy Your Fall Shoes Now

PRICES WILL BE ADVANCED LATER IN THE SEASON

Owing to war conditions prices on shoes are certain to advance from 25 cents to $1.00 a pair.

The advance will not affect the shoes which are on hand, but as soon as these are sold the prices will go up.

This declaration is not made to stimulate trade, (as it would be more profitable for us to hold the shoes we have until prices do go up and then sell at the advance) but rather to let the people know what they may expect and give them an opportunity to buy their fall shoes at the same prices as last year.

Here is what the Shoe Retailer, a Trade Journal published in Boston, the heart of the leather market, has to say: "Tentative advances ranging from 25 cents to 75 cents per pair, according to the grade, have been figured on men's shoes, and proportionate advances will be made on women's shoes."

Henry B. Endicott, one of the largest tanners and manufacturers in the country, has this to say: "No man can tell what the advance may be. It is a sure possibility, and I think a probability, that shoes may be a dollar a pair higher, in fact, as far as I can see, I don't know why we should limit the price to one dollar. It may be more."

In 1913 this country imported $50,288,228 worth of leather from the war affected countries, and exported raw material and finished shoes, $25,504,184. Besides, this country imports all the chemicals and dyes used in the chrome tanning of hides. These supplies are cut off. In addition to this Africa, Australia, South America and the Far East are looking to the United States for their shoes on account of the European factories being closed, and the countries at war will also have to depend on the United States for their footwear supplies, so that it can readily be seen why shoes will advance.

Our fall shoes are here, and will be sold at the old prices as long as they last. After the supply is gone there is no telling what the price will be. Wise buyers will buy their Fall shoes now.

Stuart's Shoe Shop

Footwear for the Family

215 W. Front St. Opp. Proctor's

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons.

$1.50 EXCURSION To Great

CHILDREN 75c

ALLENTOWN FAIR

VIA

New Jersey Central

THE BIG DAY, THURSDAY, SEPT. 24

Special Train Leaves Netherwood, 7:43 a. m.; Plainfield, 7:46 a. m.; Grant Ave., 7:48 a. m.; Clinton Ave., 7:50 a. m.

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

Until September 19, the Daily Press will be published on Saturdays at 1 p. m.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair tonight and Wednesday, moderate, variable winds.

Max., 71; min., 45.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

LOCAL TAX RATE WILL BE $1.91

Four Point Increase Over That Levied Here in 1913.

CITY APPORTIONMENTS

School and County Tax Rate Takes a Jump—Ten Union County Municipalities Have No Increase—Elizabeth and Westfield the Same.

Plainfield's tax rate for the coming year will be $1.91 on the $100 according to the official announcement made today by Tax Collector William R. Townsend. This in an increase of four points over that of last year, when it was $1.87. The net valuation for this city in the 1914 report is set at $30,875,187 and the county tax is $104,097.65. Plainfield is one of the ten municipalities in Union county to show increases in the tax rate, decreases being recorded in ten out of the twenty municipalities. The county tax this year is $7,252 more than it was in 1913 and the school tax has increased $7,790, making a total boost of $15,042 from these two sources.

The report issued by the Union County Board for the Equalization of Taxes does not come entirely as a surprise to local property-owners, inasmuch as the increase has been unofficially rumored for sometime past. The amounts being raised locally through taxation are as follows:

Street improvement, $56,000; police department, $39,000; maintenance of sewers, $10,000; salaries, $7,400; Board of Health, $8,000; city's share of permanent street improvements, $6,500; joint sewage expenses, $5,000; Muhlenberg Hospital, $3,500; printing and advertising, $4,000; District Court, $2,400; rent of city offices, $2,200; miscellaneous expenses, $1,000; police pension fund, $500; care of city dumps, $400; Public Recreation fund, $500; removing snow and ice, $350; free dental clinic, $400; making assessments, changing maps to comply with State law, $3,500; expenses for commissioners widening Madison avenue, $300; catching dogs and disposing of same, $400; extra help in collector's office, $300; care of city park, $200; fire insurance premiums, $200; draining swamps, $125; Memorial Day, $100; total, $162,675.

Less receipts from licenses, franchise tax, poll taxes, etc., estimated, $45,675; net total, $117,000.

Interest on street improvement bonds, date September 1, 1907, $1,260; interest on street improvement bonds during the year, $3,100; interest on police station bonds, $945; principal on police station bonds, $1,000; payment on brick pavement bonds, $2,000; street lighting, $19,000; principal on sewer bonds, $6,000; interest on sewer obligations, $18,200; support of city's poor, $8,500; maintenance of Public Library, $11,500; maintenance of fire department, $55,000; interest on firehouse bonds, $675; sinking fund firehouse bonds, $1,300; interest on public school bonds, $23,425; principal on school bonds, $6,000; sinking fund school bonds, $1,925; Shade Tree Commission, $2,000; playgrounds, $1,500; contingencies, $18,000; maintenance of public schools, $109,130; county tax, $104,097; State school tax, $79,604; total to be raised, $591,161.

Elizabeth, Westfield and Mountainside have a rate similar to the one of 1913. In Fanwood township the rate has increased three points, going from $1.37 to $1.40. The township has a net valuation of $1,699,965.23 and a county tax of $5,735.35. The levy in Fanwood borough has jumped six points, being $1.72 as against $1.66 last year. In New Providence township the rate has fallen five points and in New Providence borough it has decreased four points.

"Y's" RESUME MEETINGS.

The first fall meeting of the "Tomlinson Y" for the season will be held at the home of Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, 212 East Seventh street, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be for the annual election of officers in compliance with the order of the State W. C. T. U. It will be a meeting of great importance and every member is urged to be present.

Up the Hudson to West Point $1.00.

Special excursion, Sunday, Sept. 20, via New Jersey Central, connecting at Jersey City with swift Sandy Hook Steamer "Sandy Hook" to West Point and off Newburgh. Round trip $1.00; children 50 cents. Leave Plainfield 8:52 a. m. See circulars for other stations. 9 15-17-19 ***

—Large shipments of delicious canning and table peaches will be received at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market all this week. They are also displaying a big assortment of all kinds of fresh fruits and vegetables, including fancy Jersey melons and tomatoes.—Adv. ***

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN STORM STORY

March Blizzard Aftermath Results in Arraignment of Two Local Men.

An aftermath of the famous blizzard of March 1, 1914, was aired in the city court, this morning, when William R. Way, a Watchung avenue tailor, and George Martin, a colored expressman, were arraigned before City Judge DeMeza charged with disorderly conduct and fighting. After hearing considerable testimony on both sides, much of which was of a conflicting nature, the court classed Way as the aggressor and suspended sentence in both cases.

During the eventful storm of last winter a number of cross arms used by the Western Union for stringing wires, were blown down near Mr. Way's store and in time rolled down the railroad embankment which abuts the place. Martin, who is well known around the depot, applied to the section boss of the railroad gang for permission to convert the cross arms into winter fuel and, according to his own statement, received the necessary consent.

In company with Clarence Martin, a cousin, he went to the scene with one of his wagons and while preparing to convey the wood to the family bin he was accosted by Way. The latter accused the men of trespassing on his property and stealing his fire wood. This the Martins denied and an altercation is said to have ensued. Way was alleged to have directed a good sized rock at George Martin's cranium, causing the latter's summer headgear to take a trip skyward. At this voluntary declaration of war, Martin made a lunge at Way and for a few minutes the combatants starred in the role that made Hackenschmidt and Gotch world famous. Way finally broke Martin's "toe hold," and proceeded at break-neck speed to the police headquarters where he came upon Patrolmen Neylon and McIntyre. Startled at Way's announcement that a burly colored youth was trying to "kill him," the two minions of the law accompanied Way to the battle ground. They placed Martin under arrest and the latter later made a counter charge against the tailor.

MARTIN REPORTS FOR DUTY FOLLOWING SPILL ON CYCLE

Following a lay-off necessitated by the police department's motorcycle several days ago, Patrolman Roy E. Martin reported for desk duty at headquarters this morning. Martin is still carrying several yards of bandages covering painful cuts and bruises on his head, arms and legs, and it will be sometime before he has fully recovered from the accident.

Since the motorcycle came into use in the city department, Martin has been doing some excellent work on the vehicle and his accident was an unfortunate one. During the time he is incapacitated Patrolman McIntyre is operating the "cure for speeding autoists."

POULTRY FANCIERS ENJOY BANQUET AT SOMERVILLE

The first annual banquet to be given under the auspices of the New Jersey Fanciers' Association was held last evening, at Somerville, at which time 160 men interested in poultry gathered from all portions of the State. This body was recently organized, and has already indicated considerable life in several lines.

F. C. Thomas, of Somerville, president of the association, acted as toastmaster at the conclusion of the "spread" and introduced the several speakers, among whom were Charles T. Cornman, of Carlisle, Pa.; John F. Dillion, of New York, and William J. Trembath, of North Plainfield, who spoke on the subject, "Selection of Birds for the Show Room."

DID NOT SEEK NOMINATION.

TenEyck Beardsley, of Fanwood, wishes the Daily Press to correct the statement made that he did not seek the Assembly nomination this year because "he did not receive enough support to enable him of a chance of winning." He declares that he never filed a petition for the Assembly but once and not three times as reported. Mr. Beardsley decided early in the campaign not to become a candidate for the Assembly. He also declined to seek the nomination for State Senator.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Helen Cumbach, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Bradford, Can., and Mark Dansey, also of Bradford. Miss Cumbach has been visiting Plainfield friends and recently returned home. She is a graduate of the Plainfield High School.

DEAD PRIEST'S BODY WILL LIE IN STATE

Remains May Be Viewed Prior to Removal to South Amboy for Interment.

The body of Father William H. Miller, who died at the rectory of St. Joseph's church in North Plainfield, yesterday, will lie in state in the church from 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon until the time of the funeral service, 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Arrangements have been made for a special train to take the remains to South Amboy and it is expected that a large number of the deceased's friends will accompany the body to that place. Special services will be held in St. Mary's church in South Amboy and interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery there. Tickets for those who wish to attend the funeral at South Amboy may be secured tonight and tomorrow night in the vestibule of St. Joseph's church.

VOTERS MUST REGISTER FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

Inquiries are being made in the borough concerning the registration day to be held there Thursday, when voters are to be registered for the special consolidation election of September 24. A few of the voters have been under the impression that when they registered last Tuesday for the primaries and general election, they also became registered for the special election.

This, however, is wrong. The registry list of voters for the special election is made up of those who voted at the general election of last November while those who failed to vote at that time, all first voters, and those who have changed their voting districts, or moved into the borough during the past twelve months, must register personally. This must be accomplished Thursday between the hours of 1 in the afternoon and 9 in the evening. The places of registry will be the same as those for the primary elections.

WILL PROVIDES FOR TRUST FUND FOR GRAND CHILDREN

The will of the late Mrs. Susan DuBois, who died in this city August 2, was offered for probate this morning in the office of Surrogate George T. Parrot, at Elizabeth. The will which was dated July 24, named Dr. Francis E. DuBois, of Watchung avenue, and Miss Susan B. DuBois, of Belvidere avenue, as heirs and executors of the estate.

It provides for the establishment of a trust fund for three grandchildren, which was to be turned over to them when they became twenty-one years of age. Vail & McLean, a law firm of Elizabeth, were named as proctors of the estate.

FIRST WARD REPUBLICANS WILL MAKE A CANVASS

The First Ward Republican Club met, last evening, and transacted considerable business of a routine nature. Reports from the committee on registration reported progress from all districts of the ward, and showed that much was being accomplished toward having a record-breaking registration when the last day set aside for that purpose is over. Many new names have already been added to the lists in this ward.

Plans are being made for a complete canvass of the ward prior to the last registration day. It is expected that the vote throughout the ward on primary day will be largest in a number of years. The next meeting is to be held Monday evening, October 5, at which time further plans for an active campaign will be made.

PHOTO-PLAYS AT Y. M. C. A.

The first motion picture entertainment of the fall and winter season will be given at the Y. M. C. A., Saturday afternoon and evening. A program of unusual interest has been selected, including the following: "In the Land of Oz," "Hagenbeck's Menagerie," "The House of Mystery," "Rastus Loses His Elephant," "Peggy's New Suit." The usual admission fee will be charged. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 and 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

WILL RESUME INSTRUCTION.

George C. M. Smith, violin instructor of 51 Craig place, will commence his tenth year of instruction tomorrow. Mr. Smith has been teaching the violin for several years and with success. His class this year promises to be a large one

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

NO PAPERS FILED IN SUIT FOR $100,000

Geo. E. Sovereign Knows Nothing of Reported Action of A. S. Taylor.

George E. Sovereign, who it was reported, last night, has been sued for $100,000 by Andrew S. Taylor, of Newark, because of a realty deal involving property in North Plainfield and Brooklyn, stated this morning that he knew nothing about the matter, and that so far as he knew he had not been sued. The story concerning the suit, which appeared in the Plainfield papers, yesterday, was based on a similar story printed in the Newark News on Saturday night. In his statement this morning, Mr. Sovereign says:

"The allegations under headlines 'Wants $100,000 Alleging Fraud,' as published in your paper of yesterday are false, and I have not been sued."

When Waldron R. Ward, in whose name the suit was alleged to have been brought in the story originally published, was called on the 'phone at his office in Newark, this morning, he stated that so far as he knew the suit had not yet been brought, and he did not know that such a story was published. He recommended getting in touch with Mr. Taylor, but the latter could not be reached.

The publication of the article in the Daily Press is much regretted by this newspaper, and this retraction is printed in justice to him.

CAPTAIN SMITH SELECTED AS STATE HOME DIRECTOR

Trenton, Sept.15—Governor Fielder today appointed Captain William C. Smith, of North Plainfield, as a member of the board of managers of the Home for Disabled Soldiers at Kearney. Former City Clerk James F. Connolly, of Newark, who was recently appointed by the Governor as superintendent of this Home, assumed his new position today.

He was a member of the board of managers of the institution and immediately tendered his resignation from his position. Mr. Smith was then appointed to fill the vacancy. In declining to serve as a member of the board of managers after taking up his duties as superintendent, Mr. Connolly wrote to the Governor that he thought it would not be for the best interests of the institution for him to fill both positions.

W. DE LAR. ANDERSON APPEARS BEFORE GOVERNOR

Trenton, Sept. 15—In answer to a request by Governor Fielder for information relating to the proposed impeachment of the Somerset County Tax Board, William de LaRoche Anderson, chairman of the Township Committee, of North Plainfield township, as well as candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in that district, appeared before the Governor today.

Mr. Anderson alleged before the Governor that the County Tax Board had wilfully and intentionally failed to make the proper assessments on Mt. St. Mary College property in North Plainfield township. The Governor told Mr. Anderson there would be a hearing in the case after the County Tax Board's answer had been filed.

FUNERAL SERVICE OF WESLEY W. GARTHWAITE IS HELD

The funeral services of Wesley W. Garthwaite, of 25 Somerset place, who died at his home last Saturday morning, were held yesterday afternoon from his late residence. Rev. J. O. McKelcey officiated. Interment was made in the North Plainfield cemetery.

A large delegation from the New York Telephone Company, by whom he was employed, and a delegation from Royal Council, 77, Jr. O. U. A. M., was present. The latter had charge of the services at the grave. There were many floral tributes and the pall bearers were G. E. Thomas, Clarence VanDusen, Fred Douglas, Howard Agaus, William Smith and F. A. Blume.

WOMEN'S TENNIS AT P. C. C.

The women's handicap tennis tournament will be started at the Plainfield Country Club, Saturday, at 10 o'clock. It is open to all club members. Entries close with Miss Barbara Fleming, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. 'Phone 638-W.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Ada Clair Woodworth, daughter, of L. A. Woodworth, of Westervelt avenue, and Frederick Redcliffe Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Allen, of Sandford avenue.

GENERAL VAN KLUK AND 14,000 MEN REPORTED CAPTURED BY ALLIES; AUSTRIAN LOSSES REACH 300,000

London Elated Over Reported Capitulation of German's Western Army--Servians Have Bombarded and Destroyed Hungarian Station on Danube--German Crown Prince's Army Reported Repulsed--Roumania, Bulgaria and Greece Form Alliance in Case They Are Forced Into the War.

London, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—All London is elated at the news received from a Central News correspondent at Dieppe that Gen. Von Kluk and 14,000 men have been cut off from the rest of the Germans and forced to surrender. It is considered certain that the British troops under Sir John French participated in the capture. The report was doubted at first because of the small number of prisoners, but it is pointed out that the army of Gen. Von Kluk was on the extreme German right on September 5, and that it has stood the brunt of the rapid pursuit by the Anglo-French troops.

In the last few days Von Kluk's army has been hastening up the north side of the Aisne River in an effort to avoid being cut off, and to reach the armies under Gen. Von Buelow and Gen. Von Hausen. During its entire flight it has been harried by the English troops and the new French army which has formed on the British left.

A message from Petrograd to the Times places the Austrian losses in Galicia at 300,000 in killed, wounded and prisoners, or nearly one third of their forces. The despatch says that the Austrians have also lost 1,000 guns, more than two-thirds of their available artillery.

The following official communication has been given out at Antwerp: "The importance of the results of the recent battles between our army and the German army of occupation is fully confirmed by the inactivity of the enemy, and by the latest details of the enemy's severe losses. The retirement of our divisions on Antwerp was affected without any attack being made by the enemy."

A despatch from Berlin via Amsterdam says that the German general staff today gave out the following announcement: "In the western theatre of war, the right wing of our army has been engaged in heavy but undecisive battles. The French, who endeavored to break through our lines, were victoriously defeated. At other points where there has been fighting no decisive results have been reached."

Dieppe, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—Report has reached here that the allies' extreme left, after a circling movement by way of Roye and Ham, has joined forces with fresh troops from the coast and the Boulogne district and compelled Gen. Von Kluk, in command of the German right wing, to surrender with 14,000 men, a quantity of guns and much war material. Another estimate places the prisoners at 25,000.

Paris, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—A news agency message from Petrograd says that the Servians have bombarded and destroyed the Hungarian station of Orsova on the Danube, a short distance above where the river leaves Hungarian territory, thus cutting communication between Hungary and Roumania. Orsova was the route by which the German sailors reached Turkey.

The German Crown Prince's army has been repulsed in an attempt to break through Verdun and Toul, according to an official announcement.

Rome, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—The Resto Del Carlino announces that the Roumanian Legation in Rome has officially informed the Italian government that Roumania, Bulgaria and Greece have concluded an agreement for a military aliance in the eventuality that any one of them is forced to enter into war.

Cape Town, S. A., Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—A force from German Southwest Africa, which invaded Namaqual Land, was defeated by the South African Rifles at Steinkoff Monday and forced to surrender. The South African Rifles surprised the Germans after making two night marches and won the battle with the loss of only one man killed.

The Hague, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—In the course of her speech opening the States General today, Queen Wilhelmina declared that the strict neutrality of Holland must be maintained. Her Majesty expressed her deep sympathy with the people whose countries are involved in war. She said that Holland is bearing willingly the extraordinary burden laid on it by the mobilization that has been made necessary by the situation. Holland, is, she declared, receiving with open arms all the refugees seeking safety within her boundaries.

Petrogard, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—The entire fighting strength of the Russian armies with the exception of the proportionately small forces now operating in Galicia, is being rushed to the East Prussian border as fast as it is mobilized. The entire Russian field army of the first and second line of troops will be devoted to the invasion of Germany. The Czar has declared that he will ride into Berlin at the head of his troops. The Germans are centering their forces in East

(Continued on page 3)

LARGE ATTENDANCE IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

All Teachers Under Contract Reported for Duty This Morning.

One of the largest gatherings of pupils that ever assembled in a local school aduitorium was present at the opening exercises in the Plainfield High School, this morning, a total of 1,050 being recorded. The exact enrollment in the primary grades will not be made known until tomorrow, but the above figures are the estimated number in the High School and eighth grades. Aside from a few finishing touches the new assembly hall in the West Ninth street institution has been completed and is without a doubt one of the most elaborae auditoriums devoted to this particular line of work in this section of the State. It affords ample room for assembly and the visitors' gallery is also unusually spacious.

Hereafter the school auditorium will be used for all of the student body's theatrical presentations and other exhibits. This will do away with the necessity of renting the theatre and other outside places for school enterprises and remove a big expense from the classes in charge.

Principal Lindsey Best was kept in constant conference with pupils this morning, several hundred consultations regarding courses and other details that usually accompany the opening of school being entered into. It will take several days for the routine of class work to be started smoothly, but preliminary details were dealt with this morning by the teachers. The secretary of the Board of Education announced this morning that all of the teachers who are under contract in this city reported for work this morning and all of the changes previously announced in these columns have gone into effect.

The completion of the High School building has helped to eliminate the crowded conditions that have caused much inconvenience and loss of time during the last two years and it is now possible to resume the usual High School schedule of work that was adopted before the schools became so crowded.

POSTMASTER HOAGLAND SAYS FLAG WAS DISPLAYED

Postmaster Alvin E. Hoagland replying to the reported apparent negligence on his part in failing to display the American flag at the postoffice on Labor Day, writes to the Daily Press that "the largest American flag ever used at the postoffice, entirely filling the centre window, was displayed all Labor Day."

The Building Trades Council at its meeting Friday night discussed at some length the alleged failure of Mr. Hoagland to display the national colors, it being claimed that the American flag was not to be seen at the postoffice. It is understood that Mr. Hoagland has informed the council that the flag was displayed according to the annual custom.

BOROUGH POLITICAL MEETING.

The borough of North Plainfield will be favored with a political meeting Thursday evening at which F. C. Thomas, of Somerville, candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator for Somerset county, will be the speaker. The Dutch Arms Band will be present, and play several selections. The place of the meeting is to be announced later.

SHOE DEPARTMENT

Corner West Front and Madison Ave.

Children's School Shoes

For best kinds of Children's Shoes—for Shoes that afford most comfort to the growing foot—for Shoes that have good looks as well as good wearing qualities.

FOR SHOES

at the popular prices we are showing

WE ARE SURE

you can't fill the school Shoe needs near as well as here. Come and examine these Shoes and you'll readily agree with us that this is the right Shoe Store to buy Children's Shoes.

NOTICE THE GUESSING CONTEST

See the Pumpkin in the Shoe Store Window

and guess how many seeds there are in this pumpkin.

For the nearest guess we will give a $5.00 pair of shoes.

For the second nearest guess we will give a $4.00 pair of shoes.

For the third nearest guess we will give a $3.00 pair of shoes.

It costs you nothing to guess—simply leave your guess with name and address at the Shoe Department.

Contest continues until October 26th, when the pumpkin will be opened and seeds counted in the window by three disinterested parties.

Note—None of our employes will be eligible to a guess.

New Millinery

We are Now Showing

We have assembled a number of very pretty hats—all breathing newness and novelty. All adaptations of most exclusive models from the great fashion centres. For good styles, individuality and becomingness we believe you can do better here than elsewhere.

Last but not least our moderate prices are a special inducement.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Fruit Jars and everything necessary for preserving on sale in the Basement.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Treasurer B. K. Burke, of the Dunellen Coal and Supply Company, left on Saturday for a two weeks' visit at Baltimore, Old Point Comfort and other points in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smalley and daughter, of Prospect avenue, spent Sunday in Bayonne as guests of Mrs. Smalley's brother, Alfred Dayton.

Miss Frances Sullivan, of Dunellen avenue, has returned from a visit of over a month with relatives in the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

Albert Maurer, son of Edward Maurer, of Prospect avenue, leaves tomorrow for Bordentown, where he will attend the Bordentown Military Academy.

Contractor Edward Ayers has been utilizing his spare time, due to the off season in his line, in repainting his residence on Second street.

The four-family brick house that Contractor Samuel M. Titus is erecting for Frank Jaruszenski, of 225 East 157th street, New York city, on Bound Brook road, near Gallagher's corner, is nearing completion.

Edward Pennock, the North avenue pharmacist, has sold his newspaper route to Israel Shapiro, of Bloomfield.

Miss Martha Kratzel, of Front street, has returned from a ten days' visit at Basking Ridge.

Miss Josephine Keogh, who has been spending three weeks in the borough as the guest of Irving Bennard, of Dunellen avenue, returned to her home in the Bronx, New York city, on Sunday.

John Z. Kelly, of Second street, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Henry Wiedenhaupt, of Madison avenue, has accepted a position in the meat market of Burke Applegate at Bound Brook.

Borough Clerk William P. Deering was taken ill yesterday afternoon.

GIVES A DANCE.

Emanuel Appert gave a dance on Saturday evening, at the home of Mrs. Grace Gangloff, on Greenbrook road, where he has been spending the summer. There were twenty guests present. Music was furnished by a Victrola. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The Mesler building at the corner of North and Lincoln avenues is being repainted by Contractor Walter Barber, of Newark.

BOWLING TOURNEY.

On the Presbyterian alleys on Thursday evening, the Baracas, Robert Braun, Allen Fredericks, Arthur Voorhees, Ralph Parker and Fred Oakley, will bowl a local team composed of George Zink, Richard Mann, Merwin Fagely, George Voehl and Charles Starker. On paper these teams appear to be pretty evenly matched and a hotly contested match is therefor looked for. Those who want to witness the contest in comfort had best come early in order to get seats.

Miss Anna Wiedenhaupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiedenhaupt, of Madison avenue, has returned from a eleven days' visit at Basking Ridge with Mrs. Samuel Edgars.

MISS HAGUE TAKEN ILL.

The sojourn of Mr. and Mrs. George Hague and family, of Madison avenue, at Keansburg, where they went a week ago Monday, was marred on Friday by the sudden illness of their daughter, Miss Anna Belle Hague. Mrs. Hague returned home with her daughter and her illness was diagnosed as scarlet fever by one of the local physicians. A younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hague's, Miss Ellen, has just recovered from the effects of scarlet fever and her sister undoubtedly contracted the disease from her.

Contractor Firman H. Gise is laying concrete curbing in front of the residence of George D. Heaume on Front street.

Mrs. Stewart Todd and daughter, of Trenton, are visiting relatives in the borough. Mrs. Todd is a daughter of W. H. Clum, of Lincoln avenue.

The board of directors of the Dunellen Home and Investment Company met in the offices of the Watchung Water Company, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hamley, of Washington avenue, spent the week-end at Bartley, Pa., as guests of Mr. Hamley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hamley.

GRAND JURY DUTY.

Proprietor George W. Day, of the Weekly Call, was summoned to the county seat today to attend to grand jury duty.

TENNIS MATCH.

There was some tennis match on the courts back of the Methodist Episcopal church, Saturday afternoon, between Merwin Fagely and Frederick Haynes vs. Ralph Parker and Fred Oakley. After forty-six hotly contested games the match was called off on account of approaching darkness, the score standing deadlocked at 23-23.

Tomorrow evening at the hour of the regular mid-week prayer meeting, services preparatory to the holy communion, to be observed in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, will be held in the chapel of the church.

Robert Fern, of Whittier avenue, visited relatives at 124th street and Columbus avenue, New York city, on Sunday.

Miss Frances Fuchs, of Greenbrook road, has returned from a eleven days' visit with an uncle, J. J. Lynch, at Ossining, N. Y.

John Snyder, of Bound Brook, brother of Weimer Snyder, of Front street, is very ill at his home with pleurisy and malaria. Mr. Snyder was suddenly stricken on Saturday. Two doctors and a nurse are in attendance.

Mrs. James Craig, of Jackson avenue, passed yesterday at the home of Mrs. Walter S. Craig, of New Market road, and assisted her grandson, Master Gordon, celebrate his second birthday.

Councilman Richard M. Ryan is in poor health. By order of his physician he is taking a two weeks' leave of absence from his duties in the office of Scott & Bowne, at Bloomfield. It is said that he has a leaky heart.

MIXED TENNIS TOURNEY.

There is considerable talk of getting up a mixed two team tournament to be rolled on the Presbyterian alleys during the late fall and winter months. By a mixed two team tournament is meant that a team would be composed of a lady and a gentleman. It is believed a tournament of that description would prove such an attraction that the alleys would be thronged every night.

Mr. and Mrs. David K. Hamblin and daguhter, of New Market road, have returned from a ten days' visit with relatives. A week of the ten days was spent with Mrs. Hamblin's mother, Mrs. Maria Meeker, at Princeton, and the balance of the visit with Mr. Hamblin's father, C. W. Hamblin, at Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pfester, of Front street, entertained their son, Frank Pfister, and wife, of Bound Brook, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley V. Krom move the first of the month from the W. R. Hetfield house at the corner of Walnut street and Whittier avenue, to the Frank Farrell house on Penfield place, recently vacated by Arthur Duke.

Frank H. Fuller, of Third street, has returned from a four days' visit with relatives in Fairfield county, Connecticut.

RETURN TO SCHOOL.

Miss Adelaide and Clark Ramsey, daughter and son of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. C. Ramsey, who left this morning for Blairstown to resume their studies in the Blairstown Academy, were tendered a surprise party at the Methodist parsonage last evening. The surprise was a complete one. When the party, numbering twenty, who assembled at the home of George T. Schenck, on Front street, arrived Miss Adelaide and her brother were busily engaged with preparations for their departure this morning. The evening was pleasantly passed. The entertaining features were games and music. Refreshments were served prior to breaking up.

AUTOMOBILE DAMAGED.

President Michael T. Moynihan, of the Dunellen Coal and Supply Company, had his automobile damaged in the city on Saturday night, when one of the trucks of the New York Transfer Company skidded into it. Mr. Moynihan was in Healey's restaurant at 59th street and Broadway at the time, which was about 11 o'clock, and his machine was one of the number that lined the curbing. One of the mud guards of the car and its windshield were broken. The machine is at present undergoing repairs at the expense of the company.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

William Ayers, of Whittier avenue, had a miraculous escape from serious injury at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, when his motorcycle collided with an automobile at the corner of New Market road and Walnut street, throwing him to the ground. Mr. Ayers, who was cycling along Walnut street on his way to New Market, did not see an automobile approaching from New Market along New Market road as he neared the juncture of the thoroughfare on account of the elevation of a white picket fence, nor did the driver of the automobile see Ayers for the same reason. When the driver of the automobile and Ayers on his motorcycle perceived each other they realized that a collision was inevitable. With presence of mind they, however, attempted to avoid it. They succeeded in avoiding meeting head on, the left front fork of Ayers' cycle merely hitting the running board of the machine a glancing blow. The force of the blow was sufficient, however, to throw Ayers off of his cycle. He escaped with a slight sprain of the wrist. The fork of the mortocycle was bent but otherwise it was not damaged. The automobile was none the worse for the collision. The name of its owner is not known.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A STYLE "TIP" TO "HAT TIPPERS"

The new Fall and Winter styles in soft and stiff hats are waiting for you in our hat department.

Our customers say our hats always have pleasing character and lend individuality, not eccentricity, to the wearer.

Let us show you the new styles, priced—

$3, $2.00 and $1.50

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's.

South Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warg and daughter, Ida, of Hazelton, Pa., have returned home after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton.

Miss Katherine Dolan, of Jersey City, has returned home after spending Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Thornton.

Miss Anna Hamilton, of Fords, has returned home after spending the week-end with her brother, William Hamilton.

Samuel Purnell, formerly of this place, but now of Mauch Chunk, spent yesterday with friends in this place.

Mrs. Thomas Duffy entertained out of town friends over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Norman and family, who have been staying a week at Morgan's Beach, have returned home.

Mrs. John Hogan and daughter, Lillian, have returned home after visiting with friends in Plainfield.

Pohn Caffrey, of Sugar Notch, Pa., has returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. John Kaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Deter, both formerly of this place, but now of Newark, spent Sunday with Jeremiah Ten Eycke.

Harry Herb and family, of Easton, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Tharp.

Mrs. H. W. Phillips has returned home, after spending a day with out of town friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Munday entertained her daughter from New York, yesterday.

William Lee is building a concrete cellar in his home.

Miss Lillian Hogan, of New Brunswick, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan.

Miss Nellie Pickering, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pickering.

Robert Ritter has purchased a plot of ground on Brookside avenue, and expects to build a new home very shortly.

Miss Annie Conway, of Elizabeth, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCaffrey.

New Providence.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, daughter and grandson, Mrs. Aline B. Genung and Lester Genung returned Saturday, after a two-week stay at Ocean Grove.

August G. Rubsamen, of Passaic, is a guest of his brother, Mayor Fred R. Rubsamen, of Mountain avenue, Murray Hill.

Miss Marie Boehm, of Elizabeth, is a guest of Miss Agnes Debbie, of Mountain avenue, New Providence township.

The young people of St. Mary's church, Stony Hill, will give a dance in the parish hall tomorrow night.

The Crescents, of New Providence, defeated the West Summit Alerts at West Summit, Saturday, 13 to 5.

Mrs. George Roberts, of Clinton avenue, Mountain View Park, left Sunday to visit Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Cook, of Paterson.

Ernest B. Rubsamen and family, of Mountain avenue, Murray Hill, returned Saturday, after spending the summer at the Thousand Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Richards of Springfield avenue, West Summit returned Saturday, after spending two weeks at Mt. Pocono, Pa.

Miss Eleanor Fitzgerald, of New York, is a guest of her brother, Harold Fitzgerald, of Springfield avenue West End.

Mrs. Albert Forster, Jr., of Springfield avenue, West End, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Castle, of Gillette.

A children's home garden show was held Friday afternoon, on the lawn of the Methodist Episcopal church. Several cash prizes were awarded for vegetables raised by the children. The committee under whose auspices the show was held was made up of Mrs W. H. Evans, Mrs. M. S. Reeves, Mrs W. A. McLaughlin and Mrs. W. J. Kaufman, of New Providence, and Mrs. J. W. Cromwell and Mrs. Benjamin P. Holmes, of Summit.

When George Hermann, a teamster, tried Saturday to block his wagon, two fingers of his right hand were crushed. He was compelled to go to Overlook Hospital for treatment.

Middlesex Borough

Mrs. Ira Huntsperger and children, who have been living for some time in the Forbes house on Voorhees avenue, left Friday morning to join her husband in Minnesota.

Michael Butler is moving today from the Haight & Todd property to the "Old Farm House" on Smalley avenue.

O. A. LaPointe, the builder, spent Sunday in New York and Brooklyn.

The board of directors of Middlesex Borough, will meet this week to prepare for business.

Lincoln Hose Company is busy preparing for its annual fair to be held this week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is expected a good crowd will attend the festivities.

William C. Moore, of New York was in town Friday looking after the business of the real estate company which he represents.

Morton E. Lamphere, chief of Lincoln Hose Company No. 1, was married Wednesday evening, September 9, to Miss Florence Shippee, of Wakefield, R. I. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. John Oldham, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Many friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony, after which refreshments were served. The bride and groom arrived in Lincoln, Friday night, and are temporarily boarding until arrangements can be made to go to housekeeping with C. P. Hoagland, on Drake avenue.

Miss Helen Krooks, stenographer for the Industrial Service Company, who has been on her vacation, has returned and resumed her duties in the company's office.

Westfield.

The Woman's Association, of the Congregational church, met yesterday afternoon, to sew on garments that are to be donated to the National Red Cross Society.

The Dorcas Society, of the Presbyterian church, will resume meetings at the parish house tomorrow evening.

German Valley. and Chester

Charles Praster, of Montclair, is visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Praster, of Chester.

Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Irvington, is spending the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Reuben C. Carlisle, of Chester.

Miss Louise C. Call, of Chester, is taking a course in a Dover business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins, of Califon, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Barker, of Chester.

The Chester Cornet Band has reorganized by electing the following: Instructor and leader, Herbert T. Conover; president, Frank H. Hughson; treasurer, Herman Frye.

Thomas A. Moore, of Chester, is repainting his house in Budd avenue.

Miss Mildred Geddis, of Newark, was a week-end visitor to her mother Mrs. George P. Geddis, of Chester.

There is slight improvement in the condition of Burnet LaRue, of German Valley, who has been ill for several weeks.

Somerville

Engine Company, No. 1, entertained Mayor William V. Steele and the Borough Council at a smoker last night.

The West End Hose Company will hold a vaudeville effertainment in the Somerville theatre tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perrin, of Brooklyn, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace G Hawley, of Green Knoll.

William Shepherd, who has been spending some time with Edwin Miller, of Belle Mead, returned to his home in Virginia yesterday.

Miss Olive Haberle returned to her home yesterday, after a week's stay at Bryant Villa, Lake Hopatcong.

James A. Vanderveer, of New York, spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Vanderveer.

North Branch.

Miss Marion Van Fleet, of Somerville, was the guest over Sunday of her mother, Mrs. Belle Van Fleet, of South Branch.

C. G. Horner, supervising principal of the public schools of Branchburg township, is teaching the school at South Branch, as the teacher engaged failed to appear. Another will be selected by the Board of Education in a few days.

Miss Mabel Brown returned to South Branch, Sunday, after a visit to the Misses Kerstead, of Montclair.

Miss Alice Van Doren, of Brooklyn, is visiting Mrs. John L. Corle, of Neshanic.

Henry Agans, of Netcong, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Dow, of Readington.

Miss Inez Studdiford is spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Frederick A. Quick, at Riveredge Farm, South Branch.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church, of Neshanic Station, will hold its annual fair and bazaar November 4, 5 and 6. The first two nights supper will be served and music furnished. The last night there will be an entertainment.

Mrs. Nathan Allen and daughter, of Clover Hill, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jacob G. Hageman, of Neshanic.

Miss Catherine Wyckoff, of Neshanic, has gone to Warden, Conn., where she will begin her duties this week as a teacher in the public school. Miss Genevieve Wyckoff is also teaching there.

Miss Elizabeth Clement, of Newark, is visiting Miss Mary Bergen, near Neshanic.

Miss Lillian Steinberg, of Finderne, is visiting Miss Viola Diehl, of Neshanic.

Miss Esther Van Nest returned to South Branch, Sunday, after a visit to Miss Anna Holcombe, of Flemington.

High Bridge-Califon.

The date of the Hunterdon County Woman's Temperance Union meeting has been changed from September 16 to September 23 at Frenchtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Corvin Apgar, of Dunellen, spent the past week with relatives at High Bridge.

Nathan S. Terriberry, of Allentown, Pa., is making a stay with his sister, Mrs. Austin Cramer, at High Bridge. Mr. Terriberry formerly resided at High Bridge.

After being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Soloman Levi, at High Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Weil and children have returned to Brooklyn.

Morris H. Slater and friend, of Easton, Pa., were week-end visitors at Califon.

Mrs. Jerry Culen, formerly of High Bridge, is in a Plainfield hospital recovering from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eastwood, of East Orange, were recent visitors Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Eastwood, High Bridge.

Roy Hoffman, of Califon, su[illegible] a deep gash in his right leg [illegible]day. A pocket-knife slipp[illegible] inflicting the injury, which was dressed by Dr. Edward H. Srystell.

After a month's stay with Mr. and Mrs. Truman Monn, at High Bridge, Mrs. Lena Monn has returned to Pompton.

Mrs. Kate Wack will move her household effects from High Bridge to Newark in a few days.

Whitehouse

The anniversary of the Sunday-school of the Reformed church at Readington will be observed in that edifice on Sunday afternoon, September 27, at 2:30 o'clock. There will be special exercises, and an address

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (5 colors)—Portraits of 16 European Rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy and Aerial Strength, Populations, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Fleets Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON

IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT

PRESENTED BY

PLAINFIELD PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

by the pastor, Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff.

The seventy-fifth anniversary celebration of the Methodist church at Gladstone, Sunday, started with a large attendance at the morning services, which were in charge of the pastor, Rev. A. L. Fretz. The sermon was preached by the district superintendent, Rev. Dr. Frederick J. Hubach, of Plainfield, who had for his topic "The Home and the Church from Jesus' Standpoint." Sunday night Rev. Dr. S. Travena Jackson, pastor of Trinity Methodist church at Hackettstown, preached on "Prosperity Through Love of the Church."

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill have returned to Pen Argyl, Pa., after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Woehrle, at Lebanon.

Miss Mareta Gano, of New Germantown, is home from a visit to relatives in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Sarah Ballentine and daughter, Miss Ada Ballentine, have returned to Peapack after a visit of two weeks to Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, at Hackettstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Howell and daughter, of Orange, were the over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Briant Philhower, at Peapack.

Miss Ann Murphy, of Newark, is spending a week with relatives at Lebanon and Whitehouse Station.

The usual services will be resumed in the Methodist church at Centreville next Sunday, as the pastor is expected home from his vacation.

Mrs. Mary A. Lee, of Lebanon, is the guest of Mrs. C. T. Smock, at Centreville, for a few days.

Horace Huff and family, of Plainfield, are visiting Mr. Huff's mother, Mrs. Aletta Huff, at Centreville.

Mrs. Lewis K. Schenck returned yesterday to Centreville, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schenck, at Stanton.

A sociable will be held tomorrow evening on the lawn of Daniel H. Hall, at Centreville, under the auspices of the Methodist church there.

Miss Delia Klitch has returned to Newark after a visit to the Misses Ida and Bessie Connor, at New Germantown.

Mrs. Smalley has returned to Plainfield after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Updycke, at New Germantown.

Lucas A. Voorhees, of Lebanon, has just received a carload of cows for the farmers of that section.

Mrs. Ella Crate and Mrs. M. S. Nonamaker, of Bissell, are guests of relatives at Lebanon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church at Lebanon netted $128.36 as a result of the annual harvest home.

Miss Gertrude Murphy has returned to Lebanon after a visit to Scotch Plains.

QUAKER ICE CREAM

"THE BETTER KIND"

40c QUART at store — 50c QUART Delivered

SUNDAY DELIVERY

Orders for Sunday Delivery must be received by twelve o'clock on Saturday.

DELICIOUS "PURE FRUIT" SUNDAES

QUAKER CANDIES

The Real Old-Fashioned CHOCOLATES

Pure and Wholesome

One Grade The Best — One Price 40c lb.

THE QUAKER SHOP

174 E. FRONT St. Plainfield

Phone 1913-J

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5.08, 5:4 (5:52 except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:2 (7:26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:55 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:30, 8:36, 8:4 8:59, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m. 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:13, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:1 4:01, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:2 9:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:56, 11:43 p. m. Sunda —2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:4 10:37, 11:52 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1.28, 2:09 2:15, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 5:57, 7:14, 8:13 8:27, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27, (7:05 through train to Newark), 7:41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:3 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:3 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:3 p. m.

For East Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m.; 2:00, 2:26, 5:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m. 1:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18 9:44 a. m.; 2:26, 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3:41, 8:12, 8:36, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only) (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:01, 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m Sundays—7:58, 8:52 a. m., (9.40 Red Bank only), 2:15, 3:17, 8.15, 10:21 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 3:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m 1:28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43 11:53 a. m. 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:13, 6:44 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday —5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:39, 10:43, 11:41 a m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:39 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m. 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily —8:45, 10:43 a. m., 12:42, 2:45 6:44 p. m

*Except Manch Chunk. 6-4-1

REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

MANNING & CURTIS

106 DEPOT PARK

Hoagland's Express

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.

Telephone 883-W.

A. H. ENANDER

SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING. STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.

Contractor for Sewer Connection.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The committee on streets and sidewalks in the borough has finished the macadamizing of the lower end of Farley avenue and will soon start to macadamize Midway avenue. Farley avenue is now macadamized from North avenue to the trolley track.

Nineteen pupils from the 'Plains and borough started the fall term at Plainfield High School, this morning. Fourteen local pupils are also registered at Westfield High School. In three years the last pupil from this place will graduate from Plainfield and all future graduates will attend Westfield High School.

A routine meeting of the Borough Board of Health was held in the Fanwood fire-house last evening.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, pastor of the Methodist church, has organized a choir and the first practice will be held tonight in the church.

Frank A. Dunham, of Plainfield, who was retained by the Borough Council to make the new tax maps was surveying and getting the location of the different buildings in the borough yesterday, in order to start work on the maps so as to have them completed about the first of November. Nearly all of the towns in the State are affected by the new law that makes it necessary to have all tax maps passed upon by a State Board and only a few have passed inspection. It will mean an expenditure of five hundred dollars to the borough. Scotch Plains is also affected, as the maps of hat place made only a short time ago also failed to pass.

A. D. Beeken has returned to his home in the borough, after a pleasure trip through New England and Eastern Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Kuehn, who have been visiting Mr. Kuehn's parent, Henry Kuehn, of Scotch Plains, have gone to housekeeping on East Second street, Plainfield.

The books in the borough library have been catalogued and arranged in prepartion for the winter when the number of books taken out greatly exceeds the summer months. The library is open from 3 to 4 every afternoon, Sundays and holidays excepted. Librarian Anson, of the Scotch Plains library, has added a number of books.

A considerable number of boys and girls from this place have entered the Plainfield Business College to prepare themselves for office work. The number now exceeds twenty-five.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum, of Martine avenue, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. James Thetford and son, of Belleville.

Franklin Howe has returned to his home on Martine avenue, after visiting his grandmother, Mrs. F. E. Howe, at her home at Sea Gate.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter have returned to their home in the township, after visiting their son, James Hunter, of Newark.

A number of the best tennis players of the borough have entered the night matches of the Westfield Tennis Club to be held this week.

Clifford and Elbert Morley have returned to their home in Brooklyn, after spending the summer in the borough.

Miss Emily Garder, of North avenue, a last year's graduate of Plainfield High School, will enter the Montclair Normal School this fall to take a teacher's course.

Hunterdon County.

Miss Gladys Holbrook and brother, of Newark, are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Dean, in Glen Gardner.

Miss Nellie B. True, of Long Branch, is at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, in Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Opdyke and daughter, of Brass Castle, were recent guests of relatives in Glen Gardner.

Mrs. Edward Bailey and daughter, of Hampton, are in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and daughter of Jersey City, were week-end guests of Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, in Hampton.

Miss Ella Cottrell, of Elizabeth, is spending a few days in Hampton.

Miss Elnora Lanning, of Hampton, is in Trenton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bowlby, of Hampton, are visiting relatives in Lancaster, Pa.

Miss Mame Hewson has returned to her home in Newark after a stay in Clinton.

Mrs. Austin Apgar, of Clinton, has as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. Godfrey Roggi, of Elizabeth.

SENIOR CLASS WILL MEET.

The senior class of the Y. M. C. A. will meet tonight for the first class in the fall season. All members of this class are requested to be there and meet the new physical director and take the examination.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

GENERAL VON KLUK REPORTED CAPTURED

(Continued from page 1)

Prussia while across the border the Russian soldiers are massing to resist them.

The Russians are now besieging Doenigsberg, but are sending all the new troops that are raised further to the south, where their left flank is operating toward Breslau. The main advance will be directed through Silesia, where it will be free from danger of harassment from any Austrian force.

The Austrian army, which has fallen back an Przemysl includes one entire Germany army corps and part of another. The services of these troops will be lost to Germany as they will be beseiged there for the duration of the war.

The fortress of Przemysl is well provisioned with one year's stores and the forts are well equipped with guns and it appears to be Russia's purpose to content herself with investing the place and holding the Austrians there.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Tales of continuing successes were contained in a despatch to the French Embassy today from Bordeaux. The message which was issued by the foreign office declared that the Allies had reoccupied Rheims and the Germans are everywhere retiring. The despatch follows: "From the thirteenth our offensive movement has continued along the whole front. Moncidzir and Troye on our left wing have been occupied by the French cavalry. From Amiens the German forces are retiring to St. Quentin and Teronne. These forces were defensively arranged to the east of Rheims on the line of the old fort Megent L'Abbessee, Vitry and Vrimont. The headquarters of one of our armies was established in Rheims today."

Antwerp, Sept. 15, (Central News Cable)—The Belgian army under command of King Albert is engaged in another raid on the German line of communication from Louvain to Malines. Premier de Broqueville stated that the recent offensive movement of the Belgian army had been completely successful in drawing back into Belgian territory the German reinforcements that had started for France. It is estimated by the Belgian war office that in the fighting 2,000 Germans were killed.

New York, Sept. 15.—A wireless message from Berlin says that it was announced officially there today that Gen. Von Hindenberg had telegraphed Emperor William that the Russian army of Bilna, composed of the second, fourth and twentieth army corps, two reserve divisions and five divisions of cavalry, have been defeated decisively by the Germans. The Russian casualties were heavy, the message says.

London, Sept. 155 (Central News Cable).—A despatch from Berlin says that the wound of Prince Joachim is healing rapicly.

A despatch from Rome says that a telegram from Petrograd announces that the Austrian Crown Prince, Archduke Charles Francis, is with the Austrian army, whose capitulation is regarded as imminent.

A news agency despatch says that Dutch shipping is now moving extensively. There are 43 German vessels and three Austrian steamers in the harbor at Rotterdam.

A despatch from Rotterdam says that the German Minister of Agriculture has issued a circular ordering the manufacture of alcohol decreased 40 per cent., and recommending that farmers conserve food supplies by drying potatoes on a large scale. Instructions are being given in the country districts as to the use of potato meal for the manufacture of bread. The Minister says that the cereal crop was not as good as had been expected.

According to the Figaro, of Paris, the Russian government will cancel all German patents in the Empire.

A news agency despatch reiterates the statement that the Roumanian Ministry has resigned.

Paris, Sept. 15 (Central News Cable).—General Charles Roque, who had just received his promotion to the head of an army division, is named in the latest casualty list. He was killed by a bullet in his head, received in the fighting near Bar Le Duc.

Traffic is being resumed on the different lines of the eastern railroads and may persons are returning to their homes in the localities evacuated by the Germans. The Northern Railroad is also preparing a resumption of traffic. The Governor has decided to reorganize the departments that have been evacuated by the Germans to the north and east of Paris.

Amsterdam, Sept. 15 (Central News Cable).—A despatch from Cologne says that the Cologne Voeks Zeitung was suspended on September 11 because it published an article criticising the Kaiser's accusation that Belgian priests had committed cruelties upon injured German nurses. According to a message from Berlin, Colonel Von Reuter, who gained wide notoriety in the Zabern scandal, was killed in Belgian while fighting at the head of the twelfth grenadier regiment.

GIRARD AND GARDNER HEADLINERS AT PROCTOR'S

Girard & Gardner, comedians of the first order, top the bill for the first half of the week at Proctor's Theatre. A crowded house greeted the opening night performance last night and the bill was pronounced an unusually good one. Those who enjoy the terpischorean art were treated to a clever exhibition of the newest and most popular steps by the dancing LeFevres. Walter J. Hayes, the musical rube, proved himself an apt entertainer with many feats. Hazel Moran, one of the few women who have mastered the lariat throwing art, gives many difficult demonstrations of this Western stunt. Novel feats in the acrobatic line are performed by Wilson & Lawson. The same bill will be shown tonight and tomorrow night, the vaudeville numbers being changed Thursday afternoon.

RECREATION NOTES

The Italian Social Club held a successful meeting, last night. There were about fifty-five young men and women present. The music furnished by Professor Pierric and Mr. Angello was excellent.

The Washington Dramatic Club will meet tonight at 8:15 in the Washington School. There will be a rehearsal of the two plays, "My Lord In Livery" and "Sarah's Young Man." Mr. White, who is coaching these two plays, will be present so a full caste of both plays is much desired.

The folk dance club will meet tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Bryant School.

The Italian Social and Educational Club will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School. The night of meeting has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday.

NEWELL KARNER CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF C. E. SOCIETY

The annual meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church, was held last night and the officers for the ensuing year elected. Newell Karner was elected president to succeed Miss Martha Klein, who has held that position for three years. Miss Klein accepted the position of vice-president and Charles Doughty was elected recording secretary. Jesse Lounsbury was re-elected treasurer and Miss Georgia Ricker re-elected corresponding secretary. All the yearly reports of the various committees were read and accepted.

After the meeting a social time was enjoyed and a "feed" given to the winning Chalmers delegation by the Mitchells. This was the outcome of a contest that was started for new members last spring, and the losing team was to entertain the other.

PRESENTED FLAG.

A large number of the members attended the first business session of the season of the Loyal Daughters' Bible Class, last evening, while many matters of a routine nature were disposed of. During the course of the evening George T. Leighs, chairman of the ways and means committee of the chapel, presented the organization with a large American flag, giving a brief historic sketch of the national colors.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION.

Trenton, Sept. 15.—United States Senator Martin announces that the competitive examination for appointments from this State to the Naval Academy at Annapolis will be held in the Battin High School, Elizabeth, next Saturday, beginning at o'clock a. m. This test will decide Senator Martine's selection of principals and alternates for two appointments to the Naval Academy.

Hogan Hansen, of Park avenue, was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital, last evening, to undergo an operation.

GERMAN RED CROSS FUND TOTALS $503.56

The German relief fund collected by members of St. Peter's German Lutheran church amounted to $503.56, and was turned over for use of the German Red Cross on Monday. Thanks are due the women who contributed to the Red Cross sale held at the church, as well as to the many friends who subscribed to the fund. The special thanks of those who will eventually be relieved by this collection is due the committee consisting of the following:

Miss Ruschke, Mrs. Klotz, Mrs. Kuepfel, Mrs. Linau, Miss Shittenhelm, Miss Guttenberger, Mrs. Bantel, Mrs. Schantz, Miss Katte, Mr. Bauera, Mr. Warneck and Master Karl Klotz.

WILSON RETURNS FROM TRIP REFRESHED FOR WORK

Washington, Sept. 15—President Wilson returned to the capital today. He looked the better for his rest in Cornish, N. H. White House automobiles were waiting the party when the train drew into the station and the President was immediately whisked off to the executive offices, where he found the members of his cabinet gathering for the regular cabinet meeting. It was said at the White House that routine business alone was before the cabinet and that the question of mediation in the European war was not on the calendar for consideration.

POSTPONE IRISH ACTION.

London, Sept. 15 (Central News Cable).—The outbreak of the European war coupled with the readiness of the Irish in Ulster to support the government, is understood to have induced the government to postpone the settlement of the Irish question. The Unionists, through Lord Landsdowne, in the House of Lords, this afternoon, proposed to permit the Parliament act apply to the Home Rule bill, even after the general election, which is inevitable next year. The object is to secure the virtually uncontested return of the present government and avid swapping horses in midstream. Speeches made today in the Constitutionalist Club by Andrew Bonar Law, the leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, and by Sir Edward Carson, counselled an inactive acceptance of the government plan by the Unioinists and declaring Ulsters' determination to continue in support of the government loyally throughout the war.

MISS NAYLOR TO WED.

Miss Ruth Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Naylor, of 427 Lee place, and Michael Gans, of Lee place, will be married tomorrow afternoon in the rectory of St. Mary's church. The couple secured the necessary license at the Bureau of Vital Statistics here this morning and announced the time of their wedding. The bridegroom is employed as usher in the Lyric theatre on West Front street.

DR. J. S. ZELIE RETURNS.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church returned from his vacation Saturday, and occupied his puulpit as usual Sunday morning. Dr. Zelie spent most of his time at Mt. Desert, and the eastern coast of Maine. During the last portion of the vacation, he spent some time visiting a number of his parishioners through the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

SOME SMOKE BUT NO FIRE.

The fire department was sent on a wild goose chase to the Columbus Club on West Front street about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, and when they arrived the firemen could find nothing but smoke. Someone started a fire in the heater of the building and evidently a passerby thought there was a blaze, when they saw some smoke issuing from a window.

SERVICE AT GERMAN CHURCH.

Rev. Karl A. Martin, of Jersey City, will conduct the preaching service to be held at the German Lutheran church, Thursday evening. The meeting of the board is to be held immediately afterward, and discuss several items of important business.

RESCUE MISSION NOTES.

Hugh Fawcett, of the borough, will conduct the Gospel service this evening at the Rescue Mission. Special music wil feature the meeting. One professed conversion at the service of Sunday evening, while five went forward last evening.

FALL MEETING.

The first fall meeting of the Missionary and Aid Society of Warren chapel will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. All members are earnestly requested to be in attendance. An executive session will be held at 2, prior to the regular meeting.

FELL FROM TROLLEY.

While stepping off a Fourth street trolley car at the corner of Fourth street and Lee place, last night, Mrs. John Stacey, of West Fifth street, made a misstep and fell. She was not hurt save for a shock.

Mrs. I. H. Neff, of Philadelphia, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. George T. Leighs, of West Fourth street.

—Try a Press want ad. It will bring results.

W. & J. SLOANE

New Designs in Rugs Made in America

In our high-grade Wilton, Axminster and Brussels Domestic Rugs we are showing a wide range of attractive Oriental, medallion, all-over, two-tone and chintz designs.

The popularity of the "Chaumont" Seamless Rugs has resulted in the production of a number of very artistic new patterns—an interesting Arabic design, a beautiful rose-leaf design, and Rugs having two-tone borders with plain centres and two-tone centres with plain borders. All regular sizes; also made to order in any length up to 20 feet wide, in special designs and colors, and irregular shapes.

Other noteworthy features of our Autumn displays are:

"Kalliston" Reversible Rugs in beautiful plain colorings with band borders; heavy Reversible Cotton Bath Mats (washable); and the celebrated "Beam" Bath Rugs.

WOOL ART RUGS—REDUCED

Desirable effects and colorings at 20% Reduction.

FIFTH AVENUE & FORTY-SEVENTH ST., NEW YORK

Buy Your Fall Shoes Now

PRICES WILL BE ADVANCED LATER IN THE SEASON

Owing to war conditions prices on shoes are certain to advance from 25 cents to $1.00 a pair.

The advance will not affect the shoes which are on hand, but as soon as these are sold the prices will go up.

This declaration is not made to stimulate trade, (as it would be more profitable for us to hold the shoes we have until prices do go up and then sell at the advance) but rather to let the people know what they may expect and give them an opportunity to buy their fall shoes at the same prices as last year.

Here is what the Shoe Retailer, a Trade Journal published in Boston, the heart of the leather market, has to say: "Tentative advances ranging from 25 cents to 75 cents per pair, according to the grade, have been figured on men's shoes, and proportionate advances will be made on women's shoes."

Henry B. Endicott, one of the largest tanners and manufacturers in the country, has this to say: "No man can tell what the advance may be. It is a sure possibility, and I think a probability, that shoes may be a dollar a pair higher, in fact, as far as I can see, I don't know why we should limit the price to one dollar. It may be more."

In 1913 this country imported $50,288,228 worth of leather from the war affected countries, and exported raw material and finished shoes, $25,504,184. Besides, this country imports all the chemicals and dyes used in the chrome tanning of hides. These supplies are cut off. In addition to this Africa, Australia, South America and the Far East are looking to the United States for their shoes on account of the European factories being closed, and the countries at war will also have to depend on the United States for their footwear supplies, so that it can readily be seen why shoes will advance.

Our fall shoes are here, and will be sold at the old prices as long as they last. After the supply is gone there is no telling what the price will be. Wise buyers will buy their Fall shoes now.

Stuart's Shoe Shop

Footwear for the Family

215 W. Front St. Opp. Proctor's

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons.

Now for School Shoes

Our School Shoes are the best in the market for the money.

And we are fixing the prices right

Sizes 1 to 5½ — $1.50 and $2.00

Sizes 9 to 13½ — $1.25 and $1.50

"Oldest Shoe House in Town"

A. K. Willett

107 Park Ave.

G. C. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2843-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. — OFFICE — 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 108 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on application.
Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

SEPT. 15TH IN HISTORY.

1807—Light on Bell Rock in the Firth of Tay first exhibited.

1814—British repulsed in an attack on Fort Bowyer, at the entrance to Mobile Bay.

1830—Liverpool and Manchester were connected by railway.

1842—Sir George Pollock captured Cabul and released Lady Sale and other prisoners.

1857—Brigham Young forbade United States troops to enter Utah.

1863—President Lincoln suspended the Habeas Corpus Act.

1882—Unconditional surrender of Arabi Pasha, leader of the Egyptian revolt.

1884—A party of several hundred Canadian boatmen left Quebec to take part in the Nile expedition for the relief of General Gordon.

1887—The centenary of the Constitution of the United States was celebrated at Philadelphia.

1891—Three thousand persons were drowned in floods that devastated the Province of Toledo, Spain.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 15, 1914.

BACK TO SCHOOL.

While the average American youngster looks upon school as one method of interference with the pursuit of happiness, there is no doubt that the returning pupils in the Plainfield schools go back today with glad hearts and smiling faces. It was with reluctance that many entered the doors for another nine months of study and confinement, for their age is one for play and laughter and the sunshine of life. But they one and all have the great consolation of knowing that they are infinitely more fortunate than are millions of children in Europe.

The children of America are happily fortunate that they can go back to school, willingly or reluctantly. There is here no terror of war or war's starvation to throw up a bar against their education. No battery of cannon to halt the way of children to their study rooms. No glinting bayonets to scatter fright among boys and girls bent only on training their minds. No drafting of children who should be studying to carry arms.

Never before have the children of America had such a chance to compare their opportunities, their happy position, with that of others, whether they are hastening in gladness or with halting steps on their way to school today. The children of Europe are not merely deprived of their opportunity for education today—this war will open the way for a checking of general education in the countries involved in it in the generation that will follow.

For the generation that is to come after this will be deprived of much that the children of today had laid before their eyes only to be torn away by war. The sufferings that follow in the train of this conflict will make of the growing generation a less resistant group to the inevitable struggles that are a part of the modern life. Bluntly, the children of this generation, who will be the parents of the next, will be less fit for parenthood because of the privations the war forces upon them.

Comparing their lives with those of unfortunate little boys and girls of Europe, laying the advantages and blessings of peace alongside the sufferings of war, which run into every channel of human existence, might form a profitable subject for the scrutiny of American children, and their teachers.

Our children are singularly fortunate that they have a chance to go back to school today, although their childish minds may not grasp the complete significance of that advantage. They are singularly blessed that no war clouds are darkening their homes and the country, shutting out all the ordinary home conditions, as must be the case with the millions of children in Europe. For the effects of war are not to pass away with the conclusion of peace and the drawing of treaties. The drag of the conditions will pursue this generation through its entire life and leave its blight upon the generation that comes after.

The children of America should be joyous for the one reason that they have the chance to go back to school whatever their own views may be, so far as they connect merely with the tearing down of childish plans for play. And American parents should be grateful that they are living in a land of peace, where their children are not robbed of their birthright to happiness, and recreations, and education, through the bloody ambitions of autocratic rulers.

PROGNOSTICATIONS.

The editor of the Trenton Times must be able to see into the future. With the primary elections over a week off the people of Somerset county are blandly told that they are lucky in their candidates for State Senator. Here is what the Times says:

Whatever may be the result of primary and election in Somerset county, the State will get a good Senator. Mr. Smalley, who has served four years in the House and three in the Senate, is to be renominated by the Republicans. His opponent will be Azariah M. Beekman, who has had two years' experience in the House, and filled the speaker's chair with credit and efficiency last winter. Under the circumstances one may assume the position of the old lady who showed so little interest when she saw her husband wrestling with a bear.

"Since when," as some would say, has it been determined that Mr. Beekman has been decided upon as Mr. Smalley's opponent. Both Frederick G. Thomas and former Mayor Steele, of Somerville, are making an active campaign for the nomination, and there has been nothing thus far to indicate that Mr. Beekman has the place already in his possession. The Trenton paper seems to take Beekman's nomination for granted in the same way that they ignore that W. de LaR. Anderson is seeking the Republican nomination for Congress in the Fourth district. And Anderson is going to get the nomination. If you don't believe it all you need to do is ask Anderson.

It begins to look as if the Germans had just a litte too much to do, with big armies attacking them on both sides. They were victorious at the start, when the Russians had not begun the invasion on the north, but with the necessity for dividing the army they seem to have tackled a bit more than they can conveniently handle.

"Staying on the job" in Washington will make more votes than "swinging around the circle." The President again shows his astute political sense.—Springfield Republican.

And no one realizes the truth of the statement better than the present efficient Congressman from the Fifth District, William E. Tuttle, Jr.

With the weather cool and pleasant, everybody back from their vacations, and a primary election next week, we all at last realize that summer is over. But there will be more warm days, according to the forecasters.

If John H. Cose does not win the Republican nomination for Sheriff it will not be because he has not tried. He has made a persistent and careful campaign in every part of the county.

THE FORUM

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

With the present agitation over the High School methods,—or lack of methods—it might be timely to suggest that what we need is an efficient State Board of Education, with paid inspectors, who should pass a rigid civil service exmination, and whose duty it should be to travel from city to city and from town to town and administer the affairs of the schools.

With a corps of inspectors working a given territory, which should be apportioned to insure each school a weekly visit, we would dispose of the local school boards, and obtain RESULTS.

It is a distressing experience to visit some small villages and find that there are men serving on the school board who believe that Tripoli is the capital city of Turkey, who speak of "that Russian Kaiser," and assure us that U. S. mediation will not help in this great war; that the aeroplanes ain't what they're cracked up to be; that Germany confiscated a 1,000 Belgian rifles, and speak of King George as the emperor of England.

Still another objection to the ruralites determining the destinies of the school children is the great trouble that many country teachers are subject to, through the personal influence of the fathers on the school board.

Since efficiency has become a shibboleth and a watchword it might be well for efficiency to be the determining factor in the government of schools.

WALTER ARNOLD.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

It grieves me to think that Mr. Anderson went to the trouble of taking exception to all of my statements without disproving a single one of them. I am accused of bringing up the individual grievances of the class of 1912. Truly. The grievances of other classes have nothing to do with me.

Mr. Anderson "learns from the records of the High School" that my statement, that our president was unfairly treated in not knowing he had not graduated until an hour before graduation exercises, was wrong. I based this statement on the carefully drawn up petition presented to the class by Elmer Hunting, who knew the case in mention from A to Z. This petition was submitted to the "proper tribunal" of which Mr. Best spoke.

Now comes the old Yale Cup story. It seems a remarkable fact that the "athletic" director should admit he was incapable of turning out an athlete in our class. Equally remarkable is it that Mr. Best should admit he was unable to produce a scholar in the same class. This strengthens my argument that something is remarkably wrong with the management.

Just whose fault was it that a man was not turned out in my year who "in the eyes of the 'faculty'" was unfit to win the Yale Cup? The admittance was damaging. If, at the beginning of our senior year, Mr. Best saw there wasn't a man "up to the standard of a winner," he should have taken the 1912 boys to the side and given them the talking to which would have improved them in the necessary attainments. Instead, Mr. Best waited to make his announcement that there would be no Yale Cup until a time when the majority of the senior boys were away boosting the senior play, "Oliver Twist," in the different school auditoriums. It came as a complete surprise.

While circulating the class petition which was later presented to the Yale Club, I called upon President Wallace and Secretary Williams, of the club both of whom informed me that there was no special standard for the cup winner. The cup, both gentlemen agreed, went to the boy highest in his class in scholarship, leadership and athletics, also that the club particularly avoided a set standard.

I did not admit our valedictorian's marks were higher than any one else's. I am glad to see Mr. Anderson was unable to take exception to my statement that her training at P. H. S. would not have entered her in any college in the United States.

Since Mr. Anderson takes the liberty of direct attack in his article, I shall waive all form of newspaper etiquette and do the same.

Your High School days, Mr. Anderson, were finished before Mr. Best became principal. I was less fortunate. Your defense of Mr. Best is based upon an outside interest therefore, one which you assume with the position as alumnae president. My pen was buried after writing my letter about the High School mismanagement. Mr. Best's letter was its gravestone. Your letter was its resurrection.

No, Mr. Anderson, I shall not "give it up."

A. B. CONLIN.

September 15, 1914.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

THE NEW FALL DRESS GOODS

Are Now on Sale. The Best American Mills are Represented in the Splendid Showing Which Comprise All That's Newest in Weave and Color Combinations, and Best of All You'll Find the Prices Most Reasonable

AT 50c AND $1.00 A YARD.
Crowfoot checks, black and white, in all size checks, 40 to 54 inches wide.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
50-inch all wool Serges in neat black and green and black and blue checks.

AT 59c A YARD.
French Flannel, 27 inches wide; all wool, in light and dark grey, brown, green and cardinal.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
All wool crepe suiting, 48 inches wide, in mahagony, navy blue and black.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
Cadet cloth, 48 inches wide, in black, green, navy and cadet blue.

AT $1.59 A YARD.
An all wool black and blue mixture, suitable for heavy skirts and suits.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
56-in. all wool Suiting, in plaids, checks and Roman stripes; in all the new shades.

AT $1.59 A YARD.
Heavy Worsted Plaid Suiting, in all the latest color combinations; 56 inches wide.

AT 59c A YARD.
40-inch Roman Striped Suitings, in a variety of color combinations.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
Silk and wool crepe cloth in cadet blue, wine color and mahogany.

AT 50c AND 59c A YARD.
All wool fancy plaids, 40 inches wide; specially adapted for children's dresses.

AT $1.25 A YARD.
All wool Bedford Cord, 52 inches wide, in black, medium and dark navy blue.

"OUR LINING DEPARTMENT" is fully stocked with all the Fall shades in clever and Princess Satin, Colonial, Marvel and Dresden feather weight Percalines; also Crinoline, Buckram, Canvas and Queen Coat Foundations.

Butterick Patterns and the Delineator for October now on sale.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Our Notion Department is complete with every thing pertaining to dressmaking.

PERSONAL.

The Misses Mary E. Powers, Sarah Kenney and Mary Jaeger are spending the week at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Joseph, Mrs. Elizabeth Woodard and son, Stephen, all of Sycamore avenue, have returned after spending the summer at Keansburg.

Mrs. Charles Coons and daughters, Florence and Elinore, of Somerset street, and Mrs. William Thornton and daughter, Ella, of Stone street, have returned after spending two weeks at Old Point Comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. H. Hall and children, of Netherwood avenue, have returned after spending the summer at Keansburg.

Mrs. George E. Cowling, of Regent street, is confined to her bed with an attack of rheumatism and poison ivy.

Miss Stella Kline, of Somerset street, left yesterday for Oberlin, O., where she will resume her studies at Oberlin College where she is a senior.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS

The Wicked Flea.

When one sees a dog cutting up queer capers in September, snapping and biting at itself, don't call for a muzzle or a shotgun. The probability is that the canine is not suffering from hydrophobia, but from fleas.

The dog has a right to have a "mad on" with these insects next his skin, and that madness naturally would lead to vicious fury if the animal was muzzled. Human beings may realize the agony of such helplessness if they will just stop to think of how they would feel with their hands tied behind their backs, while their naked bodies were exposed to the assault of a swarm of mosquitoes. Wouldn't that make one rave like a victim of rabies?

If a dog is vicious, kill him or chain him up, but he shouldn't be muzzled in September. A merciful man will be merciful to his beast, and doubtless a dog would prefer death to muzzling in flea time.—Newark Evening News.

INSURANCE COMMS. MEET.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 15—The National convention of Insurance Commissioners met here today and began its anual autumn session with an attendance of delegates representing many of the States. The convention will last four days. Uniform laws for the valuation of securities of all classes of insurance companies and to govern agents' qualifications and licenses are the principal subjects scheduled for consideration at the meeting.

DELAY REUNION.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 15—Because of the disturbed conditions arising from the European war the thirty-third annual reunion of the Old Time Telegraphers and Historical Association, which was to have been opened here today has been postponed indefinitely. The association includes in its membership Andrew Carnegie, Thomas A. Edison and other men of the world prominence and its annual meetings never fail to attract wide attention.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SOMERVILLE will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon after 4:30 by Jacob Gernert, the Main street newsdealer and stationer.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

No. 4995.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF The City National Bank.

at Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, at the close of business,

SEPT. 12, 1914.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts		$ 745,557.08
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured		108.44
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation		150,000.00
Other bonds to secure Postal Savings		7,000.00
Premium on U. S. Bonds		1,500.00
Bonds, Securities, etc. (other than Stocks)		1,834,856.40
Banking house, Furniture, and Fixtures		85,000.00
Due from National Banks (not reserve agents)		29,622.39
Due from State and Private Banks and Bankers, Trust Companies, and Savings Banks		4,138.77
Due from approved Reserve Agents in Central Reserve Cities		207,555.57
Checks and other cash items		8,845.99
Notes of other National Banks		15,000.00
Fractional Paper Currency, nickels and cents		776.41
Lawful Money Reserve in Bank, viz:
Specie	$210,010.00
Legal-tender	50,000.00
		260,010.00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5% of circulation)		7,500.00
Accrued Interest		13,106.60
Total		$3,370,577.65

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	$ 150,000.00
Surplus fund	150,000.00
Undivided Profits, less Expenses and Taxes paid	152,273.24
National Bank Notes outstanding	142,550.00
Due to Other National Banks	23,570.65
Due to State and Private Banks and Bankers	868.55
Due to Trust Companies and Savings Banks	28,549.16
Dividends unpaid	610.00
Individual deposits subject to check	2,635,455.27
Demand certificates of deposit	25,911.00
Time certificates of deposit payable within 30 days	6,000.00
Time certificates of deposit payable after 30 days or after notice of 30 days or longer	38,000.00
Certified checks	11,944.85
Cashier's checks outstanding	699.98
Postal Savings deposits	5,066.12
Accrued Interest	1,078.53
Total	$3,370,577.65

State of New Jersey, County of Union, ss.

I, William F. Arnold, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

William F. Arnold, Cashier.

Sworn and subscribed before me this fifteenth day of September, 1914.

WM. R. TOWNSEND,
Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
Louis K. Hyde,
W. P. Smith,
F. T. Woodhull,
Directors.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.
Plainfield Schools Open.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

TOMORROW.
"Peg o' My Heart" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
N. J. Ass'n for Poultry Improvement.

THURSDAY.
Registration Day for Special Election in Borough.
"Black Patti" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

FRIDAY.
Building Trades Council.
Vaudeville at Proctor's.
First M. E. Church Brotherhood lecture.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

SATURDAY.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

PEACE AND PLENTY
Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.
W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S RYE
E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

Bonn's
150 EAST FRONT ST.
Hats for Present Wear
Of black or colored Velvets, Tailored or simply trimmed with Paradise, Numidi, Fancy Ostrich Wings, Flowers or metallic effects—at $5, $6.50, $7.95 and $9.50 ea.
Untrimmed Hats, latest shapes..$1.45, $1.95 to $6.50
Everything that's new and desirable for trimming.

Falling Hair Stopped by Using HIRSUTONE
A scientific, antiseptic Hair Tonic which kills the dandruff germ. Preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair and stimulates its growth. Hirsutone is a non-secret preparation—fragrantly perfumed—a delightful dressing. Start using it NOW before it is too late.
Price 50c. Hirsutone is only obtainable at
SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
Colgate's Shaving Stick, Cream, Powder, 20c.

EARLY SAVING

Yes, it is very important that every boy and girl be taught to save money.

By starting an account with the City National Bank for your son or daughter, you help them acquire the habit of making regular deposits in the bank.

4% Interest paid on Savings Accounts

ORGANIZED 1875.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Republican Candidate for COUNTY CLERK JAMES C. CALVERT

Mr. Calvert is a candidate at the Republican Primaries on Tuesday, September 22, 1914, to succeed himself. The following well known and distinguished members of the Union County Bar Association endorse Mr. Calvert's administration of the County Clerk's office, all signing his petition for the nomination: Hon. Wm. J. Magie, former Chancellor and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey; Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, former Governor of the State; former Judge and ex-Prosecutor Whittemore, Wm. N. Runyon and William Newcorn; former Judge and ex-Prosecutor C. Addison Swift; Hon. Geo. T. Parrot, Surrogate; Judge Wm. G. DeMeza; Paul Q. Oliver, President of the Union County Bar Association; Edward S. Atwater, Jr., E. D. Mulford, Frank A. English, Wm. F. Groves, G. Bartram Woodruff, George Schmidt, Jr., Richard F. Henry, N. R. Leavitt, Raymond T. Parrot, Robert L. Eaton, Sidney W. Eldridge, Charles L. Morgan, Charles A. Otto, Jr., Otto Froebel, Louis Messing, Jr., Donald H. McLean of Elizabeth; Berkeley C. Austin, of Cranford; Corra N. Williams, Frederick C. Kentz and Schuyler M. Cady, of Summit; David Armstrong, of Rahway; Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., Francis J. Blatz, Robert Newton Crane, Harry C. Runyon, Asa F. Randolph, Vincent W. Nash, Augustus C. Nash, Martin B. Stutsman, W. R. Codington, of Plainfield; Charles N. Codding and Lloyd Thompson, of Westfield and others.

(Paid for by James C. Calvert Campaign Com.) 9 15 3 tuths

Store Open All Day Saturday

FOR PRESERVING
Royal Granite Steel Ware

is absolutely pure and safe to use and is very moderately priced.

FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, JAR RINGS, STONE POTS AND JUGS.

Ask to see the new White Crown Vacuum Mason Jar Top, the most successful and sanitary closures yet devised for screw top jars.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen. Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St. Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

Dr. Charles A. Eaton

WISHES TO ANNOUNCE THAT BEGINNING

Tuesday, September 15th

all milk from his SUNBRIGHT FARMS DAIRY will be distributed to patrons direct by SUNBRIGHT FARM WAGONS.

Sunbright Milk for Babies

and special Sunbright Milk and Cream may be ordered by telephone Plainfield 2543-M, or by letter to Sunbright Farms : Watchung, N. J.

Satisfaction

There is just one and only one human motive that causes men to buy things, and that motive is—satisfaction, contentment in possession, use and enjoyment. This is one of the reasons why this agency is writing such a large volume of insurance.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

While no great number of political meetings in the interests of individual candidates have been held in this city this year prior to primary day, with prospects of but one or two still to be held, it is self evident that those interested in the welfare of their parties have been working silently, with good results. The registration of Tuesday of last week indicates that many are taking an interest in what is going on, and the various candidates who desire to become standard-bearers this fall.

Political clubs and organizations are becoming quite popular in this city, with two Democratic organizations and four Republican clubs. The Progressives and Socialists are still to be heard from in this respect.

Street corner discussions on consolidation are becoming the thing in the borough, with the special election but a little more than a week off. The registration day for this special election is to be held Thursday at the same places as have been designated for the general primaries and election.

No reports have been received as yet as to what the local Democrats will do for councilmanic honors in the First and Third wards. With primary day so near, the followers of Jefferson should make a few announcements within the near future.

Sample ballots are to be mailed to the voters not later than 12 oclock tomorrow noon, although a portion of them will not reach the voters until Thursday morning or afternoon as close to 3,600 envelopes will be put into the postoffice at one time not to mention the envelopes of North Plainfield, which are mailed through the Plainfield postoffice, together with the local ballots. Voters should give their sample ballots a little thought and attention before visiting the polling places on primary day.

Representative William E. Tuttle, Jr., who is opposed for renomination by Thomas J. Pierson, will not deviate from his course throughout the primary campaign, according to his advisers in the district. This course is remaining at the session of Congress, and letting the voters of the district decide whether or not this is preferable to "fence-mending." Mr. Pierson, meantime, is smiling huge smiles of confidence.

The week commencing yesterday is the most momentous in the primary fight. Candidates for most of the nominations have been active for some time, but there will be a final tightening of the lines during the next few days.

The cards of Arthur E. Warner, Republican candidate for the Republican Assembly nomination, are being widely distributed by his friends in Plainfield. Mr. Warner visited the Queen City on Saturday evening and when he returned seemed exceedingly happy over his prospects there.

The youngest candidate in Union county seeking office at the coming election is John H. Neabor, of 135 Second street, Elizabeth, who aspires to be tax assessor of the Second ward, of Elizabeth. He is running on the Republican ticket. With a group of young friends, Neabor is conducting a lively campaign in the interest of his candidacy. He was graduated from St. Patrick's High School in 1910.

Sheriff Wright will close his primary campaign for the G. O. P. nomination for county clerk with a mass meeting at Rahway, Saturday night, to which all of the Republican candidates for nomination for county offices have been invited, with the privilege of speaking. W. T. Stuchell, of Rahway, will share honors with Wright at the meeting, winding up his campaign for the Congressional nomination. The two candidates addressed two gatherings in Elizabeth, Saturday night, this being their last pre-primary appeal to Elizabeth Republicans. Wright and Stuchell have arranged to speak every night this week, the last before the primaries. The first three days will be spent in Morris county in Stuchell's interest. Thursday night the candidates will speak at the Pennsy station in Linden, Friday night at Garwood and Plainfield, and Saturday night in their home town.

For the last week of his campaign for the Republican county clerkship nomination, County Clerk Calvert has arranged a series of trips. This evening he will tour New Providence. Tomorrow will find him in this city, Thursday in Westfield and Friday in Summit. Saturday is as yet an open date, but will be filled before the end of the week. Mr. Calvert said today he anticipated putting in the biggest week of his campaign and felt in good trim for the task.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

SHERIFF HAS LOTS OF AMMUNITION LEFT

W. H. Wright Has Some Surprises for Closing Days of Campaign.

In making a resume of the campaign he has been conducting for the Republican county clerkship nomination, Sheriff William H. Wright yesterday told a number of friends that he had addressed 10,000 voters, made personal calls on 2,000 more and had 2,500 signers on his petition at the time it was filed. He paid no attention to the number of miles he traveled up and down and across the county in his campaign, but as it was done by automobile it was a real pleasure, except in one instance.

The accident which befell his party two weeks ago in which he sustained a bad bruise on his left thigh and the car was extensively damaged had the effect of causing a slight pause in the energetic work he and William T. Stuchell, one of the candidates for Congress, were doing. The brief rest had the effect of refreshing them, however, and now they are both more active than before. The accident was due to the machine skidding and turning over, while en route from Roselle to Rahway.

In conducting this personal visitation campaign, the Sheriff employed an entirely new and original method. Being something new, it was welcomed by the county residents and he considers it therefore much more effective than the old time honored ways. Some of them were used also, but always with a new feature that made them appear different. This was particularly true of the drum corps used for all street meetings. The spirited music always attracted a crowd much more rapidly than the burning of red fire or the distributing out of hand bills.

Sheriff Wright still has a number of ideas which will be developed and worked out during the remaining weeks of his campaign. They have been held back purposely as he realizes that much important work is yet to be done. His manner of expressing it is that he has "Lots of ammunition left for the time when heavy cannonading will be required to finish the work of the rapid fire field pieces."

TO MAKE A STUDY OF TRAFFIC RULES

Resolutions Adopted at a Meeting of Commission Named by Governor.

Trenton, Sept. 15—Resolutions outlining the scope of work were adopted at a meeting yesterday of the commission recently appointed by Governor Fielder, at the suggestion of Commissioner Job H. Lippincott, of the Motor Vehicle Department, to consider the State laws governing traffic and to consider the unification on the part of the municipalities of their local ordinances.

Commissioner Lippincott was selected as chairman of the commission. Other members of the commission are A. V. Hamburg, president of the Newark Board of Trade, and George B. LaBarre, director of public safety of Trenton.

The preliminary work was outlined and in a resolution introduced by Mr. Hamburg the scope of the work of the committee was gone into in some detail. The resolution offered by Mr. Hamburg follows:

"Resolved, that the work of the commission be outlined in its preliminary stages as follows:

"First, that the commission investigate all traffic ordinances adopted by all cities.

"Second, that the commission investigate all traffic ordinances adopted by towns and townships.

"Third, that the commission make an investigation of the general traffic conditions existing upon country roads, in order that the proper recommendation may be made later.

"Fourth, that an investigation of all traffic ordinances now in force in the large cities in other States be undertaken, and that copies of the statutes in other States with regard to traffic be obtained.

"Fifth, that an investigation of road conditions with reference to traffic be undertaken.

"Sixth, that an investigation of the methods of traffic regulation by local police and other authorities be made.

"Seventh, that the above investigation be undertaken with a view to the preparation of a model ordinance for the adoption in municipalities, and for the purpose of drafting a statute which will govern those questions which are of general application, which at present seem to be covered only partially by local traffic ordinances.

"Eighth, that an investigation also be undertaken with reference to the relation of road signs and warning signs with regard to traffic.

"Ninth, that an investigation be undertaken with reference to the use of standards in the streets and their relation to the proper regulation of traffic."

Another meeting of the commission will be held in two weeks at the State House. In the meantime the necessary correspondence in carrying out the resolutions will be undertaken, and it is expected by the time the commission meets again to have ordinances of every municipality in the State, and the ordinances and statutes of most of the States bearing on traffic matters.

The commission expressed the hope that at its next meeting suggestions would be received from persons interested in the question, and an invitation is extended to all persons to make such recommendations for the benefit of the commission.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

55th ANNIVERSARY SALE

1859--ONE STORE | "WHERE ECONOMY RULES" | 1914--800 STORES

It is with great pleasure that we announce that sales during the last three weeks have been the largest in the history of our company, and that's most exceptional on account of it being in Mid-Summer, when business is usually dull. Well, then, what's the reason—Appreciation of our values by the public. War times have brought high prices to many, but the A&P customer still makes the dollar buy almost as much as before war was declared. EVERY PRICE A BARGAIN. THOUSANDS OF NEW CUSTOMERS ADDED TO OUR LONG LIST DURING THE LAST THREE WEEKS

Gold Dust Why Pay More? A pkg. 15c

UNEEDA BISCUITS, pkg 4c

BULL HEAD CATSUP, bot 8c Worth 10c

PEANUT BUTTER, lb 11c

PUFFED RICE, pkg 11c

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER 37c a lb You can pay more, but you can't get better quality

Force Worth 12c, a pkg 10c

Huyler's or A&P COCOA ½-lb can 17c

FANCY EGGS, doz 30c

FAIRY SOAP This week only 2 Cakes 7c

IONA PEAS Worth 10c a can 3 cans 25c

IONA BAKED BEANS Worth 10c; a can 7c

PRUNES 40-50's 2 lbs 25c

SEEDED RAISINS Usually 10c 3 pkgs 25c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH COFFEES

10 Stamps with 1 lb Iona Coffee.....25c
20 Stamps with 1 lb Sultana Coffee.....30c
25 Stamps with 1 lb Ambosa Coffee.....32c
30 Stamps with 1 lb El Ryad Coffee.....35c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS

125 Stamps with 1 lb Very Fancy Tea.....70c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Fancy Tea.....60c
80 Stamps with 1 lb Family Tea.....50c
50 Stamps with 1 lb Very Good Tea.....40c

10 STAMPS FREE
WITH ANY OF THE FOLLOWING

1 Bottle Ammonia.....10c
1 can Sultana Spice.....10c
1 can Underwood's Sardines.....10c
1 can Old Dutch or Atlantic Cleanser.....10c
1 jar Del Monte Honey.....15c
1 bottle Worcestershire Sauce.....15c
2 Packages Noodles, each 5c or 1 pkg.....10c
1 package Dog or Puppy Biscuits.....10c
2 cakes Grandma's Ironing Wax, each.....5c
1 bottle White Vinegar.....10c
1 package Ice Cream or Jelly Powder.....10c

137-139 West Front Street

Tel. 117

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO. — THE LARGEST GROCERY HOUSE IN AMERICA — ESTAB. 1859

Free Delivery

FURNITURE

The New Furniture

we are placing on our floors make it a pleasure for you to select the FURNITURE for your home. It has been purchased at low cost and we can offer it to you at very moderate prices. The new pieces represent the best we can buy in construction, design and finish and we offer them to you with confidence that they will give you splendid service. Here are some of the prices for the new goods.

CIRCASSIAN WALNUT BEDROOM SUITS—
BED, DRESSER AND CHIFFONIER; Prices begin at.....$82.00

LEATHER UPHOLSTERED
CHAIRS AND ROCKERS; Prices begin at.....$34.00

TAPESTRY UPHOLSTERED
CHAIRS AND ROCKERS; Prices begin at.....$26.00

SOFA DAVENPORTS; Prices begin at.....$42.00

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

ARE YOU GOING AWAY?

If you are, get a Tourist Policy and

DON'T FRET

The coverage is liberal and the Company's treatment of its policy holders is always satisfactory.

The Little Trunk (or a big one) contains more in value than you probably think. Figure it up.

Baggage insurance in our Companies costs very little for Fire, Transportation, Theft and Navigation risks.

J. C. POPE & COMPANY

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING

113 E. FRONT STREET PLAINFIELD, N. J.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

MAC SAYS

Have you ever stopped to scan Jack Martin's baseball career since he broke into fast company. Playing with the Rochester Hustlers two seasons ago Jack had the satisfaction of seeing his club nosed out of an International League championship by the Newark Indians in one of the most thrilling races ever run in that organization. Now Jack is viewing from the sandlots of Quakertown the Boston Braves' wonderful dash for the National League pennant. Jackie is a former Brave, having been shifted from that club to the Phillies in the spring. The local shortstop has had a pair of narrow escapes from being compelled to share in world series receipts and we are now led to wonder if his presence in the Dooin lineup will make a championship team out of the Sleepy Village herd.

In keeping with other towns of its size and importance on the United States map Plainfield has a policeman athlete in the person of one John Fritts. Few departments of the Queen City calibre go unrepresented in the sporting world these days, and Jack's all around work has brought Plainfield up to a par with other bluecoat squads. His presence in a bluecoat on the city streets has boasted the importance of the local department in more ways than one and has had the effect of "making" a number of other promising performers out of the material already in the force.

Manager "Doc" Doyle, of the Holy Cross football team, has introduced a novelty in conditioning men for the wear and tear of gridiron competition. "Doc" and his ever present helpmate, "Ruby Dan" McCormack, are instructing the warriors in the terpischorean art. Several of the applicants for jobs on the pigskin squad this season have taken readily to the innovation and it is expected to be of great value to them in trotting down the field with forward passes and forming line defence that will cause the opposition to hesitate.

Then again, these Holy Cross notables have found another method of breaking into the limelight. The manager and his charges propose to drill on the band concert park on East Front street, thereby furnishing further sleep destruction to the good citizens of that section. Contending with the strains of a band one day a week has had its effect on a number of the residents but what the results of pigskin assault will be remains to be seen.

With the opening of school today a new delight enters the life of the high school plugger on this side of the brook. Hereafter all of the students will be treated to daily scrubbings in the new swimming tank at the institution. This is an attractive feature in more ways than one and we anticipate striking results.

Somebody is evidently of the opinion that basketball needs an early start in this city. Information has come to hand regarding a session for reorganization to be held in the Y. M. C.A. parlors tomorrow night. But is this procedure entirely fair to the gridiron enthusiasts who are clamoring for recognition just at this time of the year?

In our opinion there is about as much chance of basketball thriving during the next two months as there is of a slump in the Boston Braves' camp or a spurt on the part of the Gotham Giantlets.

Plainfield appears to have designs on an athletic monpoly in Springfield, Mass. What kind of a chance have the other students got with a quartet of youngsters like Nash, Sminck, Stine and Townley lurking around for athletic jobs?

It's time to hock your straw hat. By the looks of things at that ball game at Parker Field Saturday afternoon there will be considerable changes going on between now and tomorrow morning.

It's about time someone settled Cliff Randolph's destiny. Local fans are getting pretty tired of hearing about what is going to be done with the popular local ball heaver and some definite action in the Randolph matter would be greatly appreciated by all interested. If it becomes necessary it might be well to turn the Queen Cityite over to that wiley old leader, Connie Mack, who is said to be trailing him.

We are now ready for that annual announcement from the wilds of North Plainfield to the effect that the borough High School will not be represented by a football team this season. But then, the unexpected may happen.

"Bill" Ruttledge's annual resignation from the Holy Cross football club has not been received to date. 'Smatter Bill?

While we're rattling the skeleton we might suggest that there was an agitation here for a Jack Martin Day several weeks ago. What has become of that sentiment? A little pep is needed somewhere.

Our old friend "Bill" Schooley is still taking advantage of New Jersey's paddle wielding talent. The little blonde cleaned up on a doubles title with one of his Newark pals in Paterson last week. The Silk City loving cup presented to him was a peach and is only one of a fine collection he has mustered together recently. "Bill" is a popular "made in Newark" kid and has a host of admirers pulling for him in that village.

Haven't heard anyone ask if the Plainfield cops have designs on the city amateur baseball title recently. What has become of the old time craze for the impossible? It might be well to boom a chess tourney among the bluecoats at this time of the year. The coppers have become noted for the pink teas they have been handing out to visiting delegations and this form of entertainment would go well with the chess stunt.

Newark coppers have taken to track and field athletics with a vim. It would be better, however, for Plainfield minions of the law to wait until the Queen City passed Newark in area and population, and then we could have some real fun with the rival athletes sporting the blue garb.

"Inside dope" indicates that Captain Abrams, of the North Plainfield High School basketball team, has ideas of his own about rounding a basketball squad into shape. We have heard that Captain Abrams intends to call his squad together for a star course of heart-to-heart talks within the next few weeks. It is rumored, however, that Abbie is better on the sole to sole stuff.

JACK MARTIN ACCEPTED ALL SIXTEEN CHANCES

Jack Martin had a busy day at Philadelphia, yesterday, in the double header with the Giants and played a fine game in the field without one slip in either contest. In the first game the local player chalked up one hit, with four putouts and as many assists. He also started one of those double killing stunts which shut off some runs.

Jack laced out a timely single in the second battle with the bases loaded which scored a runner. He also scored once in this game and started another double play. In the field he accepted eight chances, two putouts and six assists. Two hits, one run and sixteen chances is a pretty good day's work.

"FLICK" LUYSTER SLUMPS.

William "Flick" Luyster, who has been a .300 sticker since he went to the Lawrence team, is now hitting .298. Frank Bruggy continues to wallop the ball in the same style and has an average of .313.

THREE-YEAR CONTRACT.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Home Run Frank Schulte, veteran outfielder, signed a new three-year contract with the Cubs yesterday.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

—Your "business opportunity" ad will be read by people who never miss real chances for investments.

LOCAL ELKS MAY GO IN STATE LEAGUE

Meeting Was Held Yesterday in Newark, but There Was No Local Delegate.

Initial plans for a Junior Elks' Bowling League were made at the home of the Newark lodge, in Green street, Sunday afternoon. From the enthusiastic way in which the delegates went about forming the junior circuit it should be a success. It was decided to have the opening games rolled during the week of November 2, but the exact date will not be settled until after the Senior League meets at Jersey City next Sunday.

To date the following six teams are sure of entering the league: Paterson, Elizabeth, New Brunswick, New York, Jersey City and Newark, while Plainfield, Hoboken and Orange are considered as likely entries. If an eight-team league is formed there will be one trip made around the circuit, while if only six teams enter there will be two trips made. It is practically a certainty that the entries of eight teams will be received.

The next meeting will be held at the Newark lodge on Sunday, September 27, when final plans for the league will probably be completed.

Now that the Newark Elks intend entering a team in the junior league, they will withdraw from the Newark league, of which they were members last year.

The alleys at the Newark Elks' home have been put in tiptop condition after the fire last spring and a number of improvements have also been made. A new lighting system has been installed and a locker room for the visiting bowling team, with separate lockers for each member of the team. The alleys were opened Saturday night for the first time, but just for practice bowling. Next Saturday night they will be formally opened with prize bowling.

LOCAL PLAYER WINS ALL THREE MATCHES

Philip VanDeventer Qualifies for Fourth Round of "Met" Junior Championships.

Philip VanDeventer, of this city, pushed his way into the four round of the Junior Metropolitan Lawn Tennis Championship, at Forest Hill, yesterday afternoon, by winning all the matches he played. The local player had an easy time, only playing two matches in the three rounds that were played on the opening day. He drew a bie in the first round and was not paired until the second, when he easily defeated W. C. Harrison in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2. He had no trouble winning the match of the third round the scores being 6-2, 6-3. This qualifies VanDeventer for the semi-finals, but he will encounter some difficult players before he reaches the last match if he survives.

One of the favorites for the title is Harold Throckmorton, New Jersey interscholastic champion, who hails from Woodbridge and who has put the High School of that place on the map along tennis lines. Throckmorton is a wonderful player for his age and will probably come out on top in this tourney. He won the first round when he defeated C. D. Arnold 6-2, 6-1, and in the third round when W. Loeb fell his victim, both sets went six games to one.

Throckmorton's brother also had good luck and won his way to the third round by winning two matches. In the first he won 6-1, 6-3, and his second score was even better, being 6-2, 6-0. Altogether ninety-six competitors appeared for the matches, and a total of sixty-nine results were chalked on the board by Frederick B. Alexander, who acted as manager. The doubles portion of the tournament will begin today.

ROD AND REEL

High Water Mark.

	P.M.
Sandy Hook	3:47
Morgan's Station	3:57
Sewaren	4:07
Governor's Island	3:57
Jamaica Bay	4:17
Corson's Inlet	2:47
Centre street (Newark)	4:52

Black bass fishermen have a long season before them, as the windup doesn't happen until November 30. Experts say that there will be good fall fishing in the big lakes, as the summer residents and their powerboats will be gone. It is claimed that the game fish keep in the deep water while the powerboats are running, and that they will come to the surface to feed through the latter part of this month and October.

A passenger on the fishing steamer Taurus caught a strange fish at the Klondike Banks one day last week that had every one on board guessing. It had a head and mouth like an angler, wings like a skate and the tail of a shark. It was placed in a tank and later taken to the aquarium, where fish experts pronounced it a torpedo or electric ray, weighing thirty pounds.

Sewaren fishermen found the snappy northeasters to their liking last week and Acker's boats brought in some fine catches.

Fish and Game Protector James Stratton and Warden Fred J. Hall put 1,700 white perch, catfish, small mouth black bass and crappie in Branch Brook Lake, Newark, last week. All the fish were of good size and will be taking the bait before the fishing season closes.

East winds have spoiled the fishing along the shore. Those who were venturesome enough to go out yesterday got very little for their trouble. Wherever it was possible, the fishermen found eel fishing in the creeks more profitable than wasting their time on weakfish. Staten Island Sound was the best place yesterday, as it is sheltered from East winds by the Staten Island hills, and the fish all seemed to go up that way, as some good catches were made at Sewaren.

TY COBB TAKES LEAD IN BATTING CONTEST.

Ty Cobb has jumped to first place in the race in the American League for the lead in batting. Eddie Collins, who led in the official averages published last Sunday, has dropped below Cobb, Jackson and Hoblitzel. The published averages included last Thursday's games and since then Collins has made only one hit. Jackson has added three to his total, Hoblitzel three, while Cobb has been flogging the ball in that time and added eleven hits to his store. The batting averages, including yesterday's games, are: Cobb, .367; Jackson, .344; Hoblitzel, .342; Collins, .331.

GOOD PINNING IN FIRST NIGHT'S PLAY

Much Excitement and Several Close Scores in Opening Night of K. of C. League.

The Knights of Columbus one man bowling tournament, for the club championship, was started last night on the alleys in Columbus Hall, and four good matches were played. All of the bowling was extremely good and there was much excitement at times when the games were close. H. Pasch was the only pinner who could get a clean sweep in either match, but he easily took all three games from John Caulfield, the last being the hardest of the match.

In the first match of the night, E. Taylor and Hillman had it hot for the first two games, the scores being very close. The first was won by Taylor with a margin of five points, but his opponent came back in the second game and nosed him out by one, the scores being 192 and 191. Hillman also won the third with several points to spare. There was only one point difference at the end of the first game between Taylor and Pasch, the latter winning. Caulfield could only get one of three games he played with Hillman, that being the third, which he won by one point.

There was much enthusiasm shown last night and a large crowd witnessed the matches. The scores:

E. Taylor	195	191	159
Hillman	190	192	177
Caulfield	156	172	204
Pasch	188	223	215
E. Taylor	175	140	206
Pasch	176	160	201
Caulfield	157	183	153
Hillman	169	213	152

Tomorrow night the second four will play and will be paired as follows:

M. Wilson vs. G. Howe.
G. Taylor vs. J. Duffy.
M. Wilson vs. J. Duffy.
G. Taylor vs. G. Howe.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION MEET.

The New Jersey Association for Poultry Improvement will meet tomorrow evening at the Exempt Firemen's rooms at which time business in connection with the approaching show to be held at Newark during December will be presented. A full attendance is desired.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 1200

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

ANOTHER PRACTICE FOR HOLY CROSS

Will Hold Light Workout at Fifth and Liberty Streets at Eight Tonight.

The Holy Cross football team is scheduled to proctice tonight in the St. Mary's school yard at Fifth and Liberty streets, but some of the players have "kicked" about going so far out of town to practice. For this reason the Cricket Field is not being used to it as too far for those who live on this side of town and in Netherwood to go for practice and there is not enough light. Those who live in the borough are against the location of the present field for the same reason and it is probable that a more central place will be used, either the Watchung avenue lot at the foot of North avenue or the Marshall field below Fourth street.

Beginning next week the team will use the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium almost every night for a short time if arrangements can be made. Tonight no heavy practice will be held, but Coach Martin will put the squad through some light work. There was a large number of candidates out last Saturday afternoon and as many if not more are expected to report this week. "Bill" Rutledge says he will not play this year, but when the time comes he will probably be in a tackle position. Among the new men is Jack Fritts, the local all around athlete, who will try for a place. He played half back in a couple of games last year and will be a strong man for one of the backs this year.

Manager Doyle is busy arranging his schedule and will have a good many stellar attractions here this fall. The practice tonight will start at 8 o'clock.

FINE SCHEDULE FOR FOOTBALL SEASON

Plainfield High School Team Will Take on Several New Teams and All Old Ones.

Donald Updike, manager of the Plainfield High School football team, has arranged a fine schedule for the eleven this season and has several new teams on the schedule. The strong South Side High School will meet the locals in Newark in the second game of the year and South Orange will also be a new opponent. This game will be played on Parker Field. The third new team is Morris High School which will appear here in the early part of next month.

The regular Alumni battle will be fought on Thanksgiving Day as usual and will wind up the season. All of Plainfield's old opponents will again meet them, including Rahway, Phillipsburg, Somerville and Roselle. The first practice is being held today on Parker Field and "Ginger" Lindsey is assisting Captain Peacock for the first few days. A tackling dummy has been erected, but the work will be light for the first few days. The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 3, Somerville—Home.
Oct. 10, South Side High School—at Newark (pending).
Oct. 17, Roselle High—at Roselle (pending).
Oct. 24, Rahway—at home.
Oct. 31, South Orange—at home (pending).
Election Day, Westfield—home.
Nov. 7, New Brunswick—at New Brunswick.
Columbus Day, Westfield at Westfield.
Nov. 14, Morris High School—at home.
Nov. 21, Phillipsburg at Phillipsburg.
Thanksgiving Day, Alumni—home.

PLAINFIELD A. A. BALLISTS AFTER ST. JOSEPH'S AGAIN

Although they were defeated in a fifteen-inning game by the St. Joseph aggregation, at Bound Brook, Sunday, the Plainfield A. A. ballists will go after their conquerers again next Sunday afternoon on the same grounds and expect to take the measure of the Brookers this time. The team from up the road have taken the local team into camp twice this year and will try for the third battle.

Maiden will not pitch next Sunday as he pulled a ligament last week and is off on a trip in the West to visit "Bonesetter" Reese. The locals will have a good man to take his place in this game.

—Your "situation wanted" ad will be read by your next employer

—You may have an immediate task for a want ad—and yet not act wisely in failing to read them day by day.

CENTRAL BOTTLING WORKS
Phone 229. cor. Somerset & Chatham Sts.
HENRY HAURAND, Proprietor.

Headquarters for High Grade Beers, Wines, Liquors and Carbonated Beverages.

SPECIAL SALES
of the Celebrated California Sparkling Asti Special Sec.
Sale price, per quarts.....$1.00
Sale price, 2 pint bottles.....$1.00
Regular price, quarts, $1.50; pints, 75c.

We carry a large assortment of Wines and Liquors (foreign and native) and our prices are of the lowest.

We regret to state that we can not deliver goods in Plainfield, but if you consider quality and prices you will find it will pay you to send for them. We call for empty bottles.

POST SEASON GAMES ARE NOW IN ORDER

Martin and Dorflinger Men Will Meet on Parker Field in Three Game Series.

Indications are that local baseball fans will be treated to a few more good baseball games before the season closes, as the managers of the Plainfield Pets and the Saurer aggregation have agreed to play a new series of three contests. These games will undoubtedly prove interesting as the teams are evenly matched and with two good pitchers on the mound there should be some hard tussles.

Something more than a mere title will be up on this series and the team that makes the most runs in the three games will receive a silver loving cup. This will stimulate the interest in the game and will make the series worth playing. Many plans were discussed by the managers before this action was decided upon and all arrangements have been made so that there can be no fuss or arguments when the time to play arrives. The umpire must be agreed upon by both managers and his word will be law in any event. Arguments of any kind will not be permitted on the field save by the field captains who are granted this privilege by the rules.

Another good thing that was settled is that no new players are to be signed for these games. Both teams have a fine lot of talent and are content to place their respective teams on the field with the same men that appeared in the last game.

The first contest of the series will be played next Saturday on Parker Field and the others will probably be played on the two Saturdays following. McLaughlin and Jennings will be used in all of the games and the regular lineups will be played in the opening tilt for the cup.

M'INNIS LED ALL BATTERS IN AUGUST

Connie Mack's First Baseman at the Top of List for Driving in Tallies.

Jack McInnis, youngest member of Connie Mack's priceless infield, led the major leaguers last month in driving in runs, hammering home two dozen tallies. The only othe teamleader to reach the twenty mark was Sam Crawford, of the Tigers. The veteran just got there. Owen Wilson, setting the pace during August for the Cardinals in timely hitting, drove in 18 runs and so did Joe Jackson, who showed the way for the Naps. Wilson did an extremely good day's work when, on August 18, in the game with the Phillies, he batted in four of his team's six runs, Grover Cleveland Alexander being the pitcher who suffered. The men who excelled for the other teams in driving counters in last month were Hooper for the Red Sox, Wheat and Myers for the Superbas, Cree for the Yankees, Fournier for the White Sox, Schmidt for the Braves, Zimmerman for the Cubs, Burns for the Giants, Konetchy for the Pirates, Pratt for the Browns, Cravath for the Phillies, Daniels for the Reds and Moeller and Mitchell for the Senators.

Hooper, of the Red Sox, turned in the biggest afternoon's work in driving in runs when, on August 27, he knocked home five in the contest with Detroit, Dubuc, McCrery and Reynolds pitching. The greatest number hit in one game this year is seven. Alva Williams, of the Senators, setting this record on July 3 in a game against his old team—Boston. Tris Speaker, a Chalmers car winner two years ago, batted in six on April 22 in a contest with the Athletics and so did Sherwood Magee, of the Phillies, on the first day of the season April 14—in a conflict with the Giants.

When the timely hitting figures were balanced at the close of business on August 31, they showed J. Franklin Baker, of the Athletics, and Samuel B. Crawford, of the Tigers, in the van, each eminent swatsmith having batted in 81 runs. Heinie Zimmerman, the Cubs ablest sticker in the pinches, had then batted in 75 tallies; Wheat, excelling for the Superbas, 69; Magee, leading for the Phillies, 69; and Jack Miller starring for the Cardinals, 69; Jackson, Clevelands star, had 62 to his credit, and Collins, the Hitless Wonders' crack, 62. Other team-leaders who had records of fifty or better were Speaker and Lewis, of the Red Sox, with 56; Shanks, of the Senators, with 53, and Doyle of the Giants, with 51. No new record will be set in either big league in batting in runs this season. The high water marks are 129 in the National, made by Cravath, of the Phillies, last year, and 133 in the American, made by Baker, of the Athletics, three seasons ago.

The team leaders in batting in runs on August 31 and during last month are named below:

Team Leaders on September 1.

Clubs.	Players.	SH.	SF.	IO.	Tl.
Athletics	Baker	70	5	6	81
Tigers	Crawford	64	12	5	81
Cubs	Zimmerman	66	6	3	75
Superbas	Wheat	58	7	4	69
Phillies	Magee	63	4	2	69
Cardinals	J. Miller	62	5	2	69
Browns	C. Walker	55	7	4	66
Naps	Jackson	53	5	4	62
White Sox	Collins	44	7	5	56
Red Sox	Speaker	50	2	4	56
Red Sox	Lewis	48	2	6	56
Senators	Shanks	41	5	7	53
Giants	Doyle	37	9	5	51
Braves	Schmidt	41	3	5	49
Yankees	Peck	36	4	3	43
Pirates	Viox	30	2	7	39
Pirates	Konetchy	27	9	3	39
Reds	Herzog	27	7	2	36

Team Leaders During August.

Clubs.	Players.	SH.	SF.	IO.	Tl.
Athletics	McInnis	18	2	4	24
Tigers	Crawford	14	3	3	20
Cardinals	Wilson	16	0	2	18
Naps	Jackson	16	0	2	18
Red Sox	Hooper	13	1	0	14
Superbas	Wheat	11	3	0	14
Superbas	Myers	13	1	0	14
Yankees	Cree	10	2	1	13
White Sox	Fournier	10	2	1	13
Braves	Schmidt	12	1	0	13
Cubs	Zimmerman	12	0	1	13
Giants	Burns	12	0	1	13
Pirates	Konetchy	12	1	0	13
Browns	Pratt	12	0	0	12
Phillies	Cravath	10	2	0	12
Senators	Moeller	10	0	0	10
Senators	Mitchell	10	0	0	10

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN

will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer.

Aaron, newsdealer.

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealer, Somerville, sells the Daily Press or will deliver

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES AT

Leo Zeisel's
222 WEST FRONT STREET.
Next to Proctor's.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY
Open to the Public
117 EAST SECOND STREET
Under the management of George Miller.

FEATURE EVENTS FOR SCOUT MEET

Plainfield Patrols Have Fine Program Planned for October 17.

MANY WILL TAKE PART

New Scoutmasters Appointed—Rally Meeting of Council Last Night in Y. M. C. A.—Trophies at Stake—Plan to Raise Fund for Big Trip.

Great mystery surrounds the character of the events that will be introduced at the second annual demonstration of scout work at Parker Field, Saturday afternoon, October 17, according to the report of the field day committee made at the Boy Scout Council meeting in the Y. M. C. A., last night. The various troops have aranged surprises which even a determined spy system has so far failed to reveal. In addition to the regular events of scout craft, there will be features that few persons outside of scout officials hardly believe possible for mere boys to accomplish.

Another feature of the day will be the competition among individual scouts for the efficiency cup offered by Paul R. Collier to the boy having shown the greatest advance in general scout work during the year. The demonstration itself will be a patrol contest to wrest from Champion Wolf Patrol, Troop 5, the pennant offered by Mr. Collier last year and won by John Causbrook's patrol.

L. M. Leek, of the scout extension committee, announced that W. R. Kriney and Russell Doeringer had been selected to serve as scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster of Troop 10 in Trinity Reformed church. These scoutmasters appeal to parents of all boys over 12 years of age to attend an organization meeting to be held in Trinity church Sunday-school rooms next week. An initial enrollment of 50 boys is hoped for. The date of the meeting will be announced later at the church on Sunday. Troop 10 has been under the jurisdiction of Scoutmaster Charles R. Bostwick, of Troop 9, of the First M. E. church, pending the selection of a scoutmaster in Trinity church.

The scout council went into the details of a plan which will be employed as an experiment in Troops 5, 9, 10 and 11, whereby the boys will be enabled to provide themselves with funds for competing with some of the cracks troops of the East next year, or for taking a trip to Washington, Niagara Falls or some other educational jaunt. About $400 is required, the stipulation being that every penny of it is to be earned in the ensuing nine months by the boys themselves. The plan will be unfolded to Troop 5 at its meeting tonight in scout headquarters, the First Presbyterian chapel. It will be submitted to Troops 9, 10 and 11 next week.

Announcement was made by the Court of Honor that Christian Kroener, Troop 5, had passed to first-class scout at a percentage of .94 and that Colin Millard had passed the merit badge tests for personal health, his fifth distinction.

The next scout council meeting will be held on Monday evening, October 12, when officers will be elected. The nominating committee, of which F. K. Anderson is chairman, will make its report at that time. The president of the council is William N. Runyon, and secretary, Dr. George T. Moore, both of whom were present last evening.

RAHWAY TAKES TWO FROM LOCAL BIRDS

Easily Take the First and Get Second by Ten Points—Third Game Postponed.

The Plainfield Eagles were defeated by the Rahway birds in a two-game match last night, on the local alleys. All of the scores were low the highest being 210 made by Miller, of the local team, in the second game. The third game was called off to let the visitors catch a car for home.

The first game was not very interesting and the visitors won with a margin of twenty points, the scores being 828 to 808. The local pinners made it interesting for their opponents in the last and almost made it necessary for a third game to be played. There was only ten points. Miller was the only one of the bowlers who hit about the two hundred mark and his first score was 193. The best score made by the visitors was 196, Repcka being responsible for that in the first game. Thursday night the local Eagles will go to Somerville and play their brothers of that place for the second time. The first meeting resulted in a victory for the county seaters. The scores of last night's play:

PLAINFIELD.

Crowley	177	126
Caulfield	130	132
Taylor	123	134
Mahoney	185	158
Miller	193	210
	808	760

RAHWAY.

Kelly	181	156
Collins	146	133
Lukas	159	134
Repcka	166	166
Crowell	176	181
	828	770

FRANK CHANCE MAY QUIT YANKS TODAY

Trouble With Farrell Said to Be Settled and He May Leave Immediately.

The trouble between Frank Chance and the owners of the Yankees has been adjusted. Chance will receive $3,300 for his services for the last month of the season beginning today and will relinquish his contract for another season at a salary calling for $20,000.

Chance said before the game yesterday that he did not want to embarrass the club owners by remaining another year under unpleasant conditions. He said he could compel the owners to live up to the full terms of his contract, but he believed that neither side would be benefitted. Chance, therefore, said that if President Farrell would guarantee $3,300 for the last month beginning today he would quit the job immediately or remain with the team until October.

When President Farrell was apprised of Chance's attitude he said that he would pay this year's salary in full and would accept Chance's resignation to take effect whenever he was ready.

Farrell said that he had not signed Jack Dunn as yet to manage the club but that he had considered Dunn, who has been strongly recommended by Chance and Connie Mack. Chance says, however, it is a 5 to 1 shot, that Dunn will be signed for the season of 1915.

If Chance is permitted to leave before the end of the season Peckinpaugh will manage the team for the balance of the season.

AMERICAN LEAGE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	87	46	.654
Boston	78	53	.595
Detroit	71	63	.530
Washington	68	62	.523
Chicago	63	69	.477
New York	60	74	.448
St. Louis	59	72	.451
Cleveland	43	90	.323

Yesterday's Results.

Philadelphia, 2; New York, 1.
Washington, 8; Boston, 1.
Boston, 3; Washington, 0.
Detroit, 6; Cleveland, 4.
St. Louis, 6; Chicago, 6 (twelve innings; darkness).

Games Today.

Philadelphia at New York.
Boston at Washington.
Detroit at Cleveland.
Chicago at St. Louis.

NATIONAL LEAGE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	74	55	.574
New York	72	58	.554
St. Louis	71	62	.533
Chicago	71	63	.530
Pittsburgh	61	68	.473
Philadelphia	60	71	.459
Brooklyn	58	72	.446
Cincinnati	56	74	.431

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 3; Philadelphia, 2.
Philadelphia, 10; New York, 6.
Boston, 4; Brooklyn, 3.
Chicago, 7; Pittsburgh, 4.

Games Today.

New York at Philadelphia.
Brooklyn at Boston.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

YOUNG PRINCE MAY SEE WAR.

Rome, Sept. 15.—Flags were displayed throughout the capital today and the people kept a general holiday because of the fact that it was the tenth birthday anniversary of Prince Humbert, heir apparent to the throne of Italy. At ten years of age the future King has all but reached man's estate, according to the standard prevailing in the Latin countries, and in consequence he is now a figure of much importance in the official world. He is destined for a naval career, following in the footsteps of his distinguished cousin, the Duke of the Abruzzi. In fact, little Prince Humbert already has had his first taste of life at sea on board one of Italy's modern dreadnoughts. He is now regularly enrolled as a midshipman in the navy and in the event that Italy becomes involved in the present general warfare it is not improbable that the future King may be given his baptism of fire ere he passes another birthday anniversary.

PASSENGER AGENTS' MEETING.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 15.—The annual convention of the Association of General Passenger Agents opened in this city today and will continue through the greater part of the week. The attendance includes representatives of all the principal railroad systems of the United States and Canada. The sessions will be devoted to the exchange of opinions on numerous problems relating to the handling of railroad passenger traffic.

The departure of the cook or maid does not prostrate the lady who knows the efficiency of Press want ads.

And want ad-reading servants are of the desirable class.

BANQUET WAS A NOTABLE AFFAIR

Railroad Officials Unite in Honoring Michael Moynihan, Veteran Engineer.

INTERESTING SPEECHES

President W. G. Besler Comments on the Exemplary Character of Honored Guest—Remarks by Other Officials of New Jersey Central.

The banquet given at the Jersey City Terminal of the New Jersey Central, on Saturday, in honor of Michael Moynihan, upon the completion of his fifty years' employment with the company, was a notable affair, being attended by twenty guests, the majority of whom were officials of the company who gave the banquet to the faithful employe. Among the guests were President W. G. Besler, Arthur Kirkendall, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; General Superintendent J. W. Meredith, Superintendent of Motive Power and Engineers; Charles E. Chambers, L. Parker Titus, general chairman of the Order of Railway Conductors; John J. Kellsher, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; A. D. Edgar, assistant superintendent; W. C. Hope, general passenger agent, and other officials, also David T. Kenney, of this city, brother-in-law of Mr. Moynihan.

Perhaps, one of the most interesting features of the affair, was the remarks of Mr. Besler, who said among other things:

"The occasion is not the celebration of some one exceptional act, or a particular act, but it is on account of the charatcer of the service and its long continuation, that we have felt it our duty as well as our pleasure to come here today. Fifty years ago, Mr. Moynihan, our honored guest today, asked the New Jersey Central for a job. What he wanted was work and he applied for a job, which was given him.

"Years rolled around, and he gradually advanced himself from one position to another, always, so far as we know, by reason of his faithful and conscientious performance of duty, until at last we find him holding an honorable position as locomotive engineer, well and favorably known to a vast number of patrons of the company, but always the same quiet, unassuming, unpretending gentleman that has marked his career from the beginning.

"Our little gathering here today is but another one of the many we have had in the years that have rolled around, wherein, by friendly interest and honest co-operation, we have endeavored to cement our friendship and our relationships as officers and men.

"These, and many others, are the thoughts which come to me today in connection with the reason which has brought us together, and in congratulating Mr. Moynihan we do so not merely because of what he has accomplished for himself in the good name which he has made for himself, but because he has been, and we may point him out to be an example to young men and an inspiration to them of what a man can accomplish by his own individual effort, and unassisted influence or 'pull'.

"Now just a word as to his private life, and a testimonial at this time and place to the sterling character of Mr. Moynihan as a man. He is, and has always been, a total abstainer. I will not say that a man who is not a total abstainer may not yet be in every respect just as good a citizen; but with all respect to such a man, we still must feel that with all of the temptations which naturally come to one in life, a man who has been able to stand firm and steadfast in the principle of total abstinence which he has adopted for himself, is an exceptional man, and worthy of especial honor, and who, by right, should be held up as an example to the young men of our service.

"And now in conclusion: I know that you will agree with me that the pleasure and the pride which we feel Mr. Moynihan has this day enjoyed, is seconded in like degree by the pleasure and the pride that we have in our association with him, and the opportunity which has been afforded us for coming together today in honor of this occasion. His has been a work well done, and when shall come the final day, and we shall meet our appointed time and summoned to lay down our work and join the vast throng which takes its way to that mysterious bourne from whose shore no traveler ever returns, let us hope that it may be said in benediction to each and everyone of us,—'Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord'."

Following Mr. Besler's address and the remarks by other officials, it was several minutes before Mr. Moynihan could recover sufficiently to respond, which he did in the following words:

"Mr. President, executive officers, invited guests, fellow employes: On this, the completion of my fifty years of continuous service with the great Central Railroad of New Jersey system, you do me an unexpected honor in assembling to congratulate me upon the event.

"I have always aspired to be a true veteran, which means a man of action rather than a man of words, and it would indeed require many eloquent words to enable me to respond to this singular, and I fear unmerited event. True, in my fifty years of service I have never failed to respond to the call of duty in any emergency, day or night, in storm drift, fog or blizzard. Yet how many of our brave boys have done the same thing and never flinched under the most trying conditions. How many of your good and faithful men with whom I daily rub shoulders are equally true veterans? Their names are legion.

"Yes, gentlemen, in my daily association with these men, I meet many who are men of clean character, bright, capable, intelligent, Christian men, good husbands, fathers and citizens, acquiring honor, commanding the confidence and respect of their fellow men in the respective towns all along the line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Yet out of this sober and patriotic array, you have selected me, as I view it, because the good Master has permitted him to outlive many perhaps more deserving.

"Yes, gentlemen, I fear very much that I have been overrated. I certainly am overwhelmed; no mere words can express my gratitude.

"In the face of this demonstration, who can say that there is a wide abyss between capital and labor? Would that this singular manisfestation and mutual good will could be extended to the uttermost ends of the earth. It would displace wasteful strikes and this Godless strife now alas prevailing in the old world.

"Now, Mr. President, ere we part, accept my profound appreciation of this unprecedented honor conferred upon me and when you return to your fond home convey to those you hold most dear on earth the best wishes of one of the most humble employes of the Central Railroad of New Jersey."

PRAISES BRAVERY OF BRITISH ARMY

Noted English Author Gives Authentic Information of War Happenings.

FIGHT TO THE FINISH

Arnold Wright in a Letter to Alfred Rose Says That Conflict Means a Complete Smash Up of Germany as a Power.

Reports occasionally brought home by returning travelers from abroad that the British are quaking and are in a terrible "funk" over the war, has prompted Alfred Rose, of 1405 Watchung avenue, to furnish some first-hand information on the subject. He says that a grosser calumny was never uttered. He spent several weeks in his native land England, during the past summer with his close friend, Arnold Wright a well-known author and journalist and under date of August 18 he wrote to Mr. Rose as follows:

"We little thought when we saw you off at Waterloo that in a little over a month from that time a British army would be going over the same line that you travelled by to fight Germany. The despatch of the Expeditionary force was kept very secret. Not until this morning did we know that it had left. But we were sure that there was something in the wind. All last week nearly we heard the rattle of trains on the London and Southwestern main line They seemed to be almost continuous the whole night long.

"Stirring events are likely to happen before this reaches you. By that time you will probably know how things are going. But we have no fear as to the ultimate result. Germany has bitten off more than she can chew, as your American friends would say. My own opinion is that she is in an awful hole. She ought to be at Paris by this time if she is to win and she has still to capture Liege. What a glorious fight the gallant little Belgiums have put up! Whatever happens now they are sure of a niche in the Hall of Fame.

"We have been greatly heartened here by the sympathy we have got from America. We feel that our cause is a just one if ever there was one, but it is not so easy for other nations to see matters through our spectacles. That your good friends take the decided view they do is, therefore, the more encouraging.

"I am afraid that Japan's intervention may alter matters. I myself wish she had been left out of the affair. However, she has an old score to wipe off with Germany and it is only human nature that she should cut in now that she has a chance.

"The naval position is still obscure. We are hoping that Germany will come out and fight as we are sure we shall give her the time of her life if she does. But I am afraid that she will prefer to keep her fleet intact if possible so as to save something from the wreckage when the reckoning comes. Not, however, that we should consent to allow her to retain her ships. We want to finish this business now that we have begun it and finish it we shall I believe as there are not two opinions here as to the desirability of a thorough clean-up—or to put it differently—a complete smash up of Germany as a naval and military power.

"The change that has come over the country since you were here is extraordinary. We are living under a modified form of military law and government and are doing things in the way of commandeering supplies, which at other times would be simply impossible. I am told that at Felixstowe all the houses on the front have been taken over by the military authorities and occupied with troops. Some of them have been pulled down and a tunnel has been driven right through the cliff somewhere about Bent Hill, which you no doubt remember. Fancy this at Felixstowe of all places! The same thing has happened at Dovercourt. The fact is that the authorities are taking no risks. They do not intend to supply an opening for a landing if our fleet should be temporarily crippled.

"Everyone here almost is doing something. I have enrolled myself as a special constable. I have not yet gone on duty but I expect to do so soon. We were sworn in yesterday and are to have our truncheons almost at once. The duties will be to watch bridges and strategic points and if necessary do ordinary patrol work in the streets. I find that I shall have the power of arrest, so that if you should think of coming to the old country again soon you must mind your p's and q's while you are in my company.

"Fanny has joined a Red Cross class and is to make garments for the soldiers.

"We hope the war will be short but we are not sanguine on this point. Germany if defeated in the coming battles will have her back to the wall and it may be a long and costly business to bring her to accept defeat. However, she is suffering such terrific losses in her trade that she may after all not be so difficult to deal with. My own opinion is that before very long if the war goes against her there will be a Socialist rising in Germany which will sweep the Kaiser and his gang from the earth. That would perhaps be the best ending of the business. While the Holenzollerns continue in power the world will have no peace."

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

The most absorbing play of the present day theatricals is J. Hartley Manners' delightful comedy, "Peg O' My Heart," which patrons of the Plainfield theatre are anxiously awaiting to attend its second presentation here, which takes place tomorrow afternoon and evening. No theatrical offering of the past twenty years has left such a lasting impression upon our playgoing public, as has Oliver Morosco's fortune making success. This delicate little comedy with its mixture of fun and pathos presents life in its true light, with a deeper motive than can be attributed to any of the other plays Mrs. Manners has given to the stage. Every stage generation or so, there comes into the life of our theatre a play so real, so human, so true to all characteristic drawings and narratives, that its brilliancy dazzles us by its drawing power. "Peg O' My Heart" is such a play, and with dainty Blanche Hall again appearing in the title role its engagement here should duplicate the wonderful attendance it enjoyed last season.

The Black Patti Musical Comedy Co., in the new three act musical comedy, entitled, "Lucky Sam From Alabam'," which comes to the Plainfield theatre next Thursday, September 17, matinee and night, is the largest and oldest negro company on the road today, being its nineteenth season. The principals are conceded to be the pick of the colored performers in the country and together with the chorus give a pleasing performance. The book and music of "Lucky Sam From Alabam'" is the work of the star Harrison Stewart, and is said to contain abundant material to amuse and entertain.

PEACE CONGRESS POSTPONED.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—Though there probably never was a more auspicious time than the present for holding a peace conference, the twenty-fifth anniversary meeting of the Universal Peace Congress, which was to have assembled today in Vienna, has been indefinitely postponed for reasons which it is unnecessary to state. Aside from deploring the present warfare which has involved all Europe the advocates of the peace and arbitration movement keenly regret the necessity of postponing the Vienna congress, as it was planned to make the gathering the most notable and impressive of its kind ever held. When the program for the gathering was made up last spring acceptances had been received from all the leading nations of the world to participate in the discussions. Two of the principal topics slated for consideration at the congress were "A Draft Convention for the Reduction of Armaments" and "The Problem of Franco-German Relations."

MR. TAFT HAS A BIRTHDAY.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 15.—Former President William H. Taft celebrated his fifty-seventh birthday anniversary today. The occasion was marked by the receipt of a large number of felicitous messages from friends and admirers throughout the country. Mr. Taft spent the summer at Murray Bay and only recently returned to New Haven to resume his duties as lecturer before the Yale law school.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your neighbors.

HOME CIRCLE NEWS

The United States Government has arranged for the issuance of emergency currency so that National Banks can obtain all the money needed for legitimate business, and now Miron & Lifson come forth with a liberal Credit Plan to provide home comforts to families throughout the city at the lowest prices, and on the most dignified easy terms of payment. WE TRUST YOU.

Buffet

A beautiful buffet of solid quarted oak, in a fine colonial design, full length French beveled plate mirror; an exceptional value; special at 22.50

Extension Table

Made of well-seasoned oak; 42-inch round top, extends to six foot, heavy pedestal, hand carved claw feet; spec. at.. 13.75

China Closet

A well made piece of furniture, built of solid oak; the doors and ends have bent glass; golden oak finish, well polished, fitted with adjustable shelves; a splendid value; special at 16.25

MIRON & LIFSON

134 E. FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, 163-165 FIRST ST. ELIZABETH

Free Auto Deliveries Anywhere. Easy, Liberal Credit.

New Furniture and Bedding

The new styles for Fall and Winter can now be seen on our floors at prices that will prove of interest to you.

New Rugs

Large variety from which to make your selection direct from the mills of the leading manufacturers.

WINDOW SHADES
Special Sizes Made to Order

L. B. Van Camp
Front & Somerset Sts.

CASH or CREDIT

CLOTHING — CLOAKS — BERNSTEIN — OUTFITTING — COMPANY — HATS — SHOES

204 W. Front Street Plainfield N.J.

1 Flight Up Over the Lyric. Open Evening Till 9 o'clock.
Formerly Nat. Bernstein, of 222 West Front Street.

Electrical Goods

Complete Lines of

SEMI-INDIRECT LIGHTING FIXTURES,
SHOWERS, ELECTRIC LAMPS,
IRONS, HEATERS, STOVES, AND TOASTERS.

JOSEPH W. GAVETT
318 WEST FRONT STREET

This agency is gradually forging
TO THE FRONT
People are beginning to appreciate honest intentions and honest values given for the price.
You cannot do better than to place your business here.

FREDERICK A. MARTIN CO.
(Successor to Elston M. French Insurance Agency)
171 NORTH AVENUE Telephone 2304
Insurance Mortgages Real Estate
The Oldest Insurance Agency in This City.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER V.

Intrenching in Belgian Luxemburg.

BUT let us return to Frederick Barnet's "Wander Jahre" and its account of the experiences of a common man during the war time. While these terrific disclosures of scientific possibility were happening in Paris and Berlin Barnet and his company were industriously intrenching themselves in Belgian Luxemburg.

He tells of the mobilization and of his summer's day journey through the north of France and the Ardennes in a few vivid phrases. The country was browned by a warm summer, the trees a little touched with autumnal color and the wheat already golden. When they stopped for an hour at Hirson men and women with tricolor badges upon the platform distributed cakes and glasses of beer to the thirsty soldiers, and there was much cheerfulness. "Such good, cool beer it was!" he wrote. "I had nothing to eat nor drink since Epsom."

A number of monoplanes, "like giant swallows," he notes, were scouting in the pink evening sky.

Barnet's battalion was sent through the Sedan country to a place called Virton and thence to a point in the woods on the line to Jemelle. Here they detrained, bivouacked uneasily by the railway—trains and stores were passing along it all night—and next morning he marched eastward through a cold, overcast dawn and a morning, first cloudy and then blazing, over a countryside interspersed by forest toward Arlon.

There the infantry were set to work upon a line of masked entrenchments and hidden rifle pits between St. Hubert and Virton that were designed to check and delay any advance from the east upon the fortified line of the Meuse. They had their orders, and for two days they worked without either a sight of the enemy or any suspicion of the disaster that had abruptly decapitated the armies of Europe and turned the west of Paris and the center of Berlin into blazing miniatures of the destruction of Pompeii.

And the news, when it did come, came attenuated. "We heard there had been mischief with aeroplanes and bombs in Paris," Barnet relates, "but it didn't seem to follow that 'they' weren't still somewhere elaborating their plans and issuing orders. When the enemy began to emerge from the woods in front of us we cheered and blazed away and didn't trouble much more about anything but the battle in hand. If now and then one cocked up an eye into the sky to see what was happening there the rip of a bullet soon brought one down to the horizontal again."

That battle went on for three days all over a great stretch of country between Louvain on the north and Longwy to the south. It was essentially a rifle and infantry struggle. The aeroplanes do not seem to have taken any decisive share in the actual fighting for some days, though no doubt they affected the strategy from the first by preventing surprise movements. They were aeroplanes with atomic engines, but they were not provided with atomic bombs, which were manifestly unsuitable for field use, nor indeed had they any very effective kind of bomb. And, though they maneuvered against each other and there was rifle shooting at them and between them, there was little actual aerial fighting. Either the air men were indisposed to fight or the commanders on both sides preferred to reserve these machines for scouting.

After a day or two of digging and scheming Barnet found himself in the forefront of a battle. He had made his section of rifle pits chiefly along a line of deep, dry ditch that gave a means of intercommunication. He had had the earth scattered over the adjacent field, and he had masked his preparations with tussocks of corn and poppy. The hostile advance came blindly and unsuspiciously across the fields below and would have been cruelly handled indeed if some one away to the right had not opened fire too soon.

"It was a queer thrill when these fellows came into sight," he confesses, "and not a bit like maneuvers. They halted for a time on the edge of the wood and then came forward in an open line. They kept walking nearer to us and not looking at us, but away to the right of us. Even when they began to be hit and their officers' whistles woke them up, they didn't seem to see us. One or two halted to fire and then they all went back toward the wood again. They went slowly at first, looking round at us, then the shelter of the wood seemed to draw them and they trotted. I fired rather mechanically and missed, then I fired again, and then I became earnest to hit something, made sure of my sighting and aimed very carefully at a blueback that was dodging about in the corn. At first I couldn't satisfy myself and didn't shoot, his movements were so spasmodic and uncertain, then I think he came to a ditch or some such obstacle and halted for a moment. 'Got you,' I whispered and pulled the trigger.

"I had the strangest sensations about that man. In the first instance, when I felt that I had hit him I was irradiated with joy and pride.

"I sent him spinning. He jumped and threw up his arms. Then I saw the corn tops waving and bad glimpses of his flapping about. Suddenly I felt sick. I hadn't killed him.

"In some way he was disabled and smashed up and yet able to struggle about. I began to think.

"For nearly two hours that Prussian was agonizing in the corn. Either he was calling out or some one was shouting to him.

"Then he jumped up. He seemed to try and get up upon his feet with one last effort, and then he fell like a sack and lay still and never moved again.

"He had been unendurable, and I believe some one had shot him dead. I had been wanting to do so for some time."

The enemy began sniping the rifle pits from shelters they made for themselves in the woods below. A man was hit in the pit next to Barnet and began cursing and crying out in a violent rage. Barnet crawled along the ditch to him and found him in great pain, covered with blood, frantic with indignation and with the half of his right hand smashed to a pulp. "Look at this!" he kept repeating, hugging it and then extending it. "D——d foolery! D——d foolery! My right hand, sir! My right hand!"

For some time Barnet could do nothing with him. The man was consumed by his tortured realization of the evil silliness of war, the realization which had come upon him in a flash with the bullet that had destroyed his skill and use as an artificer forever. He was looking at the vestiges with a horror that made him impenetrable to any other idea. At last the poor wretch let Barnet tie up his bleeding stump and help him along the ditch that conducted him deviously out of range.

When Barnet returned his men were already calling out for water, and all day long the line of pits suffered greatly from thirst. For food they had chocolate and bread.

"At first," he says, "I was extraordinarily excited by my baptism of fire. Then as the heat of the day came on I experienced an enormous tedium and discomfort. The flies became extremely troublesome, and my little grave of a rifle pit was invaded by ants. I could not get up or move about, for some one in the trees had got a mark on me. I kept thinking of the dead Prussian down among the corn and of the bitter outcries of my own man. D——d foolery! It was d——d foolery. But who was to blame? How had we got to this?

"Early in the afternoon an aeroplane tried to dislodge us with dynamite bombs, but she was hit by bullets once or twice and suddenly dived down over beyond the trees.

"'From Holland to the Alps this day,' I thought, 'there must be crouching and lying between half a million men, trying to inflict irreparable damage upon one another. The thing is idiotic to the pitch of impossibility. It is a dream. Presently I shall wake up.'

"Then the phrase changed itself in my mind. 'Presently mankind will wake up.'

"I lay speculating just how many thousands of men there were among these hundreds of thousands, whose spirits were in rebellion against all these ancient traditions of flag and empire. Weren't we, perhaps, already in the throes of the last crisis, in that darkest moment of a nightmare's horror before the sleeper will endure no more of it—and wakes?

"I don't know how my speculations ended. I think they were not so much ended as distracted by the distant thudding of the guns that were opening fire at long range upon Namur."

But as yet Barnet had seen no more than the mildest beginnings of modern warfare. So far he had taken part only in a little shooting. The bayonet attack by which the advanced line was broken was made at a place called Croix Rouge, more than twenty miles away, and that night, under cover of the darkness, the rifle pits were abandoned and he got his company away without further loss.

His regiment fell back unpressed behind the fortified lines between Namur and Sedan, entrained at a station called Mettet, and was sent northward by Antwerp and Rotterdam to Haarlem. Hence they marched into North Holland. It was only after the march into Holland that he began to realize the monstrous and catastrophic nature of the struggle in which he was playing his undistinguished part.

He describes very pleasantly the journey through the hills and open land of Brabant, the repeated crossing of arms of the Rhine and the change from the undulating scenery of Belgium to the flat, rich meadows, the sunlit dike roads and the countless windmills of the Dutch levels. In those days there was unbroken land from Alkmaar and Leiden to the Dollart. Three great provinces, South Holland, North Holland and Zuiderzeeland, reclaimed at various times between the early tenth century and 1945 and all many feet below the level of the waves outside the dikes, spread out their lush polders to the northern sun and sustained a dense industrious population. An intricate web of laws and custom and tradition insured a perpetual vigilance and a perpetual defense against the beleaguering sea. For more than 250 miles from Walcheren to Friesland stretched a line of embankments and pumping stations that was the admiration of the world.

If some curious god had chosen to watch the course of events in those northern provinces while that flanking march of the British was in progress he would have found a convenient and appropriate seat for his observation upon one of the great cumulus clouds that were drifting slowly across the blue sky during all these eventful days before the great catastrophe, for that was the quality of the weather—hot and clear, with something of a breeze, and underfoot dry and a little inclined to be dusty. This watching god would have looked down upon broad stretches of sunlit green, sunlit save for the creeping patches of shadow cast by the clouds; upon sky reflecting meres, fringed and divided up by masses of willow and large areas of silvery weeds; upon white roads lying bare to the sun and upon a tracery of blue canals. The pastures were alive with cattle, the roads had a busy traffic of beasts and bicycles and gayly colored peasants' automobiles, the hues of the innumerable motor barges in the canal vied with the eventfulness of the roadways, and everywhere in solitary steadings, amid ricks and barns, in groups by the wayside, in straggling villages, each with its fine old church, or in compact towns laced with canals and abounding in bridges and clipped trees, were human habitations.

The people of this countryside were not belligerents. The interests and sympathies alike of Holland had been so divided that to the end she remained undecided and passive in the struggle of the world powers. And everywhere along the roads taken by the marching armies clustered groups and crowds of impartially observant spectators, women and children in peculiar white caps and old fashioned sabots and elderly, clean shaven men quietly thoughtful over their long pipes. They had no fear of their invaders. The days when "soldiering" meant bands of licentious looters had long since passed away.

That watcher among the clouds would have seen a great distribution of khaki uniformed men and khaki painted material over the whole of the sunken area of Holland. He would have marked the long trains, packed with men or piled with great guns and war material, creeping slowly, alert for train wreckers, along the north going lines. He would have seen the Scheldt and Rhine choked with shipping and pouring out still more men and still more material. He would have noticed halts and provisionings and detrainments and the long, bustling caterpillars of cavalry and infantry, the maggot-like wagons, the huge beetles of great guns crawling under the poplars along the dikes and roads northward, along ways lined by the neutral, unmolested, ambiguously observant Dutch. All the barges and shipping upon the canals had been requisitioned for transport. In that clear, bright, warm weather it would all have looked from above like some extravagant festival of animated toys.

As the sun sank westward the spectacle must have become a little indistinct because of a golden haze; everything must have become warmer and more glowing, and because of the lengthening of the shadows more manifestly in relief. The shadows of the tall churches grew longer and longer until they touched the horizon and mingled in the universal shadow; and then, slow and soft, and wrapping the world in fold after fold of deepening blue, came the night—the night at first obscurely simple, and then with faint points here and there, and then jeweled in darkling splendor with a hundred thousand lights. Out of that mingling of darkness and ambiguous glares the noise of an unceasing activity would have arisen, the louder and plainer now because there was no longer any distraction of sight.

It may be that watcher, drifting in the pellucid gulf beneath the stars, watched all through the night; it may be that he dozed. But if he gave way to so natural a proclivity, assuredly on on the fourth night of the great flank march he was aroused, for that was the night of the battle in the air that decided the fate of Holland.

The aeroplanes were fighting at last, and suddenly about him, above and below, with cries and uproar rushing out of the four quarters of heaven, striking, plunging, oversetting, soaring to the zenith and dropping to the ground, they came to assail or defend the myriads below.

Secretly the central European power had gathered his flying machines together and now he threw them as a giant might fling a handful of ten thousand knives over the low country. And amidst that swarming flight were five that drove headlong for the sea walls of Holland, carrying atomic bombs. From north and west and south the allied aeroplanes rose in response and swept down upon this sudden attack. So it was that war in the air began. Men rode upon the whirlwind that night and slew and fell like archangels. The sky rained heroes upon the astonished earth. Surely the last fights of mankind were the best. What was the heavy pounding of your Homeric swordsmen, what was the creaking charge of chariots beside this swift rush, this crash, this giddy triumph, this headlong swoop to death?

And then athwart this whirling rush of aerial duels that swooped and locked and dropped in the void between the lamp lights and the stars came a great wind and a crash louder than thunder, and first one and then a score of lengthening fiery serpents plunged hungrily down upon the Dutchmen's dikes and struck between land and sea and flared up again in enormous columns of glare and crimsoned smoke and steam.

And out of the darkness leaped the little land, with its spires and trees, aghast with terror, still and distinct, and the sea, tumbled with anger, red foaming like a sea of blood.

Over the populous country below went a strange multitudinous crying and a flurry of alarm bells.

The surviving aeroplanes turned about and fled out of the sky like things that suddenly know themselves to be wicked.

Through a dozen thunderously flaming gaps that no water might quench the waves came roaring in upon the land.

(To be continued.)

RITZ Inc.
BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

Of Interest to Women and the Home

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

Busy mothers are sure to like this undergarment because the skirt can be made of flouncing and requires no finish.

In the back view nainsook is used for the skirt in place of the flouncing and is, of course, quite correct, but the advantage of the embroidery is self evident.

If something finer and daintier is wanted plain material can be scalloped by hand and the neck and sleeve edges finished in the same manner.

CHILD'S PETTICOAT WITH UNDERWAIST.

For the medium size the skirt will require one and one-half yards of flouncing fourteen inches wide with one-half yard of plain material.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for children from two to six years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 8293, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No. ..... Size .....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

Gibraltar Fire Resisting Paint

will spread farther and will last longer than other goods, and gives you fire protection at no more cost.

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE
SOLE AGENTS

will give you an estimate on painting your home with these goods.

L. B. Woolston. H. F. Woolston.

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE CO
Painters and Decorators.
143-145 NORTH AVENUE.
Established 1880. 'Phone 1086.
4 28 tu-w tf

JAMES C. HANSEN
DECORATOR
DEALER IN
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS,
VARNISHES, Etc.
141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J
Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Some Cookery Suggestions

A HINT FROM ITALY.

DINNER MENU.
Cream of Celery Soup.
Potato Puff.
String Bean Salad.
Mutton with Macaroni.
Compote of Apples.

THE Italians cook macaroni with meat, an innovation to the average American housewife. One way of thus using it is suggested here.

Potato Puff.—Take boiled potatoes and press through a masher. To each cupful of the potatoes take a tablespoonful of butter, one-fourth of a cupful of milk and the beaten yolk of one egg. Season with salt and pepper, mix well and fold in the beaten white of the egg. Bake in individual dishes.

Served With French Dressing.

String Bean Salad.—Take a quarter of a peck of string beans, wash and string them, split the long way and put on in boiling water and boil until tender. Drain and blanch with cold water and put in cold place. Marinate a cupful of finely cut onion with two tablespoonfuls of olive oil. If the family likes raw onion mix with the beans, but if not spread over one-half or three-fourths of the beans. Line the salad bowl with lettuce, place on the beans and sprinkle with a teaspoonful of salt and a little pepper; then spread on the onion over one-half or three-fourths; cover with French dressing.

With Cold Mutton.

Mutton With Macaroni.—Cut some slices of cold mutton about half an inch thick, wrap them each in a piece of white paper well buttered and grill them over a clear fire. Then remove the papers as quickly as possible and place the meat in the center of a hot dish, arranging all round it some macaroni prepared as follows:

Chop up finely half an onion and fry it a golden color in an ounce of butter; then add half a teacupful of stock and double that quantity of tomato pulp or conserve, with pepper and salt to taste. Bring to boiling point and add half a pound of small pipe macaroni which has just been cooked in fast boiling salted water and well drained on a sieve. Stir all gently together over the fire.

A Simple Sweet.

Compote of Apples.—Cut in halves as many apples as will be required, remove the cores and in the holes put a little mincemeat or preserve. Sprinkle a clean baking pan with sugar, lay the halves of apples in, sprinkle over a very little powdered cinnamon and grated lemon peel and some more sugar. Then let them stew until they are sufficiently done and serve very hot. The sugar should be brown and turned to caramel.

Anna Thompson.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—How the Little Boy Got Even.

He Swam Out and Got the Big Boy.

"I'LL get even with Sammy Upson, daddy," said Jack as he and Evelyn climbed upon daddy's knees for the evening story.

"What has Sammy been doing, Jack?" asked daddy.

"He threw my hat in the mud and ran, and I'm going to get hold of him and lick him. See if I don't."

Daddy smiled. "That reminds me of a story, a true story, about a boy. This happened some years ago. This boy was about your age, Jack, and he used to go swimming in the same swimming hole where you go now.

"Boys of all ages used to swim there just as they do now, and some of the older boys were very naughty and used to tease the smaller boys just as they do now.

"One day a boy who was quite big and about five years older than this little boy whom I am telling the story about was teasing the little boy and calling him 'fraid cat' because the little boy was afraid of the water.

"Then suddenly he picked up the tiny fellow and threw him into the water. The boy wriggled and squirmed back to shore, kicking like a frog and half swimming and crying, too, because he was so frightened. And then and there that little boy vowed he'd grow big and strong and one fine day lick that big boy who had thrown him into the water.

"Being thrown in in that way gave him confidence in the water, and it wasn't long before he was one of the finest little swimmers of all the boys. But on the quiet, as it came out later, he was doing lots of other work, too, to make him strong—running, boxing, climbing ropes and everything like that—and, as he was strongly built to begin with, in a year he was a regular little Samson.

"The next summer they were all in swimming together, and the big boy was out near the middle and got a cramp. He yelled as he went down. All the other boys were frightened except the little boy. He swam out and got the big boy as he came up and towed him to shore.

"When he came to he wanted to shake hands with the little boy. 'Not yet,' said the little boy. 'Are you all right now?' 'Yes,' said the big boy. 'Then,' said the little boy, 'I'm going to give you the worst licking you ever had. Then we'll be friends.'"

Daddy paused. "That was an awful licking," he said, "but it did the big boy good, and they were very good friends afterward."

"Who were the boys, daddy?" asked Evelyn.

Daddy smiled. "Your Uncle Will was the big boy and your daddy was the little boy."

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

—Your "furnished rooms to rent" ad will probably afford "opportunity news" to some dissatisfied—yet not over-critical—roomer.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

805 North Avenue. Telephone 290-W.
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference
6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:20, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue,
Will be re-opened September 28th.
A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.
MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades. Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.
General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.
Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT
SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914. Unparted individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION
GEO. C. M. SMITH
Tenth Season
51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.
9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
19 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
108 Depot Park, Manning Building.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

FLOORS
Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.
GEO. E. WATT
314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

PHONE YOUR ADS

1 CENT A WORD

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — THE PUBLIC MISSES SOME MORE GOOD READING — BY "HOP"

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 67 degrees; 11 a. m., 75 degrees; 1 p. m., 79 degrees.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of the Press.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mr. L. A. Woodworth announces the engagement of his daughter Ada Clair Woodworth, of Westervelt avenue, to Frederick Redcliffe Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allen, of Sandford avenue.

SALE OF LANDS FOR UNPAID TAXES FOR YEAR 1913.

Short Notice of Adjournment.

Collector's Office, City of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Notice is hereby given that the sale of lands for unpaid taxes (being for taxes assessed on real estate in said city for the year 1913, remaining unpaid and in arrears) as heretofore advertised by the subscriber in pursuance of the Statute in such cases made and provided, for Monday, the Fourteenth Day of September, 1914, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the said Collector's office, No. 151 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, the last published advertisement of which sale were published in the Plainfield Courier-News and Plainfield Daily Press, on the tenth day of September, 1914, and copies of which advertisement of sale were posted by the subscriber in numerous public places in the City of Plainfield, one whereof was posted on the side window of the Collector's office in the main hall of the building known as the City Building, No. 151 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J., where said last mentioned notice still remains open to inspection by any person interested, to which advertisement reference is hereby made for greater certainty, was at said time and place so fixed for sale, publicly adjourned, at the request of persons interested, for one week, that is to say, to Monday, the Twenty-first Day of September 1914, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the same place, to wit, at the said Collector's office, No. 151 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

WILLIAM R. TOWNSEND,
Collector.

Dated September 15, 1914.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. W. W. Garthwait wishes to thank all relatives, neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in her late sad bereavement in the loss of her husband, Wesley W. Garthwait.

Plainfield, Sept. 15, 1914.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our dear friends and neighbors for the many flower offerings and all their kindness to us in our sad bereavement.

CHRISTIAN SORENSON & FAMILY,
737 Webster place.

Order Now
SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.
Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.
Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.
Charles L. Stanley
Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

H. DEMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St 'Phone 1128-W

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Telephone 2331 Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

MILLER—At St. Joseph's rectory, September 14, 1914, Rev. William H. Miller, in his 51st year.

Funeral from St. Joseph's church, Thursday, September 17. Divine office for the dead at 10 a. m. Solemn high mass 10:30 a. m. Interment St. Mary's cemetery, South Amboy, N. J. 9 14 3

FEIRING—In this city, September 13, 1914, Beatrice E., beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Feiring, age 10 years, 1 month, 21 days.

Funeral from her parents' residence, 304 Central avenue, Wednesday, September 16, at 8:30 a. m. and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a high mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 9 14 2

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Office boy, white; furnish references. Apply to Permanent, care of Press. 9 14 2

HIGH-CLASS young man by the month on a poultry farm. Poultry Man, Press office. 9 15 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE AND FEMALE.

YOUNG colored couple want positions as cook and butler; first-class references. C. M. Brown, 614 West Third street. 9 15 2

WANTED TO RENT.

BARN WANTED — Gentleman wishes to hire barn for private garage, must have city water and washstand. Address with particulars and price, A. B., Daily Press. 9 15 3

WANTED—TO BUY.

WANTED—Runabout in first-class condition; give full description and where car can be seen; must be cheap. Answer Spot Cash, Daily Press office.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

CHAUFFEUR wants position, four years' experience, thorough mechanic (single man); best reference. Care Mrs. Helstrom, 312 East Seventh street. 9 14 3

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

BRUSH runabout, good condition; cheap for cash. 156 Westervelt avenue. 9 12 3

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

LAUNDRESS would like washing to do at home. 642 West Third street. 9 14 3

14-YEAR-OLD girl wishes position as nurse girl or helper around house. 32 East Fourth street. 9 15 2

WANTED—Work by day, laundry work, sweeping. 1337 West Third street. 9 15 3

WANTED—Situation as first-class cook; English. Apply 408 Washington street.

COLORED girl wishes position at general housework. 639 West Fourth street. 9 15 3

COOK and laundress. 308 East Third street. Telephone 2188-J. 9 15 2

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework. 354 Evona avenue. 9 15 3

WANTED—All kind of mending or darning by day or homework; will call. 932 South avenue, Westfield, N. J. 9 14 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

TEN-ROOM house and barn, all improvements, corner property, large and small fruit, shade trees and flowers; near trolley and station. "Terrace," care Press. 9 11 6

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Singer sewing machine, practically new, $15. 172 East Front street. 9 10 6

AT MURRAY'S Auction Rooms, 32 West Front street, we have just received a large assortment of odds and ends of fine China, crockery and glassware and they are going fast at the prices we ask; also a large variety of good books at 10c each, reduced from 15c and 20c. 9 14 2

WHITE grapes for sale. 1020 Arlington avenue. 9 15 3

FOR SALE—Five hundred white leghorns. W. T. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue. 9 14 3

FOR SALE—Three horses cheap. City Boarding Stables, 138 East Second street. 9 11 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

THE WALDORF — High-class boarding-house, special diet in connection with regular table if desired; electrical and mineral baths. Rooms, double, single and en suite. Apply Mrs. Velma Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 8 17 1m

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only; we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Cook (white or colored). 632 Woodland avenue. 6 14 2

WANTED—Girl for general housework, no laundry work; must be good cook; references required. 524 Stelle avenue. 9 14 2

WANTED—Good plain cook, white; references. Call evenings, 905 Watchung avenue. 9 11 4

WANTED—Colored laundress and waitress, best references; good wages. 209 East Seventh St. 9 12 3

WANTED—Experienced child's nurse (white); highest personal references required. 1424 Prospect avenue. 9 12 tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework, reference required. Apply 31 Compton avenue. 9 15 3

WANTED—Girl for general house work, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED—Second cook, colored. Apply to superintendent of Muhlenberg Hospital. 9 15 2

WARD maids, colored or white, wanted. Apply to superintendent of Muhlenberg Hospital. 9 15 2

WANTED—20 experienced cooks, good wages; also chambermaids and waitresses and general houseworkers and nurses for children. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 6

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

12-ROOM modern house, 1,100 ft. frontage, big barn, two blocks to trolley; had offer of $12,000 three months ago; must close estate, sell for $8,000. W. R. Way, 308 Watchung avenue. 9 10 6

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—A pocketbook this morning in the neighborhood of South Second street and Grant Avenue depot; reward. Return to this office or 221 Grant avenue.

LOST—Between 4 and 5 p. m. Monday, large broach, blue, silver mounted. Reward, 44 Washington avenue.

FOR EXCHANGE.

WILL exchange large double action foot power scroll saw for good camera. Address Power, care Press. 9 15 3

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $12 to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street. Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

4-ROOM flat to let, 309 West Second street; $10 a month. C. J. McDonough, 222 Madison avenue. 9 9 tf

HOUSE TO LET—Desirable, centrally located house on East Second street. Address Central, care Daily Press. 9 14 6

FLATS TO LET—Two steam heated, centrally located, $18 month. James Carson, 211 North avenue.

TO LET, furnished, six-room apartment, all improvements; large porch and yard. 322 East Front street. 9 15 2

APARTMENT to let, 539 West Fifth street, 4 rooms, gas, city water, city toilet; all in good condition, $10 a month. Inquire Paul Symons, 406 East Third street. 9 14 2

FOR RENT—Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 10 6

MODERN house, Woodland avenue corner Park lane, nine rooms, all improvements. Apply to agents or H. A. Bonn, 160 East Front street. 9 5 tf s-tu-th

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 1 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

FOUR rooms to let. 312 New street. 9 3 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French 71 North avenue. 11 6 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

TO LET—4-room apartment, 262 Grove street. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 9 12 3

GOOD 8-room houses for rent, all improvements, parquet floors, rent $30 a month; in a fine residential section, Monroe avenue near Eighth street. Inquire J. Nathanson, 820 Monroe avenue; 'phone 1788-W. 9 10 6

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
200 Baskets
Fancy Alberta Peaches
ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.
ALSO
Fine Bartlett Pears
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.
Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.
Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.
R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES

ORGANIZED 1854
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

To discharge to some extent the obligation every man incurs when he marries, he should insure in

The Prudential

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President

Founded by JOHN F. DRYDEN — THE PRUDENTIAL HAS THE STRENGTH OF GIBRALTAR — Pioneer of Industrial Insurance in America

---

Executor, Administrator

Guardian, Trustee

THE WIFE'S WILL

There is a popular delusion to the effect that when a wife dies without having made a will her husband inherits all her property. This delusion has led to many serious complications, some of which are described in our booklet, "The Wife's Will," a copy of which will be sent you on request.

Our Officers can give you valuable assistance in connection with the drawing of your will and we will hold the document in our vaults without charge.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON, Managers.

TONIGHT--

The Bankers Daughter

A Photo Play

PRICES—5c, 10c, 15c.

Wednesday Matinee & Night Sept. 16

Oliver Morosco Presents

The Supreme Success of Successes

"Peg O' My Heart"

By J. HARTLEY MANNERS

The Play That Has Given Joy to Millions of Playgoers

Same Great Cast and Lavish Production

SEATS NOW ON SALE AT BOX OFFICE

PRICES

Matinee, Orchestra, $1.00, 75c; Balcony, 75, 50c; Gallery, 25c.
Night, Orchestra, $1.50, $1.00; Balcony, $1, 75c, 50c; Gal., 25c.

Thursday, September 17 MATINEE AND NIGHT

BLACK PATTI

MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

PRICES—Matinee, 25c, 50c; Night, 25c, 50c, 75c.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

An Avalanche of Vaudeville Surprises Awaits You

Tuesday and Wednesday--

GIRARD and GARDNER

Present a Comedy Sketch

HAZEL MORAN
The Girl With the Lariat

WILSON & LAWSON
Those Odd Acrobats

WALTER J. HAYES
The Musical Rube.

DANCING LeFEVRES
Artistic Interpreters of Society's Newest Steps

PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY

PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30 *11:15.
*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.
WEEK DAYS.
Leave South Plainfield — 7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon. 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.
*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.
SUNDAYS.
Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.
Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00 4:30, 6:30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10 4:40, 6:40 p. m.
Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:05 *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m. 5:00 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m., 3:00, 6:25 *11:00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40 *11:15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:35 7:30, *11:30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40 *11:45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:50 *12:00 p. m.
*Saturday only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.
Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m
Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.
Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m
8:15 a. m., bus connects with 9:27 a. m train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.
SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.
Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.
SUNDAY ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m
L. W. CAMPBE. '., Mgr., 310 Park Av.
'Phone 130. Plainfield.

UPHOLSTERING
WINDOW SHADES
AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff

721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WE KNOW

that there is a prejudice in the minds of many against buying clothing, hats and shoes on credit. They feel sure they would be overcharged heavily to pay for the accommodation.

This prejudice is founded on the fact that many credit-giving firms conduct their business on the short-sighted basis of charging too much.

We have found by experience that we can meet cash store prices and yet sell on easy terms of credit.

We can demonstrate this to you if you will let us.

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS

J. A. LAURIE & CO

304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

YOUR HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS.

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-41

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 South Ave. Tel. 118

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL

COKE AND WOOD

Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av.
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

—DON'T MAKE DON'T YOUR CREED. If you have something to sell, some quest to pursue—do these tasks aggressively, through want-advertising!

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

The policy of this Company is to offer every modern banking facility consistent with conservative management.

Our Board of Directors is representative, composed as it is, of local as well as New York business men, and it is our aim to give local business needs careful consideration.

We suggest an interview.

SERVICE

The State Trust Company

At the sign of the clock CAPITAL $100,000.00 201 Park Ave.

School Shoes
TRUE SHAPE

Misses' and Children's Shoes

No child can study or play to the best advantage with shoes that pinch or cramp the tender young toes. "TRUE-SHAPE" Shoes are built as nature intended the child's foot to grow. They fit snugly, are mighty beautiful in appearance—but they allow "ROOM-FOR-EVERY TOE."

Made of selected leathers, so they give GREAT SERVICE.

VAN ARSDALE :: 127 E. Front Street

Anniversary Sale Saturday

CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

Roth & Co.

Fresh Butter Fish, lb	5c
Oysters R Good; 25 for	25c
Legs of Mutton, lb Hindquarters Mutton, lb	15c
Sirloin Steak, lb	20c
Boiled Schrimp, fresh, lb	35c
Lamb Hastlets, each	15c
Rump Corned Beef, weighing 3½ to 4 lbs; lb	16c

Keep cool during the summer. Buy your bread and cake at "THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE" 207 Park Ave. Tel. 850.

DR. MANDEVILLE
SPECIALIST

565 Broad St., opposite Shubert's Theatre, Newark, N. J.

Twenty years' experience as a specialist on all chronic diseases of MEN AND WOMEN.

Catarrh, Nervous Diseases, Diseases of Heart, Kidneys, Stomach, Liver or Bladder, Rheumatism and all Lung Diseases.

Office Hours Daily 2 to 4 p. m.; 6 to 8 p. m. Mornings Tuesdays and Fridays, 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Closed all day Saturday.

ADVICE FREE.
Don't Forget Name, Place and Number.
* 24 tu-th-s tf

COOL ENOUGH NOW

for one of those Fall Overcoats we are proud of at $16.50.

New models of Men's and Boys' Suits are ready now at any price you want to pay.

New style Hats—$1.50, $2.00 and $3.00.

SCHWED BROTHERS
Front St., Opp. Park Ave.
Over 29 Years Right Here.

REPAIRING

ASK ANYBODY

and they will tell you of the Charles Kurtzman honest fur selling service that he has been doing here for years. Come in and see the most bewildering line of fall creations that you have ever gazed upon.

DO IT TODAY

Charles Kurtzman
THE FURRIER
178 EAST FRONT STREET

REMODELING

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

Until September 19, the Daily Press will be published on Saturdays at 1 p. m.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight, Thursday unsettled, probably showers; increasing northeast winds.

Max., 75; min., 43.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW, JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

MANY PROVISIONS MADE BY RECTOR

Will of the Late Rev. Warner Ward Admitted to Probate Today.

REAL ESTATE INVOLVED

Considerable Property Left to Wife and Brother Who Are Executors of Estate — Will is Hand Written —Contains Codicil Covering Page.

Goshen, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The will of the late Rev. Warner Ward, rector of St. Stephen's church, Netherwood, who died on August 21, at Newburgh, N. Y., was filed here on Monday and was admitted to probte today by Surrogate John B. Sweeney. It consists of the will, hand written, on bond paper, executed at Newburgh, N. Y., on January 2, 1909, witnessed by William J. Wygant, Peter Cantline and Frank W. Tompkins. A codical covering a page confirms the bequests previously made and add a provision in favor of his wife. It was executed at Newburgh, on December 16, 1913, and was witnessed by William N. Minty and Frank W. Tompkins.

There are nine sections in the will proper. The first provides for a requiem celebration of the Holy Communion at his funeral. Section two gives to his wife, Jessie, $1,000 and all life insurance carried by him. The third clause gives to his mother all his interest and right in the estate of his grandmother, Laura Warner, which includes considerable real estate in Goshen, N. Y. In case of the death of the mother of the testator the interest will become the property of his brother, Darwin W. Esmond. In case, however, that there should be children or children born to the testator after the executing of the will the bequests made by the provisions of this clause will be null and void and the interests will revert to the children.

The fourth clause of the will gives to his wife the income on all property and estate owned by the testator, except as noted in the third clause. He further provides that her income shall at least be on an investment of $5,000. This she shall have so long as she remains unmarried.

Provision is also made that the testator shall be buried in his eucharistic vestments, and in case a monument is placed above his body in the cemetery it shall bear upon it the figure of a cross, and in addition to other inscriptions the words, "Requiescat in Pace." The provision is interlined and written in cramped hand as though an after thought.

As Mrs. Ward, mother of the testator, died several years ago, after the making of the will, but previous to the death of her son, the portions of the will having reference to her are not effective, and as the Rev. Mr. Ward died childless the portions of the will providing for them is also inoperative, and the portions that were to go to the mother and to the children will, by the provisions of the several clauses become the property of his brother, Darwin W. Esmond, who, with Mrs. Jessie Ward, widow of the deceased, will be the executors of the estate.

ROBERT B. BUTLER CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Tomlinson Y Branch Meet and Discuss Plans for the Coming Year.

Officers were elected and plans for the coming season discussed at the first meting of the Tomlinson Y branch of the W. C. T. U., held last evening at the home of Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, on East Seventh street. These officers were chosen:

President, Robert B. Butler; vice-president, Miss Clara L. Karner; recording secretary, Miss Esther Karner; corresponding secretary, Miss Mabel D. Cronce; treasurer, James R. Dunwell; superintendents of committees: Social, Horace Bunker; scientific study, Miss Caroline D. Borton; press, Hollis Cubberly; flower, Miss Flora Krausse; poster, J. Raymond Manley. Other committees will be named later.

Plans were discussed for the thirtieth annual convention of the Union County W. C. T. U., which is to be held in Westfield, Thursday, September 24, and relative to the State convention which is to be held at Moorestown, October 13-16. Miss Clara L. Karner has been appointed to attend this convention representing the Tomlinson Y. Preparations are also being made for the annual State convention of the Y branches which will be held in this city, February 22. This promises to be quite an important gathering of Christian workers.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of the Press

MISS NASH WEDS SPENCER L. ROSE

Ceremony is Performed at the Home of the Bride's Parents.

Miss Elizabeth Long Nash, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Nash, of Valley road, Watchung, and Spencer Leonard Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Rose, of Waddington, N. Y., were quietly married at 8:30 o'clock last evening, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. J. Madison Hare, pastor of the Baptist church, Scotch Plains, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The bride wore a white lingerie gown, trimmed with lace, and she carried lilies-of-the-valley and roses. She was attended by the Misses Travis Nash, her sister; Helen Adams, Gertrude Holmes and Julia McKenzie, of this city. They each wore lingerie gowns with yellow girdles and carried golden rod. Leonard Proctor, of New York, was the best man. The wedding march was played by Harry Gilbert, of New York.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception, during which supper was served. Later the couple left on an extended wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the bride's parents for a time, after which they will remove to New York city. The bride received a large number of gifts from relatives and friends.

The home was attractively decorated for the wedding, green and white being the prevailing colors. The decorative scheme was effectively arranged throughout the parlor, reception and dining-room.

Miss Nash has been a resident of North Plainfield township and this city for several years. She has been active in the young people's work of the First Baptist church and has a large circle of acquaintances. Mr. Rose now resides in New York, where he holds a position with the Chemical National Bank.

YOUNG MEN'S HEBREW ASS'N CONVENTION

Annual Session to Be Held in Trenton on September 27.

The third annual convention of the associated Young Man's Hebrew Associations and the Young Women's Hebrew Associations of New Jersey, will be held at Trenton, Sunday afternoon, September 27, in the Arcade Academy. Mayor Donnelly will welcome the delegates. Addresses will be delivered by Dr. Goldwasser, of New York city, chairman of the board of experts of the National Y. M. H. A.; M. Kinbrak, president of the New England association, and M. Finklestein, president of the Pennsylvania association.

In the evening a reception will be tendered the visiting delegates and friends at which the members of the Trenton Y. M. H. A. and Y. W. H. A. will be the hosts.

The New Jersey federation was organized two years ago and included six associations, but the movement has spread with such rapidity that there are at present 25 associations represented.

The officers of the association are. Professor Harry S. Feller, New Brunswick, president; Hyman L. Brodsky, Bayonne, first vice-president; Joseph H. Stone, Trenton, second vice-president; Dr. Bernard Feldman, Perth Amboy, secretary; Sydney W. Westheimer, North Hudson, treasurer; Morris Gold, Paterson, sergeant-at-arms.

SWEDISH LUTEHRAN SERVICE.

Rev. Karl A. Martin, of Jersey City, will conduct Swedish Lutheran services in the German Lutheran church, tomorrow evening, at which time it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the members. Following the service there will be a meeting of the board of trustees to discuss several important business matters. Mr. Martin will have charge of this congregation for a month at least.

BURKE & BONHAM A CORPORA'N.

Trentotn, Sept. 16.—Burke & Bonham, incorporated, of 309 Park avenue, Plainfield, has just been chartered as a corporation by the Secretary of State. It has an authorized capital stock of $125,000, and will engage in the contracting and construction business. The incorporators are Joseph F. Burke, Raymond L. Bonham and Kathryn E. Burke, all of Plainfield.

JUST A SCARE.

Those staying at the Plainfield Seminary on West Seventh street were treated to a scare last night, when it was thought that burglars were lurking in the immediate vicinity. Investigation proved that the fears were groundless.

UNION HILL DENTIST MADE A SETTLEMENT

Owner of Car That Hit Adam Blair's Rig Paid Local Man $15.

Dr. P. R. Albanesius, a dentist living in Union Hill, was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, on a charge preferred against him by Adam C. Blair, a local liveryman. One of Blair's carriages, driven by Jerry Connors, was hit by the Union Hill man's automobile at East Fifth and Sycamore streets, Sunday afternoon, but owing to a misunderstanding the charge was made against the owner of the automobile instead of the driver of the car ,John Haas, of Stevens Institute. Blair claimed that his rig was damaged to the extent of $25 and the auto owner said it cost him $75 to repair his machine. Owing to the mixup the charge was dismissed and the doctor was instructed to bring the driver into court September 23.

This he agreed to do, but after court W. A. Coddington, counsel for Mr. Blair, and the father of the youth who was driving the automobile, got together and the latter settled with the liveryman for $15 rather than bring his son into court. This arrangement proved satisfactory to all concerned and the proceedings were dropped.

FEW CASES PENDING IN SOMERSET COURTS

September Term Opened Yesterday and Speedy Disposition is Looked For.

Only four Supreme Court cases are on the calendar for the September term of the Somerset county courts, which convened in Somerville yesterday, an unusually small number. Those listed are: Charles W. Alpaugh vs. Helen Trumbull, the latter being represented by Swackhamer & Bird, of this city; Jeannette Neill vs. Board of Chosen Freeholders of Middlesex county; the Atlantic Pebble Company vs. Lehigh Valley Railroad, and Charles W. Alpaugh vs. Arthur W. Palmer, Russel F. Randolph, James W. Lent, Theodore S. Harrison and Carl M. Greulock, the defending parties being represented by Allen & Palmer and Swackhamer & Bird.

In the Circuit Court there are five cases on the list, W. S. Angleman, of this city, appears as counsel for Charles G. Westercraft, defendant in a suit brought by David Buist. There are only two cases to be tried in the Circuit Court.

SERVICE MOTOR CAR CO. EFFECTS A SETTLEMENT

Settlement on the basis of twenty cents on the dollar was effected in the case of the bankrupt Service Motor Car Company, which has a branch in this city, in Newark yesterday, where the concern has its headquarters. The compromise with the creditors was ordered at a meeting of the latter before Referee Edwin G. Adams.

The unsecured claims amount to $40,000. By the terms of the order $6,000 preferred claims and the costs of the receivership will be paid by the company.

REV. J. B. CLEAVER.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Rev. Joseph Bradford Cleaver, for many years a resident of Bound Brook, and a native of Scotch Plains, at his home on Eighty-first street, New York. Dr. Cleaver is well known in this city, having preached in the Disciples of Christ church on Grove street, for many years. He is survived by a wife, several daughters and a sister, all of whom live in New York. The funeral services were held at noon today at Central church, of the Deciples of Christ, New York.

55TH ANNIVERSARY.

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, which has one of its branch stores in this city, is this week observing its fifty-fifth anniversary of the foundation of the company. Special sales as announced in another column of this paper are being offered in recognition of the event. The concern started to do business in 1859 with one store, while today they have 800 stores in various parts of the country.

—The present week will probably be the last one in which big shipments of peaches will be received, and Neuman Brothers, at their Watchung avenue market, will have each day a large assortment of fancy table and canning fruit to offer their trade. They also have fine Bartlett pears, plums and grapes for grape juice and preserving.—Adv. ***

FAVOR MERGER OF CITY AND BORO

So Declares Mayor Clark Following a Personal Canvas of Votes.

ONLY FEW ARE OPPOSED

Boards of Registry and Elections Will Meet Tomorrow to Revise Lists—Provisions of the Law as to Registry.

As the time for the special election in the borough draws near there is apparently a growing sentiment in favor of the consolidation proposition to be voted upon on Thursday, September 24. Many voters who have been approached on the subject during the past week have expressed themselves as being favorable to the proposed merger and have said they would not only vote that way, but would work in the interest of the question.

Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., and former Mayor William L. Saunders, both of whom have been largely instrumental in arranging for the special election, have been engaged in a special canvass among voters in the borough for the purpose of learning the sentiment and following such a trip yesterday afternoon they met just two men who expressed themselves against consolidation and they took that attitude for personal reasons. Everywhere, both Mr. Clark and Mr. Saunders received encouragement as to the probable success of the movement.

In speaking of the matter today, Mayor Clark said that there were so many good reasons why the borough should be consolidated with the city that he could not understand how any person who has the interest of the borough at heart could vote against the proposition. The Boards of Registry and Elections will meet tomorrow at the appointed polling places to revise the registry lists. There has been so much confusion regarding the provisions of the law as to registry, that the section pertaining to registry is herewith given as follows:

"The register of voters used at the general election next preceding the holding of such special elections shall be used for the purpose of conducting such special election. It shall not be necessary for the Boards of Registry and Elections in said city and borough to make a new register of voters for such special election, but only to revise and correct the register made for the last general election, and for that purpose the said Boards shall meet at such places in their respective districts as shall be designated by the clerks of said city and borough, respectively, one week next preceding the election in each of said municipalities respectively, said meetings to begin at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and to continue until 9 o'clock in the evening of that day for the purpose of revising and correcting the register and of adding thereto the names of all persons entitled to vote in the respective election districts at said special election, who shall appear in person before them and establish to the satisfaction of the majority of the Board that they are entitled to vote in that election district at said election, or who shall be shown by written affidavit of a voter residing in the same election district to be entitled so to vote; a separate affidavit shall be required for each person so registered which shall contain the address of the affiant, and shall be signed by him; and on the following day one copy thereof shall be delivered to the chairman of the County Board of Elections, to be filed by them and one copy shall be retained by him for use by the district Board of Elections, at such special election."

FIRE DESTROYS TWO BARNS AT NEW MARKET

Fire, the origin of which is a mystery, destroyed the barns of Abram G. Nelson and Phillip Jenner, at New Market, at 10 o'clock this morning. There is a theory that the dumping of ashes in the rear of the Nelson barn may have caused the blaze. Sparks from that structure set fire to the Jenner barn, and the flames had gained great headway when the New Market fire de partment arrived. Within a short time nothing but the upright beams remained standing.

The firemen were considerably handicapped because of the low water pressure. They were, however, able to assist in saving several horses, wagons, etc., in Mr. Jenner's barn. The contents of the other building, chiefly of hay and straw, were destroyed, with the exception of the fire department's chemical engine which was kept in the building. The total loss will probably aggregate between $600 and $700.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

GERMAN ARMIES RETREATING AT A FAST PACE, BUT BIG BATTLE IS EXPECTED; RUSSIANS ADVANCING

Position of Kaiser's Army One That Means Second and Possibly Third Battle, Which Frenchmen Feel Will Be Most Favorable for Them--Say Germans Have Order to Evacuate France, Belgium and Luxemberg--Emperor Wilhelm to Assume Personal Command Against the Russians, Says Report.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT MAY REACH ZENITH

Figures for the First Day's Registration Total 3,551.

Registration in all the schools continued today, that at the High School being especially heavy this morning. From all indications, the fall of 1914 will see the largest enrollment in the history of the Plainfield schools.

Figures for the first day of registration are as follows:

High School	601
Grammar grades (in High School building(	354
Whittier School	199
Irving School	442
Jefferson School	290
Washington School	382
Lincoln School	365
Bryant School	313
Franklin School	605
Total about	3,551

It is estimated that these figures will be increased at least 20 per cent. by the end of the week. The number of out-of-town pupils attending the High School promises to be larger this year than ever before.

In his address at the opening of the High School, yesterday, Dr. Maxson emphasized the necessity of co-operation between students and faculty, if the best educational results were to be obtained. He reminded the students that this was a time to forget all jealousies, vexations and animosities of last year, and to start with a clean slate; and for those who failed, or did poorly, it was a time to make a new start. He said that the building had been made as beautiful and complete as possible, and that the pupils might use it to develop power and character for winning success and happiness.

"The building," said Dr. Maxson, "canhot make a good school, it depends on the co-operation of each individual pupil, with his teacher. The teachers are not enemies to be defeated or tricked, but friends from whom to seek help and guidance.

"The records that they make of the pupils' work are simply measures of fabric which every pupil weaves. If he weaves shoddy, the teacher can only record shoddy.

"In a large building like this, it is impossible for any one to do as he pleases, but each must give up some of his rights and privileges for the common good, and contribute his share to the common welfare, by self-restraint.

"The Plainfield High School has always held a high standard because it is inspired by spirit of mutual helpfulness and consideration of the public welfare. With this splendid new building, it can raise it to a still higher position in the educational world."

FUNERAL OF MISS BEATRICE FEIRING LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral service of Miss Beatrice Feiring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Feiring, of Central avenue, was held at the home of the parents this morning, and later at St. Mary's R. C. church, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Father McDonald. The service at the church was largely attended by friends and relatives. There were many floral tributes. The children's choir sang several selections.

The bearers were Joseph Gallagher, Daniel Kiely, Frank Force, Frank Miller, George Bantle and Clifford Feiring. Interment was made at St. Mary's cemetery.

London, Sept. 16.—Advices received here today indicate that the German armies in France are retreating fast, but in good order. From last accounts their front extended in a long line to the north of the rivers Aisne and Suppes from the forests north of Compiegne to Vienna, La Lille and half way up to the western side of the Argonne range. What the strength of the German resistance on this line will be remains the problem of the hour.

A news agency correspondent at Paris sends the following: "The relief of Fort Troyon is likely to have an important bearing on the fate of the German army. The Germans were investing Fort Troyon and the neighboring forts between Toul and Verdun with the object of opening a way of retreat on their left. The failure of this plan means that the French are masters of the valley from Toul to Verdun, wherefore the armies of the Crown Prince and the Duke of Wurttemburg will be unable to cross the Meuse, and will have to go further north and attempt to pass by the Stenay gap."

The Paris Matin discussing the withdrawal of the Germans, points out that in order to cover its retreat and avoid the blocking of roads open to it, the German army will have to mark time and fight a second and perhaps a third battle. These battles will be fought under conditions, according to the Matin, certainly most favorable for the French forces, which thanks to their reinforcements and the rapidity of movements assured them by the railways will be able to face all eventualities.

Rome, Sept. 16, (Central News Cable)—A despatch to the Tribuna from Petrograd says that Bukovina has been transformed into a Russian province, with a Russian governor at Czerdwitz. Gen. Barone published an article in the Giornale D'Italia, in which he reaches the conclusion that the Germans are in danger of being entrapped in France.

The Messaggeros correspondent at Basel says that the German armies are reported to have received orders to retire fighting as far as the right bank of the Rhine, completely evacuating France, Belgium and the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg.

The Italian government has authorized the exportation to England of 25,000 tons of sugar.

Paris, Sept. 16.—According to a despatch to the Petit Journal from Berlin, by way of Copenhagen, Emperor William will go to East Prussia and assume chief command against the Russians.

Amsterdam, Sept. 16, (Central News Cable)—A correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt in Galicia telegraphs that Gen. Von Auffenberg's army is in a dangerous position owing to the Russian advance, and that it is possible that Von Auffenberg will be unable to join the other Austrian armies. . . . . .

A Dutch newspaper says it is believed that the guard for the British prisoners at Camp Doeberitz, in West Prussia, will be reinforced to prevent women bringing them chocolate, flowers, fruit and even money, as they have been doing since the captured Britons were brought there.

The King of Servia is reported to be suffering from gout and unable to take the field with his armies, which are advancing into Hungary. The Servians have occupied Vishegrad.

Nish, Sept 16.—Official announcement has been made here of the capture of Vishegrad, in Bosnia, by Servian troops. The Servian army that took Vishegrad and the Montenegrins who captured Fotcna, also in Bosnia, have effected a juncture and are marching toward Sarajevo, despite a determined resistance by the Austrians. Sarajevo is only 40 miles north of Vishegrad.

Petrograd, Sept. 16 (Central News Cable).—The Russians have crossed the lower course of the River San unopposed by the defeated enemy, who is continuing its precipate flight. The position at Grodek has been secured by the Russians, who have reached Moszick, 37 miles southwest of Lemberg and almost due south from Grodek, and are approaching Przemysl.

Amsterdam, Sept. 16 (Centrals News Cable).—A despatch received today from Berlin says the Berlin Vorwaerts warns the German press against misleading the people by publishing fake reports of Austrian victories. A war correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung telegraphs to his paper that the Russian artillery used against the Austrians was splendid and that the Czar's army outnumbered the Austrians two to one.

New York, Sept. 16.—A report reached Paris today of an accident near Meaux, 20 miles east of Paris, to a railroad train carrying wounded men. Many are reported killed and wounded. The American ambassador, M. T. Herrick, received a telephone message asking that automobiles be rushed to the scene of the accident.

Paris, Sept. 16.—A despatch from Rome says the central portion of the city was occupied by the military after midnight to prevent demonstrations against Italy's neutrality in the present war.

London, Sept. 16.—A despatch from Vienna says that Gen. Hoefer, deputy chief of the Austrian General Staff, announced today that the Servian army, which crossed the River Save into Hungary, had been defeated along its entire line. The message added that Sherem in Slavonia and Banat were now clear of the enemy.

(Continued on page 5.)

SHOE DEPARTMENT

Corner West Front and Madison Ave.

Children's School Shoes

For best kinds of Children's Shoes—for Shoes that afford most comfort to the growing foot—for Shoes that have good looks as well as good wearing qualities.

FOR SHOES

at the popular prices we are showing

WE ARE SURE

you can't fill the school Shoe needs near as well as here. Come and examine these Shoes and you'll readily agree with us that this is the right Shoe Store to buy Children's Shoes.

NOTICE THE GUESSING CONTEST

See the Pumpkin in the Shoe Store Window

and guess how many seeds there are in this pumpkin.

For the nearest guess we will give a $5.00 pair of shoes.

For the second nearest guess we will give a $4.00 pair of shoes.

For the third nearest guess we will give a $3.00 pair of shoes.

It costs you nothing to guess—simply leave your guess with name and address at the Shoe Department.

Contest continues until October 26th, when the pumpkin will be opened and seeds counted in the window by three disinterested parties.

Note—None of our employes will be eligible to a guess.

New Millinery

We are Now Showing

We have assembled a number of very pretty hats—all breathing newness and novelty. All adaptations of most exclusive models from the great fashion centres. For good styles, individuality and becomingness we believe you can do better here than elsewhere.

Last but not least our moderate prices are a special inducement.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Fruit Jars and everything necessary for preserving on sale in the Basement.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

The Currie house on Third street tenanted by Frank H. Fuller, is being repainted.

Miss Elizabeth Seals, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Seals, of Front street, has returned from a ten days' visit at Califon as the guest of an uncle, Jeremiah Hoffman.

Cecil Trimmer, the general day tender of gates at the Washington avenue crossing of the Central Railroad, has returned from a week's visit at New Berlin, Md.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. James L. Manning, of Washington avenue, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

PLANNING FOR A DANCE.

The O. Z. T. Fraternity are preparing for a dance two weeks from Friday night. The dance will be the first of the season for the O. Z. T.'s and will be one of a number that they will run at frequent intervals.

Captain and Mrs. B. A. Cole, of Washington avenue, spent yesterday in Newark visiting their daughters, Mrs. George E. Firstbrook and Mrs. Charles E. Painter.

Edward Ayers has leased the quarters and the furnitue, including two pool tables, of the Progressive Club, for a year.

The board of trustees of the Methodist Episcopal church met in the classrooms of the church Monday evening.

BOARD TO MEET.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunday-school board of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held this evening after prayer service.

David K. Hamblin, of New Market road, is enjoying his annual two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Giddes, of Lincoln avenue, returned today from a week's visit with a cousin of Mrs. Giddes' at Somerville.

Mrs. John Herbert, of First street, is spending two weeks at Lake George.

Mrs. Daniel Ferguson and son, who have been spending ten days in the borough as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, of Dunellen avenue, have returned to their home at Point Pleasant.

Mrs. Edmund Teel and son, Edmund, Jr., of Plainfield, spent yesterday in the borough as guests of Mrs. Margaret Dealaman, of Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kookogey, of New Market road, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Keating, of Brooklyn, over the week-end.

John Enright, of New York city, a former resident, was a visitor in the borough last evening.

Mrs. Maurice L. Rarick, of New Market road, has been visiting a sister, Mrs. E. P. Thompson, at Red Bank, since Monday.

The Misses Lizzie and Helen Dunham, of Walnut street, will return tomorrow from a two weeks' stay at Asbury Park.

CHANGE WAS BENEFICIAL.

Mrs. Frank Bowlby, of Washington avenue, who has been at Denver, Col., for her health since the first of May, continues slowly but steadily to improve. She at present weighs fourteen pounds more than she did when she arrived.

Robert Maltbie and mother, of Westfield, former residents of this vicinity, were visitors in the borough yesterday morning.

The hour of Sunday-school in the Methodist Episcopal church will be changed from 10 o'clock in the morning to 2:30 in the afternoon this Sunday.

WILL STUDY LAW.

W. Fowler Vail, shipping clerk at the Dunellen freight house, is making arrangements to take up a night course in law at New York University.

ATTACKED BY A DOG.

Henry Levins, of Railroad avenue, was bitten by a dog, yesterday. Mr. Levins had occasion to call on a friend in Plainfield, who owns a vicious dog. This dog is a cross between a bull dog and a collie and possesses the tenacity of the former and the nervous energy of the latter. The dog was on the front porch of the home when Mr. Levins arrived at the gate. With one hand on the latch of the gate and both eyes on the dog Mr. Levins paused. The sullen patience of the bull side of the animal predominated temporarily over its collie blood and it made no hostile move. Mr. Levins partially opened the gate and then closed it again, but the dog did not budge. Although not liking the attitude of the animal, Mr. Levins decided to venture in. Relying upon a hypnotic stare he slowly approached the porch. The stolidity of the bull dog predominated again over the nervous eagerness of the collie and the animal merely bided its time. Partially reassured, Mr. Levins ventured closer. Suffice it to say that the dog allowed Levins to advance until the porch steps had been reached. Just as Levins' foot descended upon the first step the dog made for him. Levins made for the fence. Just as he was vaulting over the dog nabbed his leg. Fortunately for Levins his momentum was so great that the dog's hold was broken, otherwise he would probably have had more to show for the incident other than torn trousers and a slight wound on the calf of his leg.

Miss May Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Day, leaves for Mount Holyoke, Mass., this week to resume her studies at Smith College.

RESIGNS FROM BOARD.

John P. Fenner resigned as a member of the Board of Education at the meeting of the Board last evening, in the Whittier School. Mr. Fenner owns a hardware store at Somerville. He gave as his reason for resigning the fact that the meeting of the Merchants Association of that place conflicts with the meeting of the Board. The vacancy made by Mr. Fenner's resignation will probably be filled at the next meeting of the Board. Superintendent Rentschler's report showed a total attendance of 435 pupils in the local schools at the present time, which is an increase of 30 pupils over this time last year. The borough is sending forty-nine pupils to the Plainfield High School this year. This is an increase of six pupils over last year. Eighteen of the twenty-three graduates from last year's eighth grade are continuing their studies in Plainfield, the superintendent reported. Other business was the decision to insure the new Lincoln School for $14,000 in the Insurance Company of North America, of which John P. Fenner is agent. It was also voted to take out a $1,000 policy with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company insuring the fixtures of the new school. J. H. L. Peters is the local agent of the Hartford company.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zink and Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Winter enjoyed an automobile trip to Newark, yesterday.

Otis M. Webber has been awarded the plumbing contract of the new C. T. Voorhees house on Lincoln avenue.

ANNIVERSARY WEEK.

Anniversary week in the local theatre is making a big hit, the house having been filled every night thus far. The three-reel features this evening will be the "Modern Vendetta."

VALUABLE TOOLS STOLEN.

The tool shed of Contractor Samuel M. Titus, which stands in the rear of the four-family brick house that he is erecting for Frank Jaruszenski, of New York city, on Bound Brook road near Gallagher's Corner, was broken into last night and tools to the value of $120 were taken. The tools stolen belong to William Lanty, Monroe Pyatt, George Cornwall and a Bound Brook man. This is the second offense of this character inside the past two weeks, the shed of Contractor Charles Wrage having been broken into at Equator Park, where he is erecting some houses, and tools to the value of $60 stolen. The local police have a clue and are following it up strenuously. Any person who deprives another of his means of livelihood is the meanest and most despicable of culprits and should be dealt with to the full extent of the law if apprehended. It is supposed that the stolen goods are realized upon by being pawned in one of the large neighboring cities.

STYLISH RELIABLE

SR

A STYLE "TIP" TO "HAT TIPPERS"

The new Fall and Winter styles in soft and stiff hats are waiting for you in our hat department.

Our customers say our hats always have pleasing character and lend individuality, not eccentricity, to the wearer.

Let us show you the new styles, priced—
$3, $2.00 and $1.50

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes
"Most Things Men Wear."
214 W. FRONT ST.
Right Next to Proctor's.

Watchung.

Harold W. Schenck had charge of the fellowship meeting, last evening, in the Wilson Union church. His topic was "The Ark." After the meeting the business meeting of the Sunday-school Association was held.

The monthly business meeting of the North Plainfield Township Improvement Society was held Monday evening, in the Improvement Hall. After an interesting session, Dr. Henry C. Krebs gave a talk on "The Meaning of Music." After the address a social hour followed, during which refreshments were served by the women.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Wilson Memorial Union church, held its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, in the church.

All plans and preparations have been completed by the Ladies' Auxiliary for their fourth annual Dutch supper, which will be held on Thursday evening, September 17, in the "Mill," beginning at 6 o'clock.

Miss Elsie F. Schmidt and Miss Adele Hermann have gone to Trenton, where they will resume their studies in the Trenton Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cleaves have returned to their home on Hillcrest road, after an extended fishing trip in Long Island.

'Plains & Fanwood.

A routine session of the Fanwood Fire Company was held in the firehouse last evening.

The Rev. J. Madison Hare will conduct the prayer meeting in the Baptist church, this evening.

Miss Gertrude Smalley has returned to her home on Front street, after visiting relatives in Elmira, N. Y., for several weeks.

Mrs. W. C. Strong and daughter have returned to their home on Martine avenue, after visiting relatives in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Allen, of Brooklyn, have returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ferneld, of Forest road.

Township Collector John Z. Hatfield has set the date for the sale of lands for unpaid taxes as October 14, in his office in the Excelsior firehouse. The land is for the most part undeveloped and is owned by negroes in the colored section.

Mrs. John Hatfield, of South avenue, is visiting relatives in Massachusetts.

Miss May Hand has returned to her home in Plainfield, after visiting Miss Mabel Hand, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Louden, of Martine avenue, are entertaining relatives from New York.

Whitehouse

Miss Olive Bishop has returned to Plainfield after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Rose Burdette, in East Whitehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Dufford, of Plainfield, are visiting Mrs. Dufford's mother, Mrs. Jane Swackhamer, in East Whitehouse.

Mrs. Georgianna Cole, of Plainfield, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. A. VanSyckle, at Whitehouse Station.

Harry Aler, of Plainfield, an extra agent, is filling the place of Charles G. Wyckoff, operator at Whitehouse Station, who is off duty because of the death of his parents at Annandale.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Craig, of West New Brighton, S. I., were over-Sunday guests of Jonathan D. Craig, near New Germantown.

Elbert Pickell has left for Easton, Pa., where he has resumed his studies in Lafayette College.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Webb returned to Centreville, Monday, after a visit in Pennington.

Judge and Mrs. Daniel H. Beekman and family, of Somerville, were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Beekman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman, at New Germantown.

Aaron Reed, of East Whitehouse, is now employed by the New Jersey Central Railroad as gateman at the crossing in North Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Godfrey Poggi, of Elizabeth, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Tine, at Whitehouse Station.

Charles P. Oliver, who is to have a new residence constructed in Eas Whitehouse, has awarded the contract to Oscar Apgar, of Lebanon.

The celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Methodist church at Gladstone was continued last night. There was a reunion of members and friends of the church with former pastors and former members of the church at 7:45 o'clock. Rev. A. L. Fretz, the pastor, presided. Prayer was offered by Rev. John M. Harper, rector of St. Luke's chapel. There was singing by the church choir, addresses by former pastors and a social hour.

Miss Harriet Naylor has returned to her home in East Whitehouse after a visit to relatives in Passaic.

Game Warden John J. Park, of Whitehouse Station, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in St. Francis' Hospital in Trenton, has returned home and is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Krouter and Mrs. Robert Sherk, of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives at Peapack and Gladstone.

William D. Reger and Joseph H. Lindsley, of East Whitehouse, won a number of prizes at the Far Hills Fair with their fancy poultry.

Mrs. Martha Luse, of Peapack, and Mrs. Jacob Romig, of Allentown, Pa., are home from a visit to Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Apgar, of Peapack, were the guests of Mrs Apgar's parents, at Chester, over Sunday.

Mrs. Peter Rood and son, of Mendham, have returned after a visit to Mrs. William Logan, at Peapack.

German Valley. and Chester

Mrs. Marietta Gardner, of Chester, will start soon to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Professor and Mrs. Edward H. Garner, at Madison, Wis.

The Chester Cemetery Association will hold its annual carnival today and tomorrow on the grounds adjacent to the town hall.

The Chester township Board of Education opened the Pleasant Hill School, Tuesday, with Miss Lulu G. Dech in charge.

Mrs. John Bird, of German Valley is recovering from a severe attack of stomach trouble.

Hunterdon County.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crater, of Glen Gardner spent the week-end with Mrs. Crater's parents in Easton, Pa.

Miss Hazel Hammal, of Plainfield, was a week-end guest of Miss Hazel Drake, of Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carling will move this week from Glen Gardner to New York.

Mrs. Elizabeth Creveling and daughter, of Phillipsburg, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. William Banghart, of Glen Gardner.

Dr. Edgar Hunt, who has practiced his profession for more than thirty years in Glen Gardner, left Saturday for New York, where he will enter a hospital for practise.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordon, of High Bridge, were week-end guests of Mrs. Jordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hartrum, of Glen Gardner.

The hour of service at the Glen Gardner Presbyterian church has been changed from 3:30 to 3 o'clock p. m.

After spending some time in Clinton Miss Mame Hewson has returned to her home in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Poggi, of Elizabeth, are in Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. David Conover, of Clinton, are at Niagara Falls.

Miss Ruth Hulsizer, of Clinton, is visiting relatives in Newark.

John Butler, of Hampton, is ill.

Mrs. Mary Holmes, of Asbury, is at Ocean Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Garret Manning, of Annandale, spent Sunday in Bayonne with their son, Edward Manning, and family Mrs. Manning remaining for a week.

Mrs. Jacob West, of Annandale, is at the home of her daughter at Sydney.

Warrenville.

J. R. Adams, of Coontown, has sold his farm to a New York party and will move this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Toms, of Perth Amboy, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Toms, of Basswood Lawn.

Mrs. Oliver Ulmer, of Plainfield, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, of Coontown.

Miss Marie Kelly, of Plainfield, has returned home after spending a few days with Miss Gertrude Bornmann.

Charles Zwip, of Arlington, who recently purchased five acres of land from the Kline Realty Company, is digging a well and expects to start his house this week.

William Cooper, Jr., has been awarded a contract for the digging of two cellars for M. Rabinowitz on the George Wilson farm.

Owen Thorp has returned home after spending a week with friends in Jersey City.

Mrs. Mathewson, who recently purchased the George Donagon farm at Mt. Bethel, expects to build a large dog kennel in the near future.

A party of men visited John C. Cooper's farm at Califon, on Sunday. Among those who made the trip were William Underhill, William Selden, John Cooper, Jr., of New York, and George Hndershot, of this place. The trip was made by automobile and all had a fine time.

Miss Florence Voorhees, of Dunellen, and Ruth Miller, of Plainfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, of Coontown, Sunday.

The primary election will be held at Fairview Hall, Mt. Bethel, on Tuesday, September 22. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Frank Cleaves and Brother have been awarded the contract for the painting of three houses for David Mundy, of Plainfield.

Herbert Ortman, of Meyersville, visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Margaret Nash and Regina Downes, of Brooklyn, who have been spending a week with Mrs. Rudolph Sachs, of Mt. Bethel, returned to their home yesterday.

Miss Minnie Steffens has returned to her duties in A. E. Force's millinery department after spending her vacation with her mother.

Mrs. Rosa Mundy, of Bound Brook, is visiting Mrs. Fred Dealaman, of Springdale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Herlich and family have returned to their home in New Market, after spending the summer with Mrs. Herlich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers, of Mountain boulevard.

Advertise in The Daily Press.

TOLD IN PLAINFIELD.

A Resident Known to all Our Readers Relates an Experience.

Readers of the Press have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proved kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. The experiences told are not those of unknown persons, living far away. The cases are Plainfield cases, told by Plainfield people.

C. L. Treat, painter and paperhanger, 411 East Third street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I suffered for a long time from kidney trouble and for years couldn't get relief. My back ached constantly and I had pain across my kidneys. My kidneys were in bad shape and I became all run down, in fact, was almost a physical wreck. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply at Randolph's drug store and my experience was so satisfactory that I cannot make my endorsement too strong. I simply wouldn't be without a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills on hand."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Treat had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Westfield.

In line with the effort being made all over the State to compel owners of horse-drawn vehicles to comply with the law regarding carrying lights at night, Mayor Harry Evans has requested Chief of Police Thomas O'Neill to see that drivers of such vehicles comply with the law.

The Park Commission, Monday evening, received reports of street work completed. Modified plans for the Lake Park improvement were considered but not decided on.

Somerville

Miss Bess Lindquest returned yesterday from a two-week vacation, spent at Harvey Cedars.

The twenty-fourth annual reunion of the Thirteenth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteer Association, will be held in the armory at Somerville, Wednesday, October 7.

Miss Carrie Brokaw returned to her home yesterday, after a month's stay at Pluckemin.

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (5 colors)—Portraits of 16 European Leaders; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy, Land and Aerial Strength, Populations, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Lands Involved, European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON
IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT
PRESENTED BY
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

Made in America Week

You Can Help Keep American Factories Running and Keep American Workers Busy on Full Time If You Buy Your Goods in America. : : : : :

Initial Display of New Fall Dresses

SHOWING THE COMING SEASON'S NEWEST AND LOVLIEST CREATIONS

For inspiration, the designers went back three-quarters of a century, and evolved some wonderfully fetching styles from the fashions then in vogue. The basque effect, popular in grandmother's youth, is a feature of the New Fall Dresses. There are two distinct silhouettes; in one, the bodice shows the figure's outlines; in the other, the lines are straight from the shoulder to the low waist.

Chiffons, nets and satins are popular for evening dresses. Broadcloths, Garbadine, Prunella and Serge for general wear. Blues in various shades, soft tints of green, pinks, purples and mauves are among the most used colors.

It is quite impossible to give these lovely styles an adequate description. We feel certain that when you see them you will agree with us that they are not only wonderfully charming, but also splendid values at the prices.

We Present the New Fashions in Fall Suits

CONFIDENT THEY WILL AROUSE YOUR ADMIRATION

It is more or less remarkable for styles as new as these to achieve the popularity already given them. We can attribute it to only one thing—their intrinsic beauty, which is evident at a glance.

These handsome suits set forth in a splendid way the fashions that are most favored this Fall. They are not exaggerated types, but are cleverly toned down and thoroughly practical models which the extreme and conservative dresser alike will soon be wearing. The important style features are semi-fitted and straight line effects in three-quarter and longer length coats with flare in the coat skirts; long tunic pleated, circular tiered and ruffled effects in the skirts. Garbadine, Serge, Poplins, Broadcloths and novelty weaves are some of the favorite materials represented. Colors are mostly handsome dark shades. The workmanship of every garment is faultless. And the values are excellent.

TOMORROW IS A GOOD TIME TO SEE THESE NEW SUITS—COME!

A Brilliant Collection of the Correct Millinery for Fall is Ready for Your Inspection

So impressed were we by the chic of the millinery designed for Fall wear that we bought an extraordinarily big assortment for this informal showing.

You therefore have in this display a chance to see and choose from the most authentic collection of the new autumn styles that we have ever had the pleasure of showing you.

Sailors, from the ultra small to the large sweeping sizes predominate. Tricorners, turbans and the long front-to-back styles of 1860 are also conspicuous among the styles that bid for popularity. In materials, black velvet takes precedence. Novelty metal and brocaded effects appear in combination with velvet, beads, bird's wings in burnt ostrich, hackle and coq flowers and ribbons are accepted smart trimmings. Thus you see you are not restricted to any one or two styles, but can indulge your every taste and whim from this diversity of surpassing millinery beauties.

The prices are very moderate. They have been fixed to enable you to easily meet the headwear demands of the new season.

We hope that you will embrace the opportunity offered by this early showing to become acquainted with the new modes and the superiority of our line in particular.

More For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Buy Your Fall Shoes Now

PRICES WILL BE ADVANCED LATER IN THE SEASON

Owing to war conditions prices on shoes are certain to advance from 25 cents to $1.00 a pair.

The advance will not affect the shoes which are on hand, but as soon as these are sold the prices will go up.

This declaration is not made to stimulate trade, (as it would be more profitable for us to hold the shoes we have until prices do go up and then sell at the advance) but rather to let the people know what they may expect and give them an opportunity to buy their fall shoes at the same prices as last year.

Here is what the Shoe Retailer, a Trade Journal published in Boston, the heart of the leather market, has to say: "Tentative advances ranging from 25 cents to 75 cents per pair, according to the grade, have been figured on men's shoes, and proportionate advances will be made on women's shoes."

Henry B. Endicott, one of the largest tanners and manufacturers in the country, has this to say: "No man can tell what the advance may be. It is a sure possibility, and I think a probability, that shoes may be a dollar a pair higher, in fact, as far as I can see, I don't know why we should limit the price to one dollar. It may be more."

In 1913 this country imported $50,288,228 worth of leather from the war affected countries, and exported raw material and finished shoes, $25,504,184. Besides, this country imports all the chemicals and dyes used in the chrome tanning of hides. These supplies are cut off. In addition to this Africa, Australia, South America and the Far East are looking to the United States for their shoes on account of the European factories being closed, and the countries at war will also have to depend on the United States for their footwear supplies, so that it can readily be seen why shoes will advance.

Our fall shoes are here, and will be sold at the old prices as long as they last. After the supply is gone there is no telling what the price will be. Wise buyers will buy their Fall shoes now.

Stuart's Shoe Shop

Footwear for the Family

215 W. Front St. Opp. Proctor's

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons.

URGES THE OBSERVANCE OF STRICT NEUTRALITY

Desiring that the strict neutrality of the United States as set forth in President Wilson's proclamation shall be maintained in the public schools of the borough, Supervising Principal D. F. Aungst today sent a copy of the following to each teacher connected with the borough schools:

"In order that the true spirit of the 'neutrality of the United States,' as set forth in President Wilson's proclamation, be maintained in these dark hours of international strife, let us as teachers preserve an impartial attitude in public and private. It is our solemn duty to teach the American youth, whose education is entrusted in our care, that this great nations is 'neutral in fact as well as in name.' Let us instill in their hearts a feeling of the heavy responsibility that rests upon each and all claiming protection under the Stars and Stripes."

MIDDLEBROOK CHAPTER OF THE D. A. R. MEET HERE

The first meeing of the year of Camp Middlebrook chapter of Bound Brook, D. A. R., was held at the home of Mrs. H. A. Fiske, of West Seventh street, yesterday afternoon, with an attendance of about forty, which included some out of town guests. Miss Todd, of Dunellen, who is the regent of the organization, presided over the meeting. The program of events for the coming year was discussed and planned.

Miss Thomae, of Bound Brook, who is the historian, read a very pleasing article and Mrs. H. R. Moyer, of this city, rendered two solos. Mrs. M. E. Thomas gave a short talk about the "Star Spangled Banner" and it was sung by all present. After the meeting refreshments were served and a social time was held. Mrs. Charles R. Banks, regent of the Continental Chapter, was also a guest.

TEA GIVEN IN HONOR OF MRS. J. A. CHAMBLISS

The first meeting of the Women's Missionary Circle, of the First Baptist church, was held in the church parlors, yesterday afternoon, and was attended by about sixty persons. Mrs. M. I. Cooley, president of the circle, had charge of the meeting. The circle is a combination of the home and foreign missionary societies and meets once a month.

There was no regular program for yesterday's meeting, it being the first one of the fall term and plans were discussed. The reports of the various committees of the society were read and were accepted. Plans are also being made to have study classes held throughout the coming year.

After the meeting an informal reception was held, at which Mrs. J. A. Chambliss, wife of the former pastor of the church, was present. Tea was served and a general social time was enjoyed.

GOT LICENSE BUT NO NAME.

While riding a bicycle on Watchung avenue, near the juncture of East Fifth street, at 5:45 yesterday afternoon, Courtney Smith, colored, of 621 West Third street, was hit by an automobile bearing the license No. 11,295. The driver of the latter vehicle stopped his car and notified the wheel rider to take his damaged bicycle to a repair shop and that a settlement for damages would be made. The colored youth neglected to ascertain the name of the auto driver.

WORLD FAMOUS SPORTSMAN DEAD

James E. Sullivan, Secretary Amateur Athletic Union, Died at Noon Today.

HELD MANY HONORS

Leading Authority on Sports of All Sorts in This Country and Known in Every Country on the Globe—Death a Severe Blow to Athletics.

James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union and one of the best known sporting authorities in the world, died at Mount Sinai Hospital at 11 o'clock this morning. Mr. Sullivan was operated upon for an intestinal stricture yesterday.

The deceased was born in New York in 1860. In 1878-79 he was connected with the publishing house of Frank Leslie and founded The Athletic News in the latter year. This was one of the foremost athletic papers published in the United States, devoted exclusively to field and track athletics. He was business manager and later owner of the New York Sporting Times and was organizer and publisher of the American Sports Publishing Company, which publishes Spalding's Athletic Library.

Mr. Sullivan began his athletic career in 1877 and won the all around championship of the Pastime A. C. in 1880, 1881. He was the organizer and the present secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, a controling sport body in this country, and was a member of the Board of Managers of the Pastime A. C. He had been the business manager of the American championship field and track games for the past twenty-five years and had been the American director of Olympic games since 1904. He was also the head of the committee in charge of all of the exposition and national meets in this country for many years and at the time of his death was completing the details for the San Francisco games in 1915. He was the organizer of the Public School Athletic League in New York city and of the Outdoor Recreation League. Mr. Sullivan was awarded the Olympic medal in 1904 and was appointed a member of the Board of Education and Playground Commission of New York in 1909.

Owing to the death of the noted American sportsman it is likely that the senior field and track championships scheduled to be held at Celtic Park next Saturday will be postponed.

FOR RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

Stillwater, Minn., Sept. 16.—The Upper Mississippi River Improvement Association convened in annual session here today with delegates in attendance from leading cities and towns of Illinois, Iowa, Missouri Wisconsin and Minnesota. The convention will remain in session two days. The project for a canal connecting Lake Superior with the upper Mississippi is one of the principal subjects scheduled for consideration by the convention.

MANITOBA LEGISLATURE MEETS.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 16.—The Manitoba Legislature convened in special session today to enact legislation to prevent mortgage companies foreclosing on those financially crippled by war and to prevent real estate from being forfeited if complete payments have not been made on account of the war. The Federal government has given its sanction to the proposal.

COMMUNION SERVICE.

Holy communion and the reception of new members will take place at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church next Sunday at the hour of the regular morning service, while the preparatory service will be held this evening. The afternoon services at this church will not be resumed until October, at which time a special musical program will be rendered by the choir.

ADJOURN CASE FORSETTLEMENT

Newark, Sept. 16.—Vice Chancellor Stevens, before whom the matter of the Modern Shop Company and the Westfield Realty Company was heard Monday on an application to settle the whole business by paying creditors 60 cents on the dollar, decided against such a settlement. He was not willing to agree to such terms and the matter was adjourned to September 29 for a settlement on a basis of 10 per cent. to the general creditors.

MEXICO'S NATIONAL HOLIDAY.

City of Mexico Sept. 16.—The one hundred and fourth anniversary of Mexico's independence was initiated throughout the republic at 11 o'clock last night, by the ringing of liberty bells and the pronouncement of the "grito" (Shout), which was first given by the martyred soldier-president Hidalgo on the night of September 15, 1810. No disorder of any kind has thus far been reported. The "Grito" in the capital was given by First Chief Carranza. A throng of many thousands were present on the plaza facing the national palace when Gen. Carranza rang out the bell and commemorated the act of the first three Mexican patriots. Today, being independence day, was observed as a general holiday in all parts of the republic. Tonight congress assembles for its semi-annual session.

PROGRESSIVES ACTIVE IN PA.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16.—The Washington party, which is the official designation of the Progressive party in Pennsylvania, is planning for an unusually active campaign from now until the November election. Colonel Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to make a tour of the State, in the course of which he will speak in many of the principal cities. Besides Colonel Roosevelt, the campaign managers will secure a number of Progressive leaders from other States to assist in the fight. Among these will be Jane Addams, of Chicago; Francis J. Heney, of California; Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farms' Union and Dr. H. W. Wiley, former chief chemist of the Federal Department of Agriculture. The efforts of the party will be devoted almost wholly to the election of Gifford Pinchot to succeed Bois Penrose in the United States Senate.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 108 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on application.
Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

SEPT. 16TH IN HISTORY.

1776—British made an unsuccessful attack on the Americans on Harlem Heights.
1848—France abolished slavery throughout her possessions.
1861—Postoffice Savings Banks established in Great Britain.
1864—Captain Speke, the African explorer, killed by the accidental discharge of his gun at Neston Park.
1870—Submarine cable laid between Jamaica and Cuba.
1873—Last of German troops crossed the French frontier.
1876—Servian army proclaimed Prince Milan King of Servia.
1891—Sir Henry Irving unveiled a memorial to Christopher Marlowe in Canterbury Cathedral.
1892—Thomas Hill Watts, attorney-general in the Confederate cabinet and Governor of Alabama, died. Born Jan. 3, 1819.
1897—Attempt made to assassinate President Diaz of Mexico.
1901—Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York (now King George and Queen Mary) arrived at Quebec.
1905—Joseph Chamberlain retired from the British ministry.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 16, 1914.

A FEW MORE REASONS.

Those who have made a study of property valuations in the city and borough say that the very fact that in this city the ratables have been increased about $5,000,000 in the last six years, and have shown a decrease in the borough in the same time, proves that there is something radically wrong on the Somerset county side. The amount raised by taxation for local purposes in the borough in that time has grown but little, if at all, while that raised for school purposes has been responsible for the big increases in the tax rate. Were the city and borough combined the entire overhead expense in the administration of the borough schools would be done away with, and in addition the pupils would have the advantages of using the local High School and relieve great congestion in the buildings now available over the brook.

Mayor Clark is so well supplied with arguments in favor of the consolidation, and has so ably presented them, that it is hard to understand why anyone is opposed to the plan. And as we have said before, if, after several years in the office, he continues to see the advantages to be gained by the change, and the opponents fail to come forward with any arguments against it, why this talk about the possibility of the people not voting favorably at the election next week?

The Mayor has pointed out that property values have decreased on Somerset street, the business street of the borough, while on Front street, this city, they have materially increased. He has told how North Plainfield contributes to all the Plainfield charities and has none distinctly her own; how the residents of his municipality have to come here to use the hospital, library, banks, railroad station, Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations.

With practically all of the leading citizens of the borough advocating the consolidation, and many of them working for it, the residents should roll up a big majority in favor of joining legally with a community in which they already play a great part in every way. A vote in favor of consolidation will be the strongest kind of an argument to the Legislature to bring about annexation.

Governor Fielder's selection of Captain William C. Smith, of North Plainfield, as a member of the Board of Managers of the Home for Disabled Soldiers at Kearny, will bring to that board the services of a practical business man, which will greatly strengthen the body.

Hope the Public Service will soon have pity on suffering humanity and take those open cars off the local lines after dark.

More than one 1913 model derby put in an appearance yesterday. The news reports tell us that the war is going to make the felt for hats scarce this winter, but that doesn't make any difference to the man who is fortunate enough to have one left from last season.

In view of the consolidation election to be held in North Plainfield next Thursday, our Saturday editorial, written by a well known citizen of that community, telling of the advantages to be gained by the change, will be of peculiar and timely interest.

The country seems to go on just the same, even if the Stock Exchange is closed. But business will not begin to assume normal proportions until it is reopened.

LINEN "SHOWER" GIVEN FOR MISS IDA VIANA

In honor of her approaching marriage to John Schneider, of Asbury Park, Miss Ida Viana was last night given a linen 'shower" by her sister, Miss Rose Viana, at their home in Somerset street. The event was an entire surprise to the bride-to-be.

About thirty guests were present from New York, Asbury Park, Newark and this city, who helped to make the evening a delightful one. Miss Viana received a number of pretty and useful gifts.

The rooms of the house were prettily decorated in white and green. Late in the evening a supper was served. Throughout the evening selections were played by the Misses Emma and Marguerite Windham at the piano, and several vocal solos were rendered.

The friends of Miss Viana will be surprised and pleased to learn of her engagement. The wedding will take place sometime this fall.

PERSONAL.

G. S. Dufford and family, of West Front street, have returned after spending some time at German Valley.

Mrs. A. H. Manning, of Madison avenue, has returned from Manasquan, after spending her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Conover, of Jackson avenue, the borough, have returned after spending their vacation at Asbury Park.

Mrs. James DeGraff and family, of Central avenue, have returned home, after spending the summer at Kennebunkport, Me.

Mrs. Raymond Quinn, of Watchung avenue, and daughter, Miss Beatrice, are visiting relatives at Newark.

G. E. Volk, of Watchung avenue, has returned home after a two weeks' visit out of town.

Mrs. F. B. Newell, of West Seventh street, has returned home after stopping at Asbury Park, where her vacation was spent.

A. R. Humble, of Jackson avenue, has returned from Mattituck, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Kline have removed from 503 Madison avenue to 707 East Seventh street.

Mrs. Mable Whitman and daughter, Miss Angie Whitman, of Leland avenue, who have been spending the summer months with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newton, have returned home.

Mrs. Hadden, of Union street, has returned home after spending some time at Edgemere, L. I.

Miss Maude Edell, of Fifth street, has returned home from her vacation at Clinton.

Mrs. John Fritts, of West Fifth street, has been visiting Mrs. Arthur Fritts, of Trenton

Katherine Sill, of Myrtle avenue, who attended The Seminary last year, has entered N. P. H. S. to complete her education.

Alex. Milne and family, of the borough, have returned after spending the summer at Point-'O-Woods, L. I.

Elmer French, of Washington avenue, has taken the Rutgers College entrance examination at New Brunswick.

Louis Bennett, of Duer street, has returned home after spending the summer camping at Asbury Park.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.
"Peg o' My Heart" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
N. J. Ass'n for Poultry Improvement.

TOMORROW.
Registration Day for Special Election in Borough.
"Black Patti" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

FRIDAY.
Building Trades Council.
Vaudeville at Proctor's.
First M. E. Church Brotherhood lecture.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

SATURDAY.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

MONDAY.
Tax Sale Continued.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

TUESDAY.
Primary Day.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

THE NEW FALL DRESS GOODS

Are Now on Sale. The Best American Mills are Represented in the Splendid Showing Which Comprise All That's Newest in Weave and Color Combinations, and Best of All You'll Find the Prices Most Reasonable

AT 50c AND $1.00 A YARD.
Crowfoot checks, black and white, in all size checks, 40 to 54 inches wide.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
50-inch all wool Serges in neat black and green and black and blue checks.

AT 59c A YARD.
French Flannel, 27 inches wide; all wool, in light and dark grey, brown, green and cardinal.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
All wool crepe suiting, 48 inches wide, in mahagony, navy blue and black.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
Cadet cloth, 48 inches wide, in black, green navy and cadet blue.

AT $1.59 A YARD.
An all wool black and blue mixture, suitable for heavy skirts and suits.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
56-in. all wool Suiting, in plaids, checks and Roman stripes; in all the new shades.

AT $1.59 A YARD.
Heavy Worsted Plaid Suiting, in all the latest color combinations; 56 inches wide.

AT 59c A YARD.
40-inch Roman Striped Suitings, in a variety of color combinations.

AT $1.00 A YARD.
Silk and wool crepe cloth in cadet blue, wine color and mahogany.

AT 50c AND 59c A YARD.
All wool fancy plaids, 40 inches wide; specially adapted for children's dresses.

AT $1.25 A YARD.
All wool Bedford Cord, 52 inches wide, in black, medium and dark navy blue.

"OUR LINING DEPARTMENT" is fully stocked with all the Fall shades in clevet and Princess Satin, Colonial, Marvel and Dresden feather weight Percalines; also Crinoline, Buckram, Canvas and Queen Coat Foundations.

Butterick Patterns and the Delineator for October now on sale.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Our Notion Department is complete with every thing pertaining to dressmaking.

VOTES FOR WOMEN

Conducted by the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield.

THE WOMEN'S PROCESSIONAL.

God of our Fathers, as of old,
Lord of the smoking, thin red line!
How oft have flaming roof-trees told
Of yet another victor's shrine;
Odin, or Mars,—grim god of War,
Ah, let us bow to him no more!

* * *

Nay, let us seek our Mother's God,
Who hears the ravens when they cry,
And sends the rain to parching sod,
Nor lets the widow's cruse run dry;
Our Mother's God—thy cross gleams red
Where lie the wounded and the dead!
God of our Fathers?—Nay, no more—
The hideous tolls of war increase—
Forever hush the cannon's roar
Lay by the bugle, give us peace!
God of our Mothers, hear our cry,
It is our sons who go to die!

ELLIS MEREDITH.

Georgia, Chivalry, Suffrage and Child Labor.

Georgia has again voted against the abolition of child labor. In this fair Southern State, where chivalry is claimed to be a sufficient substitute for the ballot in the hands of the mothers, there are now more than 14,000 children from 10 to 14 years of age who cannot read or write, and the little children compete with men in the industries, so that the mill owners who control the Legislature may grow rich.

Owen R. Lovejoy, general secretary National Child Labor Committee, writes in communication to The Evening Post of Monday last as follows:

"After a struggle of seven years we have succeeded in gaining one point—we have raised the age limit two years. Poor children will now go to work at the age of twelve, and other children at fourteen. At this rate Georgia may attain the standard set by the Palmer-Owen Federal bill in the year 1942, allowing seven years for each of the fourth provisions contained in it which she has not yet reached.

* * *

"If the figures given out for Georgia were worked out for Alabama, Mississipip, South Carolina, and all the other backward States, there would be millions of children needlessly sacrificed during the years in which the State Legislatures get ready to protect the children. It seems clear to us that some shorter method must be found."

In this same State of Georgia where they have no Child Labor Law, and where they have no compulsory education law, they have a substitute which a prosperous cotton mill owner calls a genleman's agreement.

"A gentleman's agreement in Georgia," said the manufacturer, "is a great deal more effective than legislation would be."

Georgia is the only State where children 12 years of age work 11 hours a day. Suffrage was defeated in the last Legislature.

Maine.

The Maine State Grange has asked every candidate for the Legislature to state his position on the submission of an equal suffrage amendment. The Grange is emphatically in favor of the enfranchisement of women and plans to make sure of success in the Legislature next year.

Up to last Saturday Secretary Libby, of the Grange, had received replies from 219 legislative candidates. Of these, 81 Republicans 60 Democrats and 60 Progressives promised to vote for submission of the amendment; 6 Republicans and 8 Democrats either were undecided or declined to answer; 1 Republican and 3 Democrats refused their support.

Vermont.

The tentative draft of the Republican platform in Vermont declares for submission of an equal suffrage amendment. At the meeting of the committee on resolutions in Burlington last week in advance of the State convention the following plank was adopted:

"Recognizing the growing sentiment throughout the country in favor of granting the right of suffrage to women and believing that the women of Vermont are at least the equals of the women of other States in intelligence and patriotism, we recommend that at the first opportunity afforded a constitutional amendment giving women an equal right of suffrage with men be submitted to the voters of this Commonwealth."

Editor Bok, of the Ladies' Home Journal, who but a few years ago featured the notorious Barry articles against suffrage, and who has been the chief exponent in America for the "Kinder, Kuche, Kiche" status of woman (the Kaiser generously expounded his theory free, but Editor Bok charged $1.50 per annum for the same advice), now speaks as follows:

"It is unwise for a woman to say: 'I don't care about the vote.' She must care. It behooves her to be ready if the ballot is given her, for when it is hers she must be ready. That much is sure and that much she can do.

"It makes no difference whether a woman wishes that suffrage may come to her or not, this much is vital: that she should get ready for it. A woman should say to herself that it is going to come, and then prepare herself for it. That is, she should begin to open her eyes to the big world, to this big country and to the community in which she lives, and try to find out what they all mean and stand for. Let her make up her mind to take a half hour each day and read a good newspaper: in other words, get 'posted.' And that is what every woman must do. For if the vote comes to the women in her State she will have to vote in order to offset the vote of some woman who may not be as desirable to the community as she tries to be.

"Suppose the vote doesn't come her way, has she had her pains and spent her time for naught? Not at all. She is the gainer, for, whether she votes or not, every woman should know more about what the great questions of the day mean. There is not the slightest doubt that women would be better companions for the men of their families if they did know. So a woman really gains two or three distinct points by mentally granting that the privilege of suffrage may come to her, and preparing herself for the intelligent exercise of it before it comes."

Who would ever have dreamed that one day Editor Bok would be voicing the very sentiments of the English suffragettes! Yet in practically the same words, Mrs. Henry Fawcett, president of the great peaceful body of suffragists known as the National Union in Great Britain, calls the five hundred societies in her organization to work for their country in the hour of need: "Let us show ourselves worthy of citizenship, whether our claim to it is recognized or not."

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WE MUST

permanently please our customers or we could not sell goods on the long terms of credit we offer.

A cash store need give you no redress if their goods turn out wrong—they have your money and they "cannot refund on worn garments."

Our goods, on the other hand, must make good if we are to retain your friendship while your payments are being made.

Think this over!

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS,
J. A. LAURIE & CO
304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

PEACE AND PLENTY

Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.

W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

A. H. ENANDER

SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING. STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Contractor for Sewer Connection.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. Phone Plainfield 1300

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

FRONT STREET

Thursday Friday Saturday

Engagement of the Latest Vaudeville Sensation

"Ward 22"

A Rip Roaring Farce

LA SELMA
Most Beautiful Posing Model in Vaudeville

REMEY, FRAZIER & BAKER
Sweet Singers, Ragtime Melody

BARNEY GILMORE
The Favorite Irish Comedian

DORANTO
The Only Chinese Musician in Vaudeville

PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY

Note—The Million Dollar Mystery has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday. The next episode will be shown Wednesday, September 23rd.

PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

REPAIRING

ASK ANYBODY

and they will tell you of the Charles Kurtzman honest fur selling service that he has been doing here for years. Come in and see the most bewildering line of fall creations that you have ever gazed upon.

DO IT TODAY

Charles Kurtzman
THE FURRIER
178 EAST FRONT STREET

REMODELING

Falling Hair Stopped by Using HIRSUTONE

A scientific, antiseptic Hair Tonic which kills the dandruff germ. Preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair and stimulates its growth. Hirsutone is a non-secret preparation—fragrantly perfumed—a delightful dressing. Start using it NOW before it is too late. Price 50c. Hirsutone is only obtainable at

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
Colgate's Shaving Stick, Cream, Powder, 20c.

EARLY SAVING

Yes, it is very important that every boy and girl be taught to save money.

By starting an account with the City National Bank for your son or daughter, you help them acquire the habit of making regular deposits in the bank.

4% Interest paid on Savings Accounts

ORGANIZED 1875.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WE MAKE AND SELL POWER

Making Electric Power is our business. We have the facilities for making it in such large quantities that we can sell and deliver it to you more cheaply than you can make your own power.

This we have proved to the satisfaction of thousands of power users in the territory we serve.

It matters not what your power demands may be, whether you want one horsepower or one thousand, we can supply you if you are on our lines.

We have customers who use less than one horsepower and we have others whose demands range from 1,000 to 5,000 horsepower.

This shows the adaptability and flexibility of Central Station Electric Power. You get just what you want and pay for only what you get. There is no waste such as comes from keeping a local plant going while only a fraction of its capacity is being used.

With Central Station Electric Power and direct connected motors there is no power wasted in transmission and no friction losses through belts and shafting. Every unit of energy does the work expected of it.

When the work stops there is no engine or boiler room expenses going on, for a turn of a switch takes the place of engineers and firemen.

If others find it to their advantage to use Central Station Electric Power why not you? Our engineers are at your service.

PUBLIC SERVICE Electric Company

New Jersey's Greatest Store

Hahne's—The First Store in New Jersey to Adopt Shorter Hours

HAHNE & CO.
NEWARK

Store opens Daily at 9 A. M. Closes Saturday 6 P. M.

Blankets, Comforts and Bedspreads at Greatly Reduced Prices!

$3.50 BEDSPREADS AT $2.85.
—Beautiful Marseilles Bedspreads in lace, floral, art and conventional designs—large metal bed size, and with either hemmed, fringed or scalloped edge.
Hemmed Bedspreads, usually $3.50, at $2.85
Fringed or Scalloped Bedspreads, 4 vals. $3.35
$2 White Crochet Bedspreads, in pretty Marseilles designs, double bed size, at $1.49

$5.00 White Wool Blankets, at 3.95
—Standard weight White Wool Blankets, in the full bed size—soft, warm and fluffy. Dainty blue and pink borders, with 4-inch taffeta binding to match.

$6.50 White Wool Blankets, at 5.00
—Full Bed Size Blankets, with pink, blue, gold and helio borders—filled with 75 per cent. wool and just enough cotton to produce the best wearing qualities.

$12 Lamb's Wool Comfortables, at 8.50
—Lamb's Wool Comfortables with silk brocaded silk coverings, in a complete assortment of beautiful shades—finest selected lamb's wool; special $8.50

$8.50 Eiderdown Comfortables, at 7.25
—Eiderdown Filled Comfortables, covered with the best quality satin—in scroll stitched, floral and Persian designs—extra large size—6x7 feet.

$4.25 White Wool Blankets, at 3.25
—Soft and Fluffy White Wool Blankets, in the full bed size—good, heavy weight and very warm. Pink and blue borders. Regular $4.25 values, special $3.25

MATTRESS PROTECTORS 49c TO $1.85
Size 27x40 in., regularly 59c, now 49c
Size 34x36 in., regularly 79c, now 69c
Size 34x52 in., regularly $1.00, now 85c
Size 36x76 in., regularly $1.45, now $1.25
Size 48x76 in., regularly $1.58, now $1.39
Size 48x76 in., regularly $1.79, now $1.59
Size 54x76 in., regularly $2.00, now $1.79
Size 60x76 in., regularly $2.25, now $1.85

$7.50 California Wool Blankets, at 6.50
—White California Wool Blankets, superior quality, full bed size—finished with 4-inch white taffeta silk binding—pink, blue and gold borders.

$8.50 California Wool Blankets, at 7.50
—Superior quality White California Wool Blankets, full size, soft and wooly—full 5 lbs weight. Made with pink and blue borders. Very special at $7.50

$1.59 Comfortables With Borders, at 1.29
—Full size Silkoline Covered Comfortables, filled with fine quality white cotton; in pretty floral designs, with 9-inch border to match. Very special at $1.29

$3.50 Comfortables, Double Bed Size, at 2.79
—Full Double Bed Size Comfortables, covered with fine dotted silk mull—in beautiful rose patterns, with 9-inch silk border to match—light and fluffy.

$6.98 Comfortables, Specially priced 5.00
—Silk Covered Comfortables in floral and art designs, filled with soft cotton down—9-inch silk border, knotted with ribbons. Very special at $5.00

Main Floor.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

LEAL SCHOOL OPENED TODAY WITH LARGE ATTENDANCE

John Leal's School for boys was opened this morning with a large attendance in both the main and junior departments. Many of the boys have not yet returned from their summer vacations. All of the instructors were present at the opening exercises this morning, at which Mr. Leal took charge and gave his pupils a short talk.

Only one change has been made in the faculty, Thomas Oakley taking the place of O. T. King, who had the modern language department last year. Mr. Oakley is a graduate of Columbia University. C. D. Wardlaw, associate principal, will have charge of the athletic departments and expects to make a stronger bid for interscholastic titles this year than ever before.

Because the attendance has become so large the junior department will hold sessions in the building on Seventh street as was done last year.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

THE party that picked up pair of lineman's climbers corner of Belvidere and South avenues, please return to 217 West Second street and receive reward. 9 16 2

LICENSE RENEWALS.

Among the liquor men of Middlesex county who made application to Judge Daly, in New Brunswick, for the renewal of liquor licenses to be passed upon in the September term of court are Thomas Brantingham, of Park avenue; James Mannion, of Mannion's Corner, and David Gross, of The Pines.

THOUGHT HE HEARD NIGHT PROWLERS AROUND HOUSE

George Chapman, of 123 West Seventh street, reported to the police at 2 o'clock this morning, that he thought he heard burglars trying to gain entrance to his home. Sergeant Higgins sent Patrolmen Muir and Kelley to the place and they were later joined by Roundsman Flynn.

An investigation about the premises and in the house failed to reveal any trace of night prowlers and it is the supposition of the police that if burglars were attemping to enter the place they were frightened away before they could complete the task.

WAR NEWS

(Continued from page 1.)

A telegram of the Express from Rome says that the two Austrian armies commanded by Generals Dankl and Auffenberg have joined forces at Rhesow, 3 miles northeast of Jaroslau, and 32 miles due north of Przemysl. The message says that in the course of the opposition they lost 40 of their number.

According to a message from Berlin, via Copenhagen, the German General Staff announces that the situation on the west front is still favorable. It declares that the French and English have at no place on the whole battle front won a victory and that the Germans can look with confidence to the outcome. Other than this no news is obtainable regarding operations.

A news agency despatch from Athens says that the Greek government has sent a note to Turkey identical with that of the Great Powers concerning Turkey's recent cancellations of foreigners' privileges.

It is reported here on the authority of the Cologne Gazette that Major Gen. Fischeff has been appointed Minister of War of Bulgaria, with headquarters in Sofia.

A despatch from Rome gives an official announcement made in Berlin that Germany has established a military government over Suwalki, in Russian Poland.

Sven Hedin, the famous explorer and Germanophile, has gone to Berlin to investigate the reports of atrocities by the German soldiers.

The committee of English and foreign bankers has issued a statement relative to the resumption of foreign exchange business tomorrow. All bankers are urged to co-operate. Rates will be fixed hereafter on Tuesdays and Thursday and will apply to all bills until six rates have been fixed.

Copenhagen, Sept. 16 (Central News Cable).—A despatch from Berlin says that among those lost in the naval battle near Heligoland were Admiral Maas, commander of the Second Scouting Division, and Baron Von Maltzohn, navigation officers of the Cruiser Koeln, who served a long time on the Cruiser Bremen. No detailed account of the sinking of the Cruiser Hela has been given out. It merely stated that 172 of 181 members of the crew were saved by German ships in the vicinity.

A despatch received here from Berlin contains an official statement denying all foreign reports of the progress of the war. It says:

"We know from the present conditions that we shall fight to the end. We did not expect a promenade for our troops. Hard fighting against hard opposition is our motto. Confidence prevails among the Germans and the world is entitled to know that there is no truth in the talk of a French victory anywhere. All other reports are false. A definite German victory on both frontiers cannot be doubted despite the big superiority of the hostile forces on both sides. German soil is free of her enemies."

Melbourne, Sept. 16 (Central News Cable).—Prime Minister Millen has received the following further wireless report from Admiral Patey, in command of the Australian navy squadron, in its operations in Guinea:

"I estimate that there were 20 or 30 Germans killed in our recent battle. The defending force was numerically the stronger. The conduct of the Australians in action was extremely valorous. Further fighting is probable, although the British hold Rabaul. In its operations the Australian fleet has done good work in conjunction with the British China Sea squadron, in destroying German wireless stations in the Pacific."

Washington, Sept. 16.—The Belgian commission arrived here last night, and prepared today for its call on Secretary Bryan. They declined to discuss their mission. If their credentials are satisfactory to the Secretary the commission will be received by the President.

Advices were received at the French embassy today confirmatory of the reported withdrawal of the Germans to a new position on the Aisne River, where they apparently were reforming for a new battle.

AN OCTOBER WEDDING.

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Edward James Warnig, of Perth Amboy, formerly of this city, to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dora Waring, to Robert Joseph McNitt, on the evening of Saturday, October 3, at 7:30 o'clock at St. Peter's church, Perth Amboy. A reception will follow the ceremony at 223 High street.

Never Questioned

Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure and wholesome. It is made from highly refined, pure, cream of tartar, an ingredient of grapes. Not an atom of unwholesomeness goes into it; not an unwholesome influence comes from it. It perfectly leavens the food, makes it finer in appearance, more delicious to the taste, more healthful.

Its superiority in all the qualities that make the perfect baking powder is never questioned.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure No Alum

LOST BOY WAS PARTICULAR AS TO WHO CODDLED HIM

A request was received at police headquarters this morning, from Mrs. Shay, of 321 West Second stret, that the department assist her in locating her eighteen-month-old boy who had strayed from the paternal fireside and wandered to parts unknown. Several minutes after her request was made Patrolman Sullivan reported from a call box stating that he had the lost child in his possession.

The family was notified and Sullivan was instructed to bring the infant to the police station to await the arrival of a claimant. The bluecoat and his find reported at headquarters and Sullivan was forced to remain as guardian of the boy until the arrival of the mother inasmuch as the runaway refused to have anything to do with anyone but the genial Sullivan.

ATTEMPT MADE TO PRY OPEN WINDOW IN BABCOCK HOME

Night Watchman Joseph Cooney reported to Patrolman Henderschott, this morning, that someone had tried to enter the home of George L. Babcock on West Seventh street.

The patrolman accompanied the night watchman to the Babcock home but found no one there. Indications are that an attempt was made to pry a window open with a "jimmy" but the would-be burglar was unsuccessful.

RECREATION NOTES

The Folk Dance Club will meet tonight at 8:15 in the Bryant School. There will be a business meeting and all members are urged to be present.

The Italian Social and Educational Club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School. The night of meeting has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday. This club will be of interest to many. There is a sewing class for the girls, and dramatic and musical clubs for the young men.

FIRST FALL MEETING.

The first meeting of the Dutch Arms, men's association, of Trinity Reformed church, will be held Monday evening, September 21. The meeting will be marked by an informal dinner which will be served at 7:15 o'clock. Prominent speakers have been secured and there will be music by the Dutch Arms Band. There will be a business meeting of the association at 7 o'clock sharp. A good time is assured all who attend this meeting.

FUNERAL OR MRS. RICKERT.

The funeral services of Mrs. Barbara Rickert, widow of the late Peter Rickert, were held last evening from her late residence on Fairview avenue, the borough. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance. Rev. Charles E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. The interment was made this morning.

FLYNN ON VACATION.

Captain John J. Flynn, of the local police department, is enjoying his annual two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Oliver Ulmer and son, Allard, of Berckman street, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, of Coontown.

RALPH SMALLEY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF BOYS' A. A.

The Boys' Athletic Association of North Plainfield High School, held its first meeting of the term this noon. Ralph Smalley was elected president, Warren Townley vice-president, Hoyt Tomkinson secretary, and Lester Chandler treasurer. Mr. Jeffries, the manual training teacher, was introduced to the student body and made a few remarks stating he would assist the coaches of the various teams also the interclass teams. Mr. Jeffries has been in this line of work for the last few years and will be a great help to the captains of the basketball and baseball teams in selecting men to fill the vacancies left by last year's graduates.

The Girls' Athletic Association held its first meeting this noon, and elected Ana Hull president, Dorothy Martin vice-president, Elsie Debele secreary, and Margaret Ewart treasurer. Lillian Spencer was re-elected manager of the girls' basketball team and she will start immediately booking games. Miss Barnard, the Latin teacher, has consented to coach the girls' basketball team. Miss Barnard has had charge of this kind of work in Dover, Delaware.

AMERICAN FORCES WILL LEAVE VERA CRUZ SOON

Washington, Oct. 16.—After occupying Vera Cruz for five months at a total cost of about $5,000,000, the American forces of soldiers and marines will leave there October 1, it was announced by Secretary Garrison today.

SEEK TO SET ASIDE ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXES

Trenton, Sept. 16.—The Commercial Trust Company of New Jersey and Charles L. Decker, of the Merchants' National Bank, of Jersey City, brought certiorari proceedings in the Supreme Court today to set aside assessments for taxes under the Fielder Bank Stock Tax Law. Proceedings attacking the constitutionality of the bank stock law are pending in the Supreme Court.

W. C. T. U. ANNUAL.

The local W. C. T. U. will hold its annual meeting tomorrow at its rooms, having two sessions, one at 10 o'clock in the morning and the other at 2:30 in the afternoon. Rev. D. C. Ramsey, pastor of the Dunellen Methodist church, will address the afternoon session, while special music will mark both gatherings.

JAPS LEAVE GERMANY.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Through the good offices of this government all Japanese subjects are now out of Germany. This information was conveyed today by the State Department to Baron Chinda, the Japanese ambassador.

SPECIAL FUNERAL TRAIN.

The special train conveying the remains of Father William H. Miller and the mourners to South Amboy, will leave the North Avenue station at 1:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

BICYCLE STOLEN.

Harry Vail, of 306 Orange place, reported to the police this morning that someone had stolen his black Crawford bicycle.

SAMPLE BALLOTS MAILED TO VOTERS

Nearly 4,500 Letters Being Distributed in the City and Borough Today.

The last of the local sample primary ballots were placed in the postoffice this morning. Between the city and borough sample ballots, fully 4,500 pieces of mail went through the postoffice in twenty-four hours which ended at 12 o'clock noon today. The mailing of sample ballots as provided for by the Geran election laws gives the individual voter a chance to become familiar with the names of those running for the nomination of the various offices which are to be filled at the general election of this year.

Sample ballots, as well as notices of the time and places of the coming primary have been posted in various places within the districts by the district boards, and their duty has been completed until the opening of the polls next Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, remaining open until 9 o'clock in the evening. Voters should bear in mind that next Tuesday is a registry day as well as primary day, and should take that opportunity to register for the general election in November if they have not already done so.

SALARIES OF UNION COUNTY EMPLOYES AGAIN HELD UP

Elizabeth, Sept 16.—Employes at the Union County Court House were indignant last night because their salaries have again been held up and no one seems to know when they will be paid. The employes have not yet been paid for the two weeks ending August 31, although the Legislature enacted a law making it mandatory that the salaries of employes in second-class counties be paid once every two weeks.

FUNERAL OF MR. BERGENER.

A large number of friends attended the funeral services of Henry Bergener last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Angerbauer, of East Second street. Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, officiated. The interment made today was private.

BORO COURT NOTES.

Alfred MacDonald, of West Fourth street, this city, wandered into the borough late last evening somewhat under the influence of drink, and caused a disturbance. Arraigned before Recorder Hand this morning, a fine of $5 was imposed, which was later paid by his employer.

CANDIDATES VISIT CITY.

Charles N. Fowler, James C. Calvert and Augustus Schwartz, all of Elizabeth, were in this city, today, for campaign purposes visiting a number of local voters. The first two are candidates for nominations on the Republican ticket, while Schwartz was guiding them about the city to the places of popular congregation.

JAMES SWIFT.

James Swift, aged 32 years, colored, of 444 West Second street, died this morning at Bonnie Burn Sanitorium. The remains have been removed to 109 West Fourth street, pending funeral arrangements.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

COAL

Egg, Stove, Nut

$6.75 Per Ton Pea $5.25

30c discount for Spot Cash

A charge of 25c extra for carrying coal

Try Davidge Fertilizer for Farm and Garden

CONSUMERS COAL CO.

Tel. 66 225 Madison Ave.

w-s-tf

Notice to Boys and Girls

There are some of the boys and girls of this city who have not yet started a Bank Account, but would like to.

This may mean YOU—so come in and see our Treasurer and let him tell you what the Plainfield Savings Bank can do for you.

Bring this ad. with you.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.

ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
H. A. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

Store Open All Day Saturday

FOR PRESERVING

Royal Granite Steel Ware

is absolutely pure and safe to use and is very moderately priced.

FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, JAR RINGS, STONE POTS AND JUGS.

Ask to see the new White Crown Vacuum Mason Jar Top, the most successful and sanitary closures yet devised for screw top jars.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen.
Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St. Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

School Boys and Girls

The best place, in Plainfield, to have your bicycle put in shape for the school season is at

George L. Simon's

179 North Ave. Opp. Depot.

BICYCLES TIRES SUNDRIES

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

FLOORS

Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.

GEO. E. WATT

314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

JUNE VANDEVENTER RETURNS TO SCHOOL

Leals' Stellar Athlete Returns to His Former School to Finish Education.

The North Plainfield High School Athletic Association has drafted a goth athlete who will make some of the members of last year's baseball team go some for a position next year. That man is Augustus "June" VanDeventer, who has entered the school. He formerly attended the borough institution but left to attend Leal's. While at that place he was oue of the best all around athletes that the school produced and was the leader in the batting department of the baseball team last season.

VanDeventer is a fielder, but can also perform to some extent on the pitcher mound, and as the boroughites are sorely in need of such a man, he may prove a providential gift to the team. He is exceedingly fleet-footed and running is one of his specialties. Besides being a baseball player the borough boy is a natural born basketball player and, although Captain Abrams is not looking around very hard for new material, he may find something in the new student.

VanDeventer was originally in the class of 1914, but he left two years ago and is now a senior. He is taking up commercial subjects.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	75	55	.577
New York	72	59	.549
St. Louis	71	62	.533
Chicago	71	63	.530
Pittsburgh	62	68	.477
Philadelphia	61	71	.462
Brooklyn	58	73	.443
Cincinnati	56	75	.427

Yesterday's Results.

Philadelphia, 4; New York, 3.
Boston, 7; Brooklyn, 5.
Pittsburgh, 9; Cincinnati, 0.

Games Today.

Cincinnati at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	88	46	.657
Boston	79	53	.599
Detroit	72	63	.533
Washington	68	63	.519
Chicago	63	69	.477
St. Louis	59	72	.451
New York	60	75	.445
Cleveland	53	91	.321

Yesterday's Results.

Philadelphia, 3; New York, 1.
Boston, 2; Washington, 1.
Detroit, 2; Cleveland, 1.
Chicago at St. Louis, rain.

Games Today.

Detroit at Cleveland.
Chicago at St. Louis (2 games).

FEDREAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	74	59	.556
Indianapolis	74	59	.556
Baltimore	69	60	.534
Brooklyn	67	62	.519
Buffalo	66	63	.512
Kansas City	62	69	.473
St. Louis	58	74	.439
Pittsburgh	52	76	.407

Yesterday Results.

Indianapolis, 9; Brooklyn, 2.
Buffalo, 1; St. Louis, 0.
Chicago, 6; Pittsburgh, 0.
Baltimore, 11; Kansas City, 5.

Games Today.

Indianapolis at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Buffalo.
Kansas City at Baltimore.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	86	57	.601
Providence	86	58	.597
Buffalo	83	57	.593
Baltimore	72	67	.518
Toronto	68	66	.507
Newark	62	76	.449
Montreal	57	83	.407
Jersey City	46	96	.324

Yesterday Results.

Providence, 4; Newark, 2.
Buffalo, 5; Rochester, 4.
Montreal, 7; Toronto, 2.

Games Today.

Montreal at Toronto.
Rochester at Buffalo.

Games Tomorrow.

Newark at Jersey City.
Baltimore at Providence.
Buffalo at Toronto.
Rochester at Montreal.

BRUGGY SIXTH BATTER WITH LAWRENCE NINE

Frank Bruggy finished sixth among the New England batters, his average being .314 for 116 contests. He was the leading sticker on his team, and was the only one to reach .300. Luyster had .298.

The Lawrence team yesterday began a post-season series with New London, winner of the Eastern Association, who won the first game.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

NEW YORK YANKEES NOW CHANCELESS

Peerless Leader Formally Leaves the Farrel Outfit.

When the Yankees and Athletics lined up yesterday at the Polo Grounds in Manhattan, for the last home game of the season, Roger Packinpaugh was acting manager in place of Frank Chance, now on his way to California.

The Peerless Leader received from Frank Farrell, yesterday, a check for his salary in full for the remainder of the season, and immediately severed his connections with the New York baseball club.

There was a persistent rumor that Jack Dunn had been obtained as manager for the Yankees, but this was denied. Less than half an hour before game time Farrell told Captain Peckinpaugh that he would be in charge of the team for the rest of the year, and "Peck" went into the afternoon's battle with the understanding that he was acting manager.

Chance made no statement before leaving the Polo Grounds. He wished Peckinpaugh the best of luck and lots of joy of his job, but further than that refused to be interviewed.

Among the club officials there seemed to be no certainty as to anything except that Chance was probably through. As late as 3 o'clock Secretary Tom Davis and Scout Arthur Irwin professed to know nothing regarding the plans of Devery and Farrell, and the president and the owner refused to divulge the faintest inkling of their intentions.

Late yesterday afternoon, Frank Farrell told the newspaper men that to date he has not considered Jack Dunn, of Baltimore, as a manager for the Yankees, and that he has not communicated with him in any way.

He said that Roger Peckinpaugh will surely handle the club all the rest of the year, and that no change will be made until it comes time to get started on building up next year's team.

FIRST BASKETBALL MEETING WILL BE HELD THIS EVENING

The first basketball meeting of the season will be held tonight in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., when plans will be discussed for the coming season. All of last year's team will be present and a captain and manager will be elected. Mr. Meerman, the new physical director, will be present and have charge of the meeting.

The manager will start immediately to arrange a schedule and a meeting will be held in the near future for all candidates who expect to try for the team this year. After the meeting tonight the team will take the floor and have a little practice, although nothing regular will be started for a month.

N. P. H. S. TENNIS PLAYERS ARE GETTING INTO SHAPE

North Plainfield High School racquet wielders are practicing hard these days to get into shape for the annual singles tennis tournament that will be held in the near future. This event, which in one way takes the place of football which the boroughites are not allowed to enjoy, is always a popular event and the rivalry is sometimes intense. The borough institution boasts of some fine players and the matches are always interesting.

As has been the custom for the past two years, the athletic association will probably vote some funds for prizes and plans will be made for the tournament. All of the old players and many new ones are going to try for places and the largest entry list ever is expected. Among those who are known from previous years are Hoyt Tomkinson, runner up of last year's tournament; Warren Townley, Lester Chandler, Duclos VanMater, Sherman "Buck" Chandler, Martin McDonough, Charles Roll and Elmer French.

HERZOG DRAWS SUSPENSION.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 16—Manager Charles Herzog, of the Cincinnati National League Club, has been indefinitely suspended by President Tener, of the National League, for disputing a decision of the umpire in a game played here last Sunday. This announcement was made at Cincinnati baseball club headquarters here yesterday.

LANGFORD AND JOHNSON DRAW.

Boston, Sept. 16—Sam Langford, of this city, and Battling Jim Johnson, of New York, both negro heavyweights, fought twelve rounds to a draw here last night. The bout was close throughout, with much infighting, neither man being able to obtain any advantage.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

LARGE SQUAD OUT FOR P. H. S. TEAM

Twenty-eight Candidates Answer First Call for Football Practice Yesterday.

In answer to Coach Ralph S. Patch's first call to arms, a squad of twenty-eight football warriors signified their intention of battling for Plainfield High School on the gridiron this season, by reporting for practice on Parker Field, yesterday afternoon. This is without doubt one of the largest squads that has ever answered the first call for candidates for the team. Out of this number there are eight veterans from last season, who should form an excellent foundation upon which to build a winning combination. Eight men reported for the backfield positions, three of whom were regulars last season. The rest of the squad will try for various positions along the line. The squad was started by learning the fundamentals of catching punts and running down the field under kicks. Coach Patch then picked two squads and ran them through a number of plays. The first squad was made up of H. Peacock and Noonan, ends; Berrien and Hand, tackles; Pennock and Follock, guards; Wheelan, centre; W. Peacock and Greene, halfbacks; Mutnick, fullback, and Rosenson, quarterback. The second squad consisted of Smith and Miller, ends; Grossett and Cottrell, tackles; Causbrook and Kingslowe, guards; Semer, centre; Daniels and Lindsey, halfbacks; Worden, fullback, and Alpaugn, quarterback.

Coach Patch then gave the candidates a short talk on the necessity of a strict routine of training. The practice came to a close by a run around the track.

The following men reported for practice yesterday afternoon: Greene, Mutnick, W. Peacock, Rosenson, Van Hoesen, Smith, Miller, H. Peacock, Semer, Wheelan, Grossett, Lindsey, Alpaugh, Starkweather, Noonan, Cottrell, Daniels, Kline, Davidson, Causbrook, Pennock, Pollock, Worden, Kingslowe, Carey, Berrien, Pierson and Herrman.

VANDEVENTER STILL HAS GOOD CHANCE

But Harold Throckmorton Was Defeated in the Fourth Round at Forest Hill.

Philip VanDeventer, of this city, paired with Harold Throckmorton, of Rahway, were defeated in the second round of the Junior Metropolitan Doubles Tennis Championship, which was played at Forest Hills, yesterday. The Rahway player was way off form, due to the fact that he had played a hard set of singles previously and the doubles match went to their opponents in straight sets.

At the start it looked as if Throckmorton, who is the New Jersey State junior tennis champion, could hold his own in the first set, but he and the local player were finally downed by the score of 8-6. Although they put up a strong bid for the next set that also went to their opponents by a score of 6-4. In the first round the New Jersey pair did not have to play, winning by default.

The great surprise of the day came when Throckmorton was defeated in the fourth round of the singles championships by a practically unknown player. The Rahway player was forced to the limit and after taking the second set, after his opponent had copped the first, he gave way in the third and was eliminated. The scores were 6-4, 1-6, 6-3. No one ever dreamed that Throckmorton, who was considered the favorite for the title, would lose yesterday and all expected to see him enter the finals. VanDeventer, who is still in the singles race, did not play his fourth round yesterday, but probably will today. With Throckmorton out of the way the local player has a fine chance to get to the finals as the Rahway player was considered the best in the tournament.

In the third round of the singles, G. Throckmorton, also of Rahway, was defeated in straight sets, 6-2 and 8-6, and in the first round of the doubles he and his partner were put out in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-2.

WILL YANKS PLAY GIANTS?

New York has no guarantee that it will see a post-season series between the American and National League clubs this fall in the event that the Giants do not figure in the world's championship. President Frank Farrell, of the New York Americans, said yesterday that no such attraction had been arranged. It was generally believed at the time the rivals first met in the fall of 1910 that an agreement had been drawn whereby the clubs were bound to participate in such exhibitions for a term of years provided the world's championships did not honor New York. Mr. Farrell says this is an erroneous impression.

LUYSTER AND BRUGGY WERE BIG FACTORS

Both Were Swatting Demons and Each Held Several Records for the Season.

From all reports of the scorer of the Lawrence club, of the New England League, Frank Bruggy and "Flick" Luyster, formerly members of the Plainfield baseball team, were the whole show this year and had the batting honors all to themselves. In this department Bruggy leads with a grand average of .314, while Luyster is a close second, although he has dropped off a lot in the last days of the schedule. However he redeemed himself in two other departments and Bruggy is forced to admit his superiority.

Luyster led in base hits with 132 to his credit and he also showed the way from third base to home plate, making 95 tallies during the season. But Bruggy again comes in for credit in the two-base hit department with 31 chalked up for him. In three-base hits he was tied for first with two other heavy hitters with 3 apiece.

Bruggy, of course, was the highest man of the Lawrence team in the batting standings of the entire league and he ranked sixth. He was the only .300 hitter on the team, Luyster being two points below that mark. The Lawrence team played the New London aggregation, winner of the Eastern Association, in the first game in the post-season series.

LOCAL TEAMS TAKE TWO MATCHES

Beers and Cochran, of P. C. C., Win Preliminary and First Round Sets.

Four matches were played in the second night's play of the night tennis toudnament now being held by the Westfield Golf Club on the club courts, last night. Only one Plainfield team got into action last night, but they won two matches and qualified for the second round. In the preliminaries, A. D. Beers and Henry J. Cochran, of the Plainfield Country Club, defeated K. G. Etearns and J. Potter, of the Westfield Golf Club, in two out of three sets, the scores being 4-6, 6-3 and 6-1. This was by far the best match of the evening and the local pair were forced to the limit after dropping the first set. In the third, however, they played their best and had an easy time dowing their opponents.

Beers and Cochran were again paired to play in the first round against the Brown brothers, of the Rutherford Tennis Club, and won that match in straight sets, the scores being 6-2 and 7-5. The first was easy, but their opponents gave the local pair some trouble in the second match and forced it to deuce. Beers' fierce service proved too much for his opponents.

The other preliminary match was played between the Brown brothers, of Rutherford, and Cowperwaite and Nelson, of the Westfield Golf Club, which was won by the former in straight sets, 9-7 and 6-2. In a first round match, T. Ernst and George Throckmorton, of the Sewaren Tennis Club, defeated C. H. Sisserson and W. Foster, of the Point o' Woods Tennis Club, in straight sets, 6-3, 7-5.

LUDLOW VANDEVENTER WINS MATCH OF FIRST ROUND

In the first round of the intercollegiate singles tennis championship, which is being played on the courts of the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, Pa., Ludlow VanDeventer, of this city, who is playing for Princeton, won his opening match in the first round, defeating Kennedy, of U. of P., in straight sets, the scores being 6-1, 6-3. The local player had no trouble at all in taking the two sets and will probably play his match of the second round today.

Four colleges are now out of the race for tennis honors, those being Penn, Cornell, Amherst and Dartmouth. None of the Cornell players appeared on the grounds at the starting time, and R. Norris Williams, 2d., national and intercollegiate champion, won his first match by default, being matched to play one of Cornell's entrants. Williams will probably have no trouble in defending his title and taking it back to Harvard for a year.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 69 degrees; 11 a. m., 80 degrees; 1 p. m., 84 degrees.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

Gibraltar Fire Resisting Paint

will spread farther and will last longer than other goods, and give you fire protection at no more cost.

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE

SOLE AGENTS

will give you an estimate on painting your home with these goods.

L. B. Woolston. H. F. Woolston

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE CO.

Painters and Decorators.

143-145 NORTH AVENUE.

Established 1880. 'Phone 108

4 28 tu-w tf

JAMES C. HANSEN

DECORATOR

DEALER IN

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, VARNISHES, Etc.

141 East Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

Fall Styles

Soft and Stiff Hats

Styles to Suit Everybody

$2.00 and $3.00

J. R. Blair

119 PARK AVE.

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES

AT

Leo Zeisel's

222 WEST FRONT STREET.

Next to Proctor's.

ESTATE OF Hugh Mulford Estill, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of Geo. T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the Twenty-fourth day of July, 1914, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

WILL F. WILLIAMS, Executor.

WINFIELD S. ANGLEMAN, Proctor.

7-29-9w Fees $1

—Try a Press want ad. It will bring results.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 820. Telephone 10-F-49.

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 118

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Construction of School Building.

The Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., will receive sealed bids at the Board room in the High School Building, corner West Ninth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at a meeting to be held on Monday, September 28, 1914, at 8 p. m., for the construction of a school building on Evergreen Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Plans and specifications are now on file at the High School Building, Plainfield, N. J., where they can be seen from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on week days, excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, until the day and hour of opening the bids as above mentioned.

Plans and specifications are also on file at the offices of the Architects, Wilder & White, 50 Church Street, New York City.

Copies of the Plans and Specifications may be obtained from the architects by depositing with the architects a certified check for $25.00, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., which will be returned upon the return of the drawings and specifications.

The work will be let in four contracts: 1. For the general construction. 2. For the heating and ventilating work. 3. For the plumbing work. 4. For the electrical work. And separate bids will be received on each contract.

All bids are to be on forms furnished with the specifications and accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., or a surety bond of a company authorized to do business in the State of New Jersey, in the amount of five per cent. of the estimate submitted.

All bids or proposals are to be in writing and sealed, and addressed to the Secretary of the Board. Each bid must state explicitly upon what portion of the work it is based.

Upon receipt of the bids, or proposals, the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce their contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

No bids will be received by the Board previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any or all formalities.

B. VAN D. HEDGES,
Secretary Board of Education.
Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 10, 1914.
9-11 12 14 16 18 21 23 25 28

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30 *11:15.
*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.
WEEK DAYS.
Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon. 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.
*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.
SUNDAYS.
Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.
Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 6:30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.
Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m. 5:00 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 3:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 3:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:30, 7:30, *11:30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.
*Saturday only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.
Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.
Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 8:15 a. m., bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.
SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.
Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.
SUNDAY ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130. Plainfield.

Hoagland's Express
FURNITURE AND
PIANO MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer. Aaron, newsdealer.

THREE GOOD PLAYERS LOST TO HOPE FIVE

Snyder, Heron and Doig, all Regulars Last Season, Will Not Be Able to Play.

Preliminary arrangements are being made by members of the Hope Chapel Young Men's Club for the coming basketball season. The Hope team is always recognized as one of the best in this city and last year took the measure of some of the fastest quintets in and around Newark and Elizabeth. Manager George Leighs, who has been the booker for the past two years, will call a meeting in the near future for all candidates who want to try for the team. It is expected that a large number will appear at practices and try for positions.

When the team takes the floor this season it will be minus three of the best players of last year's five, as Guy Snyder, a guard; Jim Doig, who played center, and Johnny Heron, will be among those absent. All three men will be greatly missed as they helped to form the machine that was the secret of the team's success last year. Heron was a fine forward and his shooting will be missed more than anything.

The Fourth street five will probably enter into a league of some sort with the Y. M. C. A. team as has been done for two years, as it is possible that a league may be started on a larger scale that will include six or eight teams of this vicinity and make it more interesting. A junior league has been under consideration, but several of the teams have backed out and it now looks as if that proposition would fall through.

DULL WEEK-END FOR LOCAL BASEBALL TEAMS

Present indications point to a dull week-end for baseball fans in this city, although one fine attraction has been arranged for that will probably draw a crowd. Only two games have so far been scheduled for Saturday, the Pet-Saurer battle at Parker Field and the Hope-Monroe fray at Clinton avenue.

On Sunday only one game has been booked, that being the Plainfield-St. Joseph's game at Bound Brook.

NEWKIRK LEFT SCHOOL.

Addison Newkirk, last year a substitue guard on the North Plainfield High School basketball team, will not return to school this term, as he has accepted a position at the Spicer Universal Joint Company's plant. He was a sophomore last year and was scheduled to hold down one of the guard positions on the basketball five this year, having been a good substitute last season.

—Your "business opportunity" ad will be read by people who never miss real chances for investments.

In Chancery of New Jersey.
To Israel Belowin and Mrs. Israel Belowin

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Sarah E. C. Atwood is complainant and you and Isadore Friedlander and The Plainfield Ice and Supply Company are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of complainant on or before the 14th day of October, Nineteen hundred and fourteen, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage given by Isadore Friedlander and Tillie his wife and Harry Gordon and Fannie his wife, to the said Sarah E. C. Atwood, dated January 16, 1913, on lands in the city of Plainfield, New Jersey, and you the said Israel Belowin are made a defendant because you are the owner of said mortgaged premises and you the said Mrs. Israel Belowin are made a defendant because you are the wife of said Israel Belowin and entitled to an inchoate right of dower in said lands or some part thereof.

Dated August 13, 1914.
WM. M. STILLMAN,
Solicitor for Complainant.
212 W. Front St.,
Plainfield, New Jersey.
8-19-5-W

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To Israel Belowin and Mrs. Israel Belowin:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein The Board of Trustees of the Seventh-Day Baptist Memorial Fund is complainant and you and Isadore Friedlander and The Plainfield Ice and Supply Company are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of complainant on or before the fourth day of November, Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage given by Isadore Friedlander, and Tillie, his wife, to the said The Board of Trustees of the Seventh-Day Baptist Memorial Fund, dated May 1, 1913, on lands in the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, and you, the said Israel Belowin, are made a defendant because you are the owner of said mortgaged premises, and you, the said Mrs. Israel Belowin, are made a defendant because you are the wife of said Israel Belowin and entitled to an inchoate right of dower in said lands or some part thereof.

Dated September 3, 1914.
WM. M. STILLMAN, Sol'r for Compl't.
212 West Front Street,
Plainfield, New Jersey.
9 9 5-w

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals for the construction of an extension of about 600 feet of concrete storm sewer connecting with present storm sewer at Duer Street and extending to the N. E. side line of Somerset Street, will be received by the Mayor of the Borough of North Plainfield, N. J., at the Council Rooms, North Plainfield, September 21, 1914, at 8 p. m.

Proposals must be made upon the forms provided and be accompanied by a certified check for One Hundred ($100) Dollars made payable to the order of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield.

Plans and specifications are on file and may be examined; and information and blank forms obtained at the office of the Borough Engineer, No. 149 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

A bond with approved surety in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars will be required of the successful bidder.

CHARLES DOLLIVER,
Borough Clerk.
Dated September 11, 1914.
9-12 16 18

MONARCHS OF DUNELLEN WANT TO SCHEDULE FOOTBALL GAMES

The Monarchs, representing the First Presbyterian church of Dunellen, would like to arrange a game of football with teams of High School strength, also with other church clubs averaging 130 pounds. Communicate with Allen M. Frederick, manager, Monarch football team, 227 Dunellen avenue, Dunellen, N. J. Games to be played on Saturday afternoons. Election Day and Thanksgiving Day open.

MRS. H .R. STOCKTON SCORES IN NATIONAL GOLF TOURNEY

Mrs. H. R. Stockton, of this city, who is competing in the Woman's National Golf Championship at the Nassau course, won her match in the first round of play, yesterday, but it required two extra holes for the decision. Her opponent was Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, of Huntington Valley, and she forced the local woman to the limit and tied the score in the last few strokes. At the end of the twentieth hole Mrs. Stockton was 1 up.

Miss Bertha Stratton, of Cranford, was beaten by Mrs. Isaac Harter, of Richmond County, in an extra hole match. They played nineteen holes and at the end Miss Stratton's opponent was 1 up. Mrs. Stockton will probably play her second round match today.

HOPE AND MONROE TEAMS TO PLAY DECIDING BATTLE

Hope Chapel and Monroe ballists will meet once more this season when they play the third game of the post-season series on the Clinton avenue field next Saturday afternoon. Both of the other games have been close and exciting and the deciding one will probably be all the more so as both aggregations are aching to tuck the series away.

The first game went to the Monroe nine by a 3 to 2 score and the game last Saturday ended in a dispute with the score tied, but the Fourth street club rightly claimed a victory. After a consultation the two managers agreed to play the deciding game this week. The same players will be used as in the previous games and Schott will again appose Brick on the mound. The game will start at 3:30.

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

One of the season's offerings and one that will surely win for itself a prominent place in the foremost rank of colored musical comedies of the day is the Black Patti Musical Comedy Co. presenting a musical hit entitled, "Lucky Sam from Alabam'," which will play an engagement at the Plainfield Theatre tomorrow, matinee and night. Those acquainted with colored shows will at once understand that a good time is in contemplation, and the eminence of Mme. Sissieretta Jones, the original "Black Patti," the greatest singer of the colored race, and Harrison Stewart, the funniest of the funny, who have been entrusted with the leading parts of the captivating comedy, allows no room for doubt as to the success that will attend their efforts when combined with the unusually funny scenes and situations, bright dialogue, catchy music, singing and dancing which will predominate with "Lucky Sam from Alabam'."

"Peg O' My Heart," which met with great success last season, will again appear at the Plainfield Theatre this afternoon and evening. The scenes are laid in England, where resides Mrs. Chichester, her daughter, Ethel, and son, Alaric, of unquestioned social position and friends with the aristocracy of England, who are dumbfounded on a June morning to learn they have been reduced from affluence to direct poverty by a failure of a London bank. They are of the type of snobs to whom loss of wealth means social ostracism. While her mother and children are talking over their misfortune, comes a poor, forlorn red-headed, elfinish, chit of a girl; her clothes are worse than shabby, she carries a dilapidated telescope suit case, several bundles from whose wrappings more than peek the contents and a mongrel cur. Without a word the child enters the handsomely furnished living room, through a French window in time to see a married man attempt to kiss Ethel during a vehement love scene. Miss Chichester discovers the intruder, demands why she is there and orders her to the kitchen, with the remark "we need no additional servants, but you can get something to eat." The little girl picks up her belongings and departs, to be followed by a London solicitor named Hawks, who informs Mrs. Chichester that her brother, Nathanial, is dead, leaving a fortune and a peculiar will.

—You may have an immediate task for a want ad—and yet not act wisely in failing to read them every day.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

POLITICAL NOTES.

With primary less than a week off, the rank and file of the voters are looking over their sample ballots and taking more than a passing interest in the trend of events. The fact that Plainfield has several candidates in the field looking for the nomination for several offices has increased the interest at this end of the county.

Samuel P. T. Wilbur and John H. Cose, aspirants for the nomination for sheriff on the Republican ticket, have been campaigning nip and tuck for some time in various parts of the county. In this city, both candidates have a large following, and the local vote will undoubtedly be split.

Local Democrats are putting forth a fairly solid front for candidates of that party from this city. Surely something more than the State Senatorship should come to this city with the array of talent which the followers of Jefferson are putting forth.

Little or no interest is being taken in the Progressive primary throughout this county owing to the lack of contests for the various nominations. The ballot boxes of this party at the primary, as will be those of the Socialist party, will be practically valueless next Tuesday, unless the local Progressives should get together for a local ticket, which, aparently, is improbable at this time.

As time goes by, it becomes apparent that many wise changes should be made in the Geran laws. It is a recognized waste of money in some districts of this city to send out anywhere from 150 to 550 sample Socialist ballots and have but one or two, and in some cases, no ballot be cast in the party box at the primaries.

While a large number of candidats from various parts of the county have been reported to have visited this city in their interests as candidates for the nominations, how very few, comparatively speaking, of the voters have come into contact with these men. No doubt they have met many, but ninety-nine per cent. of that number were already with them in the fight, those being opposed or on the fence, waiting for the opportunity to meet these men having been passed up. This condition is due to the fact that their coming has been unheralded, and those desiring to meet the candidates had no central place to gather. May this condition be rectified by another year.

For those who believe that the Maine elections are a criterion for all that is to happen in politics, the following on the vote cast for the various candidates for governor in that State, this year, as well as the vote for President in 1912, is interesting. The reader may drawn his own conclusions: Haines (Republican), 58,379; Curtis (Democrat), 61,794; Gardner (Progressive), 17,736; Taft (Republican, 26,121; Wilson (Democrat), 50,451; Roosevelt (Progressive), 47,904.

Not a cent has been expended by Representative William E. Tuttle, Jr., in his candidacy for a renomination on the Democratic ticket. Thomas J. Pierson has spent $129.25 in his primary campaign against Mr. Tuttle. The three Repuublican candidates, Messrs. Fowler, Stuchell and Capstick, up to noon yesterday had not filed their statements, while there was also no report from George W. V. Moy, the Progressive candidate, or from the Prohibition or Socialist candidates. The Federal law requiring that Congressional candidates file primary expense statements with the clerk of the House of Representatives, fixed yesterday noon as the time limit for doing this. The only heavy outlay shown in any of the Jersey districts up to that time, was the Ninth, where former Congressman R. Wayne Parker, Republican, had spent $1,775 in an effort to "come back." It is said that the majority of New Jersey's seventy-five primary candidates had failed to comply with the expense filing up to noon. South Trimble, clerk of the House, declared, however, that he would accept statements mailed yesterday.

Scores of politicians will swap gossip at the Trenton State Fair, September 28 to October 2. The fair will be going on September 29, the day when the Democrats, Republicans and Progressives hold their State conventions in Trenton.

Governor Fielder will move from Sea Girt this week and reopen his Jersey City home. This means that the Governor will be in Jersey City most of the time and take trips to Trenton, Tuesdays and Fridays.

Reports from various sections of the State show that there has been an unusually large registration this year. In some parts of the State, particularly North Jersey, the figures show that the registration is the heaviest ever known. In South Jersey, too, the general report is that the registration is large. The large registration is due, State political leaders say, to the big issues which are involved in the Congressional campaign and to the unusual activity in the various county campaigns, as is evidenced by the great number of candidates who are running for the several nominations.

—Is not one of the problems facing you at the present moment a want ad problem?

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.
Broadway and Ninth, New York

The John Wanamaker Store

Store Opens at 8:30
Closes at 5:30 P. M.

Making Good Our Word--the French Steamer "Flandre" Brings the Remaining

Ninety-Nine New Paris Gowns and Wraps

That Were Unfinished When We Brought Through the War Lines the First Paris Fashions to Reach America

Exhibition in the Wanamaker Auditorium
Thursday, Friday, Saturday of this Week, at 11 and 2:30

The entire purchase, as announced, was 200 garments.

On August 27 we placed on exhibition 71.

Now we have 99 more—a total of 170. Thirty are yet to come, if the ateliers can finish and ship them.

When we brought through the French pickets by automobile and hurried them over on La France some weeks ago, the first Paris fashions to reach America since the war, the report of a woman's daring and achievement started fashion reverberations that reached 'round the world.

Newspapers and magazines from New York to San Francisco took up the story. Correspondents forwarded the news to their periodicals abroad.

Merchants from many cities, including New York, sent their representatives to procure some of the gowns.

Manufacturers begged permission to copy the models.

Fashion artists sought their inspiration.

Now We Have These 99 Brand-New Original Paris Models

These models differ from any that have been exhibited. They are fresh from the ateliers. They left Paris this month, September.

They are, therefore, like their predecessors, the very latest fashions out of Paris.

Instead of selling these models privately to dressmakers, manufacturers, and storekeepers from this and other cities, as we easily could, we shall widen the circle as far as possible and show them openly in the Auditorium so that everyone may see what Paris is doing.

If anyone desires to copy these models and can show good reason for so doing it may be arranged in our Fashion Salons in consultation with our Fashion Chief.

The store is larger even than its own clientele. We put no patents on our secrets. It is sufficient for us to have enterprise and leadership.

The Wanamaker Auditorium Has Become the Center of Fashion in America

Theo. Haviland Dinner Sets, 108 Pieces, for $18.50 in the CHINA SALE

It has a fine spray design. Handles are gold stippled. Bread and butter plates and three other sizes of plates, 3 meat dishes and 4 vegetable dishes—2 covered—are included in each set.

Its regular price—here—is $32.50

Two Other Sets at $35

For which we regularly charge $50.

One set of 108 pieces, spray design, heavy gold line on every piece, handles gold stippled with 4 size plates and 3 meat dishes.

The other 100 pieces, gold lined, stippled gold handles, 3 sizes plates, 3 meat dishes and soup tureen.

A Vignaud Dinner Set, $25

If bought for regular stocks we couldn't get it to sell for less than $40.

100 pieces, 3 border decorations, heavily gilt, 3 size plates—including bread and butter plates—4 meat dishes and 4 vegetable dishes—2 covered.

A Pouyat Dinner Set, $30

Our year 'round $47.50 quality.

100 pieces, fine border design, heavily gilt, 4 sizes plates, 4 meat dishes and 4 vegetable dishes—2 covered.

Inexpensive Imported China Which Is Going Up in Price

Cups and saucers, 25c.
Tea plates, 12c
Bread and butter plates, 10c.
Cake plates, 25c.
Salad bowls, 30c.
Chop dishes, 75c.
Tea pots, 40c.
Sugar and cream sets, 35c.

Second Gallery, New Building.

Two More Carloads of White Mountain Refrigerators

Reinforce the September Sale of Housewares

So quickly did a previous carload disappear from our floors that the arrival of these is most opportune.

White Mountain refrigerators are all that good refrigerators should be; they are practical, safe and sanitary. And their regular prices are very moderate.

In the September Sale of Wanamaker Housewares they are marked at twenty-five per cent. less than regular prices.

Cases made of ash, golden oak finish, solid bronze hardware—some nickel plated—woven wire shelves, baked enamel provision chambers. Ice chamber heavy galvanized steel—removable side flues and waste pipe.

Three and Four Door Front Icing Style

Length	Depth	Height	Capacity	Sale Price	Reg'ly
35-in.	23-in.	48-in.	125 lbs.	$25.00	$34.25
41-in.	24-in.	50-in.	175 lbs.	$30.00	$38.75

Lift Cover Style

Removable ice chamber.

Length	Depth	Height	Capacity	Sale Price	Reg'ly
27-in.	21-in.	45-in.	75 lbs.	$15.00	$23.50
30-in.	22-in.	47-in.	100 lbs.	$17.50	$26.75
33-in.	23-in.	49-in.	125 lb.	$20.00	$29.50

Apartment House Style

Front icing door—one large provision door.

Length	Depth	Height	Capacity	Sale Price	Reg'ly
27-in.	20-in.	57-in.	110 lbs.	$20.00	$31.75

Subway floor, New Building.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER VI.

The Dikes Blown Up.

"WE had cursed our luck," says Barnet, "that we could not get to our quarters at Alkmaar that night. There, we were told, were provisions, tobacco and everything for which we craved. But the main canal from Zaandam and Amsterdam was hopelessly jammed with craft, and we were glad of a chance opening that enabled us to get out of the main column and lie up in a kind of little harbor very much neglected and weed grown before a deserted house. We broke into this and found some herrings in a barrel, a heap of cheeses and stone bottles of gin in the cellar, and with this I cheered my starving men. We made fires and toasted the cheese and grilled our herrings. None of us had slept for nearly forty hours, and I determined to stay in this refuge until dawn, and then, if the traffic was still choked, leave the barge and march the rest of the way into Alkmaar.

"This place we had got into was perhaps a hundred yards from the canal, and underneath a little brick bridge we could see the flotilla still and hear the voices of the soldiers. Presently five or six other barges came through and lay up in the mere near by us, and with two of these full of men of the Antrim regiment I shared my find of provisions. In return we got tobacco. A large expanse of water spread to the westward of us, and beyond were a cluster of roofs and one or two church towers. The barge was rather cramped for so many men, and I let several squads, thirty or forty perhaps altogether, bivouac on the bank. I did not let them go into the house on account of the furniture, and I left a note of indebtedness for the food we had taken. We were particularly glad of our tobacco and fires because of the numerous mosquitoes that rose about us.

"The gate of the house from which we had provisioned ourselves was adorned with the legend 'Vreugde bij vrede' ('Joy with peace'), and it bore every mark of the busy retirement of a comfort loving proprietor. I went along his garden, which was gay and delightful with big bushes of rose and sweetbrier, to a quaint little summer house, and there I sat and watched the men in groups cooking and squatting along the bank. The sun was setting in a nearly cloudless sky.

"For the last two weeks I had been a wholly occupied man, intent only upon obeying the orders that came down to me. All through this time I had been working to the very limit of my mental and physical faculties and my only moments of rest had been devoted to snatches of sleep. Now came this rare, unexpected interlude and I could look detachedly upon what I was doing and feel something of its infinite wonderfulness. I was irradiated with affection for the men of my company and with admiration at their cheerful acquiescence in the subordination and needs of our position. I watched their proceedings and heard their pleasant voices. How willing those men were! How ready to accept leadership and forget themselves in collective ends! I thought how manfully they had gone through all the strain and toil of the last two weeks, how they had toughened and shaken down to comradeship together and how much sweetness there is after all in our foolish human blood. For they were just one casual sample of the species—their patience and readiness lay, as the energy of the atom had lain, still waiting to be properly utilized. Again it came to me with overpowering force that the supreme need of our race is leading, that the supreme task is to discover leading, to forget oneself in realizing the collective purpose of the race. Once more I saw life plain."

Very characteristic is that of the "rather too corpulent" young officer, who was afterward to set it all down in the "Wander Jahre." Very characteristic, too, it is of the change in men's hearts that was even then preparing a new phase of human history.

He goes on to write of the escape from individuality in science and service and of his discovery of this "salvation." All that was then no doubt very moving and original; now it seems only the most obvious commonplace of human life.

"The glow of the sunset faded, the twilight deepened into night. The fires burnt the brighter, and some Irishmen away across the mere started singing. But Barnet's men were too weary for that sort of thing, and soon the bank and the barge were heaped with sleeping forms.

"I alone seemed unable to sleep. I suppose I was overweary, and after a little feverish slumber by the tiller of the barge I sat up, awake and uneasy.

"That night Holland seemed all sky. There was just a little black lower rim to things, a steeple perhaps or a line of poplars, and then the great hemisphere swept over us. And at first the sky was empty. Yet my uneasiness referred itself in some vague way to the sky.

"And now I was melancholy. I found something strangely sorrowful and submissive in the sleepers all about me, those men who had marched so far, who had left all the established texture of their lives behind them to come upon this mad campaign, this campaign that signified nothing and consumed everything, this mere fever of fighting. I saw how little and feeble is the life of man, a thing of chances, preposterously unable to find the will to realize even the most timid of its dreams. And I wondered if always it would be so. If man was a doomed animal who would never to the last days of his time take hold of fate and change it to his will. Always, it may be, he will remain kindly but jealous, desirous but discursive, able and unwisely impulsive, until Saturn who begot him shall devour him in his turn.

"I was roused from these thoughts by the sudden realization of the presence of a squadron of aeroplanes far away to the northeast and very high. They looked like little black dashes against the midnight blue. I remember that I looked up at them at first rather idly—as one might notice a flight of birds. Then I perceived that they were only the extreme wing of a great fleet that was advancing in a long line very swiftly from the direction of the frontier and my attention tightened.

"Directly I saw that fleet I was astonished not to have seen it before.

"I stood up softly, undesirous of disturbing my companions, but with my heart beating now rather more rapidly with surprise and excitement. I strained my ears for any sound of guns along our front. Almost instinctively I turned about for protection to the south and west and peered, and then I saw coming as fast and much nearer to me, as if they had sprung out of the darkness, three banks of aeroplanes, a group of squadrons very high, a main body at a height perhaps of one or two thousand feet, and a doubtful number flying low and very indistinct. The middle ones were so thick they kept putting out groups of stars. And I realized that, after all, there was to be fighting in the air.

"There was something extraordinarly strange in this swift, noiseless convergence of nearly invisible combatants above the sleeping hosts. Every one about me was still unconscious. There was no sign as yet of any agitation among the shipping on the main canal, whose whole course, dotted with unsuspicious lights and fringed with fires, must have been clearly perceptible from above. Then a long way off toward Alkmaar I heard bugles, and after that shots, and then a wild clamor of bells. I determined to let my men sleep on for as long as they could.

"The battle was joined with the swiftness of dreaming. I do not think it can have been five minutes from the moment when I first became aware of the central European air fleet to the contact of the two forces. I saw it quite plainly in silhouette against the luminous blue of the northern sky. The allied aeroplanes—they were mostly French—came pouring down like a fierce shower upon the middle of the central European fleet. They looked exactly like a coarser sort of rain. There was a crackling sound—the first sound I heard. It reminded one of the aurora borealis, and I suppose it was an interchange of rifle shots. There were flashes like summer lightning, and then all the sky became a whirling confusion of battle that was still largely noiseless. Some of the central European aeroplanes were certainly charged and overset; others seemed to collapse and fall and then flare out with so bright a light that it took the edge off one's vision and made the rest of the battle disappear as though it had been snatched back out of sight.

"And then while I still peered and tried to shade these flames from my eyes with my hand and while the men about me were beginning to stir the atomic bombs were thrown at the dikes. They made a mighty thunder in the air and fell like Lucifer in the picture, leaving a flaring trail in the sky. The night, which had been pellucid and detailed and eventful, seemed to vanish, to be replaced abruptly by a black background to these tremendous pillars of fire.

"Hard upon the sound of them came a roaring wind, and the sky was filled with flickering lightnings and rushing clouds.

"There was something discontinuous in this impact. At one moment I was a lonely watcher in a sleeping world; the next saw every one about me afoot, the whole world awake and amazed.

"And then the wind had struck me a buffet, taken my helmet and swept aside the summer house of Vreugde bij vrede as a scythe sweeps away grass. I saw the bombs fall and then watched a great crimson flare leap responsive to each impact and mountainous masses of red lit steam and flying fragments clamber up toward the zenith. Against the glare I saw the countryside for miles standing black and clear, churches, trees, chimneys. And suddenly I understood. The central Europeans had burst the dikes. Those flares meant the bursting of the dikes and in a little while the sea water would be upon us."

He goes on to tell with a certain prolixity of the steps he took—and, all things considered, they were very intelligent steps—to meet this amazing crisis. He got his men aboard and hailed the adjacent barges; he got the man who acted as barge engineer at his post and the engines working; he cast loose from his moorings. Then he bethought himself of food and contrived to land five men, get in a few dozen cheeses and ship his men again before the inundation reached them.

He is reasonably proud of this piece of coolness. His idea was to take the wave head-on and with his engines full speed ahead. And all the while he was thanking heaven he was not in the jam of traffic in the main canal. He rather, I think, overestimated the probable rush of waters; he dreaded being swept away, he explains, and smashed against houses and trees.

He does not give any estimate of the time it took between the bursting of the dike and the arrival of the waters, but it was probably an interval of about twenty minutes or half an hour. He was working now in darkness—save for the light of his lantern—and in a great wind. He hung out head and stern lights.

Whirling torrents of steam were pouring up from the advancing waters, which had rushed, it must be remembered, through nearly incandescent gaps in the sea defenses, and this vast uprush of vapor soon veiled the flaring centers of explosion altogether.

"The waters came at last, an advancing cascade. It was like a broad roller sweeping across the country. They came with a deep roaring sound. I had expected a Niagara, but the total fall of the front could not have been much more than twelve feet. Our barge hesitated for a moment, took a dose over her bows and then lifted. I signaled for full speed ahead and brought her head upstream and held on like grim death to keep her there.

"There was a wind about as strong as the flood, and I found we were pounding against every conceivable buoyant object that had been between us and the sea. The only light in the world now came from our lamps, the steam became impenetrable at a score of yards from the boat, and the roar of the wind and water cut us off from all remoter sounds. The black shining waters swirled by, coming into the light of our lamps out of an ebony blackness and vanishing again into impenetrable black. And on the waters came shapes, came things that flashed upon us for a moment, now a half submerged boat, now a cow, now a huge fragment of a house's timberings, now a muddle of packing cases and scaffolding. The things clapped into sight like something shown by the opening of a shutter and then bumped shatteringly against us or rushed by us. Once I saw very clearly a man's white face. All the while a group of laboring, half submerged trees remained ahead of us, drawing very slowly nearer. I steered a course to avoid them. They seemed to gesticulate a frantic despair against the black steam clouds behind. Once a great branch detached itself and fore shuddering by me. We did on the whole make headway. The last I saw of Vreugde bij vrede before the night swallowed it was almost dead astern of us.

Morning found Barnet still afloat. The bows of his barge had been badly strained, and his men were pumping or baling in relays. He got about a dozen half drowned people aboard whose boat had capsized near him, and he had three other boats in tow. He was afloat and somewhere between Amsterdam and Alkmaar, but he could not tell where. It was a day that was still half night. Gray waters stretched in every direction under a dark gray sky, and out of the waves rose the upper part of houses, in many cases ruined, the tops of trees, windmills—in fact, the upper third of all the familiar Dutch scenery—and on it there drifted a dimly seen flotilla of barges, small boats, many overturned, furniture, rafts, timbering and miscellaneous objects.

The drowned were under water that morning. Only here and there did a dead cow or a stiff figure still clinging stoutly to a box or chair or suchlike buoy hint at the hidden massacre. It was not till the Thursday that the dead came to the surface in any quantity. The view was bounded on every side by a gray mist that closed overhead in a gray canopy. The air cleared in the afternoon, and then, far away to the west under great banks of steam and dust, the flaming red eruption of the atomic bombs became visible across the waste of water.

They showed flat and sullen through the mist, like London sunsets. "They sat upon the sea," says Barnet, "like frayed out water lilies of flame."

Barnet seems to have spent the morning in rescue work along the track of the canal, in helping people who were adrift, in picking up derelict boats and in taking people out of imperiled houses. He found other military barges similarly employed, and it was only as the day wore on and the immediate appeals for aid were satisfied that he thought of food and drink for his men and what course he had better pursue. They had a little cheese, but no water. "Orders," that mysterious direction, had at last altogether disappeared. He perceived he had now to act upon his own responsibility.

"One's sense was of a destruction so farreaching and of a world so altered that it seemed foolish to go in any direction and expect to find things as they had been before the war began. I sat on the quarter deck with Mylius, my engineer, and Kemp and two others of the noncommissioned officers, and we consulted upon our line of action. We were foodless and aimless. We agreed that our fighting value was extremely small and that our first duty was to get ourselves in touch with food and instructions again. Whatever plan of campaign had directed our movements was manifestly smashed to bits. Mylius was of opinion that we could take a line westward and get back to England across the North sea. He calculated that with such a motor barge as ours it would be possible to reach the Yorkshire coast within four and twenty hours. But this idea I overruled because of the shortness of our provisions and more particularly because of our urgent need of water.

"Every boat we drew near now hailed us for water, and their demands did much to exasperate our thirst. I decided that if we went away to the south we should reach hilly country or at least country that was not submerged, and then we should be able to land, find some stream, drink and get supplies and news. Many of the barges adrift in the haze about us were filled with British soldiers and had floated up from the Nord See canal, but none of them was any better informed than ourselves of the course of events. 'Orders' had, in fact, vanished out of the sky."

"Orders" made a temporary reappearance late that evening in the form of a megaphone hail from a British torpedo boat, announcing a truce, and giving the welcome information that food and water were being hurried down the Rhine and were to be found on the barge flotilla lying over the Old Rhine above Leiden.

We will not follow Barnet, however, in the description of his strange overland voyage among trees and houses and churches by Zaandam and between Haarlem and Amsterdam to Leiden. It was a voyage in a red lit mist, in a world of steamy silhouette, full of strange voices and perplexity and with every other sensation dominated by a feverish thirst. "We sat," he says, "in a little huddled group, saying very little, and the men forward were mere knots of silent endurance. Our only continuing sound was the persistent mewing of a cat one of the men had rescued from a floating hayrick near Zaandam. We kept a southward course by a watch chain compass Mylius had produced.

"I do not think any of us felt we belonged to a defeated army, nor had we any strong sense of the war as the dominating fact about us. Our mental setting had far more of the effect of a huge natural catastrophe. The atomic bomb had dwarfed the international issues to complete insignificance. When our mind wandered from the preoccupations of our immediate needs we speculated upon the possibility of stopping the use of these frightful explosives before the world was utterly destroyed, for to us it seemed quite plain that these bombs and the still greater power of destruction of which they were the precursors might quite easily shatter every relationship and institution of mankind.

"'What will they be doing?' asked Mylius. 'What will they be doing? It's plain we've got to put an end to war. It's plain things have to be run some other way. This—all this—is impossible.'

"I made no immediate answer. Something—I cannot think what—had brought back to me the figure of that man I had seen wounded on the very first day of actual fighting. I saw again his angry, tearful eyes and that poor, dripping, bloody mess that had been a skillful human hand five minutes before, thrust out in indignant protest. 'D——d foolery!' he had stormed and sobbed. 'D——d foolery! My right hand, sir; my right hand!'

"My faith had for a time gone altogether out of me. 'I think we are too—too silly,' I said to Mylius, 'ever to stop war. If we'd had the sense to do it we should have done it before this. I think this'—and I pointed to the gaunt outline of a smashed windmill that stuck up, ridiculous and ugly, above the blood lit waves—'this is the end.'"

But now our history must part company with Frederick Barnet and his barge load of hungry and starving men.

For a time in western Europe at least it was indeed as if civilization had come to a final collapse. These crowning buds upon the tradition that Napoleon planted and Bismarck watered opened and flared "like water lilies of flame" over nations destroyed, over churches smashed or submerged, towns ruined, fields lost to mankind forever and a million weltering bodies. Was this lesson enough for mankind or would the flames of war still burn amidst the ruins?

Neither Barnet nor his companions, it is clear, had any assurance in their answers to that question. Already once in the history of mankind in America, before its discovery by the whites, an organized civilization had given way to a mere cult of warfare, specialized and cruel, and it seemed for a time to many a thoughtful man as if the whole world was but to repeat on a larger scale this ascendancy of the warrior, this triumph of the destructive instincts of the race.

The subsequent chapters of Barnet's narrative do but supply body to this tragic possibility. He gives a series of vignettes of civilization shattered, it seemed, almost irreparably. He found the Belgian hills swarming with refugees and desolated by cholera, the vestiges of the contending armies keeping order under a truce—without actual battles, but with the cautious hostility of habit and a great absence of plan everywhere.

Overhead aeroplanes went on mysterious errands, and there were rumors of cannibalism and hysterical fanaticisms in the valleys of the Semoy and the forest region of the eastern Ardennes. There was the report of an attack upon Russia by the Chinese and Japanese and of some huge revolutionary outbreak in America. The weather was stormier than men had ever known it in those regions, with much thunder and lightning and wild cloudbursts of rain.

(To be continued.)

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

RITZ Inc.
BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

Some Cookery Suggestions

SALADS OF THE SEASON.

ENDIVE can be used in a salad, but it is much stronger than lettuce and should not be combined with so many other vegetables. When making the successful salad sometimes one dressing, sometimes another, sometimes one garnish and sometimes one flavor is wanted. The same dressing, garnish and flavor cannot be used with every summer salad.

Novelty Salad.

Stuffed Tomato Salad.—Scoop out the centers of even, firm and not very large ripe tomatoes. Leave the top cut off for a cover. Dice the firm pulp, removing some of the seeds, and mix it with chopped olives and mayonnaise dressing. Put a tablespoonful of the mixture in each tomato and replace the covers. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

Egg Salad.—This is made with hard boiled eggs—six of them—cut in quarters and arranged on lettuce leaves. Sprinkle these with French dressing and garnish with parsley. Boil hard two more eggs, chop the whites and rub the yolks through a sieve. Sprinkle this egg garnish over the whole salad. A little onion juice can be added to the French dressing if onion flavor is desired.

A Delicious Combination.

Cauliflower and Asparagus Salad.—Cauliflower and asparagus can be used for salad. Both vegetables should be cooked tender and should be very cold. Separate the cauliflower into little heads. Arrange the asparagus tips in the center of a salad bowl carefully, so that they are not broken, and surround them with the cauliflower heads. Sprinkle chopped parsley and French dressing over all and set in the refrigerator to become chilled through before serving. This salad depends for its delicacy on the daintiness of the vegetables and in having them chilled.

Cheese Ball Salad.—Press balls of cream cheese between English walnuts, and serve three or four of these balls on lettuce leaves with French dressing.

For another chop large olives and mix with cream cheese, moisten with French dressing, mold into balls and serve on lettuce.

For still another, make balls of the cheese, roll them in minced parsley and serve them, with toasted wafers, on plain lettuce dressed with French dressing.

Anna Thompson.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — How the Chipmunk Got The Peanut.

He Seemed Surprised When He Couldn't Pick It Up.

"HOW is this, sonny?" asked daddy as Jack and Evelyn stood at his knee and clamored for a story. "I see that you didn't pull those weeds that I asked you to pull."

"Oh," cried Jack, "it was awful hard work, and I was tired! Tell us our story, daddy," he coaxed.

"Very well, sonny; I'll tell a story just to you tonight. Once upon a time a chipmunk lived in a wood. Near the edge of the wood was a big white farmhouse in which lived a little girl and boy.

"The chipmunk grew very tame and used to run right up on the piazza and there he would sit up on his haunches and beg, with his little black nose all wrinkly and his little black eyes all twinkly.

"He would pick up the peanuts thrown to him and stuff them into the pouches at each side of his cheeks till you'd think the little fellow would have burst his face. One of the children said to her mamma, 'But won't he make himself sick eating so much at a time?' 'Oh, he doesn't eat them!' her mother replied. 'He stores them away in a secret place in the woods for the winter.'

"Now, what do you think, children? That chipmunk grew so tame that he would take peanuts out of those children's hands or he would climb into their pockets for them or even take the nuts away when they held them between their teeth.

"He was pretty saucy, too, and when one of the children would hang on to the peanut, as they did sometimes, and wouldn't give it to him he would chatter away angrily and nip his tormentor's fingers with his little sharp teeth till they were glad to let go.

"But the children's daddy enjoyed a joke. So he said one day, 'I'll give this chipmunk something to do.' He took a peanut and drove tacks around it to hold it down to the floor, and all over it he wound string and tied it to the tacks. Then they all waited to see what the chipmunk would do.

"Before long up came the chipmunk and saw that peanut laying on the floor. He seemed surprised when he couldn't pick it up and looked it all over, with his head on one side like a bird. Then he carefully bit all the string away, but still he couldn't get the nut. And what do you think he did? Why, he broke the shell and took out the meat and put it in his pouch and carried it away.

"Now, don't you kiddies think that chipmunk was pretty persevering? And, Jack, don't you think you can keep right on pulling weeds even if it is a little tiresome?"

HEADACHE STOPS, NEURALGIA GONE

Dr. James' Headache Powders give instant relief—Cost dime a package.

Nerve-racking, splitting or dull, throbbing headaches yield in just a few moments to Dr. James' Headache Powders which cost only 10 cents a package at any drug store. It's the quickest, surest headache relief in the whole world. Don't suffer! Relieve the agony and distress now! You can. Millions of men and women have found that headache and neuralgia misery is needless. Get what you ask for.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5:08, 5:40, (5:52 except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22, (7:28 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:55 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:30, 8:36, 8:42, 8:59, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:13, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12, 4:01, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:56, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:44, 10:37, 11:52 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:15, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 5:57, 7:14, 8:13, 8:27, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27,. (7:05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:37 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For East Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m.; 2:00, 2:26, 5:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m.; 1:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m.; 2:26, 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19, 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3:41, 8:12, 8:36, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only), (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:01, 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—7:58, 8:52 a. m., (9.40 Red Bank only), 2:15, 3:17, 8:35, 10:21 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 3:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m. 1:28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43 11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:12, 6:44 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday—5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:33, 10:43, 11:41 a. m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:39, 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m., 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8:45, 10:43 a. m., 12:42, 2:45, 6:44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 6-4-14

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1934.
OPP. DEPOT.

805 North Avenue. Telephone 296-W.
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference
6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue
Will be re-opened September
A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.
MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades. Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades. General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.
Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

SECRETARIAL
ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At
HERR'S SCHOOL
(Plainfield Business College and School of English)
"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to. Call, 'Phone or Write
PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal.
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.
m-w-f

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT
SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914.
Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION
GEO. C. M. SMITH
Tenth Season
51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.
9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and papered through out. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

PHONE YOUR ADS 1 3 0 ONE CENT A WORD

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
OPPOSE PLANS FOR STREET PA
MACADAM PREFERRED
TROPHY NIGHT AT PHONE CLUB
CELEBRATION PLANNED
LEFT ALL TO A FRIEND
ATTENDANCE FIGURES
BOY STRUCK BY CAR
PLAINFIELD
FLYNN IS MADE POLICE CAPTAIN
THE COUNCIL CONFIRMS

SCOOP, THE CUB REPORTER — A BRAND NEW ARMY IN THE WAR — BY "HOP"

TO VIEW THE REMAINS.

Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, will meet at its clubhouse on West Front street at 7:30 o'clock this evening, and proceed to St. Joseph's church, where the body of Father William H. Miller is lying in state. The Watchung Assembly, Fourth Degree, will meet in full regalia at the church tonight, to act as a guard of honor.

—It pays to see the advertising columns of The Press.

UP THE HUDSON TO West Point And off Newburgh

SUNDAY September 20

Special Excursion VIA NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

Connecting at Jersey City With Swift SANDY HOOK ROUTE FLYER "SANDY HOOK"

ROUND TRIP $1.00 CHILDREN 50cts

Leave Clinton Ave. 8.45, Grant Ave. 8.47, Plainfield 8.52, Netherwood 8.55, Fanwood 9.03 a. m.

9 8, 10 14 16 18

Headquarters for GIBSON'S RYE

E. C. WESCOTT, 115 East Front Street.

BANKRUPT'S SALE.

I will sell to the highest bidder, one WEBER MAHOGANY GRAND PIANO, style B. B., and stool, style No. 66731, the property of the Estate of John O'Brien, Jr., Bankrupt, at Hand's Storage Warehouse, No. 69 Somerset street, North Plainfield, N. J., at two p. m., on the Twenty-ninth day of September, 1914.

FRANCIS J. BLATZ, Trustee.

REED & HETFIELD, Attorneys. 9 16-23

FLOORS HARDWOOD AND PARQUET. Old Floors Refinished. S. E. WARD & CO. 108 Depot Park, Manning Building. Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

Order Now SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.

Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.

Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.

Charles L. Stanley Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928 Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS 402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

T. A. MOORE UNDERTAKER 612 E Sixth St. Tel. 741-R

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354 J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS UNDERTAKERS. Private Funeral Chapel 109-111 West Fourth Street Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872. P. CASEY & SON, Undertakers and Embalmers. Office 116 Park Ave. Telephone 2331 Residence 417 W. 3rd St. N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

H. DeMOTT UNDERTAKER. 56 Somerset St 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON, STEAM GRANITE WORKS Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church

DIED.

MILLER—At St. Joseph's rectory, September 14, 1914, Rev. William H. Miller, in his 51st year.

Funeral from St. Joseph's church, Thursday, September 17. Divine office for the dead at 10 a. m. Solemn high mass 10:30 a. m. Interment St. Mary's cemetery, South Amboy, N. J. 9 14 3

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only, we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

BARN WANTED — Gentleman wishes to hire barn for private garage, must have city water and washstand. Address with particulars and price, A. B., Daily Press. 9 15 3

PHYSICIAN wants two unfurnished rooms in private house; one on main floor; no meals; must be centrally located. Address Physician, care Press. 9 16 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE AND FEMALE.

YOUNG colored couple want positions as cook and butler; first-class references. C. M. Brown, 614 West Third street. 9 15 2

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

CHAUFFEUR wants position, four years' experience, thorough mechanic (single man); best reference. Care Mrs. Helstrom, 312 East Seventh street. 9 14 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

LAUNDRESS would like washing to do at home. 642 West Third street. 9 14 3

14-YEAR-OLD girl wishes position as nurse girl or helper around house. 32 East Fourth street. 9 15 2

WANTED—Position as chambermaid and waitress. Call 446 West Sixth street. 9 16 3

EXPERIENCED laundress wants days' work or washing home. 662 South Second street. 9 16 3

WANTED—Work by day, laundry work, sweeping. 1337 West Third street. 9 15 3

COLORED woman wishes laundry by day or week, take wash at home. Address Best, 417 Plainfield avenue. 9 16 3

WANTED—By good white laundress, laundry work or cleaning, good references. 1041 South Second street. 9 16 4

COLORED girl wishes position at general housework. 639 West Fourth street. 9 15 3

COOK and laundress, 308 East Third street. Telephone 2188-J.

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework. 354 Evona avenue. 9 15 3

WANTED—All kind of mending or darning by day or homework; will call. 932 South avenue, Westfield, N. J. 9 14 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

FOR SALE OR RENT—Artistic modern home on Rockview avenue, grounds 140x450; brick, slate roof house, 12 rooms, all improvements, kitchen and flower gardens, grape and rustic arbors, small lily pond, large garage and poultry house, shade and fruit trees; easy terms. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; telephone 1515. 9 16 3

TEN-ROOM house and barn, all improvements, corner property, large and small fruit, shade trees and flowers; near trolley and station. "Terrace," care Press. 9 11 6

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Singer sewing machine, practically new, $15. 172 East Front street. 9 10 6

GOOD driving horse for sale, or delivery. I. P. Runyon, 212 Park avenue. 9 16 tf

WHITE grapes for sale. 1020 Arlington avenue. 9 15 3

FOR SALE—Five hundred white leghorns. W. T. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue. 9 14 3

FOR SALE—Three horses cheap. City Boarding Stables, 138 East Second street. 9 11 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

THE WALDORF — High-class boarding-house, special diet in connection with regular table if desired; electrical and mineral baths. Rooms, double, single and en suite. Apply Mrs. Velma Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 8 17 1m

FURNISHED room with board. 440 West Front street, 'phone 418-M. 9 16 1mo

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

HELP WANTED—MALE.

HIGH-CLASS young man by the month on a poultry farm. Poultry Man, Press office. 9 15 3

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, reference required. Apply 31 Compton avenue. 9 15 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED — Experienced cook (white, Protestant) who is willing to help with light housework; good wages. Address K. W., care Press. 9 16 2

WANTED—Young lady for office work. Call 609 Watchung avenue. 9 16 tf

WANTED—Competent woman for general housework, reference required. 924 Madison avenue. 9 16 2

WANTED—Second cook, colored. Apply to superintendent of Muhlenberg Hospital. 9 15 2

WARD maids, colored or white, wanted. Apply to superintendent of Muhlenberg Hospital. 9 15 2

WANTED—20 experienced cooks, good wages; also chambermaids and waitresses and general houseworkers and nurses for children. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 6

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

12-ROOM modern house, 1,100 ft. frontage, big barn, two blocks to trolley; had offer of $12,000 three months ago; must close estate, sell for $8,000. W. R. Way, 308 Watchung avenue. 9 10 6

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

FOR EXCHANGE.

WILL exchange large double action foot power scroll saw for good camera. Address Power, care Press. 9 15 3

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $1 to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street. Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

4-ROOM flat to let, 309 West Second street; $10 a month. C. J. McDonough, 222 Madison avenue. 9 9 tf

FLATS TO LET—Two steam heated, centrally located, $18 month. James Carson, 211 North avenue. 9 16 2

HOUSE TO LET—Desirable, centrally located house on East Second street. Address Central, care Daily Press. 9 14 6

TO LET, furnished, six-room apartment, all improvements; large porch and yard. 322 East Front street. 9 15 2

FOR RENT—Upper apartment, two-family house, six rooms, bath, hot water heat, gas, electricity, private porch, on main trolley near Netherwood depot; $21.50, includes water rent. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 16 3

FOR RENT—Attractive modern six-room house, bath, steam heat, all improvements; Leland avenue near Netherwood depot, $25. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 16 3

FOR RENT—Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 10 6

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

TO LET—House (5 rooms) 508 West Third street, rent $12. Apply Wilson, 125 Elmwood place. 8 17 tf -m-w-s

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 1 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

FOUR rooms to let. 312 New street. 9 3 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

GOOD 8-room houses for rent, all improvements, parquet floors, rent $30 a month; in a fine residential section, Monroe avenue near Eighth street. Inquire J. Nathanson, 820 Monroe avenue; 'phone 1788-W. 9 10 6

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK 200 Baskets Fancy Alberta Peaches ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING. ALSO Fine Bartlett Pears - NEUMAN BROS. GROCERS Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760 Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage WAREHOUSE North Avenue OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE 125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO. OLD RELIABLE STORAGE All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry Furniture Packed and Shipped Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS THE OLDEST IN THE CITY. AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST. Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods. Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street. R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading Auctioneers W. A. SCHORB & CO. Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold. 120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS —FOR— NEW YORK HERALD WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE —AND— NEWARK EVENING NEWS RECEIVED AT PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864 THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS. FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Executor, Administrator

Guardian, Trustee

THE WIFE'S WILL

There is a popular delusion to the effect that when a wife dies without having made a will her husband inherits all her property. This delusion has led to many serious complications, some of which are described in our booklet, "The Wife's Will," a copy of which will be sent you on request.

Our Officers can give you valuable assistance in connection with the drawing of your will and we will hold the document in our vaults without charge.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

WATCH FOR ANNIVERSARY SALE SATURDAY

CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

Roth & Co.

Sirloin Steak, lb	20c
Porterhouse Steak, lb	22c
Rump Corned Beef, 4 to 5 lbs each, lb	16c
Link Sausage, lb	20c
Butter Fish, Only today, lb	5c

12 OYSTERS 12c

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

The policy of this Company is to offer every modern banking facility consistent with conservative management.

Our Board of Directors is representative, composed as it is, of local as well as New York business men, and it is our aim to give local business needs careful consideration.

We suggest an interview.

SERVICE

The State Trust Company

At the sign of the clock CAPITAL $100,000.00 201 Park Ave.

School Shoes

Special Prices on Boys' and Girls' Shoes

Made With All Leather Counters and Solid Leather Soles

Little Gent's, sizes 9 to 13½, at	$1.00
Youths', sizes 1 to 2, at	$1.25
Boys, sizes 2½ to 5½, at	$1.50
Misses', sizes 11½ to 2, at	$1.25
Childs', sizes 8½ to 11, at	$1.00
Infants', sizes 5 to 8, at	89c

M. ABRAMS

229-233 West Front St.

SOLE AGENCY WALK-OVER SHOES

AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON Managers

TONIGHT--

Peg O' My Heart

PRICES

Night, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17, Matinee and Night

BLACK PATTI

PRICES

Matinee—25c 50c.
Night—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

FRIDAY and SATURDAY Sept. 18 and 19, Matinee Daily at 2:30

HERBERT KELSEY AND EFFIE SHANNON

In That Famous Photo Play

After the Ball

PRICES

Matinee—All Seats 10c.
Night—5c, 10c, 15c.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation. Hours 10 to 4:30.

Real Furniture Values

By careful comparison you will find our stock of really desirable Furniture at such savings in prices as many others have this past month. Our sales have been remarkable, considering the general conditions, showing our goods are right and the prices much the lowest.

Furniture for the Dining Room in fine polish finish or rich dull brown fumed oak, all in the new plain designs. Furniture for the Bed Room in the bird's-eye, mahogany, circassian walnut and oak, in all the new fall designs and finishes.

The New Rugs are Beautiful

We bought early and have all the new patterns and are quite different in designs and colorings, also the plain colors.

Lace Curtains, Nets, Portieres and Couch Covers

As usual, this department is full of the attractive draperies for any window or door in the house.

NEW LINOLEUMS, MATTINGS, COMFORTABLES, TRUNKS

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON

BABCOCK BUILDING PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Satisfaction

There is just one and only one human motive that causes men to buy things, and that motive is—satisfaction, contentment in possession, use and enjoyment. This is one of the reasons why this agency is writing such a large volume of insurance.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

MANNING & CURTIS

106 DEPOT PARK

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—Your "furnished rooms to rent" ad will probably afford "opportunity news" to some dissatisfied—yet not over-critical—roomer

---

Economy Pointers From SCHEUER'S

On every item a saving and a good one—and you don't sacrifice quality by trading here.

Mail and Telephone Orders Promptly Attended to—Phone 1000.

SCHEUER'S XXXX PATENT FLOUR—24½-lb bag 85c

FANCY JERSEY POTATOES—16-quart basket 45c

Crystal Domino Granulated Sugar, 5-lb box 38c

Sunshine Biscuit Co. Takhoma Biscuits, package 4c

Evaporated Milk Peerless or Gold Cross Brand, 3 tall cans 25c	Curtice Bros. Blue Label Catsup large bottle 18c	Ohio Blue Tip Matches 12 5c boxes 39c	Huyler's or Hershey's Breakfast Cocoa ½-lb tin, 25c kind 17c	Crisco, used where you use butter or lard, 25c kind 22c	Japo Cleanser Chases Dirt 3 5c boxes 10c
Franco-American Readymaid Soups Assorted Kinds 8c	Cream Corn Starch 1-lb package 6c	Shaker Salt The box with the sifted top 10c kind 8c	Norwegian Smoked Sardines in olive oil finest packed, 15c kind; 2 cans 25c	Armour's Sliced Bacon large jars 25c	Ritter's Baked Beans large cans, 3 cans 25c
Steero Boullion Cubes 30c kind, box 25c	Leggitt's Premier Peanut Butter pint jars 22c	Bromangalon Jelly Powder, Assorted Flavors, 3 pkgs. 25c	With $1.00 worth of groceries or more Flour excluded, will sell 10 lbs Granulated Sugar... 69c	Just Received Delicious Skinless Figs in heavy syrup; 13c can; 2 cans 25c	Selected Queen Stuffed Olives, worth 25c, bottle 19c
Grandma's Borax Soap Powder large package 12c	Export Borax Soap 10 cakes 37c	Chic Laundry Soap 10 large cakes 25c	Kirkman's Borax Soap or Fels Naphtha Soap, 10 cakes 43c	Burnham's Clam Chowder, the kind you cannot tell from fresh made; 3-lb can 17c	Just received, a new lot of the real whole wheat biscuit Wheatsworth; a package..... 10c
Empress Brand California Large Asparagus, can 17c	Imported Peas While they Last 2 cans 25c	Fancy Premier Brand Asparagus Tips a can 19c	Robertson or Hartley's Imported Orange Marmalade, 1-lb jar 15c	Worcestershire Sauce Waw Waw Brand 25c kind, a bottle 15c	Fancy Imported Boneless Sardines large cans 24c
Holbrook's Imported Pickled Onions or Pickled Walnuts ½-pint bottle ....17c Pint bottle 27c	Holbrook's Imported Malt Vinegar quart bottle, 25c kind 17c	Holbrook's Imported Chow-Chow, large bottle, worth 35c 25c	Mason Jar Tops a dozen 18c	Finest Red Gum Rubbers for Mason Jars, a dozen 8c	Gondola Soap, a Floating Soap for Toilet or Bath, 6 large cakes 25c
New Barley a lb 6c	New Farina a lb 6c	White or Yellow Meal, lb 4c	Fancy Head Rice, 9c lb; 3 lbs 25c	Rolled Oats, fresh and sweet, 6 lbs 25c	Finest Imported Macaroni & Spaghetti Loose, lb 10c

COFFEES

Yuban Brand, lb	35c
Leggitt's Premier, lb	35c
Barrington Hall, lb	38c
Scheuer's Premium Java, lb	27c
Fancy Santos, lb	25c
Golden Rio, lb	20c

Stamp Special As Usual.

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS.

125 with 1-lb Tea	70c
100 with 1-lb Tea	60c
70 with 1-lb Tea	50c
30 with 1-lb Tea	35c
100 with 1-lb Scheuer's Baking Powder	45c

We also carry Tetley's Tea, Peek's and Ridgeway's Teas.

IN OUR CHEESE DEPARTMENT

Imported Swiss Cheese, lb	45c
Imported Roqueford, lb	50c
Philadelphia Cream Cheese	9c
Neufchatel Cheese	4c
Snappy Cheese, each	9c
Limburger Cheese, lb	22c
Grated Parmesan Cheese, bottles, each	20c

10 S. & H. STAMPS WITH

Royal Dental Cream	10c
1 Box Ball Blue	10c
1 Box Royal Talcum Powder	10c
1 Box Royal Tooth Powder	10c
1 Package Macaroni	10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanilla	15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish	10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline	10c
1 Package Parlor Matches	12c
Large Bottle Ammonia	10c
7-lb Bag Salt	10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish	10c

For the College Boy

We suggest these striking new English models, as shown in our famous Slater Morrill and Heywood $5.00 and $6.00 lines.

If you are not already acquainted with the splendid merits of these new Fall lines, we urge you to make their acquaintance this Fall.

They have that classy English custom appearance with its flat toe, flat heel, wide shank and blind eyelets.

Shown in rich dark tan, mahogany and black steel calf.

M. C. Van Arsdale

127 E. Front St.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN.

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

UPHOLSTERING

WINDOW SHADES

AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff

721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

Vote for

A MAN WHOSE BUSINESS EXPERIENCE HAS TAUGHT HIM THE VALUE OF TEAM WORK.

John H. Capstick

Regular Republican candidate for Congress of the Fifth District,

Will co-operate with the members of his party in enacting proper legislation.

—Paid for by the John H. Capstick Campaign Committee.

This agency is gradually forging

TO THE FRONT

People are beginning to appreciate honest intentions and honest values given for the price.

You cannot do better than to place your business here.

FREDERICK A. MARTIN CO.

(Successor to Elston M. French Insurance Agency)

171 NORTH AVENUE Telephone 2304

Insurance Mortgages Real Estate

The Oldest Insurance Agency in This City.

A. L. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

Until September 19, the Daily Press will be published on Saturdays at 1 p. m.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Rain tonight and probably Friday, not much change in temperature; moderate east winds.

Max., 81; min., 43.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

VICTORY ASSURED IN NOVEMBER?

Mayor Percy H. Stewart Predicts Success of Democratic Ticket.

CONFIDENCE IN WILSON

Plainfield's Executive Believes Voters Will Support Administration—County Chairman F. H. Smith's Opinion.

Mayor Percy H. Stewart, chairman of the Union County Democratic Committee, says that the big Democratic victory in Maine forecasts what will happen at the polls in New Jersey next November. Mayor Stewart, who is an unopposed candidate for the Democratic State Senate nomination, predicts that the voters of this State will rally to the Wilson administration in as strong numbers, comparatively, as the people of Maine.

Union county Democrats are jubilant over the victory, pointing to the result as an indication that the people all over the country are standing solidly back of the administration. Republicans and even Progressives profess to see hopeful signs in the result, although it was admitted that the victory would have the effect of further stiffening and heartening Democrats here and everywhere else.

One immediate effect is the furnishing of material for Democratic campaigners. Now they will be able to tell with more confidence of the progress of Democratic campaigns in other parts of the country. The fact that the Democrats of Maine polled 10,000 more votes for their candidate for Governor this year than they polled for President Wilson in 1910 is said to show that many Bull Moosers are becoming Democrats instead of going back to their old party.

"The victory in Maine demonstrated that the people are supporting the Wilson administration," County Chairman Stewart said. "The support of the administration was made one of the issues of the campaign. The voters realize that Wilson stands for large things. He stood against a big calamity—war—when popular clamor was in favor of war.

"The independent vote went to Wilson, the same as it will go to him in New Jersey. That is my candid belief. It is difficult to analyze the Progressive loss, but I think that the Democrats received a good portion of it."

State Committeeman Dennis F. Collins says that the Maine election proves conclusively that the European war has shown to the American people the wisdom of President Wilson's Mexican policy. This sentiment will predominate throughout the country, General Collins said.

Republican County Chairman Frank H. Smith professed to see some little signs of cheer of G. O. P., although his comment tinged with bitterness against the Progressives.

"In the Maine election the Progressives accomplished the only thing they have ever accomplished—the defeat of the Republicans," Mr. Smith said. "The Republican vote has increased, however, and I believe that this is due to the fact that some Progressives think that the Republicans have been chastised sufficiently and have gone back to the old party. Undoubtedly, the Democrats got a number of Progressive votes. I believe that the Progressives who remained at the Rossevelt standard this year are radicals, whose votes will not change for several years, although it is only natural that they will dissolve in time."

Mr. Smith declared that the Progressives would not get out enough votes in Union county next year to warrant a ballot box.

LECTURE AT GRACE CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. C. S. Ryman, of Elizabeth, will lecture at the Grace Methodist church, the borough, this evening at 8 o'clock, on the subject, "Match Making and Building Nests for Future Homes." The lecture is under the auspices of the Epworth League of the church, the proceeds to be used to help furnish the new Methodist church at Kenilworth, now under the course of construction.

STUCHELL MEETING TOMORROW.

Rev. William T. Stuchell, Republican candidate for Congressional honors in this district, will speak at an open air meeting, tomorrow evening, at Third and Liberty streets at 8 o'clock. Mr. Stuchell speaks at Garwood earlier in the evening, completing his evening's work at the local meeting.

Up the Hudson to West Point $1.00.

Special excursion, Sunday, Sept. 20, via New Jersey Central, connecting at Jersey City with swift Sandy Hook Steamer "Sandy Hook" to West Point and off Newburgh. Round trip $1.00, children 50 cents. Leave Plainfield 8:52 a. m. See circulars for other stations. 9 15-17-19 ***

—It pays to read the advertisements in the columns of The Press.

BELOVED PRIEST IS LAID TO REST

Impressive Funeral Service for Father W. H. Miller Held at St. Joseph's.

BISHOP M'FAUL PRESENT

Father P. J. Petri, of Atlantic City, Delivers Eloquent Eulogy—Catholics and Protestants Join in Paying Respects to the Dead.

St. Joseph's church, of the borough, was thronged to the doors this morning, when fully 1,000 people gathered to pay their last respects to Father William H. Miller, who had been rector of that church since 1893. Roman Catholics and Protestants, all friends of the priest, were among those who attended the services, the ministers of the evangelical denominations being among those who were in attendance. The seating capacity of the edifice was taxed long before the service began, while many had to stand in the vestibule of the church. Not since the edifice was first dedicated have so many people been within its doors at one time, a tribute to the respect held by those of all denominations for the dead priest.

The remains of Father Miller laid in state before the alter in the church from 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, where the Holy Name Society of the parish conducted its service last evening. A large number of the friends viewed the body during the afternoon and evening, ministers of the Protestant denominations being noted among the number. The members of Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, acted as bodyguard during that time.

The divine office for the dead was observed at the church this morning at 10 o'clock, while a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 10:30. Fully fifty priests from various parts of the State assisted in the services. Rev. Father John Leahy, of Spring Lake, acted as celebrant, while Father Dittrich, of Atlantic City, was deacon; Father Daniel Hogan, of Newark, was sub-deacon; Father John F. Baldwin, who has been assistant rector of the church under Father Miller, acted as master of ceremonies.

Father P. J. Petri, of Atlantic City, who delivered the eulogy, reviewed at length the work which had been accomplished by Father Miller during his pastorate in the borough, referring especially to the great kindnesses shown to the members of his parish, as well as to those of other faiths. The zeal with which Father Miller carried out his duty as spiritual director of the church was strongly commended, while his great earnestness and simplicity were spoken of as the means of a great portion of his success as pastor. Bishop McFaul was also present and took part in the services. Among the large number of priests present were Father O'Grady, of New Brunswick; Father Gerald, of Vineland; Father Egan, formerly of this city, but at present of Bayonne; Father Zimmerman, of Raritan; Fathers Ruddon and Spellane, of Trenton; Fathers DeVine and Schwartz, of Trenton; Father Terrill, of Rahway; Father Ruddon, of Bound Brook; Father Ryan, of Somerville; Fathers Luke and Peter, members of the Benediction Order of Priests; Father O'Connor, of High Bridge; Father McConnell, of Belmar; Father Berge, of Keyport; Father Dugan, of Red Bank; Fathers Ward and Kenney, of Trenton; Father Kupan, of Riverside, and Father Kennedy, of South Amboy. Mrs. Harry G. DeMeza presided at the organ during the solemn mass.

Members of St. Joseph's church Holy Name acted as ushers during the services. The bearers were Cormack McDonough, Thomas Meaney, R. H. McCullough, David T. Kenney, Robert McCormack and William McCullough. A special train conveyed the funeral party to South Amboy, leaving the North Avenue station at 1:15 this afternoon. Burial was made in St. Mary's cemetery at South Amboy.

MISS NAYLOR WEDDED IN ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Miss Ruth Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Naylor, of 322 Lee place, and Michael Gans, of Lee place, were married in St. Mary's church at 6:30 o'clock last night by Rev. B. M. Bogan. The couple were attended by Mrs. Anna Mathews as matron of honor and Albert Naylor, a brother of the bride, as best man.

A reception followed the church ceremony and the newlyweds are now stopping at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Gans is employed in the Lyric Theatre on West Front street. The bride is well known locally and until last winter was a student in the Stillman Grammar School.

WOULD DEBATE CURRENT TOPIC

Former Mayor Smalley Wants to Meet Boro Executives on Public Platform.

CHARGES FAVORTISM

Alleges that Mayor Clark is Not Upholding His Declaration of Neutrality—Believes People Should Hear Both Sides.

Believing that one side of the consolidation question should be given as much prominence as the other, former Mayor Newton B. Smalley, of North Plainfield, this afternoon, issued a formal challenge to Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., or any member of the Borough Council to engage in an open debate on the proposition with him prior to the special election. Mr. Smalley is known to be against the consolidation question and he alleges that Mayor Clark has infringed on his neutrality declaration. Two weeks ago, in a public meeting held in North Plainfield, Mayor Clark announced that the present administration would remain neutral in the movement and those who are against now declare that the borough executive has done everything in his power to force consolidation on the public.

Mr. Smalley is well versed in North Plainfield matters and is prepared to show by actual statistics that the present conditions are much more advantageous to the property-owner and taxpayer than those that would exist after the borough and this city were united. The challenger contemplates doing everything possible to force one or more of the North Plainfield officials to meet him on a public platform and it would probably prove an interesting feature in connection with the citizens' committees open-air meeting on Somerset street. No date or place was suggested for the affair inasmuch as Mr. Smalley intends to leave this side of the question entirely up to the Mayor or anyone else who cares to accept the defy.

In issuing the challenge Mr. Smalley says: "Mayor Clark's activity in the interest of consolidation is in strong contrast to his declaration of neutrality. I believe before the people of the borough vote on the subject they should become familiar with the facts. Believing it for the good of all, I would be pleased to meet the Mayor or any member of the Council who voted for the special election, in joint debate before the date set for the election, and give those who have not had the opportunity to decide which action is best, 'Yes' or 'No.'"

COLLECTOR WORKING WITHOUT AUTHORITY

Man Soliciting Money Among Plainfield Business Men is Wanted by Police.

Several local men who are in business in New York city have been approached recently by an individual representing himself as "Patrolman Butler," of the Plainfield police force, who is soliciting subscriptions for the police pension fund. According to information given out by the local department, this person is alleged to be an imposter as there is no officer here by that name. A report was received by Sergeant Higgins at headquarters last night, from George W. Gardiner, of 720 Carlton avenue, who said that the collector had come to his office yesterday and asked for subscriptions. He was informed that the individual in question had no authority to carry on this work and should the identity of the man be learned his arrest will probably follow.

He represents himself as an agent for the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association and exhibits a list with the names of about forty Plainfielders on it. Provision is made for the police pension fund in the city's annual budget and there is no reason why a solicitor should be visiting Plainfield business men for funds of this kind.

ALLIANCE MEETING.

The Christian and Missionary Alliance will meet at German Reformed church on Duer street, tomorrow afternoon and evening. A quartet and two cornetists from the Missionary Training School at Nyack, N. Y., will be in attendance, and James Jones, of the latter place, will deliver the Bible lesson.

SMOKE, BUT NO FIRE.

A back draft coming from a stove in the Cedarcroft on Park avenue, this morning, caused a telephone alarm of fire to be sent into the headquarters. Chief Doane responded with the auto engine but found no fire and lots of smoke.

NIGHTLY MEETINGS HAVE BEEN PLANNED

Prominent Speakers Will Dwell on all Phases of the Consolidation Question.

Forty members of the citizens' committee recently appointed by Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., of North Plainfield, to take up the consolidation question with a view to placing it before the public in an unbiased manner, met at the borough executive's home last night, and completed details for an active campaign to be waged between now and September 24, the time set for the special election on the question. It was decided to hold open meetings every night prior to the election, on Somerset street opposite the engine house. Speeches will be made by prominent boroughites and those most closely affiliated with the proposition and it is proposed to thoroughly acquaint all voters with every phase of the movement.

Automobiles will be converted into speaking platforms and among the more prominent speakers who have been requested to express their views are Captain William C. Smith, Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., former Mayors Samuel Townsend and William L. Saunders. All of the borough voters are cordially invited to be present at these gatherings and express themselves freely. According to an announcement made at a public meeting held two weeks ago the Mayor intends to maintain a strictly neutral position and anyone having questions to ask concerning the proposition will find solution for the same if they are placed in his hands.

A committee composed of L. B. Woolston and Charles H. Lyman was appointed last night to supervise the registration which began at 1 o'clock this afternoon and will continue until 9 o'clock tonight. On another page of this issue a communication from Councilman Tingley, of North Plainfield, is published. This letter deals with consolidation and may serve to acquaint voters with some of the inside phases of the movement.

POSTAL AUTHORITIES ESTABLISH SUB-STATION

The drug store of William L. Pratt at Watchung avenue and East Fourth street, has been designated as a sub-postal station. The appointment was made by the Postal Department at Washington, today, and will become effective October 16. The station was formerly located in the stationery store of J. C. Field, Jr., on Park avenue, but he has since retired from business.

The new location for the postal station is considered a good one and will no doubt be well patronized by people living in that section of the city, saving as it does a trip to the main postoffice. Mr. Pratt's appointment was upon the recommendation of Postmaster Alvin E. Hoagland. The station will be known as No. 4 and all postal business will be transacted there, except that parcel post packages will not be accepted. It will be possible, however, to secure money orders, register letters, purchase stamps, postal cards, etc., the same as at the postoffice. There will now be two postal sub-stations in the city, the other one being located in W. W. Gallway's drug store at 200 Grant avenue.

LICENSES IN SOMERSET.

The following licenses for inns and taverns were granted for this end of Somerset county on Tuesday: Gustave Arueffle, at Martinsville; wholesale, Adolph Bohren, at North Plainfield; Henry Haurand, at the borough; Lena M. Hoerster, also in North Plainfield. Eleven other licenses for inns and taverns, and seven other wholesale licenses were granted for various parts of the county.

CLASS SOCIAL.

Class No. 2, of Trinity Reformed Bible school, will hold a business meeting this evening, at the home of Mrs. L. C. Van Nest, 215 East Fifth street. Every member of the class is requested to be present.

To the Greater Allentown Fair.

On Thursday, Sept. 24, the Big Day at the Fair. Special train via New Jersey Central will leave Netherwood 7:43, Plainfield 7:46, Grant Avenue 7:48, Clinton Avenue 7:50 a. m., returning from Allentown at 6:30 p. m. Round trip tickets $1.50, good only on special train Sept. 24. —Adv. 9 17-21 ***

—Fresh fruits of all kinds continue to arrive in the market in large quantities, and Neuman Brothers have a splendid assortment at their Watchung avenue market. Hundreds of baskets of peaches, pears, canteloupes, grapes, apples and other varieties are being received daily, and the big crop this year makes it possible to offer them at lower prices than for many years past. Grapes for jelly and grape juice are now at their best.—Adv. ***

BATTLE CONTINUES ALONG 90 MILE FRONT IN FRANCE, WHILE GERMANS RUSH RE-ENFORCEMENTS FROM EAST

Spectacular Crossing of River Aisne by Allies Reported Thought That With Sending of Eight Army Corps Into France to Re-enforce Those Already There, the Kaiser Hopes to Crush Opposition--Has Withdrawn 320,000 Troops From Russian Frontier--Vienna Reported In State of Panic.

Washington, Sept. 17 (Bulletin)—There is a persistent report in administration circles that Emperor William has accepted conditionally President Wilson's second offer of mediation. These conditions are said t oinsist that German territoriality be preserved and German commerce be afforded full protection. Both the White Houe and State Department refused to discuss the report and the German embassy claimed to be cut off entirely from Berlin.

London, Sept. 17.—Advices from France indicate that along a 90 mile front the German armies are being held in check. The Allies are occupying a ledge across the River Aisne which was won after one of the most spectacular and thrilling river crossings ever made by an attacking force under fire.

The movement of eight German army corps from East Prussia to the theatre of war in France is taken to mean that the Kaiser intends to aim a final terrific blow at the Allies in an effort to crush the opposition in France. Such a course is directly opposite that which was yesterday believed to be his plan. The withdrawal of the 320,000 soldiers in the east can only result in hastening the advance of the Czars' troops towards Berlin.

A despatch from Petrograd to the Times says: "According to the latest information available here the Germans, realizing the futility of the withdrawal of eight army corps from their western front, are returning their first line of troops from East Prussia westward."

Military writers here are still puzzled over the problem why Germany should have made the blunder of sending such an enormous army to East Prussia, where it was bound to remain either inactive or make an attempt to invade Russia with the almost complete certainty of sharing the fate of the Austrain forces in Galicia.

The real explanation seems to be that when half the population of East Prussia stampeded before General Rennenkampf, carrying the panic to Berlin, Germany felt compelled to tranquilize the population by sending a great army to the area occupied by the Russians.

Advices received here today said that cold and heavy rains continued to fall throughout the fighting zone in northern and eastern France. Military observers expressed the opinion that the bad weather would add to the difficulties of the Germans in a greater degree than to the Allies. It will make the use of the Germans' heavy artillery impossible, they said, except on the best roads and the progress of the German supply trains will be hampered.

A despatch from Rome says that reports have been received there that the Germans are abandoning Belgium and concentrating their forces, especially the second line troops, in Westphalia and Hanover. It is said that they fear a simultaneous invasion of Anglo-French forces across Belgium and a combined attack by land and sea on Cuxhaven, Bremen and Hamburg.

Telegraphing from Paris the correspondent of the Times says regarding the fighting on the River Aisne: "The enemy has found means to arrest his retreat for the time being, and is offering a stubborn resistance, on the line which he has prepared strongly for defense. He has received considerable reinforcements, probably from Lorraine, where he seems to have abandoned the offensive. The fighting is hottest around Soissons, where the British army is in action."

The correspondent of the Chronicle describes the battle thus: "The unending terrific struggle has now lasted more than four days and only now may one say that victory is turning in favor of the Allies. The town of Soissons cannot yet be entered(Sept. 15) for it is still raked by artillery and rifle fire. Men from the front tell me that former combats have been put completely in the shade.

A news agency despatch from Petrograd summing up the recent Russian operations, says the Russians have been successful in the fighting with the retreating Austrians along the whole front and news is continuously coming in of the capture of further prisoners and guns.

On the left flank of the River San the Russians have successfully attacked the Austrians who are retreating in Eastern Prussia. All of the German efforts to surround a portion of the Russians have failed. About 200,000 prisoners are said to be held by the Russians.

Petrograd, Sept. 17.—Information was received at the war office today that eight German army corps, numbering 320,000 men, which had been sent east to repel the Russian attack in East Prussia and to strengthen the Austrian forces in Galicia have been withdrawn, and are being rushed to the western

(Continued on page 3)

SEEKS DAMAGES IN REALTY SUIT

George E. Sovereign is Defendant in a Supreme Court Action.

Suit for $100,000 damages has been brought by Waldron M. Ward, as trustee in bankruptcy for William Passmore Meeker, against George E. Sovereign, of this city, in connection with a realty deal. By this deal Mr. Meeker traded the Meeker building at 192 Market street, Newark, for a tract of land belonging to Sovereign in Coney Island, and for properties in Westfield and North Plainfield. It is charged in the suit that encumbrances such as a lack of a clear title prevented the Coney Island property from being a good conveyance.

Isaac P. Runyon, counsel for Sovereign, when seen expressed surprise that the matter had come up again as all parties concerned had settled two years ago. In the transfer of property a clause was contained providing for a substitute, he said, in case title to the Coney Island land was not clear, but such a substitute had never been asked for.

WILL RESIGN AS COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Mayor P. H. Stewart Will Not Seek Re-election on September 29.

Announcement is made by Mayor Percy H. Stewart that he does not expect to be a candidate for re-election as chairman of the Union County Democratic committee when new officers are elected Tuesday, September 29.

Mayor Stewart, who will be the nominee for State Senate, said that the chairmanship honor had been held by him long enough and he desired to step aside and let some one else have the place.

The present county committee goes out of existence on primary day. Many of the present committeemen are unopposed candidates for re-election. New officers of the committee are elected on the first Tuesday after the primaries.

Mayor Stewart is considered a strong contender for the State Senate although he will work under a heavier handicap than any of the other Democratic candidates. This handicap is the indorsement by the Progressives of Carlton B. Pierce, the Republican candidate. The informality of the indorsement, however, has caused speculation as to how much of the Progressive vote Senator Pierce will get. It is known that some of the Bull Moose leaders are bitterly opposed to Senator Pierce's conservative policies, despite the fact that some members of the third party gave out the statement that his attitude was progressive enough to merit their indorsement.

STUCHELL'S CAMPAIGN EXPENSES WERE $275

William T. Stuchell, the Republican Congressional candidate, filed a statement of his campaign expenses with the clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington yesterday, giving his expenditures as $275. George W. V. Moy, Progressive, of Plainfield, spent nothing.

SHOE DEPARTMENT

Corner West Front and Madison Ave.

Children's School Shoes

For best kinds of Children's Shoes—for Shoes that afford most comfort to the growing foot—for Shoes that have good looks as well as good wearing qualities.

FOR SHOES

at the popular prices we are showing

WE ARE SURE

you can't fill the school Shoe needs near as well as here. Come and examine these Shoes and you'll readily agree with us that this is the right Shoe Store to buy Children's Shoes.

NOTICE THE GUESSING CONTEST

See the Pumpkin in the Shoe Store Window

and guess how many seeds there are in this pumpkin.

For the nearest guess we will give a $5.00 pair of shoes.

For the second nearest guess we will give a $4.00 pair of shoes.

For the third nearest guess we will give a $3.00 pair of shoes.

It costs you nothing to guess—simply leave your guess with name and address at the Shoe Department.

Contest continues until October 26th, when the pumpkin will be opened and seeds counted in the window by three disinterested parties.

Note—None of our employes will be eligible to a guess.

FREE A Big 25c L-V Dust Cloth Treated with LIQUID VENEER

This coupon entitles you to a 25c L-V Dust Cloth absolutely free with a purchase of a 50c bottle of Liquid Veneer provided this coupon is filled in with your name and address and is presented at our store, Friday, Sept. 18, ; otherwise, the coupon is void.

You will be delighted with one of these L-V Dust Cloths. Besides being treated with Liquid Veneer it's made from a new fabric called "Crepette," remarkable for the amount of dirt and dust it will pick up and carry away. It disinfects, dusts, cleans and polishes all in one operation.

Don't fail to get one of these L-V Dust Cloths, free, with a purchase of a 50c bottle of Liquid Veneer at our store on the date mentioned.

Name.....

Address..... Date.....

A. E. FORCE & CO.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H.&G. Green Trading Stamps

Fruit Jars and everything necessary for preserving on sale in the Basement.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Miss Matilda Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Block, of Orange street, is spending two weeks in Brooklyn as a guest of a cousin, Miss Anna Wagner.

Mrs. Grace Gangloff, of Greenbrook road, is visiting relatives in New York city.

Contractor J. Newton Apgar has made arrangements to spend the latter part of next week at Atlantic City.

W. K. Hartpence, of New Market road, is enjoying his annual two weeks' vacation.

Miss Alice Apgar, of Front street, has returned from a two weeks' visit in Philadelphia with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Apgar.

Mrs. M. J. McNair and children, of Newburg, are spending two weeks in the borough with Mrs. McNair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ayers, of Second street.

Edward Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Finley Lewis, of Madison avenue, has accepted a position in the Phillips' general store at South Plainfield.

Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. W. G. Clawson, Miss Iva Dayton, Mrs. L. D. Trickler, Miss Kathryn Samson and Miss Lucy Clawson enjoyed a picnic at Big Tree Farm on Greenbrook road, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Stewart Todd and sons, of Trenton, who have been visiting relatives in the borough, have returned home.

Councilman and Mrs. Earle M. Jones are entertaining their little niece, Harriett Tribit, of Colwyn, Pa.

Contractor Joseph E. Tetlow has been awarded the plumbing contract of the four-family brick house that Contractor Samuel M. Titus is erecting for Frank Jeruisuky on Bound Brook road.

EDWARD DIX IMPROVING.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dix, of Prospect avenue, visited their nine-year-old son, Edward, at Muhlenberg Hospital last evening. He sustained a fractured jaw a week ago yesterday when he was knocked off his bicycle by an automobile. The little fellow is getting along as well under the circumstances as can be expected. An Xray photograph has revealed the reason why he has been unable to close his jaws. One of the molars in the back of his mouth was knocked up between a 1-16 and an ⅛ of an inch by the accident. It will be impossible to pull the tooth on account of the fractured jaw. The only thing that can be done is to file it off. The Xray photograph also revealed the fact that the fracture instead of being in the upper jaw as has been thought all along is in the lower. Since the automobile accident, Mr. and Mrs. Dix have had more trouble verifying that adage "it never rains but it pours." Their five-year-old son Sheldon burned his right arm quite badly on Saturday. The little fellow took it upon himself to burn up the waste paper that is collected in a coal scuttle in the kitchen of the house. He toted the coal scuttle out of doors, while his mother was in another part of the house, to the place where he had seen his father have fires. He had a light jacket on at the time. The sleeve of the jacket caught fire and he came screaming into the home to his mother, who managed to put the fire out. The burn was a nasty one, extending from below the elbow of the right arm to above it. This is not all. To top things off, little Sheldon fell down the steps of the rear porch of the home last evening. He landed flat on his stomach and appeared to be more scared than hurt. Mr. Dix, who is always inclined to look upon the bright side of things, considers it very fortunate that his son didn't land on his burned arm as he is afraid that the shock would have been too much for the little fellow.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

The horse of George Zink, the North avenue baker, ran away yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, doing considerable damage to some fences in the neighborhood of Rock avenue and Fourth street, Plainfield. George Pizie, Mr. Zink's delivery man, had left the horse standing in front of John Kerwin's, at the corner of Rock avenue and Fourth street, while he was delivering bread in the vicinity. When the animal started he was on the porch of the home of George Boyd. "There goes your horse," some one yelled at Pizie. He dropped his delivery basket, its contents rolling all around, and started in pursuit. The horse quickly tore itself loose from the heavy delivery wagon when one of the front wheels of the wagon caught in the high board fence along the Rock avenue property line of Kerwin's Hotel as it circled around. The animal, free and clear, bolted across Rock avenue and knocked two fences, the side and rear of John Kerwin's home in rapid succession. Two children of Mr. Kerwin's generally play near the spot where the horse tore through the side fence, but fortunately they happened to be in the house at the time. The horse soon ran itself out. It was captured by Mr. Pizie while it was placidly grazing at Bergen street near Clinton avenue. Mr. Pizie thinks the horse must have been either stung by a bee or seized with crazy staggers, as it is a very mild animal and no one was fooling around it at the time. The animal, strange to relate, escaped with a few scratches. The wagon was a new one. Its front wheel that struck the fence was broken as was the whiffletree, otherwise it was not damaged. Taking everything into consideration, Mr. Zink thinks that he got off very lucky.

KILLS A BOY AT BAYONNE.

W. J. Smith, of Dunellen avenue, who, as engineer, runs the 7:41 express out of this place to the city in the morning and returns in the evening on the local due here at 6:40, ran down a ten-year-old lad on Tuesday evening as his train approached West Eighth street, Bayonne. There is a long curve in the tracks as they approach West Eighth street. While rounding this curve Mr. Smith noticed an object shoot by below his cab. He looked out and saw it roll over and over. That was the first inkling he had that he had struck a person. He brought the train to a speedy standstill and then backed it up. The lad was dead. His body was taken to West Eighth Street in the rear car of the train. It is supposed that the lad must have met his fate while endeavoring to get out of the way of an eastbound train. "He was not walking on my track," Smith said, "because if he had been I would have seen him."

SAYS PRESSURE WAS GOOD.

The boroughites are indignant over the report in circulation why the New Market fire department failed to save at least one of the two barns that burned down at New Market yesterday morning, viz., that the water pressure was too low. The boroughites are aroused and alarmed because the same water company that serves New Market also supplies Dunellen. When interviewed on this matter, last evening, Foreman Harry Shugars, the right arm of the local fire department, said: "The people of Dunellen have nothing to be alarmed over. About a year ago a water pressure guage was installed in the borough hall. I have kept daily 'tabs' on the guage since its installation and at no time has the dial shown a water pressure of less than 60 pounds. There is sufficient force attached to water coming out of the nozzle of a hose at 60 pounds pressure to tear the shingles off of a roof. Yesterday, at the time of the fire the guage in the borough hall registered 70 pounds. The reason why the New Market Fire Company did not have sufficient water pressure to coup successfully with the flames was because their hose leaked like a sieve."

ESTIMATED LOSS $1,200.

Township Committeeman A. G. Nelson estimates his loss due to the destruction of his barn by fire yesterday morning, at $800. The barn was used as a place of storage. In it was stored a sleigh, a lawn mower, vacuum cleaner, bicycle, buggy, two sets of harness and a brass bed, all of which were destroyed. The barn, it is understood, is protected by insurance. Everything in the Philip Jenner barn was gotten out before the flames of the blazing Nelson barn reached it. The amount of Mr. Jenner's loss is estimated at about $200.

STYLISH RELIABLE

SR

ROTHBERG SERVICE IS THE RIGHT KIND OF SERVICE

This store offers to men of Plainfield and vicinity the right kind of service in things to wear.

It's a store for men, young men and women who shop for men, who want the best possible value—returns for the money they spend; whatever the amount may be.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Rev. John Wade, who has been visiting his sister at Lake Comment, Pa., for several weeks, has left to attend the Methodist conference of the Middle West where he will be assigned to his first charge since graduating from Drew Seminary last June.

Miss Elizabeth Former, of Brooklyn, has returned home from visiting the Misses Thorpe, of Westfield avenue.

Work on the partitioning of the assembly room of School No. 1 is nearly finished and the two extra rooms will be ready for use by Monday. They are each designed to hold forty pupils which will enable School No. 1 to care for all of the children in that section of the township until School No. 3 is completed, when about fifty pupils will attend that one.

Mr. and Mrs. Read Holliday have returned to their home on Martine avenue after spending the past ten days at Islip, L. I.

Miss Louise Bettman has returned to her duties as teacher in the New York schools after visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Rainer, of the borough.

Miss Marion Todd has returned to her home near Warwick, N. Y., after visiting friends in the borough, where she formerly resided.

O. B. Hallenbeck and Arthur Knight are newly elected members of the Fanwood Fire Company.

Mrs. John Cleveland, of East Orange, is stopping at Beechwood Farm, on Martine avenue. The place was formerly conducted by John Walsh and was known as the Fanwood Hotel.

Dr. James Quilez, former Governor of Cuba, has returned to Philadelphia after spending sometime at Beechwood Farm.

Work on the McGuire house on Forest road is progressing rapidly and will be completed by Thanksgiving.

As has been the case in previous years the Fanwood Fire Company will be represented at the annual firemen's convention to be held the twenty-third of this month in Trenton. H. P. Robinson, president of the company; F. J. Palmer and W. M. Maxim will be the delegate. The two companies in Scotch Plains will be represented also, but the delegates will not be known until the next meeting of the two organizations.

This place is not affected by the change in the train service of the Jersey Central, as all of the local trains stop at the same time and none have been added.

Henry J. MacNamee has returned to his home on Elm street after spending his vacation at Lake George, N. Y.

Gordon Erner, of Tilliston road, has entered Cornell University as a freshman. He is a graduate of Battin High School, Elizabeth, in the class of '14.

Mrs. Samuel Jackson, of Newark, is visiting Mrs. Henry Ripley, of the township.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. L. Heureux, of Brooklyn, have returned home after spending several weeks at the "Homestead."

Whitehouse

Rev. William J. Lonsdale, pastor of the Reformed church at Lebanon, will lecture in the schoolhouse at Bisseil next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There was a large gathering in the Methodist church at Gladstone, Tuesday night, to attend the services in celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of that edifice. Last evening, at 7:45 o'clock, the exercises were continued, when a love feast and general class meeting was held. This was conducted by Rev. Dr. Richardson Gray, a former pastor, and other former pastors took part.

The family of Eugene Hoffman returned Tuesday to Whitehouse Station, after spending the summer at their cottage at Lake Hopatcong.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hoffman, of Whitehouse Station, are home from a visit to Jesse Miers, at Annandale.

Alexander Morton started for Chicago, Tuesday, after a visit to Charles E. Rush at Whitehouse Station. Mr. Rush has gone to Kenvil to spend two weeks with his parents.

Notices have been received here asking the creditors, stockholders, bondholders and mortgagees of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Railroad to appear in the Court of Chancery in Newark on Tuesday, September 22, at 10 o'clock, to be heard in relation to the foreclosure of a mortgage held by William J. O'Connor.

Abram E. Reed, eighty-four years old, who makes his home at the Willowhurst, East Whitehouse, is able to be about again, after an illness of two weeks from heart disease.

Mrs. Marcus Howe, of Brooklyn, who has been spending a week with relatives at Lamington, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Peter La Tourette, who has been ill at her home at Whitehouse Station, is able to be about again.

Rev. J. W. Louden, of Dover, Del., will preach in the Presbyterian church at Lamington next Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Thorpe, of Trenton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John N. Stout, of Lamington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Willets, of Lamington, have gone to Mt. Sinai, Long Island, where they are spending a week.

Mrs. William B. Dunham returned to Newark, Tuesday, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Skillman, near New Germantown.

Abram Thomas and family, of Jersey City, are visiting Joseph Thomas, near Lamington.

Bound Brook.

The annual meeting of the Bound Brook Progressive Club was held in the club room on Monday night, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Irving S. Whiting; first vice-president, Judge J. M. Wall; second vice-president, Charles Byer; third vice-president, Bernard Volk; fourth vice-president, Eldridge VanSyckle; secretary, Jesse L. H. Ayers; treasurer, A. V. Kershaw.

The teachers and officers of St. Paul's Sunday-school will meet in the chapel this evening.

Mrs. Frank Heagney and Mrs. James Donohue, of the Ladies Auxiliary of the A. O. H., attended the convention held at Atlantic City on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry D. Powelson are spending some time at Shavertown, Delaware county, N. Y.

New Providence.

John Force, of Morris Plains, is the guest of George Wahl, of Berkeley Heights.

Mrs. George Roberts, of Clinton avenue, Mountain View Park, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Cook, of Paterson.

Mrs. Sarah Wilcox and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Wilcox, of South street, have returned from a visit to the former's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilcox, of Great Kills, S. I.

Councilman Lyman B. Coddington and family, of South street, have returned after spending the summer at Belmar.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Crane, of Springfield avenue, have been entertaining relatives from Rossville, S. I.

High Bridge-Califon.

Miss Helen Krewson, of Plainfield, is visiting Mrs. Mary J. Sutton, of Vernoy avenue, Califon.

After visiting the family of Isaac Teets, of Califon, Miss Elizabeth Apgar returned to Plainfield this week.

Mrs. Philip R. George, of Califon, has returned from a visit to relatives in Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoyt, of New York, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis, of East Main street, Califon.

Mrs. Susan Swartz, of Newark, is in High Bridge.

Floyd Hoffman, of Califon, has resumed his studies at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.

Miss Ruth Barkman, of High Bridge, has returned to the State Normal School at Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Philhower, of Califon, and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Hoffman, of High Bridge, were recent visitors in Newark and Montclair.

Miss Edna Cregar returned to Newark this week after visiting the families of Thomas B. Cregar, of Bunnvale, and S. V. Hildebrant, of High Bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trimmer, of Roselle, were also recent guests at the Cregar home.

Mrs. George Beam is ill at her home near Vernoy.

German Valley. and Chester

Mrs. Mary Neighbour, of Jersey City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Horton, of German Valley.

Mrs. William T. Swacknamer, of German Valley, is ill.

Clarence Bryan, of Brooklyn, is with Mrs. Sarah Tyson, of German Valley.

Mrs. Stephen G. Lee, of East Orange, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. I. Sharp Vescelius, of German Valley.

Mrs. James Thomas, of German Valley, is recovering slowly from a fall.

Samuel Kay, of Virginia, is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kay, of Chester.

Herman Ferri, of Somerville, has purchased the confectionery store in Main street, Chester, from Charles Molinari. The latter will return to his home in Italy.

Henry F. VanAllen and family, of Chester, have returned to Brooklyn for the winter.

Frank Nailor, of Gladstone, has leased the Budd house on the Peapack road, Chester.

Mrs. Adaline George, of Schooley's Mountain, is visiting Mrs. Harriet Y. Redman, of Chester.

Hunterdon County.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seeschoof, of Glen Gardner, have as guests Miss Anna and Mollie Buck, of Hoboken, and William Seeschoof and daughter, Berenice Seeschoof, of Jersey City.

Walter Case, of Glen Gardner, is having an addition built to his residence in Main street.

Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Fulper and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fulper, of Hampton, are spending this week with their brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Cooper, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lair, of Clinton, is visiting in Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, of Somerville, were recent guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Siegfried, in Glen Gardner.

Mrs. W. R. Cronk, of Yonkers, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Martenis, in Asbury.

Mrs. Augusta VanSyckle has returned to her home in New Haven, Conn., after spending some time in Clinton.

SUPPLY OF VICHY CUT OFF.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17—This country's annual imports of mineral waters are over 3,000,000 gallons, having a value of nearly a million dollars. Two-thirds of these imports came from Germany, France and Austria-Hungary, and as soon as the stocks on hand are consumed domestic waters should take the place of those derived from foreign springs. In this connection it is interesting to note that last year the reported sales from 838 commercial springs in the United States were more than 57,000,000 million gallons, having a total value of $5,500,000. The recent activity of the New York State Reservation Commission in conserving the natural mineral waters at Saratoga Springs, as well as in improving local conditions, is of interest in calling attention to the many opportunities in this country for utilizing such waters and adopting modes of treatment similar to those which have made the bath resorts of Austria and Germany famous. There is a somewhat popular but fallacious impression that certain European waters have medicinal properties not possessed by any American waters, and many persons addicted to the Apollinaris or Celestine-Vichy habit might be equally well satisfied by waters from American springs in bottles of American glass, bearing labels printed in the United States.

OPPORTUNITY FOR METAL MFRS.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17—Of the metals and metallic ores the United States has been both as importer and exporter. Our imports of iron ore are double our exports, whereas of metallic copper the United States exports nearly twice as much as it imports. The general rule, however, probably is that the imports of manufactured or partly manufactured metals largely exceed in value the ores and crude metals brought into this country for domestic manufacture, and in the exports a somewhat similar ratio exists between crude material and manufactures, so that there is presented a double opportunity for increasing the scope and extent of American metal industries for both domestic consumption and export.

BOSTON'S 284TH ANNIVERSARY.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 17—Flags were displayed on public buildings today in token of Boston's 284th birthday. While it was in July, 1630, the colonists brought by John Winthrop to Salem, established themselves at Charlestown, it was not until September 17 of that year when the greater part of Winthrop's company moved to Trimontaine. Then the place was renamed Boston, after the Lincolnshire town whence many of the colonists had come.

— Advertise in The Daily Press.

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (5 colors)—Portraits of 16 European rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy, Land and Aerial Strength, Population, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Five Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON

IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT

PRESENTED BY

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

BATTLE CONTINUES IN FRANCE

(Continued from page 1)

Scene of operations in France.

Rome, Sept. 17, (Central News Cable)—Despatches from Vienna printed in the newspapers here admit that the whole empire is in a state bordering on panic. Virtually the entire population of Galicia is fleeing before the Russans and thousands of fugtives are arriving in Vienna and Budapest. It is realized that the Austrian army has been demoralized by the Russians in the final stand of the Austrians before Przemsyl.

The Tribuna says today that it understands Germany has adopted purely defensive tactics in France and will operate on the offensive against Russia with twelve army corps.

Copenhagen, Sept. 17, (Central News Cable)—The official newspaper, the Nord Deutsche Ayysgemeine Zeitung, says that the stories from hostile sources that Germany is inclined to make peace and is tired of war are entirely false. "The German people will never lay down their arms in this war," it says, "without guarantees necessary to its future in the world of nations."

Washington, Sept. 17.—After almost a week of complete isolation from its government the German embassy today received as its first despatch from the foreign office in Berlin a sweeping denial of the claims of French and British victories. The communcation follows:

"Reports of the Allies' victories in France are untrue. The German retreat of the western wing was a tactful manoeuvre not affecting the strategical position. French attempts to break through the centre of the German position were victoriously repulsed. German successes at several points of a long extended battlefield have been confirmed."

The Temps, a Paris newspaper, reports that the losses of the British in the recent fighting amount to 15,000 dead and wounded.

Reports of severe fighting in northern France reached the French embassy in a despatch from Bordeaux today. The despatch follows:

"Our army has been attacking the rear of the enemy which has been reinforced by German troops. The enemy was forced to accept battle along the whole front, parts of which were strongly organized.

An apology for the interview given out in New York by Sir Lionel Carden, the retiring British Minister to Mexico, in which he severely criticised the American policy in that country was made at the State Department today by Sir Cecil A. Spring Rice, the British Ambassador. The expression of regret is understood to have been ordered by the British foreign office whose atention was called to Sir Lionels strictures.

Paris, Sept. 17.—Advices from Vienna say that despatches from Galicia emphasize the numerically superiority of the Russians, whose army divisions are composed of 16 battalions of infantry, with cavalry and artillery and unlimited supplies of ammunition. The Russian divisions are much stronger than the Austrians, especially as regards artillery.

The Matin has received a special despatch from Petrograd which says the Russians have occupied Przemysl on the San River.

Announcement was made here today that the German Crown Prince's army has again been compelled to give ground before the combined French central armies. The German centre has been pressed north and east of Verenes, and it is stated that the battle line of the army of the Kaiser's heir is now rapidly encroaching on his headquarters at Montfaucon. This was taken to mean that the Germans have been forced to raise the seiege of Verdun. It is believed that the Crown Prince will now have to move his headquarters to the Meute River on the direct line to the Stenay gap. At all other points on the line it is stated forces of the Allies are holding fast, although it is admitted that the Germans have been heavily reinforced and are making a determined stand.

Amsterdam, Sept. 17, (Central News Cable)—The Handelsblad states that great preparations are being made by the Germans for the defence of the fortresses along the Rhine. They are working with feverish energy, particularly at Cologne, Ousseldorf, Wesel and Duisburg.

Antwerp, Sept. 17, (Central News Cable)—A despatch from Berlin says that 300 French prisoners escaped in Brussels. They were being conveyed into Germany. The train was shunted a siding in Brussels and the prisoners broke out the flooring of the cars during the night and escaped into the city, where they were provided with civilian dress by the citizens.

Nairobi, British East Africa, Sept. 17.—German soldiers who invaded the Belgian Congo have been defeated and driven back into their own territory. East African mounted rifles were sent to Belgian territory, where the Germans crossed the border and defeated the invaders at Kish.

JEWISH HOLIDAY SERVICES WILL BEGIN SUNDAY NIGHT

Services at Temple Sholem on Grove street for "Rosh Hashona," the Jewish New Year, will be held Sunday night at 7:30 and Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The "Yom Kipper" services will be started Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock and will continue all day Wednesday. They will be in charge of Rabbi M. Schoenbum. Tickets may be secured from members of the committee and from Samuel Rothberg at his store on West Front street.

NO CAUSE FOR WORRY.

Washington, Sept. 17.—President Wilson is not disturbed by reports that Americans and other foreigners will be in danger in Mexico after the withdrawal of American troops from Vera Cruz. Officials said today, the President compared such reports with predictions that the wholesale killings would follow the entry of Carranza to Mexico City.

Miss Anna Borum, principal of the Jefferson School, has returned from Europe where she has been spending her summer vacation and has taken up her duties at the school.

SEYMOUR DAY ELECTED TO HEAD N. P. H. S. FRESHMEN

The freshman class of the North Plainfield High School held its first meeting of the year in the assembly hall this afternoon and elected the following officers for the coming year: Seymour Day, president; Douglas Stewart, vice-president; Marion Blair, secretary; Evelyn Pilcher, treasurer.

The class is the largest freshman class in the history of the school, the total enrollment being about eighty. No colors were decided upon at the meeting today, but another one will be held shortly to discuss class business.

ACCEPT MEDIATION PLAN.

Washington, Sept. 17.—President Wilson today received formal notification that the striking Colorado miners had confirmed the action of the officers of the United Mine Workers in accepting a tentative basis for the settlement of the strike. The operators are expected to reach a decision Saturday.

BATTLESHIP COMING HOME.

Vera Cruz, Sept. 17.—The Battleship New York has been ordered home and sails today.

THOUGHTS OF A SOLDIER IN ACTION

Showing the Complications of the Human Mind.

FIRST SENSATIONS IN BATTLE

Described as Akin to Fever Attack, but That Feeling Soon Passes—"I Aim at Living Targets, Shoot and Watch Effect of My Bullet Like a Spectator at a Rifle Competition."

"I am in the field hospital now with a nice little hole in my left shoulder. My shoulder feels much as if some playful joker had touched it with a lighted cigar."

Thus writes a wounded French soldier in a remarkably interesting letter to a friend in London. Describing the fight in which he was wounded, the Frenchman says:

"Since some time the rattling of volleys is audible. Then at a distance a heavy detonation of a gun is heard. Arrived at the crest, we drop ourselves, and there right in front of us, on the opposite hills and making for the plain between, are the enemy engaged in a fight with a division of the allied troops.

"I can distinctly see the German artillerymen moving about the guns on the hilltops and slopes. I see a mighty flash from one of the guns; the heavy report is re-echoed by the surrounding hills. It is strange, but in the face of death and destruction I catch myself trying to make out where the shell has fallen, as if I am an interested spectator at a rifle competition. I am not the only one. I see many curious faces around me bearing expressions full of interest, just as if the owners of the respective faces formed the audience at a highly entertaining theatrical performance without having anything to do with the play itself.

Fun While Bullets Fly.

"The human mind is a curious and complicated thing. Now that we were shooting at the enemy and often afterward in the midst of a fierce battle I heard some remark made or some funny expression used, which proved that the speaker's thoughts were far from realizing the terrible facts around him. It has nothing to do with heartlessness or anything like that. I don't know what it is. Perhaps I shall have an opportunity to philosophize on it later.

"Volley after volley was sent in the direction of the enemy. A rain of hostile bullets passed over our heads. Instinctively we stooped, although when one hears the bullet it has passed already. It is a queer sensation which comes over us the first time we are met with a hail of bullets. We suddenly feel as if attacked by fever, but this feeling soon leaves us.

"The earth was shaken by the incessant cannonading, and the air was torn by continuous rattling rifle fire. A comrade on my right stumbled, dropped forward without uttering a sound, killed by a shot in the breast. A man in front of me threw his arms up, fell, struggled to his feet and fell again.

Shot Man to Put Him Out of Agony.

"A shell exploded near us, followed by a terrible cry. Five of us were lying dead in a little square. One man had both legs blown away and was still alive, conscious and imploring us to kill him. An officer ran past, stopped, and after a short look at the man, shot him through the heart. 'Ca vaux mieux,' he said, 'pauvre diable.'

"The officer opened his mouth to utter a command and at the same moment got a bullet in the mouth. He turned around twice and fell heavily on the dike close by me.

"At a good distance behind us Red Cross soldiers and Red Cross friars carrying the Red Cross flag, were stooping over the wounded and removing them to an ambulance van. A shell exploded over their heads, and only a couple of the Red Cross men were left.

"More hostile troops have been advancing. We are retreating. Notwithstanding the appalling scenes around me, I feel perfectly calm now. Terrible though it may seem, I confess that without a moment's trouble I aim at my living targets, shoot and watch the effect of my bullet."

DARN AS BATTLE RAGES.

Women Continue Mending as Bursting Shells Spread Ruin at Meaux.

Says a London Daily Mail correspondent:

"I came upon the battle at Meaux with astonishing suddenness. My motorcar has just shot up the rise that overhangs the little town, and there it was before our eyes, in the valley, dense white balloon smoke from exploding shells, little coveys of shrapnel bursting in the air, showers of black earth ripped out of solid ground, farmhouses and haystacks flaming, and a German aeroplane cruising overhead.

"Only when the chasseurs come clattering through the streets are the shutters cautiously opened and the inhabitants peep out. Through these openings it is curious to see women darning socks as though nothing was happening."

Giving Children War Names.

The conferring of war names upon children began as soon as the first blood was shed. Albert Leman Liege Hopkins and Marie Alsace Lorraine Lecomte have already been registered in London.

—If you have a really desirable house or apartment to rent, your "ad" will constitute GOOD NEWS to some anxious people in this city.

COURT ORDERED WIFE TO RETURN THE RING

Wife, Said to Be a Spiritualist, Had Husband Arrested Yesterday.

"Give me back my ring and I will no longer claim you as my wife," said Fred Clukus, of 217 West Fourth street, when arraigned before City Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court, this morning, charged by his wife, Helen Clukus, with disorderly conduct. The complainant was ordered by the court to return the piece of finger jewelry and it was immediately transferred from her finger to that of her husband of twelve months.

The same couple were the central figures in a police court case in June last when the wife requested that her husband be ordered to remain away from her. This he agreed to do and with that understanding the matter was dismissed. According to Mrs. Clukus the man has been trailing her for some unknown reason for some time past and fearing for her life she caused his arrest by Patrolman Neylon, yesterday afternoon. In court this morning, the defendant appeared penitent but claimed that he wanted to have nothing to do with the woman other than to get back the ring which he said was forty years old and had belonged to his mother.

When the court suggested that the couple "kiss and make up," Mrs. Clukus came to the fore with a loud protest, exclaiming: "I have taken oath before a higher authority who has now gone before our Maker that I will never live with that man again and I intend to stick to my agreement."

Clukus was prompt in agreeing to the separation and with the understanding that a fine of $20 with the option of spending sixty days in the county jail would be imposed on him if he annoyed the woman again, he was allowed to go.

JERSEY FARMERS GIVE LIVE STOCK ATTENTION

Achieving Better Results In Production Through Greater Care. To Exhibit at Trenton Fair.

Farmers throughout the east and those of New Jersey in particular are paying more attention to live stock production than formerly and are achieving better results. In recognition of the advancement that is being made additional classes have been arranged at Trenton Interstate Fair, and prizes have been offered for the stock. This department at the Fair, which is to be held from Sept. 28 to Oct. 2, is in charge of Professor F. C. Minkler of the New Jersey agricultural experiment station.

"At the earnest solicitation of the Shorthorn Breeders' association," Professor Minkler said, "a class has been added for this breed." A further division of the under two-year-old groups has been made, designated as senior and junior classes in order that animals in competition might be more uniform as to size and age.

"With the recognition of the four leading dairy breeds that prevail in this state, as well as the addition of classes as noted above, it is evident that competition in the dairy classes will be very keen and that a large percentage of exhibitors will come from within the state. It is reasonable to believe that the New Jersey breeder will soon attain the recognition that he is justly entitled to, that will stand him in the front rank among breed organizations.

"The use of hog cholera serum has revolutionized the swine industry, and it is now known that by the use of immunizing serum animals can be safely exhibited at the various shows without danger from loss or infection.

"It is interesting to note that New Jersey is holding its own in its horse breeding work. With twelve stallions in service owned by the state and offered through the live stock commission to the mare owners in various parts of the state, it is gratifying to note that mare owners are taking advantage of this offering and are adding materially to the number of draft horses that are being produced in the state. New Jersey is one of the few states that are maintaining their production of work horses. A number of foals from such mating will be on exhibition at the Fair this year and will be well worth seeing."

TAKES U. S. FLAG.

New York, Sept. 17.—The Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, tank steamer Excelsior, formerly under the German flag, has been granted American registry. The vessel left New York on July 23 laden with oil for Copenhagen and is now at the Azores.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers to the Daily Press who are served by the route boys will confer a favor by promptly reporting to the Press office, either in person, by telephone or by mail, any negligence on the part of the route boys. Phone 1300.

MISS KELLY WEDS JAMES TARPEY IN THIS CITY

Miss Mary Kelly, of this city, and James Tarpey, of Dunellen, were married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Mary's church, by Father Bernard M. Bogan, rector of the church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Kelly, while David Tarpey, of New York, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The bride wore a pink gown, trimmed with Irish lace. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pale blue.

A reception followed the ceremony at the couple's new home at 522 West Front street, Dunellen, where they will reside after a honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Tarpey are now in Washington. Music at the reception was furnished by a stringed orchestra. The bride received a large collection of gifts. Mr. Tarpey is employed by the Levgar Structural Iron Company, of Dunellen.

MRS. TOMLINSON CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF W. C. T. U.

The presentation of reports and election of officers comprised the principal business at the morning session of the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. being held today at the rooms on Madison avenue. This afternoon will be devoted to the presentation of the treasurer's report, as well as those from department heads and an address by Rev. D. R. Ramsey, pastor of the Methodist church, Dunellen.

The officers chosen this morning are as follows: President Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson; honorary vice-president, Mrs. E. A. Parse; treasurer, Mrs. A. G. Negley; coresponding secretary, Mrs. P. H. Bennett; recording secretary, Mrs. T. C. Bodine. The union has had a successful year and the outlook is promising.

MUCH MIRTH IN PROCTOR'S FIVE ACTS OF VAUDEVILLE

Five all-star vaudeville acts comprise an excellent program of entertainment at Proctor's Theatre for the week-end, all proving themselves feature attractions in the opening performance this afternoon. "Ward 22," one of the latest vaudeville sensations, tops the bill and is an act that will keep the audience in a continuous round of applause. The actors are capable of bringing down the house with their laugh producing material and the scenic effects are elaborate and appropriate to such a farce. Some artistic posing is done by LaSelma, one of the most beautiful posing models in vaudeville. She exhibits a vast knowledge of this art and is as graceful as she is beautiful. Barney Gilmore, one of the favorite Irish comedians of vaudeville, gives a side-splitting exhibition of this popular entertainment. Ragtime melody is dispersed by Remey, Frazier and Kaker and Doranto, the only Chinese musician in vaudeville gives an interesting sketch. "The Million Dollar Mystery" has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday. The next episode will be shown Wednesday, September 23.

PROGRESSIVES INDORSE STEVEN FOR CORONER

The Union County Progressive Committee held a well attended meeting in the Board of Trade rooms, Elizabeth, Tuesday evening, Mayor Harwood Fish, of Roselle, county chairman, presiding.

After the uusual routine business, speeches were made by G. W. V. Moy, of this city, Progressive candidate for Congress; James B. Furber and Theodore F. VanDyke, Assembly candidates, and others. The reports received from all sections of the county were of an encouraging nature, and the opinion was freely expressed that the party would show unusual strength at the polls in November.

A resolution was unanimously adopted nominating Dr. John B. Stevens, of Roselle, as the Progressive candidate for coroner, and the secretary was instructed to send out notices to Progressives throughout the county to write Dr. Steven's name on the ballot at the forthcoming primary.

A campaign committee was appointed, consisting of the following Progressive candidates: G. W. V. Moy, chairman; James B. Furber, Theodore F. VanDyke, William D. Jones, Dr. J. B. Stevens, Harwood Fish, Edward A. Leach, William R. Richart and Elwood W. Phares.

SWEDISH LUTHERAN SERVICE.

Rev. Karl A. Martin, of Jersey City, will conduct Swedish Lutheran services in the German Lutheran church, this evening, at which time it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the members. Following the service there will be a meeting of the board of trustees to discuss several important business matters. Mr. Martin will have charge of this congregation for a month at least.

Dr. E. B. Allcutt, who has been spending the summer at the Ocean Hotel, Ocean Grove, has returned to his home at 320 Central avenue, where he has resumed his practice.

Buy Your Fall Shoes Now

PRICES WILL BE ADVANCED LATER IN THE SEASON

Owing to war conditions prices on shoes are certain to advance from 25 cents to $1.00 a pair.

The advance will not affect the shoes which are on hand, but as soon as these are sold the prices will go up.

This declaration is not made to stimulate trade, (as it would be more profitable for us to hold the shoes we have until prices do go up and then sell at the advance) but rather to let the people know what they may expect and give them an opportunity to buy their fall shoes at the same prices as last year.

Here is what the Shoe Retailer, a Trade Journal published in Boston, the heart of the leather market, has to say: "Tentative advances ranging from 25 cents to 75 cents per pair, according to the grade, have been figured on men's shoes, and proportionate advances will be made on women's shoes."

Henry B. Endicott, one of the largest tanners and manufacturers in the country, has this to say: "No man can tell what the advance may be. It is a sure possibility, and I think a probability, that shoes may be a dollar a pair higher, in fact, as far as I can see, I don't know why we should limit the price to one dollar. It may be more."

In 1913 this country imported $50,288,228 worth of leather from the war affected countries, and exported raw material and finished shoes, $25,504,184. Besides, this country imports all the chemicals and dyes used in the chrome tanning of hides. These supplies are cut off. In addition to this Africa, Australia, South America and the Far East are looking to the United States for their shoes on account of the European factories being closed, and the countries at war will also have to depend on the United States for their footwear supplies, so that it can readily be seen why shoes will advance.

Our fall shoes are here, and will be sold at the old prices as long as they last. After the supply is gone there is no telling what the price will be. Wise buyers will buy their Fall shoes now.

Stuart's Shoe Shop

Footwear for the Family

215 W. Front St. Opp. Proctor's

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons.

WAR MAP

Here is positively the best, latest and most complete war map issued. Don't be satisfied with an inferior 2-color makeshift. This map is printed in 5 colors, from plates by the best European map makers, and is given to our readers for the mere expense of distribution, as explained in the War Map Coupon printed in another column.

SEE THIS LIST OF COUNTRIES SHOWN ON THIS OFFICIAL MAP

These also include the new border lines of the Balkan States.

England	Montenegro
France	Norway
Germany	Belgium
Russia	Bulgaria
Austria	Denmark
Greece	Albania
Portugal	Holland
Servia	Rumania
Italy	Sweden
Spain	Luxemburg
Switzerland	Turkey

WAR CHARTS FREE

The Big War Map is 18½ x 16½ inches, and contains ALL the war area. Then there are NINE CHARTS showing fortified towns, naval area, big battle ground plans, and ALL of the big war capitals in detail. Everything is fully covered, from the Rock of Gibraltar to the Ural Mountains.

This latest European War Map gives you the exact facts—the number of men available for duty in army and navy, the classification of naval vessels and aerial craft. There is also a vast amount of valuable information about each country, national debts, population, previous decisive battles, etc. Besides this there are sixteen portroits of European rulers, maps of the leading European capitals and strategic naval points.

HERE IS OUR GREAT FREE OFFER

Present to The DAILY PRESS One War Map Coupon, printed daily in another column, together with 10 cents to cover promotion expenses, and get this Map with War Charts FREE. It is worth twenty times the EXPENSE AMOUNT for which YOU can secuer it.

BY MAIL

Will be sent anywhere, in city or out, postpaid, for 12 cents. Send stamps, cash or money order to

The DAILY PRESS

CASH or CREDIT

CLOTHING CLOAKS

BERNSTEIN OUTFITTING COMPANY

HATS SHOES

204 W. Front Street Plainfield N.J.

1 Flight Up Over the Lyric. Open Evening Till 9 o'clock.

Formerly Nat. Bernstein, of 222 West Front Street.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300. Private Branch Exchange connecting all Departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

SEPT 17TH IN HISTORY.

1771—Tobias Smollett, English novelist, died. Born in 1721.

1856—Last national convention of the Whigs met at Baltimore.

1859—A statue of Daniel Webster was dedicated in Boston.

1867—The Antietam national cemetery was dedicated with imposing ceremonies.

1871—Mont Cenis Tunnel opened.

1879—International exhibition opened at Sydney, N. S. W.

1888—First meeting of the Parnell Commission, to inquire into the charges made against Mr. Parnell in the London Times.

1894—The Japanese defeated the Chinese at battle of Yalu River.

1901—Body of British troops under Major Gough surprised and defeated by the Boers under Gen. Botha at Utrecht.

1908—First aeroplane fatality in the United States, Lieut. Selfridge, U. S. A., being killed while making a flight at Fort Meyer.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 17, 1914.

ON THE JOB.

There's going to be no tax to raise revenue because of the failure of customs receipts, that will in any way affect necessities of life. At least there will not be so far as our own Senator James E. Martine is concerned, and he doesn't care who knows it. One of the bright spots in the debate on the subject in the Senate last Friday was what the Senator had to say and he was on the job with all of his well known oratorical ability. The Congressional Record, in its usual dull manner, only records the cold words as delivered by our fellow citizen, but there is not a resident of Plainfield who knows "Jim," as it seems the more natural way to speak of him, who cannot close his eyes and see the "farmer orator" delivering the following glowing words:

Mr. President: I regret the necessity of additional taxation, but say if it is to be raised, let it be raised on luxuries and not on necessities. I will stand here until the end of my term before I will vote for a tithe of a tax on a bushel of wheat or a pound of flour that shall go into a hungry man's mouth. I would not do it on any consideration. A tax on transportation is a tax on food.

If there is anything in our idea of building up industries, it is controverted by the proposition to tax transportation. I ask, what would all our industries amount to if our product are to be clogged and closed within the walls of the factories? The process of taxation on transportation might be carried to such an extreme limit that it would be an absolute prohibition on transportation.

I do not believe, I cannot believe that the sober sense of the Senate of the United States will ever acquiesce in a proposition to tax transportation.

There are so-called luxuries that have been recited by the Senator from New Hampshire that could richly and well bear the burden. I am not in favor of exempting tobacco. Some gentleman on our side of the Senate said to me it would be a monstrous wrong to impose a tax upon tobacco. He argued that that was a great product of their section of the United States; that they were in a bad condition now owing to the European war; that they were prevented from exporting to Germany, which is a great consumer of our tobacco, and Russia and some other countries in Europe which are great consumers of our tobacco, and the result was that now in the war the industry is in a stagnant condition and they can find no sales for their products. I said to him, and I say to the Senate and to all the world, I do not believe tobacco is a necessity. I have expressed myself on that before. At all events, it is a luxury; and tobacco, whisky, beer, and wines, I believe, could richly bear the burden of it all and bring an adequate income to the United States in this our crisis.

RED CROSS SEALS.

A reminder of the Christmas season is contained in the notice to the Daily Press that the red cross seals will be placed on sale again, and the money derived from them will be, as in the past, devoted to tubercular work. Last year 45,000,000 of the seals were sold, and the National Association for the Study and Relief of Tuberculosis has now defined just how the money to be derived this year will be applied. It will be devoted to the following activities:

1. The construction of hospitals or sanatoria for the care of the tuberculous.

2. The maintenance of tubercular persons.

3. The provision of day or night camps for the tuberculous; the provision and maintenance of dispensaries, visiting nurses, open air schools, fresh air classes, or preventoria for the care or treatment of tuberculous cases or for the prevention of the spread of tuberculosis.

4. The maintenance of educational or legislative activities which have for their object the prevention of infection with tuberculosis.

Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, executive secretary of the National Association, says in commenting on this definition, "We hope by this means to prevent the spending, particularly of small sum of money, in useless activities, and to direct the efforts of all anti-tuberculosis agencies along the lines which will produce most results for the money invested. We are in thorough sympathy and co-operation with every movement for better community or individual health, but if this Red Cross Seal money is to be spent as we advertise, only for tuberculosis work, we wish to see that it is expended to the best advantage."

FATHER MILLER.

The death of Rev. William H. Miller, whose great funeral this morning attested the love in which he was held by the people of his church, removes from local activities a liberal, broad minded, democratic clergyman and citizen. Following a life time given to the cause of humanity, and covering a period of over twenty years in this city alone, he has been taken from the work at a comparatively young age. The new building for St. Joseph's church will ever remain as a monument to his devotion to the work which he choose in life. Not only in this city does he leave hundreds of mourning parishioners and friends, but the same may be said of the other cities where he ministered to the wants of his people prior to coming to this city. He was at New Brunswick at one time, and as the Home News of that city says, "he was one of the best loved Catholic clergymen in this section of New Jersey and a man who has done much, to promote the welfare of the communities in which he labored. A good man has gone to his reward."

One "argument (?)" presented against the consolidation of the borough and city is that it will throw all of the borough officials out of their jobs. Of course that cannot be disputed, and very able and efficient men, now in the public service, would be included in the list. At the same time, however, all the work which they are now doing would be done by the officials of the city, and consequently there would be a material decrease in the expense of administration, which would tend to reduce the tax rate, not only in the borough, but in the city as well. In matters of this kind it is the interests of the many, and not the few which must be considered. No person holding a minor position in the borough would be affected. It would be necessary to have just as many firemen and policemen, and others in similar capacities. Certainly the contention that it would reduce the number of officials is one reason in favor of consolidation rather than against it.

The reports from the seat of the war abroad indicate that while they may have no nation which they can distinctly call their own, the Jewish people certainly know how to fight to defend the honor of the countries in which they may have taken residence. The day is past when this great race can be classed other than as one making good and patriotic citizens, no matter where they may be found.

THE FORUM

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

This afternoon about 1:30 I boarded Main Line car No. 2014 for Bound Brook, conductor No. 4631. After dropping my nickel in the "pay-as-you-enter" box, the conductor said "inside please." At that time, all seats were occupied, and quite a number of passengers were "strap-hanging." I did not go inside. Shortly after the conductor again said "inside please." I continued to stand on the large rear platform. In a short time one of the company's inspectors, No. 9993, boarded the car. When the conductor told him that he had already asked me to go inside, 9993 came to me and demanded that I leave the platform. I said: "I preferred to stand outside where I could get fresh air, as I did not want to breathe the foul atmosphere in a crowded car." 9993 then called me several vulgar and offensive names, and said, "he would throw me off the car if I were not an old man, as he had a right to do by his instructions." This inspector continued his vulgarity to me until we reached Bound Brook, where I left the car.

Now, sir, where does the company get the right to thus abuse a respectable and well behaved passenger? If it was wrong for me, one passenger to ride on the large rear platform, and right for the company's servants to submit him to vulgar insults for so doing, in what way is it right for the company to not only overcrowd the insides of its cars, but the rear platforms also, as can be seen every day in the week, as was the case today with car No. 2003 at 5:45 p. m., at West Front street and Madison avenue. If the company has the right to threaten to throw one passenger off the car, why don't it threaten to throw off the crowds who ride on the platform. If they did their dividends would grow beautifully smaller, so they refrain.

Our Boards of Health have taken our drinking glasses from the railway cars for fear of microbes, intending to protect the health of the people. Why do our Boards of Health allow street car companies to overcrowd the inside of their cars with different degrees of cleanliness or otherwise passengers and then allow the companies to thrust healthy people into a filthy atmosphere unfit for human beings.

I believe I did right in protecting myself from a poisonous air, and refuse to take into my, at present healthy, seventy-seven years' old lungs that which is filth and filth only when cars are overcrowded.

Respectfully,
J. W. HARRISON,
116 Madison Ave.

September 15, 1914.

The Way to Consolidate is to Consolidate.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

When for a long period of time agitation existed in this country on the subject of resuming specie payments Horace Greeley coined the telling statement: "The way to resume specie payment is to resume."

Consolidation of the municipal governments of Plainfield and North Plainfield has been an issue since 1897, when the following well-known and esteemed citizens of the borough signed the following call for a meeting.

The undersigned sitizens of Plainfield favor the consolidation of city and borough and their union under one government:

Newton B. Smalley, Lemuel B. Woolston, James McGee, James A. Church, John P. Emmons, Richard E. Coriell, A. E Kenney, Walter F. Hamilton, John Valiant, Henry B. Wells, S. St. J. McCutchen, Benjamin M. Day, W. J. Buttfield, J. H. Howell, H. K. Carroll, Edwin S. Hooley, Walter M. McGee, Frank Curtis, Samuel Townsend, G. T. Douglass, I. P. Northrop, George P. Dupee, James C. Peck, Martin I. Cooley, George T. Rogers, W. L. Saunders, William J. Roome, W. O. Worth, Robert S. Miller, Elston M. French, A. E. Faber, Jr., Henry A. McGee.

During the past seventeen years public meetings, papers, pamphlets, figures, editorials and other matter have been before the people, and every time the question comes up some one rises and says that he favors consolidation, but he would like to see it done in some other way. Some want a new county, others want Plainfield brought into Somerset county, some want annexation first, but the people of the borough who are earnestly interested in its prosperity and growth are beginning to say that the true way to consolidate is to consolidate.

In the words of Dr. H. K. Carroll, "The manifest destiny of these two places is to be under one government," and to this we must all agree when we see how the growth of the borough away from Plainfield is shut off by the lowlands and the mountains, how it follows the lines of Front street and Green Brook and how stagnation of property exists in the borough notwithstanding the fact that it is the most beautiful part of the Plainfields. As a separate community it must bear the burden of contributing every day to Plainfield's prosperity without getting the benefit of that contribution in taxable property sufficient to pay for needed improvements. Taxes in the borough are higher than in the city, yet there are no sewers and the installation of a sewerage system is sure to add greater burdens. A united city would enable the borough taxpayers to carry this burden at less expense than if alone, because the taxable property of the city, the growth of which has been largely due to the borough, would be used every year in making up the tax budget. On this subject it is of interest to note that the statute of the State of New Jersey, passed in 1900, provides the plan and machinery by which two communities may be consolidated. This statute in Section 5 says:

"On the second Monday after such consolidation shall take effect a committee of three to be appointed by the Common Council or other governing body of the city and a committee of three to be appointed by the Common Council or other governing board of each municipality, the territory of which shall be annexed to or consolidated with such city shall meet and proceed to allot and divide between such city and municipality all the property and moneys on hand or due and all indebtedness, etc., IN PROPORTION TO THE TAXABLE PROPERTY AND RATABLES WITHIN THE RESPECTIVE LIMITS OF SUCH MUNICIPALITY, AND SUCH APPORTIONMENT OF ASSETS AND DEBTS SHALL BE BASED UPON THE LAST ABSTRACT OF RATABLES MADE FOR THE PURPOSE OF LEVYING TAXES."

Section 7 of this Act says:

"All officers of such city, for whose successors no provision is made herein, shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms.

In Section 8 the statement is made:

"Such commissioners shall at once proceed to divide the territory so consolidated with such city into wards in as fair a manner as may be and shall make such division with reference to population and territory."

It must not be forgotten that the laws of the State regulate cities and boroughs, that laws that apply to one city or one borough in the State apply to all, so that it would not be lawful for the people of the borough and the people of the city to get together in advance of consolidation and make a bargain or plan. This is done when the two places are separate, as for instance, during the recent controversy between the city and borough on the division of the sewer expense. When the municipalities are one no such bargain becomes necessary. The laws provide the machinery for union through a board of commissioners who must act in the interests of the community as a whole.

ULYSSES G. TINGLEY.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

I wish, if I may take the liberty, to substantiate my classmate, A. B. Conlin's, views in regard to the mismanagement of the High School in the year of 1912.

He is accused of bringing up individual grievances before the public. It is not an individual grievance but a class grievance. Nay, not a grievance but the simple re-establishment of the Class of 1912's honor. If something extraordinary occurs, can the public form a just opinion without first receiving the true facts? If they ask for bread will you give them a stone? I am afraid my classmate's opponent antagonizes the spirit which is inflamed in the hearts of the members of the Class of 1912.

I find, in looking over a few clippings which I have saved through my years in High School, that there was some trouble in choosing a candidate for the Yale Cup in 1911. What was the cause of this Was it from mismanagement or lack of interest? It is absurd to think that from among thirty boys there was not one with a trace of athletic ability. The Class of 1912 had men both on the football and baseball teams. How could those men have stayed here except for their ability? Every member of the class had the welfare of it at heart, each strove to do his part; and, each tried to make every undertaking a success. The failure of the presentation of the Yale Cup was due to the mismanagement and uninterest of the people in charge. Each boy was striving for it. The class expectations were shattered by the announcement that there would not be a Yale Cup that year. Can you imagine the deep feelings and humiliation of our class? That is past, yet we are still members of that class seeking only to uphold our integrity.

Mr. Conlin, my highest esteem for your initiative in our class's welfare and I am glad for the pleasure of having gone through my High School course with you.

A member of the Class of 1912.
JOHN RAYMOND MANLEY.

September 16, 1914.

VERMONT PROGRESSIVES.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 17—The Progressive State convention assembled in this city today for the nomination of a candidate for United States Senator and a State ticket to be voted for at the November election. All indications point to the nomination of Frazer Metzger for the United States Senatorship. Mr. Metzger was the Progressive candidate for Governor two years ago.

—Try a Press want ad. It will pick results.

THE NEW FALL DRESS GOODS

Are Now on Sale. The Best American Mills are Represented in the Splendid Showing Which Comprise All That's Newest in Weave and Color Combinations, and Best of All You'll Find the Prices Most Reasonable

AT 50c AND $1.00 A YARD.

Crowfoot checks, black and white, in all size checks, 40 to 54 inches wide.

AT $1.00 A YARD.

50-inch all wool Serges in neat black and green and black and blue checks.

AT 59c A YARD.

French Flannel, 27 inches wide; all wool, in light and dark grey, brown, green and cardinal.

AT $1.00 A YARD.

All wool crepe suiting, 48 inches wide, in mahagony, navy blue and black.

AT $1.00 A YARD.

Cadet cloth, 48 inches wide, in black, green navy and cadet blue.

AT $1.59 A YARD.

An all wool black and blue mixture, suitable for heavy skirts and suits.

AT $1.00 A YARD.

56-in. all wool Suiting, in plaids, checks and Roman stripes; in all the new shades.

AT $1.59 A YARD.

Heavy Worsted Plaid Suiting, in all the latest color combinations; 56 inches wide.

AT 59c A YARD.

40-inch Roman Striped Suitings, in a variety of color combinations.

AT $1.00 A YARD.

Silk and wool crepe cloth in cadet blue, wine color and mahogany.

AT 50c AND 59c A YARD.

All wool fancy plaids, 40 inches wide; specially adapted for children's dresses.

AT $1.25 A YARD.

All wool Bedford Cord, 52 inches wide, in black, medium and dark navy blue.

"OUR LINING DEPARTMENT" is fully stocked with all the Fall shades in clever and Princess Satin, Colonial, Marvel and Dresden feather weight Percalines; also Crinoline, Buckram, Canvas and Queen Coat Foundations.

Butterick Patterns and the Delineator for October now on sale.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Our Notion Department is complete with every thing pertaining to dress-making.

CHANCE FOR CEMENT MAKERS.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17—American manufacturers have not yet made the most of their opportunities to establish greater export trade, according to Director George Otis Smith, of the United States Geological Survey. Statistics show that the export of cement from England, Germany, Belgium and France not only has been considerably greater than that from the United States, but has borne a much higher ratio to the production in these countries. The quantity of cement exported by France in recent years is estimated to have reached at least 23 per cent. of her production, and that of Germany about 17 per cent. There are few cement plants in South American countries, and in the past these countries have been supplied mainly from Europe. There is evidently an opportunity now for the cement industry of the United States to secure this trade.

MISSOURI VALLEY MEDICS.

Colfax, Ia., Sept. 17—The annual autumn meeting of the Missouri Valley Medical Society convened here today with an attendance of prominent physicians and surgeons from nearly all the States of the Middle West. The initial session was held this morning, with Dr. Flavel B. Tiffany, of Kansas City, presiding. The meeting will continue over tomorrow and will be followed on Saturday by a clinical session in Des Moines.

TO GET SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 17—An international trade congress to be held in the Philadelphia Commercial Museums next month, during the visit to this country of a delegation of South American merchants, is the plan suggested by officials of the museums as one of the most efficient to establish trade relations with the countries represented in the delegation.

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealer, Somerville, sells the Daily Press or will deliver it to your home every day.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.

Registration Day for Special Election in Borough.

"Black Patti" at Plainfield Theatre.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

F. C. Thomas Meeting in Borough.

TOMORROW.

Building Trades Council.

Vaudeville at Proctor's.

First M. E. Church Brotherhood lecture.

Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

SATURDAY.

Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

Baseball—Plainfield vs. Saurer, at Parker Field.

MONDAY.

Tax Sale Continued.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

TUESDAY.

Primary Day.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 71 degrees; 11 a. m., 83 degrees; 1 p. m., 86 degrees.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S RYE

E. C. WESCOTT.

115 East Front Street.

Falling Hair Stopped by Using HIRSUTONE

A scientific, antiseptic Hair Tonic which kills the dandruff germ. Preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair and stimulates its growth. Hirsutone is a non-secret preparation—fragrantly perfumed—a delightful dressing. Start using it NOW before it is too late. Price 50c. Hirsutone is only obtainable at

SCHREINER BROS.

Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
Colgate's Shaving Stick, Cream, Powder, 20c.

EARLY SAVING

Yes, it is very important that every boy and girl be taught to save money.

By starting an account with the City National Bank for your son or daughter, you help them acquire the habit of making regular deposits in the bank.

4% Interest paid on Savings Accounts

ORGANIZED 1875.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

FRONT STREET

Thursday Friday Saturday

Engagement of the Latest Vaudeville Sensation

"Ward 22"

A Rip Roaring Farce

LA SELMA
Most Beautiful Posing Model in Vaudeville

BARNEY GILMORE
The Favorite Irish Comedian

REMEY, FRAZIER & BAKER
Sweet Singers, Ragtime Melody

DORANTO
The Only Chinese Musician in Vaudeville

PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY

Note—The Million Dollar Mystery has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday. The next episode will be shown Wednesday, September 23rd.

PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

Republican Candidate for COUNTY CLERK JAMES C. CALVERT

Mr. Calvert is a candidate at the Republican Primaries on Tuesday, September 22, 1914, to succeed himself. The following well known and distinguished members of the Union County Bar Association endorse Mr. Calvert's administration of the County Clerk's office, all signing his petition for the nomination: Hon. Wm. J. Magie, former Chancellor and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey; Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, former Governor of the State; former Judge and ex-Prosecutor Whittemore, Wm. N. Runyon and William Newcorn; former Judge and ex-Prosecutor C. Addison Swift; Hon. Geo. T. Parrot, Surrogate; Judge Wm. G. DeMeza; Paul Q. Oliver, President of the Union County Bar Association; Edward S. Atwater, Jr., E. D. Mulford, Frank A. English, Wm. F. Groves, G. Bartram Woodruff, George Schmidt, Jr., Richard F. Henry, N. R. Leavitt, Raymond T. Parrot, Robert L. Eaton, Sidney W. Eldridge, Charles L. Morgan, Charles A. Otto, Jr., Otto Froebel, Louis Messing, Jr., Donald H. McLean of Elizabeth; Berkeley C. Austin, of Cranford; Corra N. Williams, Frederick C. Kentz and Schuyler M. Cady, of Summit; David Armstrong, of Rahway; Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., Francis J. Blatz, Robert Newton Crane, Harry C. Runyon, Asa F. Randolph, Vincent W. Nash, Augustus C. Nash, Martin B. Stutsman, W. R. Codington, of Plainfield; Charles N. Codding and Lloyd Thompson, of Westfield and others.

(Paid for by James C. Calvert Campaign Com.) 9 15 3 tuths

Store Open All Day Saturday

FOR PRESERVING
Royal Granite Steel Ware

is absolutely pure and safe to use and is very moderately priced.

FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, JAR RINGS, STONE POTS AND JUGS.

Ask to see the new White Crown Vacuum Mason Jar Top, the most successful and sanitary closures yet devised for screw top jars.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen.
Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.

Mrs. H. E. Parker, chairman; Mrs. Joseph Smith and Mrs. J. L. Evans.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

The Mothers' Association, which has undertaken the work of conducting the school lunches for the teachers and pupils in the High School, served about six hundred lunches on Wednesday. About three hundred grammar school pupils were served first by members of the association, assisted by grammar grade boys. Then the High School pupils lined up, and were waited upon by the women assisted by High School boys. Tickets were sold for twenty-five cents, and punched for each article purchased, the articles of food ranging in price from one to three cents.

There is much enthusiasm over the new culinary regime, and it also means a great deal of work, but assuming that Elihu Root was right when he said, "The things one has an opportunity to do are substance; the things that one tries to get are shadows," then the Mothers' Association may feel that the serving of wholesome lunches to the pupils is an opportunity which will result in much good.

"Good Housekeeping" for September contains an elucidating write-up by Dr. Wiley on "The Inherent Noaccountness of Patent Nostrums." Mothers should read it, as one lengthy paragraph deals with "Dosing the Babies."

Orison Smett Marden, whose books have been an inspiration and a stimulus to many, says in the September Nantilus, "The graduate who goes into the world without training in what constitutes a positive and a negative mental attitude is liable to be ruined in a very short time. His doubts, fears and lack of confidence, his timid and negative mental picture, the effect of his discouraged emotions, may utterly ruin his naturally positive productive mind by making it negative. One of the first things to do in starting out for success is to show the world that you are not made of putty and straw, but that you have some stability in you. You should have a reputation as early as possible for doing things. Yet your friends know that whatever you put your hands to will be accomplished, no matter what may stand in the way."

Educational Notes.

(From The Normal Instructor.)

The public schools of the United States have 495,000 teachers, and the private schools 80,000.

On account of the European war, the Fourth International Congress on Home Education and Parent-Teacher Unions, which was to have met at Philadelphia, September 22 to 24, was postponed to a date to be announced later.

In spite of its encouragment and endorsement of "simplified spelling," the National Education Association will not have its proceedings printed in that style. To a large majority of those who read these proceedings the simplified form would be strange and confusing, and no matter how much the association officially may desire the change, it realizes that it would be a drawback to have this important volume so printed.

Close observation of six hundred school boys through a period of seven years to discover the effects of the tobacco habit demonstrated to Superintendent Davis, of Menominee, Mich., that the non-smokers averaged from two to ten per cent. higher in scholarship and were at still greater advantage in the athletics of the school. Idleness and poor conditions of home life were the almost invariable accompaniments of all cases of smoking and all cases of failure which he observed.

County play day is an established annual affair in Barnes county, North Dakota. Inaugurated primarily for the purpose of promoting the play idea among the schools of the rural communities and small towns, the idea was taken up enthusiastically by the people of the large towns. The day is observed at a number of centers within the county so as to bring the benefits within the reach of every pupil. A definite schedule of contests is planned for the day, and conducted by physical education teachers from the State Normal School.

STATE C. E. CONVENTION TO BE HELD OCT. 7, 8 AND 9

Plans have been completed for the State Christian Endeavor convention to be held this year in the Bergen Reformed church, Jersey City, for three days, October 7, 8 and 9. A provisional program has been issued, showing a number of prominent speakers from throughout the Christian Endeavor world, who will address the gathering on various questions of interest to the movement in this State.

Union county will be well represented, both in delegates as well as speakers. Rev. Dr. Johnston, of Rahway; Rev. H. K. England, of Roselle and F. L. Mintel, of Rahway, together with several members of the Elizabeth societies will be among the latter. Rev. Francis E. Clark, president of the United Society, is scheduled to speak at the Friday evening session.

DENIES LETTER WAS ENDORSEMENT

W. R. Codington Signed J. C. Calvert's Petition and Says He Will Support Him.

County Clerk James C. Calvert, who is seeking a renomination for the office he now holds, received a letter from County Attorney William R. Codington, of this city, in which he says that his attention had been called to a letter by him addressed to A. Edward Woodruff, respecting the conduct of the office of sheriff. He adds that while he stands by what he said in that letter relative to the conduct of the office by Mr. Wright, it was not intended as an endorsement of his candidacy as county clerk explaining further that he had already cheerfully signed Mr. Calvert's petition and intends to support him for the nomination. Mr. Codington's letter to Mr. Calvert is as follows:

Law Office of
W. R. Codington,
Plainfield, N. J.
County Attorney.

J. C. Calvert, Esq.,
Clerk of Union County,
Elizabeth, N. J.

My dear Mr. Calvert:

My atention has been called to a letter by me addressed to Mr. A. Edward Woodruff, Esquire, respecting the conduct of the office of sheriff by the present incumbent, Mr. William H. Wright. What I said in that letter as to the conduct of the office I stand by, but the letter is not intended as an endorsement of his candidacy as county clerk, for, as you know, I have already cheerfully signed your petition, and expect to work and hope for your success at the primaries.

Very respectfully yours,
W. R. CODINGTON.

Sept. 16, 1914.

Mr. Codington in his letter to Mr. Woodruff, was in reply to one asking for his opinion in regard to the administration of the office of Sheriff Wright, the present incumbent, and in that letter Mr. Codington said that he had always found Mr. Wright a courteous and gentlemanly official and that he had been a careful and painstaking officer in the execution of his official duties, but when his attention was called to the matter he promptly wrote Mr. Calvert explaining that his letter was not intended as an endorsement of Mr. Wright for the county clerkship nomination.

RUTGERS OPENS WITH LARGE ENROLLMENT

The 148th Year Begins With An Entering Class of Nearly 150 Students

The one hundred and forty-eighth year of Rutgers College was formally opened yesterday, when the largest student body on record listened to the address of welcome by President W. H. S. Demarest, in the Kirkpatrick chapel. The entering class numbers close to 150. Ford Hall, the new $125,000 dormitory, is nearing completion, as is the Agricultural Building, costing $100,000, and the swimming pool, being erected at a cost of $25,000.

The administration organization of the college has been developed by the appointment of Professor Alfred Titsworth, D. Sc., as dean of mechonic arts, and Professor Jacob Lipman, Ph. D., as dean of agriculture. Associate Professor Frederick C. Minkler, B. S., has been appointed director of the short courses in agriculture, and Professor Alva Agee, A. M., director of agricultural extension. Miss Mary Gillespie, A. B., has been appointed assistant librarian. Other appointments are: John H. Logan, A. M., acting professor to professor of history; Frederick H. Couch, M. E., instructor to assistant professor of mechnical engineering; Harry N. Lendall, B. Sc., instructor to assistant professor of civil engineering.

Three appointments have been made in the department of agriculture: Frank App, Penn State 1911, assistant professor; Arthur James Farley, B. Sc., Massachusetts Agricultural College, 1908, instructor; Clarence E. Brett, B. S., Rhode Island State, 1913, instructor.

Alexander J. Anglis, Ph. D., has resigned as professor of education to accept the chair of secondary education in Harvard University.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hummer, of Linden avenue, the borough, left yesterday for West Lynne Farm, near Reaville, this State. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey, of Duer street, will join them later in the week.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

BOYS' WORK HEAD PRESENTS POLICY

C. William Bingeman Says Y. M. C. A. Aim Will Be "To Build, not to Boom."

The committee in charge of the work for Y. M. C. A. boys met last night, in the parlor of the association, Chairman James McClymont presiding. This was the first monthly meeting of the season and C. William Bingeman, secretary of boys' work, presented the policy for the coming season. This policy provides for a careful grouping of the boys and gives more attention to the physical development of the youth than to his age in years.

There are seven different classes as follows: The Indian League, or younger Grammar School boys; the College League for older Grammar School boys and younger High School boys; the High School class for upper classmen in High School, or for the larger and more fully developed freshmen; the employed boys or the Color League for the boys who work inthe daytime and have only their evenings free; the Leal School classes for the boys of that institution; Suburban Class for the boys from Dunellen, Westfield, Bound Brook, etc., and the Boys' Club for the younger boys of the city who are unable to pay the regular $5 membership fee.

One of the strongest features of this year's policy is that the work is classified under nine heads and one or more of the committee members are held responsible for each division. At last night's meeting the following assignments were made: F. M. Genung, Boys' Club; F. M. Smith and James McClymont, Bible study, and Benjamin Harris and Louis Hansen, physical and aquatic work; J. N. Blanchard, advertising, and Douglas Anderson, finances. The other assignments will be made at the next meeting in October.

A program for every class has been arranged to include Bible study, service of some kind, physical work, participation in gatherings, large and small, for social and business purposes, and opportunities to give small amounts toward helping "the other fellow." An exhibition of the entire work will be given at the holiday time and also in the spring time.

The new physical director, Robert L. Meermans, is busy making physical examinations of all the members. The keynote of the policy is to build and not to boom and provides for the healthful active use of the boy rather than simple shallow amusement.

MISS AGNES DAVIS WILL JOIN RED CROSS SERVICE

Miss Agnes Davis, of Watchung, received word from Ottawa, Can., this morning, that she had been selected by the Canadian Government for the nursing service abroad. She will leave Plainfield for Quebec, Canada, on Tuesday of next week and expects to sail for England from that place a few days later.

Miss Davis was graduated from the Victoria General Hospital, London, Can., in the fall of 1896, and from the Women's Hospital, of New York city in 1899. Since that time she has been engaged in private nursing. Miss Davis just returned the early part of this week from London, which is her old home, where she attended the funeral of her father, George Davis. He was a veteran in the Canadian Northwest Rebellion.

FORMER GOVERNOR FORT BACK AT SPRING LAKE

Former Governor J. Franklin Fort arrived at his summer home in Spring Lake this morning, returning from a six weeks' trip to Santo Domingo, where he went with two others to try to bring order out of the chaos incident to the revolution which has been in progress there for several years. The commission completed its work, and installed a provisional president, who will remain in office until the election to be held in October. While in Santo Domingo, the former executive was stricken with seven days fever, as it is known there, but has now about fully recovered.

STOLEN WHEEL LOCATED.

Alleged to have stolen a bicycle from Mrs. Hannah Linke, of 220 West Second street, Lorenzo McCrea, colored, of 643 West Fourth street, was arrested by Patrolman John Fritts, yesterday afternoon. The stolen wheel was located and returned to its owner, but Mrs. Linke refused to make a complaint against the boy.

SEARCH FOR AUTO THIEF.

A message was received at the local police headquarters this morning at 2 o'clock from the Newark authorities requesting the police of this city to be on the lookout for an Overland automobile which was stolen from in front of the Newark City Hall at 11 o'clock last night.

LODGE NOTE.

Jerusalem Chapter, No. 24, R. A. M., will hod a session of special importance, Thursday evening, September 24, at which time the past master's degree will be conferred upon two candidates.

EARLY START FOR P. H. S. MINSTRELS

Manager Appointed to Start Things Going Right Away.

Now that the annual grind has been resumed, many of the students in the Plainfield High School who do not play football are turning their thoughts to the minstrel show, given each year by the Boys' Athletic Association. The cast is made up entirely of school talent and the proceeds are used as a means of earning money for athletics. It is customary each year to present the show in the auditorium of the High School, but last year a very successful one was given in the theatre.

The auditorium in the High School is now finished and every facility for the most successful show ever given by the Boys' Athletic Association is at hand. Daniel F. McNamee has been appointed business manager, and J. Sewall Ulrich, who coached the show so successfully last year, has once more offered his services to the school. Three members of last year's quartet have returned to school this year. They are Daniel McNamee, Curtis Dall and Cortlandt Fleming. Arthur VanZandt, who sang in the quartet two years ago, has returned to school after a year's absence. He will be the fourth member of this year's quartet. Mr. Ulrich has written a sketch. McNamee has already ordered the music for the chorus and it is expected the latter part of the week. Chorus rehearsals will start on Monday and try-outs for the end men positions will be held during the coming week.

ALICE LOUISE CANOUNE HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Alice Louise Canoune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Canoune, of Denmark road, was three years old yesterday, and in the afternoon she was given a party by her mother, to which a number of children and their mothers were invited. The little guests were all about the same age as the celebrant and they had a delightful time playing games and enjoying other features.

During the afternoon refreshments were served, the guests being seated at a large table in the centre of which was a birthday cake bearing three candles. Pink and green were the decorations. The favors for the boys were toy lanterns filled with candy and those for the girls were tea sets.

Little "Miss" Canoune was the recipient of many beautiful gifts from relatives and friends. While the children were having a good time, the mothers enjoyed a social hour on the porch. The children present included Eleanor Gibson, Christy Hamilton, Jr., Marjorie Loizeaux, Catherine Loizeaux, Becky Dunn, Margaret Lawrence, Louise Lough Ernest Lough, Louise Phillips, Henry Adams, of this city; Margaret Dunn, of Short Hills, and Jane Kaltenbach, of Cranford.

MERGER OF CIVIC BODIES.

Efforts are being made to bring about the consolidation of the various civic bodies in the City of Plainfield into one large active organization. In order to obtain the opinion of the members of the Chamber of Commerce on this subject a special meeting of the Chamber will be held at the Chamber of Commerce room in the Babcock building tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

T. R., JR., IN BUSINESS.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., son of the former President of the United States, has entered into full partnership in the firm of Montgomery, Clothier & Tyler, investment bankers, as of September 15. Mr. Roosevelt will be the resident partner of the firm in New York city.

THIRD WARD CLUB TO MEET.

The Third Ward Republican Club will hold its first meeting tomorrow evening, at the Washington School at 8 o'clock. Matters of special importance will come before the gathering, and plans for the coming campaign will be discussed at length. All Republicans are invited to attend the session.

BOMB EXPLOSION IN NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 17.—A powerful dynamite bomb exploded today in the building occupied by a poultry firm at 417 East 109th street. The explosion tore a hole two feet square in the eighteen-inch brick wall of the building. It is believed that the explosion was the work of blackmailers.

MEETING IN BOROUGH.

F. C. Thomas, of Somerville, Democratic aspirant for the nomination for State Senator, will speak at an open air meeting, this evening, to be held in front of Fire Headquarters on Somerset street, the borough. The Dutch Arms band will furnish music for the occasion.

MRS. ADELAIDE WIDMAYER.

Mrs. Adelaide Widmayer, an elderly woman, widow of George F. Widmayer, of 341 Watchung avenue, died this morning at Muhlenberg Hospital, after a short illness. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

Rev. William T. Stuchell, candidate for Congress, is to address the voters of Rahway, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, at an open air meeting. Music is to be furnished. All Republicans candidates are invited to attend, and will be given an opportunity of being heard if they so desire.

Congressman William E. Tuttle, Jr., makes it plain that he is sincere in the statement that he will stick to his job in Washington throughout the primary campaign and let the voters of the district decide whether this is not more commendable than stumping the district for renomination. Former Freeholder Thomas J. Pierson, his opponent for the nomination, has been conducting an active campaign, but Congressman Tuttle's friends are confident that the record of the Fifth district's representative will clinch the nomination for him.

The Socialists in this Congressional district will have to name a candidate for Congress by writing in someone's name on the primary ballots. A blank space has been provided for that purpose. No Socialist aspirant for Congress filed with the Secretary of State in time to have his name printed upon the tickets. Ex-Councilman Harry F. Kopp, of Elizabeth, had been expected to make the race, but he was forced to decline through entering the councilmanic fight in the Third ward.

Congressman Tuttle's name was printed ahead of Thomas J. Pierson's on the sample primary ballots in Elizabeth through a typographical slip-up. The mistake will be corrected on the official ballots, so any advantage, supposed or real, in having one's name lead off a list of candidates should not be lost to Mr. Pierson. The latter, however, is said to be much wrought up over the incident, as he fears that many rather illiterate voters who use sample ballots as models on Election Day will become confused and vote for his opponent under the delusion that they are balloting for him. Some of Mr. Pierson's friends say he is considering an appeal to the court to have new sample ballots printed. Mr. Tuttle's supporters declare that the present representative will suffer the same way as Mr. Pierson may, and that the mistake therefore cancels itself.

Dr. J. E. Rayne, who was entered as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for coroner last year, will have his name written in on the primary ballots by many of his friends this year. The Democrats, like the Progressives, neglected to file coroner petitions in time to have the names of the candidates printed on the ballots.

Speaking of safe bets on the outcome of the primary of next Tuesday there are a few 100 to 1 shots: Percy H. Stewart, for State Senator on the Democratic ticket; Theodore Martin, for mayor for the same party; Carlton B. Pierce, for State Senator for the Republicans of the county; Frank H. Smith, for county registrar of the G. O. P., etc., etc. For further safe bets, consult your sample Progressive and Socialist ballots.

Sixteen candidates for the Assembly, nine for the office of county clerk, twelve for the sheriff's job, six for Congressional honors, appears to be among the tribulations troubling the minds of the voters of this county at present. These questions, however, will fade away on the pages of history next Tuesday. The citizens certainly have a wide choice in so great a number of candidates.

F. C. Thomas, Democratic aspirant for the Seate Senator nomination, will speak outdoors in the borough, this evening, with the Dutch Arms band as an attraction. While the number of Democratic voters an primary day is not as large as it might be, Mr. Thomas evidently expects them to be worth coming after. This is the first meeting of its kind in North Plainfield this year.

LITERARY

Colonel Roosevelt begins in the October Scribner his description of the start and early days of the voyage down "The River of Doubt." It began with inadequate equipment—crudely made, overloaded dugout canoes; and as the journey progressed and the river became a succession of dangerous rapids the question of the supply of privisions holding out and the uncertainty of reaching civilization became constantly more grave. The upsetting of one of the canoes very nearly ended in the death of Kermit Roosevelt by drowning. He had the narrowest of escapes. No one can read of this incident and not appreciate Colonel Roosevelt's feelings. "It was a narrow escape. He was to be married as soon as the trip was over, and it did not seem to me that I could bear to bring bad tidings to his betrothed and to his mother."

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

MAC SAYS

IN MEMORIAM.

James E. Sullivan's death marks the passing of a true martyr to international sportsmanship. Because he was the greatest man in the eyes of the sporting public in this and other countries he was called upon to bear the burden of the monster athletic demonstration being arranged for the San Francisco exhibition in 1915 and at the same time he was devoting a portion of his time to national athletic feats now well under way. The strain was too great, Monday marked the snapping point. The crisis resulted in his removal to Mount Siania Hospital, where he underwent an operation. His death occurred yesterday. What track and field athletics will do without his guidance remains to be seen. For over a quarter of a century he has been the guiding light of American athletic competition and he has won an international reputation for his ability as a leader and organizer. Complicated orgaaizations such as the New York Public School Athletic League and the Amateur Athletic Union remain as examples of what this great man accomplished. Athletic clubs throughout the universe are today mourning the great loss and his place will be hard to fill. He was fifty-four years of age and had been a devotee to all that was clean and upright in sports from the time he was a schoolboy in New York city. His death will in all probability result in the postponement of the senior metropolitan championships scheduled to be held in Celtic Park Saturday afternoon and it is likely that some fitting demonstration of the esteem in which he is held by the world will be arranged for by those who knew him best.

Announcement has been made of the fact that a silver loving cup will be given to the team scoring the most number of runs in that Saurer-Plainfield series. Whaddayamean team? Now we'd like to know who is going to keep a watchful eye over that trophy after it is captured. We are of the opinion that there will be some scrap to get possession of the mug and might suggest at this time that it be strung up on a flag pole. Pennants were made for baseball championships and cups for checker matches.

Local baseball promoters are getting real serious. According to our baseball informant Dorflinger and Martin, rival managers, have conspired to get "real" umpires for that post-season series.

We might aver at this juncture that real umpires in this city are about as scarce as "real" ball players. Several of the arbitrators who have performed of late really resembled umpires inasmuch as they had two arms and a brace of legs, not saying anything about eyes.

It might be well for fans bedecked with straw hats to require police protection at that game next Saturday. The title between the Plainfield aggregations are the real thing when it comes to portraying the pugilistic art at its best.

Notwithstanding the many inconveniences with which the sporting populace has to contend in the Queen City it behooves us to square ourselves at this time and announce that the issue Saturday will be one worth seeing. Harry Jennings' soaring frame alternating on the same mound with Warry McLaughlin's stunted brawn is a pleasing morsel on the menu in itself.

One by one those Holy Cross football warriors are coming out of hibernation. "Turk" Webster is the latest fighter to announce his entrance and he loudly proclaims that the season for sporting empty pockets is at an end. Webster is one of the few who really believe that the football pastime is a success financially. We have not been able to find out where he obtained this impression, but nevertheless he has it safely tucked away.

At any rate "Turk" will not desert the local eleven for the Perth Amboy Dexters as he threatened to do in the sweltering summer months. Week-end trips to the Amboy village are enough for him at this time of the year.

The basketball season will be ushered in tonight at the Y. M. C. A. A large attendance of court stars is expected to be on hand when the ball is started rolling on its six months' trip.

The array of talent mustered together by Captain William Peacock for football at the Plainfield High School looks pretty good to one who has given it the double "O." Now that the gridiron season has been sent merrily on its way we will have something to do away with the monotony caused by baseball.

We note that Frank Bruggy "may go to the big league" next season. Bruggy has had a good many "mays" handed to him during his baseball career and we are of the opinion that this is another one of the same variety.

However, the former Bound Brook boy is a regular ball player, but he has never been able to convince big league pilots of the self-same fact.

It's pretty nearly time to start preliminary arrangements for the rental of Saengerbund Hall for those borough athletes. Why cause a delay such as the one that was experienced last fall?

Plainfield has its lone representative in the big junior tennis tourney now in progress at Forest Hills. Phil VanDeventer is one of the best young racquet wielders in this section and has done some noble work for the Queen City cause during the past year, and many are watching his work in the Forest Hills event.

Someone has suggested forming a football league from the elevens being organized in this city and borough. This substantiates our contention that all irrational sports are not occupying padded cells.

A wail has been heard coming from the west end of town. Hope Chapel basketeers also intend to get an early start this year, and it looks as though some hot weather matches would be put through for a change. The Chapelites expect to meet in the near future for the purpose of selecting a leader and manager.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:
Query—How do you pronounce the name Knabe, the baseball player?—N. E. F.
Answer—Kno-bee.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Have the Plainfield Pets played Westfield on Parker Field this year? If so, who pitched and how many runs did Westfield make?—L. N. P.
Answer—Yes, on June 6, Townley pitched and Westfield was shutout.

Sporting Editor:
Query—I will change my place of residence before next Tuesday, which is primary day, and will have to vote at another polling place. How may I secure a transfer from one district to the other?—S. E. Y.
Answer—Application should be made on primary day to the county court, who will issue an order for transfer on your old Election Board.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Who wrote the book "The Man Who Could Not Lose?"—R. I. G.
Answer—Richard Harding Davis.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Who is the official A. A. U. handicapper and where can I reach him?—S. B.
Answer—H. Obertubbessing, of Newark.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Will it be possible for a voter to place a name of an independent candidate on the ballot of his party on primary day?—A. P.
Answer—Provision is made on all ballots for independent candidates for all offices and names may be written in in either black ink or a black pencil.

Sporting Editor:
Query—What is Leach Cross' right name?—D. P.
Answer—Dr. Louis C. Wallach.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Who do the Yankees play on Saturday, the 16th of this month?—Rooter.
Answer—Detroit at Detroit.

Sporting Editor:
Query—What has become of the baseball scores in your paper?—Reader.
Answer—Take another look.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Can you tell me where I can find the origin of the saying "Curiosity once killed a cat?"—R. H. H.
Answer—Your life is in danger R. H. H. That saying is an old one and apparently came from nowhere, the origin of which would be hard to find.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	76	55	.580
New York	73	59	.553
St. Louis	71	63	.530
Chicago	71	64	.526
Pittsburgh	62	69	.473
Philadelphia	62	71	.466
Brooklyn	59	73	.447
Cincinnati	56	76	.424

Yesterday's Results.
New York, 8; Cincinnati, 1.
Brooklyn, 7; Chicago, 2.
Boston, 6; St. Louis, 3.
Philadelphia, 6; Pittsburgh, 2.

Games Today.
Cincinnati at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia (2 games).
St. Louis at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	88	46	.657
Boston	79	53	.599
Detroit	73	63	.536
Washington	68	63	.519
Chicago	63	71	.470
St. Louis	61	72	.459
New York	60	75	.445
Cleveland	43	92	.319

Yesterday's Results.
Detroit, 8; Cleveland, 3.
St. Louis, 2; Chicago, 1 (10 in.).
St. Louis, 3; Chicago, 1.

Games Today.
New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at St. Louis.
Boston at Cleveland.

FEDREAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	75	59	.560
Indianapolis	75	59	.560
Baltimore	70	60	.538
Brooklyn	67	63	.515
Buffalo	67	63	.515
Kansas City	62	70	.470
St. Louis	58	95	.436
Pittsburgh	52	77	.403

Yesterday Results.
Indianapolis, 2; Brooklyn, 0.
Buffalo, 7; St. Louis, 3.
Baltimore, 3; Kansas City, 2.
Chicago, 7; Pittsburgh, 4.

Games Today.
Indianapolis at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Buffalo.
Kansas City at Baltimore.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	86	58	.597
Providence	86	58	.597
Buffalo	84	57	.596
Baltimore	72	67	.518
Toronto	69	66	.511
Newark	62	76	.449
Montreal	57	84	.404
Jersey City	46	96	.324

Yesterday Results.
Buffalo, 2; Rochester, 1.
Toronto, 8; Montreal, 2.

Games Today.
Newark at Jersey City.
Baltimore at Providence.
Buffalo at Toronto.
Rochester at Montreal.

"FEDS" WOULD COMPETE.

Chicago, Sept. 17—Asserting that the fans of the country wil not be satisfied until the Federal League pennant winners are given an opportunity of meeting the American and National League champions in the world's series, President James A. Gilmore yesterday, suggested to the National Commission that the independents be considered when the schedule for the big post-season games is mapped out. The third league request, which practiaclly amount to a challenge, was mailed to Garry Herrmann and a copy of it made public by Gilmore yesterday.

BASEBALL BETTING.

Fred Schumm's Wall street representative quoted odds of 8 to 1 yesterday in New York on the Philadelphia Americans as the winners of the pennant in the league and odds of 5 to 4 on the same team to win the world's series. The same authority offered 10 to 7 on the Boston Braves to win the National League pennant race. New York supporters were asking 10 to 6.

BOUND BROOK HORSE FIRST AT BELMONT

John Edward Clark's New Steed Floats Home a Victor in Challenge Race.

John Edward Clark, of the River Road, Bound Brook, entered the ranks of the turf Monday when his recent purchase, Magnet, for which he paid $5,000 during the Saratoga meeting, won the second race at the Belmont Park track. It was Mr. Clark's first effort as a horse owner. His brother, the late Wm. H. Clark, was at one time Corporation Counsel of the City of New York. Mr. Clark adopted his brother's racing colors, which were carried years ago by the noted Banastar.

BRUGGY WILL PLAY BASKET BALL WITH GLOVERSVILLE

Among the players who will wear a uniform in the New York State Basketball League this season is Frank Bruggy, a crack athlete, who is playing baseball with the Lawrence team, and is likely to be drafted by some team in the big show. Bruggy is under contract with the Gloversville team, in which he starred last year. He scored more points than any other player on his team, and was the fifth best point-getter in the league.

Bruggy is considered one of the highest priced basketballers in the league. Before the circuit opens, Bruggy will be seen in action on the Gordon Auditorium court, where the Hippodrome Social Club intends to stage games every Saturday. He probably will play there in five games.

PENN SPRINTER SPENT TIME IN AUSTRIAN JAIL

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Jimmy Paterson, the University of Pennsylvania sprinter, returned to Franklin Field, Tuesday, from abroad, where, he said, he had been in jail in Austria and lost all his clothing and prizes.

"I won the 100-yard dash in Budapest," said Patterson, "just at the instant war was declared. I never want another experience like that. The people paraded the streets all night singing and cheering. There was no sleep. It was just like some one had thrown a match into a powder tank.

"I started next morning to get out of the country. Train service stopped at nightfall. I finally reached Pontarlier, on the border of France. The troops seized everything and everybody. I was thrust into jail with a Frenchman, a German and a Swede, and not one of us could talk to the other."

LOCAL EAGLES WILL BOWL AT SOMERVILLE TONIGHT

The Plainfield Eagles' bowling team will travel to Somerville tonight and meet the birds of that place in the second match of the season. Last week the locals were defeated on the Second street alleys, when they dropped two games out of three to their brothers from the county seat. All of the scores were close although there were no startling records made.

In the first meeting Manager Miller could only get three of his regular men together, but tonight all will bowl and the team will consist of Crowley, Buckley, Mahoney and Miller. With this combination the locals expect to take the measure of their oponents and made a third match necessary to decide the series before the opening of the State league in which both teams are entered.

WHADDAYAMEAN, PINK NOSES?

At a meeting of the Bulldog Club of America in the Albemarle-Hoffman, Tuesday, it was voted unanimously to change the rule as to the color of bulldogs' noses. All dogs possessing the "dudley" or flesh colored and blue noses shall weigh against the bulldog in the ring at all shows held under the auspices of the club. The amalgamation of the Bulldog Club of America and the Bulldog Breeders' Association of America was practically completed, the two clubs pooling their cups and trophies.

MORRISTOWN SHOW.

Morristown, Sept. 17.—With the closing of the entries for the seventeenth annual horse show and the sale of the boxes all is practically ready for the exhibition, which is to be held here on the afternoons of September 24, 25 and 26. The entries exceed those of last year, and many exhibitors of national prominence have added their names to the lists.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

LOCAL PLAYER OUT OF GOLF TOURNEY

Mrs. H. R. Stockton Gives Western Title Holder the Game of Her Life.

Playing one of the best matches of the tourney, Mrs. H. R. Stockton, of this city, who has been competing in the National Women's Golf Championships on the Nassau course, gave Miss Caroline Painter, the western title-holder, a hard fight for the decision but was finally downed. The match was featured by keen competition and when the winner finished she remarked that she had never been pushed so hard for a victory before. The match was by far the best of the day and at the end of the ninth hole the local woman had her opponent three up.

Mrs. Stockton started off well and made the first hole in five while her opponent took six. But in the second she made a bad play and wasted a seven while her opponent went one under that and tied the score. In the seventh both made a five and Mrs. Stockton was one up. She went her rival one better in each of the last two holes and finished the first half of the match with a 48 against Miss Painter's 48.

Both players start off well on the last round, making a 4, but on the next four holes the local woman lost four, which put her opponent 1 up. Each made the sixth with a five but the seventh was Mrs. Stockton's hard luck hole and she took a six while her opponents did it in four.

The cards:

Miss Painter—
Out .....6 6 5 6 5 6 5 4 5—48
In 4 5 5 5 4 5 4 5 6

Mrs. Stockton—
Out .....5 7 6 5 4 6 5 3 4—45
In 4 6 6 6 5 5 6

MISS RICKETTS MAY MAKE POSITION IN BASKETBALL

The North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team need not worry about having a good forward to help out Miss Marjorie Burtis this season, because Miss Adelaide, formerly of the Plainfield High School, has entered the borough sophomore class and will make a strong bid for the open forward position. Miss Ricketts was a substitute on the city girls' team last year and is an excellent shot. She is small in stature and is a hard person to guard. When left alone she would prove to be a dangerous one along the scoring lines.

Miss Burtis is assured of one of the positions because of her work for the past two seasons and she has the honor of being captain this season. With one year's experience Lillian Spencer should also be a stellar forward and the team will be well supplied with shooters. The guards will probably be Elsie Debele and Bertha Kerrar, while Lucy Douglas will play the pivot position, with Rose Cooper as substitute.

SENIOR TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP POSTPONED

As predicted in this paper yesterday, the senior track and field championships of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U., scheduled for Saturday of this week, have been postponed to Saturday, October 3, out of respect to the memory of James E. Sullivan, president of the association, who died yesterday.

The senior track and field committee, of which Frederick W. Rubien is chairman, made this announcement last night. Jack Fritts and Ralph Runyon, of this city, were among those entered.

WEEKS SUCCEEDS SULLIVAN.

Boston, Sept. 17.—The appointment of Judge Bartow S. Weeks, of New York, as temporary secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union, in place of James E. Sullivan, whose death occurred yesterday, was announced last night. The appointment was made by Alfred J. Lill, Jr., of this city, president of the union.

HARD LUCK FOR EVERS.

Troy, Sept. 17—Burglars ransacked the home of Captain John J. Evers, of the Boston National League Baseball Club, Tuesday night, and no trace can be found of a chest of silver presented to Evers by the people of Chicago or of several solid silver cups received by him during his career on the diamond.

TO TRY IT AGAIN.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 17.—Abe Attell and Johnny Kilbane were matched yesterday to box twenty rounds at the Vernon arena on the night of October 15. They will meet at 122 pounds ringside. Kilbane won the featherweight title from Abe on a decision on February 22, 1912.

—Press want advs. pay.

CENTRAL BOTTLING WORKS
Phone 229. cor. Somerset & Chatham Sts.
HENRY HAURAND, Proprietor.

Headquarters for High Grade Beers, Wines, Liquors and Carbonated Beverages.

SPECIAL SALES
of the Celebrated California Sparkling Asti Special Sec.
Sale price, per quarts.....$1.00
Sale price, 2 pint bottles.....$1.00
Regular price, quarts, $1.50; pints, 75c.

We carry a large assortment of Wines and Liquors (foreign and native) and our prices are of the lowest.

We regret to state that we can not deliver goods in Plainfield, but if you consider quality and prices you will find it will pay you to send for them. We call for empty bottles.

GOOD MATCHES IN K. OF C. TOURNEY

G. Taylor Takes High Score Honors With a Score of 257 Against Duffy.

Four matches were played last night in the Knights of Columbus one man bowling tournament, which was started last Thursday and some very close scores were turned in. Wilson and Duffy proved themselves to be the best pinners of the evening and each one made a clean sweep of all three games in one of their matches. Taylor and Howe both bowled well, but fell below their opponents in the end.

In the first match of the night Wilson and Howe did the honors, the former taking all three games without much trouble. In the first game Howe pushed his opponent hard and fell only four points short, while in the second the difference was six. Wilson let himself out in the last game and totalled 221 against Howe's 194. In the second match when Duffy met Taylor, the latter made high score of the night, knocking down the pine for a tally of 257. Taylor took the first two with ease and dropped the third when his opponent scored 233.

Duffy took three from Wilson in the third match with two scores over the two hundred mark. Howe rolled better than Taylor in the first and last games. His opponent won the second with a three point margin. Those who will meet in the tournament tomorrow night are as follows:

Shannon vs. Cannon.
Moynihan vs. McInerney.
Shannon vs. McInerney.
Moynihan vs. Cannon.

The scores of last night's play are as follows:

Wilson	183	182	221
Howe	171	176	194
G. Taylor	179	257	166
Duffy	132	167	233
Wilson	173	179	177
Duffy	232	183	212
G. Taylor	179	192	191
Howe	194	189	213

VANDEVENTER BOWS IN "MET" TOURNEY

Loses Out in Fifth Round, but Throckmorton Will Play in Finals This Afternoon.

In the fifth round of the Junior Metropolitan Tennis Championships being played on the Forest Hill, L. I., courts, Philip VanDeventer, of this city, lost to H. C. Harrison in straight sets, 6-3, 6-3. The local player was no match for his opponent and was at his mercy at all times. In the only match of the fourth round played yesterday, VanDeventer defeated G. E. Donnell by scores of 8-6 and 6-4. He was pushed to the limit in both games, especially the first, and several times his opponent threatened to take the game. This puts the local player out of the race.

After encountering one of the hardest fights of the tournament, Harold Throckmorton, of Rahway, succeeded in entering the final round and will meet H. W. Forster, a Yonkers High School lad, of whom little had been known prior to the tournament yesterday afternoon. In the fifth round Throckmorton had an easy time with his opponent, taking the match by scores of 6-2, 6-2. In the semi-finals the Rahway player encountered C. S. Garland, of Pittsburgh, who gave him the run of his life. Five times during the first set of the match, which went to a 9-7 score, Throckmorton was within a point of losing. It was only by plucky and consistent playing that the New Jersey champ entered the final round.

In the second set he was forced to take the short end of a 7-5 score, as the Pittsburgh wonder played the Jersey boy off his feet, especially after the score had worked up to deuce. The next two games were easy for the youngster. Although the score does not show it, the last set was as hotly contested as the first two and only after the majority of the games had gone to deuce, did Throckmorton take the match by the score of 6-3.

VANDEVENTER MAY MEET WILLIAMS

Plainfield Boy Stars for Princeton and Prepares to Meet National Champ.

Playing in the second round of the intercollegiate singles championship, yesterday afternoon, Ludlow VanDeventer, of this city, who is competing for Princeton, won his match from Law, another orange and black man, in straight sets by the score of 7-5, 6-1. In the first set the local player was forced to the limit but won the second with ease. He will enter the semi-final round today.

The Princeton players have three men in the final round of the singles while the other man is Harvard's great hope, R. Norris Williams, who is the present national and intercollegiate champion, and is expected to take the measure of two of the Tigers and again cop the title. The local player may be drawn to meet Williams in the semi-finals or if he wins his match against a Princeton player he will probably meet the Harvard player in the finals.

CHASING PIGSKINS ON COLLEGE FIELDS

1914 Season Now in Full Blast in the East and West.

HEAT UPSETS PLANS.

Princeton, Sept. 17.—The Tiger gridiron warriors engaged in signal practice and a light scrimmage, the first of the season, yesterday. The squad was not pushed, the excessive heat upsetting the plans of Captain Ballin and the coaches. The varsity team beat the scrubs, 11 to 0. Several substitutions were made.

TWO WORKOUTS FOR YALE.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 17.—Yale's gridiron squad was put

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES
AT
Leo Zeisel's
222 WEST FRONT STREET.
Next to Proctor's.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY
Open to the Public
117 EAST SECOND STREET
Under the management of George Miller.

through a double period of work, yesterday. Head Coach Hinkey having his men on the field both morning and afternoon. The heat was too great to permit of heavy work, and as a result only signal drills and dummy practice was indulged in.

HOBBS AT QUARTER.

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 17.—The shifting of Hobbs, star halfback, to quarter was the chief item of interest in the Army's gridiron practice yesterday. Hobbs alternated with Prichard in driving the first team through the signal drill, and when Head Coach Daly ordered a soft scrimmage Hobbs worked in the position on the scrubs.

CORNELL SQUAD BUSY.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 17.—All four teams picked by Cornell coaches so far were sent into action yesterday. The first team in its scrimmage with the second faced the line which had been shifted over by Line Coach Reed. Collyer, who played right halfback on the varsity last fall, was placed at fullback in place of Lahr. Hill and Phillippi played halfbacks and Barrett was at quarter. Coach Sharp used Shuler, one of the varsity halfbacks of last year, at quarter on the second team.

SIXTY IN NAVY SQUAD.

Annapolis, Md., Sept. 17.—Lieutenant S. Fowler and Ghormley, old Naval Academy players, coached the squad of middies yesterday afternoon. The squad was increased to sixty. Most of the candidates are trying for back and ends, though the chief need of the local squad is for heavy line men to take the place of such big fellows as Brown, Vaughan, Ralston and Howe, who have graduated.

PENN CAPTAIN SHIFTED.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Captain Albert Journeay, of the Red and Blue eleven, will start in the game against Gettysburg as a centre. This was decided by the board of coaches at Franklin Field, yesterday. Louis Norwald will be his understudy for the role. Mike Dorizas and Kenneth Witherow will be tested at guard, and Russel and Edgar Harris will have the first call for the tackle position. Pepper and Carter will get the second chance in the line.

LIGHT WORK AT BROWN.

Providence, Sept. 17.—Torrid weather caused the coaches of the Brown football team to postpone the stiff work which was on the book for yesterday, and both in the afternoon and morning the men who reported were put through comparatively easy work-outs. Notwithstanding this the sun, which beat down on the field, made the lightest practice seem difficult work to the men in football togs.

HARVARD'S LARGE SQUAD.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 17.—Captain Charley Brickley had another large squad out for practice yesterday. The morning practice consisted in tackling dummies, and in the afternoon, in addition to the same line of work, the men were divided into groups and given an opportunity of chasing punts down the field and were drilled on forward passes.

HEAT AFFECTS DARTMOUTH.

Hanover, N. H., Sept. 17.—Dartmouth's football squad was given a very light practice yesterday, on account of the severe heat. The morning was spent mostly in kicking and passing the ball. The afternoon was spent in running through signals.

ROD AND REEL

High Water Today.

	P. M.
Great Kills, Morgan Station	5:42
Sewaren	6:01
Wreck Lead, Elizabethport	6:09
Newark Bay Light	6:28
Centre Street, Newark	6:49
Canarsie, Hammel's	6:21
Raunt, Goose Creek	6:35
Sheepshead Bay, Sandy Hook	5:38

Bass are being caught in large number in Beaver Lake. Several men fishing recently landed several that were extra large.

Reports from Barnegat Bay are that channel bass are biting good and large catches are being made. A large number of anglers visit that place daily.

Jamaica Bay is taking a new lease of life as far as the weakfish are concerned. Quite a few of the tide-runners have been taken over in those waters since the first of the month.

September fishing is not as good as was expected. Even the salt water fishing fell off to a great extent. Weakfish are moving south now and they are fully three weeks ahead of time.

As the weather gets cooler the fish will be more plentiful along the Shrewsbury River.

There is going to be some good fall fishing from the Long Branch pier. Big fluke and croakers are biting there now, and, with the weakfish, sea bass and odd bluefish, there is always a lot of fun to be had. This [illegible] e path of the fish migrat- [illegible] nd everything looks good. [illegible] ks good.

Many boats are out in Newark Bay these days for crabs. Large numbers of them can be caught in a short time.

Bass and pickerel are biting well at Greenwood Lake, according to reports from that place. The best way to catch them is to troll and use shiners. One man caught four large bass and nine pickerel.

Anglers still visit the Long Branch pier, which has been so popular this season and many good catches are still being made.

The fluke are beginning to go out. They are not anywhere near as plentiful at Sandy Hook as they have been all summer, and they will soon be displaced by the ling and whiting. A few ling have already been picked up at different points along the Jersey coast, and with the advent of cold weather, the fishermen will be making their usual killings. The water is cold already, especially for this time of year, and the anglers fear that this will have a tendency to drive away the weakfish earlier than usual. The fishermen over at Wreck Lead are all predicting an early cod season. The sea bass and blackfish are hanging on well. Some very large specimens of the latter are being picked up on the nearby grounds. The cooler weather should be good for fresh water fishing. The bass and pickerel, which have been more or less sluggish during the hot weather, are beginning to perk up. They put up a better fight in the fall, and are more apt to leave the deeper parts of the lakes and ponds when the cold weather sets in.

The Taurus is making the Cholera Banks these days, and catches run from half a dozen to a dozen sea bass to the man. Many of the fish are humpbacks, running up to four and five pounds apiece.

Word has come up from Corson's Inlet that the striped bass have begun to bite in the inlet. Fishing from the railroad trestle last week, one man got a striper that went to eighteen pounds.

BASEBALL NOTES

The Boston Braves were victorious in five of the six recent games with the New York Giants.

Rube Cook has made arrangements for the Cubs to play exhibition games in Cuba during November.

Of the 24 players batting for .300 or better in the Federal League 19 are former American or National League players.

According to unofficial National League averages the Pittsburgh Pirates are last in team batting and first in fielding.

No doubt the Cardinals and Browns will play to big crowds when the St. Louis city championship is staged next month.

Catcher Roger Bresnahan has been coming through with some classy stuff at second base for the Cubs during the absence of Bill Sweeney.

Manager Hinchman, of the Columbus club, has displayed the veteran John Titus, of Kansas City, as the leading batter in the American Association.

Manager Clark Griffith, of the Washington club, is quoted as saying that the Boston Red Sox are the greatest baseball team in the country.

George Davis, the Braves' youthful pitcher, is a Harvard Law School student. He formerly pitched for the Williams College nine and once had a trial with the New York Yankees.

Duluth and Winnepeg put up a great battle for the Northern League pennant, the Duluth team finally cinching the bunting the day before the close of the season.

Neither the Braves or the Giants are very strong in the way of heavy clouters. Grant is the only Giant and Connolly the only Brave who has been able to travel in the .300 set.

Hank O'Day tried to sign Mike Mowrey, recently released by the Pirates, but Sir Michael's demand for $800 a week for the rest of the season crabbed the deal.

The Davenport team, champions of the Three-I League, was one of the very few teams in organized baseball that held first place practically through the entire season.

Larue Kirby has not been able to hit so well for the St. Louis Feds as he did for Mobile earlier in the season. He had a batting average of .328 in the Southern League, while .267 is his Federal mark.

President Ebbets, of the Brooklyn Superbas, has signed a pitcher by the name of Goodbred. With Wheat and Goodbred in the Superbas' lineup and Ward's "Tip Tops" also located in Brooklyn, all you can hand John McGraw is, "You need a biscuit."

More persons saw the two games of the Braves and the Giants in Boston on Labor Day than attended all the games played in the Hub in 1871, the first year of professional baseball in Boston, when the total paid admissions numbered a few over 70,000.

BIG FIRE IN PITTSBURG.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 17.—Fire which broke out yesterday in the Logan, Gregg Hardware Company's building on Sanduskey street, caused a loss estimated at $600,000. Four alarms were turned in.

1912 CAPTAIN IS AGAIN SELECTED

Albert Brynariski Succeeds Myrton Glover as Y. M. C. A. Leader.

NO MANAGER NAMED

New Physical Director to Coach Team—Extensive Plans for Season's Work—Two Veterans Will Be Missing.

Enthusiasm reigned supreme at the initial gathering of Y. M. C. A. basketball enthusiasts held in the association last night, when the opening gun of the 1914-15 season was boomed by the veterans. At the instigation of Myrton Glover, captain of the 1913-14 outfit, those who comprised the quintet during that eventful season met for the purpose of reorganization and indications at the present time point to a far more active campaign in the coming fall and winter months.

Robert Meerman, the new physical director of the association, was present and outlined to the team his views on representative basketball in the Y. M. C. A., urging co-operation on the part of every individual and assuring the players of his earnest support in the enterprise. He made a plea for the organization of a genuine Y. M. C. A. aggregation and set forth certain principles which he wanted followed. He will do the coaching and his ten years' experience as a professional on the courts has supplied him with a thorough knowledge of the sport.

One of the notable events of the session was the election of Albert Brynairski captain of the team for the coming season. Brynairski piloted the aggregation when it won the city title in 1912-13 and has been one of the bulwarks since it was originally organized. The team had its birth in 1909 and played under the Ajax title. Only three of the charter members of the team have been active each year since that time, Brynairski, Glover and McNamee being the veterans. Dunning, another performer, who was prominent when the team was originally formed, will return this season. The members of last year's team who will try for the team again this season are Albert Brynairski, Myrton Glover, Harry Moulton and Joseph Gavett.

Several candidates for the position of manager were suggested at the meeting last night, but no one would consent to carry the burden. The schedule this year will be far more extensive than that of last and considerable work will be attached to the office.

This season a house league will be in operation and teams from that organization will play the preliminary contests. Wednesday nights will be devoted to practice and the contests will be staged Saturday nights, the team playing out of town contests during the week.

HOLY CROSS CANDIDATES OUT IN FULL REGALIA

The first regular practice of the Holy Cross football squad will be held tonight on the Watchung avenue field which is next to the Quaker meeting house. All candidates are requested to report in suit promptly and a short fast practice will be held. Coach Martin will be present and have charge of the workout.

About thirty candidates are expected to report from now on and there is much material for the coach to round out a fast team from. Several good players from Westfield and other places are thinking of trying for places and all will be given the same chance. Tonight will be the first time that the players will don suits but they can undoubtedly practice much better in football togs than in regular clothes.

LOCAL HORSE MAKES PLACE IN HANOVER FAIR RACES

Lester B. Harris' horse, "Review Bells," which was entered in the 2:15 pace event at the Hanover Fair yesterday, made a good showing in the first heat, but fell back in the next two.

The horse was driven by T. Brantingham and finished second in the first heat after an exceedingly hard race for first place. He was nosed out by a few feet. In the second the local entrant pulled in fifth and was in sixth place when the third heat was over. The fastest time made was 2.14¼ in the second and third heats. The first heat was slow, being done in 2.15¼.

FOOTBALL PLAYER WANTS TO PLAY ON SOME TEAM

Sporting Editor, Daily Press:

Dear Sir—I would like to arrange to play on a fast football team this year. I would like to play fullback as I have had much experience in this position. Would like to hear from any good team. Address Football, 137 Grove street, Plainfield, N. J.

YAGOTTASHOWIT TO CAPTAIN MARTIN

Saurer Leader Has the Right Dope for the Disposition of the Royals.

Sporting Editor:

Dear Sir: After being pestered to death answering questions about the city and county championship, I take this means of settling the question as far as the Saurer Baseball Club is concerned. As president and manager of same, I want to say that I have not claimed either, but do not know of a club that has a better right to claim them. In regard to the city championship, of which there has been considerable comment, I will say that we have taken three out of four games from the Plainfield club, but are even with the Royal A. C., and after doing everything in reason to schedule a deciding game with them have given up trying and think that a club that only plays three or four games a whole season has some nerve to dispute the claims of any club that plays every Saturday and earned all they got. If the Saurer Baseball Club has won the city title it is going to keep it. It is now too late to arrange a game as I have a three-game cup series on with the Plainfield Club which will take in the next three Saturdays, namely, September 19-26, and October 3.

Anybody can go to the city and get a club to beat us but they have got to see me first. I defy Mr. Kline to refute my assertion that I have been to the Babcock building four different times, making my last try on Saturday night, August 29, but with the same success as on former occasions. I offered then to play him anywhere but he refused, as he said there was not enough money in it.

But if Mr. Kline will get the club together that beat me on Parker Field I will play my same club. I will play him on the 17th of October. In conclusion, will say it is up to Mr. Kline to get busy for next season if he wants any honors in the old town, as I have something that is hard to beat.

D. B. MARTIN.

ELIZABETH WILL HAVE FAST FOOTBALL TEAM

The Holy Cross football team will probably have a strong opponent for the county football title this year as the strong Elizabeth A. A. team has been reorganized and will play all the teams in this part of the State. This team went under the name of the "Thunderbolts" and made a fine record in and around Elizabeth several years ago.

The majority of the "bolts" will again be seen this season with a few new players and that eleven expects to clean up with all teams in this vicinity. Walter Hoebler is the manager.

BATTIN GETS FINE BACK.

George Houston, formerly a member of the Roselle High School football team and also a halfback on the Blairstown Academy eleven, has reported to the captain of the Battin High School team and will try for a place in the backfield this season. Houston played against the Plainfield High School team last year with the Roselle team and was one of the mainstays on the team.

VALUE OF MINERAL PRODUCTS.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17—The value of the mineral production of the United States now exceeds $2,500,000,000 a year, according to the United States Geological Survey. Though this value falls far below that of the country's farm products, the magnitude and scope of the mineral industry may be best measured by comparing it with that of other countries, no one of which can compete with the United States in abundance or variety of mineral resources. The United States mines nearly 40 per cent. of the world's output of coal and produced 65 per cent. of the petroleum in 1913. Of the more essential metals, 40 per cent. of the world's output of iron ore is raised from American mines, and the smelters of the United States furnish the world with 55 per cent. of its lead and zinc.

FLETCHER SUCCEEDS BADGER.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17—The change in the command of the Atlantic fleet became operative today, Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger hoisting his flag as commander-in-chief of the fleet in succession to Rear Admiral Frank R. Fletcher. Admiral Fletcher has been detailed to duty with the Navy General Board. He will serve nearly a year and retire next August.

JERSEY MAN KILLED IN BATTLE

Westfield, Sept. 17—Word was received here yesterday by friends of William Schaarmschmidt, who went to Germany just before the war was declared and who was impressed into the German army, that he has been killed in battle. No details are given.

WANT 3 CENT FARE.

Hoboken, Sept. 17.—Preliminary steps have been taken by a committee of the Council for a three-cent car fare within the city limits.

—Your "to let" ad focuses the attention of all probable renters on your property.

Scene from Henry W. Savage's Production of the International Operetta Triumph

"SARI"

At the Plainfield Theatre, Thursday, September 24.

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD

The more money you spend with the Plainfield merchants, craftsmen and mechanics, the better service and values you will get from the stores and craftsmen.

The greater amount of business done in a city—the faster that city will grow.

Shop in Plainfield because you get what you want—when you want it—at a price that gives the seller a reasonable profit.

THE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

No man has as much fun at anything
As in conducting a successful business.

It takes good printing—Press printing—and the courageous use of the same—to drive a business and make it grow vigorously.

Study your business carefully and you will discover numerous ways to use good printing to advantage and profit.

If you lack the time or skill to properly prepare your copy, you can always depend on Press Service to perfect the details so that the completed job of printing will possess all the features that invite success.

Press printing—the result of Press service—invariably gets the business and the money.

THE SERVICE SHOP

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
Job Printing Department
105 North Avenue

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER VII.

Leblanc and King Egbert.

ON the mountain side above the town of Brissago and commanding two long stretches of Lake Maggiore, looking eastward to Bellinzona and southward to Luino, there is a shelf of grass meadows which is very beautiful in springtime with a great multitude of wild flowers. More particularly is this so in early June, when the slender asphodel, St. Bruno's lily, with its spike of white blossom, is in flower. To the westward of this delightful shelf there is a deep and densely wooded trench, a great gulf of blue some mile or so in width, out of which arise great precipices very high and wild. Above the asphodel fields the mountains climb in rocky slopes to solitudes of stone and sunlight that curve round and join that wall of cliffs in one common skyline. This desolate and austere background contrasts very vividly with the glowing serenity of the great lake below, with the spacious view of fertile hills and roads and villages and islands to south and east and with the hotly golden rice flats of the Val Maggia to the north.

And because it was a remote and insignificant place, far away out of the crowding tragedies of that year of disaster, away from burning cities and starving multitudes, bracing and tranquilizing and hidden, it was here that there gathered the conference of rulers that was to arrest if possible before it was too late the debacle of civilization. Here, brought together by the indefatigable energy of that impassioned humanitarian, Leblanc, the French ambassador at Washington, the chief powers of the world were to meet in a last desperate conference to "save humanity."

Leblanc was one of those ingenuous men whose lot would have been insignificance in any period of security, but who have been caught up to an immortal role in history by the sudden simplification of human affairs through some tragical crisis to the measure of their simplicity. Such a man was Abraham Lincoln, and such was Garibaldi. And Leblanc, with his transparent childish innocence, his entire self forgetfulness, came into this confusion of distrust and intricate disaster with an invincible appeal for the manifest sanities of the situation. His voice when he spoke was "full of remonstrance." He was a little, bald, spectacled man, inspired by that intellectual idealism which had been one of the peculiar gifts of France to humanity. He was possessed of one clear persuasion, that war must end and that the only way to end war was to have but one government for mankind. He brushed aside all other considerations. At the very outbreak of the war, so soon as the two capitals of the belligerents had been wrecked, he went to the president in the White House with this proposal. He made it as if it was a matter of course. He was fortunate to be in Washington and in touch with that gigantic childishness which was the characteristic of the American imagination, for the Americans also were among the simple peoples by whom the world was saved. He won over the American president and the American government to his general ideas. At any rate, they supported him sufficiently to give him a standing with the more skeptical European governments, and with this backing he set to work—it seemed the most fantastic of enterprises—to bring together all the rulers of the world and unify them. He wrote innumerable letters, he sent messages, he went desperate journeys, he enlisted whatever support he could find. No one was too humble for an ally or too obstinate for his advances. Through the terrible autumn of the last wars this persistent little visionary in spectacles must have seemed rather like a hopeful canary twittering during a thunderstorm. And no accumulation of disasters daunted his conviction that they could be ended.

For the whole world was flaring then into a monstrous phase of destruction. Power after power about the armed globe sought to anticipate attack by aggression. They went to war in a delirium of panic, in order to use their bombs first. China and Japan had assailed Russia and destroyed Moscow, the United States had attacked Japan; India was in anarchistic revolt with Delhi a pit of fire spouting death and flame; the redoubtable king of the Balkans was mobilizing. It must have seemed plain at last to every one in those days that the world was slipping headlong to anarchy. By the spring of 1959 from nearly 200 centers, and every week added to their number, roared the unquenchable crimson conflagrations of the atomic bombs, the flimsy fabric of the world's credit had vanished, industry was completely disorganized, and every city, every thickly populated area was starving or trembled on the verge of starvation. Most of the capital cities of the world were burning; millions of people had already perished, and over great areas government was at an end. Humanity has been compared by one contemporary writer to a sleeper who handles matches in his sleep and wakes to find himself in flames.

For many months it was an open question whether there was to be found throughout all the race the will and intelligence to face these new conditions and make even an attempt to arrest the downfall of the social order. For a time the war spirit defeated every effort to rally the forces of preservation and construction. Leblanc seemed to be protesting against earthquakes and as likely to find a spirit of reason in the crater of Etna. Even though the shattered official governments now clamored for peace, bands of irreconcilables and invincible patriots, usurpers, adventurers and political desperadoes were everywhere in possession of the simple apparatus for the disengagement of atomic energy and the initiation of new centers of destruction. The stuff exercised an irresistible fascination upon a certain type of mind. Why should any one give in while he can still destroy his enemies? Surrender? While there is still a chance of blowing them to dust? The power of destruction which had once been the ultimate privilege of government was now the only power left in the world—and it was everywhere. There were few thoughtful men during that phase of blazing waste who did not pass through such moods of despair as Barnet describes and declare with him: "This is the end."

And all the while Leblanc was going to and fro with glittering glasses and an inexhaustible persuasiveness, urging the manifest reasonableness of his view upon ears that ceased presently to be inattentive. Never at any time did he betray a doubt that all this chaotic conflict would end. No nurse during a nursery uproar was ever so certain of the inevitable ultimate peace. From being treated as an amiable dreamer he came by insensible degrees to be regarded as an extravagant possibility. Then he began to seem even practicable. The people who listened to him in 1958 with a smiling impatience were eager before 1959 was four months old to know just exactly what he thought might be done. He answered with the patience of a philosopher and the lucidity of a Frenchman. He began to receive responses of a more and more hopeful type. He went across the Atlantic to Italy, and there he gathered in the promises for this congress. He chose those high meadows above Brissago for the reasons we have stated. "We must get away," he said, "from old associations." He set to work requisitioning material for his conference with an assurance that was justified by the replies. With a slight incredulity the conference which was to begin a new order in the world gathered itself together. Leblanc summoned it without arrogance. He controlled it by virtue of an infinite humility. Men appeared upon those upland slopes with the apparatus for wireless telegraphy; others followed with tents and provisions; a little cable was flung down to a convenient point upon the Locarno road below. Leblanc arrived, sedulously directing every detail that would affect the tone of the assembly. He might have been a courier in advance rather than the originator of the gathering. And then there arrived, some by cable car, most by aeroplane, a few in other fashions, the men who had been called together to confer upon the state of the world. It was to be a conference without a name. Nine monarchs, the presidents of four republics, a number of ministers and ambassadors, powerful journalists and such like prominent and influential men took part in it. There were even scientific men, and that world famous old man Holsten came with the others to contribute his amateur statecraft to the desperate problem of the age. Only Leblanc would have dared so to summon figureheads and powers and intelligences or have had the courage to hope for their agreement.

And one at least of those who were called to this conference of governments came to it on foot. This was King Egbert, young king of the most venerable kingdom in Europe. He was a rebel and had always been of deliberate choice—a rebel against the magnificence of his position. He affected long pedestrian tours and a disposition to sleep in the open air. He came now over the pass of Ste. Maria Maggiore and by boat up the lake to Brissago. Thence he walked up the mountain, a pleasant path set with oaks and sweet chestnut. For provision on the walk, for he did not want to hurry, he carried with him a pocketful of bread and cheese. A certain small retinue that was necessary for his comfort and dignity upon occasions of state he sent on by the cable car, and with him walked his private secretary, Firmin, a man who had thrown up the professorship of world politics in the London School of Sociology, Economics and Political Science to take up these duties. Firmin was a man of strong rather than rapid thought. He had anticipated great influence in this new position, and after some years he was still only beginning to apprehend how largely his function was to listen. Originally he had been something of a thinker upon international politics, an authority upon tariffs and strategy and a valued contributor to various of the higher organs of public opinion, but the atomic bombs had taken him by surprise, and he had still to recover completely from his preatomic opinions and the silencing effect of those sustained explosives.

The king's freedom from the trammels of etiquette was very complete. In theory—and he abounded in theory—his manners were purely democratic. It was by sheer habit and inadvertency that he permitted Firmin, who had discovered a rucksack in a small shop in the town below, to carry both bottles of beer. The king had never, as a matter of fact, carried anything for himself in his life, and he had never noted that he did not do so.

"We will have nobody with us," he said, "at all. We will be perfectly simple."

So Firmin carried the beer.

As they walked up—it was the king who made the pace rather than Firmin—they talked of the conference before them, and Firmin, with a certain want of assurance that would have surprised him in himself in the days of his professorship, sought to define the policy of his companion. "In its broader form, sir," said Firmin, "I admit a certain plausibility in this project of Leblanc's, but I feel that although it may be advisable to set up some sort of general control of international affairs—a sort of Hague court with extended powers—that is no reason whatever for losing sight of the principles of national and imperial autonomy."

"Firmin," said the king, "I am going to set my brother kings a good example."

Firmin intimated a curiosity that veiled a dread.

"By chucking allthat nonsense," said the king.

He quickened his pace as Firmin, who was already a little out of breath, betrayed a disposition to reply.

"I am going to chuck all that nonsense," said the king as Firmin prepared to speak. "I am going to fling my royalty and empire on the table and declare at once I don't mean to haggle. It's haggling—about rights—has been the devil in human affairs, for—always. I am going to stop this nonsense."

Firmin halted abruptly. "But, sir!" he cried.

The king stopped six yards ahead of him and looked back at his adviser's perspiring visage.

"Do you really think, Firmin, that I am here as—as an infernal politician to put my crown and my flag and my claims and so forth in the way of peace? That little Frenchman is right. You know he is right as well as I do. Those things are over. We—we kings and rulers and representatives have been at the very heart of the mischief. Of course we imply separation, and of course separation means the threat of war, and of course the threat of war means the accumulation of more and more atomic bombs. The old game's up. But, I say, we mustn't stand here, you know. The world waits. Don't you think the old game's up, Firmin?"

Firmin adjusted a strap, passed a hand over his wet forehead and followed earnestly. "I admit, sir," he said to a receding back, "that there has to be some sort of hegemony, some sort of Amphictyonic council"—

"There's got to be one simple government for all the world," said the king over his shoulder.

"But as for a reckless, unqualified abandonment, sir"—

"Bang!" cried the king.

Firmin made no answer to this interruption. But a faint shadow of annoyance passed across his heated features.

"Yesterday," said the king by way of explanation, "the Japanese very nearly got San Francisco."

"I hadn't heard, sir."

"The Americans ran the Japanese aeropolane down into the sea, and there the bomb got busted."

"Under the sea, sir?"

"Yes. Submarine volcano. The steam is in sight of the Californian coast. It was as near as that, and with things like this happening you want me to go up this hill and haggle. Consider the effect of that upon my imperial cousin—and all the others."

"He will haggle, sir."

"Not a bit of it," said the king.

"But, sir."

"Leblanc won't let him."

Firmin halted abruptly and gave a vicious pull at the offending strap. "Sir, he will listen to his advisers," he said in a tone that in some subtle way seemed to implicate his master with the trouble of the knapsack.

The king considered him.

"We will go just a little higher," he said. "I want to find this unoccupied village they spoke of, and then we will drink that beer. It can't be far. We will drink the beer and throw away the bottles. And then, Firmin, I shall ask you to look at things in a more generous light because, you know, you must."

He turned about, and for some time the only sound they made was the noise of their boots upon the loose stones of the way and the irregular breathing of Firmin.

(To be continued.)

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1185.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

RITZ Inc.
BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

Of Interest to Women and the Home

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

The basque that shows an attached tunic is one of the latest developments. It can easily be seen that it can be made just after the manner illustrated or of two materials, a trimming fabric being used for the plain portions of the basque, while the sleeves and side portions match the tunic.

BASQUE WITH PLAITED TUNIC.

The high collar that still is open at the front is a new feature and a smart one. The sleeves can be finished in full length or just below the elbows.

For the medium size the basque and tunic will require six and one-half yards of material twenty-seven inches wide.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for misses of sixteen and eighteen years. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 8383, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No..... Size.....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1.30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15. *7:00, 10:30, *11:15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon 1:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon. 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 6:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:05 a. m. 5:00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 3:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:33 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 3:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:30, 7:30, *11:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 8:15 a. m., bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

J. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130. Plainfield.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
108 Depot Park, Manning Building.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

—Your "business opportunity" ad will be read by people who never miss real chances for investments.

Some Cookery Suggestions

TOMATO ECONOMY.

TOMATOES may be put up in many ways for winter use. They make delicious sweets and are equally nice canned for use as vegetables.

Some Delicious Sweets.

Tomato Butter.—Take ten pounds of skinned tomatoes, four pounds of granulated sugar, three pounds of apples, one quart of vinegar, one-half ounce of stick cinnamon, one-half ounce of ginger, one-fourth ounce of mace, one-fourth ounce of whole cloves. Tie the spices in a bag, put all the ingredients on together and boil three hours, stirring constantly.

Green Tomato Preserve.—Take ten pounds of green tomatoes, add eight pounds of sugar, six lemons and a small box of preserved ginger. Put in the preserving kettle. Have tomatoes and lemons sliced thin. Pick out all the lemon seeds, as they will make it bitter. Do not peel lemons. Add a little water, one cupful or less. Put in ginger. Let this boil a little while; then add sugar. Let it boil slowly on back of range until sirup is thick. If you do not have the preserved ginger handy put in a small handful of dry ginger root. Stir often with a wooden spoon.

Timely Canning Hints.

Tomatoes Canned Whole.—Use medium sized tomatoes, good solid ones, put them in a wire basket, plunge them into boiling hot water, remove the skins and arrange them in wide mouthed jars. Fill the jars with cold water, adjust the rubbers, lay on the covers, stand the jars in a wash boiler, cover the boiler, bring water to boil and boil for ten minutes. Screw on tops, boil five minutes longer and they will taste like fresh tomatoes when used in the winter.

Canned Tomatoes.—Wash tomatoes, plunge into boiling water for five minutes and the skin will slip off without trouble. Slice into the preserving kettle. Set the kettle on an asbestos mat over the fire. Heat slowly to the boiling point, stirring frequently. Have the jars thoroughly sterilized and with fresh rubbers and close fitting tops. Fill with the scalding tomatoes, which have been allowed to cook steadily half an hour from the time they began to boil; then seal.

Anna Thompson.

The Girls Would Be Army Nurses.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—Girls' Aid To the Golly Goos.

"EVELYN'S been jealous, daddy," said Jack, "since we boys formed the Golly Goo club. She hasn't got any club 'cept an old sewing club."

"Well," cried daddy, "why shouldn't the girls form an auxiliary to the Golly Goo club?"

"A what, daddy?" asked Jack, for that was a pretty big word for the children to understand.

"I didn't tell you the other night about the club the girls formed to help the Golly Goos," said daddy. "I wonder how I came to forget that? Well, maybe I was waiting to tell you after you formed your Golly Goo club, so you could have all the more fun. I think that was it. Your mother belonged to the girls' club. I think she named it. The name was 'The Girls' Aid to the Golly Goos.'"

"We don't need any aid!" cried Jack. "What good would girls be as aids to the members of a boys' club anyway?"

"You just think you don't," smiled daddy. "Wait till I tell you about it and perhaps you'll think you do.

"Your Aunt Carrie was president. I remember how we boys used to make fun of her freckles behind her back, but we didn't dare do it to her face, for she was awfully strong and could fight as well as any of us if it came to fighting.

"The girls, instead of a grip, had a peculiar kiss when they would meet to show that each belonged to the Aid. They would peck one another right on the tip of the nose. The first one would say 'A-i-d?' spelling the name, you see, and the second would answer 'D-i-a,' spelling it backward, you see. And some of the girls would get mixed up spelling it backward, and it used to be lots of fun. And if a girl got twisted in trying to spell it backward she had to pay two pins to their treasurer.

"And the girls were very useful too. When we would have wars and get wounded and killed the girls would be army nurses and restore us to health—that is, the ones who were not killed—and they would always come to life when they saw the nice jellies and cookies and things the girls would beg from their mothers to cure us with. It was such a treat that we were getting wounded and killed all we could, so as to benefit from such fine nursing, and the girls used to make all our badges for us. They did all the work and let us do the fighting, which is a very right and proper way to do perhaps."

"Say, Evelyn," shouted Jack, "start getting up a Girls' Aid to the Golly Goos tomorrow, will you? And I'll tell the boys all about it, and they will all like the idea, I'm sure."

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE
Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

FLOORS
Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.
GEO. E. WATT
314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

803 North Avenue, Telephone 1200-W.
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference
6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—6:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue,
Will be re-opened September 28th.
A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.
MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades. Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.
General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.
Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodwort
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT
SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914.
Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION
GEO. C. M. SMITH
Tenth Season
51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.
9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JAMES C. HANSEN
DECORATOR
DEALER IN
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, VARNISHES, Etc.
141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

PHONE YOUR ADS

30 ONE CENT A WORD

SCOOP, THE CUB REPORTER — SCOOP'S EARLY TRAINING COMES IN HANDY — BY "HOP"

HOPS TRADE EXPECTS BOOM.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 17.—Not only will the Pacific Coast be called upon this season to supply a large part of the world's demand for hops, but American brewers will doubtless turn out a vastly increased quantity of beer to be exported to countries in South America and the Orient that formerly received their supplies from Germany and Austria. The elimination of the European supply of both the raw and the manufactured articles is bound to have an important effect on the price of hops in Oregon and the neighboring States. The growers are unanimous in the prediction that this will be the best year they have ever had. In the season just ended the United States imported about 15,000 cwt., of German and Austrian hops. This year the American brewers will have to content themselves with the domestic article entirely. As the brewers have always claimed that foreign hops go twice as far as Americans, this will mean an added requirement of about 20,000 bales on normal consumption.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of the Press.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5:08, 5:46 (5:52 except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22 (7:26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:56 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:20 (except holidays), 8:36, 8:42, 8:59, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m.; 12:24, 12:58, 1:44, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12, 4:01, 4:13, 4:26, 5:29, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:36, 11:42 p. m. Sunday—2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:49, 10:27, 11:52 a. m.; 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:15, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:27, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27, (7:05 through train to Newark), 7:41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:36, 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:37 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m.; 2:00, 5:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m.; 1:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m.; 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19, 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3:41, 8:12, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only) (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—3:41, (7:58 Red Bank only), 8:52 a. m.; (9:40 Red Bank only), (2:15 Red Bank only), 3:17, (8:13 Red Bank only), 8:35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 3:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m 2:15 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43 11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:13, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday —5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:53, 10:43, 11:41 a m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:35 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m. 1:20 a m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily —8:45, 10:43 a. m., 12:42, 2:45 5:44 p. m *Except Manch Chunk.

Hoagland's Express
FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

Order Now
SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.
Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.
Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.
Charles L. Stanley
Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St.
Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Telephone 2331 Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St.
Tel. 2094 Gramercy

H. DEMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only, we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

FOR SALE.

GOOD driving horse for sale, or delivery. I. P. Runyon, 212 Park avenue. 9 16 tf

FOUR good working horses for sale cheap. Plainfield Ice Supply Co., 222 Madison avenue. 9 17 tf

WHITE grapes for sale. 1020 Arlington avenue. 9 15 3

FOR SALE—Three horses cheap. City Boarding Stables, 138 East Second street. 9 11 6

WANTED TO RENT.

BARN WANTED — Gentleman wishes to hire barn for private garage, must have city water and washstand. Address with particulars and price, A. B., Daily Press. 9 15 3

PHYSICIAN wants two unfurnished rooms in private house; one on main floor; no meals; must be centrally located. Address Physician, care Press. 9 16 3

FOR EXCHANGE.

WILL exchange large double action foot power scroll saw for good camera. Address Power, care Press. 9 15 3

REAL ESTATE WANTED.

FARM WANTED—About 10 acres, near Plainfield; state particulars; must be cheap for cash. E. Piehl, 253 Moffat street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Colored man wishes position as coachman, all around man; 8 years' reference. 617 West Fourth street. 9 17 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Position as chambermaid and waitress. Call 446 West Fifth street. 9 17 3

EXPERIENCED laundress wants days' work or washing home. 662 South Second street. 9 16 3

POLISH woman wishes laundry work by day. 619 South Second street. 9 17 3

WANTED—Work by day, laundry work, sweeping. 1337 West Third street. 9 15 3

COLORED woman wishes laundry by day or week, take wash at home. Address Best, 417 Plainfield avenue. 9 16 3

WANTED—By good white laundress, laundry work or cleaning, good references. 1041 South Second street. 9 16 4

COLORED girl wishes position at general housework. 639 West Fourth street. 9 15 3

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework. 354 Evona avenue. 9 15 3

LOST AND FOUND.

THE party that picked up pair of lineman's climbers corner of Belvidere and South avenues, please return to 217 West Second street and receive reward. 9 16 2

LOST—On Sunday or Saturday last, a sapphire and pearl bar pin, probably on Woodland avenue or Rahway road. Suitable reward for return to 1019 Hillside avenue.

LOST—White maltese terrier dog, answering to name of "Lumpy;" last seen on Netherwood avenue near Second street, yesterday. Suitable reward to finder. Return to 1111 East Front street.

LOST, on Monday, September 14, a black leather case with tortoise shell glasses and small glass bottle. Finder please return to 452 West Eighth street. 9 17 2

LOST—Brown collie dog, male, white breast, name Rod; reward. 617 West Fourth street.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

FOR SALE OR RENT—Artistic modern home on Rockview avenue, grounds 140x450; brick, slate roof house, 12 rooms, all improvements, kitchen and flower gardens, grape and rustic arbors, small lily pond, large garage and poultry house, shade and fruit trees; easy terms. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; telephone 1515. 9 16 3

TEN-ROOM house and barn, all improvements, corner property, large and small fruit, shade trees and flowers; near trolley and station. "Terrace," care Press. 9 11 6

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

DINING-ROOM or lunch counter privilege wanted in hotel, club, cafe or amusement places; exquisite service. L. Haslwanter, 728 West Front street. 9 17 6

HELP WANTED—MALE.

HIGH-CLASS young man by the month on a poultry farm. Poultry Man, Press office. 9 15 3

WANTED—Middle-aged man, one who can repair locks. U. B. Crane, 204 Watchung avenue. 9 17 3

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, reference required. Apply 31 Compton avenue. 9 15 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED — Experienced cook (white, Protestant) who is willing to help with light housework; good wages. Address K. W., care Press. 9 16 2

WANTED—Competent woman for general housework, reference required. 924 Madison avenue. 9 16 2

WANTED—Cook (white); bring references to 802 Belvidere avenue. 9 17 3

WANTED—A competent girl to cook and assist with housework and ironing; only those having good references need apply. 672 West Seventh street. 9 17 tf

MILLINERY apprentice wanted. Apply M. C. Ehlen, 148 East Front street. 9 17 3

WANTED—White woman for general housework, no washing. Apply 228 East Ninth street. 9 17 tf

WANTED—Competent bookkeeper by the day or evenings. Address Bookkeeper, care of Press. 9 17 2

WANTED—20 experienced cooks, good wages; also chambermaids and waitresses and general houseworkers and nurses for children. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 6

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY to laon on mortgage. H. R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; 'phone 1515. 9 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 146 Depot Park 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

ROOMS AND BOARD.

FURNISHED room with board. 440 West Front street, 'phone 418-M. 9 16 1mo

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

TWO furnished rooms, nicely located, heated. 75 Westervelt avenue. 9 17 3

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $1 to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30

TO LET—Three rooms and bath, improvements. 665 East Sixth St. 9 17 3

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

FLATS TO LET—Two steam heated, centrally located, $18 month. James Carson, 211 North avenue.

HOUSE TO LET—Desirable, centrally located house on East Second street. Address Central, care Daily Press. 9 14 6

APARTMENT TO LET — 322 East Front street, seven rooms and bath, steam heat and hot water supply. Inquire S. Scheuer & Co. 9 17 tf

FOR RENT—Barn, suitable for horses and carriages or automobiles, on East Fifth street near Park avenue. Apply Wm. A. Coddington, 212 Park avenue. 9 17 3

TO LET—One-half new semi-detached house, all improvements; Henry place, Netherwood; six rooms and bath; rent low to good tenants. C. M. Church, 710 East Front street. 9 17 6

FOR RENT—Upper apartment, two-family house, six rooms, bath, hot water heat, gas, electricity, private porch, on main trolley near Netherwood depot; $21.50, includes water rent. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 16 3

FOR RENT—Attractive modern six-room house, bath, steam heat, all improvements; Leland avenue near Netherwood depot, $25. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 16 3

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

MODERN house, Woodland avenue corner Park lane, nine rooms, all improvements. Apply to agents or H. A. Bonn, 160 East Front street. 9 5 tf s-tu-th

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

FOUR rooms to let. 312 New street. 9 3 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
200 Baskets
Fancy Alberta Peaches
ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.
ALSO
Fine Bartlett Pears
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.
Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.
Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.
R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Executor, Administrator

Guardian, Trustee

THE WIFE'S WILL

There is a popular delusion to the effect that when a wife dies without having made a will her husband inherits all her property. This delusion has led to many serious complications, some of which are described in our booklet, "The Wife's Will," a copy of which will be sent you on request.

Our Officers can give you valuable assistance in connection with the drawing of your will and we will hold the document in our vaults without charge.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

FURNITURE

The New Furniture we are placing on our floors make it a pleasure for you to select the FURNITURE for your home. It has been purchased at low cost and we can offer it to you at very moderate prices. The new pieces represent the best we can buy in construction, design and finish and we offer them to you with confidence that they will give you splendid service. Here are some of the prices for the new goods.

CIRCASSIAN WALNUT BEDROOM SUITS—
BED, DRESSER AND CHIFFONIER; Prices begin at.....$82.00

LEATHER UPHOLSTERED
CHAIRS AND ROCKERS; Prices begin at.....$34.00

TAPESTRY UPHOLSTERED
CHAIRS AND ROCKERS; Prices begin at.....$26.00

SOFA DAVENPORTS; Prices begin at.....$42.00

POWLISON & JONES
149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

School Shoes

Special Prices on Boys' and Girls' Shoes

Made With All Leather Counters and Solid Leather Soles

Little Gent's, sizes 9 to 13½, at.....$1.00
Youths', sizes 1 to 2, at.....$1.25
Boys, sizes 2½ to 5½, at.....$1.50
Misses', sizes 11½ to 2, at.....$1.25
Childs', sizes 8½ to 11, at.....$1.00
Infants', sizes 5 to 8, at.....89c

M. ABRAMS
229-233 West Front St.
SOLE AGENCY WALK-OVER SHOES

REPAIRING

ASK ANYBODY

and they will tell you of the Charles Kurtzman honest fur selling service that he has been doing here for years. Come in and see the most bewildering line of fall creations that you have ever gazed upon.

DO IT TODAY

Charles Kurtzman
THE FURRIER
178 EAST FRONT STREET

REMODELING

Satisfaction

There is just one and only one human motive that causes men to buy things, and that motive is—satisfaction, contentment in possession, use and enjoyment. This is one of the reasons why this agency is writing such a large volume of insurance.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield
INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

SPECIAL
For Friday and Saturday

2 (reg. 20c) Bottles Catsup....25c
3 (reg. 10c) pkgs. Macaroni or Spaghetti.....25c
3 (reg. 10c) cans Campbell's Soups.....25c
4 (reg. 10c) pkgs. Square Toilet Paper.....25c
7 (reg. 5c) Rolls Toilet Paper..25c
1 pkg. Cream of Wheat.....13c
3 (reg. 10c) cans Peerless Evaporated Milk.....25c
6 (reg. 5c) cans Babbitt's Cleanser.....25c
3 (reg. 10c) cans Dutch Cleanser 25c
2 (reg. 10c) cans Dutch Cleanser Lye.....15c
1 (reg. 10c) pkg. Cold Starch...5c
1 (reg. 10c) pkg. Corn Starch...8c
1 (reg. 20c) Glass Jelly.....15c
1 (reg. 18c) Curtice Bros. Jam..15c
1 (reg. 12c) pkg. Shredded Wheat Biscuit.....11c
3 (reg. 10c) pkg. Jello.....25c
1 (reg. 30c) pkg. Lipton's Tea..25c
6 (reg. 5c) cakes Soap.....27c
1 (reg. 35c) Broom.....25c
1 (reg. 25c) can Crisco.....22c

C. O. SMITH
Cor. 4th and Liberty Sts.
Telephone 1346.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Adv.

AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE
COUNIHAN & SHANNON
Managers

TONIGHT--
BLACK PATTI
PRICES
Night—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
Sept. 18 and 19.
Matinee Daily at 2:30
HERBERT KELSEY
AND
EFFIE SHANNON
In That Famous Photo Play
After the Ball
PRICES
Matinee—All Seats 10c.
Night—5c, 10c, 15c.

3 DAYS COMMENCING
Monday, Sept. 21st,
MATINEE DAILY
ANNETTE KELLERMAN
In the Most Talked of
Photo Plays
Neptune's Daughter
PRICES, Matinee and Night
15c and 25c.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES
$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WE MUST
permanently please our customers or we could not sell goods on the long terms of credit we offer.

A cash store need give you no redress if their goods turn out wrong—they have your money and they "cannot refund on worn garments."

Our goods, on the other hand, must make good if we are to retain your friendship while your payments are being made.

Think this over!

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS
J. A. LAURIE & CO.
304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Joint Meetings of the Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, the Borough of North Plainfield and the Borough of Dunellen, N. J.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Construction of Trunk Sewer and Sewage Disposal Works.

CONTRACTS A AND B.

Sealed proposals for furnishing all labor and materials for constructing a trunk sewer—Contract A, and sewage disposal works—Contract B, for the Joint Meeting of the Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, the Borough of North Plainfield, and the Borough of Dunellen, addressed to C. M. Dolliver, Esq., Secretary of the said Joint Meeting, will be received at the meeting place of the said Joint Meeting in the City Building, No. 149 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey, until 8.00 P. M., on October 7, 1914, and at that time and place will be opened and publicly read. The bids shall be in accordance with the plans and specifications for the works on file with the said Joint Meeting, and at the office of George W. Fuller, Engineer, 170 Broadway, New York City, from whom copies may be obtained. A deposit of Twenty-five ($25) Dollars will be required for each set of plans and specifications furnished, which sum will be refunded if said plans and specifications are returned in good condition within thirty (30) days after bids have been received and acted upon by the said Joint Meeting.

Proposals shall be made on the blank form of Proposals accompanying the specifications, and may be for either Contract A, Trunk Sewer, or Contract B, Sewage Disposal Works, or both separately. Any proposal containing bids not asked for or which does not contain prices in words and figures for all items given in the Form of Proposal, or which is otherwise not in conformity with this Notice, may be rejected.

Each proposal shall contain the full name of every person, firm or corporation interested in the same, and the address of the person or firm or the president and secretary of the corporation bidding, and shall be accompanied by certified checks upon a National Bank or Trust Company, drawn to the order of the Joint Meeting of the inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, the Borough of North Plainfield and the Borough of Dunellen in the sum of Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500) Dollars for each contract bid upon.

The bidder to whom a contract may be awarded shall attend at the said meeting place of the said Joint Meeting with the sureties offered by him within ten (10) days (Sundays excepted) after the date of the notification by the Secretary of the acceptance of his proposal and then sign the contract for the work in triplicate. In case of failure so to do the bidder will be considered as having abandoned the same, and the certified check accompanying his proposal shall be forfeited to the Joint Meeting.

The checks of all unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award and then the checks of the successful bidders upon the execution of the contract and the furnishing of the required bond. Before the execution of the said contracts respectively, the successful bidder thereon shall furnish a surety company bond in the sum of Fifty (50) Per Cent. of the price named therein conditioned upon the faithful performance of such contract. Each bond shall be satisfactory to the said Joint Meeting, both as to form and surety.

The Joint Meeting will not be responsible in any manner for verbal answers to any inquiries regarding the meaning of the drawings or specifications given prior to the awarding of the contracts.

C. M. DOLLIVER,
Secretary.

9 17 3th

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

The policy of this Company is to offer every modern banking facility consistent with conservative management.

Our Board of Directors is representative, composed as it is, of local as well as New York business men, and it is our aim to give local business needs careful consideration.

We suggest an interview.

SERVICE

The State Trust Company
At the sign of the clock CAPITAL $100,000.00 201 Park Ave.

For the College Boy

We suggest these striking new English models, as shown in our famous Slater Morrill and Heywood $5.00 and $6.00 lines.

If you are not already acquainted with the splendid merits of these new Fall lines, we urge you to make their acquaintance this Fall.

They have that classy English custom appearance with its flat toe, flat heel, wide shank and blind eyelets.

Shown in rich dark tan, mahogany and black steel calf.

M. C. Van Arsdale
127 E. Front St.

PEACE AND PLENTY

Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.

W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

UPHOLSTERING
WINDOW SHADES
AWNINGS
Frank G. Wikoff
721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

DR. MANDEVILLE
SPECIALIST
565 Broad St., opposite Shubert's Theatre, Newark, N. J.

Twenty years' experience as a specialist in all chronic diseases of MEN AND WOMEN.

Catarrh, Nervous Diseases, Diseases of Heart, Kidneys, Stomach, Liver or Bladder, Rheumatism and all Lung Diseases.

Office Hours Daily, 2 to 4 p. m., 6 to 8 p. m. Mornings, Tuesdays and Fridays 9 a. m. to 12 noon. Closed all day Saturday.

ADVICE FREE.
Don't Forget Name, Place and Number.
* 14 tu-th-s tf

REAL ESTATE
INSURANCE
MANNING & CURTIS
106 DEPOT PARK

A. H. ENANDER
SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING. STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Contractor for Sewer Connection.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

NOTICE—OUR STORE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, SEPT. 21st, ON ACCOUNT OF HOLIDAY.

Specials for Friday and Saturday at
B. MANN'S GROCERY
120 West Fourth Street. Tel. 409.

Very Best Butter, per lb	36c	Kirkman's Scouring Powder, can	3½c
Best Compound Lard, lb	10c	Swift's Washing Powder, package	2½c
Butterfly Condensed, 3 cans	28c	Lilac Rose Glycerine Soap, 10c cake	8c
Gold Cross or Borden's Evaporated Milk, 3 tall cans	25c	7 5c Rolls Toilet Paper for	25c
Ready Made Soups, all Flavors, 3 cans	25c	4 10c Rolls Best Toilet Paper	25c
Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit, pkg.	11c	10 STAMPS WITH EACH OF THE FOLLOWING:
Puffed Rice, a package	12½c	Large Bag Salt for	10c
Sardines in Mustard; reg. 10c; large can	8c	3 5c boxes Blue Tip Matches	15c
Libby's Genuine Potted Ham, 25c can for	19c	1 pkg. Warner's Macaroni	10c
Hershey's Cocoa, ½-lb can	18c	1 lb box Cobb Brand Soda	10c
Imperial Flour, large bag	79c	1 can Walker's Potash or Lye	10c
Kirkman's Washing Powder, large package	16c	1 large bottle Ammonia	10c

Now for
School Shoes

Our School Shoes are the best in the market for the money.

And we are fixing the prices right

Sizes 1 to 5½ — $1.50 and $2.00

Sizes 9 to 13½ — $1.25 and $1.50

"Oldest Shoe House in Town"

A. K. Willett
107 Park Ave.

ANNIVERSARY SALE STARTS SATURDAY
CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

ROTH & CO.

25—OYSTERS—25c

SPECIAL—4 lbs Butter Fish for.....25c
Fresh Herring, lb.....7c
SEA BASS, lb
FRESH HADDOCK, lb
FANCY WEAK, lb
FRESH FLOUNDERS, lb
9c
Blue Fish, lb.....12c
Cod Fish, steak or boil, lb
Chicken Halibut, lb.....16c & 20c

DELICATESSEN DEPARTMENT

Fresh Made Fish Cakes, 3 for.....5c
Fried Oysters, fresh made, dozen.....25c

A. C. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS
Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped
MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

Until September 19, the Daily Press will be published on Saturdays at 1 p. m.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Saturday, not much change in temperature; light to moderate, variable winds.

Max., 84; min., 48.

Established May 10, 1887. FOURTEEN PAGES PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1914. FOURTEEN PAGES Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

REALTY MARKET SHOWS ACTIVITY

Mulford Agency Reports Sales Agregating $55,000 During Summer Months.

SEVERAL BIG DEALS

Marion S. Ackerman Purchases Property at 131 Crescent Avenue—Large Number of Rentals Reported.

Sales amounting to $55,000, together with a large number of rentals made by Mulford's real estate agency during June, July, August and half of September, indicate considerable activity in local realty, notwithstanding that these are usually the slowest months in the year for this business. The amount of business transacted by Mr. Mulford shows an upward tendency in the realty market in this city.

Among the big deals made by Mr. Mulford recently was the sale of the residential property at 131 Crescent avenue, formerly owned by Thomas W. Leary, to Marion S. Ackerman, who will take possession soon. Sometime ago Mr. Ackerman sold his property at Park and Crescent avenues to M. F. Benton, who has been making him home there.

Adolph Tepper, of the firm of Tepper Brothers, has purchased the property at 669 West Seventh street, but will not take possession for the present. In the meantime he will occupy the property at 729 Monroe avenue, which he has rented. E. L. Steffen has purchased the property at 202 Netherwood avenue and taken possession. Albertus Newman has purchased a lot on Netherwood avenue near East Front street, adjoining his residence; Ernest Sharp has purchased a farm at Lebanon, and Charles Backer has purchased of Mr. Sharp a new house at Beechwood Heights.

The following rentals have been made by the Mulford agency:

E. Y. Davies, 40 Albert street, and has taken possession; Peter L. Anderson, of Philadelphia, connected with the New Jersey Central, Mr. Reilly's new house on Woodland avenue, and has taken possession; Louis Beeh, of the Bosch-Magneto Company, 951 Union street, and has taken possession; George Clark, of New York, Clifford D. Manning's new house at Park and Evergreen avenues, possession October 1; Mrs. C. L. Anderson, of Hackensack, 1224 Lenox avenue, has taken possession; J. W. Hart, of New York, 1218 Martine avenue; John Hotten, of Jersey City, 74 Chatham street, possession October 1; J. P. Jeffrey, 969 West Fifth street; H. B. Schneider, of the Bosch-Magneto Company, house on Emerson avenue, possession taken; Albert McDonald, of the John Martins Publishing House, New York, W. B. Tyler's house on Evergreen avenue, possession October 1.

J. P. Patton, of Washington, 115 East Fifth street, possession taken; Thomas Lindaberry, 1201 Cameron avenue, possession October 1; L. J. Borland, of New York, 132 East Ninth street, possession October 1; Louis Quetn, 612 East Second street, possession October 1; D. A. VanZandt, of California, 676 Wet Eighth street, possession this week; A. C. Wadley, of South Beach, Conn., 97 Rockview avenue, possession October 1.

ANOTHER POSTPONEMENT IN CITY LIQUOR CASES

Another postponement was added to the already long list of delays when the case against Morris Latzko and James Smith, charged with infractions of the liquor ordinance, was called for hearing in the city court, this morning. Judge DeMeza informed the witnesses that this would be the last postponement and set the date down for September 25.

William Newcorn, counsel for the defendants, made the request for an adjournment owing to his absence from the city. The men are each accused of three separate infractions and were arrested on information obtained by Sergeant Maurice Higgins.

WOMEN'S TENNIS TOURNEY.

The handicap tennis tournament for women members of the Plainfield Country Club will begin tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Entries close tonight with Miss Barbara Fleming. The winner will be awarded a handsome cup while the runner-up will receive gold clasps.

—Roth & Co. will be closed all day Monday.—Adv. ***

—Ritz Sat. lunch special, filet of beef larded, with mushroom sauce and asparagus tips, 35c.—Adv. ***

—Neuman Brothers will have their usual large display of fresh fruits and vegetables at their Watchung avenue market tomorrow.—Adv. ***

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

HOW TO SELECT YOUR HELPMATE

Minister Gives Some Good Advise Guaranteed to Insure Happy Marriages.

NEST BUILDING ART

Two Important Questions for the Young Man Were Set Forth, Namely, "To Pop the Question" and "To Question the Pop."

"Match Making and Building Nests for Future Homes," was the subject of Rev. Dr. C. S. Ryman's lecture at Grace M. E. church, last night, and those who heard the talk were well repaid for being present. Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor of the church, introduced the speaker.

From the beginning Dr. Ryman impressed his audience regarding the importance of the topic and then gave some excellent advice for all to follow. He drew many mental pictures showing that marriage is best for individuals as well as society and also gave statistics which showed the ratio of marriageable males and females in the world and then went on to explain the various reasons that have been offered. Some of them were extremely humorous.

The speaker touched upon one important question that individuals have different views on. That was about marriage for reformation. He emphatically stated that this version was all wrong and nearly always led to disaster. He argued that if reform was not accomplished before marriage there was little chance of it after. Dr. Ryman divided the matrimonial life into four acts, the first being flirtation or companionship, the second marriage, third divorce or desertion and the last and final act was a broken heart. He viewed these facts from different standpoints and made them clear to his listeners. He admitted that some mistakes and risks concerning this question were inevitable, but these were in the minority and that two reasons for unhappy married lives were haste and superficial qualities.

He said there were embarrassing questions for a young man who wanted to marry. The first was to "Pop the question" and the second was to "Question the Pop."

As a conclusion he gave four hints which he thought would assure happy married life. They were (1) try to appreciate your companion, (2) be contented with the lot, (3) never look to find perfection in your partner, and (4) be absolutely true to each other. The happiness of the home depends upon the dual elements of love and confidence, he said.

A silver offering was taken for the purpose of helping in the erection of a new church at Kenilworth, a suburb of Elizabeth. The home pastor, Rev. Cain, announced that the speaker of the evening was the presiding elder at the convention that appointed the first pastor to the local church. The meeting last night was in charge of the Epworth League.

PRESENT SINGING SECTION WITH SILVER LOVING CUP

Official presentation of the silver loving cup won by the singing section of the Gesang and Turn Verein at Trenton, was made at a special gathering of the society in Saengerbund Hall, Wednesday night, at which time the members enjoyed a supper. There were speeches by President Eugene Rentz, August Wolfe, Adam Muff, Henry Haurand, Richard Walters and Prof. Dietchmann, leader of the section. The cup was presented by Carl Felber, and received by Mr. Rentz.

The singing section was congratulated for winning the handsome trophy and making such a good showing at the singing fest, and it was hoped that in the near future it would be possible for the section to enter the second section. An entertainment will be given October 11 for the benefit of the German Red Cross.

GOING ABROAD.

Esris Carberry, of Clinton avenue, was among the passengers on the White Star Line steamer Celtic, sailing yesterday for Southampton. Passage was booked through Estil's agency, of which Will F. Williams is agent.

Miss Avis M. Laing, of the borough, has been entertaining Miss Marjorie Voorhees, of Asbury Park. Before returning home she will visit in South Plainfield.

—Cabaret at The Ritz Sat. night.—Adv. ***

—400 baskets of fancy white and yellow peaches will be found at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market tomorrow. Extra fancy fruit will be offered at 85 cents for 16 quarts; fancy fruit at 75 cents, and good fruit at 65 and 50 cents.—Adv. ***

SPEAKERS ENGAGE IN WORDY FIGHT

Consolidation Meeting on Somerset Street Last Night Was Enthusiastic.

MANY EXPRESS VIEWS

Prominent North Plainfield Voters Give Reasons for and Against the Proposition of Merger—Gathering Will Be Continued Tonight.

The first public discussion in "the open" on the consolidation question held in front of fire headquarters on Somerset street, last night, was marked by a lively battle of words between those who are for and those who are against the proposition. There was a large attendance of citizens all anxious to secure information that would enlighten them on the subject of the proposed merger, and the arguments presented by Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., and former Mayor W. L. Saunders, who favor consolidation, and former Mayor Newton B. Smalley, an anti, stirred the crowd to great enthusiasm.

The consolidation meeting followed one held in the interest of the candidacy of F. G. Thomas, of Somerville, who is seeking the nomination for State Senator on the Democratic ticket, and the former seemed to hold the greatest attraction. Those who engaged in a debate on consolidation became quite personal in their remarks and the crowd seemed to enjoy it exceedingly. It is expected there will be another lively meeting tonight, when Mr. Smalley promises to have something more to say in his fight against consolidation.

Captain William C. Smith, who owns property on both sides of the municipal lines, was the first to address the representative gathering of borough citizens. Mr. Smith spoke briefly along the lines of the relative values of real estate in city and borough, and the slight development along this line in the latter place during the past few years. In answer to several arguments which have been used by those opposed to consolidation without annexation, Mr. Smith stated that he believed that annexation would come quicker should consolidation be adopted by both city and borough.

Former Mayor Saunders was the next to address the gathering, and was interrupted at the outset by ex-Mayor Newton B. Smalley, who challenged the speaker to quote his (Smalley's) past attitude on the question under discussion, and where it differed from the stand of the interrupter at the present time. This request was made because of Mr. Smalley having been led to believe that Mr. Saunders was to mis-interpret his attitude as a campaign argument for consolidation. In reply, Mr. Saunders stated that he had no intention of using Mr. Smalley's past or present views on the question mainly because he did not know of his attitude at the present time. However, complying with the challenge of Mr. Smalley, the speaker gave what he believed to be the views of Mr. Smalley in the past years, reading extracts from a number of clippings taken from a scrap book, which contained many articles, pro and con, on the subject of consolidation. The first to be read was from a pamphlet issued in 1899 endorsing consolidation, with Newton B. Smalley's name appearing as one who had signed the statement. Another pamphlet issued in 1903, together with an interview secured by a reporter from Mr. Smalley and published in this paper that year, were also read, showing that the ex-Mayor favored consolidation at that time. Another clipping from this paper as late as December 8, 1910, showed that Mr. Smalley up to that time advocated consolidation. The last clipping was in the form of a reply to a communication from L. V. F. Randolph, of this city. Later in the evening, Mr. Smalley stated that at present he favored securing annexation before consolidation, while not denying that in former years he had been out and out for consolidation. While admitting that he was agreeable to consolidation providing that annexation should come along with it, he referred to Plainfield as the most extravagant city of which he knew. Both Mr. Saunders and Mr. Smalley argued back and forth on the question for some time, with little accomplished either for or against consolidation as a result.

Former Mayor Saunders, during his address after the completion of the reading of the various clippings, dwelt on a number of the detailed reasons as to why borough citizens should endorse the consolidation movement at the polls next Thursday, dealing mainly with financial and tax questions. His remarks were to the point, but a number in the crowd did not agree with the conclusions the speaker drew, and a number of questions were raised. The meetings will be continued this evening.

—Roth & Co. will be closed all day Monday.—Adv. ***

FINE CLUBHOUSE WILL BE BUILT

Citizens Plan Erection of Social Rendezvous on Evergreen Avenue.

ALL MODERN FEATURES

Swimming Pool and Game Courts Leading Attractions—Structure to Be of Concrete—Will Be Open all the Year Round.

Tentative arrangements have been made by residents living in the vicinity of Evergreen avenue for the establishment of a social and athletic rendezvous that will, when completed, prove to be a valuable addition to the city's recreation facilities. For a long time past there has been a much felt need of an indoor swimming pool that might be used by the public and the new movement indicates that this want will be fulfilled in the near future. According to information made public yesterday, it is proposed to erect a handsome athletic club building, similar to the metropolitan centres, on Evergreen avenue, and a large number of prominent local citizens are engaged in promoting the idea in an effort to make it a reality as soon as possible.

It is proposed to supply the new structure with every modern convenience, including an indoor swimming pool that will be in use both winter and summer. Other features will be a handball and squash court, tennis courts, lounging rooms and provision for indoor games.

The structure will be built of brick and concrete and will be open twelve months in the year. The site selected is directly opposite the home of Howard A. Colby and ample ground is afforded for extensive construction work.

When completed the place will be in charge of a competent director and athletic and swimming instructors will be engaged to take care of these important departments. Careful supervision will be maintained over the club and it is proposed to fix a nominal membership fee. A reception hall, in which dances and other social affairs may be held, will be provided and a definite routine of work drawn up prior to the opening.

Erected on this particular site the structure would probably prove vastly popular with those who frequent the Plainfield Country Club and at the same time be within easy reach of everyone.

SAID "POLICE DOG" WAS ONLY PLAYFUL

Night Watchman Arraigned in Court on Complaint of Aged Pedestrian.

"Wiggins is more vicious than his dog," declared John McPeak in the city court, this morning, when he appeared as complainant against Kirk Wiggins, a special watchman employed by residents of Hillside avenue, whom he charged with allowing a vicious canine to run at large and with using abusive language to him. According to McPeak the animal attacked him Sunday night, while he was walking in the Netherwood section and when he complained to the owner about the beast's actions he was instructed to keep his mouth shut or he would be treated to a clubbing.

Wiggins denied using abusive language to his accuser but admitted that the dog ran after McPeak, explaining that he was harmless. Reprimanded by the court for his offense the defendant stated that Mayor Stewart had given him permission to allow his "police dog" to ramble about the premises of those whose houses he was engaged to watch at night and claimed that the complainant was acting suspiciously when the incident occurred. He was lectured by Judge DeMeza for the stand he took as a person vested with special authority and told not to repeat the offense that had been alleged by McPeak. Sentence was suspended.

JAMES SWIFT'S FUNERAL.

The funeral services of James Swift, aged 29 years, who died last Wednesday, will be held this afternoon from 200 West Second street. Rev. Griffin W. Bailey will have charge and interment will be made in the Plainfield avenue cemetery.

Miss Helen Woodruff, of Duer street, leaves next week for Vermont.

—Peaches continue to arrive daily in large quantities at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market, and are offered at unusually low prices by the basket. Pears, plums, grapes and other fresh fruits, suitable for canning and preserving are displayed in large quantities.—Adv. ***

FIERCE FIGHTING CONTINUES ON BANKS OF OISE; RUSSIANS SEND 900,000 MORE MEN INTO POLAND

Christiania Hears That a Peace Conference Will Soon Be Held--Germans Say They Have Not Been Defeated By the Allies--Italian Radical Party Wants Government to Declare War and Join With Triple Entente--Austria Concentrating Forces for Decisive Battle Near Przemysl.

PUPILS EAT LUNCHES AT MINIMUM COST

Plainfield High School Counters Supply Noon-day Meals for Many.

In accordance with the custom adopted last year in the local public schools, members of the Plainfield Mothers' Association, yesterday, reopened the penny lunch counter in the Plainfield High School and are planning to renew the feature in the Bryant School on October 1. The opening day's supply of food fed between 400 and 500 of the High School pupils and about 400 grammar school pupils. A new menu will be placed at the disposal of the scholars each day, but soup, milk, sandwiches and ice cream will always be available. A fee of three cents for each of these foods is charged and this is considered a minimum rate.

Ten boys from the High School and ten from the grammar school assist at the counter and in return receive their lunches free of charge. The counter is opened between 11:15 and 12:35 each day, and is in charge of the association.

Mrs. Herbert E. Parker is chairman of the committee in charge, and she has for her assistants, Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, financial secretary; Mrs. Stephen Voorhees, chairman of the menue committee; Mrs. G. S. Munro, chairman of the student committee; Mrs. C. H. Rice, chairman of the commissory committee; Miss Palmer, chairman of the equipment committee; Mrs. D. F. Godown and Miss M. Cardner assists Miss Ethel Hall in the cooking. Miss Neighbor is in charge of the tickets and those who assist at the lunch counter are Mrs. George Wean, Mrs. H. G. Henwood, Mrs. Gearge Place and Mrs. Arthur Goodenough.

FRANK HOWLAND LOSES HIS LIFE BY DROWNING

Frank Howland, for many years a resident of this city and at one time head draughtsman at the Walter Scott Printing Machine Works, was drowned off Battery Park, New York, on Tuesday morning. Just how Mr. Howland happened to lose his life is not known, only the fact that he was drowned being received here.

Mr. Howland since leaving Plainfield had been living in New York, where he was employed. He was a graduate of the North Plainfield High School. While a resident here he was interested in Y. M. C. A. work and he had a large acquaintance. He is survived by a wife and several relatives who reside in Rochester, N. Y.

MRS. MAUD LOWRIE DEANE.

The remains of Mrs. Maud Lowrie Deane, who died at Wilmette, Ill., last September, were received in Plainfield, yesterday, and were laid at rest in the family plot of her father, Dr. H. H. Lowrie, in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Jennie E. Ross and son, of Brooklyn, have moved back to Plainfield, and are residing on East Seventh street.

—400 baskets of fancy white and yellow peaches will be found at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market tomorrow. Extra fancy fruit will be offered at 85 cents for 16 quarts; fancy fruit at 75 cents, and good fruit at 65 and 50 cents.—Adv. ***

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

Paris, Sept. 18.—It was officially announced this afternoon that the allies have progressed somewhat on their western wing and are repulsing a vigorous German offensive movement.

London, Sept. 18, (Central News Cable)—The great battle on the line extending from the region of Noyon, on the Oise, northwest of Paris, to the River Meuse, north of Verdun, continued with fierceness along the whole front today. The allies are storming the trenches of the Germans.

Christiania, Sept. 18, (Central News Cable)—The Aften Posten today publishes a telegram from Berlin passed by the German censor announcing that at a conference soon to be held in Washington a basis for peace will be reached.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 18.—Acting under instructions from the President, officials from the State Department absolutely refused to discuss today the communication from Berlin indicating that peace might be arranged if the United States was successful in asecrtaining the terms upon which the allies would consider such a move. It is impossible to obtain even an admission that this communication, received through the agency of the Imperial Chancellor of Germany and United States Ambassador Gerard has been received here.

The message from Gerard to the State Department makes it clear that Germany's chief objection to the acceptance of the President's offer of mediation at present is that it would appear to the governments of the allied forces that such acceptance would be an indication of the weakness of Germany.

Rome, Sept. 18, (Central News Cable)—The Italian Radical party will today vote an order of the day asking the government to forsake its policy of neutrality, and to ally itself with the triple entente. The anarchist party has declared against war.

The Tribuna prints a despatch from its correspondent in Petrograd to the effect that a new Russian army of 900,000 men is advancing in central Poland, and that it is the vanguard of another army of 2,000,000 which is marching toward Poland now. A third army of 2,000,000 has been assembled and is beginning to move forward.

Austria is said now to be concentrating all her forces along the line between Przemysl and Tarnow for a decisive battle. An official statement by the war office in Vienna says that Gen. Conrad's son was killed in the battle of Rava Russka.

Amsterdam, Sept. 18, (Central News Cable)—The German war headquarters in Berlin has issued the following official statement:

"In the battle of September 17 between the Oise and Meuse Rivers, there has been no decisive victory yet. The indications, however, are that the resistance of the enemy is beginning to decrease. An effort made by the French with great bravery to break through the Germany extreme right has failed. The centre of the German army is slowly advancing. Sallies by the French in the vicinity of Verdun have been repulsed without much trouble."

Measures have been taken in Berlin to protect works of art in Belgium. Superintendent Director Falke, of the Berlin Art Museum, has been charged to take all proper measures.

The Germans yesterday bombarded Grenbergen, a village three miles north of Termonde, and Baesrode, a town about four miles east of Termonde. The Belgians dynamited the bridge over the south branch of the Dendre River, cutting the communication between Termonde and Brussels, some time early yesterday morning.

An incessant cannonade all yesterday showed that an artillery duel was in progress. German cavalry which appeared at the destroyed bridge received a heavy fire and fell back.

Many minor encounters are reported. Near Ypres a force of Germans were defeated by the Belgians and withdrew into France, where it was completely wiped out by French troops. Near Poperinghe, in West Flanders, 3,000 Germans with mitraileuses and a train of provisions were attacked by 1,000 French cavalry. Fifty were killed and 100 taken prisoners. The rest of the Germans retreat across the French border, where they were met and were defeated by the British.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Sept. 18 (Central News Cable).—The Montenegrins have occupied Gorazda, a village of 2,000 population, on the River Drina, 35 miles southeast of Serajeyo.

Copenhagen, Sept. 18 (Central News Cable).—The Wolff Telegraph Bureau, the semi-official German news agency, reports that the German Chancellor, Herr Von Bethmann-Hollweg, has issued a contradiction of the French and English despatches. He declares that nowhere is German soil in possession of the Russians or French troops, that in Alsace and Lorraine the French troops were thrown back on Moret and that all efforts to attack the Germans between Oise and Meuse Rivers have miscarried.

The statement also says that com-

(Continued on page 5.)

Saturday Sales Always Mean Money Saved

IF YOU ARE NOT NOW A CUSTOMER—COME ON SATURDAY—MANY ITEMS ALL THROUGH THE STORE (NOT MENTIONED HERE) THAT ARE UNDER PRICE.

Millinery Department

A Big $1.00 Sale

Our Millinery Department has no formal opening, but for the last three weeks we have been showing latest style Hats. No opening show here, but ready for business for all the time.

Saturday a Big Sale of New Hats at $1.00

Values to $3.00.

These hats are sample hats in trimmed as well as shapes, in silk velvets and German velours; a great bargain; on sale Saturday if the lot lasts so long, at only ..... $1.00 each

IN THE BASEMENT

A Sale of Granite and Galvanized Ware at 10c and 15c

Regular Prices 15c to 29c.

These prices for Saturday only if the lot lasts so long; 500 pieces in big variety of items. Following are only a few of the many:

AT 10 CENTS—Pails, Colanders, Sauce Pans, Preserving Kettles, Coffee and Tea Canisters, Wash Basins, Chambers, etc.

AT 15 CENTS—Galvanized Tubs, 14-quart Pails, Milk Pans, Berlin Kettles, Sauce Pans, Roasting Pans, etc.

WOMEN'S SKIRTS AT $2.00.
Regular Values to $4.
On sale for Saturday only, women's fine wool skirts, in blue and black serges, checks and plaids; Saturday your choice at only $2.00

SWEATERS AT $1.98.
Regular Values to $3.
Lot of men's and women's all wool Sweaters, various colors, and all sizes in the lot; your choice at only ..... $1.98 each

$1.25 SUIT CASES $1.00.
Fine fiber cases, 24-inch size; patent hinge that will not come off; clasps, lock and key, at only $1.00

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Again on Saturday, fine silk ribbons; 25c to 39c kinds, at only ..... 19c a yard

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gnatz, of Park place, have been entertaining Mr. Gnatz's father and brother, Henry and Edward Gnatz, of Newark.

Irving Munday, of Prospect avenue, has accepted a position with Mann, the grocer, at Bound Brook.

Mrs. Ida Giddes and daughter, of Lincoln avenue, left on Wednesday morning for Batum, Ohio, where she will make an indefinite visit at the home of Ronald Blosser, her fiance.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

The Monarch football team will hold its first uniform practice tomorrow afternoon on Maurer Oval. All candidates are requested to be present.

Mrs. Walter Vliet, of Front street, entertained friends from Newark, yesterday.

The Misses Anna and Sophie Alberti, spent yesterday in Newark.

Paul Ratti, of the Ratti fruit store, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Herbert E. Nelson, Frank Smalley and Fred Ward enjoyed an automobile trip to Newark yesterday morning.

Mrs. C. D. Gooch's mother, who has been visiting her, has returned home.

John McMahon, of Railroad avenue, witnessed the game between the Giants and the Cincinnati "Reds" at the Polo Grounds, New York, yesterday.

Councilman Richard M. Ryan, who has not been well, is feeling considerably better as the result of a vacation from his duties and expects to return to work on Monday.

Miss Caroline Schwarz, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting Miss Clara Gray, of Front street, since Saturday, returned home yesterday morning.

RETURNS TO THE CITY.

The Zimmermans, who for the past two years or so have been residing on the old John R. Campbell property at the corner of Grove street and Prospect avenue, were moved back to the city yesterday afternoon by the Smith Auto Express Company.

"RUBBER" GAME TOMORROW.

A large delegation of local fans are planning to witness the rubber game between the St. Joseph and Y. M. A. clubs at Bound Brook tomorrow afternoon. The club that wins this game will be the champions of Bound Brook, and the affair therefore, promises to be very hotly contested. The St. Joseph's are the local favorites because McFadden, Teeling and Hanon, three home boys, play with them.

Henry Wrage, of Walnut street, continues to improve slowly from an attack of malaria.

Rev. H. F. Fettemer, of St. Louis, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moynihan, of Bound Brook road.

Miss Irma Baldwin is enjoying a week's vacation from her duties in the Dunellen apparel store.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held on Monday evening in the borough hall.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING.

The meetings of the Parent-Teachers' Association will be resumed on Tuesday afternoon, September 29, when a meeting will be held in the Lincoln School at 4 o'clock. All parents, whether they belong to the association or not, are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. W. R. Hatfield and Miss Irma Baldwin are visitors at Newark, today.

JOHN HUFF IMPROVING.

John Huff, of North avenue, who has been visiting his brother-in-law, Fred Chesire, at Bayville, near Oyster Bay, for the past two weeks, writes that his visit is benefitting him greatly. His appetite has improved and he sleeps better.

Miss L. A. Smalley, of Jackson avenue, left yesterday for an indefinite stay at Lakewood. She is stopping at the Woodland Villa.

The members of the "Kaffee Klatsch," composed mostly of Plainfield women, met at the home of Mrs. George H. Richter, on Prospect avenue, yesterday afternoon. A very pleasant afternoon was passed.

Mrs. Lewis T. Churchill, of Fourth street, entertained the Misses Hazel VanSickle and Alice Fenner, of Plainfield, last evening.

C. Wesley Blaine has awarded Goldson W. Smalley the contract of laying concrete sidewalks along the Lincoln avenue frontage of his property, which covers the block between Third and Fourth streets.

John Smith, of Front street, who has been laid up for two weeks with an ulcerated tooth, is able to be out and about again. He has not, as yet, however, been able to depart from a liquid diet.

Earl Victorson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Victorson, of First street, will be a student at New York University this year. He will take a course in mechanical engineering. He will leave on Monday to take up his studies.

STYLISH RELIABLE

ROTHBERG SERVICE IS THE RIGHT KIND OF SERVICE

This store offers to men of Plainfield and vicinity the right kind of service in things to wear.

It's a store for men, young men and women who shop for men, who want the best possible value—returns for the money they spend; whatever the amount may be.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's.

New Providence.

The New Providence A. A. met last night at the home of the president, A. J. Balcom.

A dance was held in St. Mary's Hall, Stony Hill, Wednesday night, by the young people for the benefit of the church.

The New Providence A. A. baseball team will go to East Orange tomorrow afternoon to play the American A. A. team. These teams have broken even, each having won a game in the series. Saunier will pitch for New Providence and Foley will catch.

The borough tax rate this year will be 2.27, a drop of four points from last year. The township rate will be 2.25, a drop of six points. Last year both taxing districts were far over the maximum limit rate then in force, and were compelled to cull their appropriations in consequence. This year the maximum tax rate act is not in force, but both local taxing districts are well under the maximum rate prevailing this year.

Warrenville.

There will be a dance given by Andrew Colosso at Mountain House Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

The Coontown Ladies' Aid will hold its sociable at the home of Miss Lillian Williams, of Mountain Boulevard, on Tuesday evening, September 29.

Miss Myrtle Cooper, of Hillside Farm, is visiting Mrs. Alice Penhale, of New York.

Mrs. Oliver Ulmer, of Plainfield, and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, of Coontown, are visiting Mrs. Eliza Jennings, of The Cedars.

Miss Ethel Harrison, of Coontown, is visiting Edith L. Cooper, of Hillside Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adams, who recently sold their farm, moved yesterday to Inwood, L. I.

George Hendershot, who has been spending several weeks in Warrenville, returned to his home at Whitehouse, yesterday.

William Hermstedt has purchased a new automobile from Raymond Adams.

Mr. Dudenhoff, who recently purchased the Raymond Adams farm, has taken possession.

B. S. Harrison, of Coontown, is confined to his bed by illness.

Freemen Strait has completed his bungalow on his farm back of Villa Hauser.

Miss Anna Hermstedt is visiting friends in New York.

Miss Viola Hauser, who has been visiting Miss Neva Boehm, of Newark, has returned to her home on Mountain Boulevard.

The Reinmann Brothers are delivering a carload of tree poles to C. Augustine, of Newark.

Leslie Toms has taken a position with M. Rabinowitz, who has the contract for the building of three bungalows for the Kline Realty Company.

The Summit Gas and Power Company is taking the measurments for the electric light poles in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleishman, who have been visiting their son, have returned to their home in Pittsburgh.

Middlesex Borough

Emanuel Keller has removed from a farm near the Haight and Todd property to the Curcio house on Lincoln boulevard, adjoining Lincoln Hotel. B. King, of New York city, has purchased the farm that Mr. Keller leaves, and taken possession of it and will make it his home.

John Rafferty, of Mountain avenue, who is employed in the office of the Levgar Structural Steel Works, is on a two weeks' vacation. He expects to spend part of it with friends in Brooklyn and vicinity.

The prizes offered by the Ostrander Company for the best kept lawns by those living in the company's houses, were awarded last week. The lucky winners were: First prize, William Wagner, of Mountain avenue; second prize, L. W. Dempsey, of Lincoln boulevard; third prize, W. H. Hall, of Lincoln boulevard. First prize, 60 pieces of silver; second, 40 pieces of silver; third, full dinner set.

J. D. Taylor, of Vallejo, California, has sold lot No. 1, block 17, Piscataway township, to O. A. LaPointe, home builder.

William J. Cairnes, of Philadelphia, Pa., was in town Wednesday, visiting his property. Mr. Cairnes, who is in the seventies, has served as ticket agent at Schamaxton Ferry for more than 32 years, and has recently been retired by the company on a pension. He makes it a rule to make an annual visit to Lincoln.

Dr. R. C. Hart, of New York city, and M. McMaster, of Trenton, were in town yesterday on business.

O. A. LaPointe, the builder, has received the general contract for the erection of a six-room cottage at South Plainfield, for Mrs. E. Marrin, of Brooklyn. The work will be started at once, that the foundation may be finished before frost.

John DeFillipi is erecting a dwelling house on Harris avenue adjoining his store.

M. S. Bernstein has improved the new front to his store by a coat of paint.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The Borough Council held a routine business session in the Fanwood fire-house last evening.

The tax rate in the borough this year will be six points higher than last year, having jumped from $1.66 to $1.72. This is partly occasioned by the new tax maps that will cost $500 and several pieces of macadamizing done.

Dr. H. K. Carroll will conduct the weekly prayer meeting in the Methodist church, this evening.

Miss Carrie Betman, former borough postmistress has returned to Fanwood, after visiting at Asbury Park for several weeks and will reside here for the time being.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. VanHoesen are entertaining Mr. VanHoesen's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Gay, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. VanHoesen, of Roselle.

Miss Florence Nicholl, of Springfield road, has been spending her vacation in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Mrs. Henry L. Jesperson, of Martine avenue, has been spending several weeks in Detroit.

Miss Theresa Lewis, Miss Minnie Frazee and Gabriel Goletto have just started courses at the Plainfield Business College.

The revised list of the teachers in the local schools have been made up as follows: School No. 1, departmental in sixth, seventh and eighth grades, Miss Anna L. Mittell, Miss Emma T. Crowly and Miss Anna Johns; fifth grade, Miss C. Florence Reed; fourth grade, Miss Marion Egan; fourth B, Mrs. F. Andrews; third grade, Miss Harriet M. Squires, second grade, Miss Lillian MacClay, second B, Miss Mildred Stiles; first grade, Miss Caroline Lent; kindergarten, Miss Mary T. Merrill. School No. 2, principal and teacher of grammar grades, William D. Althouse, and teacher of primary grades, Miss Georgia Lee.

There are two vacancies in the Borough Council this fall, they being left by the expiration of the terms of Albert I. Nichols and Frank Erner. Mr. Erner is not out for re-election, his place being sought by W. G. Britton, a Republican. Mr. Nichols, also a Republican, is out for re-election. A justice of the peace is also to be elected, but no one is a candidate for the office. Dr. F. W. Wescott is also seeking a re-election as a member of the Republican County Committee. The Democrats, Progressives or Socialists failed to put a ticket in the field. Every since the organization of the Socialist party there has been one vote cast for that party in the borough.

Walter C. Johnsten and family, of Brooklyn, are spending a few weeks at Birchwood Farms, in the township.

The poll clerks at the coming election are H. P. Robinson and H. J. McDonough.

Fred Hunter, of Camden, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, of the township.

James Martin, of Murray Hill, is visiting his brother, Eugene Martin, of the township, for a few days.

BARACA PINNERS EASILY DEFEAT DUNELLEN STARS

The Baraca bowling team, of Dunellen, easily defeated the All Stars, of that place, in a three-game match there last night. The games were uninteresting for the spectators, although a large gathering was present to cheer for their respective favorites. The Stars were never in it with their opponents and the losers' scores were all in the six hundreds, while the winners chalked up 842 in the first game.

Voorhees pinned the best and held the high score of the night with 223 which he made in the first game. Oakley was his nearest rival with 188 while the high score on the All-Star quintet was 154 made by Voehl. The scores follow:

BARACAS.
Fredericks	158	159	120
Parker	152	147	158
Braun	145	182	137
Oakley	164	148	188
Voorhees	223	160	157
	842	796	760
ALL STARS.
Fagley	97	139	139
Mann	124	126	145
Zink	137	149	148
Starker	138	122	86
Voehl	141	126	154
	637	666	672

ROD AND REEL

High Water Today.

	P.M.
Sandy Hook	5:38
Morgan's Station	5:48
Sewaren	5:58
Governor's Island	5:52
Jamaica Bay	6:08
Corson's Inlet	4:38
Centre street (Newark)	6:47
Great Kills, Morgan Station	6:32
Wreck Lead, Elizabethport	6:59
Newark Bay Light	7:18
Canarsie, Hammel's	7:11
Raunt, Goose Creek	7:25
Sheepshead Bay, Sandy Hook	6:28

Anglers are again getting striped bass at the railroad bridge at the Highlands. A striper was hooked recently by one of the regulars, and the fish finally got the line entangled with the bridge piling and the fisherman lost fish and rig. One morning a motorist crossing the bridge noticed a commotion in the water and sent his chauffeur down to investigate. The latter soon returned with a thirty-two-pound striped bass, which was hooked to a line wrapped around the piling.

Many of the expert casters of the Newark Bait and Fly Casting Club will take part in the tourney that will be staged in Central Park, September 25 and 26 by the Anglers' Club of New York. The events will include both bait and fly casting.

One angler landed a dozen nice weakfish near the black can buoy in front of Keyport. With a cessation of the high wind from the northeast, fishing should be good again in Raritan Bay, and should hold over until next month.

Two men fished off the Princess Bay light yesterday in the sixty-foot pole, and brought over fifteen big weakfish. The water was still rough, but the wind had gone down considerably since Tuesday. They had their best luck on the incoming tide.

The fishing along Raritan Bay is taking a turn for the better. Nothing but the east winds has put a damper on it, and they cannot hold on much longer, as they must bring rain, and that will end them for a time. There are plenty of fish in the rivers that empty into Raritan Bay, as can be seen from the catches made at Sewaren, and as soon as the winds turn to any other quarter than the east they will run out to deep water again.

The fall fishing at Barnegat is now in full swing and the visitors are catching weakfish, bluefish, fluke and kingfish in the bay and channel bass in the surf.

The purging of Weequahic Lake has not interfered very much with the fishing, and if bass can be caught in its present condition, there should be some fine sport as soon as it clears. The wind has kept the heavy green discharge in the southern section of the lake, but a change yesterday afternoon started it moving toward the overflow, and that will show its good work by tomorrow. Bass were seen breaking water through the "top soil," as one chap put it, and that is positive proof that the fish are hungry.

PLAY SECOND GAME.

The Interhavens, of North Plainfield, and the Highlanders, of Netherwood, will meet on Hyde Oval for the second time this season tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. The first meeting resulted in a victory for the Highlanders, but their opponents gave them a hard fight in the last innings and the boroughites expect to turn the tables this time. Denny and Kyle will work for the visitors and Conover and Taylor will be the battery for the Interhavens.

HIGHLANDERS vs. CENTURY.

The Highlanders, of Netherwood, and the Century A. C. will meet on the Netherwood grounds Sunday afternoon at 3:30. As both teams are evenly matched a close game is expected. Denny and Kyle will form the battery for the Highlanders and Conshay and Winters will be in the points for the Century A. C.

ELKS' LEAGUE MEETING.

A meeting of the Elks' Bowling League will be held Sunday in the Jersey City clubhouse. George L. Hirtzel, Jr., president of the circuit, has sent out notices to all lodges interested in the contest.

PARK CLUB MAY JOIN COUNTY BOWLING LEAGUE

The Park Club bowling team will probably be represented in the Union County League, which gets into action about the middle of November. Last year there were six teams and the league proved very interesting to the end and this year the local club and the Linden Country Club will probably be admitted to the circuit.

Last year the Park Club had a good team and if it plays in the league this season it is expected to make a good showing.

HORSE SHOW JUDGE.

Lewis E. Waring, of West Seventh street, will be one of the judges at the annual horse show to be held at Bryn Mawr, September 22-26. This week he is judging at the show being held at White Plains, N. Y. The Philadelphia show will be one of the biggest outdoor affairs in the country. There will be classes for fox hounds every morning, which will be a big feature of the exhibition.

WANT BASKETBALL GAMES.

The junior basketball team of the North Plainfield High School would like to arrange games with teams in and about the city. The team is very fast and has won the interclass championship for the last two years. Address all communications to Oscar Dilts, junior class, North Plainfield High School.

INITIAL CALL.

Captain Marjorie Burtis, of the North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team, has issued a call for all candidates to report for the first practice this afternoon. Miss Barnard will act as coach.

BIRTHDAY SUPPER.

All members of the local Y. W. C. A. who have had birthdays in the months of May, June, July, August and September, are invited to a birthday supper which will be held in the association parlors Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Those who expect to be present are requested to hand in their names at the office not later than next Tuesday.

WATERMELON SOCIAL.

Old Glory Council, No. 62, Daughters of Liberty, will meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in its rooms in the Babcock building. After the business session there will be a watermelon social in the banquet rooms on the fourth floor. Several propositions for membership will be received at the meeting.

WILL HAVE SPECIAL HOURS.

Miss Wetherall, the physical director of the Y. W. C. A., will hold special hours from now till the opening of the regular classes for all who wish to consult her. She will be in her office on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4 to 6 p. m., and on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

—Your "situation wanted" ad will be read by your next employer.

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (5 colors)—Portraits of 16 European rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy and Aerial Strength, Populations, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Five Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON
IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT
PRESENTED BY
PLAINFIELD PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

We are Presenting Complete Stocks of Fall Goods

Stocks are being daily augmented by the arrival of fresh shipments. The store is bright with AUTUMN freshness. It is certainly worthy of your inspection, and we hope that you will come to see it tomorrow.

The stocks of Fall goods which we now present were chosen from the country's foremost manufacturers. They present an interesting summary of what the new fashions for Fall are, and should be of interest to everyone.

You will find prices reasonable if you desire to purchase now.

Here are the Dress Goods and Silks You Will Need for Fall Dressmaking

We present complete stocks of Dress Goods and Silks needed for Fall apparel. Every desired weave, pattern and color is here. The serviceability of every yard of these materials is guaranteed.

You are SAFE in selecting any of them. That our prices are reasonable the following items show:

A collection of 72 different styles of Plaids, Mixtures, and Roman Stripes, all Wool Eponge and Santoy, and 18 shades of solid color all Wool Serge and Granite Cloth, all this season's new patterns and colors; 36 and 38 inches wide; at per yard 59c

43 pieces of 42-inch all Wool Materials suitable for suit or dress, in all the new shades for street wear; all are this season's weaves. Included in this range are 16 shades of All Wool Serge, 45 inches wide, at a yard 79c

84 pieces of All Wool Dress Materials at $1.00 and $1.25 per Yard—There is hardly a new weave shown this season that is not represented in this aggregation. They come in Solid Colors, Roman Stripes, Mixtures and Plaids, and are 42, 45, 50 and 52 inches wide.

AT $1.50 AND $1.98 PER YARD

At these prices, we show a collection of 52 and 54-inch Roman Stripe and Plaid Suitings in 15 of the richest color combinations; Satin Finish Chiffon Broadcloth (sponged and shrunk) in 14 different shades; All Wool Charmeuse Suiting, Santoy Finish, in Green, Black, Wistaria and Blue.

SPECIAL!

45-inch All Wool Crepe Premier Suiting, 20 different shades, at ..... $1.00 per yard

IN SILKS

We show a splendid line for street and evening wear.

40-inch Crepe De Chine, at ..... $1.69 yard
40-inch Cascade Crepe, at ..... $1.69 yard
40-inch Charmeuse, at ..... $1.98 yard
40-inch Charmeuse, at ..... $1.49 yard
40-inch Crepe Meteor, at ..... $1.75 yard
36-inch Satin De Chine, at ..... $1.50 yard
40-inch Silk Poplins, at ..... $1.25 yard

24-inch Roman Stripe Silks, plain and moired; 29 different colors and stripes, at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.98.

We enumerate but a few here.

36-inch All Silk Satin Messaline, our standard quality in 56 different shades; at per yard 1.00

53-inch Heavy All Silk Satin Duchesse, for Evening Wraps, Suits and Dresses; in black only; at per yard 2.98

54 and 58-inch Cloakings, all wool Plaids, Zibelines, Silk Plush Coating, Chinchillas and Mixtures; a yard $1.98 to 3.98

We Present the Newest Fashions in Women's Apparel

Our stocks are complete and contain the best of the new fashions in suits, coats, dresses and other apparel. We are proud of the stock because of its completeness and general interest. The quality of every garment is assured and there's a style here to fit any purse.

Winsome Fall Dresses for the Children

Many smart new models for school and general wear; well made of serviceable materials and attractively priced.

Bedding for the Winter

Good dependable bedding that will keep you warm and comfortable on the cold winter nights.

Boy's School Clothing

A complete stock of the apparel the youngsters will need for school and for general Fall wear. All reliable qualities and all reasonably priced.

New Fall and Winter Millinery

Charming new hats in scores of fashionable models; a style for every face, at a price for every purse.

SPECIAL VALUE
66x80 heavy Blankets, Silk Bound, pink & blue borders, pair. 2.49

Note For Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

SPECIAL VALUE
Boys' all wool Suits with extra pair pants; at $5.00 & .. 5.50

Spec. for Saturday 50c Crepe de Chine two-tone ties; all new shades...39c

ROSENBAUM'S
BAZAAR

Spec. for Saturday. Jersey Silk Petticoats; all new shades — $2.50 value $1.89

New Fall Goods
at Special Prices for Saturday

Special for Saturday

Fall Balmacaan Coats

All wool fancy tweeds, three-quarter length; just the right coat for this time in the year; $8 vaules.

$5.98

Newest Fall Styles in Waists

All Sizes up to 50; Priced Special, 98c up to 5.00

A selection of 50 new styles in voile, silk, crepe de chine and pussy willow waists; some very smart models, all new colors included among this new assortment; priced very reasonable, from 98c up to $5.00.

20 New Fall Styles in Fall Skirts.

An assortment of the best and most desirable styles in serge or crepe, blue or black, including extra sizes up to 36 waist measure; priced very special for Saturday from $1.98 up to..... 7.50

Ladies' Millinery
Special for Saturday
HATS TRIMMED FREE.

Select any shape in our Millinery Department and buy your trimming and your hat will be trimmed free and you'll find that you have saved considerably on your Fall Hat.

Boys' All-Wool Suits

NORFOLK STYLE—SPECIAL $5 VALUE 3.98

All sizes from 8 to 16; made of fancy blue stripe or gray mixture; very serviceable for school wear.

Specials Throughout the Store

$3.00 Skirts $1.98
$2.00 All Wool Sweaters $1.39
3 Pair 39c Silk Hose $1.00
$1.25 Dresses, 6 to 14 ..... 79c
50c Kid Belts 39c
$1.25 Middie Waists 98c
$1.50 Sweaters 98c

On account of holiday our store will be closed next Monday and Tuesday.

AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE
COUNIHAN & SHANNON
Managers

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW
Matinee Daily at 2:30
HERBERT KELSEY
AND
EFFIE SHANNON
In That Famous Photo Play
After the Ball
PRICES
Matinee—All Seats 10c.
Night—5c, 10c, 15c.

3 DAYS COMMENCING
Monday, Sept. 21st,
MATINEE DAILY
ANNETTE KELLERMAN
In the Most Talked of Photo Plays
Neptune's Daughter
PRICES, Matinee and Night 15c and 25c.

3 SHOWS DAILY
2:30, 7 and 9 P. M.

Fall Styles Are In

Your Shoes are a most important part of your attire. They must be attractive in appearance, comfortable, correct in style, and made of high grade leather to insure long service and hold their shape; and sell at a moderate price. We have some dandys at—

$3.00 and $3.50

Come in and try them on. We know they will please you.

Boys' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather.

STUART'S SHOE SHOP
215 WEST FRONT ST.

Girls' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather

Business Hours: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

B. Altman & Co.

will hold, to-morrow (Saturday), in the Women's Ready-to-wear Department on the Third Floor,

An Important Sale of Tailored Separate Skirts consisting of several new models of black broadcloth, navy blue and black gabardine and serge, black velveteen, and corduroy in black, navy blue, brown and green . . at $6.85

Fifth Avenue, 34th and 35th Streets, New York.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

James K. Hackett is to open his season in Canada in "Othello."

Jefferson de Angelis and Eva Davenport are appearing in vaudeville.

George Broadhurst's latest melodrama is called "The Law of the Land."

Miss Elsie Ferguson has withdrawn from the cast of "The Dragon's Claw."

Nat Goodwin is to appear this season in a play called "The Bohemian," by Jack Lait.

Edward Sheldon's dramatization of Sudermann's "Song of Songs" is to be called "The Song of the Soul."

A dramatic version of Earl Derr Biggers' new novel, "Love Insurance," has been made by A. E. Thomas.

DeWolf Hopper is to give "Trial by Jury," by Gilbert and Sullivan, at the Greek Theatre, in California, next month.

It is said that E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe have reconsidered their plans and will return to the stage before the end of the season.

Eleanor Gates' play, "The Poor Little Rich Girl," has arranged to begin its third season in Rochester about the end of the month.

Frank Losee and Pedro de Cordova have been added to the cast engaged for "The Hawk," which is soon to be produced by William Faversham.

Laura Hope Crews is to be the leading woman for Leo Ditrichstein when he appears in his own adaptation of Molnar's play, "The Legend of the Wolf."

One of William A. Brady's most notable contributions to the stage this season will be the comedy drama, "The Things That Count."

Chrystal Herne, daughter of the late James A. Herne, is to be married next month to Harold S. Pollard, an editorial writer on a New York newspaper.

Muriel Starr, a young American actress who went to Australia last year, is said to be creating a sensation there by her work in "Madame X."

Charles Frohman has engaged Florence Fisher for the leading female role in the new play, "The Candle of Faith," in which Otis Skinner is to appear next month.

"The Little Cafe," one of the musical comedy successes of last season, has been sent on tour by Klaw & Erlanger. It is the work of C. M. S. McLellan and Ivan Caryll.

Paul Armstrong's play, "The Heart of a Thief," is to open its season October 5 at the Hudson Theatre, New York. The cast of fifty people will be headed by Martha Hedman, who will represent the character of a Swedish girl brought up in New York.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT .....Managing Editor

Published daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.

Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office before 9 a. m.

SEPT. 18TH IN HISTORY.

1709—Samuel Johnson, famous English writer, born. Died Dec. 13, 1784.

1793—General Washington laid the cornerstone for the National Capitol in Washington.

1810—Chili declared its independence of Spain.

1838—Anti-Corn Law League founded in Manchester, England.

1849—Rupture of diplomatic relations between Russia and Turkey and Austria, as Turkey refused to give up Kossuth and other Hungarian refugees.

1850—President Fillmore signed the Fugitive Slave Law.

1868—Revolution in Spain; fleet and garrison of Cadiz opposed the Government.

1890—Dion Boucicault, noted actor, died. Born Dec. 26, 1822.

1901—Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York visited Montreal.

1901—The Czar of Russia arrived at Dunkirk on a visit to the President of France.

1905—Czar of Russia proposed a second Peace Conference at The Hague.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 18, 1914.

CLEAN ADVERTISING LAW.

That the movement for the purification of the advertising columns of the newspapers has taken a great step forward is proven by the fact that a law, originally prepared by Printer's Ink, a trade paper, has been passed in twenty States, including New Jersey. The law provides that any person or organization making any false statement in advertising any goods for sale shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

There have been cases in Plainfield where this law should be enforced, and we believe that our merchants will eventually realize that every fake sale which is held in this city hurts all the local business houses. The plan of renting an idle store for a month, stocking it up with a lot of cheap merchandise, and then representing by circulars displayed on the windows and distributed about town that real bargains are offered within, when the values really are very poor ones, should be stopped, and nothing will stop it so effectively as prosecuting one of the people who starts business in this way. It would only take one successful prosecution, for then no more of the fakers would come to town.

The adoption of such a law as that mentioned makes it possible to bring about a new era of business prosperity, provided the established merchants get together, and see to it that the law is enforced. This law should be used to apply to fake patent medicine concerns, who distribute circulars about the curative values of their goods, which any intelligent person knows contain false statements. A medical journal says that while it is primarily interested in securing honest methods in its own field, it believes that honesty in business is not divisible into classes, and the leaven of sincerity must permeate the entire mass.

The most far-sighted and progressive business men have recognized that honesty and truthfulness are indispensable assets for the successful conduct of any business. The strongest force for the purification of advertising today is the growing determination on the part of advertising men themselves to put an end to the deception and fraud which have so long characterized some phases of this business.

JEFFERY IN A NEW ROLE.

"Greater Plainfield" sounds well. Next week, perhaps, we shall present plans for a Greater Berkeley Heights. —Passaic Valley News., Sept. 9.

Sounds very much as if our hustling friend, "Bill" Jeffery, who has moved over the mountain again, has begun to make things hum.—Plainfield Daily Press, Sept. 14.

Yes; bugs hum.—Passaic Valley News, Sept. 16.

We don't believe that Sheriff Wright has helped his cause any by trying to create the impression that County Attorney William R. Codington, after signing James C. Calvert's petition for re-nomination, favors the Wright cause. Mr. Codington answered in writing a question as to what he thought of the conduct of the sheriff's office by Wright, and the latter took the letter, turned it into a campaign document, creating the inference that Mr. Codington favored the Wright candidacy. That kind of campaigning does not help anyone, and is liable to lose more votes than it will gain. If is true that Wright can claim that there was nothing on the circular that indicated that Codington was supporting him for clerk, but the average person who received the circular would take it that way.

Plainfield Democrats should bear in mind that they have an excellent chance to present a candidate for county clerk from this city. John P. Owens is one of a large field seeking the nomination, and if he gets the united support of his party members here, and a scattering vote elsewhere, his prospects of getting the nomination are good.

Former Mayor William L. Saunders, chairman of the North Plainfield citizens' committee which is endeavoring to bring about the consolidation of that municipality with Plainfield, has written the contributed editorial for tomorrow's Daily Press.

When former Mayor Smalley starts anything he is sure to be heard from again. He is now trying to defeat the passage of the consolidation measure in North Plainfield, and although we do not agree with him, we must admit that he is a fighter.

"See America First." That formerly was an appeal by certain transportation lines. Now it has become a necessity, for travelers at the present time cannot go to any other country with any assurance that they will be able to enjoy themselves.

Talk about a cat having nine lives! That Crown Prince of Germany must have a hundred. He is regularly reported dead each day, and then bobs up the next morning leading his army. If he is dead he is surely a lively corpse.

One of the local merchants is advertising a sale of goods "Made in America." Since the declaration of the war that has become a popular solgan, and the progressive firm will undoubtedly have many followers within a short time.

What would the political forecasters do if they did not have the Maine election to fall back on each year? Every side can see prospects for a victory elsewhere this fall, now that the New England State has held its election.

"820,000 Austrian prisoners taken by the Russians." With the present high cost of living it must be some job to feed that crowd. And there's no stone pile big enough to put them at work earning their board, either.

THE FORUM

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

The Mayor and Council of the borough, at the behest I am told of the Plainfield Board of Trade, have ordered a special election on September 24th on the question of the consolidation of the borough with the City of Plainfield. This election is appointed under the provisions of an old Act of the Legislature of 1902, an Act which was practically dead. By its terms the Act was to take effect subject to two provisos in the following order:

First, a referendum of the legal voters of the City of Plainfield holding an election in form and manner prescribed, by which the majority of said voters should accept and approve consolidation under the Act.

Second, a referendum of the same nature and form exactly of the voters of the borough, by which a majority of them also shall accept and approve the Act.

The Act under consideration manifestly contemplated a proper and formal agreement between the Mayors and Councils of both municipalities on the question of the consolidation, and then the about simultaneous ratification, or otherwise, of the Act by the voters of both municipalities in the order provided in the said Act.

The Borough Council, however, has ordered an election by the voters of the borough only, without any previous understanding or negotiations with the Mayor and Council of the City of Plainfield, and without ascertaining the attitude of the people, or the officials of the city on the subject as to whether they would, or would not, approve or desire a merger of the borough with the city, and without a vote having been first taken by the voters of the city.

In fact, there was no public sentiment in either the city or the borough demanding an election in the borough at this time. The matter was agitated by individuals before the Board of Trade of the City of Plainfield, and then presented to the Mayor of the borough, and by him to the Council.

It is to be regretted that the Mayor of the borough and the members of the Council, or those who agreed with him on the subject, yielded their prerogatives as the responsible guardians of the affairs of the borough in favor of the schemes of the aforementioned individuals connected with an outside commercial body, which in no wise represented or had authority to speak for the citizens of the borough. The citizens of the borough naturally look to the Mayor and his associates in authority to defend them from interference in their affairs by outsiders, be they Boards of Trade or individuals.

It is humiliating that the borough should be placed in the position of deliberately voting to consolidate with the city without there being the slightest intimation from the authorities of Plainfield, or the mass of the people, that they would accept the impertinent offer of our unasked attachment.

It is also humiliating from the standpoint of ordinary business sagacity that the borough's Mayor would actually contemplate our voting an irrevocable merger, without terms or conditions, or understanding having been had beforehand as to the basis and operation of such merger. Would any sane business man or corporation proceed in this way? Should not the affairs of the borough be administered with at least some semblance of regard for ordinary business methods?

Entirely apart from the question of the wisdom, or otherwise, of consolidation, the action of the borough authorities in allowing the subject to be thus forced upon the voters in the manner described is nothing short of an adminisrative blunder. On this account, if for no other, the voters of the borough should cast their ballots against the measure as it is now presented. No fair-minded citizen will object to consolidation if it can be fairly demonstrated that consolidation is for the best interests of the people of North Plainfield, but that demonstration must commend itself by a form of procedure which will include a clear understanding between the Mayors, Councils and people of Plainfield and North Plainfield, and an unmistakable but wholly reasonable provision for a quid pro quo for North Plainfield in any merger which might be considered.

Yours respectfully,
C. W. MC CUTCHEN.
North Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 17,1914.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

There is an old saying that figures do not lie, but a good deal depends upon who puts them down. The following figures are copied from the official records and they seem to afford a telling argument in favor of consolidating Plainfield and North Plainfield.

In 1908 the ratables of Plainfield; that is, the property on which the tax rate was made up, were	$22,706,563
In 1913 these ratables were	27,936,515
Here we have an increase in five years of	5,229,946
In North Plainfield in 1908 the ratables were	4,482,700
In 1913 they were	4,344,950

These figures point plainly to the fact that Plainfield has a healthy growth while North Plainfield is standing still. Those who live in the borough know that this is true. In the annexation election twelve years ago predictions were made in public speeches and in the North Plainfield Review that the borough was on the eve of substantial growth. These predictions have not been fulfilled. The total tax value of the property on the borough's business street (Somerset street) is only one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, while for the same distance the store property on Front street is taxed on the basis of two million and a half.

Mr. Lyman, who is in the real estate business, made the statement the other day, that on Park avenue the property from the railroad to Fifth street, only a short distance, is taxed as high as the whole of Somerset street.

According to these official figures the business property of Plainfield is seventeen times greater than that of Somerset street for an equal distance, yet the city is only about three times as large as the borough in population. The figures also show that the entire value of Plainfield property is six and one-half times greater than that of the borough.

These are hard facts and no one wants to show them to the disadvantage of the borough, yet let us tell the truth and not deceive ourselves. The plain reason why this condition exists is that the borough is not building up its concentrated taxable districts; it is building them up in Plainfield, and it is this concentrated taxable district which helps keep the taxes down and which enables the community to keep up its improvements. By consolidation the borough taxpayers should get the benefit of this situation, for the laws of the State provide in its statutes that there shall be a fair and equitable division of property when two places are consolidated. These laws also provide that territories annexed or consolidated with cities shall be represented in the governing body according to population and in the same proportion as the city.

HENRY A. McGEE.

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

The Geran election laws are not entirely without virtue—they at lease give the printers sufficient work to keep them busy for awhile.

With a primary day, a special registry day and a special election coming within the course of eight days, the borough Election Boards are being kept busy, and a few knotty legal questions are being put up to the Boards for solution, especially relative to the special consolidation election.

The primary campaign will close in most cases tomorrow evening, and the voters will have until Tuesday to sum up the situation. A large number of candidates give the voters a wide choice, and the citizens should turn out in large numbers at the primaries next Tuesday.

The question of the hour—"What will the Socialists name for Congress in this district?"

The Third Ward Republican Club starts its open season this evening with a meeting in the Washington School on Darrow avenue. This is the last ward organization of the G. O. P. to get into line, and the attendance of all Republican voters of the ward is urged.

Many a man will step into a barber shop at 9:03 next Tuesday night and discover that it has been primary day in New Jersey. Such has been the sad state of conditions for many years, and will continue to be so long as voters are human. They forget that the time for good resolutions along this line is early in the day, instead of after 9 o'clock.

Freeholder Wilbur and Councilman Cose have been doing some tall hustling to bring the nomination for sheriff to this city. Each has the consolation that the vote in Elizabeth will be split even worse at the county seat among the three candidates than at this end of the county between two seeking the same nomination.

Many of the voters are eagerly looking forward to note the outcome of the "combination" tickets which have been formed during the present primary fight, especially in the Republican scramble for the nominations. Many are of the opinion that the "combinations" will change the entire complexion of the ticket, while *others feel that the voters are suffi*ciently independent in casting their ballots, that but little will be left of the team and trios after Tuesday of next week. People today are, it is believed, asking questions concerning the makeup of the individual candidates, rather than the merits of a combination of candidates.

While the borough of North Plainfield has seen little of the active primary campaign work, interest is keen in several of the contests and a fairly large turnout of voters is expected on Tuesday.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 76 degrees; 11 a. m., 87 degrees; 1 p. m., 91 degrees.

—If there's something a want ad MIGHT accomplish for you put it to the test.

Saturday Economy Sale

Regular 25c quality men's fine lisle fancy socks; Saturday, 3 pair..... 50c

SALE OF REAL CLUNY LACES.
All pure linen, 2 to 5 inches wide; worth up to 35c a yard; Saturday at..... 15c

Regular $1.25 kind pure Aluminum Cooking Kettles; 6 quart size; Saturday at..... 95c

Odds and ends of regular 50c grade in men's Shirts and Drawers; Saturday at..... 25c

A lot of Regular $1.25 quality Boys' heavy grey wool Sweaters; Saturday at..... 89c

Regular 75c genuine Welsbach Lights; the inverted kind; complete with burner mantle and globe; Saturday at 45c

THE SHOE DEPARTMENT
has a special table of a lot of Pumps, mostly small sizes; values up to $5.00 among them; Saturday at 1.00

THREE CAKES PALM OLIVE SOAP FREE
To induce you to give Palm Olive a trial, we will give you 3 cakes of Palm Olive Soap free of charge upon purchasing a regular bottle of Palm Olive Shampoo at only 39c
95c VALUE FOR 39c.
This offer is good for only a few days. Don't delay.

Regular 12½c a yard fine Dress Ginghams in plaids, checks and stripes; Saturday at 10c

BIG VALUES
in black velvet shapes and ready-to-wear Felt Hats; reg. $2, $3, $4 and $5 grades, Saturday 1.50

$3.98 FOR LADIES' SHOES
That if bought today could not be sold for less than $5.00. In black cloth or kid tops, with or without tips, in all leathers; the last word as to style.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
None of these specials will be charged or sent C. O. D.

Regular $1.50 men's fine percale Shirts, with attached cuffs; Saturday at 79c

FINE LINGERIE WAISTS.
White and fancy in linen voile, batiste, etc.; $2.50 and $3.50 values; Saturday at.... 1.98

120 dozen strictly first quality genuine Mason Quar Fruit Jars, with porcelain lined tops; Saturday at 59c

Regular 18c a yard heavy all linen brown crash; Saturday at 10c

Bleached Table Damask, 70 inches wide, linen finish; worth 75c a yard; Saturday at... 49c

Regular $6.00 Couches, the adjustable kind that slides, complete with green denim covered mattress; Saturday at 4.69

THE CARPET DEPT. OFFERS FOR SATURDAY
9x12 Wool Art Rugs at.....$12.98
Seamless Wilton Velvet Rugs, 9x12..$22.00

Butterick Patterns and the Delineator for October now on sale.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Our Notion Department is complete with every thing pertaining to dressmaking.

"THE SPIRIT OF MILITARISM" WILL BE THEME OF SERMON

Rev. Edwin Shaw, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, will preach tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock service on "The Spirit of Militarism." The Sabbath-school will meet at 11:45, considering the topic, "The Judgment of the Nations," while the Men's Class will take up the topic, "Studies in Social Christianity." William N. Runyon will review the lesson after the session of the school. The work of the Junior C. E. Society will begin tomorrow. The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the leader being Miss Charlotte E. Norris.

The young people of the church will hold a "Get-together" sociable tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock. Rally Day in the Sabbath school will be held September 26, with special exercises and an address by Rev. G. Franklin Ream, of Westfield.

—At Westnein, C. F. Witt's has the Daily Press on sale each day.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers to the Daily Press who are served by the route boys will confer a favor by promptly reporting to the Press office, either in person, by telephone or by mail, any negligence on the part of the route boys. Phone 1300.

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S
RYE
E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

Bonn's
150 EAST FRONT ST.

We Are Displaying
for present wear a very choice collection of tailored and simply trimmed hats at attractive prices—
$5, $6.50, $7.95 and $9.95 each.
Untrimmed Hats, latest shapes, $1.45, $1.95 to $6.50
For trimming everything that's new and desirable at very attractive prices.

Falling Hair Stopped by Using HIRSUTONE
A scientific, antiseptic Hair Tonic which kills the dandruff germ. Preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair and stimulates its growth. Hirsutone is a non-secret preparation—fragrantly perfumed—a delightful dressing. Start using it NOW before it is too late. Price 50c. Hirsutone is only obtainable at
SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
Colgate's Shaving Stick, Cream, Powder, 20c.

EARLY SAVING

Yes, it is very important that every boy and girl be taught to save money.

By starting an account with the City National Bank for your son or daughter, you help them acquire the habit of making regular deposits in the bank.

4% Interest paid on Savings Accounts

ORGANIZED 1875.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

W. & J. SLOANE

New Designs in Rugs Made in America

In our high-grade Wilton, Axminster and Brussels Domestic Rugs we are showing a wide range of attractive Oriental, medallion, all-over, two-tone and chintz designs.

The popularity of the "Chaumont" Seamless Rugs has resulted in the production of a number of very artistic new patterns—an interesting Arabic design, a beautiful rose-leaf design, and Rugs having two-tone borders with plain centres and two-tone centres with plain borders. All regular sizes; also made to order in any length up to 20 feet wide, in special designs and colors, and irregular shapes.

Other noteworthy features of our Autumn displays are:

"Kalliston" Reversible Rugs in beautiful plain colorings with band borders; heavy Reversible Cotton Bath Mats (washable); and the celebrated "Beam" Bath Rugs.

WOOL ART RUGS—REDUCED

Desirable effects and colorings at 20% Reduction.

FIFTH AVENUE & FORTY-SEVENTH ST., NEW YORK

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

FRONT STREET

Friday and Saturday

Engagement of the Latest Vaudeville Sensation

"Ward 22"

A Rip Roaring Farce

LA SELMA
Most Beautiful Posing Model in Vaudeville

REMEY, FRAZIER & BAKER
Sweet Singers, Ragtime Melody

BARNEY GILMORE
The Favorite Irish Comedian

DORANTO
The Only Chinese Musician in Vaudeville

PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY

Note—The Million Dollar Mystery has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday. The next episode will be shown Wednesday, September 23rd.

PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

Scene from Henry W. Savage's Production of the International Operetta Triumph "SARI" At Plainfield Theatre Next Thursday.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

WAR NEWS

(Continued from page 1.)

plete order now prevails in Belgium. An official statement in Berlin reports the casualities in the sinking of the Cruiser Hela by the British submarine were one killed and three missing.

The Wolff Bureau also reports that the Austrians have resumed the offensive in the south and are advancing against the Servians. It states that the spirit of the Austrian northern army on the Galcian frontier is excellent and that the only reason it has not won a complete victory is because of the numerical strength of the Russians. It adds that the Austrians are eagerly awaiting an opportunity to get revenge for their reverses.

London, Sept. 18.—A despatch from Athens to the Times today says that according to latest reports the Servians have been obliged to evacuate Senlin.

A news agency despatch from Bordeaux says that Feneral Bataille has been killed in action.

A despatch from Rome quotes the Giornale d Italia as saying that the Roumanian Ministry has sanctioned a loan of 8,000,000 pounds.

Bordeaux, Sept. 18 (Centra' News Cable).—A despatch from Belfort says that that city has not had to resist a serious German attack as the enemy never approached nearer than 35 kilometres. It is confirmed that the French have occupied Thann and Altkirch, a district the enemy seems to have abandoned with the intention of attacking Belfor.

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson today refused to receive a delegation of German-American citizens from the Middle Western and Northwestern States who desired to file protests with him on behalf of the German government against alleged Belgian and French atrocities in the war. The President said that it would be a distinct violation of the rules of neutrality which he himself had sought to have patriotic Americans everywhere observe.

Tokio, Sept. 18—Official announcement is made that Vice Admiral Sadment is made that Vice Admiral Sadond Japanese squadron, reports under date of yesterday, that in a reconnaissance by hydro-aeroplane over Kio Chau Bay, the day before, bombs were dropped toward the enemy's ships in the harbor, the wireless station and the electric motor house. One bomb was seen to strike a large ship, from which smoke curled up.

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—A correspondent of the Novoe Vremya says that the Russians have been victorious at Krasiezyn and that General Ziegler, one of the leading Austrian strategists, was wounded there. The battle was opened with an artillery duel at dawn, the Russians shelling the Austrian positions. The Austrian artillery fire was good, but the Russians succeeded in silencing many of the guns and then took Krasiezyn at the point of the bayonet.

The Admiralty today ordered an inquiry into the loss of the training ship Fishgard, which founded off Portland yesterday, with a loss of 21 lives. Of these 12 were boys who were receiving a special course of training.

Paris, Sept. 17.—A news agency despatch from Odessa says that the Government press bureau at Constantinople has forbidden the use of the word Petrograd, the new authoritative name of St. Petersburgh, and orders Turkish newspapers to call the Russian capital St. Petersburg.

New York, Sept. 18.—A despatch via Rome from Trent, Austria, indicates that everything is in readiness for the proclaiming of a state of siege. Even the Alpine refuges, it is declared, have been transformed into forts, in which cannons have been mounted. All males from seventeen to sixty years of age are practising at the rifle ranges, but insufficient arms are available notwithstanding the arrival of rifles from Germany.

PERSONAL.

Miss Alice Nelson, a nurse at Muhlenburg Hospital, has returned from her vacation, which she spent at the home of her parents, at Mt. Horeb.

Miss Jennie Shrager, of Madison avenue, has returned from a visit to New York.

Mrs. Benjamin Fritts, of Camden, is the guest of her son, John R. Fritts, of West Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Shrager, of Madison avenue, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. John Shiffman and daughter, Zelda, of Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Elston Johnston and family, of Leland avenue, are back from Brighton Beach, where they spent part of the summer.

LODGE NOTE.

Ladies' night will be observed at the by Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., at Junior Hall, tonight. The good and welfare committee has arranged an excellent program of speaking, singing and instrumental music by the Jr. O. U. A. M. orchestra.

Clarence Oliver, who played the leading role in "Officer 666," and who later appeared in vaudeville, has taken Frank Craven's place in "Too Many Cooks," in New York.

P. H. S. HANDBOOK MAKES ITS ANNUAL APPEARANCE

The handbook, which is compiled and issued by The Oracle, of the Plainfield High School, for the guidance of students and teachers, has made its appearance. This book has been an annual publication at the opening of the fall term for the past four years. This year's edition is the largest yet published and contains seventy-one pages.

This book gives every item of interest connected with the school, such as the names and addresses of all the teachers, rules for fire drills, names and addresses of all members of the Board of Education, school calendar, and schedule of periods.

HOME RULE BILL SIGNED.

London, Sept. 18—King George today signed the Home Rule Bill. Thus gains the statute book.

Essay on Shoes.

Shoes come in pairs.

They go the same way except in the case of solo legged persons.

Horseshoes are signs of good luck except when planted in the middle of one's person by the accompanying horse.

In former times we wore shoes as seldom as possible.

Our feet were about four stubs stubborner than the stubborn glebe that Mr. Elegy Gray writes about.

In the gentle springtime when we first divorced the leaky winter boots that had grown irksome the southern exposure of our farm feet was of about the consistency of patent leather.

In June it resembled horn.

In September harveyized steel had nothing on our hoofs.

Between barefoot days when we attended Sunday school, circus or some other devotional exercise we wore congress gaiters.

The congress gaiters (one of ours is now on exhibition in the Smithsonian institution) had an elastic gore on each cheek.—Indianapolis Star.

Taught by Example.

Mrs. Mordecai Hammerfest turned pale as her husband entered the dining room for breakfast.

"Mordy," she gasped, "do you—don't you feel well?"

"Perfectly," he replied in seeming surprise.

"But—but you are in your"—

"Tell me something I don't know. Pass the butter, please."

She passed the butter, remarking nervously, "But, Mordy, dear, as you came in I saw you didn't have any shoes on."

"Well, what of it? Your hair is in curl papers, isn't it?"

"Why—y-yes."

"And you have on a wrapper."

"Yes."

"Very well, then."

And he went on eating his breakfast in silence except when he asked her to pass the butter. Then he went upstairs and finished dressing, and the next morning and on succeeding mornings she reported for breakfast in regular clothes.—Boston Journal.

Changing Matter.

"Can the diamond be destroyed by intense heat?" asks a reader.

Yes. Any substance known can be vaporized in the fierce heat of the electric furnace. The word "destroyed" should not have been used. Diamond is chemically pure carbon—that is, lampblack—and the same quantity still exists after the diamond has vanished. Man is now able to destroy the form of all matter known to chemists—that is, matter disappears as matter, only to resolve back into its primordial electrons. These are pure electricity, and nothing else exists. These man cannot create nor destroy. All that any human can create is a thought that had not been created before. But this is a theory, for all thoughts may be eternal. But here one must stop, for our minds cannot think of the meaning of the word eternal.—Edgar Lucien Larkin in New York American.

Burns' Cottage.

The Burns cottage at Ayr is under the charge of trustees, who purchased it in 1881 from the Ayr Shoemakers' incorporation for the sum of £4,000. The birthplace of the poet had up till that time been in use as a public house. The trustees abandoned the license and after a time removed a hall and other extraneous buildings which had been added to the premises and restored the cottage buildings as nearly as possible to the state they may have been in in Burns' time. A new museum was built at the northeast corner of the grounds. Most of the relics were removed to the museum, which now contains a priceless collection—a first or Kilmarnock edition of the poet's work, for which £1,000 was paid, and Burns' family Bible, acquired at a cost of £1,700.—London Answers.

Beef In Boston In 1740.

A writer in the Yale Review, who notes that in 1740 beef could be bought in Boston at 12 cents a pound, seems to imply that that price was all it was worth. "Invariably a steak for dinner was heralded by the vigorous pounding with the potato masher wielded by the stalwart arm of the cook." The meat, in fact, often came, he tells us, from the carcass of "a cow that no longer gave milk or a bull that had lost its bloom."

Glove Silver.

Glove silver was the strange name given to a custom which prevailed in England during the middle ages—namely, the granting of a certain sum of money to servants to buy gloves with on Lammas day, or, as it is called now, bank holiday.—London Saturday Review.

—Press want advs. pay.

THREE MEN KILLED IN TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

An exposion in the plant of the Wright Chemical Company, near Springfield, this afternoon, killed three men and resulted in the total destruction of five houses. The debris was blown many hundred feet from the scene of the wreck and many of the other employes of the concern received minor injuries. The shock was a terrific one and could be felt plainly in this city.

REV. D. C. RAMSEY ADDRESSES ANNUAL MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The afternoon session of the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U., held in the union s rooms, yesterday, was largely attended and the temperance workers had the pleasure of hearing a fine address by Rev. D. C. Ramsey, pastor of the Methodist church, Dunellen. The meeting opened with a Bible reading by Mrs. T. C. Bodine, which was followed by the report of the corresponding secretary. There were also reports on the various superintendents.

Mrs. A. G. Negley read the treasurer's report, which showed that $498 had been collected during the year and that there was still a balance of $42 in the treasury. Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Pangborn rendered a duet and the former also gave an instrumental solo.

MEXICO DECLARED TO BE QUIET; VILLA IS PLEASED

Washington, Sept. 18—There is peace and quiet in Mexico City and the capital has settled down to its normal civic life, according to advices received at the White House today. Reports that 160 policemen had been executed were branded as false, while the activities of General Zapata in the south were declared greatly exaggerated. Order is being maintained, it is said, and confidence is rapidly being restored.

In a personal message to President Wilson today, sent from Chihuahua, General Villa expresses his satisfaction at the orders for withdrawal of the American troops at Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, Sept. 18—The American authorities on shore at Vera Cruz today, began returning to their owners thousands of arms with the exception of rifles, which were taken by them from the residents of Vera Cruz at the time of the American occupation last April.

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

Miss Edna Green, who graduated last June, has returned and taken up a commercial course. She will be a great help to the girls' basketball team as she held down one of the guard positions on last year's team.

Miss Lois Peck, who graduated with the class of 1914, has returned and has taken up a commercial course, as she prefers business to teaching school.

Miss Stella Kline, who graduated in the class of 1910, has presented her alma mater with a pennant of Oberlin College, where she is now attending. Miss Kline has left to resume her studies in that institution, as this is her last year.

Mr. Tomkinson, of the Langorck Company, of New York city, was present at the close of the morning session to show his selection of pins and rings for the junior class. The junior class has appointed a committee to look for prices and to report at the next meeting to be held next week.

Mr. Early has asked the different classes to appoint a committee from each class to co-operate with him in matters of importance. His purpose is to get the attitude of the pupils in reference to their work, in working for the best interest of the teachers.

STEAMER WRECKED.

Quebec, Sept. 18—It was estimated this afternoon that 14 persons were drowned by the sinking of the Government steamer Mantmagny in the St. Lawrence River, at Beaugu Banks, this morning. The Montmagny was rammed in a fog by the Black Diamond collier Lingan.

LOST IN WRECK.

New York, Sept. 18—A despatch from Memphis says that probably 30 persons were killed and that many more were injured when an Illinois Central train ran into Trailer last night.

ANOTHER R. R. WRECK.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 18—It is reported that 8 persons were killed and several injured in a wreck on the Alabama Great Southern about a mile south of Livingston, Alabama.

PRESIDENT TO VOTE.

Washington, Sept. 18—President Wilson will leave Washington on a flying trip to vote next Tuesday in Princeton, N. J.

ROBSON WILL CASE WAS POSTPONED FOR ONE WEEK

Elizabeth, Sept. 17—Inability of some of the witnesses to attend caused the postponement for one week of the hearing scheduled to have been held before Judge Connolly in the Orphans' Court yesterday, in the action of Mrs. Josephine Robson, of Rahway, to have the will of her husband, Joseph Robson, set aside.

The will conveyed the bulk of the Robson estate, in Rahway, to John Flommerfelt, who was named as executor, no mention being made of the woman who was known as Robson's wife, and whom he maintained in an asylum up to the time of his death. Francis J. Blatz, of this city, represents Mrs. Robson.

FREDERICK THOMAS SPOKE IN BOROUGH LAST NIGHT

The first political meeting of the primary campaign in the borough was held last evening in front of the firehouse on Somerset street. The gathering was preceded by a parade with the Dutch Arms Band, of this city, at the head. William S. Woodruff, of Somerville, opened the meeting with preliminary remarks, introducing Frederick G. Thomas, also of Somerville, as candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator.

Mr. Thomas addressed the large gathering of men in somewhat of an informal way, referring especially during his address to his views on several of the questions which Somerset county citizens have before them today.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

When going through the personal belongings of Isaac Brokaw, who died at hime home in Rahway recently, his son-in-law, James Barron, found a set of Whig party tickets of the 1857 election. At that time William Wright was the candidate for Governor, and Melancthan F. Carman was one of the Assembly candidates. Mr. Barron presented the tickets to Sheriff Wright on account of his name and that of the Gubernatorial aspirant being the same. The latter was surprised to learn that the William Wright mentioned was related to the present candidate for the G. O. P. county clerk nomination, and that the Assembly candidate mentioned was Mrs. Wright's great-grandfather. Sheriff Wright is going to preserve the tickets, with a collection of horseshoes gathered during his campaign, as another omen of good luck.

Judge Connolly will sit at the court house all day Tuesday, primary day, for the purpose of issuing transfers to voters who have moved from one election district to another since last November's election. The court will sit all day, and until the polls close at night.

"WARD 22" IS A SCREAM.

"Ward 22," one of the funniest acts in vaudeville, is the headliner at Proctor's theatre, this week, the capacity audience which it attracted, last night, being kept in continual laughter over the comedy lines. The dance by the "trained nurse," which closes the act, is alone worth the price of admission. LaSelma, the beautiful posing model, in reproduction of masterpieces; Remey, Frazier and Baker, sweet singers; Doranto, a Chinese musician, and Barney Gilmore, the favorite Irish comedian, make up one of the best bills yet offered at the popular playhouse.

"MADE IN AMERICA."

Tepper Brothers, of West Front street, are at present making a special display of "Made in America" goods in their windows. This is the first impulse in this city of the nation-wide movement to induce the shoppers of the country to purchase goods which are produced on this side of the waters.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

DIVIDEND.

The Plainfield Trust Company
Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 17, 1914.

The directors have this day declared a quarterly dividend of 3 (three) per cent. on the capital stock, payable Oct. 1st, 1914, out of the net earnings of the Company, to stockholders of record at the close of business Sept. 24th, 1914, on which date the transfer books will close and will re-open on October 1st, 1914.

Checks will be mailed.

DE WITT HUBBELL,
9 18-24-3 Secretary.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

WANTED—A small automobile in A-1 condition that is a bargain; give description in first answer and cheapest cash price. Answer Ready Money, Daily Press.

WANTED—Visiting governess or companion by young lady of refinement and experience, English branches elementary, French and German; best references. Address Plainfield, care Press. 9 18 2

EX-GOV. FORT TELLS OF SANTO DOMINGO

Reports Success in Mission to Pacify Residents of Island in West Indies.

Former Governor John Franklin Fort, one of the special commissioners sent by President Wilson to mediate between the warring factions of Santo Domingo and prepare for the election next month, arrived at his home at Spring Lake, yesterday. He is still weak from an attack of fever, which confined him to the Prairie, where, as a result, the negotiations were carried on.

Former Governor Fort will lay his full report on Santo Domingo before the President some time next week. He believes that with Ramon Baez, the acting President who took the office as a compromise man, at the helm the elections in October will be carried out honestly. The voting will be under the observation of the United States Government.

The main stumbling block in the way of peace in Santo Domingo was the refusal of President Jose Bordas to resign. The half dozen generals, each conducting a separate revolution, were much easier to handle. After hostilities were suspended through the efforts of former Governor Fort and Minister Sullivan, President Bordas was at last induced to resign.

Mr. Fort said that upon his arrival in Santo Domingo he found that the worst trouble was at Puerto Plata, where a rebel army under command of General Fileu was being besieged by Federal forces commanded by President Bordas. Two days sufficed to quell the fighting at that place. Federal gunboats had effected a complete blockade of the port.

The leaders of the rebel movement were taken aboard the Prairie and the party sailed for the city of Santo Domingo, whence came reports of terrific fighting. President Bordas went to that city aboard his own boat. At Santo Domingo the rebels under General Vidal were besieging the city and negotiations for a suspension of hostilities were immediately opened, with the result that on the second day after Mr. Fort's arrival the fighting ceased.

At the same time fighting in two other parts of the island were stopped and the only fighting since September 1 occurred in a slight insurrection at Santiago in the centre of the island, where General Arias, a rebel, led an army against a Federal force. He was captured, however. Everything is now peaceful.

The Trenton Times editorially makes the following comment regarding Mr. Fort:

"Former Governor John Franklin Fort, who was sent on a special mission to the Dominican Republic by President Wilson, is home, having reached Washington yesterday. Not much has been heard from the ambassador until last week, when word was received that he was ill. But he has not been idle.

"A private letter recently received from San Pedro de Marcois contains this information: 'The last news from the capital tells us that we have a new provisional President and peace is assured. It took your own ex-Governor Fort to do it, though, after several other delegates from Washington had failed. Perhaps the presence of battleships and marines made Mr. Fort more effective. Still, we are giving him the credit of meeting the situation the way our own good President Wilson desired.'"

RECREATION NOTES

The Dunbar Club will meet tonight at 8:15 in the Washington School. A short program of singing has been arranged by some of the members.

The weekly Municipal Dance will be held tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Washington School. The attractive auditorium, good floor, and excellent music afford opportunity for a good wholesome time to everyone who comes.

EDSON DAY IS PRESIDENT OF N. P. H. S. SENIOR CLASS

The senior class of the North Plainfield High School held its first meeting today for the election of officers for the coming year. The business of last year which was left unfinished was disposed of and the dues for the coming year were fixed at twenty cents per month.

Edson Day was elected president, Hoyt Tomkinson vice-president, Frank Fetherston secretary, and Anna Hull treasurer.

MINNIE WORTO.

The funeral of Minnie Worto, the eight months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worto, of Watson avenue, who died yesterday, was held at the home of her parents this morning at 11 o'clock. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.

P. H. S. ORCHESTRA.

The Plainfield High School orchestra will resume rehearsals next Monday. Mrs. J. C. Evans will again have charge. Practice will be held in the High School Auditorium every Manday and Thursday throughout the year.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

MAC SAYS

All we can do is agree with Captain Britt Martin on that city championship question as far as the Royal Giants are concerned. What right has an organization of this calibre to come to the fore when the season is fast waning and challenge an aggregation that has been mounting to the top of the ladder rung by rung? Martin and his Saurer club well deserve the title of city "champs" inasmuch as the Plainfield Pets, the only other team to be logically considered, has been disposed of. Starting with practically nothing as a nucleus, Martin has formed a stellar combination and all the glory that goes with a city championship rightfully belongs to the factory players. We will make no attempt to predict the outcome of the cup series to be played between the Dorflinger and Martin forces but feel that the winner has the right to float the city title flag. Until that time the Saurer nine is the champion. The Royal Giants are little more than a flash in the pan. They come and go when they so desire, playing few games during the season, and breaking into the limelight only when something big is at stake. We will have to be supplied with a little more proof of the right of this aggregation to issue such a challenge before we will swerve from our present opinion.

Physical Director W. E. Cann, of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A., again comes to the front as a promoter of athletics of the track and field variety. An active campaign to bring out cross-country material in Betsytown has been in progress and present indications predict a banner season for the Y. M. C. A. boys of that place Cann's products have set up some notable records in the past and a number of the youths are now pulling down honors in larger fields of endeavor. Such a movement would be a great addition to the work at the local association and it is to be hoped that the new director will display a desire to rekindle this line of endeavor locally.

If coaching makes basketball teams, the local Y. M. C. A. should have one of the best outfits in its history this season. Robert L. Meermans, the new director, has had ten years of experience with professional aggregations and has promised to do all in his power to turn out a winning quintet. Heretofore the association team has been sadly neglected along the coaching lines and the new directorship will probably have its good effects in this way as in many others.

It's pretty nearly time the Plainfield High School athletic authorities took some action toward appointing a basketball manager for the coming season. At the present time the captain is serving as a game booker and unless an assistant is appointed in the very near future there is likely to be one grand mixup. It would be a shame to open up a new gymnasium, such as the one on West Ninth street, with a blowup, but that is what is now staring the P. H. S. athletes in the face.

Wanted—A man who can devote twenty-four hours a day to amateur athletics and accomplish ten per cent. of the work done by the late James E. Sullivan.

A big load would be taken off the football fan's mind if those Army-Navy officials would settle the place and date for their annual gridiron tilt. Dame Rumor has had the affair staged in nearly every State on the map, but all hammers have failed to crack the nail on the head to date. Why not Parker Field or Hyde Oval?

After doing some excellent work in the Junior Metropolitan Junior tennis tourney, Phillip VanDeventer, the youthful star from this city, was beaten by a rival Wednesday afternoon. There is glory in defeat for VanDeventer inasmuch as he crawled to the semi-final round by taking into camp some of the most formidable juniors in the country and a brilliant future is predicted for the Queen Cityite, who was getting his first taste of big competition.

News headline—"Penn sprinter spent time in Austrian jail." It would be of great benefit to the public in general to send a few more of the nation's would-be prize fighters, sprinters and ball players to jail these days. Not reflecting on the Penn sprinter's ability on the cinderpath.

The selection of Albert Brynairski as captain of the Y. M. C. A. basketball team for the coming season was a commendable step on the part of the association players. Brynairski, who is recognized as one of the hardest-playing and most consistent guards in this section, is an efficient leader and under his direction the old-time interest in the sport should be revived here. The good-will of the players as well as that of the sport loving public is with the new leader and we look for nothing but success.

The open season for doctors is now in progress. Several of the Plainfield High School and Holy Cross candidates are sporting bruises and strains as the result of their fall introduction to the terra firma of the football gridiron.

As predicted in these columns the other day, the annual announcement of football in the Borough High School has come to hand. Another attempt to revive old-time interest in the pigskin pastime in N. P. H. S. is in progress, but we fail to see how an aggregation can be organized with the material at hand. It's about time someone tried once more, however, and it may serve to keep awake what resembles a dying interest in that burg.

Winter bowling has again been taken up on the Knights of Columbus alleys. It might be well for the leaders of this sport to get together in the near future and start the city championship tournament on its way a little earlier this season. Enthusiasm is now at a keen pitch and such competition would undoubtedly prove the real thing these days.

All roads lead to that Saurer-Plainfield match on Parker Field tomorrow afternoon. For the sport who likes fall baseball the title on the week end bill appears unusually appetizing.

HOPE AND MONROE WILL PLAY THIRD GAME OF SERIES

What will probably be the last game of the season for the Hope Chapel and Monroe baseball teams will be played tomorrow afternoon, on the Clinton avenue field, when these two teams meet in the third and deciding battle of their post-season series. Each team has now won one game, both of which were close and exciting and the contest tomorrow is expected to be hotly contested as both clubs wish to get the two.

Monroe won the first game by one run and the one last Saturday was given to Hope by default in the tenth inning. Schott and Brick, who are both in fine form, will oppose each other on the firing line, and if they receive any kind of support at all, one run may prove enough to make the decision. All of the regular players will be on hand and the game will start at 3 o'clock.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SOMERVILLE will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon after 4:30 by Jacob Gernert, the Main street newsdealer and bootblack.

POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD HERE XMAS WEEK

The board of trustees of the New Jersey Association for Poultry Improvement has decided to hold a poultry show in Plainfield this year, the date of which will be during Christmas week. The association has received sufficient encouragement to go ahead wits its plans and it proposes to make the show bigger and better than ever. The place for holding the show will be announced later.

William F. Isenmann, of this city, has been chosen treasurer of the association, succeeding Robert Slorah, resigned, and the association has joined the Federation of Associations. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, October 21, to further plans for the winter show.

GOLF MATCH.

A golf team from the Cranford Country Club will visit the Plainfield Country Club links tomorrow afternoon, and play the local team in a return match game. Next Saturday the local team will go to Cranford and play a return tourney.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS ON WEEK-END CALENDAR.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

Baseball.

Plainfield vs. Saurer at Parker Field, 3:30.

Hope vs. Monroe at Clinton Avenue, 3:30.

Interhavens vs. Highlanders at Hyde Oval, 3:30.

Golf.

Plainfield Country Club—Play for Golf Committee Cup—Sweepstakes.

Plainfield Country Club—Match play between Plainfield and Cranford.

Park Golf Club—Continued play for President's Cup and Oakmount Cup—Semi-finals of Fall Championship.

Tennis.

Plainfield Country Club—Women's singles championship at 10 a. m.

SUNDAY.

Baseball.

Plainfield A. A. vs. St. Joseph's at Bound Brook, 3:30.

Highlanders vs. Century A. C. at Netherwood, 3:30.

Bowling.

Meeting of State Eagles League at Rahway.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	77	55	.584
New York	74	59	.556
Chicago	72	64	.529
St. Louis	71	64	.526
Philadelphia	64	71	.474
Pittsburgh	62	71	.466
Brooklyn	59	74	.444
Cincinnati	56	77	.421

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 10; Cincinnati, 1.
Boston, 5; St. Louis, 1.
Chicago, 5; Brooklyn, 1.
Philadelphia, 6; Pittsburgh, 3.
Philadelphia, 2; Pittsburgh, 0.

Games Today.

Cincinnati at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	89	46	.659
Boston	80	53	.602
Detroit	73	64	.533
Washington	69	63	.523
Chicago	63	72	.467
St. Louis	61	73	.455
New York	61	75	.448
Cleveland	43	93	.316

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 7; Chicago, 2.
Boston, 8; Cleveland, 1.
Philadelphia, 8; Detroit, 3.
Washington, 12; St. Louis, 2.

Games Today.

New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at St. Louis.
Boston at Cleveland.

FEDERAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	76	59	.560
Indianapolis	76	59	.560
Baltimore	71	60	.541
Buffalo	68	63	.519
Brooklyn	67	64	.511
Kansas City	62	71	.466
St. Louis	58	76	.433
Pittsburgh	52	78	.400

Yesterday's Results.

Indianapolis, 7; Brooklyn, 5.
Baltimore, 3; Kansas City, 2.
Buffalo, 7; St. Louis, 2.
Chicago, 6; Pittsburgh, 2.

Games Today.

Indianapolis at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Buffalo.
Kansas City at Baltimore.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	87	58	.600
Providence	87	58	.600
Buffalo	84	58	.592
Toronto	70	66	.515
Baltimore	72	68	.514
Newark	63	76	.453
Montreal	57	85	.401
Jersey City	46	97	.322

Yesterday Results.

Newark, 7; Jersey City, 1.
Rochester, 7; Montreal, 6 (11 in.).
Providence, 6; Baltimore, 5.
Toronto, 8; Buffalo, 6.

Games Today.

Newark at Jersey City.
Baltimore at Providence.
Buffalo at Toronto.
Rochester at Montreal.

Games Tomorrow.

Newark at Jersey City (2 games).
Baltimore at Providence.
Buffalo at Toronto.
Rochester at Montreal.

J. E. SULLIVAN'S FUNERAL.

Between fifty and sixty thousand boys, members of the Public Schools Athletic League, an organization originated and fostered by the late James E. Sullivan, will line the route to be taken by the funeral procession when the athletic leader's body is conveyed from his home, 540 West 114th street, New York city, tomorrow morning to the Catholic Church of St. Aloysius, 132d street and Seventh avenue, where a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated.

LOCAL TEAMS WIN AND LOSE MATCHES

Beers & Cochran and Long & Gavett Win, While VanDeventer and Ransome Lose.

Many matches were played in the night tournament being conducted by the Westfield Golf Club, last night, and several Plainfield teams won and lost. There has never been so many contests played in one night before and, although the last few nights have been a little cool, large crowds gather to witness some fine tennis. A. D. Beers and Henry J. Cochran, of this city, continued to win and took two matches without much trouble. In the first, Stearns and Potter, of the Westfield Golf Club, were the victims and, although they took the first set the local pair won the next two and eliminated their opponents. The scores were 4-6, 6-3, 6-1. Brown and Brown, of the Rutherford Tennis Club, then went down to defeat before the local team in straight sets, the scores being 6-2, 7-5.

J. N. VanDeventer and P. H. Ransome, of the Plainfield Country Club, lost to Hall and Campbell, of the West Side Tennis Club, in straight sets and were no match for their opponents at any period of the match. The scores were 6-4, 6-4. Another local team won and that was M. H. Long and T. O. Gavett, of the Park Club. They defeated Titus and Hall, of the Stanley Oval Tennis Club, two sets, both scores being 6-3. Play will be resumed tonight and some of the local survivors will probably get into action.

The complete summary of last night's play:

E. S. Cubberly and W. Livingston, Elmora C. C., defeated L. F. Ballard and B. Throckmorton, Sewaren T. C., 6-4, 6-1; W. R. Gomez and H. P. Randall, Westfield G. C., defeated A. Copeland and C. A. Brown, Rutherford T. C., 3-6, 9-7, 6-2; R. Brown and W. H. Brown, Clifton T. C., defeated N. F. Cowperthwaite and C. Nelson, Westfield G. C., 9-7, 6-2; A. D. Beers and H. J. Cochran, Plainfield C. C., defeated Kenneth Stern and R. Potter, Westfield G. C., 4-6, 6-3, 6-1; F. W. Shaw and M. Messner, Bergen Point T. C., defeated C. H. Bissell and A. H. Bissell, Westfield G. C., 6-4, 6-1; W. Merrill Hall and C. A. Campbell, West Side T. C., defeated J. N. VanDeventer and P. A. Ransome, Plainfield C. C., 6-4, 6-4; M. H. Long and T. O. Gavett, Park Club, defeated W. O. Titus and O. Hall, Stanley Oval Club, 6-3, 6-3; Gomez and Randall defeated Cubberly and Livingston, 7-5, 6-1; Beers and Cochran defeated Brown and Brown, 6-2, 7-5; T. Ernst and George Throckmorton, Sewaren T. C., defeated C. H. Sisserson and William Foster, Point o' Woods T. C., 6-3, 7-5; J. Cuppia and W. Throckmorton defeated G. L. Delatour and H. L. Scannel, 10-8, 6-3.

LOCAL EAGLES WIN FROM SOMERVILLE

They Took the First Two Games With Ease on Somerville Alleys Last Night.

Local Eagle pinners got sweet revenge last night at Somerville, when they took the first two games of the match from the brothers of that place and then dropped the third by a wide margin. Both of the first games were won easily with forty-two and forty points difference, respectively. The locals bowled higher than their opponents in all contests, and not one of the county seaters reached the double century, while Buckley rolled a 201 in the first and Miller made scores of 200 and 219, the latter being the high water mark of the night's play.

Schenck led the home team in the first game with a total of 185, and Fallon had a bad night, being low man with 153. The Queen City pinners bowled consistently and had many points to spare at the finish. Miller took the honors in the second game with high score and Somerville's highest was 164. This victory ties up the series and another one will probably be arranged to decide the title.

Mathews and Miller will roll a home and home series and the first match will be played on the local courts next Tuesday night.

The results of last night's matches:

SOMERVILLE.

Roller	162	164	159
Ice	159	156	157
Fallon	153	164	157
Schenck	185	150	140
Schawk	160	171	192
	819	805	838

PLAINFIELD.

Crowley	132	139	120
Buckley	201	178	141
Boyle	165	119	151
Mahoney	177	190	139
Miller	186	219	200
	861	845	751

BRILLIANT WINDUP OF ELKS' TOURNEY

Todd and Vail Barely Nosed Out of Title Honors by Rival Couplet.

William Firstbrook and Harvey R. High annexed the two-man miss and out bowling championship of the Elks Club, last night, when they took Jack Todd and Walter Vail into camp in the finals. The windup of the tourney was an interesting event, clash being close and attracting considerable attention. Both teams the title clash being close and attracting considerable attention. Both teams pinned well and the victors barely nosed the runner-ups out of the honor.

The matches in the novel contest have all been of the first-class variety and the contending forces in the finals mounted to the top only after experiencing some close opposition. The pairings were unusually even for a feature of this variety and it was any team's title up to the final series.

The couples that rolled in the alley games were W. Firstbrook and High, Todd and Vail, Blatz and Hoyt, Waldorf and Woolston, Kiely and Higgins, Causbrook and Allen, Duckworth and Starker, Swalm and Hall, VanEmburgh and VanBuren, and Gow and Crist.

ALL THINGS COME TO HIM WHO WAITS

Manager Kline, of the Royals, is Right on the Job With An Answer.

Sporting Editor:

In regard to the game between the Saurers and Royals and Manager Martin's defy, as to my nerve to question his club's rights to claiming the city championship, owing to my club having played but three or four games. As my team was composed of the best colored players in this city and Philadelphia, I could not afford to cater to such towns that could not afford a reasonable guarantee for my club. Therefore, Manager Martin must be laboring under some baseball illusion to expect my club to have followed in his footsteps to such towns as Bound Brook, Westfield and Rahway, which Manager Martin believes has made his team famous. Yes, Manager Martin did visit me at the Babcock building to arrange a game to be played somewhere between here and the border line of Jersey some time, but never has he tried to aid me in securing Parker Field, where I stated in my article a few days ago the game should eb played; and as Manager Martin states it is getting late in the season and his club has arranged a series with the Pets for the remaining Saturdays of September, the game will not be played.

I having failed to notice the annexation of Westfield, Bound Brook, Rahway to the city of Plainfield, and as manager of the Royal A. C., I concede the city championship to the Saurer baseball team. All lovers of good clean sport will agree with me that Manager Martin before aspiring for a tablet in the Hall of Fame should have won a series from the Royals.

Yours in Sport.
WM. A. KLINE. Mgr.

THROCKMORTON WINS "MET" TENNIS TITLE

Easily Disposes of His Opponent in the Final Round in Straight Sets.

Harold Throckmorton, of Rahway, State interscholastic tennis champion, added another title to his list yesterday afternoon, when he won the first annual Junior Metropolitan Tennis Championship at Forest Hills by defeating H. W. Forster, of Yonkers High School, in straight sets, the scores being 6-2, 7-5, 6-1.

The New Yorker likewise started off fast in his last stand and took the first game. But that was as far as he advanced as Throckmorton took the next six games straight and was proclaimed the winner. The doubles title went to L. Selig and A. Wolff, of Lawrence, L. I., in straight sets, the scores being 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

—If you have a really desirable house or apartment to rent, your "ad" will constitute GOOD NEWS to some anxious people in this city.

CENTRAL BOTTLING WORKS

Phone 229. cor. Somerset & Chatham Sts.

HENRY HAURAND, Proprietor.

Headquarters for High Grade Beers, Wines, Liquors and Carbonated Beverages.

SPECIAL SALES

of the Celebrated California Sparkling Asti Special Sec.

Sale price, per quarts.....$1.00
Sale price, 2 pint bottles.....$1.00
Regular price, quarts, $1.50; pints, 75c.

We carry a large assortment of Wines and Liquors (foreign and native) and our prices are of the lowest.

We regret to state that we can not deliver goods in Plainfield, but if you consider quality and prices you will find it will pay you to send for them. We call for empty bottles.

School Boys and Girls

The best place, in Plainfield, to have your bicycle put in shape for the school season is at

George L. Simon's

179 North Ave. Opp. Depot.

BICYCLES TIRES SUNDRIES

LOCAL K. OF C. WILL ENTER STATE LEAGUE

Watchung Council Will Send Five Against Eleven Others in State Circuit.

Preparations have been started for the annual State Knights of Columbus bowling tournament and a meeting for all delegates will be held at the Columbian Club in Newark next Monday night. All the teams that were in last year and are going to re-enter are requested to have representatives present at that meeting and three new teams will be admitted, making twelve quintets on the circuit.

Watchung Council, of this city, was in the league last year and will try again for honors. The locals had a fine team last year and finished well up in the first division. The three new ones will be Star of the Sea Council, of Bayonne, and Westfield Council, with the New Brunswick Council as a possible starter. Elizabeth and Bayley Councils, of Elizabeth; Newark, Star of Bethlehem and Olive Branch Councils, of Newark; Kearny Council, of Harrison; Belleville Council, of Belleville, and Watchung Council, of Plainfield, were the teams on the circuit last season.

Twelve councils competing for the championship and every one of the dozen displaying the same interest that has marked the Knights of Columbus tournament since its organization, the race to the "pennant" should be a hot one.

PETS AND SAURER BATTLE FOR TROPHY

First Game of the Series Will Be Staged on Parker Field Tomorrow.

All eyes will turn on to Parker Field tomorrow afternoon, where one of the largest crowds of the season is expected to see Dorflinger's Plainfield Pets and Martin's Saurer warriors battle for the silver loving cup that is up for the most number of runs scored in the three games to be played. This will be the main attraction for many miles around and a great game is looked for by all interested.

Jim Emery, a former Pet, will be the only new man in the game and he will cover the second base position for the Pets. Jennings and MacLaughlin will again be on the mound and with their regular men behind them, will make things interesting for all present. Emery is a bad man with the stick and may be able to solve Warry's fast ones. Seifts will again be on third and Morganroph on short. Harney or Jimmie Montross will play right field.

The umpire question has been settled and with the mutual consent of the Saurer leader, Manager Dorflinger has signed Degnan, of High Bridge, to officiate. This man umpired in the Southern League last year and is a fine filler for the position, knowing the rules from A to Z and being as square at a block. The game will start at 3:30. The teams wil lineup as follows:

PLAINFIELD.	SAURER.
Seifts, 3b	Harriman, 3b
Alberts, lf	Jaeger, ss
Emery, 2b	Mullin, c
Morganroph, ss	Martin, 2b
Dixon, 1b	MacLaughlin, p
Dorman, cf	Garretson, 1b
Harney, cf	Wilson, rf
Nelson, c	Alberts, rf
Jennings, p	Miller, cf

MONEY NEEDED FOR HOLY CROSS ELEVEN

Management Scouting Around for Finds With Which to Start Season.

Seventeen candidates for the Holy Cross football team reported for practice, last night, which was held on the Quaker lot on Watchung avenue. A majority of the old members were present and several new ones. There was a short signal practice and Coach Martin put the team through a drill. Practice will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on Cricket Field and all are requested to appear in suits. Some of the candidates will be unable to report at that time because they play ball Satuday afternoons. Martin will now start rounding out a team to play the first game which takes place on Saturday, October 3, on the Cricket Field.

Among the new candidates out last night were Tommy Mullin and Jack Fritts. The former has never played the game to any extent, putting all his time on the diamond, but Tommy is exceedingly fast and is trying for an end position. Fritts is out for the backfield and has a good chance of making a position. He played in several games last year, but was not a regular. In order to outfit the team for the first game the management would be pleased to have public donations from some of the citizens who are interested in the team. The money will be used to buy jerseys and sweaters.

Those who reported last night were Jack Ricketts, Andrew Stiglitz, Walter Cummings, Edward Bremble, Otto Moore, Joe Carty, Myrton Glover, Ken Mair, "Turk" Webster, Bill Coyle, Jack Wilson, Jack Bremble, John Caulfield, Tommy Mullin, Frank Lee, Jack Fritts and Herbert Johnson.

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES

AT

Leo Zeisel's

222 WEST FRONT STREET.

Next to Proctor's.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

E. A. KIRCH AND CO.

77-79 MARKET ST. WHAT WE SAY—IS SO NEWARK, N. J.

Appearances

Are not deceiving in "KIRCH" furniture. Every piece is as good as it looks and is backed by the KIRCH guarantee of positive satisfaction to all. Let us prove that

What We Say Is So

Library Table

11.98

Sells Regularly for $18.00

Mahogany Library Table—28x42-inch top—scroll legs and drawer, beautifully finished; large under shelf.

RUGS

TAPESTRY—8.3x10.6, Regular price $14.50 — 11.75

TAPESTRY—9x12, Regular price $16.75 — 13.98

AXMINSTER—9x12, Regular price $21.50 — 16.98

OAK HEATING STOVE

Like cut—13-inch firepot, screw draft, nickel foot rails and top ring; draw centre grates.

6.00

Regular Price $7.50 — Regular Price $7.50

Your Purchases May Be Charged — Your Purchases May Be Charged

Extension Table

12.50

Sells Regularly for $17.50

Massive carved dragon heads heavy claw feet, top 48 inches; solid oak, golden finish, finely polished.

Quartered Oak Buffet

Regular Price $42, Special 31.75 Regular Price $42, Special

Beautiful quartered oak, highly polished; all hand carvings; full swell front. Large linen drawer.

China Closet

Regular Price $27, Special 19.75 Regular Price $27, Special

Quartered oak, of Colonial design all bent glass, very roomy, finely polished.

3-Piece Parlor Suite

Mahogany frame, with carved claw feet, elegantly finished; best panne cushions; regular $45, special,

29.75

High Chair

Reg. Price 1.50

98c

Like cut. Golden oak, large size, well finished; strongly made; will not tip; spindle back, large tray.

Hall Rack

Reg. Price $23.50

14.98

Like Cut

Beautiful quartered oak, finely carved, nicely finished. mirror is large size with beveled edges.

Mission Chair & Rocker

7.50 Each

Regularly Sells for $10.50

Fumed oak, finely polished, genuine leather seats; full spring construction; high slat back, broad arms.

Reed Pullman Carriage

Regular Price $16.50

12.98

Finest reed, roll edges, upholstered with corduroy, sanitary lining, steel pushers, large rubber-tired wheels.

Felt & Cotton Mattress

5.98

Regularly Sells for $8.50

Best felt and cotton art tick weight 50 lbs., one or two parts.

Get This War Map

MILLIONS of them are being distributed all over the country to readers of several hundred newspapers on PRACTICALLY A COMPLIMENTARY BASIS. This is the most timely educational triumph of the century. The movement to immediately supply full and accurate information regarding the world's greatest conflict reflects the unbounded enterprise of American dailies. The European War Map, now being distributed for TEN CENTS to every reader of THE DAILY PRESS, is strictly up-to-date and made from plates in five colors by the leading European map maker. It is accompanied by charts, portraits, and all statistical information respecting the warring countries. Get YOUR copy NOW, before the first supply is exhausted.

16 Portraits of European Rulers

These are the most recent photographs of the great rulers of Europe, and include the following:

King George V, of England
Poincare, of France
[illegible] II, of Russia
Emperor William II, of Germany
Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria
King Peter, of Servia
King Albert, of Belgium
Queen Wilhelmina, of The Netherlands
King Victor Emanuel III, of Italy
King Alfonso XIII, of Spain
King Haakon VII, of Norway
King Gustaf V, of Sweden
King Christian X, of Denmark
President M. de Arriage, of Portugal
Sultan Mohammed V, of Turkey
King Constantine, of Greece

HOW TO GET IT

Present to The DAILY PRESS One War Map Coupon, printed daily in another column, together with 10 Cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL

Will be sent anywhere, in city or out, postpaid for 12 Cents. Send stamps, cash or money order to

The DAILY PRESS

LOCAL CRACK THIRD IN "PRO" CLASSIC

Neaf Apgar Displays Marked Skill as Sharpshooter.

Neaf Apgar, of this city, competed in the West Hogan shooting classic at Atlantic City, yesterday, and turned in a fine card, getting 168 points out of a possible 175. The local shooter is a professional and competed in all ten matches. There were five strings of fifteen and five of twenty and in the former Neaf made four perfect scores and in the last had one.

He started off poorly and made only a 13 on the first trial. In the other four of the first half he was perfect and in the first string of the twenties also made a poor showing, getting 18. In the second he made 19 and the third was a perfect shot. The last two were both 19, putting him within seven points of a perfect score, which was 175.

Apgar holds third place in the consecutive target run record. He racked 106 in line before missing. The holder of the record is H. L. Worthington, of Baltimore, who made a score of 127 without missing.

VANDEVENTER EASY PREY FOR CHAMP

Local Player Only Able to Get Three Games From National Champion.

R. Norris Williams, 2nd., of Harvard, intercollegiate and national singles tennis champion, worked his way into the final round of the annual intercollegiate tennis tournament yesterday afternoon, by defeating Ludlow VanDeventer, of this city, in straight sets, the scores being 6-1, 6-1, 6-1. The local player had no chance against this great performer and was lucky to get the one game of each seat. Williams was in true championship form and his wonderful service had his opponents guessing at all times.

The title now points to Williams again as he has only to dispose of George M. Church, of Princeton, and only a miracle will change the dope. Williams is out of the class of all other college players and well deserves the title, being national champ. In the doubles tournament, Williams and his partner are working their way to the finals and will probably win out in this event.

BRUGGY AND LUYSTER AMONG THE HONORED

Members of the Lawrence Team Are Given Testimonial Banquet.

Captain William "Flick" Luyster and Frank Bruggy, of the Lawrence club, of the New England League, which has just finished the season at the top of the list, were honored at a testimonial banquet given to the members of the team. These two players, who last year played with the Plainfield team during the New Jersey League race, were especially honored for their excellent work with the willow that won many games for their team and kept them on top. Bruggy topped the batting list of the club and Luyster was a close second.

The members of the team were presented with solid gold cuff links. Members of the Lawrence organization who were traded to another club near the end of the season were included in this and were given as much praise as those who finished the schedule with the champions. After the presentation, Captain Luyster made a fine speech in which he commended the spirit of the entire team and stated that this was one of the main reasons for the successes of the nine.

There is some talk of Bruggy's not returning to that nine next year as he may be taken into faster company. Bruggy and Luyster live in Elizabeth.

MISS HYDE ELIMINATED.

The biggest surprise in the eventful national women's golf championship tournament at the Nassau County Club's course, yesterday, was reserved for the third round, when Miss Lillian B. Hyde, metropolitan champion and a strong favorite for national honors, was defeated by Mrs. Barlow in a match that was taken to the home green.

MEET FOR THIRD TIME.

The Plainfield A. A. baseball team will go to Bound Brook, Sunday afternoon, and play the strong St. Joseph's team of that place. This is the third time these teams will have met, the Brookers taking the first two decisions.

OTHER SPORTING NEWS ON PAGE TWO.

—Could there be more important news in the paper than is contained in the "help wanted" ads?

OUT OF THE HIGH RENT DISTRICT

OUR YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD — DWYER & CO. — OUR PAY THE DWYER WAY

FORMERLY OF THE FIRM OF J.N. GREENE & CO.

329-335 PLANE ST. 3 DOORS FROM MARKET ST. NEWARK

There's a Difference

Between buying inexpensive furniture and cheap furniture. Cheap goods are never economical, while inexpensive furniture, ESPECIALLY OURS, IS FULL OF VALUE. Come in and let us show you how to practice REAL ECONOMY in furniture buying. We have the advantage in location—being OUT OF THE HIGH RENT SECTION—means a big difference in our expenses. Consequently we can afford to sell the same goods for LESS MONEY. If the saving of good honest dollars is of any importance to you, you'll test our offerings of Furniture and Floor Coverings, on which We Guarantee to Save You 25 Per Cent.

3.98 for Regular $8 Couch Bed

A Couch by Day—A Bed at Night

A regular $8 outfit, strongly built steel frame, heavily bronzed National fabric steel spring, two fancy denim-covered mattresses and bolsters, opened it is a full sized bed, closed a comfortable couch

Oak Dining Table

Usual $9.00 Value

4.98

This Table, exactly like cut, is built of oak, finished golden and highly polished. It is in family size, extension style, and has five heavy square legs and neatly finished stretchers.

Like Cut

White Enamel Crib

Usual $5 Value 2.69

This continuous post crib is constructed of steel tempered iron, finished in hard baked white enamel. It is fitted with genuine "Rust-Proof" woven wire springs. We consider this crib a splendid $5.00 value.

Oak Chiffonier

Usual $8.00 Value

3.98

A big roomy Chiffonier, built of solid oak, finished golden and highly polished; wood gallery. There are five deep commodious drawers in base, each is fitted with lock, key and brass pulls. We consider this a splendid $8 value.

Enamel Bed Outfit

THREE PIECES

Usual $10.00 Value

One Metal Bed—Well constructed of steel tempered iron, enameled in white, any size.

One Spring—All metal, very resilient, well supported and vermin proof.

One Mattress—Excellently made, close tufted and very comfortable—we consider this a good $10.00 outfit, complete for

4.98

Oak Wash Stand

Usual $5.00 Value

2.98

These neatly designed, well built Wash Stands are of solid oak, finished golden and beautifully polished. Commodious double door cabinet and roomy drawer in base. This is an extraordinary offering at our special price.

320-335 Plane St., Newark

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD

The more money you spend with the Plainfield merchants, craftsmen and mechanics, the better service and values you will get from the stores and craftsmen.

The greater amount of business done in a city—the faster that city will grow.

Shop in Plainfield because you get what you want—when you want it—at a price that gives the seller a reasonable profit.

THE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

PARIS' HIGHWAY OF TRAGEDY DESCRIBED BY A NOVELIST

Procession of Sixty Miles In Which All Types Are Represented.

Women of Rank and Riches Show Splendid Courage In Face of Hardships.

HERE is a graphic description of the exodus from Paris in anticipation of a siege by the Germans as given in dispatches sent by Philip Gibbs, the novelist, to the New York Times and the London Daily Chronicle:

Along the road from Tours to Paris there were sixty unbroken miles of people. On my honor, I do not exaggerate, but write the absolute truth. They were all people who had despaired of breaking through the dense masses of their fellow citizens camped around the railway stations and had decided to take to the roads as the only way of escape.

The vehicles were taxicabs, for which the rich paid fabulous prices; motorcars which had escaped military requisition, farmers' carts, laden with several families and piles of household goods; shop carts, drawn by horses already tired to the point of death because of the weight of the people who crowded behind; pony traps and governess carts.

Many persons, well dressed and belonging obviously to well to do bourgeoisie, were wheeling barrows like costers, but instead of trundling cabbages were pushing forward sleeping babies and little children, who seemed on the first stage to find new amusement and excitement in the journey from home. But for the most part they trudged along bravely, carrying their babies and holding the hands of their little ones.

Heroic Women of Culture.

They were of all classes, rank and fortune being annihilated by the common tragedy. Elegant women whose beauty is known in Paris salons, whose frivolity perhaps in the past was the main purpose of their lives, were now on a level with the peasant mothers of the French suburbs, and their courage did not fail them so quickly.

I looked into many proud, brave faces of these delicate women, walking in high heeled shoes, all too frail for hard, dusty roadways. They belonged to the same race and breed as those ladies who defied death with fine disdain upon the scaffold of the guillotine in the great revolution.

They were leaving Paris now, not because of any fears for themselves—I believe they were fearless—but because they had decided to save the little sons and daughters of soldier fathers.

Every Type Represented.

This great army in retreat was made up of every type familiar in Paris.

Here were women of the gay world, poor creatures whose painted faces had been washed with tears and whose tight skirts and white stockings were never made for a long march down the highways of France.

Here also were thousands of those poor old ladies who live on a few francs a week in the top attics of the Paris streets which Balzac knew; they had fled from their poor sanctuaries, and some of them were still carrying cats and canaries, as dear to them as their own lives.

There was one young woman who walked with a pet monkey on her shoulder while she carried a bird in a golden cage. Old men who remembered 1870 gave their arms to old ladies to whom they had made love when the Prussians were at the gates of Paris then.

Young boy students, with ties as black as their hats and rat tail hair, marched in small companies of comrades, singing brave songs, as though they had no fear in their hearts, and with very little food, I think, in their stomachs.

Brave Self Sacrifice.

Shopgirls and concierges, city clerks, young boys and girls, who supported grandfathers and grandmothers and carried newborn babies and gave pickaback rides to little brothers and sisters, came along the way of retreat.

When I met many of them they were almost beyond the power of words. Their tongues clave to their months with thirst.

Some of them had that wild look in their eyes which is the first sign of the delirium of thirst and fatigue. Nothing to eat or drink could be found on the way from Paris. The little roadside cafes had been cleared out by the preceding hordes.

Unless those people carried their own food and drink, they could have none except of the charity of their comrades in misfortune, and that charity has exceeded all other acts of heroism in this war. Women gave their last biscuit, their last little drop of wine, to poor mothers whose children were famishing with thirst and hunger; peasant women fed other women's babies when their own were satisfied.

A Highway of Tragedy.

It was a tragic road. At every mile of it there were people who had fainted on the roadside and poor old men and women who could go no further, but sat on the banks below the hedges, weeping silently or bidding younger ones go forward and leave them to their fate. Young women who had stepped out so jauntily at first were footsore and lame, so they limped along with lines of pain about their lips and eyes.

Many of the taxicabs, bought at great prices, and many of the motorcars, had broken down as I passed, and had been abandoned by their owners, who had decided to walk. Farmers' carts had bolted into ditches and lost their wheels. Wheelbarrows, too heavy to be trundled, had been tilted up with all their household goods spilt into the roadway and the children had been carried farther, until at last darkness came and their only shelter was a haystack in a field under the harvest moon.

I looked back upon the beauty of Paris all golden in the light of the setting sun, with its glinting spires and white gleaming palaces and rays of light flashing in front of the golden trophies of its monuments. Paris was still unbroken. No shell had come shattering into this city of splendor, and I thanked heaven that for a little while the peril had passed.

Good Stories of the War.

The following letter from a soldier at the front who has taken part in the first fighting appears in the Temps of Paris:

"We found on the field of battle the medicine chest of a vet. He was provided with scent and eau de cologne. He had even brought with him a rose ointment for the nails and a superb gilt shoulder belt which was to raise his prestige when he passed under the Arc de Triomphe. The battery to which he belonged is annihilated now."

Not to be outdone by "Tommy Atkins," who has adopted a war song in "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," the British sailors now have as their favorite "All the Nice Girls Love a Sailor."

The chorus of the war song of the British tars follows:

All the nice girls love a sailor,
All the nice girls love a tar,
For there's something about a sailor—
Well, you know what sailors are.
Bright and breezy,
Free and easy,
He's the ladies' pride and joy,
Jack ahoy! Naughty boy!

Stuck to Battery.

During the action at Le Cateau all the officers and men of one of the British batteries had been killed or wounded with the exception of one subaltern and two gunners. These continued to serve one gun and kept up a sound, raking fire and came out unhurt from the battlefield.

On another occasion a portion of a supply column was cut off by a detachment of German cavalry. The officer in charge was summoned to surrender. He refused and, starting the motor off at full speed, dashed safely through, only losing two wagons.

The Paris correspondent of the London Chronicle telegraphs:

"In the fighting at Compeigne, when the British captured several German guns, the Dragoon guards did wonderful work. There was one tremendous cavalry charge, in which these dragoons were accompanied by their farrier, armed only with his hammer, which he wielded with deadly effect, according to the men."

Bomb His Calling Card.

A correspondent of Le Petit Journal relates a characteristic interview with Jules Vedrines, the well known air man, who already has done distinguished service, but finds the service monotonous because he is not allowed more activity. His work is confined to reconnoitering for the troops and artillery. He says:

"If only they would let me go and leave my visiting card with Emperor William!"

Kaiser William's bust saved the life of a French soldier in Lorraine. The bust, which had been found in a village school, was placed in the soldier's haversack. A German bullet later struck the bust.

"More Waiting For You."

"Why, it's Kitchener!" gasped the wounded soldiers in St. Thomas' hospital, London, as the secretary of state for war stepped in for a visit of inspection, says a correspondent. Here's his chat with a trooper of the Royal Irish dragoons:

"How are you getting on?" asked Lord Kitchener.

"All right, sir," answered Trooper Craig.

"What's your regiment?"

"The Irish dragoons."

"How did you get that hand?"

"My horse threw me and stamped on it, sir, just before it got killed by a shell in a charge in Belgium."

"Ah, but you got into them, didn't you?" Lord Kitchener continued, with a knowing air.

"Oh, yes, sir, we did," answered the trooper with a laugh, in which Lord Kitchener joined.

"There are some more waiting for you, you know," was Lord Kitchener's parting remark.

Their Picnic Spoiled.

The French troops are brave and fearless, but too impetuous, says a correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle. He adds:

"Careless of quick firers, which experience should have taught them were masked behind the enemy's advance posts, they charged with the bayonet and suffered needlessly heavy losses during the fighting at Creil and Compiegne. One can only admire the gallantry of men who dare to charge on foot against the enemy's mounted men and who actually put a squadron of them to flight, but one must say again, 'C'est magnifique, mais ce n'est pas la guerre.'

"There have been many instances of heroism in these last days of fighting. It is, for instance, immensely characteristic of the French spirit that an infantry battalion, having put to flight a detachment of German outposts in the forest of Compiegne, calmly sat down to have a picnic in the woods until, as they sat over their hot soup, laughing at their exploit, they were attacked by a new force and cut to pieces."

Retreat of Diplomats.

"It was a unique sight," says the Paris correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle, "when the members of the foreign embassies and legations quit Paris for Bordeaux. They left in the dead of night, and their only illumination was moonlight.

"There was Sir Francis Bertie, in a black suit and bowler hat, talking to the Italian ambassador, who, with Signor Tittoni, was a distinguishable figure in gray and with a soft felt hat. Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador, had come down with his wife to say goodby to his confreres, and M. Isvolsky, the czar's envoy, was chatting with the Spanish ambassador, who, like Mr. Herrick, is remaining in Paris to perform the duties of courtesy that fall upon neutrals at such an exciting time.

"The windows of each carriage of the special train were labeled with the names of the countries whose representatives it was carrying off. There was even an inscription for the more or less imaginary republic of San Marino, but no one appeared to answer to this honorific name. There were the Persian minister and M. Romonos, a black bearded Greek, and the Russian military attache in uniform, and les braves Belges, and all sorts of servants, including a Chinese nurse, who was feeding a yellow baby that had coal black eyes.

"At last a horn was blown and the train rolled away.

"Say what you like, it is no pleasant thing to see the world's delegates pack up their traps and leave the splendid city of Paris to its fate."

Women Nurses In Breeches.

"Among a party of nurses who left Folkestone for the front," says the London Daily Mail correspondent, "were a number of women wearing riding breeches and spurs and long coats and helmets similar to those worn in the tropics.

"Their duties will be to ride over the battlefield and look for the wounded and render first aid, after which the other nurses will convey the stricken soldiers to the base hospital in motorcars. It is pointed out that many wounded have died owing to not having received immediate attention on the field."

A Novel Situation.

A newspaper correspondent made a motor trip to Brussels and tells of being ambushed by Germans. He says:

"We first sighted Germans when approaching a railway grade crossing outside of Aerschot. There were a hundred of them waiting for us behind a hedge, with rifles leveled. When a hundred yards away an officer in the trailing gray cloak stepped into the middle of the road and held up his hand and called out:

"'Halt!'

"I jammed on the brakes.

"'Are you English?' the officer demanded none too pleasantly.

"'No, American,' I said.

"'I know America well,' he said. 'Atlantic City and Niagara Falls and Coney Island. I have seen all your famous places.'

"Imagine standing in the middle of a Belgian road, surrounded by German soldiers who looked as though they would rather shoot you than not, and discussing the relative merits of hotels at Atlantic City with an officer of an invading army!"

Paint Horses Green.

"The Russian Cossacks have painted all their white and gray horses green, making them harmonize with the foliage, so that their movements cannot be seen by scouting aeroplanes," says a London correspondent. This plan was first adopted by the British in the struggle with the Boers.

A British agent who is buying 10,000 horses and mules in Missouri is rejecting gray ones. He says they can be seen farther than animals of any other color.

Treed Their Prisoners.

When the Belgians cut the dikes flooding the country around Termonde, the water came in so suddenly in many places that German troops were taken by surprise and were obliged to climb trees to escape drowning. Here many of them were later found by Belgian troops and taken prisoners. Most of them were glad to surrender.

First Aid by Police Dogs.

Police dogs are being used in this war in Red Cross work for the first time, says a Paris correspondent. They are reported to be giving excellent results. They have been trained to discover the wounded man and to bring his cap or another piece of his wearing apparel back to the headquarters of the Red Cross, and then to lead a nurse to the place.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.
Broadway and Ninth Street

The John Wanamaker Store

Store Opens at 8:30
Closes at 5:30

The WANAMAKER STORE is the Center of Fashion in America

Tomorrow, Saturday, Last Presentation of the 99 Paris Gowns and Wraps Just Received

Saturday a Special Day for Women's Tailored Suits and Coats

Many fresh shipments have been received and will be placed on sale.

Even better quality than usual at the price, because we have made a special effort to give our customers extra value at the very beginning of the Autumn season.

The New Rep Serge Suit, $35

This is an entirely new model with braid forming a circular yoke on the skirt. Black or blue.

100 Surprising Coats at $15

Imported shower-proof plaid back cheviot has been built by an American men's tailor into plain mannish overcoats. We know they are exactly what many women have been looking for, and we are sorry there are only 75 of them—but there is not an inch more of the material to be had. Brown, olive and oxford mixtures. Notice particularly the large buttoned patch pockets.

A limited quantity of regulation motor coats in imported striped tweeds, at the same price, $15.

150 New Tailored Suits at $25

Broadcloth, cheviot and serge in black navy, Russian green, and a few in brown. All have the new long coat and well cut skirts. Exceptionally good quality at the price.

Suits with Caracul Cloth Trimming at $37.50

These have the new long semi-fitted coats with wide band of caracul cloth around the skirt and forming collar and cuffs. Broadcloth in black, navy and brown.

Short Coat Suit at $37.50

Broadcloth in black and navy blue with short coat fitted at the waistline and bound with braid; a three-tier skirt somewhat like that in our new collection of Paris fashions.

Second floor, Old Building.

387 Boys' Suits with Extra Knickers, $6.75

Sizes 7 to 18 Years

A wonderfully little price for such good-looking, good-wearing suits.

But we got some consideration in the price, and out they go as bought.

Norfolk or pleated models; cheviots and cassimeres in gray, brown and fancy mixtures and stripes; very attractive colorings; very thoroughly tailored; knickerbockers full lined; watch pockets.

Full Stock of New Autumn Suits for Boys

Norfolk and double-breasted models, in sizes 7 to 18 years. See, particularly, models 141 and 241 at $8.50, $10.50 and $12.50.

For the Boy Who's Off with Knickers

Two models of first long-trouser suits; a two-button sack with long roll lapel, and a three-button sack with short lapel and a trifle less collar.

Tweeds and cheviots; plaids, stripes, checks, plain blues.

How carefully we fashioned the trousers! $12.50. Sizes 14 to 18 years.

Three Good Hats for Boys

ROLLER, for the 3 to 6 years old.
NEWPORT, for boys of 6 to 12.
JUNIOR, for the young men of 12 to 18.
$1.50 each. A variety of each.
Rah-rah and golf caps, 50c each.

Boys' Blouses, $1 Each

Second floor, Old Building.

Special Prices on Fall Clothes

For Girls, Juniors and Young Women

Please note the quality as well as the style of these smart autumn clothes. Note the suit lining of soft peau de cygne! Feel the flannel interlinings. Try on the suits and dresses and prove to yourself that in nine cases out of ten they will fit without alterations. Every garment mentioned below is unusual quality and not to be matched at its price to the best of our knowledge.

FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Serge dress which has an unusual short coat effect. The dress is beautifully made and has organdie over collar and long satin sleeves. Navy, green, brown and black, $18.75.

Redingote dress in navy, green, brown or black serge, with satin sleeves and small filigree buttons, $16.50.

Broadcloth suits remarkably smart with their cutaway coats, slightly long in back, and new tunic skirt which flares from a straight yoke. Green, navy, black and buckeye, $21.50.

Every day suit of rough cheviot with new finger tip length coat which buttons up to the throat. Navy and brown, $19.75.

Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years.

FOR JUNIORS

Beltea Norfolk suit of a new kind which has no pleats. Every school girl will like it. Navy, brown or green, $17.50.

Sizes 15 and 17 years.

FOR GIRLS

Zibeline coats with velvet collars and velvet belt in front. Suitable for every day or "dress up" wear. Green, navy and brown, $11.

Sizes 10, 12 and 14 years.

Regulation Middy dresses in blue serge with middy blouses braided in white and having embroidered emblems and red ties; price, $6.75.

Sizes 6 to 14 years.

In addition to all these "specials" a complete collection of every new kind of coat, suit or dress in all new materials will be found here most moderately priced.

Second floor, Old Building.

Buy From the Factory at Factory Prices

Our Prices Are Lower--Come & Investigate

Sport Coats

for ladies and misses, made of the finest materials, in novelty blues and novelty plaids.

The New Fall Suits

for women and misses are finely tailored in Serges, Poplins, Broadcloth and Cheviots—colors blue, black and green. The long coats and Redingote models.

SKIRTS—in blue, black and plaids.

Condition of Sale—Keep your purchase one week, compare prices—if we are not one-third cheaper, return purchase and get your money and carfare.

S. Krauthamer

Makers of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats and Suits
400-402 Watchung Ave., Uptairs. Plainfield, N. J.

THE APPLEGATE QUALITY COUNTS

NOTHING BUT THE BEST IN THIS MARKET AT ALL TIMES.

Skin Back Hams, lb	21½c	Blade Roast, lb	18c
California Hams, lb	15½c	Top Sirloin, by whole, lb	21c
Hindquarters Genuine Lamb, lb	22c	Bottom Round, to roast	22c
Legs Genuine Lamb, lb	22c	Rump Roast, lb	22c
Hindquarters Mutton, lb	16c	Top Round to Roast, lb	25c
Legs Mutton, lb	16c	Fresh Killed Stewing Chickens, lb	18c
Loins Mutton, lb	16c	Fresh Killed Jersey Fowl, lb	25c
Loin Mutton Chops, lb	22c	Potatoes, 16-quart basket	43c
Sirloin Steak, best cut, lb	26c	Sweet Potatoes, 16-quart basket	60c
		Sweet Potatoes, 8 quart pony	35c

All goods delivered—Special attention given to telephone orders.

CLIFFORD L. APPLEGATE

164 E. Front St. Tel. 1110. Opp. Woodhull & Martine

Now for

School Shoes

Our School Shoes are the best in the market for the money.

And we are fixing the prices right

Sizes 1 to 5½ — $1.50 and $2.00

Sizes 9 to 13½ — $1.25 and $1.50

"Oldest Shoe House in Town"

A. K. Willett
107 Park Ave.

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen.
Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

REPAIRING — REMODELING

ASK ANYBODY

and they will tell you of the Charles Kurtzman honest fur selling service that he has been doing here for years. Come in and see the most bewildering line of fall creations that you have ever gazed upon.

DO IT TODAY

Charles Kurtzman
THE FURRIER
178 EAST FRONT STREET

$1.50 EXCURSION To Great
CHILDREN 75c
ALLENTOWN FAIR

VIA

New Jersey Central

THE BIG DAY, THURSDAY, SEPT. 24

Special Train Leaves Netherwood, 7:43 a. m.; Plainfield, 7:46 a. m.; Grant Ave., 7:48 a. m.; Clinton Ave., 7:50 a. m.

CASH or CREDIT

CLOTHING — CLOAKS — BERNSTEIN OUTFITTING COMPANY — HATS — SHOES

204 W. Front Street Plainfield N.J.

1 Flight Up Over the Lyric. Open Evening Till 9 o'clock.
Formerly Nat. Bernstein, of 222 West Front Street.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

PLAINFIELD LIBRARY NOTES

A selection of the Public Library's material bearing upon the European conflict.

PART 2.

Russia.

Beveridge, A.J.—Russian advance.

Bigelow, P.—Borderland of Czar and Kaiser, notes from both sides of the Russian frontier.

Gerrare, W.—Greater Russia: The continental empire of the old world.

Latimer, E. W.—Russia and Turkey in the 19th century.

Leroy-Beaulieu, A.—Empire of the Tsars and the Russians. 3 volumes.

Milyoukov, Paul.—Russia and its crises.

Paumer, F. H. E.—Russian life in town and country.

Skrine, F. H.—Expansion of Russia, 1815-1900.

Wallace, Sir D. M.—Russia.

Zilliacus, K.—Russian revolutionary movement.

Poland.

Brandes, George—Poland: a study of the land, people and literature.

Morfill, W. R.—Story of Poland.

Winter, N. O.—Poland of today and yesterday: A review of its history, past and present, and of the causes which resulted in its partition, together with a survey of its social, political and economic conditions today.

France.

Hanotaux, G.—Contemporary France, 1870-1882. 4 volumes.

Latimer, E. W.—France in the 19th century, 1830-1890.

Lebon, A.—Modern France, 1789-1895.

Lynch, H.—French life in town and country.

Tardieu, A.—France and the alliances.

Washburne, E F.—Recollections of a minister to France, 1869-1887. 2 vols.

Wendell, B.—France of today.

England.

Cazamian, Louis.—Modern England.

Collier, P.—England and the English.

Hunt, William.—Political history of England, Vol. 11-12. 1801-1901.

MacCarthy, Justin.—Story of the people of England in the 19th century. 2 vols.

Austria-Hungary.

Clark, F. E.—Old homes of new Americans: The country and the people of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy.

Colquhoun, A. R.—Whirlpool of Europe: Austria-Hungary and the Hapsburgs.

Latimer, E. W.—Austro-Hungary in the 19th century.

Palmer, F. H. E.—Austro-Hungarian life in town and country.

Rumbold, Sir Horace—Austrian court in the 19th century.

Rumbold, Sir Horace—Francis Joseph and his times.

Vambery & Heilprin.—Story of Hungary.

Whitman, L.—Austria in 1898.

Belgium.

Allen, G.—Belgium: Its cities.

Boulger, D. C.—Belgium of the Belgians.

Servia and Turkey.

Lazar-Hrebelianovich — Servian people: Their past glory and their destiny. 2 vols.

McDonald, J.—Turkey and the Eastern question.

The Far East.

Kauakami, K. K.—American-Japanese relations: An inside view of Japan's policies and purposes.

Weale, B. L. P.—Truce in the East and its aftermath.

Weale, B. L. P.—Re-shaping of the far East. 2 volumes.

The Fatherland.—A weekly periodical devoted to fair play for Austria and Germany.

LOSE HEAVILY BY WAR.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 18—Because the export lumber trade from the United States has been heavy and because most of these shipments would be contraband, as all building of homes in the war zone has been stopped, Southern lumbermen foresee a heavy loss in their industry on account of the European war. Already the shipment of lumber from Southern ports is entirely paralyzed. Great losses already have been sustained through the seizure of vessels which were on the high seas when war was declared, or through cargoes diverted to points at which the timber cannot readily be sold, because lumber intended for export to one country is very seldom in such shape as to be readily salable in another. In actual figures, the countries directly or indirectly involved in war take each year about 700,000,000 board feet of American timber, of which about 650,000,000 feet is southern yellow pine.

NOTED AUTHOR IS 87.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 18—John T. Trowbridge, the well known author and poet, observed his eighty-seventh birthday very quietly today at his home in Arlington. Mr. Trowbridge is still strong and active, and in excellent health. Mr Trowbridge is the last survivor of the famous Atlantic Club and the last one of the contributors to the first issue of The Atlantic Monthly. In his earlier years he enjoyed intimate relations with many great figures of the greatest period in American literature, among them Longfellow, Emerson, Lowell, Holmes and Walt Whitman. Of the fifty or more books Mr. Trowbridge has written all are alive, and his boys' books have had new editions each year.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

Economy Pointers From SCHEUER'S

On every item a saving and a good one—and you don't sacrifice quality by trading here.
Mail and Telephone Orders Promptly Attended to—Phone 1000.

SCHEUER'S XXXX PATENT FLOUR—24½-lb bag 85c
FANCY JERSEY POTATOES—16-quart basket 45c

Crystal Domino Granulated Sugar, 5-lb box — 38c

Sunshine Biscuit Co. Takhoma Biscuits, package — 4c

Evaporated Milk Peerless or Gold Cross Brand, 3 tall cans 25c	Curtice Bros. Blue Label Catsup large bottle 18c	Ohio Blue Tip Matches 12 5c boxes 39c	Huyler's or Hershey's Breakfast Cocoa ½-lb tin, 25c kind 17c	Crisco, used where you use butter or lard, 25c kind 22c	Japo Cleanser Chases Dirt 3 5c boxes 10c
Franco-American Readymaid Soups Assorted Kinds 8c	Cream Corn Starch 1-lb package 6c	Shaker Salt The box with the sifted top 10c kind 8c	Norwegian Smoked Sardines in olive oil finest packed, 15c kind; 2 cans 25c	Armour's Sliced Bacon large jars 25c	Ritter's Baked Beans large cans, 3 cans 25c
Steero Boullion Cubes 30c kind, box 25c	Leggitt's Premier Peanut Butter pint jars 22c	Bromangalon Jelly Powder, Assorted Flavors, 3 pkgs. 25c	With $1.00 worth of groceries or more Flour excluded, will sell 10 lbs Granulated Sugar... 69c	Just Received Delicious Skinless Figs in heavy syrup; 13c can; 2 cans 25c	Selected Queen Stuffed Olives, worth 25c, bottle 19c
Grandma's Borax Soap Powder large package 12c	Export Borax Soap 10 cakes 37c	Chic Laundry Soap 10 large cakes 25c	Kirkman's Borax Soap or Fels Naphtha Soap, 10 cakes 43c	Burnham's Clam Chowder, the kind you cannot tell from fresh made; 3-lb can 17c	Just received, a new lot of the real whole wheat biscuit Wheatsworth; a package..... 10c
Empress Brand California Large Asparagus, can 17c	Imported Peas While they Last 2 cans 25c	Fancy Premier Brand Asparagus Tips a can 19c	Robertson or Hartley's Imported Orange Marmalade, 1-lb jar 15c	Worcestershire Sauce Waw Waw Brand 25c kind, a bottle 15c	Fancy Imported Boneless Sardines large cans 24c
Holbrook's Imported Pickled Onions or Pickled Walnuts ½-pint bottle .... 17c Pint bottle 27c	Holbrook's Imported Malt Vinegar quart bottle, 25c kind 17c	Holbrook's Imported Chow-Chow, large bottle, worth 35c 25c	Mason Jar Tops a dozen 18c	Finest Red Gum Rubbers for Mason Jars, a dozen 8c	Gondola Soap, a Floating Soap for Toilet or Bath, 6 large cakes 25c
New Barley a lb 6c	New Farina a lb 6c	White or Yellow Meal, lb 4c	Fancy Head Rice, 9c lb; 3 lbs 25c	Rolled Oats, fresh and sweet, 6 lbs 25c	Finest Imported Macaroni & Spaghetti Loose, lb 10c

MEAT DEPARTMENT

Prime Blade Rib Roast, a lb 18c
Prime Chuck Steaks, a lb 18c
Forquarters Spring Lamb, a lb 16c
Fresh Lamb for Stuffing, a lb 12c
Fresh or Corned Plate Beef, a lb 10c
Finest Sugar Cured Cal. Hams, a lb 16c
Finest Sugar Cured Premium Hams, a lb 22c
Summer or Cervalot Bologna, a lb 25c
Fresh Chopped Beef, a lb 18c
Prime Sirloin Steaks, untrimmed, a lb 25c

Wrench Tools

Every useful Tool that's needed to make things snug and tight. You'll find all the little low cost Wrenches as well as the higher grade Tools—and quality for quality, you'll find lower prices than you've ever seen.

Every useful Wrench and Tool that's needed is here and makes it still more interesting for you to "Come in and Look Around."

F. A. KIRCH & CO.,
205 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Phone 578

New Furniture and Bedding

The new styles for Fall and Winter can now be seen on our floors at prices that will prove of interest to you.

New Rugs

Large variety from which to make your selection direct from the mills of the leading manufacturers.

WINDOW SHADES
Special Sizes Made to Order

L. B. Van Camp
Front & Somerset Sts.

KANDYSHOPE

"Pure Sweets Promote Good Health"

MUSIC SATURDAY EVENINGS, 8 to 11

Crane's Ice Cream—All Flavors—40c Quart

MISS CLARA A. GEIER
MISS MADELINE GEIER
MRS. GERTRUDE T. FIRSTBROOK

139 E. Front St

HOME CIRCLE NEWS

The United States Government has arranged for the issuance of emergency currency so that National Banks can obtain all the money needed for legitimate business, and now Miron & Lifson come forth with a liberal Credit Plan to provide home comforts to families throughout the city at the lowest prices, and on the most dignified easy terms of payment. WE TRUST YOU.

Buffet

A beautiful buffet of solid quarted oak, in a fine colonial design, full length French beveled plate mirror; an exceptional value; special at 22.50

Extension Table

Made of well-seasoned oak; 42-inch round top, extends to six foot, heavy pedestal, hand carved claw feet; spec. at.. 13.75

China Closet

A well made piece of furniture, built of solid oak; the doors and ends have bent glass; golden oak finish, well polished, fitted with adjustable shelves; a splendid value; special at 16.25

MIRON & LIFSON
134 E. FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, 163-165 FIRST ST. ELIZABETH
Free Auto Deliveries Anywhere. Easy, Liberal Credit.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER VIII.

The World Republic.

At length, as it seemed to Firmin, or quite soon, as it seemed to the king, the gradient of the path diminished, the way widened out, and they found themselves in a very beautiful place indeed. It was one of those upland clusters of sheds and houses that are still to be found in the mountains of north Italy that were used only in the high summer and which it was the custom to leave locked up and deserted through all the winter and spring and up to the middle of June. The buildings were of a soft toned gray stone buried in rich green grass, shadowed by chestnut trees and lit by an extraordinary blaze of yellow broom. Never had the king seen broom so glorious. He shouted at the light of it, for it seemed to give out more sunlight even than it received. He sat down impulsively on a lichenous stone, tugged out his bread and cheese and bade Firmin thrust the beer into the shaded weeds to cool.

"The things people miss, Firmin," he said, "who go up into the air in ships."

Firmin looked around him with an ungenial eye. "You see it at its best, sir," he said, "before the peasants come here again and make it filthy."

"It would be beautiful anyhow," said the king.

"Superficially, sir," said Firmin. "But it stands for a social order that is fast vanishing away. Indeed, judging by the grass between the stones and in the huts, I am inclined to doubt if it is in use even now."

"I suppose," said the king, "they would come up immediately the hay on this flower meadow is cut. It would be those slow, creamy colored beasts, I expect, one sees on the roads below and swarthy girls with red handkerchiefs over their black hair. It is wonderful to think how long that beautiful old life lasted. In the Roman times and long ages before ever the rumor of the Romans had come into these parts, men drove their cattle up into these places as the summer came on. How haunted is this place! There have been quarrels here, hopes, children have played here and lived to be old crones and old gaffers and died, and so it has gone on for thousands of lives. Lovers, innumerable lovers, have caressed amidst this golden broom."

He meditated over a busy mouthful of bread and cheese.

"We ought to have brought a tankard for that beer," he said.

Firmin produced a folding aluminium cup, and the king was pleased to drink.

"I wish, sir," said Firmin suddenly, "I could induce you at least to delay your decision."

"It's no good talking, Firmin," said the king. "My mind's as clear as daylight."

"Sire," protested Firmin, with his voice full of bread and cheese and genuine emotion, "have you no respect for your kingship?"

The king paused before he answered with unwonted gravity, "It's just because I have, Firmin, that I won't be a puppet in this game of international politics." He regarded his companion for a moment and then remarked: "Kingship! What do you know of kingship, Firmin?

"Yes," cried the king to his astonished counselor, "For the first time in my life I am going to be a king. I am going to lead, and lead by my own authority. For a dozen generations my family has been a set of dummies in the hands of their advisers. Now I am going to be a real king, and I am going to—to abolish, dispose of, finish, the crown to which I have been a slave. But what a world of paralyzing shams this roaring stuff has ended! The rigid old world is in the melting pot again, and, I who seemed to be no more than the stuffing inside a regal robe, I am a king among kings. I have to play my part at the head of things and put an end to blood and fire and idiot disorder."

"But, sir," protested Firmin.

"This man Leblanc is right. The whole world has got to be a republic, one and indivisible. You know that. And my duty is to make that easy. A king should lead his people. You want me to stick on to their backs like some old man of the sea. Today must be a sacrament of kings. Our trust for mankind is done with and ended. We must part our robes among them. We must part our kingship among them and say to them all, Now the king in every one must rule the world. Have you no sense of the magnificence of this occasion? You want me, Firmin, you want me to go up there and haggle like a d—d little solicitor for some price, some compensation, some qualification."

Firmin shrugged his shoulders and assumed an expression of despair. Meanwhile, he conveyed, one must eat.

For a time neither spoke, and the king ate and turned over in his mind the phrases of the speech he intended to make to the conference. By virtue of the antiquity of his crown he was to preside, and he intended to make his presidency memorable. Reassured of his eloquence, he considered the despondent and sulky Firmin for a space.

"Firmin," he said, "you have idealized kingship."

"It has been my dream, sir," said Firmin sorrowfully, "to serve."

"At the levers, Firmin," said the king.

"You are pleased to be unjust," said Firmin, deeply hurt.

"I am pleased to be getting out of it," said the king.

"Oh, Firmin," he went on, "have you no thought for me? Will you never realize that I am not only flesh and blood, but an imagination—with its rights? I am a king in revolt against that fetter they put upon my head. I am a king awake. My reverend grandparents never in all their august lives had a waking moment. They loved the job that you, you advisers, gave them. They never had a doubt of it. It was like giving a doll to a woman who ought to have a child. They delighted in processions and opening things and being read addresses to and visiting triplets and nonagenarians and all that sort of thing. Incredibly. They used to keep albums of cuttings from all the illustrated papers showing them at it, and if the press cutting parcels grew thin they were worried. It was all that ever worried them. But there is something atavistic in me. I hark back to unconstitutional monarchs. They christened me too retrogressively, I think. I warmed to get things done. I was bored. I might have fallen into vice—most intelligent and energetic princes do—but the palace precautions were unusually thorough. I was brought up in the purest court the world has ever seen—alertly pure. So I read books, Firmin, and went about asking questions. The thing was bound to happen to one of us sooner or later. Perhaps, too, very likely I'm not vicious. I don't think I am."

He reflected. "No," he said.

Firmin cleared his throat. "I don't think you are, sir," he said. "You prefer"—

He stopped short. He had been going to say "talking." He substituted "ideas."

"That world of royalty," the king went on. "In a little while no one will understand it any more. It will become a riddle.

"Among other things, it was a world of perpetual best clothes. Everything was in its best clothes for us and usually wearing bunting, with a cinema watching to see we took it properly. If you were a king, Firmin, and you go and look at a regiment it instantly stops whatever it is doing, changes into full uniform and presents arms. When my august parents went in a train the coal in the tender used to be whitened. It did, Firmin, and if coal had been white instead of black I have no doubt the authorities would have blackened it. That was the spirit of our treatment. People were always walking about with their faces to us. One never saw anything in profile. One got an impression of a world that was insanely focused on ourselves. And when I began to poke my little questions into the lord chancellor and the archbishop and all the rest of them about what I should see if people turned around the general effect I produced was that I wasn't by any means displaying the royal tact they had expected of me."

He meditated for a time.

"And yet you know there is something in the kingship, Firmin. It stiffened up my august little grandfather; it gave my grandmother a kind of awkward dignity, even when she was cross, and she was very often cross. They both had a profound sense of responsibility. My poor father's health was wretched during his brief career. Nobody outside the circle knows just how he screwed himself up to things. 'My people expect it,' he used to say of this tiresome duty or that. Most of the things they made him do were silly. It was part of a bad tradition, but there was nothing silly in the way he set about them. The spirit of kingship is a fine thing, Firmin. I feel it in my bones. I do not know what I might not be if I were not a king. I could die for my people, Firmin, and you couldn't. No, don't say you could die for me because I know better. Don't think I forget my kingship, Firmin; don't imagine that. I am a king, a kingly king, by right divine. The fact that I am also a chattering young man makes not the slightest difference to that. But the proper textbook for kings, Firmin, is none of the court memoirs and welt-politik books you would have me read; it is old Fraser's 'Golden Bough.' Have you read that, Firmin?"

Firmin had.

"Those were the authentic kings. In the end they were cut up and a bit to everybody. They sprinkled the nations—with kingship."

Firmin turned himself round and faced his royal master.

"What do you intend to do, sir?" he asked. "If you will not listen to me, what do you propose to do this afternoon?"

The king flicked crumbs from his coat.

"Manifestly war has to stop forever, Firmin. Manifestly this can only be done by putting all the world under one government. Our crowns and flags are in the way. Manifestly they must go."

"Yes, sir," interrupted Firmin, "but what government? I don't see what government you get by a universal abdication!"

"Well," said the king with his hands about his knees, "we shall be the government."

"The conference?" exclaimed Firmin.

"Who else?" asked the king simply.

"It's perfectly simple," he added to Firmin's tremendous silence.

"But," cried Firmin, "you must have sanctions! Will there be no form of election, for example?"

"Why should there be?" asked the king with intelligent curiosity.

"The consent of the governed."

"Firmin, we are just going to lay down our differences and take over government without any election at all, without any sanction. The governed will show their consent by silence. If any effective opposition arises we shall ask it to come in and help. The true sanction of kingship is the grip upon the scepter. We aren't going to worry people to vote for us. I'm certain that the mass of men does not want to be bothered with such things. We'll contrive a way for any one interested to join in. That's quite enough in the way of democracy. Perhaps later, when things don't matter. We shall govern all right, Firmin. Government only becomes difficult when the lawyers get hold of it, and since these troubles began the lawyers are shy. Indeed, come to think of it, I wonder where all the lawyers are. Where are they? A lot, of course, were bagged—some of the worst ones—when they blew up my legislature. You never knew the late lord chancellor.

"Necessities bury rights. Lawyers live on rights. We've done with that way of living. We won't have more law than a code can cover, and beyond that government will be free.

"Before the sun sets today, Firmin, trust me, we shall have made our abdications, all of us, and declared the world republic, supreme and indivisible. I wonder what my august grandmother would have made of it—all my rights! And then we shall go on governing. What else is there to do? All over the world we shall declare that there is no longer mine or thine, but ours. China, the United States, two-thirds, will certainly fall in and obey. They will have to do so. What else can they do? Their official rulers are here with us. They won't be able to get together any sort of idea of not obeying us. Then we shall declare that every sort of property is held in trust for the republic."

"But, sir," cried Firmin, suddenly enlightened, "has this been arranged already?"

"My dear Firmin, do you think we have come here, all of us, to talk at large? The talking has been done for half a century, talking and writing. We are here to set the new thing, the simple, obvious, necessary thing, going."

He stood up.

Firmin, forgetting the habits of a score of years, remained seated.

"Well," he said at last, "and I have known nothing!"

The king smiled very cheerfully. He liked these talks with Firmin.

(To be continued.)

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Tel 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets

Keep cool during the summer. Buy your bread and cake at
"THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE"
207 Park Ave. Tel. 850.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals for the construction of an extension of about 600 feet of concrete storm sewer connecting with present storm sewer at Dunn Street and extending to the N. E. side line of Somerset Street will be received by the Mayor of the Borough of North Plainfield, N. J. at the Council Rooms, North Plainfield, September 21, 1914, at 8 p. m.

Proposals must be made upon the forms provided and be accompanied by a certified check for One Hundred (100) Dollars made payable to the order of the Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield.

Plans and specifications are on file and may be examined and information and blank forms obtained at the office of Benjamin Fuglewicz, No. 149 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

A bond with approved surety in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars will be required of the successful bidder.

CHARLES DOLLIVER,
Borough Clerk.

Dated September 11, 1914.
9-12 18 18

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

RITZ Inc.
BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

Of Interest to Women and the Home

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

Here is a skirt that is not alone attractive; it also is delightfully reminiscent.

While it is by no means a replica of the one worn by a former generation, it is suggestive thereof and is meeting with the heartiest possible welcome.

Beneath the flounce there is a plain two piece foundation, and if a basque or a similar garment is to be worn the uppermost flounce can be omitted.

TWO PIECE SKIRT WITH FLOUNCE.

As shown here, silk makes the flounces as well as the skirt, but an exceedingly fashionable and also exceedingly beautiful effect can be obtained by using lace, net or any similar material over a silk foundation.

For the medium size the skirt will require two and five-eighths yards of material twenty-seven inches wide, with five and one-half yards of material twenty-seven inches wide or thirteen yards of lace nine inches wide for the flounces.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from 24 to 30 inches waist measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 8284, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No..... Size.....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS

Leave Plainfield—6.30, 9.00, 11.45 a. m. x1.00, *1.50, 4.00, 5.00, 6.15, *7.00, 10.30 *11.15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS

Leave Plainfield—9.00 a. m. 12.00 noon, 00, 4.30, 5.00, [illegible] m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7.00, 9.30 a. m. 12.00 noon, 1.30, *2.00, *4.30, x4.45, 30, *7.15, 7.30, 10.50, *11.45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS

Leave South Plainfield—9.30 a. m. 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6.25, 8.15, a. m. *1.00 3.00, 4.30, 6.25, *10.00, *11.00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 3.00 4.30, 6.30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6.35, 8.25 a. m., *1.10 3.10, 4.40, 6.35, *10.10, *11.10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9.10, 10.40 a. m., 3.10 4.40, 6.40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8.50 a. m. *1.35, 5.00, *10.30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11.00 a. m. 5.00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6.50 a. m. 3.30, 6.50 *11.30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9.30 a. m. 3.30, 6.50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7.00 a. m. 7.00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9.45 a. m. 7.10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6.25 a. m., 3.00, 6.25, *11.00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6.35 a. m., 3.10, 6.40 *11.15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30 6.50, *11.30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30 7.30, *11.30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40 *11.45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55 *12.00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and Holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m., instead of 6.30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8.15 a. m. 4.30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8.25 a. m., 4.45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m. 8.15 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Stirling from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1.00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1.30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10.30 a. m., 4.30 p. m.

E. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. Phone 130, Plainfield.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
108 Depot Park, Manning Building.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

—Your "business opportunity" ad will be read by people who never miss real chances for investments.

Some Cookery Suggestions

THE HOME LUNCHEON.

LUNCHEON MENU
Green Tea Soup
Corn Bread
Cabbage Salad
Calf's Liver en Casserole
Jelly Omelet
Tea

WHEN a substantial luncheon is required for the family one may suggested here might be used. It is both appetizing and nourishing.

Corn Bread. Take three eggs, beaten light; two cupfuls sour milk, three tablespoonfuls melted butter or lard, three tablespoonfuls sugar, one small teaspoonful salt, one teaspoonful soda. Mix well with cornmeal to make a thin batter. Bake in shallow pan for half an hour in hot oven.

A Simple Salad.

Cabbage Salad.—Chop one-half medium sized cabbage quite fine. Let it stand in ice water one hour, adding a tablespoonful of salt. Beat two eggs in a bowl, add to them one cupful of vinegar, three tablespoonfuls of butter, a little pepper and one tablespoonful of mustard. Put the bowl in a pan of boiling water and stir constantly until it begins to thicken. Remove from the fire and add two teaspoonfuls of sugar. Drain cabbage and pour the hot dressing over it. This should be eaten cold.

Cooked With Vegetables.

Calf's Liver en Casserole.—Take a frying pan and in it slowly fry out four or five slices of fat salt pork until the pork is crisp and brown. Add to the hot fat one dozen balls cut out of potatoes, one dozen balls carrots, one stalk celery, diced; six finely sliced onions. Cook very slowly for ten minutes, by which time they should be a delicate brown. Place in the casserole. Wash and cut a calf's liver in slices, lay on top of the vegetables, sprinkle salt and pepper over all and add a pint of boiling water and one tablespoonful of kitchen bouquet. Cover and cook in a moderate oven about an hour and serve. The cover of the casserole should not be removed after the vegetables are put in until the dish is ready to serve, lest the flavor be lost.

A Delicious Dessert.

Jelly Omelet. Take five eggs, one tablespoonful of butter, one-third cupful of milk, one glass of soft jelly, one level teaspoonful of salt. Separate eggs, beat whites stiff, beat yolks thick, fold in whites lightly. Put butter in frying pan in the stove. When hot mix milk and salt into the egg mix ture and pour into the frying pan, cover and cook slowly until omelet is well puffed and browned. Bake one minute in a hot oven to dry top. Spread jelly over one half, fold, turn on hot platter and serve immediately.

Anna Thompson

He Was Flying Kites In Thunderstorms.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — How to Have A Vacation Every Day.

"OH, daddy, I'm glad vacation time is over!" sighed Jack as he and Evelyn snuggled down in daddy's lap for the evening story.

"Why, Jack?" There was a twinkle in daddy's eyes.

"Oh, 'cause I'm tired of playin' all the time!" said Jack wearily.

"Would you like to hear a story about a man who knew more about the right sort of vacations than almost any other man in the world?"

"Yes, yes!" shouted the kiddies.

"Well, we'll start with this man when he was still a boy and was walking down a street in Philadelphia munching a penny roll. This roll was his dinner, and he was looking for work and had no money to spend at a tavern, as hotels were called in those days, for this time I am telling you about was nearly 200 years ago.

"And he strode along very gayly and treated his hardships as if they were only part of a picnic. He got work after awhile, but when he was doing one thing he was always looking around to find something new to do. So, though he had learned to be a good printer, he wanted to do other things as well. One day he saw a boy flying a kite during a thunderstorm, and pretty soon he was flying kites in thunderstorms and finding out about electricity. His mind, you see, was taking a vacation from the work he usually did.

"Then when he grew older his mind took a vacation, and he invented what is called the bifocal lens. These are spectacles that you can see a long way with and read with too.

"His mind was taking vacations all the time, and one time he started a newspaper, and again he went to Europe to hobnob with kings and queens and tell them all about the great new country, the United States, and he wrote many grand and wise things during some of these vacations that his mind took.

"So you see, sonny and wee daughter, that school is only another kind of a vacation, and that is the reason kiddies are glad to get back to school.

"Benjamin Franklin is the man I am telling you about, and he was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. One of the quaint things that he said will amuse you. When many of the people were afraid to sign the paper which declared that we were free from English rule he said: 'Come, now; come and sign. We must all hang together or we will hang separate.' Then he established a paper which is a well known publication even at the present time, and he did all this during his vacations.

"Well, kiddies, since you have to continue your vacation by going to school tomorrow, daddy will take you up to bed now."

NO HEADACHE OR NEURALGIA PAIN

Get a 10 cent package of Dr. James' Headache Powders and don't suffer.

When your head aches you simply must have relief or you will go wild. It's needless to suffer when you can take a remedy like Dr. James' Headache Powders and relieve the pain and neuralgia at once. Send someone to the drug store now for a dime package of Dr. James' Headache Powders. Don't suffer! In a few moments you will feel fine—headache gone—no more neuralgia pain.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave Plainfield, N. J.

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOMS
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces
KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1984
OPP. DEPOT.

805 North Avenue, Telephone 296-W
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference
6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00 3:50, 5:45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of the Press

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue.
Will be re-opened September 23th.
A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.
MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades.
Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.
General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.
Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

SECRETARIAL
ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At
HERR'S SCHOOL
(Plainfield Business College and School of English)
"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to.
Call, 'Phone or Write
PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal.
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.
m-w-f

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT
SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914.
Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION
GEO. C. M. SMITH
Tenth Season
51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.
9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations, and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JAMES C. HANSEN
DECORATOR
DEALER IN
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, VARNISHES, Etc.
141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J
Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

New Jersey's Greatest Store

Double Surety Coupons With All Purchases Until Noon

Hahne's—The First Store in New Jersey to Adopt Shorter Hours

HAHNE & CO.
NEWARK

Store opens Daily at 9 A. M. Closes Saturday 6 P. M.

Store Closes Saturday at 6!—

These Items for Saturday Selling

A Most Fortunate and Timely Purchase!

Women's $15 Fall Suits at $10

—From one of New York's finest makers comes these suits—brand-new fall suits—in the newest Redingote models. Splendidly made, from fine quality materials—mostly dark suitings. The coat is the new Redingote, with a velvet collar—large revers—and satin lined to the waist line. The skirt is the new two-pieced model—gathered at the waist line. Strictly new tailored suits—in good, wearable styles. Intended to be sold for $15; very special.....$10.00

Misses' $12 to $20 Dresses, $7.98

—Samples from a good maker—one-piece effects—in serges and novelty cloth effects; a wide range of styles and choice combinations. Not "sale" suits—but thoroughly well made and finished—smartly trimmed and mostly one of a kind. Exclusive styles and new fall colorings. Dresses usually sold for $12 to $20; very special at.....$7.98

Splendid Values for Girls 6 to 14 Years

AT 29c—One-piece dresses, of percale and galatea, well made and finished, sizes 6 to 14 years. Worth 50c.

AT 98c—Canvas velour one-piece dresses, plaids in neat effects, exceptionally well made, in styles that appeal to mothers; easily laundered. Sizes 6 to 14 years. Worth $1.25.

AT 2.98—Worsted serge dresses—one-piece models—finished with an embroidered collar and small tie. Sizes 6 to 14 years. Worth $3.50.

AT 4.98—Girls' coats, samples, and mostly one of a kind—in a wide range of fabrice and this season's styles and materials. Sizes mostly 8 and 12 years. Worth up to $10.

Second Floor.

Women's $4.00 Fall Button Shoes, $3.50

—We are showing at this price two very smart models, made with narrow toe shapes, no tips, long vamps, leather French heels and light welted soles. The vamps are of dull gunmetal, with tops of either dark gray or black cloth. Regular values $4.00 tomorrow, at.....$3.50

MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S SHOES $1.50 TO $2.00—
—Of patent leather, gunmetal or vici kid—some with dull leather tops and others cloth tops. Sizes 6 to 8, $1.50; sizes 8½ to 11, $1.75; sizes 11½ to 2.....$2.00

BOYS' SHOES $1.65 AND $2.25—
—Made of metallic calf in the lace style—good fitting and wearing shoes. Sizes 11 to 13½, $1.65; sizes 1 to 5½.....$2.25

Second Floor

$5 Finger Grip Eyeglasses, $1.50

—Eyeglass wearers who are annoyed by ill-fitting nose clips, and who frequently have to remove their glasses, thus causing eyestrain, are advised to see the Hahne Finger Grip, which fits any shaped nose when properly adjusted and gives the greatest amount of comfort to the wearer. They have 10-carat gold-filled mountings and pure white periscopic lenses. Saturday only.....$1.50

Main Floor.

Great Sale of Mended Gloves

Reg. $1, $1.25 & $1.50 Grades 77c

—Gloves in the collection for men, women and children—of mocha, chamois, pique and Prix seam. Some are unlined, others silk lined—some wool lined. They come in tan, gray, brown, black and white and washable chamois—all sizes.

$1.50 House Dresses Special at 98c

—Just the kind of a dress most women prefer for wearing about the house—made of percale, gingham, linene and chambray. High or low neck models, three-quarter length sleeves and full skirts with deep hems.

$3.00 HOUSE DRESSES, $1.98—
—Made of lawn, crepe, seersucker, chambray and gingham, in high or low neck models—with set-in or kimono sleeves and full skirts.

$4.00 HOUSE DRESSES, $2.98—
—Dresses of the better sort, made of fine chambray, with the tunic effect—kimono sleeves, vest effects and button trimmings.

$2.50 LONG CREPE KIMONOS, $1.49—
—In figured and flowered effects, with raglan or set-in sleeves and loose or Empire elastic belted effects. Good full skirts, full length, and in the season's best colorings. Sizes 34 to 44.

$4.00 IMPORTED SILK KIMONOS, $2.98—
—Imported Canton Silk Kimonos in tan, light blue, lavender, brown and other pretty shades—organdie collar and deep organdie cuffs.

Second Floor

98c Infants and Children's Caps Special at 56c

—Most attractive little caps of fine quality messaline and poplin, trimmed with pretty laces, embroideries and ribbon. They are interlined and finished with silk lining. Values up to 98c, very special at.....59c

98c and $1.50 Infants' and Children's Caps, of fine silk and poplin, trimmed with laces and ribbon—interlined and finished with silk; special at.....75c

Children's White Felt Hats, in the "mushroom" style—a most practical little hat and so becoming on either boy or girl; at.....50c

Children's Coats, of good quality corduroy in double breasted models—brown, navy and black; sizes 2 to 6 years, at.....2.98

Children's Coats, in pretty double breasted styles, lined with all wool red flannel—of fine quality chinchilla, in oxford and navy. Sizes 2 to 6 years, at.....5.00

Children's Coats, in all the wanted fabrics, such as plush, velvet, zibeline, corduroy, chinchilla, and broadcloth; priced at.15.00

Second Floor

Hahne's Official Red Cross Station

—This store is the official central station in Newark for receiving contributions for the work abroad. Authorized by the American Red Cross.
—Money is preferred by the Red Cross—the smallest amount—even a penny, nickel or dime—will do its shares.
—$1.00 entitles man or woman to a Red Cross Button, which makes them a member of the American Red Cross. For sale here.
—You can buy a tiny Red Cross flag for 25c—worn by those who sympathize and wish to help the Red Cross.
—Information regarding clothing acceptable will be given at the Booth, Main Floor, at the rear of the store.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

The Universal Film Company's presentation of Annette Kellermann in the remarkable, stupendous and costly film production, "Neptune's Daughter," will be shown for the first time at the Plainfield Theatre September 21, 22 and 23. The story that is acted upon the screen concerns a young mermaid who possesses a charm by which she can change herself from a mermaid into a woman. She tires of her home in the deep sea, and by use of her charm, transforms herself into a beautiful woman. The result is a charming love affair, and her lover proposes. Although she is supremely happy, she remembers her duty to her father, and must return to the sea.

Apropos of "Sari," the Hungarian operetta triumph, there are no pigs in the world more intelligent—or dirtier—than those of Hungary, red, black, or white. The Hungarian pig is a specialty. It is long and lean of body, covered with long, shaggy hair. There is one swinehead for each Hungarian village. Every morning he goes to the village square, accompanied by a boy and two dogs, blows a horn vociferously and waits. Instantly a great squealing and grunting begins and soon from every gate dashes a boisterous pig followed by a group of young. In five minutes every pig in the village stands around the swineherd in grunting expectancy. He leads them to the woods and they follow him placidly out of the town. When evening comes, the swineherd leads his flock back to the village square, blows on his horn, and each pig goes scurrying home; never once do they miss their home and get into a neighbor's house. What have pigs to do with the operetta triumph, "Sari," which Henry W. Savage presents at the Plainfield Theatre on Thursday, September 24? When Count Irini and his tutelary, Cadeau, from Paris, visit the gypsy leader, Pali Racz, in Lorinczfalva, Hungary, they are taken out to be introduced to the pigs. And when Racz goes to Paris he is not remembered by Cadeau until he reminds him of the introduction to the pigs. The episode in the plot is popularly supposed to have been inserted in a purely farcical spirit whereas it is only a humorous application of a bit of Hungarian realism.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.
Building Trades Council.
Vaudeville at Proctor's.
First M. E. Church Brotherhood lecture.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre.
Stuchell meeting at Liberty and Third streets at 8:30.
Chamber of Commerce.
Third Ward Republican Club.

TOMORROW.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Baseball—Plainfield vs. Saurer, at Parker Field.

MONDAY.
Tax Sale Continued.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.

TUESDAY.
Primary Day.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.

WEDNESDAY.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.

THURSDAY.
Consolidation Election in the Borough.
"Sari" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

GERMAN EDITORS IN SESSION.

Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 18—Strong resolutions upholding the Fatherland in the present European conflict and asking for fair treatment at the hands of the American press and public are expected to be adopted by the Western German Editors' Association, which met in annual convention in this city today. The sessions will continue three days and will include addresses by some of the foremost German journalists of the United States.

CONVENTIONS IN ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 18—In Compliance with the new election law in Illinois the several political parties hold their State conventions today to ratify the results of the recent primaries and formulate platforms on which to conduct the fall campaign. The Republicans meet in Peoria, the Democrats in Springfield and the Progressives in Champaign.

FIRST LAND OPENING.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 18—The first land opening under the reclamation extention act, which passed Congress early in August, took place today on the 206,000-acre Trukee-Carson project, near Fallon, Nev. The tract thrown open embraces about 45,000 acres of choice farm land.

Lydia Chapter, No. 41, O. E. S., will hold a social next Wednesday evening at the home of Worthy Patron Guy D. Peck, 32 Craig place, the borough. All members of the chapter and their friends are invited to attend. "Ye olde time" games will feature the evening, while music will be furnished for lovers of dancing.

GIMBEL BROTHERS
Broadway and Thirty-third Street

Why These GIMBEL Blouses Are Second to None—

Styles—are the newest from Paris, and the blouses are reproductions—not mere imitations—of the original French models.

Prices—$2 to $10.75

are nothing less than extraordinary, insomuch as the materials of which the Blouses are made are now costly, due to the fact that they are the fashionable weaves for Autumn.

Blouses of New French-Knot Embroidered Crepe, $2
Tailleur Blouses of Novelty Crepe Voile, $2
Washable Silk Crepe Blouses—white and flesh color—$3.95
Blouses of Net, Braided with Soutache; Lace Sleeves; $6.95
Shadow Lace Blouses, with Basque Girdles of Silk, $6.95 to $10.75
Russian Skirts of White Satin-Finished Crepe, $6.95 Third Floor.
1,000 Lingerie Blouses at $1, instead of $2 Subway Balcony.

Fur Collars Make These Luxuriant Coats at $19.50 to $29.50

Black and Navy Zibeline Coats
With collars of fisher or kitt coney, $19.50.
With collars of civet cat, natural raccoon, genet or skunk opossum, $22.50.

Panne Velvet Wraps, $29.50
In black, American beauty, Dutch blue, brown, gold or wistaria, with high standing collars of skunk-opossum.

A Bernard Model in Corduroy, $29.50
In brown or navy, with large collar of skunk opossum.

Double-faced Chinchilla Coats, $25
Brown or black exteriors, lined with rich plaids—collars of fisher coney, skunk raccoon, kitt coney or black wolf.

Fur-trimmed Broadcloth Coats, $29.50
These coats have cuffs as well as collars of skunk opossum. Black, brown, navy and bottle green.

This is rather early for the presentation of fur-trimmed coats, but we took advantage of the low prices afforded by the early market for furs, for the materials and furs. The coats have been made after the newest models.

Military and Raglan Coats of Smart Plaid and Mixed Fabrics, $15 and $19.50
Third Floor

"Listen! No Use Going Further Than GIMBELS—
Those Boys' $10 to $15 All-Wool, Norfolk Suits at $7.50

Are Wonderful"
That's what the boys say—and they are right.

If saving from $2.50 to $7.50 on each suit is not worth while, then what is? All the suits are from our regular stock, and have sold well at their full prices. In material, style and workmanship they are unusual. Furthermore—

Two Pairs of Trousers Accompany Each Suit
And they are lined throughout and reinforced to give the best service. All serviceable materials, such as soft Scotch mixtures, brown-and-white and gray-and-white checks, and white-striped black fabrics. All sizes.

Fourth Floor

Still Time to Share in This Great Sale in the Subway Store

Women's and Misses' Dresses at $8.50

All the Latest Effects, Including the Basque and Redingote.

The variety is so enormous that no woman who comes tomorrow will be disappointed. The diversity of models is exceptional, and they were made by a leading manufacturer who takes pride in his workmanship.

Serge-and-Satin Combinations
Checks Charmeuses
Crepe Meteors
Crepe de Chines and Satins

All Sizes at $8.50. for Women and Misses

Subway, Balcony

986 Girls' School Dresses at $1 Each

Gingham, Scotch plaids, linene; long waist or basque effect. Sizes 6 to 14 years. Many samples in this lot. Subway, Balcony

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

HOME OUTFITTERS' FURNITURE SALE

BUY NOW AND SAVE MONEY

Everything to Furnish the Home Complete at Saving to You of Almost One-Half

Our enormous stocks enable you to furnish the humblest home or the most elegant mansion with equal ease. Seven immense floors are devoted to home outfitting, and everywhere the sale prices proclaim tremendous savings. You can furnish an entire home now for what it would ordinarily cost you to furnish a couple of rooms. Whether you wish to furnish modestly or with highest grade Grand Rapids Furniture, you may select whatever you want, and

IF YOU DESIRE WE WILL EXTEND CREDIT TO YOU WITHOUT CLUB FEES—WITHOUT INTEREST ADDED—WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGES OF ANY KIND

Millions of satisfied customers and over 50 years of experience are your guarantee that

Everything We Sell Is Durable and Well Made

10% CASH DISCOUNT 10%
On Everything We Sell, Whether Advertised or From Our Massive Stocks

LET US START YOU HOUSEKEEPING

Whether you intend starting with a single room or an entire house, you are sure to find exactly what you want here. Our expert home outfitters will give you every attention, whether your purchase be large or small, and the same liberal treatment which has won for us the gratitude of our hosts of customers will be extended to you, should you desire to buy on credit. Come into our store, get our prices on anything in our tremendous stock and compare them with the prices of any other furniture or department store and convince yourself that

Our Prices Are Always the Lowest

FREE CARFARE
WE REFUND YOUR CARFARE TO YOU AT OUR STORE

WE GIVE FREE LIFE INSURANCE

When you make your purchase you receive a certificate which guarantees that in case of the death of the wage-earner of your family, or should the source of income be stopped by death, we will at once give your family a receipted bill in full of your account. This is the only store that gives this protection.

$6 GAS DOME 3.98

Beautiful, artistic design; bent art glass panels, in either green or amber; heavy beaded fringe; frame or solid brass strongly constructed.

2.98 For $4 Gas Lamp

Very Attractive design; solid brass portable Gas Lamp; choice of amber or green shade, with or without beaded fringe.

America's Greatest Furniture House

Ludwig Baumann & Comp'y

49-51 Market Street, Newark

OPEN SATURDAY EVENING UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK

$1.50 Couch Cover 98c

A splendid selection of newest patterns, Oriental stripes, figures or plain color, with borders and fancy fringe.

1.19 For $2 Wool Blanket

Splendid quality heavy wool blanket, made of fine wool nap, in gray only; choice patterns with attractive borders.

$1.50 High Chair 98c

Strongly constructed, golden oak finish, wood seat, spindle back, with carved top rail. Large tray.

$15 Oak Dresser 9.98

Solid oak, golden finish, large fancy shaped mirror; three deep drawers.

ACCOUNTS OPENED FROM $5 to $5,000 ON SMALL WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS

SMALL ACCOUNTS ESPECIALLY INVITED
You May Open an Account with a Single Sale Article or Any Article in Our Store

$20 Fumed Oak China Closet 14.98

Quartered oak rich fumed finish, highly polished, 4 deep roomy shelves.

10.95 FOR $18 SOLID OAK BUFFET

Solid oak, finished golden, two drawers at top; cupboard centre and long drawer at base.

$40 Mahogany or Solid Oak Davenport Bed 27.49

Choice of mahogany frame, with velour covering or golden oak with imitation leather. Heavy carved frames, strongly constructed. One easy motion changes bed to Davenport or sofa; sanitary construction.

AS A DAVENPORT

AS A BED.

Size of Bed 72x47 Inches

$15 LARGE KITCHEN RANGE

9.98

Extra large kitchen Range, high grade construction.

9.98

Heavy castings, fine baker; an exceptional value at this price.

$15 Morris Chair 9.98

Heavily carved frames, golden finish; claw feet. Best grade imitation leather seat and high back.

$4 Quartered Oak Rocker 2.49

Quartered oak Rocker, golden finish, high banister back, broad arms, saddle seat.

LIBERAL PROTECTIVE CREDIT

WE INVITE COMPARISON

$9 BRASS BED 5.98

2-inch posts, five substantial filler rods in head and foot; perfect lacquer and construction.

$20 Reed Carriage 14.98

Reed roll on body and full roll on hood; corduroy sanitary lining; loose cushions; patent sliding hood.

GENUINE GRAND RAPIDS FURNITURE

INCLUDED IN THIS SALE AT BARGAIN PRICES

Nowhere else in the city will you find such great varieties of this world-renowned furniture. Beautiful Bedroom and Library Suits, handsome Dining Room Suits in every desirable wood. Some plain, others carved. Genuine Leather Upholstering. Buy now and save one-half.

Quartered Oak Wax Finish Dining Room Suit. Reg. price $300 $198.00 consisting of Buffet, China Closet, Serving Table, Extension Table, five side and one arm chair

$30 Phonograph 19.98

Cabinet of selected quartered oak, piano polished; black enameled horn, with gold trimmings. Equipment includes a supply of needles.

$4 White Enamel Bed 2.98

Continuous post White Enamel Bed, five fillers in panel effect, head and foot, all sizes.

German Valley. and Chester

Dr. Harris Day, Harold H. VanAtta, Lloyd B. Tredway and William Woodruff have been elected trustees of the Chester Free Library.

Mrs. John Holthusen, of Chester, has returned from Green Point, N. Y.

William Jackson will move soon from Chester to Albany.

Mrs. Frank Hawkins, of Califon, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Barker, of Chester.

Mrs. Charles S. Swackhamer, of German Valley, is entertaining her sister, Miss Matilda Wilson, of Philadelphia.

High Bridge-Califon.

Rev. Henry P. King, pastor of the Califon Methodist Episcopal church, visited his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Enoch King, at Oradell, Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Saunders, of Newark, is visiting at High Bridge.

Miss Nancy Lance, of High Bridge, is recovering from an illness.

John Brown has resigned his position with the Taylor-Wharton Steel and Iron Company at High Bridge to accept a position with Daniel S. Fritts.

Daughters were recently born to Mr. and Mrs. David C. Apgar and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Laws, of High Bridge.

Mrs. Peter Best, of Annandale, spent part of the week with the family of William Neighbour, at High Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Dufford, of Plainfield, have returned home after having visited at Middle Valley.

Whitehouse

Mrs. John W. VanSyckle, of Westfield, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel VanSyckle, at their home on the Ridge near here.

The celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Methodist church was continued Wednesday night with a love feast, which was presided over by Dr. Richardson Gray, a former pastor. Last evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. Dr. George C. Wilding, of East Orange, gave his lecture, "Riding a Virginia Circuit." This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock there will be a Junior Epworth League rally. The special speaker will be Rev. Dr. C. E. Scudder, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, West New Brighton, S. I., who will give an object lesson talk.

Mrs. Margaret Jelliffe and children, who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Jelliffe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, at Lebanon, returned to their home in Jersey City, yesterday.

Edward Werner, of East Whitehouse, is laying a concrete walk along his property bordering on the macadam road.

About two miles of stone have now been laid on the Whitehouse-New Germantown public road. Every effort is being made to finish this highway before winter.

Mrs. Mary A. Rinehart, who has been spending the summer at Lebanon, returned to Jersey City, yesterday.

The peach season is rapidly drawing to a close in this section. The shipments to the Newark and New York markets are not nearly as large as formerly. The best fruit is now bringing about seventy-five cents a basket in the exchange at Whitehouse Station. Many growers still have quite a crop of the Iron Mountains, a very late variety, still coming on.

Miss Ruth Apgar has returned to New Germantown after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Apgar, near Lebanon.

John Hunt is having a new dwelling for his own use constructed at Lebanon. The foundation is about completed.

Mrs. Jane Swackhamer and family, of Plainfield, who have been spending the summer in East Whitehouse, will return home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Teats, who were married at Peapack recently, expect to make their home in Roseville on their return from their honeymoon trip.

Mrs. Wright has returned to New York after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. John M. Harper, at St. Luke's rectory at Peapack.

Mrs. William Logan, of Peapack, and Mrs. Peter Rood and son, Herbert, of Mendham, are visiting Mrs. Lemuel Crater, near Pottersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Allen have returned to Readington after a visit to relatives at Stockton.

Joseph Taylor and family, of Centreville, who were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. William Mahon, at Roselle Park, are home.

Mrs. William Walton has returned to her home near Lebanon after a visit in Newark and Jersey City.

Miss Melva Rolph, of New Germantown, is home from a visit to Pottersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bischoff have returned to Orange after a visit to the home of Paul Rinehart.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press

—"A want ad task" is half done when your want advertising is well begun!

Fall Styles

Soft and Stiff Hats

Styles to Suit Everybody

$2.00 and $3.00

J. R. Blair
119 PARK AVE.

QUAKER ICE CREAM
"THE BETTER KIND"
40c QUART at store — 50c QUART Delivered
SUNDAY DELIVERY
Orders for Sunday Delivery must be received by twelve o'clock on Saturday.
DELICIOUS "PURE FRUIT" SUNDAES

QUAKER CANDIES
The Real Old-Fashioned CHOCOLATES
Pure and Wholesome
One Grade The Best — One Price 40c lb.
THE QUAKER SHOP
174 E. FRONT ST. Plainfield
Phone 1913-J

UP THE HUDSON TO West Point And off Newburgh
SUNDAY
September 20
Special Excursion
VIA
NEW JERSEY CENTRAL
Connecting at Jersey City With Swift
SANDY HOOK ROUTE FLYER "SANDY HOOK"

ROUND TRIP $1.00 CHILDREN 50cts

Leave
Clinton Ave. 8.45
Grant Ave. 8.47
Plainfield 8.52
Netherwood 8.55
Fanwood 9.03 a. m.

9 8 10 14 16 18

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Construction of School Building.

The Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., will receive sealed bids at the Board room in the High School Building, corner West Ninth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at a meeting to be held on Monday, September 28, 1914, at 8 p. m., for the construction of a school building on Evergreen Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Plans and specifications are now on file at the High School Building, Plainfield, N. J., where they can be seen from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on week days, excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, until the day and hour of opening the bids as above mentioned.

Plans and specifications are also on file at the offices of the Architects, Wilder & White, 50 Church Street, New York City.

Copies of the Plans and Specifications may be obtained from the architects by depositing with the architects a certified check for $25.00, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., which will be returned upon the return of the drawings and specifications.

The work will be let in four contracts: 1. For the general construction. 2. For the heating and ventilating work. 3. For the plumbing work. 4. For the electrical work. And separate bids will be received on each contract.

All bids are to be on forms furnished with the specifications and accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., or a surety bond of a company authorized to do business in the State of New Jersey in the amount of five per cent. of the estimate submitted.

All bids or proposals are to be in writing and sealed, and addressed to the Secretary of the Board. Each bid must state explicitly upon what portion of the work it is based.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce their contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

No bids will be received by the Board previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any or all formalities.

B. VAN D. HEDGES,
Secretary Board of Education.
Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 10, 1914.
9-11 12 14 16 18 21 23 25 28

FLOORS
Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.
GEO. E. WATT
314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

REPAIRING
OF
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry
and everything that can be repaired by a Jeweler done here at short notice, and all work guaranteed.

WE ARE READY TO MEET ANY DEMAND IN DIAMONDS, Watches, Jewelry or Silverware you may desire at prices so moderate that you will find no need to go elsewhere. Come in and let us convince you.

PETER DELGYER The Jeweler
130 PARK AVENUE
Phone 893-J. Near Front Street

Electrical Goods
Complete Lines of
SEMI-INDIRECT LIGHTING FIXTURES,
SHOWERS, ELECTRIC LAMPS,
IRONS, HEATERS, STOVES, AND TOASTERS.
JOSEPH W. GAVETT
318 WEST FRONT STREET

Store Open Saturdays All Day

Kleen Kup

The sanitary vessel for home preserving of Jam, Jelly, Marmalade and Food Products of a similar nature keeps the preserves in a perfect condition, stops light which stops decay. Their value is unequalled. More than 10,000,000 sold in England in 1913. ½-pint size, 25 cents per dozen.

FOR SALE BY
Gayle Hardware Co.
GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS
'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Satisfaction

There is just one and only one human motive that causes men to buy things, and that motive is—satisfaction, contentment in possession, use and enjoyment. This is one of the reasons why this agency is writing such a large volume of insurance.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS
GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield
INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

A. C. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.
SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS
Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped
MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving
159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. — OFFICE — 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally If You Eat Meat Regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

—DON'T MAKE DON'T YOUR CREED. If you have something to sell, some quest to pursue—do these tasks aggressively, through want-advertising!

—Your "furnished rooms to rent" ad will probably afford "opportunity news" to some dissatisfied—yet not over-critical—roomer.

PHONE YOUR ADS

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

OPPOSE PLANS FOR STREET PA... MACADAM PREFERRED

TROPHY NIGHT AT PHONE CLUB

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS A BOON

HUSBAND'S SKILL UNKNOWN TO WIFE

MOTORCYCLISTS ARE POPULAR ENTERTAINERS

BOY STRUCK BY CAR IN PLAINFIELD

FLYNN IS MADE POLICE CAPTAIN

CELEBRATION PLANNED

LEFT ALL TO A FRIEND

ATTENDANCE FIGURES

THE COUNCIL CONFIRMS

1300

ONE CENT A WORD

SCOOP, THE CUB REPORTER — SCOOP THOUGHT SOME WAR ART WAS REQUIRED — BY "HOP"

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5:08, 5:46 (5.52 except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22 (7.26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7.55 except holidays), 7.58, 8.12, 8.29 (except holidays), 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.53, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.25, 2.39, 2.55, 3.12, 3.45, 4.29, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.36, 9.36, 10.36, 11.43 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 8.39, 9.27, 10.21, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.39, 2.55, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.36, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.58, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 8.35, 8.39, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.20, 9.44, 11.27 a. m., 2.09, 3.24, 5.44, (6.29 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, *9.44, 10.57 a. m., 4.58, 5.44, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.57 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.12, (9.29 Red Bank), 11.27 a. m., (12.34 Saturday only), (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sundays—3.41, (7.58 Red Bank only), 8.52 a. m., (9.40 Red Bank only), (2.15 Red Bank only), 3.17, (8.13 Red Bank only), 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m. (12.34 Saturdays only), 2.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m. 2.15 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.38, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43, 11.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—5.19, 8.45, 9.39, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.39, 6.39, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m. 3.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington, Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. *Except Mauch Chunk. 6-4-14

Hoagland's Express
FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

Order Now
SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.
Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.
Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.
Charles L. Stanley
Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Off. 116 P. Telephone Residence 417 W. 3rd St. 2nd St. Percy

H. DeMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
59 Somerset St. 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

FOR SALE OR RENT—Artistic modern home on Rockview avenue, grounds 140x450; brick, slate roof house, 12 rooms, all improvements, kitchen and flower gardens, grape and rustic arbors, small lily pond, large garage and poultry house, shade and fruit trees; easy terms. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; telephone 1515. 9 16 3

HOUSES—Apartment to rent or for sale; farms, factory sites; get my prices before going elsewhere. E. Byers, 148 North avenue, Plainfield; 'phone 333-J.

ROOMS AND BOARD.

FURNISHED room with board 440 West Front street, 'phone 418-M. 9 16 1mo

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

TWO furnished rooms, nicely located, heated. 75 Westervelt avenue. 9 17 3

FURNISHED rooms for light housekeeping, for roomers or boarders; reasonable. 353 East Third street.

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only, we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

PHYSICIAN wants two unfurnished rooms in private house; one on main floor; no meals; must be centrally located. Address Physician, care Press. 9 16 3

HELP WANTED—MALE AND FEMALE.

I HAVE a contract to distribute a million free pkgs. Borax Soap Powder, want reliable men and women to help; $15 weekly. Waverly Brown, 730 N. Franklin, Chicago.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Colored man wishes position as coachman, all around man; 8 years' reference. 617 West Fourth street. 9 17 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Middle-aged man, one who can repair locks. U. B. Crane, 204 Watchung avenue. 9 17 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Position as chambermaid and waitress. Call 446 West Fifth street. 9 17 3

EXPERIENCED laundress wants days' work or washing home. 662 South Second street. 9 16 3

POLISH woman wishes laundry work by day. 619 South Second street. 9 17 3

COLORED woman wishes laundry by day or week, take wash at home. Address Best, 417 Plainfield avenue. 9 16 3

WANTED—By good white laundress, laundry work or cleaning, good references. 1041 South Second street. 9 16 4

TWO girls wish positions together, one as cook, other chambermaid and waitress. 814 Richmond street. 9 18 3

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework, good references. 619 South Second street. 9 18 3

FOR SALE.

GOOD driving horse for sale, or delivery. I. P. Runyon, 212 Park avenue. 9 16 tf

FOUR good working horses for sale cheap. Plainfield Ice Supply Co., 222 Madison avenue. 9 17 tf

YOUNG double yellowhead parrots, guaranteed to talk, $10. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

FOR SALE—Cheap, canopy top and depot carriage, both rubber tire and in excellent condition; also set single, brass mounted harness. 91 Mercer avenue, 'phone 315-R. 9 18 3

FOR SALE—22 ft. by 5 ft. 10 inches sea-going dory, 6-horse power engine, two years old, prime condition for quick sale, $160, exceptional motor boat value. Rowland H. Leveridge, 1112 West Eighth street, Plainfield, N. J.; telephone. 9 18-21

FOR SALE—300 white leghorns. W. F. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue. 9 18 4

YOUNG rabbits and hares. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

S. ANDREASBURG roller canaries, $5. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

JAPANESE nightingale, fine singer, $4. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

SILVER duckwing game bantams, $2 pair. 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

CONCORD grapes 50c basket, no delivery. 1008 Arlington avenue, 'phone 746-W. 9 18 2

ENGLISH thrush, fine plumage, $5. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

DINING-ROOM or lunch counter privilege wanted in hotel, club, cafe or amusement places; exquisite service. L. Haslwanter, 728 West Front street. 9 17 6

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED—Cook (white); bring references to 802 Belvidere avenue. 9 17 3

WANTED—A competent girl to cook and assist with housework and ironing; only those having good references need apply. 672 West Seventh street. 9 17 tf

MILLINERY apprentice wanted. Apply M. C. Ehlen, 148 East Front street. 9 17 3

WANTED—At once, experienced cook, white, wages $40; private family. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 18 2

THREE maids (white) wanted, cook, kitchen maid, laundress. Call tonight between 8 and 10, 202 West Seventh.

WHITE woman as chambermaid and laundress. Mrs. Atterbury, 315 West Seventh. 9 18 2

WANTED—White cook, willing to assist with ironing. Mrs. Hatch, 202 West Eighth street. 9 18 2

STENOGRAPHER— Experienced, accurate and rapid stenographer and typewriter; permanent position; give full particulars and salary wanted; A-1. Box 9, Daily Press. 9 18 2

WANTED—White cook, Protestant, to live in country. Telephone Mrs. H. E. Butler, 1146 Plainfield. 9 18 3

WANTED—White woman for general housework, no washing. Apply 228 East Ninth street. 9 17 tf

WANTED—Competent bookkeeper by the day or evenings. Address Bookkeeper, care of Press. 9 17 2

WANTED—20 experienced cooks, good wages; also chambermaids and waitresses and general houseworkers and nurses for children. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 12 6

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY to laon on mortgage. H. R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; 'phone 1515. 9 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park. 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST, on Monday, September 14, a black leather case with tortoise shell glasses and small glass bottle. Finder please return to 452 West Eighth street. 9 17 2

GOLD watch chain lost on Front street Friday morning. Return to 218 East Front street. 9 18 3

LOST—White maltese terrier dog, answers to name of Lumpy; last seen on Netherwood avenue near Second street; suitable reward to finder. Return to 1111 East Front street. 9 18 2

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $1[illegible] to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

TO LET—Three rooms and bath, improvements. 665 East Sixth St. 9 17 3

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

HOUSE TO LET—Desirable, centrally located house on East Second street. Address Central, care Daily Press. 9 14 6

FOR RENT—Three furnished rooms for light housekeeping, $1.75 per week. 87 Somerset street. 9 18 2

TO RENT—A very pleasant room in a desirable house and location. L. M., care Press. 9 18 6

ATTRACTIVE apartment for rent, third floor three-family house, 812 Leland avenue, Netherwood section; five rooms, all improvements; reasonable rent to adults. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 18 3

FOR RENT—7-room house, all latest improvements, hot water heat, $25; also 7-room house, part improvements, $17. D. F. Dugan, 511 East Seventh street. 9 18 tf

FOR RENT—Barn, suitable for horses and carriages or automobiles, on East Fifth street near Park avenue. Apply Wm. A. Coddington, 212 Park avenue. 9 17 3

TO LET—One-half new semi-detached house, all improvements; Henry place, Netherwood; six rooms and bath; rent low to good tenants. C. M. Church, 710 East Front street. 9 17 6

FOR RENT—Upper apartment, two-family house, six rooms, bath, hot water heat, gas, electricity, private porch, on main trolley near Netherwood depot; $21.50, includes water rent. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 16 3

FOR RENT—Attractive modern six-room house, bath, steam heat, all improvements; Leland avenue near Netherwood depot, $25. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 16 3

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 8 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
200 Baskets
Fancy Alberta Peaches
ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.
ALSO
Fine Bartlett Pears
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.
Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.
Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.
R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Executor, Administrator

Guardian, Trustee

THE WIFE'S WILL

There is a popular delusion to the effect that when a wife dies without having made a will her husband inherits all her property. This delusion has led to many serious complications, some of which are described in our booklet, "The Wife's Will," a copy of which will be sent you on request.

Our Officers can give you valuable assistance in connection with the drawing of your will and we will hold the document in our vaults without charge.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

No man has as much fun at anything
As in conducting a successful business.

It takes good printing—Press printing—and the courageous use of the same—to drive a business and make it grow vigorously.

Study your business carefully and you will discover numerous ways to use good printing to advantage and profit.

If you lack the time or skill to properly prepare your copy, you can always depend on Press Service to perfect the details so that the completed job of printing will possess all the features that invite success.

Press printing—the result of Press service—invariably gets the business and the money.

THE SERVICE SHOP

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
Job Printing Department
105 North Avenue

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WE MUST

permanently please our customers or we could not sell goods on the long terms of credit we offer.

A cash store need give you no redress if their goods turn out wrong—they have your money and they "cannot refund on worn garments."

Our goods, on the other hand, must make good if we are to retain your friendship while your payments are being made.

Think this over!

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS

J. A. LAURIE & CO

304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER

SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING. STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.

Contractor for Sewer Connection
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 500.

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

The policy of this Company is to offer every modern banking facility consistent with conservative management.

Our Board of Directors is representative, composed as it is, of local as well as New York business men, and it is our aim to give local business needs careful consideration.

We suggest an interview.

SERVICE

The State Trust Company

At the sign of the clock CAPITAL $100,000.00 201 Park Ave.

For the College Boy

We suggest these striking new English models, as shown in our famous Slater Morrill and Heywood $5.00 and $6.00 lines.

If you are not already acquainted with the splendid merits of these new Fall lines, we urge you to make their acquaintance this Fall.

They have that classy English custom appearance with its flat toe, flat heel, wide shank and blind eyelets.

Shown in rich dark tan, mahogany and black steel calf.

M. C. Van Arsdale
127 E. Front St.

NOTICE—OUR STORE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, SEPT. 21st, ON ACCOUNT OF HOLIDAY.

Specials for Friday and Saturday at

B. MANN'S GROCERY

120 West Fourth Street. Tel. 409.

Very Best Butter, per lb	36c	Kirkman's Scouring Powder, can	3½c
Best Compound Lard, lb	10c	Swift's Washing Powder, package	2½c
Butterfly Condensed, 3 cans	28c	Lilac Rose Glycerine Soap, 10c cake	8c
Gold Cross or Borden's Evaporated Milk, 3 tall cans	25c	7 5c Rolls Toilet Paper for	25c
Ready Made Soups, all Flavors, 3 cans	25c	4 10c Rolls Best Toilet Paper	25c
Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit, pkg.	11c	10 STAMPS WITH EACH OF THE FOLLOWING:
Puffed Rice, a package	12½c	Large Bag Salt for	10c
Sardines in Mustard; reg. 10c; large can	8c	3 5c boxes Blue Tip Matches	15c
Libby's Genuine Potted Ham, 25c can for	19c	1 pkg. Warner's Macaroni	10c
Hershey's Cocoa, ½-lb can	18c	1 lb box Cobb Brand Soda	10c
Imperial Flour, large bag	79c	1 can Walker's Potash or Lye	10c
Kirkman's Washing Powder, large package	16c	1 large bottle Ammonia	10c

---

CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY

Thirteenth Anniversary Sale

SATURDAY, SEPT. 19 TO SATURDAY, SEPT. 26--ONE WEEK

ROTH & CO.

Complete Sanitary Meat Market

We Inaugurate This Week A Series of Wonderful Birthday Sales

Rib Roast (Blade cut), lb 15c
Anniversary Roast of Beef, lb .....

Chuck Steak, your choice all cuts, lb ....
Oven Roast, lb .....
Tender Pot Roast, lb 16c
Prime Chuck Roast, lb .....

Flank Steak, lb .....
Flank Steak Roast, lb .....
No fat, no bone, all meat;
Choice cut of Round Roast, weighing about 5 lbs; lb .. 18c

RIB ROAST SENSATION

Rib Roast, first, second, third and fourth cuts, lb 18c

Sirloin Steak, any selection, fancy cuts, lb 20c

Porterhouse Steaks, Anniversary price, lb 22c

A Limited Number of Prime Cuts of Best Native Top Sirloin; all cut at one price; come early! lb 22c

ANNIVERSARY ROUND STEAK OFFER
Comes But Once a Year—Take Advantage
Your Choice in cut of Round Steak, lb 22c

Legs of Canada Lamb, lb .....
Hindquarters of Canada Lamb, lb ....
Loins of Lamb, lb .....
Legs of Mutton, lb .....
Hindquarters of Mutton, lb 15½c

Canada Lamb Loin Chops, lb 18c

ANNIVERSARY SALE

Jersey Fresh and Smoked Pork

Small Fresh Cal. Hams, lb .....
New York Shoulders, Fresh, lb 16c
Fresh Cal. Hams for Roasting, lb .....

JERSEY CORN FED Reg. Fresh Hams, lb ..
Jersey Legs of Pork, lb 19c
by half or whole; Anniversary price, lb.

20c lb Links PURE Meat PORK SAUSAGE 20c lb

1,000 lbs Salt Pork, weighing 2½ to 4lbs each; Anniversary price, lb 14c

5,000 lbs Boneless Sugar Cured Fancy Bacon, by strip, lb 19½c

Famous Sugar Cured Bonanza Hams, no bone, lb 21c

Poultry--Anniversary Poultry

SELECTED SPECIALLY FOR OUR ANNIVERSARY

Fresh Killed Fricassee Chickens, lb .....
Boiling Chickens, lb 18c
Chicken for Salad, lb .....

Spring Chickens, about 2 lbs; lb .....
Broilers, lb 20c
Small Roasting Chickens, lb .....

Fresh Killed Jersey Ducks, lb 22c

Anniversary Specials in the Delicatessen Dept.

Fresh Fried Oysters, dozen 25c
Fresh Roasted Spring Chickens, by whole, 50c each; by half, each 25c
ROAST BEEF ROAST PORK
Pan Pork and Beans, each 5c

Cleanser, each 4c
Potato Salad, lb 12c
7 Bars Laundry Soap, ... 25c
Cabbage Salad, lb 10c
Smoked Salmon
Smoked White Fish

Extra Finest Jersey Potatoes, ½ bushel 45c
Red and Yellow Onions, 2 qts... 9c

Extra Fancy Lemons, doz 15c
Sweet California Oranges, doz .. 25c

Fish Department

Best Oysters in town, 25 for 25c
Hard Shell Crabs, dozen 39c
Boiled Schrimp, lb 35c
Little Neck Clams, dozen 8c
Fresh Porgies, lb 5c
Big Fish Reduction Saturday Night

SPECIAL

For Friday and Saturday

2 (reg. 20c) Bottles Catsup 25c
3 (reg. 10c) pkgs. Macaroni or Spaghetti 25c
3 (reg. 10c) cans Campbell's Soups 25c
4 (reg. 10c) pkgs. Square Toilet Paper 25c
7 (reg. 5c) Rolls Toilet Paper .. 25c
1 pkg. Cream of Wheat 13c
3 (reg. 10c) cans Peerless Evaporated Milk 25c
6 (reg. 5c) cans Babbitt's Cleanser 25c
3 (reg. 10c) cans Dutch Cleanser 25c
2 (reg. 10c) cans Dutch Cleanser Lye 15c
1 (reg. 10c) pkg. Cold Starch ... 5c
1 (reg. 10c) pkg. Corn Starch ... 8c
1 (reg. 20c) Glass Jelly 15c
1 (reg. 18c) Curtice Bros. Jam .. 15c
1 (reg. 12c) pkg. Shredded Wheat Biscuit 11c
3 (reg. 10c) pkg. Jello 25c
1 (reg. 30c) pkg. Lipton's Tea .. 25c
6 (reg. 5c) cakes Soap 27c
1 (reg. 35c) Broom 25c
1 (reg. 25c) can Crisco 22c

C. O. SMITH

Cor. 4th and Liberty Sts.
Telephone 1346.

PEACE AND PLENTY

Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.

W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

UPHOLSTERING

WINDOW SHADES
AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff
721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

REAL ESTATE
INSURANCE
MANNING & CURTIS
106 DEPOT PARK

—You may have an immediate task for a want ad—and yet not act wisely in failing to read them day by day.

School Shoes

Special Prices on Boys' and Girls' Shoes

Made With All Leather Counters and Solid Leather Soles

Little Gent's, sizes 9 to 13½, at $1.00
Youths', sizes 1 to 2, at $1.25
Boys, sizes 2½ to 5½, at $1.50
Misses', sizes 11½ to 2, at $1.25
Childs', sizes 8½ to 11, at $1.00
Infants', sizes 5 to 8, at 89c

M. ABRAMS

229-233 West Front St.
SOLE AGENCY WALK-OVER SHOES

COOL ENOUGH NOW

for one of those Fall Overcoats we are proud of at $16.50.

New models of Men's and Boys' Suits are ready now at any price you want to pay.

New style Hats—$1.50, $2.00 and $3.00.

SCHWED BROTHERS
Front St., Opp. Park Ave.
Over 29 Years Right Here.

Our Store Will Be Closed Monday.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

LOCAL NEWS OF INTEREST
will always be found in the classified columns on the page before the last.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight and Sunday, not much change in temperature.
Max., 88; min., 58.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

NEW AVENUE FOR BOY SCOUT WORK

Plainfield Movement the First of Its Kind in the State.

PLAN SCHOOL TROOPS

A Practical Application That Will Co?operate With Board of Education's Efforts to Curb Vice—Troops to Compete in Exhibit.

The most practical application of the Boy Scout movement that has been attempted, so far as known, in this State will be its introduction in the incorrigible and delinquent classes in the Stillman School on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when Commissioner Allen E. Beals, working in co-operation with the teachers of these classes, will address the thirty odd boys in the hope of organizing among them an efficient Boy Scout troop of at least three patrols. This will be the first scourt troop in the local jurisdiction that is not identified with some church organization. It is planned to have as the executive head of this troop one of the men teachers and to have this troop, with its opportunity of putting scout principles and the scout honor system into practice several hours each day during the school year, rise to a leading position among the scout organizations of the city.

Although coming into the scout movement rather late to hope to win the Paul R. Collier championship patrol pennant the teachers of these classes and the scout authorities expect that between now and Saturday, October 17, the date for the third annual demonstration of scoutcraft and the competition for the championship pennant at Parker Field, the new troop will have developed itself to such an extent as to make a determined struggle for the prize.

The field day committee plans a meeting of all the scoutmasters in the city whose troops will participate in the competition next Saturday evening, September 26, at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock, when plans will be worked out for scoring and award. Scoutmasters who plan to have their troops take part in the demonstration will mail to the commissioner, 634 East Second street, data indicating the number of patrols to compete, whether the patrols are of full membership or not and the full names of leaders of patrols competing and their class.

So far as known the competing patrols will be Champion Wolf, Red Cross and Engineering patrols of Troop 5, A. V. Searing, Jr., scoutmaster, in charge; Lion, Tiger and Deer patrols of Troop 7, Joseph A. Garner, scoutmaster; Troops 9 and 10, scoutmasters, Charles R. Bostwick, W. R. Kriney and Russell Doeringer; Stag and Eagle patrols of Troop 11, scoutmasters, E. A. Sprowl and Raymond Manley; Flying Eagle patrol, Troop 12, E. L. Livington, scoutmaster, and probably the troops now forming in the Netherwood Reformed church, of which E. M. Tomlinson is scoutmaster, and the Stillman School troop. One of the novel features that will be on the regular program of the scout open field day will be the model aeroplane races. This was a feature that could not be presented last year owing to the fact that the demonstration was presented in a drenching rain, but weather permitting this year the model aeroplanes built by the boys themselves will be pitted against each other for distance of sustained flight and general construction.

The centipede race is a feature of the exhibition that never before has been presented here. It was a favorite game among the sailors and seamen of old, but it has been modified to apply to Boy Scout work. It is more thrilling than the sack and three-legged race in that it requires considerable practice, wind and rhythm of action. The tilting contest will be another feature in that instead of using tilting poles the boys will be confined to the use of only their hands. Gripping will be barred, and the competitors will be mounted on shoulders of scouts instead of being sustained aloft by barrel heads.

Making fire without matches and the water boiling contest will be events of interest to admirers of the Boy Scouts and the flap-jack cooking will be the cause of considerable merriment. In these events the members of the newest troops could participate with a good chance of excelling.

The exhibition is not to be in any sense a money making venture, according to Commissioner Beals. It is primarily designed to demonstrate to parents of the Boy Scouts the practical side of scoutcraft and to show boys who are not now identified with the scout movement some of the opportunities to develop themselves along lines that may ultimately lead them to their life work. One boy scout, Christian Kroener, Troop 5, first class, has received his certificate from the U. S. Government as a wireless telegraph operator, and another scout has entered a technical college

(Continued on page 2.)

FRANK GAFFNEY DIES IN HIS 69TH YEAR

Father of John A. Gaffney Succumbs to Short Illness at Somerville.

Frank Gaffney, aged 69 years, father of John A. Gaffney, of Sandford avenue, this city, died this morning at his home in Somerville, from complications with which he had been afflicted for a short t ime. During the past week his condition was such that his death was expected at any minute and the family was prepared for the end.

Mr. Gaffney was born in Ireland and at the age of nine years came to this country, locating in Somerville, where he lived for sixty years. He possessed sterling qualities, enjoying the highest respect and esteem of all who knew him.

There survives two sons, Henry J. Gaffney, of Jersey City, and John A. Gaffney, who is employed in the reportorial department of the Courier-News, and four daughters, Mrs. Garrett Hendricks, of Bloomfield; Mrs. George B. Coffey, of Bound Brook; Mrs. George Watson, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Henry Stern, of Somerville, with whom Mr. Gaffney lived at Somerville.

The funeral will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Somerville, and the burial will be in the Union avenue cemetery, Somerville.

LACEY HELD IN HEAVY BAIL ON THEFT CHARGE

John Lacey, of Harmony street, the borough, was arraigned this morning before Justice Thomas Snape on the charge of larceny, it being alleged that he had stolen a horse and rig belonging to his father, James Lacey. When arraigned, Lacey pleaded guilty to the charge, as well as to other minor thefts. It was charged that Lacey had taken the horse and rig to Newark, and was picked up by the police of that city in the act of selling the stolen goods. Chief Weiss, of the borough, visited the State metropolis yesterday afternoon and brought the young man back.

Justice Snape gave the young man a severe lecture and told him that a strong effort would be made to break up the gang with which Lacey had been traveling. Lacey was placed under a bond of $1,000, to be held for the Somerset county Grand Jury.

BOROUGH WOMAN GRANTED TO ASSUME MAIDEN NAME

Mrs. Gertrude N. Allen, of this city, has been granted a final decree of divorce from her husband, Fred G. Allen, of Harrison avenue, North Plainfield.

Under the decree Mrs. Allen is granted the rigat to resume her maiden name, Gertrude Newmiller. Counselor Robert Newton Crane represented Mrs. Allen.

What Judge Isaac P. Runyon Says of Sheriff Wm. H. Wright, Candidate for County Clerk.

September 18th, 1914.

William H. Wright, Esq.,
Elizabeth, N. J.

My dear Mr. Wright:

I wish you success in the ensuing primary election not because of any personal favor you have rendered me but by reason of the businesslike manner in which the Sheriff's office has been conducted.

The first time I met you was as Deputy Sheriff of Union County, and I was so impressed with your prompt, courteous and thorough businesslike methods that when you were a candidate for Sheriff a prominent citizen of Plainfield asked me which of the candidates would fill the office best in my opinion, and I advised him that I believed you would be the one to perform the duties of the office well in every respect, and after more than three years I am more strongly of the opinion than I was at that time.

It has always been a pleasure to have business with your office.

There never was any indication of a feeling that the office was yours and not the peoples and I always found you personally attending to business, and in a businesslike manner.

Respectfully yours,
ISSAC P. RUNYON.

—Paid for by Wm. H. Wright.—Adv.
***

—Some unusual opportunities to secure excellent fruit of all kinds, especially pears, plums and peaches, will be given at Neuman Brothers' market this afternoon. All fruit remaining on hand after 3 p. m. will be sold at specially reduced prices in order to close it out, as none will be carried over Sunday.—Adv. ***

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

COLLECTOR CAUGHT IN A POLICE TRAP

Alleged Fake Agent Apprehended by Chief Kiely in New York City.

In an effort to curb the practice of soliciting subscriptions from Plainfield business men in New York city, for the benefit of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, Chief Kiely, of this city, yesterday afternoon, caused the arrest of a man identifying himself as Patrolman Butler, in the office of former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman. For several days past the police of this city have been receiving queries from various sources concerning the authority vested in a certain collector who has called on about forty Plainfield men who are engaged in business in the metropolis.

It has been customary, it is said, for the man to claim that he was connected with the Plainfield force and was on night duty. He exhibited a list containing the names of prominent Plainfielders and requested subscriptions for the maintenance of the local benevolent association, it is alleged. Several of those approached became suspicious and Chief Kiely concluded that an investigation was necessary inasmuch as he had given permission to no one to carry on this work. Officials of the association, who are members of the local department, were queried, but claimed that they had not suupplied the man with the list of names that he had in his possession and contended that they knew nothing of the collecting scheme. It was alleged that the man's subscription campaign was not on the level and he was arrested pending an investigation. He is at present occupying a cell in New York. Chief Kiely went to that place this morning to endeavor to establish a case against the man.

Prominent Plainfielders approached in New York have given the man amounts varying from one to ten dollars, it is said, and many placed full credit to the man's straightforward story. While it is said that he was authorized by the association to collect subscriptions to cover the cost of certain advertisements in the association's paper to be published in connection with the annual convention at Atlantic City next month, he was given no authority to represent himself as a member of the Plainfield force, however.

Several of the local men gave the collecting agent a check instead of cash, but he accepted this readily and requested that it be made out in the name of the organization. Payment has been stopped in some cases.

CODINGTON'S LETTER WAS IN PRAISE OF SHERIFF

Sheriff William H. Wright called the Press on the telephone this morning, respecting the editorial which appeared in this newspaper last night. The sheriff feels that he was unfavorably criticised for using a letter written by County Attorney William R. Coddington as favoring him (Wright) for county clerk.

When Mr. Codington was seen by a representative of the Press, this morning, he said that Sheriff Wright knew at the time, and for weeks before, that Mr. Codington was in favor of James H. Calvert for clerk, and had endorsed him by signing his petition. Judge Codington also says that his letter to Mr. Wright was a tribute justly due to him as sheriff and that he would have given such a letter to any official meriting the same, irrespective of politics.

In the editorial in question, Mr. Wright was criticised for using a letter endorsing his conduct as sheriff, as a campaign document. Sheriff Wright, this morning said, that Judge Codington had full knowledge of what he intended to do with the letter, and even suggested that he (The Sheriff) get the endorsement in the way in which it was done.

CAMPAIGIN CLOSES.

The Wright-Stuchell primary campaign will be brought to a close at an open-air meeting in Rahway tonight. All Republican candidates for the various nominations are invited to attend, and will be given the privilege to address the gathering should they so desire.

78TH ANNIVERSARY.

The Roycefield Liberty Sunday-school will hold their seventy-eighth anniversary tomorrow at 3 o'clock in the new schoolhouse erected on the old school ground.

Up the Hudson to West Point $1.00.

Special excursion, Sunday, Sept. 20, via New Jersey Central, connecting at Jersey City with swift Sandy Hook Steamer "Sandy Hook" to West Point and off Newburgh. Round trip $1.00, children 50 cents. Leave Plainfield 8:52 a. m. See circulars for other stations. 9 15-17-19 ***

EX-MAYORS ARE HEARD IN DEBATE

Smalley and Saunders Are Central Figures in the Consolidation Issue.

STATISTICS OFFERED

Attack is Made on the Present North Plainfield Administration by Smalley Who Alleges Extravagance—Other Speakers Are Heard.

A decided calm after the storm of the previous night was evident at the second meeting for the consideration of the consolidation question held on Somerset street, last night, the cosmopolitan audience that attended getting a clearer view of the topic that is causing no much discussion in the borough at the present time. Former Mayor William L. Saunders again presided at the gathering and the speakers included former Mayor Newton B. Smalley, William J. Conroy, Jacob Voehl, Mr. Saunders and Captain William C. Smith.

Last night's meeting was given over to a rebuttal of the discussions that arose the previous night and an abundance of statistical evidence was presented by those who mounted the improvised rostrum. Mr. Saunders made a reply to Mr. Smalley's challenge of the previous evening which defied him to answer an article written by Charles W. McCutchen and published in the Plainfield Daily Press last night. The chairman dealt with several of the points brought before the public by the author of the article and presented laws and other substantial evidence to support his contentions. Mr. Saunders, who has been an ardent worker in the consolidation movement for many years, strongly resented several of Mr. McCutchen's claims and made a strong plea for the public' disregard of what he classed as fictitious statements.

Among other things he took exception to Mr. Smalley's statement that Plainfield was an extravagantly governed municipality and to uphold his reply he quoted the financial standings of cities like Montclair, the Oranges, Summit, Westfield and Bound Brook. He gave the debt of each of the places and the tax rate for 1913, the information being based on the Controller's report for 1913. In each instance the debt was larger and the tax rate higher than that of Plainfield or the borough. Mr. Smalley took exception to this contention however, calling attention to the fact that Mr. Saunders' figures showed only the debt and not the expenditures of each place.

In his talk Mr. Smalley claimed that to consolidate with Plainfield would mean the revision of many New Jersey State laws and the drawing up of additional statutes. He classed this as mere folly, declaring that the reason for the present unsettled condition of affairs is that there is already too much government. Mr. Saunders made reply to the latter assertion by stating that a combination of Plainfield and the borough would mean the abolition of one of the governments, thereby concentrating the administration around one set of officials and one set of laws.

Smalley made a direct attack on the present administration in North Plainfield, claiming that it was extravagant. He contrasted conditions as they exist at the present time with those prevalent when he was mayor and gave figures to show the increase in the annual borough budget. Concluding his talk Mr. Smalley said, "I am against consolidation because I don't know what condition we are going to be in after we get it and I am not going to vote for it until I know this fact." He was heartily applauded by the assemblage present, which appeared to be equally divided on the proposition.

William J. Conroy, one of the borough's veteran business men, was a speaker at the meeting last night, and expressed himself as being heartily in accord with the consolidation question. He said that Plainfield progress stood out in great contrast to North Plainfield's inactivity. Mr. Conroy declared that the sentiment to demand annexation before consolidation was putting the cart before the horse and that annexation without consolidation was unnecessary. The speaker claimed that Plainfield's only interest in the borough today was to use the brook that divides the two for a place to dispose of garbage and other refuse and that consolidation would mean that the Queen City would have to take a greater interest in the municipal affairs of North Plainfield. He said that the excuse for two governments was small and just an avenue through which more political jobs are opened.

Jacob Voehl, another old borough resident, also spoke in favor of the proposition.

The meetings will continue tonight and every night prior to the special election next Thursday.

—Every basket of fruit left will be disposed of at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market this afternoon, as we do not care to carry any over Sunday.—Adv. ***

FIGHTING ALONG AISNE IS FIERCER THAN IN ALL PREVIOUS BATTLES; RUSSIAN SUCCESSES CONTINUE

General French's English Army Division Singled Out by Germans for Bitter Attack--Aeroplanes Do Splendid Service--Austrian Cavalry Disappears from Scene of Action in Galicia--Germans Spreading Over 200 Kilometre Line in France--Germans Say Not Over One-Sixth of Louvain Destroyed.

THREE DAY OLD BABY LEFT ON FRONT PORCH

Infant Deposited There by An Unknown Early This Morning Still Alive.

Captain William B. Thompson, of 774 East Second street, reported to the police at 6:30 o'clock this morning, that he had found a colored baby lying on the front porch of his home shortly after 2 o'clock. The attention of the Thompson family was attracted by the infant's cries and investigation found it cuddled in a corner of the porch.

Patrolman McIntyre was assigned to the case and is making efforts to establish the identity of the mother. From appearances the child is about three days old.

CRITICIZED BECAUSE HE HIRED NON-UNION BAND

Frederick G. Thomas, candidate for State Senator on the Democratic ticket in Somerset county, was subjected to severe criticism at the meeting of the Building Trades Council last night for hiring a non-union band for his open air meeting on Thursday night. Joseph H. Neil, of Elizabeth, president of the Painters' State body, as well as candidate for the sheriff's nomination in this county, addressed the meeting.

One of the features of the meeting was the passage of a resolution endorsing the movement for the consolidation of North Plainfield and this city. The resolution was adopted because of the belief that consolidation would be the means of creating a large building boom in both municipalities. The resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The question of establishing fraternal relations with the Chamber of Commerce, under which each of the bodies might send delegates to the meetings of the other, was discussed at length, and was laid over until the session of next week.

SMALL BOYS CHARGED WITH BREAKING HOTEL WINDOWS

Six small boys were rounded up by Patrolman Neylon in the Netherwood section, yesterday afternoon, and were araigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, charged with breaking windows in the Netherwood Hotel.

The youngsters gave the officer a merry chase before being apprehended, but when araigned this morning they were penitent and between tears promised not to repeat the offense. They were given a reprimand and allowed to go with suspended sentences.

CHICKEN THIEVES IN BOROUGH.

Chicken thieves are again doing business in the borough, visiting the coops of Nicholas VanWinkle at an early hour this morning. The entire neighborhood of upper Somerset street is on the outlook for the culprits, and some of the residents are promising a warm reception should they turn up again.

MRS. WIDMAYER'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Victoria A. Widmayer, widow of George F. Widmayer, will be held at the late residence, 341 Watchung avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The burial will be in Metuchen.

London, Sept. 19.—Little information came through today from the great battle raging along the entire front from Noyon to the frontier. Some of the wounded who have reached Paris declare that the fighting was more fierce than on the Marne and said that the casualties on both sides must be heavy.

The English on the Marne appeared to be bearing the brunt of the counter attacks, and are conducting themselves brilliantly.

There was a let up to the artillery fire of the Germans last night while the rain fell in torrents. The trenches are filled with water, diminishing the advantage of the defense works prepared by the Kaiser's troops.

Advices from Paris say that many people who had taken refuge in Bordeaux and other places on the approach of the Germans are returning to Paris, showing a re-establishment of confidence. Some of the newspapers who had established auxiliary offices in Bordeaux are getting ready to print in Paris again. The Daily Mail returned there today. The French government, however, will not return as yet.

A message to the Times from Bordeaux dated Friday, says: "Throughout yesterday the whole front was engaged, the fight again being hottest on the left flank where the turning movement is becoming defined. The enemy made a series of vigorous counter attacks. General French's army has been singled out for the enemy's particular attention, but three attempts to annihilate it have been in vain. While the fighting is hard on the eastern half of their front, the Germans are beating hard on the centre from Rheims to Argonne, and this probably will form the pivot of the battle. The aeroplanes of the allies continue to do splendid service.

A news agency despatch from Petrograd says that the Austrian cavalry has disappeared from the scene of action in Galicia after being severely handled in the first part of the campaign and especially in Galicia.

Messages from Vienna give further accounts of the fortifications erected by the Austrians on an extended new defense, reaching to Cracow. Gen. Bovocerigz will command the right wing with his centre resting at Przemysl. The centre will be commanded by Gen. Von Auffenberg and the left by Gen. Dankl, with the Germans supporting his extreme left.

Copenhagen, Sept. 19 (Central News Cable).—A private despatch from Berlin says that the Germans in France, like the Austrians in Galicia, are spread over a front of almost 200 kilometres. Reports from the West are still very scarce and it is impossible to obtain a complete idea of the entire situation.

The Tageblatt, of Berlin, says that it is evident that the English and French armies have not so far succeeded in their enveloping movement around the German right, while the Germans have made some successful manoeuvres at other points.

Amsterdam, Sept. 19 (Central News Cable).—An official statement given out by the War Office in Berlin says that the German eastern army continues its operations in the district of Suwalki, sections of the army advancing against Osowiej.

The Berlin newspaper Norddeutsche Zeitung contains an article entering into the situation at Louvain, compiled by German government agents sent from Brussels and obviously intended for foreign consumption. It states that only a fifth or a sixth part of the city of Louvain has been destroyed; that public buildings were spared, including the Hotel De Ville, and that the Church of St. Peter has been only slightly damaged. Restoration is quite possible, it alleges, and all objects of value are stated to have been carried to places of safety by the German soldiers. The preservation of the works of art was due to the efforts of Major Von Manteuffel and Col. Beck, who did all that was possible to prevent the fire extending to other buildings.."

A despatch from Vienna says that all the villages in the neighborhood of Prsemyzl have been evacuted by their inhabitants in response to an order by the Austrian military authorities. The villagers are being conveyed to the western districts of Galicia. Entrenchments are being dug around Prsemysl and it is stated that the fortress is supplied with food sufficient to last its garrison of 60,000 men for two years.

Petrograd, Sept. 19 (Central News Cable).—There are now being distributed throughout Galicia copies of a proclamation by the commander in chief of the Russian army promising the people of Austria and Hungary liberty and the realization of their national ideals. The document is printed in nine languages.

Reports of continuous successful fighting with the Austrians along the entire front keep coming in. The rear guard of the enemy is retreating and the skirmishes are attended by daily capures of prisoners, guns and supplies. An attempt of the Austrians to surround part of the Russian force has been defeated. The enemy has again been routed in an effort of the Germans to effect a junction with the already vanquished Austrian forces.

The Evening Vremya says: "At our frontiers we now firmly await the shock of the enemy's attack, as in the first days of the war. The combined forces of the Austrians and Germans have left Kielce and the German troops also have begun to leave Kalish.

London, Sept. 19.—A despatch from Rome says: "Enver Pasha, the Turkish War Minister, is now in Berlin on a secret mission."

A news agency despatch states that a large number of German officers of artillery and engineers have arrived at Constantinople under the leadership of a General. They were disguised en route from Germany.

From what is considered authentic reports, it is learned that the famous Prussian corps, which as well as being the military elite of Germany and have always been the Kaiser's pride, has been completely wiped out in the recent battles of he Muese, Marne and the now raging battle of Aisne.

A war office report says that the Prince of Wales made application to go to the front in the present war, but has been disappointed. Commander General Lord Kitchener informed the Prince that as his military training has not yet been com-

(Continued on page 5.)

Saturday Sales Always Mean Money Saved

IF YOU ARE NOT NOW A CUSTOMER—COME ON SATURDAY—MANY ITEMS ALL THROUGH THE STORE (NOT MENTIONED HERE) THAT ARE UNDER PRICE.

Millinery Department

A Big $1.00 Sale

Our Millinery Department has no formal opening, but for the last three weeks we have been showing latest style Hats. No opening show here, but ready for business for all the time.

Saturday a Big Sale of New Hats at $1.00

Values to $3.00.

These hats are sample hats in trimmed as well as shapes, in silk velvets and German velours; a great bargain; on sale Saturday if the lot lasts so long, at only ..... $1.00 each

IN THE BASEMENT

A Sale of Granite and Galvanized Ware at 10c and 15c

Regular Prices 15c to 29c.

These prices for Saturday only if the lot lasts so long; 500 pieces in big variety of items. Following are only a few of the many:

AT 10 CENTS—Pails, Colanders, Sauce Pans, Preserving Kettles, Coffee and Tea Canisters, Wash Basins, Chambers, etc.

AT 15 CENTS—Galvanized Tubs, 14-quart Pails, Milk Pans, Berlin Kettles, Sauce Pans, Roasting Pans, etc.

WOMEN'S SKIRTS AT $2.00.
Regular Values to $4.
On sale for Saturday only, women's fine wool skirts, in blue and black serges, checks and plaids; Saturday your choice at only $2.00

SWEATERS AT $1.98.
Regular Values to $3.
Lot of men's and women's all wool Sweaters, various colors, and all sizes in the lot; your choice at only ..... $1.98 each

$1.25 SUIT CASES $1.00.
Fine fiber cases, 24-inch size; patent hinge that will not come off; clasps, lock and key, at only $1.00

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S&H Green Trading Stamps

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Again on Saturday, fine silk ribbons; 25c to 39c kinds, at only ..... 19c a yard

Fall Styles Are In

Your Shoes are a most important part of your attire. They must be attractive in appearance, comfortable, correct in style, and made of high grade leather to insure long service and hold their shape; and sell at a moderate price. We have some dandys at—

$3.00 and $3.50

Come in and try them on. We know they will please you.

Boys' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather.

STUART'S SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST.

Girls' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather

Notice to Boys and Girls

There are some of the boys and girls of this city who have not yet started a Bank Account, but would like to.

This may mean YOU—so come in and see our Treasurer and let him tell you what the Plainfield Savings Bank can do for you.

Bring this ad. with you.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD

ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
H. A. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

ARE YOU GOING AWAY?

If you are, get a Tourist Policy and DON'T FRET

The coverage is liberal and the Company's treatment of its policy holders is always satisfactory.

The Little Trunk (or a big one) contains more in value than you probably think. Figure it up.

Baggage insurance in our Companies costs very little for Fire, Transportation, Theft and Navigation risks.

J. C. POPE & COMPANY

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING

113 E. FRONT STREET PLAINFIELD, N. J.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers, of Prospect avenue, entertained Edward Sutton, of Rahway, and George Orr, of Raritan, yesterday.

Miss Christine Maag, of Plainfield, who has been spending about two months in all in the borough as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Augustus F. Sanson, of New Market road, returned to her home today.

Mrs. Clarence DeRoner, of Front street, has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Westfield.

Miss Ella Puschman, of New York, has been making Mrs. Lewis T. Churchill, of Fourth street, a two days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Morse, of New Market road, are entertaining Mrs. Morse's mother, Mrs. Raymond Pittman, of Bayonne.

STYLISH RELIABLE

SR

A LITTLE HISTORY

Some months ago an idea was conceived, which, if put into operation, would mean that men and young men in all walks of life could be dressed as well as the next fellows, and at the same time without spending an enormous price.

The idea took on a practical form and the result was the Rothberg store which opened to the public March 30th, 1912.

Since then hundreds of people have taken advantage of the great VALUES we have offered.

And so from this beginning has been developed an INSTITUTION which has for its object not the making of money ONLY, but giving better values for less money than was ever before attempted in our city.

Our new Fall Suits, Fixings and Top Coats are now ready for your inspection; we are pleased to show you at all times, whether you purchase or not.

Store will be closed Monday and Tuesday on account of holiday.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's.

Real Estate Operator Frank Farrell, who has been ill with rheumatism, is feeling some better. He is now able to leave his bed and come down stairs.

Mrs. Maurice L. Rarick, of New Market road, has returned from a visit with a sister at Red Bank.

Contractor Raymond Whitford has started another bungalow for the Equator Realty Company. The bungalow is being erected on North avenue west of Chestnut street.

The board of trustees of the Free Public Library met in the library rooms last evening.

Harry D. Williams, of Prospect avenue, is entertaining an old friend from Chicago by the name of Clarence Planck. Mr. Planck arrived in the borough today. He will return tomorrow.

Allen Frederick, of Dunellen avenue, spent last evening in Roselle as the guest of an aunt, Mrs. L. Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dusel, of Walnut street, returned last evening from Philadelphia, where they had been since Wednesday. Mr. Dusel was in Philadelphia on business.

Rev. N. J. Sproul, of Newport, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church, was a visitor in the borough last evening. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Travis Sutphen, of South avenue.

Mrs. A. E. Smith, of Front street, has been rather indisposed since Thursday evening as her many friends will regret to hear.

The members of the O. I. C. U. R. M. T. Club and their friends are planning a straw ride to Morristown next month.

COUNCIL TO MEET.

The regular adjourned meeting of the Mayor and Common Council will be held in the borough hall on Tuesday evening.

DEMOCRATIC PREDICTION.

Democratic Committeeman Willard N. Apgar predicts that the local Democratic ticket will win by at least a majority of 35 on Election Day. He says the Progressive organization made a big mistake when they endorsed two Republicans for councilmen. By so doing they have split their party with the result that half the Progressives will vote the Democratic ticket this election or not vote at all.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

The members of the executive committee of the Board of Trade are earnestly requested to bear in mind the regular meeting of their organization which takes place in the borough hall this evening. There will be much business of importance to come up as plans must be made at this time for the fall and winter activities of the parent organization.

W. S. Frederick, of Philadelphia, arrived in the borough last evening for a week-end visit at his home on Dunellen avenue.

The executive committee of the Boy Scout Council met in the borough hall last evening.

A crosswalk is to be laid by the borough on the west side of Lincoln avenue across Third street.

LeRoy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith, of Front street, and John Barnes, of Dunellen avenue, have made arrangements for an automobile trip to Long Branch tomorrow.

Mrs. Mark Hipp, of Front street, is reported as being quite ill.

RAYMOND TYNAN HELD UP.

Raymond Tynan, who works in the Barfuss garage and resides on Washington avenue at the foot of the mountains, says that he was held up about 12 o'clock Thursday night by three men with peaked caps at the bridge over Green Brook. He was riding his wheel home at the time the three accosted him. There are no electric lights near the bridge and there being no moon it was as black as ink there. He did not, therefore, see the three men blockading his passage across the bridge until he got almost on top of them. "Where's Greenbrook road?" one of the three asked. "Is this Washington avenue?" asked another. While the three were asking him these and similar questions they were peering intently at him under the peaks of caps pulled down well over their faces. Tynan says that the three after having a good look at him with nary a word manifested by their actions that he could go. Considerably scared he mounted his wheel and sped back to town. He went to the lunch wagon with the intention of getting someone to return with him, but it was in darkness. He then pedalled along deserted North avenue to Ratti's fruit emporium It was still open and never did the yellow glow of artificial light appear so welcome to him. The mere sight of it steadied his shaken nerves and he decided to restart for home unaccompanied. As he neared the bridge he said his heart started to pitter patter quite rapidly. He peared intently to both sides and ahead as he reached the bridge, but he saw nothing of the three. Intuition seemed to tell him, however, that they were hovering near and he lost no time in leaving the bridge behind. Tynan is now of the opinion that the three were looking for a certain party living near him who, together with another person, beat up a Dunellenite about two months ago.

Mrs. Forman G. Neighbour, of Mountainview Terrace, who has been quite ill for some time, is now able to be up and attend to her household duties. Mrs. Louisa Young, of Newark, who has been staying at the Neighbour home during Mrs. Neighbour's illness, has returned home. Mrs. Young is a sister to Councilman Neighbour.

GAVE PROPERTY LINE.

Borough Engineer Churchill gave the Standard Investment Company the eastern line of their property at 322 North avenue yesterday. This property line runs through the alleyway between the buildings occupied by Marien, the druggist, and the National Beef Company. The property line of the company was found to be about two feet west of the building occupied by the National Beef Company. The Standard people are going to erect a building on their property in this alleyway. C. Lester Rule has been awarded the contract.

MEETING OF MOTHERS.

Secretary E. L. Field, of the Boy Scout Cadet Advisory Board, has called a meeting of the mothers of the cadets on Thursday evening, at his home on Fourth street, to decide what disposition shall be made of the money that is on deposit in the local bank to the credit of the cadets.

Raymond Todd, of Trenton, who has been spending the past week in the borough as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. William T. Piddington, Jr., returned home today.

NEW CARD CLUB.

A new card club has been formed composed of some of the young people of this vicinity. The club was to have held its initial meeting at the home of William T. Piddington, Jr., on Whittier avenue, last evening, but owing to the illness of two members a postponement was decided upon.

ENTERTAINS SWIMMING CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Field, of Fourth street, entertained the members of the Pete Swimming Club, of Bound Brook, at their home on Fourth street, Thursday evening. Thursday evening happened to be the twelfth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Field's marriage. The members of the club found it out and unexpectely surprised Mrs. Field upon their arrival at her home with a shower of linen in honor of the occasion. The entertaining features of the evening were the latest dances; a recitation by Mrs. Edward Walters, of Bound Brook, entitled "Swimming," which created much laughter, and impersonations by Harry White, of Bound Brook. Refreshments were served during the evening. The table was fixed up to represent a canoe. Favors were tiny canoes with paddles. Among those present were Architect and Mrs. Schellinger, of Milburn road, New York; Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Sandford, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cushing, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walters, of Bound Brook; Miss Florence Koehler, of Bound Brook, and Edmund Burke, of Bound Brook, the swimming instructor of the club. The club will take its final dip of the season tomorrow.

Bound Brook.

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Abbie O. G. Brigg were held at her late home in South Bound Brook, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Arthur S. Phelps, of St. Paul's church. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn.

The twenty-seventh anniversary exercises of St. Paul's A. M. E. church, of South Bound Brook, will be observed tomorrow. At the morning service at 10:45 a. m., Mrs. Holt will preach, at 3 p. m. there will be a memorial service, and at 7:45 p. m., Dr. W. M. R. Palmer, the founder of the church, will preach the anniversary sermon.

William Vosseller of this place, attended the reunion of the 15th Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, held at Morristown on Thursday.

Services will be held in the Presbyterian church tomorrow as follows: Sunday-school at 10 a. m., Men's Bible Class at 10:15, morning preaching service at 11 o'clock, sermon by Rev. C. J. Culp, subject, "Jesus at Work;" Christian Endeavor service at 6:45 p. m., Miss Alice Rugen, leader; evening service at 7:30 o'clock, led by Mrs. Abby Snell Burnell, in impersonation of Hindu life.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Wagnor are the parents of a nine-pound boy, born on Thursday.

"Christian Nurture," will be the theme of Rev. Daniel C. Dorchester's sermon tomorrow morning in the Methodist church. At the evening service the theme will be "We Would See Jesus."

Rev. P. C. Bascom, of this place will preach at Mt. Horeb tomorrow morning, at Springdale in the afternoon, and Martinsville in the evening.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The Rev. George H. Houghton Butler will conduct the services in the All Saints' Episcopal church tomorrow, at the following hours: Holy communion at 7:45, Sunday-school at 10, and morning service at 11.

Services at the Baptist church begin at the following hours tomorrow: Bible school at 9:30, morning service at 10:45, and B. Y. P. U. meeting at 7:30. The pastor, the Rev. J. Madison Hare, will be in charge.

Dr. H. K. Carroll will conduct the services in the Methodist church tomorrow at the regular hours: Morning service at 10:45, Sunday-school at 3 o'clock, Epworth League at 7:15, and evening service at 8 o'clock.

Superintendent Sisserson will conduct the regular services in the Willow Grove chapel tomorrow at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Chadwick will have charge of the services in the St. John's (colored) Baptist church tomorrow at the usual hours.

The Borough Council has asked for the following appropriations to be voted for at the coming election: $1,500 for streets, $1,500 for lights, $959 for police, and $950 for general expenses.

Primary election occurs in the township and borough on Tuesday with Excelsior Hall and the Fanwood fire-house as the respective polling places.

The members of the Lend-a-Hand Society, of the Baptist church, held a regular meeting in the church, yesterday afternoon.

Work is progressing rapidly on the macadamizing of Midway avenue from Martine avenue to Russell road. The thoroughfare is closed while the work is being done, which will be for another two weeks.

Nearly all of the local college students have left to take up their studies for the winer and are larger in number than ever before. Gorden Erner has left for Cornell, Edward Hetfield and Clifford Hall for Stevens, the Misses Viola and Emily Garda for Montclair Normal School, George Gifford for Ohio State, and James Kaufman for Amherst. Miss Claire Hall will leave in the course of a week to resume her studies at Mt. Saint Mary College.

Mr. and Mrs. William Terry, of the township, are spending the week-end with relatives in Jersey City.

NEW AVENUE FOR BOY SCOUTS

(Continued from page 1.)

to further perfect himself in the abilities developed partly through activities in the local Boy Scout movement. A nominal admission fee will be chaged adults at the gate to help defray the expenses of the demonstration and boys between the ages of 12 and 15 will be admitted to the paddock free. If there is a surplus it will be divided pro rata among the various troops participating in all the events.

All the members of troops 5, 9, 10 and 11 will meet on Tuesday night at 7:30 at Scout Headquarters to discuss the plans for putting these troops on a self-supporting basis. Eighty scouts in good standing have been called for by the company making the proposition and the scout authorities hope to have this number present at the First Presbyterian chapel on Tuesday evening.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.
Photo-plays at Plainfield Theatre
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Baseball—Plainfield vs. Saurer, at Parker Field.
Photo-plays at Y. M. C. A.
Consolidation Open-air Meeting.

MONDAY.
Tax Sale Continued.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.

TUESDAY.
Primary Day.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.

WEDNESDAY.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.
Boro Parent Teachers' Association.

THURSDAY.
Consolidation Election in the Borough.
"Sari" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (5 colors)—Portraits of 16 European Rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy and Aerial Strength, Populations, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of the Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON
IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY PATTERN OUTFIT
PRESENTED BY
PLAINFIELD PRESS

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring ONE Coupon and 48 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 48 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of town readers will add 5 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

Real Furniture Values

By careful comparison you will find our stock of really desirable Furniture at such savings in prices as many others have this past month. Our sales have been remarkable, considering the general conditions, showing our goods are right and the prices much the lowest.

Furniture for the Dining Room in fine polish finish or rich dull brown fumed oak, all in the new plain designs. Furniture for the Bed Room in the bird's-eye, mahogany, circassian walnut and oak, in all the new fall designs and finishes.

The New Rugs are Beautiful

We bought early and have all the new patterns and are quite different in designs and colorings, also the plain colors.

Lace Curtains, Nets, Portieres and Couch Covers

As usual, this department is full of the attractive draperies for any window or door in the house.

NEW LINOLEUMS, MATTINGS, COMFORTABLES, TRUNKS

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON

BABCOCK BUILDING PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Regular Republican Nominee for Sheriff

S. P. T. WILBUR

No one public improvement adds so much to the value of the real estate, or promotes the growth of Union County, as "Good Roads." Union County is famous throughout the eastern States for its numerous smooth, well graded, macadamized and bituminous roads.

The citizens of Union County are grateful to the Board of Chosen Freeholders for their wise, energetic and painstaking effort in this line of improvement, which has added so much to the County's growth and public benefit.

S. P. T. Wilbur has been a member of the Road Committee for seven (7) years, and is recognized as one of the best posted and active in the State in this line. He is also chairman of the Auditing Committee which brings him in contact with the financial and official affairs of the County. He is now seeking the nomination for Sheriff on the Republican ticket. He has demonstrated that he is worthy of public confidence.

Come out to the Primary and show your appreciation by voting for S. P. T. Wilbur.

—Paid for by S. P. T. Wilbur Campaign Committee.

Voters of Union County

Tuesday, Sept. 22, is Primary Day. It is your opportunity to select the candidate for whom you wish to vote on Election Day. If you voted at the last General Election you are registered for the Primaries. Be sure and vote at the Primaries that you may be registered for the Election.

VOTE FOR John H. Capstick

Regular Republican candidate for Congress of the Fifth District.

You will make no mistake in doing so.

—Paid for by the John H. Capstick Campaign Committee.

VINCENT H. SEILER

Democratic candidate for the Assembly at the Primaries

—Paid for by V. H. Seiler Campaign Committee. 9 19 2

TAKE NOTICE!

We will sell at PUBLIC AUCTION at Hand's Storage Warehouse, 69 Somerset Street, North Plainfield, N. J.,

MONDAY, OCT. 5, 1914, at 2 P. M., all the goods and chattels stored by the undersigned unless the storage is paid in full by that date.

T. H. Karney, Mrs. F. Quidort, W. D. L. Huillier, Mrs. Fred Carter, Miss Carrie Randolph, Mrs. John Reid, Mrs. Carrie Higgins, Wm. McDonough, Nettie VanDoren, Mrs. Garfield Nelson, Stuart M. Ronaldson.

THE HAND STORAGE & EXPRESS Co., Inc.

Dated, Sept. 19, 1914.
9-19-22-26 10-3.

G. G. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius T. Koons, of Truell Court, have returned home after spending the summer at Little Silver.

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

No candidate is approaching the primaries with greater confidence than John H. Capstick, of Montville, Morris county, one of the aspirants in a three-cornered fight for the Republican Congressional nomination. That Mr. Capstick's confidence is not misdirected his supporters assert with unquestionable conviction, and they are able to take up the situation in almost every municipality and advance reasons why their favorite has the rank and file of the party with him.

The Socialist city platform committee met Thursday night at the Socialist headquarters, at Elizabeth, and drew up a platform which in the main is a duplicate of that of 1913. A demand is made for the calling of a charter revision convention, elected on such a basis that all parties shall be represented in proportion to their voting strength; the charter framed by such convention to be submitted to the voters for approval. A demand for municipal ownership also features the platform. In reference to recreation they would have the use of the schools and other public buildings for social gathings, meetings for the discussions of public questions, registration and election and other popular purposes.

County Clerk James C. Calvert will continue meeting voters throughout the county during the rest of the primary campaign, in his fight for the Republican renomination. Mr. Calvert declares that he likes primary campaigning, as it is good practice for the general election contest ahead.

William N. Runyon, of this city, and Arthur N. Pierson, of Westfield, appear to be in the lead for two of the Republican Assembly nominations, at this time. The third man to be chosen, will surely be from Elizabeth, however, as Messrs. Runyon and Pierson are the only aspirants from outside of Elizabeth.

Freeholder S. P. T. Wilbur, one of the six G. O. P. aspirants for the shrievalty, spent Thursday in Elizabeth looking to his fences. He is most optimistic as to the outcome and figures on carrying Plainfield, his home town, by a large majority to offset the vote in any of the places in the county where he may run behind. This latter nents is John H. Cose, also a resident of the Queen City, who is also dent of the Queen City, who is also confident of carrying it.

That John L. Crowell, of Rahway, must be considered a factor in the race for the Democratic nomination for county clerk, is asserted by his friends. They declare that Mr. Crowell has the experience that would make him the party's strongest candidate, and that the dopesters who figure the fight as between Councilman Edward M. Neafsey and Assemblyman William A. Leonard will find themselves dead wrong.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, will preach tomorrow morning on "The Suddenness of It," being a sermon of war times. The Young People's Society will meet at this church tomorrow at 7:30.

Rev. Carl Martin, of Jersey City, will conduct the Swedish Lutheran service at the St. Peter's German Lutheran church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Tomorrow is known throughout the entire African Methodist church as Educational Day. Rev. Collier, of the Mt. Zion church, at the morning service will preach on "Learn to Labor, and Labor to Learn," in consideration of the day. The evening subject will be "The Fifth Commandment."

The Religious Society of Friends expect Sarah B. Flitcraft, of Chester, Pa., to attend the service at the local Meeting House tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The public are cordially invited.

Rev. Richard R. Upjohn, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration of New York city, is to be the preacher at St. Stephen's church, Netherwood, tomorrow at the hour of the morning prayer and sermon.

Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce, of this city, will occupy the pulpit of the Park Avenue Baptist church, both morning and evening.

Rev. Alexander Leonhardi, of the German Lutheran Zion's church, of Rahway, N. J., invites the Germans of Plainfield to services on Sunday September 20, at 11 a. m. They will be of a patriotic nature, and the collection is destined for the succor of German widows and orphans.

O. B. Hill and family, of Mountain avenue, are spending some time at the Ocean View House, Deal Beach.

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

The Universal Film Company's presentation of Annette Kellermann in the remarkable, stupendous and costly film production, "Neptune's Daughter," will be shown for the first time at the Plainfield Theatre, September 21, 22 and 23. The story that is acted upon the screen concerns a young mermaid who possesses a charm by which she can change herself from a mermaid into a woman. She tires of her home in the deep sea, and by use of her charm, transforms herself into a beautiful woman. The result is a charming love affair, and her lover proposes. Although she is supremely happy, she remembers her duty to her father, and must return to the sea.

Don't miss seeing Sari; she's sharp-tongued and wears funny clothes, but she's a dear. She can be seen at the Plainfield Theatre on Thursday night, September 24 when Henry W. Savage's production of the Hungarian operetta, "Sari," the biggest musical hit New York has had since "The Merry Widow," comes to town. She kept New York city in a laughing humor all last season. The music was written by Emmerich Kalman, one of the best of the young Hungarian composers, and has the lively, fiery dance tunes and the joyous, lilting song melodies which are characteristic of Hungarian music. Among the song hits in "Sari" are the duets, "Love Has Wings," "Softly Through the Summer Night" and "Love's Own Sweet Song," "My Faithful Stradivari," "Pick a Husband," "There's No Place Like Home for You," etc. And then there is the newest thing in dances, the wierd, side-splitting "Hazazaa" that makes the tango and the maxixe look like a two spot. It's a corker and no mistake and is Hungarian to the very core. Mr. Savage has supplied the usual excellent Savage singing and dancing and acting cast; the pretty girls, beautiful settings, gorgeous costumes, and efficient orchestra which are always to be found in his productions. The costumes deserve a special word; those worn in the Parisian ball room scene are the very latest word in futurist fancies in women's gowns and are sensational in their designs and combinations of striking colors. They forecast next year's styles.

At the Plainfield Theatre, Friday September 25, A. H. Woods will present Michael Morton's new play, "The Yellow Ticket." As a guaranteed of the unusual excellence of this production, may be mentioned the fact that it was selected to succeed "Within the Law" at the Eltinge Theatre, New York, where it remained for an entire season. Mr. Morton, whose eminence as a playwright in England is equally accorded in this country and who is best known here for his dramatization of Tolstoi's "The Resurrection," has chosen for the theme of "The Wellow Ticket," the conditions which prevail today throughout the kingdom of the Czar and the status of the Jew in modern Russia. The main characters of "The Yellow Ticket" are chosen from official and diplomatic circles and the author wishes it to be made clear that he has not resorted for his drama to Nihilism, bombs nor any of the usual concommitants that go to make up most plays of Russian life. There are three acts, all of which take place in St. Petersburgh. That Manager Wood has actually engaged an all star cast for the production will be seen at a glance for the principal parts will be played by: Warner Oland, Maud Gilbert, Edward Foley, William Macauley, Edwin Maxwell, Louis Hartman, May Ward Holton, and others.

DR. ANNA SHAW TO SPEAK IN PLAINFIELD DECEMBER 7

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association, will speak in Plainfield, Monday, December 7, under the auspices of the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield. Dr. Shaw will address three other meetings in New Jersey as follows: Paterson, December 4; Trenton, December 5. The other meeting will probably be held in Cranford, the date to be announced later.

The New Jersey State Suffrage Association is particularly active this year and has been assured of the united support of the national association in carrying on its aggressive campaign in the State.

PROF. BURGESS TO SPEAK AT BIBLE SCHOOL RALLY

The annual rally day service of the Temple Baptist Bible School will be held at the church, tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. The school is anticipating at this session a climax of all the splendid ones held during the summer months, when so large a proportion of the membership attended very service. A special program has been prepared in which there will be a roll call of the whole school. This will be promotion day also.

Prof. Isaac B. Burgess, general secretary of the New Jersey Sunday-school Association, will be present and make an address. The school feels fortunate in securing this speaker and believes it will be a real treat. Prof. Burgess is widely-known in Sunday-school work. This service at 10:30 o'clock, including the Bible School session, will take the place of the morning church service.

FLOWER MISSION APPEAL.

The Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild makes an appeal for contributions of flowers, fruit, vegetables and delicacies with which to carry on its good work. Anyone wishing to make such contributions can send the same to the W. C. T. U. rooms on Madison avenue, Babcock building, on Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock and Tuesday morning from 9 to 10:30 o'clock.

John W. Carpenter, of Prospect avenue, has returned from a short visit with friends in New York city.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY

FOR SHERIFF JOHN H. COSE

OF PLAINFIELD, REPUBLICAN

A business man—not a politician.

A man of broad views—not a bigot.

A man of wide sympathies—not a self-seeker.

His nomination and election will mean an honest, clean and business-like administration of this most important office.

—Paid for by the John H. Cose Campaign Committee. 9 19 2

Republican Candidate for COUNTY CLERK JAMES C. CALVERT

Mr. Calvert is a candidate at the Republican Primaries on Tuesday, September 22, 1914, to succeed himself. The following well known and distinguished members of the Union County Bar Association endorse Mr. Calvert's administration of the County Clerk's office, all signing his petition for the nomination: Hon. Wm. J. Magie, former Chancellor and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey; Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, former Governor of the State, former Judge and ex-Prosecutor Whittemore, Wm. N. Runyon and William Newcorn; former Judge and ex-Prosecutor C. Addison Swift; Hon. Geo. T. Parrot, Surrogate; Judge Wm. G. DeMeza; Paul Q. Oliver, President of the Union County Bar Association; Edward S. Atwater, Jr., E. D. Mulford, Frank A. English, Wm. F. Groves, G. Bartram Woodruff, George Schmidt, Jr., Richard F. Henry, N. R. Leavitt, Raymond T. Parrot, Robert L. Eaton, Sidney W. Eldridge, Charles L. Morgan, Charles A. Otto, Jr., Otto Froebel, Louis Messing, Jr., Donald H. McLean of Elizabeth; Berkeley C. Austin, of Cranford; Corra N. Williams, Frederick C. Kentz and Schuyler M. Cady, of Summit; David Armstrong, of Rahway; Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., Francis J. Blatz, Robert Newton Crane, Harry C. Runyon, Asa F. Randolph, Vincent W. Nash, Augustus C. Nash, Martin B. Stutsman, W. R. Codington, of Plainfield; Charles N. Codding and Lloyd Thompson, of Westfield and others.

(Paid for by James C. Calvert Campaign Com.) 9 15 3 tuths

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

FRONT STREET

SATURDAY--

Engagement of the Latest Vaudeville Sensation

"Ward 22"

A Rip Roaring Farce

LA SELMA — Most Beautiful Posing Model in Vaudeville

REMEY, FRAZIER & BAKER — Sweet Singers, Ragtime Melody

BARNEY GILMORE — The Favorite Irish Comedian

DORANTO — The Only Chinese Musician in Vaudeville

PHOTOPLAYS CHANGED DAILY

Note—The Million Dollar Mystery has been changed from Thursday to Wednesday. The next episode will be shown Wednesday, September 23rd.

PRICES—Matinee—10c, 15c. Evenings—10c, 15c, 25c.

Plainfield Daily Press

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY.
105 North Avenue.
Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Postoffice as second class mail matter.

LESLIE R. FORT, MANAGING EDITOR.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on application. Copy for change of advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1914.

On Saturdays the editorial columns of the Daily Press are conducted by citizens who are free to express their own viewss. The contributing editor for today is Former Mayor William L. Saunders.

FACTS ABOUT CONSOLIDATION.

The election in the borough next Thursday will be held under Chapter 262, Laws of New Jersey, 1902. This law authorizes the governing body of the City of Plainfield and the governing body of the Borough of North Plainfield to order a special election to determine whether the voters of these two places wish to be united under one municipal government.

The Borough Council has called the election independent of the City Council because the subject has never been agitated in the city, and it is reasonable to say that it will not be agitated there until the borough has expressed a desire to unite. A larger community should not reach out for a smaller one, but the proposal should come from the smaller one, if it is thought best in its interest.

There is no provision in this law for a change in the county line. The law containing that provision was voted down and repealed about twelve years ago. Since then efforts have been made to get such a law, but they have been invariably repulsed by members of the Legislature, who say that they will not agree to any law to change a county line in advance of consolidation. Let your people unite or agree to unite first in one city government and then talk about changing the county line.

On the ballot next Thursday will be found the words FOR and AGAINST. Those who favor consolidation should draw a black pencil mark through the word AGAINST.

If a majority does not favor consolidation it kills the bill If the majority is favorable conditions remain exactly as they are until a special election is held in Plainfield.

It is expected that much difficulty will be experienced in the city as the Council must first call an election and a long campaign must be conducted in an effort to show the people there that it will be to their interest to unite with the borough

Should the city vote AGAINST and the borough vote FOR there will be no consolidation and the bill will be dead.

Should both city and borough vote FOR then another law of the State comes into immediate force. That law is Chapter 83 of the Laws of 1900, which provides the machinery. This law says: "Such city to which such municipality or parts there of shall be annexed shall be liable to pay the bonded and other indebtedness of every municipality so annexed," and it goes on to say: "A committee of three appointed by the Common Council of the city and a committee of three appointed by the Common Council of the other municipality shall proceed to divide between the city and the other municipality all the indebtedness in proportion to the taxable property and ratables. and such apportionment of assets and debts shall be based upon the last abstract of ratables made for the purpose of levying taxes."

This law contains many other qualifications expressed carefully and in detail, such for instance as that "officers shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms" and "the commissioners shall proceed to divide the territory so consolidated into wards in as fair a manner as may be and shall make such division with reference to population and territory."

At first the united city will be governed in two counties, but there will be but one set of officers in everything except the county officers. It may be necessary to pass a law to facilitate government under such a condition, but as there is no community in the State of New Jersey similarly situated no legislators are likely to object because it will not affect them. If, however, it is found difficult or expensive to operate in this way it is the intention of the friends of this movement to secure an annexaton bill, putting the united city in one county. This may be done by forming a new county or in various other ways, but the only hope for the passage of such legislation will be that the two places concerned are already united under one government and that they wish to govern their affairs in the simplest and most economical manner.

The election next Thursday is therefore a proposal to Plainfield; it is the first step in the direction of complete union We must begin somewhere. Why not begin on the lines of least resistance? "If we are to remove mountains we must begin on grains of sand."

Consolidation under the present plan does not mean, as some have supposed, that the borough schools would be separate. They would be united with the Plainfield schools under a single head.

It does not mean, as some have said, that the borough after consolidation would have to pay both Somerset and Union county taxes. The borough would pay only Somerset county taxes.

Among the many advantages of consolidation are the following:

1. As Dr. Carroll has said: "The manifest destiny of these two places is to be under one government." This being generally admitted is it not better to bring it about while we are living?

2. The united city would be only a relatively small community of from twenty-five to thirty thousand people, and the objections raised against political conditions in large cities like New York and Philadelphia, for instance, do not apply.

3. A city of moderate size, where the interest of all the people are mutual in all things, can obviously be governed more economically by a single rather than a double set of officers.

4. The borough is not an independent community. It depends upon the city for nearly everything it gets. It is a part of the city. Anything which hurts the city hurts the borough. Anything which benefits the city should benefit the borough, yet under present conditions, and because of this legal separation, the borough does not get its benefits from the city because:

5. To enable a town to progress and add improvements, such as sewers, lights, streets, etc., it must have a healthy growth; without such growth no place can afford improvements. The borough has no growth, because capital will not invest there so long as it knows that the resources of the borough are at all times being drawn upon by the larger city. It is the concentrated store district which helps more than anything else to keep the tax rate down. In every town this store district is big or little, according to the population of the town. As the town grows in population the stores concentrate, more of them are built, banks and other institutions are established and the territory per square foot becomes more valuable, and being more valuable it is taxed at higher figures and in this way the tax rate is kept from going up while money is spent for improvements. There has been no appreciable increase in the taxable store property on Somerset street for the past ten or fifteen years or longer, because nature is against the building up of the borough as a separate community. The mountains and lowlands block progress north and west, the result being that the borough has been built up on lines parallel with Front street and the dividing brook. The result of this is that people patronize the Plainfield stores because they are nearer. We all work on lines of least resistance. Nobody can be induced through patriotism or civic pride to spend time and money unnecessarily.

6. Property on the whole of Somerset street is taxed at about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. For the same distance on Front street it is taxed at about two millions and a half. This is seventeen times greater, yet the city is only about three times as large as the borough in population. The entire taxable values in Plainfield are six and one-half times those in the borough. In other words, Plainfield is six and one-half times as rich as the borough, yet it is only three times as large in people, and this enrichment of Plainfield is largely due to the contributions which the borough makes in building up its store district. This might be all right if the borough got anything in return, but it gets nothing, for it has no opportunity to make use of this valuable property, which it has helped to make, for its own benefit in holding the tax rate down in order to make improvements. Under consolidation it will have this opportunity, for every property holder in the borough will have his share in the ratables of the united city.

7. Consolidation will lower the tax rate in the borough. This may be readily seen by understanding the previous paragraph. The city tax rate in 1913 was 1.87, the borough rate 2.26. It is reported that the city rate for 1914 will be 1.91 and the borough rate 2.36. The Somerset county rate for 1914 is twenty points higher than the Union county rate, but the total Plainfield city rate, including the county, is for 1914 forty-five points lower than the total borough rate including its county. At these figures after consolidation and without county change the total borough tax rate, even with the higher burden of the Somerset county rate, will be reduced. Conservative estimates put this at ten points lower. As the tax rate is directly dependent upon the value of property in the community, and as the laws of the state, above quoted, require that the properties of the two communities shall be equally divided the borough will have its own property and in addition its share in the enormously larger and richer property in Plainfield.

8. Plainfield is growing rapidly in values of property, while the borough stands still. The figures taken from the tax offices are as follows:

Value of Plainfield taxable property in 1908	$22,706,569
In 1913	27,936,515
North Plainfield, 1908	4,482,700
In 1913	4,344,950

An actual falling off in the borough and an increase of $5,229,946 in the city.

9. The chief burden which the borough has to bear is in keeping up good schools. It should not and cannot neglect its schools. We are proud of them, but they are expensive. There are two items in the school tax. One is the State school, the other is the special or borough school tax. The state school tax in 1908 was .20, in 1914, .26, little or no change.

The borough school tax in 1908 was .48, while in 1914, .82,—almost double in six years. The reason for this is because we are trying to keep our standard up. We must keep up the standard and if we had growth we would keep it up without an increased tax burden.

10. Under consolidation the people in the borough would get the benefit of a strong High School united with its own, with probably a branch in the borough, with better paid teachers.

11. The united city would give the borough a larger and stronger police department, with better paid policemen. It is a fact that the Chief of Police in the borough gets a salary lower than that given a patrolman in the city.

12. In the Tax Department, the Mayor's office, the Street Commissioner, Overseer of the Poor, Health Commissioner, Corporation Counsel, Clerk's Office, etc., one head with proper assistance could do the work, and while salaries might be increased would be less than the cost under present conditions.

13. The united city would probably have more rapid growth, the result of this being that we should have better hotels, better stores, better streets and street railways and more of them.

14. The consolidated city would establish uniform laws for the regulation of saloons and the liquor traffic. It is not true as stated by some that the saloons under consolidation would be under separate control. The government of the united city would control the saloon question, and it is generally admitted that in both city and borough the saloons are orderly and well conducted.

15. Families often move during the school life of their children from city to borough and from borough to city. They may naturally desire to keep their children at the same school until their education has been completed, but they cannot do this under the present divided system except as pay scholars.

16. A single Board of Health can be more efficiently conducted. In the city they have established a bacteriological department, through which any one can at any time have milk examined. This can only be done by borough residents through the State Board at Trenton. Green Brook being the dividing line, with divided responsibilities, is always neglected. It runs an unhealthy stream because of divided responsibilities. The borough's excellent fire department would remain where it is, conducted under a single head, with the prospect of better salaries to the borough firemen.

17. Public improvements, such as sewers, the control of water works, street railways, etc., in which both city and borough are interested, interest and lack of co-operation which always results from dual government.

18. In many minor ways the present division works to the detriment of the borough, as for instance, the hackmen at the station are not under the control of the borough authorities, hence the prices they charge are not limited, and it is frequently the case that they charge people going from the station to points in the borough 50 cents where 25 cents only is charged in the city. The Public Library is free to people in the city and the charge of $2 per head is made to the boroughites. While this is small it means something to those people who ought to use a free library for education and enlightenment.

19. The borough needs to be united with the city in order to help it pay the interest and principle which will be incurred when building a sewerage system. For every one thousand dollars raised by taxes in the borough about 2½ points are added to the tax rate. The interest alone on the cost of a sewerage system will at that rate add more than 20 points to our present already high tax rate.

20. Our esteemed Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., and every or nearly every Mayor who has served in office, and who knows the conditions that exist in the borough, is an advocate of consolidation. This applies also to the councilmen now in office and those who have served in the past.

21. The most self-evident reason of all is what lies before every citizen of the borough. It does not grow, yet its lots and its location are the most desirable of the Plainfields. We have the best gravel soil, rolling and not flat as in the city. Our streets are well curbed and are lined with beautiful trees. We have the mountain view and the cool air through the Notch. These conditions apply to both sides of Somerset street, where the most desirable lots still remain undeveloped. Let any one walk along Front street, beginning north at the borough line and going to its limits south. He will find cross streets running at right angles to Front street, over the brook into the borough. Everywhere these streets are built up until he reaches the borough line, when the buildings thin out and where in many places there are no buildings at all. This is not because the land is any less beautiful. It is really more so. It is not because it is too far away, for this condition begins almost at the dividing line, but it is because we have a divided city with one part of it placed at a disadvantage. People will not invest if they know it in a place where taxes are high and are likely to go higher when they can go only a stone's throw away and have all the advantages which Plainfield gives. There are those in the borough who may not care whether there is any growth or not. They may be rich enough to surround themselves with beautiful lots and they may be willing to pay high taxes so long as they are not disturbed by buildings and other activities. This is a shamefully selfish view, for the borough is incorporated under the laws of the State for the benefit of its people as a whole. It is not a Tuxedo Park.

W. L. SAUNDERS.

Saturday Economy Sale

Regular 25c quality men's fine lisle fancy socks; Saturday, 3 pair 50c

SALE OF REAL CLUNY LACES.
All pure linen, 2 to 5 inches wide; worth up to 35c a yard; Saturday at 15c

Regular $1.25 kind pure Aluminum Cooking Kettles; 6 quart size; Saturday at 95c

Odds and ends of regular 50c grade in men's Shirts and Drawers; Saturday at 25c

A lot of Regular $1.25 quality Boys' heavy grey wool Sweaters; Saturday at 89c

Regular 75c genuine Welsbach Lights; the inverted kind; complete with burner mantle and globe; Saturday at 45c

THE SHOE DEPARTMENT
has a special table of a lot of Pumps, mostly small sizes; values up to $5.00 among them; Saturday at 1.00

THREE CAKES PALM OLIVE SOAP FREE
To induce you to give Palm Olive a trial, we will give you 3 cakes of Palm Olive Soap free of charge upon purchasing a regular bottle of Palm Olive Shampoo at only 39c
95c VALUE FOR 39c.
This offer is good for only a few days. Don't delay.

Regular 12½c a yard fine Dress Ginghams in plaids, checks and stripes; Saturday at 10c

BIG VALUES
in black velvet shapes and ready-to-wear Felt Hats; reg. $2, $3, $4 and $5 grades, Saturday 1.50

$3.98 FOR LADIES' SHOES
That if bought today could not be sold for less than $5.00. In black cloth or kid tops, with or without tips, in all leathers; the last word as to style.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
None of these specials will be charged or sent C. O. D.

Regular $1.50 men's fine percale Shirts, with attached cuffs; Saturday at 79c

FINE LINGERIE WAISTS.
White and fancy in linen voile, batiste, etc.; $2.50 and $3.50 values; Saturday at 1.98

120 dozen strictly first quality genuine Mason Quar Fruit Jars, with porcelain lined tops; Saturday at 59c

Regular 18c a yard heavy all linen brown crash; Saturday at 10c

Bleached Table Damask, 70 inches wide, linen finish; worth 75c a yard; Saturday at... 49c

Regular $6.00 Couches, the adjustable kind that slides, complete with green denim covered mattress; Saturday at 4.69

THE CARPET DEPT. OFFERS FOR SATURDAY
9x12 Wool Art Rugs at $12.98
Seamless Wilton Velvet Rugs, 9x12 .. $22.00

Butterick Patterns and the Delineator for October now on sale.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Our Notion Department is complete with every thing pertaining to dressmaking.

SEPT. 19TH IN HISTORY.

1803—Robert Emmett convicted of high treason (executed next day).

1841—Lord Sydenham, Governor General of Canada, died from lockjaw as a result of a fall from his horse.

1854—British troopship "Charlotte" wrecked in Algoa Bay, with loss of 120 lives.

1891—President Balmaceda of Chili committed suicide in Santiago.

1893—Suffrage given to women in New Zealand.

1901—Funeral of President McKinley at Canton, Ohio.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, Executors of and Trustees under the Will of Hannah Marsh, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Friday the eighteenth day of September next.
Dated August 15th, 1914.

THOMAS T. COLLARD.
GEORGE E. HALL.
BENJAMIN F. JONES, Proctor.
Fees, $4.20. 8-15-5-S

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S
RYE
E. C. WESCOTT.
115 East Front Street.

Bonn's
160 EAST FRONT ST
Autumn Millinery
OPENING DAYS
Next Tuesday and Wednesday

'TIS TRUE that the prices on many of the chemicals and pharmaceutical products have advanced—but not to such an extent to cause any great uneasiness. Fortunately not many of these advanced articles are being prescribed at present. Prescriptions compounded by us produce the best results, as we use only the highest purity chemicals—which cost you no more.

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
The Pharmacy that is ALWAYS in charge of registered druggists.

EARLY SAVING

Yes, it is very important that every boy and girl be taught to save money.

By starting an account with the City National Bank for your son or daughter, you help them acquire the habit of making regular deposits in the bank.

4% Interest paid on Savings Accounts

ORGANIZED 1875.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

GIMBEL BROTHERS

Store Opens 9 A. M. Broadway and Thirty-third Street NEW YORK Closes at 6 P. M.

The Semi-Annual Sale of SILKS

An International Occasion Begins Monday With Great Supplies of Most Fashionable Silks At An Average Third Less Than OLD PRICES

"How is it possible?" you will probably ask. "By early preparation," we reply. Just how early can be seen from the appended quotation of our silk chief's talk to the store's executives, when the actual machinery of the sale was being planned.

To put it in a nut shell, we started early, we bought largely, and with good judgment; and the silks were here, safe in America before the war clouds burst.

We were happy in securing from the great Bon Marche in Paris, and from three other Paris sources, large quantities of the most sumptuous brocade and other rich silks that were produced for this season's business.

They are the silks, specimens of which are now being exhibited in the International Exposition at Lyons, from which the great Paris dressmakers were to catch their inspirations for the season's new costumes. For without these fabrics their great art is of no avail.

Then the war came and seriously interfered with the development of Paris styles for Fall. Meanwhile, WE have the silks. Have American dressmakers the ingenuity, the art, to evolve their own styles from these magnificent weaves? Let us see?

In every way, this latest GIMBEL Silk Sale outranks all that went before. Idle to quote to yardage, or money involved, although in both respects the present sale is our greatest so far.

And All At Low Prices That Will Probably Not Be Duplicated For a Long Time To Come!

Our Silk Chief's Story of the Sale.

"Immediately after one silk sale is over, we begin preparations for the next—six months ahead—by securing the merchandise and making detailed plans.

"This will show in the goods that we shall offer beginning Monday, September 21st. We shall have high class goods valued up to $30 a yard, which we shall offer at $6 a yard. We shall also have imported silks at 50c, valued at $1. We shall have a full range of the newest and best silks at prices between these two figures, 50c to $6.

"One of the special attractions will be among the high class silks, part from the famous Bon Marche of Paris, part from three other celebrated specialty houses in Paris. There is hardly a woman in America, whether she has ever been abroad or not, who has not heard of the Bon Marche, and I bought a remarkably fine lot of silks from this store.

"I also bought silks from manufacturers in Italy, Switzerland and Lyons, especially for this Sale, as well as the silks that can best be procured from American makers. All told, I spent two and a half months in Europe.

"One of the things I did when I was over there was to spend much time at the Lyons International Exhibition. Every silk manufacturer of prominence was represented, and of course the materials they showed were their finest productions. I knew that no matter what might be the ideas of the Paris dressmakers who originate the styles, they would have to use the new fabrics made by the Lyons manufacturers. And as these makers were showing principally silks richly worked with tinsel, I felt quite safe in securing all I could of silks of this kind for our sale. I followed out this plan in all the silks I bought. I found out what was being chiefly shown, and what was in the air as to style. Then I set out to get these very silks at prices that would knock out any competition that we might meet during our sale, and the while season.

"When I got home I immediately went into the American market with the ideas I had gotten in Paris, and had silks made up at special prices while the mills were anxious to get orders to keep their looms busy. Later on, the prices naturally go up.

"Consequently, this season, I think I have the newest collection of silks for sale that we have ever offered so far below their market values.

"To give you an idea, we are going to offer on Monday Brocades in the same quality and designs of which another concern has sent out sample books at prices that are a great deal higher AT WHOLESALE than ours will be AT RETAIL. Furriers and manufacturers can use these books, and come to us for the silks at a reduction of 40 to 50 per cent. from the wholesale prices of the other firm.

"To sum up, we have plenty of silks in black and all colors, in our season's new stock of $350,000 worth. Of these, $136,550 worth will be offered in the sale for $93,200. We have the main aisles on the Main and Second Floors, and plenty of experienced salespeople, and are bound to make this the banner Sale of the Store."

$4 Imported White Dress Satin, $2.95 Yard
$1.25 Imported Crepe Chiffon, 85c Yard
All colors, in a very scarce and desirable fabric.

$2.75 Ivory Dress Satin, $1.85 Yard
From a Swiss town famous for its satins.

$3.50 to $5.50 Novelty Silks, $2.50 Yard
Probably the most wonderful and daring color combinations ever seen in New York; in stripes and plaids.

$1.75 Imported Crepe Georgette, $1.25 Yard
Crinkly crepe finish; all desirable shades.

$5 Imported Chiffon Velvet, $3.95 Yard
From a fine German mill; black and colors.

$3.50 to $5 Imported Corded Silks, $1.85 Yard
Every size and style of cords, from fine to heavy; also double-faced crystal cords—all desirable for capes, coats and military jackets.
Main and Second Floors

$6 to $8 Imported Velvets, $3.95 Yard
Not only is this to be a velvet season, but velvets are very scarce. These are choicest patterns from the best French and German makers, in two-toned and chameleon effects, showing contrasting colors through the pile surface; embossed plushes, Gaupe effects, plaid and striped velvet, as well as all plain colors.

$3.50 Satin Faced Crepe Meteor, $1.95 Yard
Full color range, with plenty of navy blue; also white and black. Lustrous finish.

$3.50 French Dress Satin, $2.50 Yard
Sold for even more than $3.50 right here in New York to-day. All colors, and black.

$2 Crepe de Chine, $1.35 Yard
A reliable quality, in all colors—a large order placed seven months ahead.

$2 Satin Charmeuse, $1.55 Yard
Colors and black; softly draping, with satin lustre.

$1.35 Imported Crepe Velveteen, 95c Yard
23-inch wide; colors, and black.

$3.50 Imported Satin Brocade, $1.95 Yard
Of a famous foreign mill; negotiations begun in April and completed in June. Rich designs for fur and coat lining.

$3 to $5 Printed Crepe and Chiffon, $2.25 Yard
Wonderful French colorings, in dainty as well as strikingly bold designs.

$1.75 Dress Satin, $1.25 Yard
Fine surface, desirable weight; in black, navy, white, and new shades; 35 inches wide.

$4.50 Imported Broche Satin, $2.50 Yard
Specially desirable for use by furriers and dressmakers as linings.

$2 Crepe Meteor, $1.40 Yard
In a rich, dull surface, in desirable colors, black and white. Another silk that is bound to be scarce.

$2.50 Crepe Belfort, $1.75 Yard
This is a Crepe de Chine in irregular weave, which gives charm to the fabric. Good color range.

Black Silks and Velvets

$4 Double Width Dress Silks, $1 Yard
Sounds incredible, yet we have the maker's word that they sell for even more. Rich striped effects on all-silk grounds. Forty-one color combinations.
Main and Subway Store

$1.10 Satin Messaline, 85c Yard
A star offering. 34 and 35-in. wide. Good body, fine finish. In all colors and black.
Main and Subway Store

$1 Imported Plain Chiffon, 50c Yard
Ivory, flesh and black; also newest Paris shades.
Main and Subway Store

$1.50 Crepe de Chine, $1.10 Yard
In wanted street and evening shades.
Subway Store

$4 Imported Black Satin Liege, $2.65 Yard
Although of Swiss make, we were so pleased with this satin when we received it that we named it after that gallant town where at that time the fighting was at its height. Subway Store

$2.50 Black Crepe Lorraine, $1.45 Yard
Enough wool with the silk to give it body without weight. Main and Subway Store

$1.25 Black Satin Duchesse, $1 Yard
Heavy soft Duchesse finish, brilliant black.
Main and Subway Store

$1.35 Black Dress Taffeta, 95c Yard
Serviceable and good looking, good body and handsome finish.
Main and Subway Store

$3.75 Black Suiting Velvet, $2.50 Yard
Main and Subway Store

$1.45 Black Peau de Cygne, $1 Yard
40 inches. Main and Subway Store

$1 Black Satin Messaline, 75c Yard
Subway Store

$1.25 Black Peau de Soie, 85c Yard
Subway Store

$1.25 to $1.75 Wide Black Dress Silks, $1 Yard
A fine group, all wide width, including satins, messalines, armures, etc. Subway Store

NOTE—Every Silk in the above extraordinary list is of wide width, with the exception of the $1.35 Chiffon Velveteen at 95c yard.

The Silks will be on sale on the Main Aisle, Main Floor, Second Floor, and in the Subway Store.

Magnificent Brocades from the Bon Marche, Paris, Regularly $10 to $30 a Yard, at . . . . . $6 Yard

These are the masterpieces of the silk weavers of Lyons, spurred on to extra effort this year because of the presence of the International Exposition in their city; the very fabrics that inspire the famous Paris dressmakers to their proudest flights. Among them are—

Exquisite metal effects on grounds of chiffon, satin, or heavier weaves. Designs woven in gold and silver, in some cases hand-painted.

Velvets in floral and stripe effects.

Printed Velvets, in which the designs show through the nap on the back.

And many others of equal beauty—silks that will hereafter be most difficult to get, as almost all of the skilled weavers are now at the front. All at $6 a yard.

BROADWAY-NEW YORK-33rd STREET

DR. ANDERSON AND J. C. WHITE TO BE SPEAKERS

Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of the First M. E. church, and J. Campbell White, of New Brunswick, will be the speakers at the first fall meeting of the Dutch Arms, men's association, of Trinity Reformed church, Monday evening, at which time there will be an informal dinner served at 7:15 o'clock, following a short business session.

There will be music by the Dutch Arms Band. This meeting will mark the resumption of fall activities on the part of the men of Trinity church and everyone is urged to attend.

WAR NEWS

(Continued from page 1.)

pleted, it is undesirable that he go into active service.

Ostend, Sept. 19.—After a three hours' bombardment at Termonde by a German corps of 40,000 men from Brussels, the Belgians forced them to retire.

Bordeaux, Sept. 19.—Seven thousand prisoners, which were captured in the early fighting in the battle now raging, have arrived here. Most of them are wounded.

Berlin, Sept. 19.—In an official statement issued last night, the German General Staff says that the great battle of the Aaisne is still undecided, but that there are evidences that the allies' defensive is gradually losing its forcefl

It is reported that the Germans are again using their big seige guns and that the advance of the allies has been checked.

WRIGHT AND STUCHELL ADDRESS LARGE CROWD

William H. Wright and Rev. W. T. Stuchell, who is after the Congressional nomination, addressed about 200 voters at West Third and Liberty streets, last night. The candidates will wind up their meeting with a meeting in Rahway tonight.

TWO KINDS OF PUNCHES COST PRISONER $8 FINE

One healthy punch that landed on the jaw of Cormack Muldowney cost William Ferguson $8 when he was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court this morning.

According to his own testimony the accused was intoxicated and followed Muldowney from the barroom of a local hotel into the street, where he directed the punch.

J. J. CARROLL IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF G. O. P. CLUB

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of Third Ward Republicans, last night, when plans for the campaign were discussed and officers were elected. It was decided to enroll every Republican in the ward as a member of the club. There will be a canvass of the ward for voters and the work for primary and election days were discussed. These officers were elected:

President, John J. Carroll; secretary, John J. Osborn; vice-presidents, first district, Dr. H. V. Hubbard; second district, Charles L. Parker; third district, Frank S. Power; fourth district, Michael J. Whelan.

COURT LENIENT WITH MEN LOOKING FOR EMPLOYMENT

Charged by Central Railroad Detectives Laverett and Hiney with trespassing on the company's tracks and riding freight trains, Walter Johnson and Fred Smith, of Philadelphia; William Goff, of this city; Harry Goddon and Morris Welsh, of Jersey City, and Fred Clark, of Detroit, Mich., were arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, and after receiving a reprimand from the court were allowed to go on a suspended sentence.

DR. JOY TELLS OF HIS EXPERIENCES IN EUROPE

Dispensing with the regular business, the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church, at its first fall meeting, last night, listened to an interesting talk by Dr. James R. Joy, who related his experiences while abroad this summer. He was in Europe when war was declared and he had many exciting adventures. The train on which he happened to be traveling on the continent was held up several times and in consequence Dr. Joy's trip was constsantly being delayed.

The speaker related many amusing and pathetic incidents which marked his trip and altogether the informal talk proved to be one of great interest to the large gathering of men of the church.

ACTION IS DEFERRED.

The Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting last evening, at which time the question of consolidating all of the local civic bodies was discussed in an informal way. No definite action was taken, as it was thought wise to let each of the organizations involved take up the question first before anything further is done.

G. O. P. MEETING.

The Fourth Ward Republican Club will hold its last meeting before primary day on Monday evening in the Frost building on Park avenue, when plans for the primaries and the coming election will be discussed. The club has also decided to make a personal canvass of the ward.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

NO ALUM IN ROYAL BAKING POWDER

GIRL WAS ATTACKED.

Mrs. Clark, of Scotch Plains, reported to the police, this morning, that a young Italian girl had been attacked by an unknown man on Terrill road last night. The girl's screams attracted the attention of people living in the immediate vicinity and the man fled.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature from The State State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 68 degrees; 11 a. m., 7 6degrees; 12:30 p. m., 83 degrees.

—If you have a really desirable house or apartment to rent, your "ad" will constitute GOOD NEWS to some anxious people in this city.

B. Altman & Co.

Commencing Monday, September 21st, there will be an Extraordinary Offering of

Over 20,000 Yards of Dress Silks consisting of

All-Silk Crepe Charmeuse and High-Lustre Satin

each 40 inches wide and representing the newest shades for afternoon and evening, as well as white, ivory and black, at the special price of . . . . per yard $1.80

An interesting Sale, to commence Monday, September 21st, will consist of

French Hand-made Lace Curtains, Panels and Bed Sets

all imported this season, in patterns exclusive to B. Altman & Co. and priced at about one-half less than usual.

Marie Antoinette Lace Curtains per pair . . . $3.85, 4.75 to 8.75

Lacet Arabe Lace Curtains, with Marie Antoinette combination, per pair . . $4.75, 6.50 to 16.00

Lacet Arabe Lace Panels, with Marie Antoinette combination, each $6.00, 7.50 & 9.00

Lacet Arabe Bed Spreads, with Marie Antoinette combination, at $9.75, 12.75 to 17.50

Filet Lace Panels, each $9.75, 12.50 to 37.50

Special Sales for Monday only will consist of Women's Glace Kidskin Gloves, Silk Petticoats; Novelty Jewelry and Black Silk Wrist Bags; Imported Prunellas and Poplins, and Men's, Women's and Children's Hosiery.

Fifth Avenue, 34th and 35th Streets, New York.

Store Open Saturdays All Day

Kleen Kup

The sanitary vessel for home preserving of Jam, Jelly, Marmalade and Food Products of a similar nature keeps the preserves in a perfect condition, stops light which stops decay. Their value is unequalled. More than 10,000,000 sold in England in 1913. ½-pint size, 25 cents per dozen.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Canning Made Easy

With our many up-to-date helps in Cooking Utensils.

PRESERVING Kettles, sizes from 4 to 30 quarts, in Enamel and Aluminum Ware.

Jelly Bags, Fruit Funnels, Strainers, Can Rubbers, Household Scales.

TIN TOMATO CANS, Quart size, 60c dozen. Wax Strings and Sealing Wax.

THE ECONOMY GLASS JARS—No rubber rings, easy and simple to seal and open, wide mouth, easy to clean, made of white flint glass; caps are self-sealing, absolutely air-tight.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

COAL

Egg, Stove, Nut

$6.75 Per Ton Pea $5.25

30c discount for Spot Cash

A charge of 25c extra for carrying coal

Try Davidge Fertilizer for Farm and Garden

CONSUMERS COAL CO.

Tel. 66 225 Madison Ave.

w-s-tf

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

Hoagland's Express

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

FINE SCORES MADE BY CLUB PINNERS

K. of C. Bowlers Hit the Wood in Fine Style in Last Night's Play.

The bowling match between Shannon and McInerney, in the Knights of Columbus one man bowling tournament which was held last night, on the club alleys, offered plenty of excitement for the spectators and the scores of all three games were exceedingly close and incidently the high score of the night was made by the former. McInerney took two out of three, but only after his opponent had given him a hard fight in the second, which was lost by five points, the score being 222 to 217. The first was the hottest of the evening and Shannon was forced to extend himself to the limit as his opponent did some fine pinning. When the game was finished the scores stood 247 and 237 in favor of Shannon. McInerney won the deciding roll by a count of 180 to 162.

In the first match of the night, McInerney defeated Moynihan in two games while the latter took the second with fifteen points to spare. In this match the winner made a 215. Shannon and Cannon were next on the bill and the latter took the first and third games. In the last Cannon hit for 226, while his opponent's best was 202.

In the final match Moynihan had no pity on Cannon and easily took all three games. In the second he pinned 243, only four points below the record, but his other two scores were below the two hundred mark.

The scores of last night's play:

McInerney	180	190	215
Moynihan	167	205	161
Shannon	147	202	161
Cannon	166	160	226
McInerney	237	222	180
Shannon	247	217	162
Moynihan	191	243	169
Cannon	133	178	138

THIRD GAME BETWEEN LOCAL AGGREGATION AND SAINTS

The Plainfield A. A. baseball team will meet the St. Joseph's team, at Bound Brook, tomorrow afternoon. The local team lost the last game with this team by a 6 to 5 score after battling for fifteen innings. Manager Oleno has secured a star pitcher from Newark to do the twirling in place of Maiden, and Savidge will play in the outfield. The rest of the team will be the same.

The local manager would like to hear from the Royals at any date that can be agreed upon.

ELECTRIC TEAM SWAMPS RAHWAY COMBINATION

The first of a series of games for the Public Service baseball championship was played at Hilton between nines representing the railway and electric companies, yesterday.

The electric men had an easy time of it, winning a one-sided contest by a score of 16 to 2. The railway's end of the contest was undertaken by the Paterson team, which finished first in the railway league, and their opponents were chosen from the various departments of the electric company. Henderson started to pitch for the trolley men with Nugent catching, and his offerings, coupled with loose fielding on the part of his mates, resulted in the electrics' 3 to 1 lead in the fifth inning, when with two and three men on base the trolley battery gave way to Martin and Walker. The change was not helpful as Martin was hit hard and his support was none too good. Adams pitched a good game for the winners. The teams will meet again next Monday. Score by innings:

		R.	H.	E.
Electric	0 2 0 1 6 0 1 6 0	16	20	1
Railway	0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0	2	3	5

TEN CANDIDATES REPORT FOR INITIAL PRACTICE

The North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team held its first practice yesterday afternoon, in the school yard. The squad was under the supervision of Miss Barnard, the new coach. It was the largest that ever turned out, many candidates answering Captain Marjorie Burtis' call.

The following reported in uniform: The Misses Marjorie Burtis, Bertha Keller, Dorothy Krewson, Lillian Spencer, Lucy Douglas, Elsie Debele, Marguerite Barkalew, Marjorie Chandler, Adelaide Ricketts and Marion Blair. After yesterday's practice Miss Barnard said she had never seen any better plays in all her experience. Practices will be held regularly in the school yard until Saengerbund Hall is engaged by the Board of Education.

RAHWAY PAIR WINS ITS SECOND TITLE

Throckmorton and Dunham Take Westfield Night Tournament.

For the second time this year, Harold Throckmorton and Lindsay Dunham, of Rahway, won the night doubles tennis tournament which has been in progress this week under the auspices of the Westfield Golf Club. This pair played together like a machine and had little trouble in disposing of their opponents.

Several Plainfield teams entered the tourney but Beers and Cochran were the only ones to reach the semi-finals and they were defeated in this round by Throckmorton and Dunham. They were easy prey for their opponents, both sets going to scores of 6-2. The Rahway team was at its best and nothing could have stopped them. In the other semi-final match Hall and Campbell, of the West Side Tennis Club, defeated Gomes and Randall, of the Westfield Golf Club, in the hardest set of the night, the scores being 6-1, 3-6, 6-1.

This put the Rahway and West Side teams in the finals, but the former had little trouble in taking the title with scores of 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. The summaries of last night's play follows: Westfied Doubles tournament, semi-finals, Dunham and Throckmorton defeated Beers and Cochran, 6-2 6-2; Hall and Campbell defeated Gomes and Randall; 6-1, 3-6, 6-1. Final round, Throckmorton and Dunham defeated Hall and Campbell, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

COUNTRY BOYS ON RUTGERS ELEVEN

Seiler and Bracher Among Those Who Will Be Found on the Team.

Ralph Seiler, of Elizabeth, and Elmer Bracher, of Rahway, are making things hum in Neilson Field, New Brunswick, during the practice of the Rutgers College football team. Both of these men are veterans of last year's victorious eleven. Seiler played end and was one of the most consistent players on the team. This season, however, Head Coach George Foster Sanford, former Yale and All-American player, has shifted the Elizabeth boy to quarterback, where he is making a big hit. "Si" played in this position on Battin High School several years ago, and is well qualified for the place. It is very probable that he will start the game as field general in the first contest with Princeton on September 26.

"Toady" Bracher, the diminutive halfback from Rahway, is again in this position on the Rutgers varsity. Last year he was the sensation of the season in the backfield, and from the way he has been going in practice, he seems to have lost none of his speed and skill.

Abe Durst, captain of the Rahway High School team last year, is among the new candidates at Rutgers. Durst is an experienced player and should make a name for himself in college football. He is a lineman and weighs about 180, and will make the veterans of the team hustle to hold their places.

Among the veterans back in harness are Captain Toohey, Talman, All-American guard; Nash, Rockafeller, Todd, Whitpen, Searle, Martin, McClosky, Twing and White. A record corps of coaches, consisting of Sanford, Carl Flanders, Howard Gargan, Jim Vaughn and Bob Loree, are drilling the team in preparation for the Princeton game.

WILLIAMS LOSES TITLE TO CHURCH

Another Great Tennis Surprise Occurred When National Champion Falls.

All tennis dope was upset yesterday afternoon, at Haverford, Pa., when George M. Church, captain of the Princeton tennis team, defeated R. Norris Williams, captain of the Harvard tennis team, and national singles champion, in the final match of the annual intercollegiate tennis tournament. All dope favored Williams because of his performances earlier in the year in the national tourney when he took the title from McLoughlin and also because of the form he has shown in the college tournament during the past week. The scores of yesterday's match were 7-5, 9-7, 4-6, 7-5.

All of the sets that Church won went to deuce but he outplayed his opponent the majority of the time. It was a thrilling battle from start to finish. With the exception of the third set, when he was obviously very tired, Church outplayed and outwitted Williams. He met the national champion's swift cross-court returns with lob after lob, all perfectly executed, the ball landing always within an inch or so of the back line, giving the Princeton captain a chance to get up to the net and "kill" Williams' belated returns.

Last year Church won only two games in his match with Williams and lost the intercollegiate crown he had captured in 1912.

In the semi-final match played Thursday, Williams defeated Ludlow VanDeventer, of this city, in straight sets, the scores being all 6-1. He was then in fine form and played a game that made all the spectators favor him for the title which he then held. VanDeventer worked his way into the semi-final round only to meet this great player.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	77	55	.584
New York	75	59	.560
St. Louis	71	64	.526
Chicago	71	64	.525
Philadelphia	65	71	.478
Pittsburgh	62	72	.463
Brooklyn	60	74	.448
Cincinnati	56	78	.418

Yesterday's Results.
New York, 3; Cincinnati, 2.
Brooklyn, 2; Chicago, 0.
Philadelphia, 6; Pittsburgh, 4.
St. Louis, 1; Boston, 1 (12 in.().

Games Today.
Chicago at New York.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn (2 games).
Pittsburgh at Boston.
St. Louis at Philadelphia (2 games).

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	89	47	.655
Boston	81	53	.605
Detroit	74	64	.536
Washington	70	63	.526
Chicago	64	72	.471
St. Louis	61	74	.452
New York	61	76	.445
Cleveland	43	94	.314

Yesterday's Results.
Chicago, 7; New York, 5.
Detroit, 3; Philadelphia, 2.
Boston, 4; Cleveland, 3.
Washington, 1; St. Louis, 0.

Games Today.
New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at St. Louis.
Boston at Cleveland.

FEDERAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Indianapolis	88	58	.566
Chicago	76	60	.559
Baltimore	71	61	.537
Buffalo	69	63	.523
Brooklyn	67	65	.507
Kansas City	63	71	.470
St. Louis	58	77	.430
Pittsburgh	53	78	.405

Yesterday's Results.
Indianapolis, 5; Brooklyn, 4.
Pittsburgh, 5; Chicago, 3.
Buffalo, 3; St. Louis, 1.
Kansas City, 5; Baltimore, 1.

Games Today.
Kansas City at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Pittsburgh.
Chicago at Baltimore.
Indianapolis at Buffalo.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	88	58	.603
Providence	88	58	.603
Buffalo	85	58	.595
Toronto	70	67	.511
Baltimore	72	69	.511
Newark	64	76	.457
Montreal	57	86	.398
Jersey City	46	98	.319

Yesterday Results.
Newark, 18; Jersey City, 5.
Providence, 11; Baltimore, 3.
Buffalo, 10; Toronto, 6.
Rochester, 5; Montreal, 2.

Games Today.
Newark at Jersey City (2 games).
Baltimore at Providence.
Buffalo at Toronto.
Rochester at Montreal.

Games Tomorrow.
Baltimore at Newark (2 games).
Jersey City at Providence.
Toronto at Montreal.

TIED FOR GONFALON.

The first three teams in the International League race—Rochester, Providence and Buffalo—all won yesterday and are so close together that the pennant winner will not be decided until the last week of the race. The teams are in their final stages, as the season closes a week from tomorrow. Rochester has one game to come with Montreal, three with Buffalo and four with Toronto, and Providence, tied with Rochester for first place, meets Jersey City four times and Baltimore four times. This looks to be an easier route than Rochester has. Buffalo also has another game with Toronto, three with Rochester and four with Montreal, and in addition three postponed games to play.

WORLD'S TRACK RECORD.

Detroit, Sept. 19.—Frank Bogash, Jr., a prohibitive favorite, won the free-for-all pace at the closing State Fair harness races yesterday, and traveled the second heat in 1.59¼, the fastest heat ever paced in an open race.

BOUND BROOK PLAYER GETS BIG LEAGUE TRYOUT

Ralph Shaw, of Bound Brook, reported yesterday to the Jersey City International team for his first big league tryout. Shaw has played against local teams several times while with the Somerset county seaters and was one of the best players.

Manager Hulswitt, of the Jersey City club, was greatly impressed with Shaw when he saw the schoolboy perform on first base.

WITH THE BOXERS

Mike Gibbons and Bill McKinon have been matched to box at Covington, Ky., Sept. 23.

Joe Rivers and Willie Beecher got $1,000 each out of their bout at Vernon on Labor Day.

"Gunboat" Smith has signed for a muss with Al Reich to take place in New York next month.

Joe Phillips, the lightweight champion of Rhode Island, has challenged Matty Baldwin to box for the lightweight title of New England.

MOTORBOAT TITLES.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 19—Beginning today and continuing for one week the waters of Lake Michigan in this vicinity will be the scene of the premier motorboat contests of the year. A program of races will be held to decide the American championship and possession of the Wrigley trophy. More than a score of boats, including the speediest craft from the Atlantic to the Pacific, are gathered here to compete for the honors. This is said to be the largest fleet ever assembled in the Middle West in the last few years, and as a result the honors in the various classes will not be won without some spirited competitions.

EAGLES BOWLING MEETING.

A meeting of the Eagle lodges that are going to take part in the State Bowling League is scheduled for tomorrow at Rahway. At that time all delegates will assemble and final arrangements will be made. The schedule will also be drawn up and prizes decided upon.

SUNDAY GAME.

The Highlanders and Century baseball teams will meet tomorrow afternoon on the Netherwood field.

MOTORCYCLISTS WERE GUESTS OF MR. AND MRS. KENNER

Mr. and Mrs. Kenner, of Somerville, entertained the following club members at their home in that city, last evening, Paul Newman, Warren Groff, Herman Reupert, Herbert Alberts, Miss Ball, Miss Siggins, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hampson and L. Hampson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horner.

Everything was done by the hosts for the entertainment of the club members and when the party broke up in the wee small hours it was voted the best ever. Mr. Kenner has been on the shelf for some time owing to a broken ankle.

COUNTY ENDEAVORERS ENDORSE CANDIDATES

The good citizenship committee, of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union, of which Clarence B. LaRue, of this city, is chairman, has approached all candidates seeking the nomination for either State Senator or as Assemblymen on the question of local option, and as a result have sent the following communication to the various socities:

"The good citizenship committee, of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union, heartily recommend and endorse the following candidates to the friends of local option, as men who believe in the people's rule on the license question: Senate, Carlton B. Pierce, of Cranford; Assembly, Arthur E. Warner, of Elizabeth; William N. Runyon, of Plainfield; Arthur N. Pierson, of Westfield.

"We especially commend the attitude of Arthur E. Warner, who stands for the enforcement or modification of the Sunday laws. Every Christian Endeavor voter should vote for him."

CRITICISE CANDIDATES.

The three-piece boys' drum corps which has been attracting attention throughout Union and Morris counties to the campaigns of Sheriff W. H. Wright and W. T. Stuchell in their fight for the Republican nominations for county clerk and Congress, respectively, has been drawing the attention and the fire of the Union County Labor Union. Both candidates came in for criticism by various delegates at the session. The discussion of the Wright-Stuchell drum corps was the feature of the evening although several other matters of importance were considered.

—is not one of the problems facing you at the present moment a want ad problem?

SOUTH PLAINFIELD GIRL WEDS LOCAL YOUNG MAN

Miss Emma Norway, of South Plainfield, and Harvey Madison Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Houston, of Orchard place, were married, last night. Immeditely after the ceremony the couple held a reception at the home of the bride in South Plainfield.

Both are well known to a large circle of acquaintances both in this city and South Plainfield. Mr. Houston is employed by the Public Service Gas Company as a pipefitter and is one of the best known young men in the employ of the local department. After a short honeymoon trip they will reside in this city.

REAR WHEEL OF WAGON BROKE THROWING DRIVER TO ROADBED

While driving his delivery wagon north on Watchung avenue at noon today, Alfred Keenan, of East Fifth street, attempted to make a sharp turn into East Third street and the rear axle of the vehicle snapped off. He was thrown heavily to the roadbed but escaped serious injury.

The driver was assisted to right the disabled wagon by Patrolman Neylon, who happened on the scene shortly after it occurred. Lack of grease on the axle of the wagon was responsible for the break.

FALL ACTIVITIES RESUMED AT WARREN CHAPEL

Routine business marked the first meeting of the Warren chapel Missionary Society held yesterday afternoon, at which time Mrs. J. O. McKelvey conducted the devotional exercises and presided at the meeting. The next gathering of the organization will be held Thursday, October 2, at which time an all day sewing meeting is to be held with a hot lunch served at noon hour.

Plans were also made to re-organize the Junior Christian Endeavor Society on Tuesday afternoon, October 6, under the direction of Mrs. Louis J. Stites and Mrs. Francis Caldwell. The first "at home" of Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey has been arranged for Thursday, October 22. At the conclusion of the meeting a committee in charge of Mrs. John Higgins served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed. A large number of the members were in attendance.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Raymond Guinn and daughter, Beatrice, have returned home after visiting relatives at Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Leivers, of Belmont avenue, are the parents of a girl.

Miss Lottie Dentz, of Mountain avenue, is visiting Mrs. William Freiday, of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew VanDerbeek, of Verdon street, have returned from Manasquan, where they have been spending their vacation.

Miss Bessie Conroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Conroy, of Fairview avenue, is visiting her parents for a short time. She has been at Saranac Lake for the past two years for her health and is greatly improved.

Miss Dorothy Randall, formerly of this city, is visiting friends here for a short time.

Mrs. William Meyers, of Watchung avenue, has returned home after spending her vacation at Pennsquid Point, Me.

Mrs. E. M. VanBuren, of Central avenue, has returned home after the summer spent at Avon-by-the-Sea.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Communion will be observed at the hour of the morning service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow. There will be no afternoon service tomorrow, these services being resumed October 4, when there will be a musical.

John Blower will be the speaker at the Rescue Mission tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. There will be special singing.

Rev. D. Y. Campbell, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, has announced his sermon subjects for tomorrow as follows: Morning, "The Greatest Advice;" evening, "The Fruithful Church."

Royal Filmore, of Kansas City, is to conduct the service of Unity (New Thought) church tomorrow morning, having for his subject, "Prayer." Mr. Filmore is to leave for his home after conducting the service of a week from tomorrow.

BOROUGH COURT NOTE.

David Green, of South Second street, this city, was arraigned before Recorder Fred Hand on the charge of being helplessly drunk. A fine of $5 was imposed.

At Westfield, N. J., little has the Daily Press on pale each day.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Plainfield People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood.
They work night and day.
Will kidneys remove impurities.
Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply.
No kidney ill should be neglected.
There is possible danger in delay.
If you have backache or urinary troubles.
If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out,
Begin treating your kidneys at once;
Use a proven kidney remedy.
None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.
Recommended by thousands.
Proved by Plainfield testimony.

Mrs. Patience Manchester, 120 Lafayette place, Plainfield, N. J., says: "For a long time I doctored and tried various remedies for my kidneys, but didn't get a cure. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me good results from the first and before long rid me of the trouble. I still use this remedy occasionally and it always relieves me of serious trouble. I willingly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Manchester had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N.Y.—Adv.

LOCAL THIEF SENTENCED TO STATE REFORMATORY

Elizabeth, Sept. 19.—Louis Hargreave, who pleaded guilty to the theft of $100 cash and $140 in jewelry from the home of Fred Van Zandt in Plainfield, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, last week, was sentenced by Judge Connolly yesterday, to the State Reformatory at Rahway.

Augustus Jenkins, colored, of Westfield, entered a not guilty plea to the charge of stealing a watch worth $5 and will be tried Friday.

MISS GERTRUDE MONTROSS TENDERED KITCHEN SURPRISE

A kitchen shower was tendered to Miss Gertrude Montross, last night, by the Girls' Club of the Temple Baptist church, at the home of Mrs. Robinson, of Front street, Scotch Plains. Miss Montross is to be married to Peter Rose, of the borough, in October.

Among those present were the Misses Edna and Verna Stewart, Bessie Carson, Edna E. Smith, Anna Heild, Lucy Johnson, Meriam Smith, Christina Vestergard, Miss Curtis, Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Edwrad Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Chris Utzinger and Mr. Curtis.

JESSE S. BUSH.

Jesse S. Bush, a well known resident of this city, died this morning at Muhlenberg Hospital at the age of seventy years. Mr. Bush had been an inmate of the local Industrial Home for some time, and has a wide circle of friends. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

Mrs. T. C. Bodine, of East Second street, will lead the W. C. T. U. meeting, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the rooms on Madison avenue.

ADVERTISED MAIL MATTER

A. E. Hoagland, P. M.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 14, 1914.

Men—Mr F F Adams, Mr G G Abentley, Mr Barse, Mr Barnham, Mr Otto Burgaller, Mr J P Caudisky, Mr John Flavel Fisk, Pasten Harrion, Mr W S Hall, Master Edgar Johnston, Mr Johnson Geo Lambert, Mr Hubert Lerch, Mr Landsberry, Tulius Lange, Mr William E Magus, Mr O'Neil, Mr Fred Pettengill, Mr Richard L Russell, Mr R C Skinner, Raymond Terry, Mr Archer Teney, Mr Gaklat Vala, Frank S Weber, Rev Geo A Warner, Mr J N Whitten.

Women—Miss W Berkham, Mrs Carrie Davis, Miss Stella Frazier, Miss K W Field, Mrs L M Fink, Miss Martha Guess, Mrs A W Gleason, Miss Lena Jones, Miss Mary E Jenkins, Miss Ada Noble, Miss Beatrice O'Donnell, Mrs Osman, Mrs M Seilitz Peterson, Mrs G Perry, Mrs J W Reinhart, Mrs W E Reeve, Mrs W Radford, Miss C Richards, Mrs Gussie Roll, Mrs I Sivard, Mrs A Tregan, Miss Rose Wilson.

"Please say advertised.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30, *11:15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon. 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon. 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 6:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m. 5:00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 2:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 3:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:50 7:30, *11:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 8:15 a. m., bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

L. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49.

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES
AT
Leo Zeisel's
222 WEST FRONT STREET.
Next to Pfeifer's.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

News of Interest in Building World

PAST MONTH GOOD FOR BUILDING TRADES

New and Old Work Bring Total Expenditure up to $122,238.

Local conditions in the building lines still show promise, although but three permits have been issued by Inspector T. O. Doane, these permits calling for the expenditure of but $3,338. This amount brings the total of the month up to this time to $122,238, which is larger by far than the entire amount of any previous month this year, and a considerable over September of last year. With a week and a half to go, this month may prove to be one long to be remembered in local building circles.

From reports received from other cities of the State, it is to be judged that Plainfield is more than holding its own in construction activities, doing far better than the majority of the municipalities in North Jersey. Taken the season which is now on the wane as a whole, local contractors as well as the craftsmen feel that this city has done remarkable well, considering the conditions of the industrial shops as felt in local manufacturing plants. The permits as granted during the past week are as noted below:

Andrew Olsen is to erect a one and half story frame dwelling of a bungalow type at 5 Park place, just off of Park Terrace. Mr. Olsen has recently purchased the plot and is building the structure for his own use. The building, which is being erected at a cost of $3,000, will have a frontage of 24 feet, with a depth of 40 feet. The base course and foundation will be of concrete, with a superstructure of hemlock and a shingled roof. A modern steam heating system is to be installed. The contractors have not been named.

A. P. Atwood is to alter the residence at 816 First place, making an extension from the second floor in the rear. The improvements will be 16 by 14 feet, and will cost $315. Charles L. Force has the contract.

A. A. Vanderveer is to install a tank for the storage of volatile liquid at 642-646 Sheridan avenue at a cost of $23.

DECREASE IN BUILDING REPORTED IN MANY CITIES

Building operations throughout the country during the month of August show a decrease of 5.0 per cent., according to reports of eighty of the principal cities of the nation. A few of the cities showed encouraging reports and gains, including Greater New York, but these gains were not sufficient to show a net gain for the whole.

Reports from several parts of this State for the month show increases over the same month of a year ago, the notable increases being a gain of 88.2 in Jersey City, and a gain of 76.2 in Newark. Trenton, however, appears to have experienced a decrease during the month of August. Contractors of all sections of the country who look to the metropolis for the signs of the times, are hopeful for better times.

DUNELLEN CONTINUES ITS REALTY BOOM

More Than One Hundred Lots Have Been Sold This Season.

Dunellen still continues to enjoy the building and real estate boom that has marked the past season at that place. Realty activities has developed greatly as the season progressed, during which the S. P. Q. R. Company have sold 125 lots of twenty-five and forty foot fronts in their new residential park south of the Central tracks.

We hear of numerous inquiries for store property in the business section of this borough and if all is true, that is rumored, the business enterprises here will be more numerous by the coming spring, than they are at present. This is an excellent sign of the times and in keeping with Dunellen's reputation as a growing town.

A new store is to be erected at once, on the land of the Standard Investment Company, in the twelve-foot alleyway between the stores of John Marien, the druggist, and the butcher shop next door. The contract for putting up the building has been awarded to Contractor C. Lester Rule, of New Market.

The house on Columbia street recently completed by Contractor Samuel Titus, for Charles Smith, is now occupied by the owner, his household effects having been moved there the latter part of last week from his former home on Front street.

The Dunellen Home and Investment Company has sold three lots on Washington avenue to Contractor A. H. Burdick. The lots are located between the old Dumont property and Culhane place.

The contract for installing the plumbing and heating system in the new house being erected for Clarence T. Voorhees on Lincoln avenue has been awarded to Contractor Otis M. Webber.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS HAVE KEPT CRAFTSMEN BUSY

Public and semi-public buildings are the means by which the building craftsmen throughout the county have been kept busy for the most part during the past season, although a large number of dwellings have been, or are in the course of construction. The building outlook at the present time in Union county is very bright, and contractors are very optimistic in speaking of the future and the coming season.

During the week ending last Saturday, fourteen building contracts have been filed with the county clerk, calling for the expenditure of $62,889. Those filed from this end of the county are as noted below:

Abram Kunzman with National Contracting Company, all work except plumbing, alterations, West Third street, Plainfield, $1,835.

Board of Education with American Cement Company, mason work new building, Elm and Walnut streets, Westfield, $3,150.

Same with Merrick Fireproof Company, plumbing work, $32,333.

Same with Gypsum Fireproofing Company, plaster work, $1,860.

Edward S. F. Randolph with H. S. Wall, plumbing work new building, Arlington avenue, Westfield, $605.

Mike Marson with Cohen & Israelsky, plumbing work new building, West Third street, Plainfield, $1,600.

COURT HOUSE ALTERATIONS ARE ABOUT COMPLETED

An inspection of the alteration work in progress on the fourth floor of the courthouse was made this week by the buildings and grounds committee of the Board of Freeholders, together with the architect. The work is nearing completion and unless unexpected delays are encountered it is assured that it will be completed in time to permit the October term Grand Jury to occupy the new quarters being provided.

As soon as the new quarters are ready the furniture will be moved from the old Grand Jury chambers on the third floor and this room will be partitioned into four offices, to be placed at the disposal of the county prosecutor and county detective bureau. An office also will be provided for the official court stenographer, who has never before had private quarters, merely using one of the rooms designed as witnesses' waiting rooms.

REALTY TRANSFERS

The following realty transfers from this end of the county have been recorded at the office of the county register:

New York Suburban Land Company to Lena Zinnel, lot 271, block 1, New York Suburban Land Company map, Garwood, $1.

William C. Daly to Joseph R. Kladrick, middle of Fourth street, at corner of land of Wyckoff, Plainfield, $1.

Samuel P. Savage to Eloise H. Clark, northerly side line of North avenue, 495.43 feet northwesterly of Clark street, Westfield, $1.

Andrew Olsen to Mary K. Martin, southeasterly line of Park place, 336 feet northeasterly of Park terrace, Plainfield, $1.

H. C. Lockwood Company to George W. Gicking, lot 79, Westfield Highlands map, Westfield, $1.

Schwartz Land Improvement Company to George Macurik, plot No. 50, Plainfield Gardens map, Plainfield, $1.

Lewis D. Saums to Gertrude K. Lake, easterly side of Cameron avenue, 450 feet northerly of Laramie road, Plainfield, $1.

New York Suburban Land Company to Sara Cohen, lots 243, 244, 245, block 9, New York Suburban Land Company map, Garwood, $1.

Pearsall Company to Leigh M. Pearsall, lot 31, Meredith Park map, Westfield, $1.

New York Cuburban Land Company to Bernard Olsen, lots 275-276, block 78, New York Suburban Land Company map, Garwood, $1.

The following transfers from the surrounding towns have been recorded at the Middlesex county seat at New Brunswick.

Metuchen Realty and Improvement Co., to Augustin Contu, two lots, Metuchen Estates.

George E. Loeffled Land and Improvement Co. to William H. Short, two lots, Park Avenue Estates.

Aberdare (a corporation) has bought of the Parkview Forest Co., Inc., 73½ acres of land on the corner of the Landing road and the School House road, in Piscataway township.

Edward C. Marks has bought of Equitable Development Co., four lots in Oaklawn Terrace, Metuchen.

Louis Gibbons to H. G. Lockwood, Co., Piscataway lot.

William A. Norman to Louis Lipschitz, one-third of an acre on the road from New Brooklyn to Metuchen, adjoining the lands of Thaddeus Drake, Township of Piscataway.

Schwartz Land and Improvement Co., to Frank A. Falvey, part of Plainfield property, Raritan township, $150.

Georgianna Parker and husband to Philip Eder, Dunellen lot.

Sarah H. Hilles sold to W. M. Ostrander, Inc., lot, Township of Piscataway.

W. M. Ostrander, Inc., sold to J. Harry Bunn, 4 Lincoln lots.

Metuchen Realty and Improvement Company, sold to Kate Wittman, lot Metuchen Estates.

Frank A. Boettner sold to Anthony Barone, 4 lots, Township of Piscataway.

Marcus Forsberg bought of Central Park Realty Co., six lots and parts of three others, Lakeside Park, New Market.

J. Newton Apgar sold to Charles M. Fedderman and other, Dunellen lot.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD ACTIVITY.

Joseph Gatiiglia, of New Brunswick, as owner, has entered into a contract with John Gennovario, a contractor, in this city, for the erection by the latter of a two story frame dwelling on lots 25, 26 and 27, on Elliott street, in South Plainfield. The contractor agrees to do all the mason, carpentry, electrical and painting work on the building, for $6,000, in accordance with the plans and specifications drawn by M. A. L. Gennovario. The building must be completed by December 15.

Robert Ritter has purchased a plot of ground on Brookside avenue, and expects to build a new home very shortly.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press

In the Churches

Baptist.

First Church — Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor — 9:45, Sunday-school and Men's Conference Class; 11:00, preaching; 6:45, C. E. Society meeting; preaching at 7:45.

Park Avenue—Rev. F. Y. Pierce, supply—9:45, Sunday-school; 11 a. m., preaching; 7:45 p. m., preaching.

Seventh-Day Baptist, corner of Central avenue and Fifth street—Pastor, Rev. Edwin Shaw—Preaching service every Sabbath (Saturday) morning at half-past ten o'clock; Sabbath-school at 11:45 a. m., William C. Hubbard, superintendent; Junior Society prayer meeting at 3 p. m., Mrs. Edwin Shaw superintendent; Young People's Christian Endeavor meeting at 4:00 p. m., Miss Mary L. Hunting, president; prayer meeting on Friday at 8 p. m. All are welcome to these services.

Temple—Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor—9:00, prayer meeting; 11:00, preaching; 9:45, Sunday-school; 7:00 C. E. Society services; 7:45, preaching.

Mt. Olive—M. W Vaughan, D. D., pastor—11:00, preaching; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:15, prayer and praise; 8:00, preaching.

Calvary—Rev. D. Y. Campbell, pastor; 11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Shiloh—Rev. Edward Roberts, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Ebenezer Church — East Third and Washington streets—Rev. Elliott, pastor—11:00, preaching; 7:00, B. Y. P. U. meeting; 8:00, preaching.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—Sunday-school at 9:45, preaching at 11:00, Christian Endeavor Society at 6:45 p. m., preaching at 7:45 p. m.

[illegible] avenue — Rev. Edward Ralston, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, preaching; 7:00, Christian Endeavor Society meeting; 7:45, preaching.

Marconnier — Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor — 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, morning service; 7:45, evening service.

German — Craig place and Duer street — Rev. George Hauser, pastor—10:00, Sunday-schol; 11 a. m., preaching by the pastor; first Sunday in each month evening service at 7:45 o'clock.

Presbyterian.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, pastor—Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, minister—10:30, morning worship.

Hope Chapel—Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30 preaching; 7:45 preaching ;prayer service Wednesday evening at 8.

Warren Chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—11:00 a. m., preaching; 9:45, Sunday-school and Berean Bible class for men, E. E. Parvin, teacher; 7:45, preaching.

Bethel chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00 p. m., preaching

Episcopal.

Grace Church, East Seventh street—The Reverend E. Vicars Stevenson, rector—Services, 7:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 10:30 a. m., morning prayer, litany and sermon; first Sunday, Holy Communion and sermon; 4:30 p. m., choral evensong; daily at 5 p. m.; Thursday, Saints' Days and Holy Days, 10 a. m., Holy Eucharist.

Holy Cross Church, corner Washington and Mercer avenues—Rev. Charles H. Kues, rector—7:30 a. m., Holy Communion, 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 7:45 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.

Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue and West Fifth street, Rev. Cortlandt H. Mallery, rector—8:00, Holy Eucharist; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, matins and sermon; the rector. Fridays and Holy Days Holy Eucharist at 10:00 a. m.

St. Stephen's Church, Netherwood—Service at 11 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, (Holy communion first Sunday of each month); Sunday-school in the Parish House at 9:45. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

St. Mark's Mission for Colored People—Masonic building, St. Mary's avenue—Evensong and sermon Sundays at 8:00 p. m.; Holy Eucharist second Sunday in the month at 9:00 a. m.; Sunday-school in Parish House, Sundays at 10:00 a. m.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles M Anderson, pastor—9.45, Sunday-school, 11 a. m., preaching; 7:45 p. m., preaching; Epworth League at 7.

Monroe Avenue Church — Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, pastor—8:45, new members class; 10:45, preaching; 9:30, Sunday-school; school; Men's Bible class; 2:30, probation class; 7:00, Epworth League service; 8, preaching; church class Wednesday at 3:30; prayer service at 8:00.

Grace Church — Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor—Sunday-school, 9:45; preaching service, 11 a. m., with probationers' class immediately following; Epworth League at 7:00; preaching service at 7:45.

Mt. Zion A. M. E. — Rev. J. W. P. Collier, pastor—11, preaching; 12:15, class meeting; 6:45, Christian Endeavor Society meeting; 8:00, preaching.

Roman Catholic.

St. Mary's—Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational Church—Rev. C L. Goodrich, pastor—Preaching at 10:30; Sunday-school at 11:50. Young People's Service at 7:30.

Swedish Pilgrim Church—Rev. Gottfrid Sjoblom, [illegible] meeting; 8 p. m., preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00.

Lutheran.

St. Peter's Lutheran—Grove street and Mercer avenue—Rev. Charles E. Moldenke in charge—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30, preaching in English first Sunday in month.

Swedish Lutheran—Grove street and Mercer avenue—Stated supply, Rev. Karl Martin; service at 8 o'clock.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Babcock Building, 240 West Front street — Services, Sunday-school, 9:45; service at 11 a. m.; Wednesday, 8 p. m.; reading-room open daily from 2 to 5 p. m., except Sundays and legal holidays. Lesson sermon for tomorrow, "Matter." Golden text: Hosea 5:1: "The Lord has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land."

Unitarian.

All Souls, Park Avenue—Services will be resumed on September 13 with preaching at 10:45 a. m., by Rev. H. N. Pfeiffer, who will preach as a candidate during the remainder of the month of September.

New Thought.

First Unity (New Thought) day service at 11 a. m.; abundance services daily at noon, (12); reading-room open from 9 to 6 daily. New York metaphysician in charge.

Not Classified.

Salvation Army—Adjutant and Mrs Wall, officers in charge—Public services at 10:30 a. m. and 8:00 p m.; 2:30, Sunday-school; 6:30 Young People's Legion.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—John LeMatty, superintendent — In W. C. T. U. rooms—8:00, gospel service, Sundays and every week night except Wednesdays.

Italian Mission, 409 East Third street, Aurelio R. Mangione, pastor—Morning service, 10:30; Sunday-school, English and Italian, 2:30; evening service, 8 o'clock.

[illegible] ing; 8:00 p. m., gospel address.

W. C. T. U.—Madison avenue—4:00 p. m., gospel temperance service.

International Bible Students' Association—Bible Class meets Sunday morning 10:30 for Berean Bible study, at 436 West Fifth street; Wednesday evening 8:00, prayer and testimony, 403 New street; Friday evening, 8:00, study; 436 West Fifth street; all interested in Scripture studies are invited.

THE FORUM

Plainfields United.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

No time should be lost in bringing about the consolidation of Plainfield and North Plainfield. Situated as they are geographically, it cannot be denied as a business proposition that the maintenance of two distinct municipal governments is most absurd. [illegible] community. Their interests are identical; their government should be one.

Consolidation does not mean annexation. North Plainfield would still be a part of Somerset county. At the same time it would be part of the ever expanding and progressive city of Plainfield, just the same as that section known as "Netherwood" is today. To argue that the proposition would bring about great inconveniences and complications is most erroneous. Greater New York extends over five distinct counties and its government is run as smoothly as though the entire city lay in the county of New York.

Twelve years ago, factional feeling and personal spite was the major feature of the campaign. The question of consolidation was never reached. The ugly feeling engendered at that time has now largely passed away. A large percentage of those arrayed against either consolidation or annexation are outspokenly in favor of merging the two municipalities. These men contend that this ground of opposition is now removed by the formal manner in which the subject is again being taken up. The right channels are being used in steering through the subject. And there should be no delay.

A. A. CANNON.

WILL ATTEND OSWEGO NORMAL.

Miss Virginia LaPorte, of Jackson avenue, a graduate of the class of 1914 of the North Plainfield High School, leaves today for Oswego, N. Y., Normal School, to further her study and will take the teachers course. Miss LaPorte has had her application in the Trenton and Montclair schools, but the institutions are full and the waiting list is about three hundred. Oswego Normal School is considered the best institution of its kind in the East.

"LADIES' NIGHT" AFFAIR.

Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., observed "Ladies' Night" at their meeting, last evening, when speeches and music prevailed. Selections by the Jr. O. U. A. M. orchestra was the feature of the accosion. Re-

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.
Broadway and Ninth, New York

The John Wanamaker Store

Store Opens at 8:30
Closes at 5:30 P. M.

ADVANCE NOTICE

We are putting the finishing touches on all pianos taken in exchange by us during the past six months, and on certain new pianos and player-pianos which we are reducing in prices for reasons which will be stated, and we shall be

Ready Tuesday Morning Next, for Our

Half-Yearly Piano Sale

—the most important event of the Fall to the music-loving people of New York. Details in the newspapers on Monday.

Entering Largely Into

The CHINA SALE

are our fine and complete stock of English and French China Plates

Service, Entree, Dessert and Bread and Butter Plates

Many savings of a third to a half.

Others are at prices which will not again be equaled for their lowness for a long time, if ever

	Wedgwood Per dozen	Royal Doulton Per dozen	French Per dozen
Service	$20, $42.50, $65, $75	$18, $26, $30, $42	$8.40, $15, $21, $30
Entree	$16	$15, $20, $28, $30	$7.50, $10.80, $15, $24
Bread and butter	$10	$10.80, $15, $24, $30	$4.80, $12, $18, $21
Dessert		$13.50, $24, $30	$6, $9, $15 to $36

New Shipments of Cut Glass---Monday

To be sold at a quarter to half below our regular prices.

Tall compotes, $2.25, $3.50, $5 each.
Flower vases, $2, $3.50 and $5 each.
Sugars and creams, $1.75, $3, $4.50 pair.
Celery trays, $2, $3.50 and $5 each.
Punch bowls on stands, $8.50 and $10 each.
Bowls, $3, $4, $5 and $7.50 each.
Water tumblers, $3, $5 and $6 dozen.
Bon bon trays, 60c, $1 and $1.50 each.

A splendid variety of American Dinner Sets at $7.50, $10, $12 set

Dinner Sets

Theo. Haviland

108 piece dinner sets, 4 size plates, including bread and butter plates. Four border decorations and solid gold handles.
$40, regularly $60 $52.50, regularly $70

Redon

108 pieces, two border designs, with solid gold handles, $42.50, regularly $65.
108 pieces, with fine border designs, and stippled gold handles, $32.50, regularly $50.

From Bavaria

Dinner sets of 108 pieces, four sizes plates and four meat dishes, fine border designs with gold-trimmed handles; $25, regularly $35.

Second Gallery, New Building.

Monday Starts Another Week of Economy for the Housewife---the Third Week of the September Sale of Wanamaker Housewares

Prices are now 10 to 50 per cent. less than regularly.

The merchandise is the good kind that the Wanamaker Housewares Store sells twelve months of the year.

Everything for the kitchen, bathroom fixtures and all kinds of modern household devices are included in the sa

Subway floor, New Building.

Important Collection of the Fine Moravian Table Linens

¶ The satin texture of these linens is a Moravian secret. Other linen weaving nations have their specialty. Nothing, however, is quite like the peculiar and beautiful texture of the Moravian linens. It not only delights the eye, but satisfies the purchaser because the linens hold their luster and they wear well.

¶ Sixty or more patterns will be shown in these fine linens on Monday. Majority are exclusive with this store. Nearly all are entirely new. Some of the patterns:

Cherry Lily, Druide Notre Dame Eglatine, Stars and Stripes Du Barry Orange blossom Hirondelles, Renaissance Sphinx Melusine Marie Antoinette

2 x 2 yard tablecloths, $4.75 to $28. 2 x 3 yard tablecloths, $7.50 to $21.
2 x 2½ yd. tablecloths, $6.25 to $18.75. Napkins, $5, $6.75 and up to $43 dozen.

Linen Store, First floor, Old Building.

COMING! A Sale of American Rugs which, in numbers and values, will rank at the top of the Year's Events in floor-coverings.

Six Carloads

have just arrived in New York. More coming. As soon as we an get the rugs on our selling floors—in a few days—the sale will begin.

Due announcement will be given to the public of date and details.

The Rug Store, Fourth Gallery, New Building.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER IX.

The Ending of War.

THAT conference upon the Brissago meadows was one of the most heterogeneous collections of prominent people that has ever met together. Principalities and powers, stripped and shattered until all their pride and mystery were gone, met in a marvelous new humility. Here were kings and emperors whose capitals were lakes of flaming destruction, statesmen whose countries had become chaos, scared politicians and financial potentates. Here were leaders of thought and learned investigators dragged reluctantly to the control of affairs. Altogether there were ninety-three of them, Leblanc's conception of the head men of the world. They had all come to the realization of the simple truths that the indefatigable Leblanc had hammered into them, and, drawing his resources from the king of Italy, he had provisioned his conference with a generous simplicity quite in accordance with the rest of his character and so at last was able to make his astonishing and entirely rational appeal. He had appointed King Egbert the president. He believed in this young man so firmly that he completely dominated him, and he spoke himself as a secretary might speak from the president's left hand, and evidently did not realize himself that he was telling them all exactly what they had to do. He imagined he was merely recapitulating the obvious features of the situation for their convenience. He was dressed in ill-fitting white silk clothes, and he consulted a dingy little packet of notes as he spoke. They put him out. He explained that he had never spoken from notes before, but that this occasion was exceptional.

And then King Egbert spoke as he was expected to speak, and Leblanc's spectacles moistened at that flow of generous sentiment, most amiably and lightly expressed. "We haven't to stand on ceremony," said the king, "we have to govern the world. We have always pretended to govern the world, and here is our opportunity."

"Of course," whispered Leblanc, nodding his head rapidly, "of course."

"The world has been smashed up, and we have to put it on its wheels again," said King Egbert, "as it is the simple common sense of this crisis for all to help and none to seek advantage. Is that our tone or not?"

The gathering was too old and seasoned and miscellaneous for any great displays of enthusiasm, but that was its tone, and with an astonishment that somehow became exhilarating it began to resign, repudiate and declare its intentions. Firmin, taking notes behind his master, heard everything that had been foretold among the yellow broom come true. With a queer feeling that he was dreaming, he assisted at the proclamation of the world state and saw the message taken out to the wireless operators to be throbbed all around the habitable globe. "And next," said King Egbert, with a cheerful excitement in his voice, "we have to get every atom of carolinum and all the plant for making it into our control."

Firmin was not alone in his incredulity. Not a man there who was not a very amiable, reasonable, benevolent creature at bottom. Some had been born to power, and some had happened upon it. Some had struggled to get it, not clearly knowing what it was and what it implied, but none was irreconcilably set upon its retention at the price of cosmic disaster. Their minds had been prepared by circumstances and sedulously cultivated by Leblanc, and now they took the broad, obvious road along which King Egbert was leading them with a mingled conviction of strangeness and necessity. Things went very smoothly. The king of Italy explained the arrangements that had been made for the protection of the camp from any fantastic attack. A couple of thousand of aeroplanes, each carrying a sharpshooter, guarded them, and there was an excellent system of relays, and at night all the sky would be searched by scores of lights, and the admirable Leblanc gave luminous reasons for their camping just where they were and going on with their administrative duties forthwith. He knew of this place because he had happened upon it when holiday making with Mme. Leblanc twenty years and more ago. "There is very simple fare at present," he explained, "on account of the disturbed state of the countries about us. But we have excellent fresh milk, good red wine, beef, bread, salad and lemons. In a few days I hope to place things in the hands of a more efficient caterer."

The members of the new world government dined at three long tables on trestles, and down the middle of these tables Leblanc, in spite of the barrenness of his menu, had contrived to have a great multitude of beautiful roses. There was similar accommodation for the secretaries and attendants at a lower level down the mountain. The assembly dined as it had debated, in the open air, and over the dark crags to the west the glowing June sunset shone upon the banquet. There was no precedency now among the ninety-three, and King Egbert found himself between a pleasant little Japanese stranger in spectacles and his cousin of central Europe and opposite a great Bengali leader and the president of the United States of America. Beyond the Japanese was Holsten, the old chemist, and Leblanc was a little way down on the other side.

The king was still cheerfully talkative and abounded in ideas. He fell presently into an amiable controversy with the American, who seemed to feel a lack of impressiveness in the occasion.

It was ever the transatlantic tendency, due no doubt to the necessity of handling public questions in a bulky and striking manner, to overemphasize and overaccentuate, and the president was touched by his national failing. He suggested now that there should be a new era, starting from that day as the first day of the first year.

The king demurred.

"From this day forth, sir, man enters upon his heritage," said the American.

"Man," said the king, "is always entering upon his heritage. You Americans have a peculiar weakness for anniversaries—if you will forgive me saying so. Yes, I accuse you of a lust for dramatic effect. Everything is happening always, but you want to say this or this is the real instant in time and subordinate all the others to it."

The American said something about an epoch making day.

"But surely," said the king, "you don't want us to condemn all humanity to a world wide annual Fourth of June forever and evermore on account of this harmless necessary day of declarations? No conceivable day could ever deserve that. Ah, you do not know, as I do, the devastations of the memorable! My poor grandparents were—rubricated. The worst of these huge celebrations is that they break up the dignified succession of one's contemporary emotions. They interrupt. They set back. Suddenly out come the flags and fireworks, and the old enthusiasms are furbished up—and it's sheer destruction of the proper thing that ought to be going on. Sufficient unto the day is the celebration thereof. Let the dead past bury its dead. You see, in regard to the calendar, I am for democracy and you are for aristocracy. All things, I hold, are august and have a right to be lived through on their merits. No day should be sacrificed on the grave of departed events. What do you think of it, Wilhelm?"

"For the noble, yes, all days should be noble."

"Exactly my position," said the king, and felt pleased at what he had been saying.

(To be continued.)

German Valley. and Chester

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the German Valley Lutheran church held its September meeting, Thursday, with Mrs. Lewis Dufford, matron of the Morris county almshouse. The inmates of the institution were treated to cake by the society. Mrs. Dufford lived in German Valley until she was appointed to her present position.

Mrs. George C. F. Haas, of New York, is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. William T. Swackhamer, of German Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Welsh, of German Valley, concluded a visit Thursday to Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers L. Crist, of Plainfield.

Mrs. Ralph W. Carlisle, of Stanhope, is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dee, of Chester.

Hunterdon County.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Melvill Walters, Wednesday night, at her home in Glen Gardner, it being her birthday.

The Langon Engineering and Construction Company, of Jersey City, has been given the contract to build an addition to the dining hall and erect an infirmary at the New Jersey Sanitarium for Tuberculous Diseases on Mt. Kipp, Glen Gardner. The work of excavation was commenced Thursday.

J. Martin Alpaugh, of Annandale, is running the rural delivery mail route from the Annandale postoffice in place of Willard Jones, who is taking a vacation.

Miss Ina B. Morce, of Annandale, is in Washington, D. C., attending a college of music.

The quarterly convention of the Hunterdon County Patriotic Order Sons of America will be held in the rooms of Camp No. 133, Annandale, tonight. Officers will be elected.

Mrs. John Staats, of Little York, has as her guests Miss Jennie Bowers, of Chatham, and Miss Violet Beerbower, of Jersey City.

Whitehouse

Mrs. Eunice E. Perry returned to Whitehouse Station Thursday after a visit to relatives at Lebanon.

The celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Methodist Episcopal church at Lebanon will be continued this evening, when there will be an assembly of young people. The Epworth League and the neighboring young people's socieites will attend. The special address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. C. E. Scudder, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church at West New Brighton, Staten Island. This will be followed by a social hour in the lecture room of the church.

George H. Dalley returned to Plainfield Thursday after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Burdette in East Whitehouse.

Mrs. Andrew J. Shampanore and daughter, Miss Carolyn Shampanore, and son, Norman Shampanore, of Plainfield, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shampanore, at Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Lena Best returned to Stanhope Thursday after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Philhower at Mt. Rose, near Peapack.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Doremus returned to Hop Bottom, Pa., Thursday, after a visit to Mr. Doremus' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Doremus, at Mt. Rose, near Peapack.

Mrs. Ira Sherrer, of Gladstone, is spending a week with relatives in Bayonne and Newark.

James Smith, of Verona, is at his former home at Peapack and Gladstone.

Stanley Wingett, of Verona, is a guest of relatives at Peapack and Gladstone this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Horton returned to Peapack Thursday, after a visit at Asbury Park.

Mrs. George W. Morris, of Gladstone, is visiting Mrs. Theodore Hill, at Mendham.

Miss Elizabeth Philhower, of Parsippany, is spending the week-end at the home of William Philhower, at Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Hoffstetter are at their home near Whitehouse Station, after a stay of a month in Boston. Mr. Hoffstetter was taken suddenly ill while there and they were obliged to return before they had intended to. He is now recovering.

John J. Dalley returned to Brooklyn Thursday, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Schomp, at Readington.

Miss Emma Warren, of Newark, is spending a week at her former home at Readington.

High Bridge-Califon.

Goble W. Blaine, of Little Brook, sold his farm stock and implements at public sale today and will move his family next week to Califon, where he will engage in the clothing business, succeeding Frank Pill.

Wilson Worman, of Califon, resumed his studies at Hartwick College, Hartwick, N. Y., this week.

Mrs. David E. Philhower is ill at her home in East Mill street, Califon.

Mrs. John D. Alpaugh, of High Bridge, is spending a fortnight with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Lloyd, of Newark.

Somerville

Mr. and Mrs. John Huber are spending several days at Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. McClue, of Middaugh street, are at Atlantic City.

Mrs. John Van Doren, of Washington, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston Brown, of West Cliff street, are spending two weeks at Avon.

Miss Mary Brokaw returned Thursday to her home in Somerville after spending a month in Pluckemin.

Roger Whitaker, of Washington, is a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Rogers, of South street.

Charles W. Brokaw, of East Main street, is in the South for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Snyder are home from Manasquan, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. George Thompson is in Harrisburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Claremont W. Masker, of Pittsfield, Mass., are guests of the fomer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Masker, of Mercer street.

Rev. and Mrs. John W. Shearer, who have been spending several months at Spout Springs, Va., returned to their home in Somerville, Thursday.

Watchung.

There will be, as usual, three services in the Mary E. Wilson Memorial Union church tomorrow. Sunday-school will be held in the morning at 9:30 o'clock; the morning church service will begin at 10:45, and the evening service at 7:45; Harold W. Schenck will be in charge.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, of the North Plainfield Township Improvement Society, held a successful "Dutch" supper, Thursday evening, in the Improvement Society hall. A large number of people enjoyed the supper, which began at 6 o'clock and lasted until 8 o'clock, after which the floor was cleared and dancing continued until a late hour. The hall and tables were prettily decorated with autumn foliage and flowers. Those who were in charge of the different booths were: Pie, Mrs. E. Kingmann and Miss M. Cass; coffee, Mrs. F. Bodin and Mrs. E. Cass; ice cream Mrs. G. W. Schmidt and Mrs. M. H. Cleaves; salads and ham, Mrs. H. Texier; sauerkraut, frankfurters and rolls, Mrs. G. A. Schmidt; baked beans and fixings, Mrs. DeHaas. Mrs. W. Pattie acted as floor manager while a number of the younger set acted as waiters and waitresses. Music was furnished for dancing by Miss Margaret Walsch, of Plainfield.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

ANTI-SUFFRAGE

Conducted by Plainfield Branch New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage.

Of course we are all thinking and talking of the war and its accessories, and women are taking their part in the discussion. Naturally women's thoughts immediately turned to the practical question of how they could best help in this time of trial. And so the Peace parade was organized so that women could express themselves as opposed to war and its attendant horrors. Others who saw no particular gain in such an expression turned to the essentially womanly organ of help "ready" as Jacob Riis said of the Consumers League "to their hand"—the Red Cross work, as did the paraders after they had expressed themselves, and very efficient work they are doing. But doesn't it seem a little incongruous for the people who are pleading for peace almost "on any terms" to quote from the Peace party in our own Civil War to be still demanding contributions to a "war chest" of $50,000. It is no wonder that women are accused of having no sense of humor. This is not the place to discuss the question whether women would, if in power, act as a deterring force against war. As I look back on our own great war and remember the self-renouncing zeal with which the women of both North and South encouraged their men to fight for their country, when I read of the patriotic conduct of the women of England, France and Germany, I am not so sure that women, any more than men are willing to sacrifice honor and patriotism for peace alone. To us, standing aloof, the war seems criminal—but the people of the countries involved have been brought to feel that their country's life and their country's honor is involved in the strife and so they cheer departing troops and prepare for their part in war—patient suffering.

And meanwhile the woman's army—the Red Cross—has entered the field. And what an illustration it is of the way in which women can work most efficiently. The Red Cross ship has gone bearing relief not to those with whom we are in close sympathy only, but to all the belligerents alike. The Red Cross has no nationality; it asks and obtains the means of relieving suffering from people of the most diverse sympathy, and this because they work for a cause, not a nation or party. That is the way in which so much of our social reform work has been accomplished by women who, having no political affiliations, can ask from all parties aid in their work. And it is a significant fact that the women who have been found leaders in social reform have almost all worked in States where they had no vote. Many of them, as we all know, fancy they could work more efficiently with the vote, but the fact remains the same that the work is being very thoroughly done without it.

Speaking of efficiency a clever fable in Life puts one side of the question very amusingly. It tells of a business firm, the partners in which not satisfied with the efficiency of their employes, were discussing a remedy. The younger member urged that a larger force should be employed and pointed to the fact that they had enough applications to enable them to double their force. "Now I grant," he said, "that there are many of our present clerks who are not getting results, and it may be that amongst the new force there will be many that won't prove good workers. But if we double our force we will certainly get a good many good workers. Just look at some of those who want places."

"Yes," said the older partner, "but look at others of them."

"No matter for that, if we double our force we must get more work done."

Being young and voluble, he got his way. At the end of the year, however, results were no better. Expenses had increased out of all proportion to the increase in efficiency. The doubled force of idlers had proved an increasing hindrance to the workers and the experiment was abandoned. Of course, no business men would act so—they would have eliminated the idlers before employing new people. Unfortunately a government cannot act in that way. The vote once given cannot now be recalled, although in the earlier days of the country New Jersey did take the vote from the women because they used it badly. But as we can't experiment in the matter it behooves the men to consider well before they add to our electorate which really would not suffer if it could be wisely limited.

A letter on the subject of "Votes for Women" written by a man who said he was trying to study the subject in the light of its bearing on sociology was rather interesting to me on one point. The writer said the sentimental side of the question had no weight with him, and I suppose he meant the argument about the effect of suffrage on what is sometimes called "Home and Mother." I can quite understand his point of view. There are too many good wives and mothers, too many real homes in the suffrage party for us to say cavalierly that suffrage, per se, injures women. And yet when at times I become tired of argument and opposition and almost inclined to give up for the sake of quiet, something has happened to renew the conviction that suffrage and what it has come to stand for will be really hurtful to our femininity. When I read of women hissing one President of the United States, and heckling another who has granted them a hearing,—when I heard a young woman declare that she had never enjoyed herself more than when, preceded by a fife and drum, she and her companions paraded through some of the business streets of lower New York to gather an audience for the presentation of the suffrage cause,—when I heard of refined women speaking at street corners here in Plainfield,—when I read some of the extraordinary ideas taught by suffragists such as Inez Milholland Boissewain,—when I read of the Socialist red flag holding its place in a suffrage parade, I felt that if a desire for the vote led women on that road, I ought to do what little I could to block the way. It seems a sort of hysteria which will, it is to be hoped, wear itself out, if only we can convince our men that by voting against suffrage they will, indeed, be giving women what they really want—freedom from political duties.

ELIZABETH B. SYKES.

Some Cookery Suggestions

SUBSTANTIAL PEACH DESSERTS.

WITH cooler weather desserts of a more substantial character are appreciated. Delicious pies and pastries are available with late fruit. Peaches are most useful in the making of these late desserts, for the acid of the fruit is a great aid to digestion.

Nice For Luncheons.

Peach Cakes.—Take a cupful of flour, a teaspoonful of baking powder, a half teaspoonful of salt, one egg, a half cupful of milk, a half cupful of sugar, a tablespoonful of butter and six peaches. Sift the flour, baking powder and salt into a bowl; add the milk, beaten egg and melted butter and mix together. Put on large, deep pie dish. Wash, pare and halve the peaches and put on top of batter, stone side up; sprinkle with sugar. Bake in hot oven. Serve while warm with milk or cream.

Peach Cobbler.—Take one pint flour, one-half teaspoonful salt, two teaspoonfuls baking powder sifted together several times, one-quarter cupful butter rubbed in, one egg beaten and mixed with one scant cupful milk, one quarter cupful cream. Beat this batter well. Fill a granite baking dish about one-half full of pared and stoned peaches. Allow one pint of sugar to each quart of fruit; cover with batter and bake until peaches show a dark red color; cool and serve with sugar and cream.

Fritters For Tea.

Peach Fritters.—Lay the halves of ripe, tender peaches on a flat dish, sprinkle with sugar. Let stand for an hour, turning once. Dip each piece separately in batter and cook to a golden brown in deep, boiling fat. The batter should be mixed several hours before it is needed. It is made by stirring one-half cupful cold water into the well beaten yolks of two eggs. Add to this gradually an even cupful of sifted flour and a tablespoonful of olive oil. Beat vigorously for three minutes. Just before using add a pinch of salt and the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth.

Baked Peach Pudding.—Take one half cupful of rice and boil in a quart of boiling water till tender. Add one cupful of granulated sugar, one tablespoonful of butter, and when the sugar is dissolved add the yolks of two eggs. Cook for one minute. Butter a pudding dish, add first a layer of rice, then a layer of peaches and so on until the peaches are all used, finishing with the rice. Add one cupful of the peach juice. Bake in a moderate oven twenty-five minutes. Take from the oven and cool. Make a meringue of two whites of the eggs and two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar. Slightly brown in a slow oven and serve with or without sauce.

Anna Thompson

And Circles and Circles About the Nest.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Greatest Travelers In The World.

"DADDY, all the barn swallows are gone! I missed them today!" cried Evelyn as she and Jack clambered into daddy's lap before the big open fire.

Daddy looked at the calendar. "Yes; it is time—about the third week of September."

"But, daddy, Daddy Swallow has been gone a day or more," said Jack. "I think he might have waited for the mother and her little babies."

Daddy laughed. "That Daddy Swallow is only obeying a law of nature, Jack. You see, he helped Mrs. Swallow build the nest. He watched her while she was setting upon the eggs to see that no other birds hurt her. He also helped feed her, and then sometimes when Mrs. Swallow was tired of staying home all the time Daddy Swallow would keep house for her while she stretched her wings and looked for food.

"Then when the baby swallows peeped through the shells of the little eggs and 'Yeeped, yeeped!' for food Daddy Swallow helped Mamma Swallow hunt for big, fat, juicy worms to fill Baby Swallows' little tumtums.

"But pretty soon these children of theirs grew big—big enough, Daddy Swallow thought, to leave the home which he and Mrs. Swallow had made for them. So he and Mamma Swallow taught their little babies to fly, and then they were taught to hunt for their own worms and bugs, and if one of the babies was lazy and didn't like to fly or work, why, Mamma and Daddy Swallow just pushed his lazy little bones out of the nest.

"You see, wise Daddy and Mamma Swallow know that the only way their babies can learn to do anything is by making the effort, so they see to it that they learn to fly and earn their own living just as soon as they can.

"But, kiddies, when the babies have been taught to fly and hunt Daddy Swallow's duties are over. Mamma Swallow lingers a little longer to see that the house is left in good condition, I suppose. Anyhow, Daddy Swallow begins to grow uneasy and takes little excursions all by himself and circles and circles about the nest which was once his dearly loved home.

"Then he just has to start on his voyage to the southland. Pretty soon Mamma Swallow starts on her journey too, with the youngsters following.

"Of course there are many Daddy Swallows all wanting to go to the southland at the same time, so they gather in bands, the Daddy Swallows leading, the others, also in bands, following up the rear.

"So you see that birds are the greatest travelers in the world, for twice a year, spring and autumn, as long as they live, they change their home, flying hundreds of miles to do so."

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues.

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1954.

OPP. DEPOT.

805 North Avenue, Telephone 200-W.

A. Colucci

SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR

Estimates Cheerfully Given.

All work warranted. Best reference

6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:20, 2:20, 5:00, 6:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—8:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:50, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:20, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m. 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of the Press.

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

FLOORS

HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.

Old Floors Refinished.

S. E. WARD & CO.

108 Depot Park, Manning Building.

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School

202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,

Corner of Arlington Avenue,

Will be re-opened September 23th.

A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.

MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.

ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades.

Boys received in lower grades.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.

General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.

GYMNASIUM

Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.

Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.

For circulars or for further particulars address

Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS

Will Be Re-opened on

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

Main School, 433 W. Front St.

Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.

JOHN LEAL, Principal.

C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.

9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary

A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Will Re-open On

THURSDAY, SEPT. 24

PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS

COLLEGE PREPARATORY

ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

Miss Sarah Palmer

Teacher of Artistic Piano

Playing, Harmony, Musical Form, Analysis, etc.

Studio at the residence of Mrs. Harriott, 713 Watchung avenue, Plainfield. Pupils beginning study before October 1st will receive four extra lessons without charge.

9 12-19-26.

Ninteenth Season.

MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES

Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodwertt 12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York

CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING

AT SEMINARY HALL

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars

Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914. Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION

GEO. C. M. SMITH

Tenth Season

51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.

9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

EAST FRONT STREET.

Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET

Newly Painted and papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.

Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.

W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.

97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE

GENERAL NEWS TICKER.

Stock quotations.

Up to the Minute.

'PHONE 1527.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JAMES C. HANSEN

DECORATOR

DEALER IN

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, VARNISHES, Etc.

141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

PHONE YOUR ADS

1300

ONE CENT A WORD

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — ORDERS IS ORDERS — BY "HOP"

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5:48, (5:52 except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22 (7:26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:55 except holidays), 7:56, 8:12, 8:30 (except holidays), 8:36, 8:42, 8:59, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m.; 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12, 4:01, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:36, 11:43 p. m. Sunday—2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:49, 10:37, 11:42 a. m.; 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:15, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:27, 8:55, 8:59, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27, (7:05 through train to Newark), 7:41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:37 a. m.; 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m., 2:00, 3:41, 5:44, (6:39 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m., 1:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m., 5:44 p. m. Sunday, 5:19, 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3:41, 8:12, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only), (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—3:41, (7:58 Red Bank only), 8:52 a. m.; (9:30 Red Bank only), (2:15 Red Bank only), 3:17, (8:13 Red Bank only), 8:35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 3:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m. 2:15 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:28, 7:39, 8:45, 10:45, 11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:12, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday—5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:39, 10:43, 11:41 a. m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:35, 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m., 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington, Daily—8:45, 10:47 a. m., 12:42, 2:45, 6:44, *Except Mauch Chunk. 6-4-14

FLOORS

Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring. Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.

GEO. E. WATT
314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

Order Now

SHADE, ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES AND FLOWERING SHRUBS.

Perennial plants for borders. We have the stock and competent men to plant them for you.

Pay a visit to our Landscape Superintendent or let us submit plans and suggestions.

Charles L. Stanley
Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 110 Park Ave. Telephone 2331 Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

H. DeMOTT

UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St. 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

DIED.

WIDMAYER—On Thursday, September 17, 1914, Victoria A., widow of George F. Widmayer, in her 55th year.

Funeral services at her late residence, 341 Watchung avenue, on Sunday, September 20, at 2:30 p. m. Interment at Metuchen, New Jersey.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn, house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

FURNISHED room with board 440 West Front street, 'phone 418-M. 9 16 1mo

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

TWO furnished rooms, nicely located, heated. 75 Westervelt avenue. 9 17 3

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage. H. R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; 'phone 1515. 9 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park 10 14 1

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 1

LOST AND FOUND.

GOLD watch chain lost on Front street Friday morning. Return to 218 East Front street. 9 18 3

LOST—White maltese terrier dog, answers to name of Lumpy; last seen on Netherwood avenue near Second street; suitable reward to finder. Return to 1111 East Front street. 9 18 2

LOST—Will the person who found pair football shoes on Park avenue, Friday, please leave same at Plainfield High School.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only. we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Position as chambermaid and waitress. Call 446 West Fifth street. 9 17 3

POLISH woman wishes laundry work by day. 619 South Second street. 9 17 3

WANTED—By good white laundress, laundry work or cleaning, good references. 1041 South Second street. 9 16 4

WANTED—Housework in a small family, no washing; good waitress. Inquire 18 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

TWO girls wish positions together, one as cook, other chambermaid and waitress. 814 Richmond street. 9 18 3

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework, good references. 619 South Second street. 9 18 3

WANTED—Visiting governess or companion by young lady of refinement and experience, English branches elementary, French and German; best references. Address Plainfield, care Press. 9 18 3

FOR SALE.

GOOD driving horse for sale, or delivery. I. P. Runyon, 212 Park avenue. 9 16 tf

FOUR good working horses for sale cheap. Plainfield Ice Supply Co., 222 Madison avenue. 9 17 tf

YOUNG double yellowhead parrots, guaranteed to talk, $10. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

FOR SALE—Cheap, canopy top and depot carriage, both rubber tire and in excellent condition; also set single, brass mounted harness. 91 Mercer avenue, 'phone 315-R. 9 18 3

FOR SALE—300 white leghorns. W. F. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue. 9 18 4

YOUNG rabbits and hares. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

S. ANDREASBURG roller canaries, $5. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

JAPANESE nightingale, fine singer, $4. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

SILVER duckwing game bantams, $2 pair. 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

CONCORD grapes 50c basket, no delivery. 1008 Arlington avenue, 'phone 746-W. 9 18 2

ENGLISH thrush, fine plumage, $5. Louis McIntosh, 43 Somerset. 9 18 2

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

DINING-ROOM or lunch counter privilege wanted in hotel, club, cafe or amusement places; exquisite service. L. Haslwanter, 728 West Front street. 9 17 6

AGENTS WANTED.

AGENTS—Sell guaranteed hosiery, 70 per cent. profit; make $10 daily; orders repeat regularly; best agent's seller in existence. International Mills, West Philadelphia, Pa. 8 29 tf-s

WOMEN—Sell guaranteed hosiery to friends and neighbors; 70 per cent. profit; make $10 daily; experience unnecessary. International Mills, Box 4029, West Philadelphia, Pa. 6 27 8oaw-s

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Middle-aged man, one who can repair locks. U. B. Crane, 204 Watchung avenue. 9 17 3

BOY wanted before and after school hours. Wagner's, 121 North avenue.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED—Cook (white); bring references to 802 Belvidere avenue.

WANTED—A competent girl to cook and assist with housework and ironing; only those having good references need apply. 672 West Seventh street. 9 17 tf

HELP WANTED—White girl for general housework. 25 Washington avenue.

WANTED—Experienced colored chambermaid and waitress, references required. Apply 506 West Seventh street.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook, white, wages $40; private family. Apply Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'phone 1724. 9 18 2

WHITE woman as chambermaid and laundress. Mrs. Atterbury, 315 West Seventh. 9 18 2

WANTED—White cook, willing to assist with ironing. Mrs. Hatch, 202 West Eighth street. 9 18 2

STENOGRAPHER— Experienced, accurate and rapid stenographer and typewriter; permanent position; give full particulars and salary wanted; A-1. Box 9, Daily Press. 9 18 2

WANTED—White cook, Protestant, to live in country. Telephone Mrs. H. E. Butler, 1146 Plainfield. 9 18 3

WANTED—White woman for general housework, no washing. Apply 228 East Ninth street. 9 17 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

30-ACRE FARM—Will sell as it stands with everything, chickens, horses, carriages, wagons, tools, fruit trees of every description, 11-room house, 2 barns, carriage house, wagon house, fine condition; 20 to 30 minutes walk from Plainfield, price $15,000. E. Byers, 148 North avenue.

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Colored man wishes position as coachman, all around man; 8 years' reference. 617 West Fourth street. 9 17 3

FOR RENT.

TO REAL ESTATE BROKERS—76 ROCKVIEW AVENUE FOR SALE OR TO LET; GROUNDS ABOUT 140x450; BRICK HOUSE; 12 ROOMS, LARGE GARAGE, ETC. FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS AND PHOTOS PLEASE ADDRESS CHARLES HARMS, 17 SOUTH STREET, NEW YORK. 9 19 6

4 AND 5 room apartment to let or Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $10 to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

TO LET—Three rooms and bath, improvements. 665 East Sixth St. 9 17 3

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

HOUSE TO LET—Desirable, centrally located house on East Second street. Address Central, care Daily Press. 9 14 6

FOR RENT—Three furnished rooms for light housekeeping, $1.75 per week. 87 Somerset street. 9 18 2

TO RENT—A very pleasant room in a desirable house and location. L. M., care Press. 9 18 6

ATTRACTIVE apartment for rent, third floor three-family house, 812 Leland avenue, Netherwood section; five rooms, all improvements; reasonable rent to adults. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 18 3

FOR RENT—7-room house, all latest improvements, hot water heat, $25; also 7-room house, part improvements, $17. D. F. Dugan, 511 East Seventh street. 9 18 tf

FOR RENT—Barn, suitable for horses and carriages or automobiles, on East Fifth street near Park avenue. Apply Wm. A. Coddington, 212 Park avenue. 9 17 3

TO LET—House (5 rooms) 508 West Third street, rent $12. Apply Wilson, 125 Elmwood place. 8 17 tf -m-w-s

MODERN house, Woodland avenue corner Park lane, nine rooms, all improvements. Apply to agents or H. A. Bonn, 160 East Front street. 9 5 tf s-tu-th

TO LET—One-half new semi-detached house, all improvements; Henry place, Netherwood; six rooms and bath; rent low to good tenants. C. M. Church, 710 East Front street. 9 17 6

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

TO LET—Two furnished rooms to let for light housekeeping. 308 East Front street. 9 19 3

FOR RENT—8-room house, all improvements, 37 Grove street. Inquire Manning's Marble Works.

FOR RENT — Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 19 6

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STERE OPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

200 Baskets Fancy Alberta Peaches

ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.

ALSO

Fine Bartlett Pears

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St. 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Every time a man pays money for life insurance he is saving something.

Founded by JOHN F. DRYDEN — THE PRUDENTIAL HAS THE STRENGTH OF GIBRALTAR — Pioneer of Industrial Insurance in America

The Prudential

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President

"The Bank that pays 4%"

Resources $5,000,000.00

SAVING THE "EXTRAS"

Did it ever occur to you that this is one of the easiest was of accumulating money? Dividends, interest on bonds, mortgages and other securities, gifts of money—anything, in fact, that is not needed for actual living expenses, should be laid aside in a special account instead of being frittered away. The habit can soon be formed and there is a fascination about watching such an account grow. We invite you to test the truth of this statement by opening an "income account" in our Special Department which will be subject to

4% COMPOUND INTEREST.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

TWO HUNDRED Out of EIGHT HUNDRED Buyers of Tires in Plainfield are Using CENTURY TIRES

SOME REASONS WHY

Lowest Cost per Mile.
Made in Plainfield.
Immediate Factory Adjustment.
Saving in Express and Messenger Charges.
New Tires Put on Without Charge.
Repairs by the Maker.
Immediate Delivery all Sizes.
Maker's Good Name with the Home Folks.

We have bought, sold and used almost all makes of tires and we believe our CENTURY TIRE offering is the best proposition you can find.

PRICES FOR SHOES

(Subject to change).

37x5	$36.30
36x4½	$30.35
35x4½	$28.60
36x4	$22.50
34x4	$21.10
33x4	$20.40
32x3½	$14.50
30x3½	$13.50
30x3	$10.00

Delivered and put on at your residence. Terms net thirty days, or 5 per cent. for cash.

STRYKER'S GARAGE

Tel. 1738. Next to Station.

(Formerly Service Motor Car Company).

RECREATION NOTES

The Dunbar Club met last night and enjoyed an evening of dancing. Those who furnished entertainment were Mr. Gates and Mrs. Williams, with an exhibition of fancy dancing which was gracefully executed. There were about one hundred members present. Mrs. Wormly, who has done such excellent work for this club, was in charge.

The weekly municipal dance will be held tonight at 8:15 in the Washington School. The attractive auditorium, the good floor and excellent music afford apportunity for a good, wholesome time to everyone who attends.

The Italian Social and Educational Club will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

COURT WILL BE IN SESSION.

Elizabeth, Sept. 19—Judge Connolly announced in court yesterday that he would sit all day from 8 o'clock in the morning until the polls closed on primary day to hear any election matters that may be brought before him.

—Your "furnished rooms to rent" ad will probably afford "opportunity news" to some dissatisfied—yet not over-critical—roomer.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WHEN you travel to another city to buy clothing, hats or shoes on credit, you get no better terms, goods or prices, and you are out carfare and time besides.

Isn't it, therefore, the logical thing to buy in your home city and give it, as it deserves, the benefit of your trade?

Isn't it only doing yourself justice to buy at an established, reliable store like ours?

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS

J. A. LAURIE & CO.

304 West Front Street, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.

PEACE AND PLENTY

Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.

W. W. Dunn

Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

MANNING & CURTIS

106 DEPOT PARK

A. H. ENANDER

SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING. STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.

Contractor for Sewer Connection.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

FOR THE COMMUTER

The State Trust Company offers the following facilities:

Convenient banking hours: Business may be transacted as early as 8:15 in the morning.

New York checking privileges: Checks may be made payable at the Union Trust Company, New York.

Free collection of out of town checks: Items on points throughout the United States and Canada collected without charge.

Liberal interest: 3% interest on checking accounts of $500.00 or more.

We are now caring for a number of New York business accounts on this basis, and offer our facilities to any New York business man who may be paying exchange on his out of town checks, or who is receiving less than 3% interest in New York.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

CAPITAL $100,000.00

For the College Boy

We suggest these striking new English models, as shown in our famous Slater Morrill and Heywood $5.00 and $6.00 lines.

If you are not already acquainted with the splendid merits of these new Fall lines, we urge you to make their acquaintance this Fall.

They have that classy English custom appearance with its flat toe, flat heel, wide shank and blind eyelets.

Shown in rich dark tan, mahogany and black steel calf.

M. C. Van Arsdale

127 E. Front St.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Adv.

DR. MANDEVILLE SPECIALIST

565 Broad St., opposite Shubert's Theatre, Newark, N. J.

Twenty years' experience as a specialist in all chronic diseases of MEN AND WOMEN.

Catarrh, Nervous Diseases, Diseases of Heart, Kidneys, Stomach, Liver or Bladder, Rheumatism and all Lung Diseases.

Office Hours: Daily, 2 to 4 p. m.; 6 to 8 p. m. Mornings, Tuesdays and Fridays, 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Closed all day Saturday.

ADVICE FREE.

Don't Forget Name, Place and Number.

UPHOLSTERING WINDOW SHADES AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff

721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscriber, Executrix of Peter V. Weaver, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Friday the twenty-fifth day of September, next. Dated August 21st, 1914.

KATE FRAZEE.

Codington & Blatz, Proctors.

8-22-5-S Fees, $4.20

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON, Managers.

TONIGHT

HERBERT KELSEY & EFFIE SHANNON

In That Famous Photo Play

AFTER THE BALL

PRICES—Night, 5c, 10c, 15c.

3 DAYS COMMENCING MONDAY, SEPT. 21, Matinee Daily

ANNETTE KELLERMAN

In the Most Talked of Photo Plays

NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTER

PRICES—Matinee and Night—15c and 25c.

3 Shows Daily—2:30, 7 and 9 P. M.

Thursday, Sept. 24th

Henry W. Savage

Offers the Overwhelming Wave of Melody

SARI

Emmerich Kalman Operetta Sensation

Sets the Heart to Singing—The Feet to Ringing

An Unexcelled Cast, Chorus and Orchestra

PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00.

Friday, September 25th

Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50

Satisfaction

There is just one and only one human motive that causes men to buy things, and that motive is—satisfaction, contentment in possession, use and enjoyment. This is one of the reasons why this agency is writing such a large volume of insurance.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

LOCAL NEWS OF INTEREST
will always be found in the classified columns on the page before the last.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight and Tuesday, not much change in temperature; gentle, variable winds.
Max., 84; min., 46.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

CALVERT SHOULD BE VICTORIOUS

County Clerk Has Had Highest Endorsement for a Renomination.

AN EXCELLENT RECORD

The Same Qualities Which Make the Candidate a Courteous Official Has Been Used in Conducting His Campaign.

"As an abstract proposition, the campaign Mr. Calvert has conducted should make him victorious at the polls Tuesday."

This is the manner in which interested voters in all parts of the county expressed themselves when approached for their views by a disinterested party endeavoring to get a line on the chances of the various candidates whose fate will be decided at the primaries.

Mr. Calvert is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the county clerkship nomination. He is the present incumbent of the office, and in again offering himself he realizes that his acceptance will carry with it justification of his administration.

During his campaign, endorsement has come to him in personal interviews and communications from many sources. Nothing in the way of criticism has been heard. If any dissatisfaction existed it is but natural to expect that at such a time it would come to light. In the absence of unfavorable comment, those backing his candidacy contend that Mr. Calvert is entitled to the nomination on his record.

The endorsement of his incumbency of the office by practically every member of the Union County Bar Association who are best qualified to judge the competency and efficiency of a public servant, and who do it with cold analytical minds,—is of itself a factor that should spell success for his effort, his backers assert, for lawyers are the agents of the people when dealing with public officials, and are quick to see anything that would tend to jeopardize the interests of their clients, and are just as quick to resent it.

The same qualities which make Mr.

(Continued on page 5.)

OUT-OF-TOWN AUTOISTS IN CRASH, NO ONE HURT

Two automobiles, one traveling east on West Seventh street, and the other approaching at right angles on Park avenue, crashed together yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The accident was of the unavoidable nature and both drivers accepted their part of the responsibility, the matter being settled on the spot.

Patrolman McCarthy appeared on the scene soon after the incident occurred and the machine drivers gave their names as Godfrey Hawk, of Bloomsbury, N. J., and Albert Meisner, 352 Central avenue, East Orange.

BOY WOUNDED BY BULLET FROM COMPANION'S RIFLE

Two small boys playing with a flobert rifle resulted seriously for one of the youths Saturday afternoon, and he is now lying in Muhlenberg Hospital suffering from a wound inflicted by a .22 calibre bullet. Eleven-year-old Harold McNeal was watching Frank Russell, a companion, examine the gun at Elk street and Rock avenue, when the weapon went off.

The bullet entered the right side of McNeal's body, passing through and out the back. The fact that the bullet went through and the heat from the lead cauterizing the the wound may save his life.

LOUIS T. MULFORD.

Louis Thompson Mulford, the fourteen months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Mulford, of 142 Duer street, the borough, died this morning, after a short illness. The funeral services will be held from the home of the parents Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, at which time Rev. C. C. Cain of the Grace M. E. church, will officiate. The interment will be made at Hillside.

To the Greater Allentown Fair.

On Thursday, Sept. 24, the Big Day at the Fair. Special train via New Jersey Central will leave Netherwood 7:43, Plainfield 7:46, Grant Avenue 7:48, Clinton Avenue 7:50 a. m., returning from Allentown at 6:30 p. m. Round trip tickets $1.50, good only on special train Sept. 24 —Adv. 9 17-21 ***

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

RUNYON'S REPLY IS MADE PUBLIC

Answered Questions of Union County Federation of Patriotic Societies.

WAS NOT ON 'FAIR LIST'

City Judge's Name Not Printed on Circular Letter Sent Out and He Gives Out Copy to Show Where He Stands on Subject.

In a circular letter, of which 50,000 copies are reported to have been distributed by the "Union County Federation of Patriotic Societies," an organization formed for political purposes, the name of William N. Runyon, of this city, one of the candidates for the Republican nomination for Assembly, is omitted. Some time ago a letter containing six questions was sent by the organization to every candidate for office, and those who answered the questions satisfactorily had their names included on the list printed on the circular. Judge Runyon answered the questions, and a copy of his letter is printed herewith:

"September 8, 1914.

"Mr. W. H. I. Cubberley, Secretary.

"My dear Mr. Cubberley: I am in receipt of your letter issued in behalf of the Union County Federation of Patriotic Societies and am glad to reply thereto. In common with all who endeavor to be good Americans, I am a firm believer in our great Public School system; in the freedom of press and speech, and in the complete separation of Church and State. I believe that funds collected from the public at large should be expended only for that same public, and while I do not know to what your question No. 4 refers as a matter of principle in the abstract, I should answer that in the negative. The answer to question No. 6 I should prefer to leave to others who have known something of me in times past.

"May I say a word further? I believe that every person in this country has a perfect right to worship God as he or she may deem fit, whether Jew or Gentile, Catholic or Protestant. I believe that our forefathers intended this country to be the asylum for the oppressed of all nations.

(Continued on page 5.)

DECLARE WHERE THEY STAND ON EXCISE QUESTION

Circulars announcing the stand of the various candidates for the nomination of ward councilmen on the liquor questions which periodically come before the local governing body, were circulated yesterday at a number of the local Sunday-schools. The circulars were the outcome of a meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Men's Bible Classes held September 10, at which time it was decided to closely question each of the candidates as to their stand on these questions which are raised each year in this city. This action has been expected since the meeting of the Congregational Church Men's Club late last spring, when Councilman Leighton Calkins, now candidate for Mayor, spoke before that organization of the liquor ordinance which he had introduced before the Common Council a short time before.

MOTORCYCLE RIDER HAD FOUR TOES TORN AWAY

Benjamin White, a colored porter employed at the Queen City Hotel, suffered a painful injury at 3:30 yesterday afternoon while riding on the back of a motorcycle piloted east on Watchung avenue, by Nicholas Zelmas.

An approaching trolley car caused the light vehicle to skid to one side of the street and White's foot struck against the rear wheel. The mechanism caught the shoe and four of the boy's toes were severed. Patrolman John Fritts was in the vicinity at the time the mishap occurred and the boy was ordered removed to Muhlenberg Hospital.

GIRL SENT HOME.

A demented girl picked up here last week and who has been cared for by the Y. W. C. A. authorities, was taken to her home in Newark, Saturday afternoon, by the police. She was found wandering aimlessly about the streets of the city and could not give a satisfactory account of her self.

—This is the last week that peaches will be in the local market in large quantities. Neuman Brothers are continuing to offer the largest display in town of fancy fruit, and also have a fine showing of pears, plums and grapes at their Watchung avenue market. Grapes for making grape juice are at their best this week.—Adv. ***

SERIOUSLY HURT IN AUTO TRAGEDY

Mrs. Hart Farlee and John Valiant May Die as Result of Midnight Collision.

RETURNING FROM CLUB

Trio Had Attended the Plainfield Country Club's Weekly Dance——Valiant's Car Crashes Into Disabled Taxicab.

Three persons are lying in Muhlenberg Hospital as the result of a collision between two automobiles on the upper end of Park avenue late on Saturday night. One, Mrs. Hart Farlee, of 1230 Watchung avenue, is believed to have only slight chances for recovery. The driver of the car, John Valiant, of Myrtle avenue, North Plainfield, is also seriously injured. Frederick Gwyer, of 303 East Seventh street, escaped with minor injuries and will recover.

The mishap occurred about 500 feet south of the city line and those who reached the scene soon afterward say the fact that all escaped instant death was little short of miraculous. According to information given by those in the accident the Valiant car was traveling south on Park avenue at a lively clip and crashed into the radiator of a taxicab standing on the south side of the thoroughfare. Seated in the rear of the taxi were George Pierson, a chauffeur, and Oscar Anderson, both colored, of 817 Richmond street, a passenger. Gwyer was hurled through the air a great distance, while Mrs. Farlee and Valiant were pinioned under the overturned vehicle. The two men in the taxicab were thrown to the roadbed but escaped serious injury. The cars were badly damaged, the touring car in charge of Valiant being totally wrecked, while the lighter taxicab had its front smashed in.

According to the manager of the taxicab company owning the vehicle in the smashup, his man had left the North Avenue station with a passenger shortly after 11 o'clock and was traveling to South Plainfield when a tire blew out. He turned the car to the right side of the road and when removing the tire for repairs

(Continued on page 5.)

LOCAL AUTOMOBILE PARTY'S EXPERIENCE A HAIR-RAISER

Three local automobilists were treated to a hair-raising experience near Glenside Park, yesterday afternoon while their machine was climbing a steep grade. The pilot of the machine, Samuel Schwartz, attempted to shift his speeds, but evidently threw in the reverse lever and the auto immediately started to back up.

The vehicle crashed into a fence that had been erected at the top of a cliff at the side of the road and the obstruction was the only thing that saved the occupants from a fall of a hundred feet or more. For a time the auto hung suspended over the fence and the riders, who were Samuel Rothberg, Abe Schwartz and the driver, were given an opportunity to climb out to safety. The car was righted and the party continued on its trip.

WILL MAKE EFFORT TO FORM CIVIC BODY ON FRIDAY

A final effort will be made to bring about the consolidation of the local civic bodies on Friday evening, when the members of the Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, West End Civic Association, Netherwood Residents' Association, and all other similar bodies will be invited to attend a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. The idea was first broached at a small meeting held in the Queen City Hotel on September 10, at which time representatives of most of the civic bodies in the city were present. The plan is one which has been worked successfully in other cities by the Bureau of Civic Promotion, a New York corporation, who make a specialty of organizing similar bodies elsewhere.

The meeting will be addressed by William Wakefield, secretary of the company, and he will tell of a civic and commercial plan for the development of Plainfield. H. A. Davidson, field agent and organizer of the Bureau has been in town for several days in the past month, working on the proposition, and he completed the arrangements this morning for the meeting to be held on Friday night.

WHO LOST THESE PAPERS?

A set of naturalization papers were found Saturday and turned over to the police. The name of William Uzell is affixed and he can have the papers by making application at headquarters.

GIVE RAILROADS A "SQUARE DEAL"

The People Are the Real Owners Says Former Senator Ernest R. Ackerman.

JUSTICE IS DEMANDED

Ten Million People Derive Their Support From These Institutions and Unnecessary Burdens Strike a Blow at Investment Interests.

The importance of giving the railroads of the country the "square deal," was emphasized strongly today by former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, who in an interview with a representative of The Daily Press, set forth his reasons therefore. One great fact, which apparently has been overlooked by those who unreasonably criticise railroads, was pointed out by Mr. Ackerman, and that is that the people possess a dominant interest in these railroads. In discussing the matter, Mr. Ackerman said:

"The transportation of commodities and individuals is the greatest industry in the United States. Economy, efficiency and nonesty are the principles by which a large majority of the transportation systems are guided. As I have publicly stated in previous remarks on this subject, the people, through their deposits in savings banks, their policies in fire, life and accident insurance companies are the real owners of the railroads of the country for these institutions have investments of over two thousand millions of dollars of the people's money in railroad securities. Besides this nearly a half million of individual investors are stockholders on the books of seventy-eight railroads. It is a very high form of public service and responsibility to have the privilege and the opportunity of serving the people's interests by helping to direct the affairs of a great railroad system.

"In the treatment of the railroad problem of the country this fact seems to escape the attention it deserves that the people possess a dominant investment interest in the railroads. Railroading is not a special but an intensely great interest of the common people. Let us have justice for the people emphasized by giving

(Continued on page 5.)

SECOND WARD COMMITTEE ENDORSES FOR ASSEMBLY

The executive committee of the Republican organization of the Second ward has looked into the records of the various candidates for the Assembly nomination at the primaries tomorrow. In view of the large number on the ballot they have decided to recommend to all Republicans the names of Arthur N. Pierson, of Westfield; former Judge W. N. Runyon, of this city, and Arthur E. Warner, of Elizabeth.

The committee consists of J. Herbert Case, Arthur Lovell, E. F. Dorman, W. W. Coriell and Howard H. Williams.

BIG PRIMARY VOTE IS EXPECTED TOMORROW

The first important event in the political campaign this year, will be the primary election to be held tomorrow, when the district Election Boards will sit from 7 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening. Voters in addition to casting their ballots for the prospective candidates, will also have an opportunity tomorrow to register for the general election in November. The polling places in Plainfield will be found in another column of the Daily Press.

At the primary election tomorrow there will be nominated a Congressman, State Senator, three Assemblymen, a sheriff, county clerk, registrar of deeds, coroner, a Mayor and ward councilmen. Both the Republican and Democratic parties have contests, while the Progressive and Socialists also have prospective candidates. As there is unusual interest in this year's political contest, it is expected that there will be a big vote polled.

CREDIT ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The Business Men's Credit Association is to hold its first meeting of the seascon this evening in the Frost building, this being the first gathering of the organization since late in the spring. Several matters of importance will be presented to the gathering. Matters of financial importance to the members will also be considered.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

BRUNT OF FIGHTING ON AISNE BORNE BY ALLIES LEFT WING; RUSSIANS PURSUE AUSTRIANS ON RIVER SAN

Berlin Says Orders Were Given to Spare Rheims Cathedral, But German Fire Destroyed Historic Buildings -- Kaiser's Government Determines to Fight to the End--London Hears that Germans Have Started General Evacuation of France, Withdrawing All Troops to Border.

London, Sept. 21, (Central News Cable)—Advices received here today show that there is practically no change in the situation in the battle of the Aisne. The brunt of the fighting continues to be borne by the extreme left of the allies' forces. Elsewhere the successes of one side have been counterbalanced by forward movements of the other, but military experts assert that the allies have improved their position as far as it affects the continuation of the struggle, since they have reached and intrenched themselves on high ground.

The Russians are pursuing the Austrians along the River San.

A large part of the German forces is retiring with trains and heavy stores, according to a despatch to the Express, detailing the results of aeroplane reconnoisance near Soissons. It is believed orders have been received from Berlin for the main forces to retire and defend the German frontiers, leaving only 200,000 men to defend the fortified lines and cover the retirement. According to the same Soissons despatch Gen. Von Kluck's army is being heavily reinforced. It is reported that 100,000 troops are coming through Belgium by way of Mauberge.

Paris, Sept. 21 (Central News Cable)—The following announcement was given out by the French war office today:

"First, on our left wing, on the right bank of the river Oise, we have advanced as far as the heights of Lassigny, west of Noyon. To the east of the Oise and to the north of the river Aisne, the Germans have given evidence of recrudesence of activity.

"In the region of Craonne there have been violent encounters which did not stop short of bayonet charges. The enemy has been everywhere repulsed with considerable losses.

In the country around Rheims the enemy has not undertaken any infantry attack, confining himself to artillery fire, directed against our front, from heavy guns.

"Second, on the center, in the Champagne country and on the western slopes of the Argonne river, an exception being made of Souain, we have taken Mesnilles, Sur, Lus and Masriges. In the Woevre district the enemy still holds the region of Thiacourt and has cannonaded Hassonchate on our right wing.

"In Lorraine and the Vosges there is nothing new. The Germans are fortifying themselves in the vicinity of Delmiet to the south of Chateau Salins."

Amsterdam, Sept. 21 (Central News Cable).—An official despatch received here yesterday from Berlin says that during the atacks made by the Germans against the Franco-British forces, the Kaiser's troops made some progress at various points. Rheims, the despatch states is situated in the battle front of the French army and the Germans were obliged to answer the enemy's fire, although the Germans regret the damage caused to the town. Orders were given, the message adds, to spare the Cathedral as much as possible, but it was practically destroyed yesterday.

The attacks made by the French in the centre of the Vosges Mountains in the neighborhood of Donon, Senones and Saales were repulsed, the despatch concludes. No news has been received today from the eastern theatre of war.

A despatch from Berlin quotes the Norddeutsche Zeitung as follows: "According to a report from Washington the German ambassador is stated to have declared that Germany is inclined to make peace on a basis which will insure German territory remaining intact. Such reports are calculated to give the impression that Germany, notwithstanding the victories of her armies in both the west and east is exhausted. Germany at the moment is not thinking in any way of peace and it may be well to repeat that Germany has but one purpose, to fight to the end this war which has been recklessly thrust upon it."

A despatch from Brussels says that Gen. Von Der Goltz is conducting a personal inquiry into the fighting recently between soldiers of the Bavarian and Prussian forces in the German army.

Antwerp, Sept. 21 (Central News Cable).—The action of Minister Woeste, who remained in Brussels, in consenting to transmit to the Belgian government in Antwerp the proposals of Gen. Von Der Goltz, the German military governor of Belgium, has created a painful impression here. The German terms as known now were that civil government be immediately resumed by the Belgians in all towns from which the German occupation is withdrawn with the condition that the Germans be permitted to continue communication with the army in France without interruption. Minister Woeste was received very cooly by the officials in Antwerp. The Belgian government refused point blank to consider the terms which mean disloyalty to the allies. Belgium's reply was a sally of her troops from Antwerp. The influence of Woeste is broken, henceforth, as a result of his activity in this matter.

MISS HYDE WEDS DARRAGH A. PARK

Daughter of Charles L. Hyde Married at Southampton, L. I., Saturday.

A RECEPTION FOLLOWS

Bride and Groom Leave on Extended Motor Trip—Will Reside at Westbury, L. I., on Their Return—Wedding Attendants.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Hyde, daughter of Charles Livingston Hyde, of this city, and Darragh A. Park, son of the late William Gray Park and Mrs. Park, of New York, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Dune church, Southampton, L. I. Rev. Herbert Shipman, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York, performed the ceremony. The guests were limited to members of both families.

The bride wore a gown of soft white satin with a court train, and her veil of tulle was edged with rare old lace which belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Charles H. Godfrey. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and gardenias.

There were two bridesmaids, Miss Edith Mortimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, of Roslyn, L. I., and Miss Elsie S. Park, a sister of the bridegroom, whose engagement has just been announced. They wore gowns of yellow chiffon with touches of brown, topped with dark brown velvet hats, with feathers to match, and each carried a bouquet of tea roses.

The flower girls were the little Misses Betty Neilson, a niece of the bridegroom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neilson, and Ann Colby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Colby, of West Orange. They were in frocks of pale blue, with picture hats, and carried baskets filled with tea roses.

James Park acted as best man for his brother. The ushers included H. Pratt McKean, George von L. Meyer, Jr., Thomas Frothingham, J. Griswold Webb, P. Erskine Wood, C. H. Davis, Humphreys Parsons, Samuel M. Felton, Walter Tufts, Carleton Burr, Lewis Park and H. Godfrey Hyde.

The church was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and white dahlias, with festoons of oak leaves. The bride walked down the nave with her father, who gave her in marriage.

After the church ceremony a reception was held at Nighbrink, the summer home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Godfrey Hyde, with whom she had lived since the death of her mother. The couple received the congratulations of their relatives and friends under a bower of autumnal flowers in the drawing room. The house was decorated with clematis and oak leaves.

Later Mr. Park and his bride left in their motor on their honeymoon trip. They will live in Old Westbury, L. I., on their return.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. W. Rossiter Betts and Mrs. Everett Colby and of Henry Fletcher Godfrey and Edwin Drexel Godfrey. Mr. Park's grandfather on the maternal side was General J. B. Sweitzer, of Civil War fame.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The initial meeting of the Women's Association, of the Congregational church, will be held tomorrow afternoon, at the Parish House at 3 o'clock, at which time a paper on "In Redman's Land" will be read by Mrs. J. P. F. Dunning. The golden anniversary envelopesfl which are at present in the hands of the members, will be received at the gathering. A session of the executive committee will be held at 2:30.

For County Clerk at Republican Primary, James C. Calvert.

Conduct of his office endorsed by Former Chancellor and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Wm. J. Magie, Former Gov. Foster M. Voorhees, Former Judge Clark Mck. Whittemore and practically all the members of the Union County Bar Ass'n as well as thousands of Republican citizens throughout the county who signed his petition of nomination. —Paid for by James C. Calvert Committee.—Adv. 9 21 2

MILLINERY

(Salon, second floor).

We hold no expensive openings, or make lavish displays—but we are ready for business for new seasons on September 1st and February 1st—but we give extra good values instead. Which do you prefer?

Now Ready

Copies of foreign models, also original designs from our own workrooms. Equal styles and workmanship elsewhere are priced at least one-half as much more.

Many small, close fitting styles are predominating; however, many medium sizes are displayed and larger hats, including French sailors and picture styles are gaining in favor every day.

Plain and novelty ostrich, also wings of many styles, divide trimming favor with conventionalized flowers and metallic braids.

On the whole styles are attractive to the last degree—and there certainly is a becoming one for every woman.

Women's Tailored Suits

Smartly Designed--Extraordinary Value at . . $15

Black, navy, green and brown colors; novelty cut and straight line models; self of velvet collars; straight and yoke top skirts. Coats are satin lined to waist; all sizes; would be a good $21.50 value, at only ..... $15.00 each

Window Shades

Made-to-Order

Also big stocks of ready-made shades in all colors. Best workmanship and best materials in made to order shades. Estimates furnished without cost; all work guaranteed.

Shoe Dept.

Cor. W. Front and Madison Ave.

New 'Fall Styles Now In

We are sole agents for the famous "Sorosis" Shoes in Plainfield. The best kind of school shoes for boys and girls at popular prices.

NOTE—How many seeds in Pumpkin—See window display for full particulars.

Our Men's Furnishing Department

The best place to buy your Shirts, Underwear, Ties, Pajamas, etc. No fancy prices for latest style furnishings, but extremely good values for every item. Now ready:

New Fall Shirts...50c and $1.00
Root's Underwear..$1 and $1.50
New Neckwear.....25c and 50c
Fine Underwear at.....50c
Men's Night Shirts.....50c
Men's Pajamas....$1 and $1.50

BAGS AND SUIT CASES.

A complete stock in all sizes at popular prices.

CONTINUING ALL THIS WEEK IN THE BASEMENT.

Sale of Granite and Galvanized Ware

AT 10c AND 15c

Regular values 15c to 29c.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

IN THE BASEMENT.

Everything for caning and preserving. We have Mason Quart Jars.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yoemans, Mr. and Mrs. Otis M. Webber and Charles Stillger were among those from this place who went on the Central Railroad excursion to Newburg, yesterday.

Arthur Smith Hawley, of New York, spent the week-end in the borough as the guest of his uncle, R. F. Bogardus, of New Market road.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeHart and daughter, Miss Edna, of New Brunswick, former residents of this place, were visitors in the borough yesterday.

Frank Hannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hanon, of Front street, has returned from a visit with his brother, Harry Hannon, at Rockbury, Warren county.

Mrs. Nellie VanBenschoten, of Grove street, entertained her son, Edgar VanBenschoten, of Millstone yesterday.

Mrs. Annette Abbott, of New Market road, has returned from a sojourn since August 15 at Mount Pocono.

Miss Helen Quinn, of Prospect avenue, entertained a cousin from Roselle, yesterday.

Charles Fedderman, of Brooklyn, spent the week-end in the borough as a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fedderman, of Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Westcott, of Prospect avenue, entertained a sister of Mrs. Westcott's from Flushing, L. I., yesterday.

Fred Oakley and Arthur Voorhees witnessed the game between the Giants and the Cubs at the Polo Grounds, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Dean, of Prospect avenue, visited relatives at Passaic over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers, of Prospect avenue, entertained Mrs. Meyers' sister, Miss Margaret Smith, of New York, yesterday.

BOWLING TOURNEY.

The Baracas will bowl a picked local team composed of Harry Giddes, George Vliet, Jules Margentino, Peter Benson and Clifford Smith, in the Presbyterian alleys this evening. The Baracas will bowl in the following order: Allen Fredericks, Fred Oakley, Ralph Parker, Robert Braun and Arthur Voorhees. On paper these teams appear to be pretty evenly matched and a good game is therefore anticipated.

The Board of Trade meets in the borough hall this evening.

Miss Edna VanBenschoten, of Grove street, entertained a Miss Lewis, of Newark, yesterday.

Frederic A. Fedderman, of Washington avenue, spent the week-end at the seashore.

The household effects of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vliet were moved on Saturday by Isaac V. Smalley from the house on Jackson avenue that they have tenanted for the past year or so to one of the apartments in the Kuldoshes flats at the corner of North and Lincoln avenues.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weiner, of Prospect avenue, entertained Mrs. Weiner's sister, Mrs. Mary Motley, of Raritan, yesterday.

Miss Mabel Whitford, who teaches school at Millbridge, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Whitford, of New Market road.

Charles B. Lake, of Jersey City, was a visitor in the borough over the week-end. He was accompanied home by his wife and son, Charles, Jr., who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Lake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodwell, of Jackson avenue, since the first of August.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. Charlotte Fritz, of Penfield place, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lucile Victoria, to Kenneth Dealaman, son of Mrs. Margaret Dealaman, of Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gnatz, of Park place, entertained Miss L. Kull and Mr. Gnatz's brother, Edward Gnatz, both of Newark, over the week-end.

Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Whitford entertained Mrs. Whitford's sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Drake and children, of Plainfield, yesterday afternoon.

M. F. Schofield, of Washington avenue, who has been ill for ten days, is able to assist in the construction of his new home on the former Augustus T. Samson property again.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, of Front street, are entertaining Miss May Ross, of Greenville.

Eric Benson, of Washington avenue, is ill with malaria.

TO TAKE NIGHT COURSE.

Albert Ritterbusch, of Dunellen avenue, has commenced a five years' night course as certified public accountant at New York University.

Martin Fitzsimmons, son of Robert Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, has accepted a night position at the Levgar Structural Company.

Allen Fredericks, of Dunellen avenue, visited his cousin, Miss Alberdine Worthley, of New York, over the week-end.

Lloyd Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sumner Smith, of Grove street, resumes his studies at New York University this week. Mr. Smith is studying to be a chemist.

The National Beef Company is observing the Jewish New Year by being closed all day.

Harrison E. Giddes and Alfred Day motored to Hackettstown, Saturday evening, an spent the night with Paul Bonnell, son of Capt. and Mrs. Bonnell, of Mountainview Terrace, who is employed by a drug store there.

Harold Algie Welch, who has been boarding at the Mansion House on Washington avenue for sometime, has left the borough. He has accepted a position with a refrigerating plant just outside of Philadelphia.

The Misses Kittie and Antoinette Stieverman, of New York city, spent yesterday in the borough as the guests of their sister, Mrs. John E. Dix, of Prospect avenue. They were accompanied home by their little nephews, Edward and Sheldon Dix, who will spend a couple of weeks with them. Edward, who had been in Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, with a fractured jaw, was brought home on Saturday in Judge Rene P. F. von Minden's automobile.

FIRST VISIT IN FIVE YEARS.

Herman Trust, of the Trust farm, on Greenbrook road two miles outside of this place, was motored to the borough yesterday by President Sigard Nicolaysen, of the Standard Investment Company. Mr. Trust is ninety-two years old and this is the first time that he has visited the borough in five years.

J. Ramsey Fisher is taking dancing lessons under the tutorship of Kenneth Dealaman.

James Margentino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Margentino, of North avenue, has accepted a position on the poultry farm of George W. Endicott down country.

John Egan, the genial gate tender at the Prospect avenue crossing of the Central Rialroad, was a visitor in Elizabeth, on Saturday night.

OFF ON A LONG TRIP.

"Bob" Fitzsimons and "Bob Jr.," left Saturday evening for an eighteen weeks' tour of the Middle West. Their first stop will be Pittsburgh. Their many local friends hope that their sparring exhibition will be as profitable to them this year as last.

THROWN FROM WHEEL.

Edward Murphy, the twelve-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Murphy, of North avenue, was knocked off of his bicycle Saturday afternoon by George Block, who was also riding a bicycle. The lads were cycling east along North avenue. Block, who was ahead and on the inside, when the turn around the railroad had been reached, said: "Lookout! Murphy, I am going to turn into the park." Instead of slowing down and allowing Block to pass in safety across his path, Murphy put on more speed. The front wheel of Block's bicycle, which he had started to turn as soon as the words were out of his mouth struck the front wheel of Murphy's bicycle a full side blow, throwing Murphy a distance of three feet. For a second or so he lay motionless just where he had been thrown. He then arose to his feet much to the relief of young Block, who was hurrying to his aid. Murphy was able to go to his home unassisted and when seen last evening appeared to be none the worse for the incident.

BIG PEACH CROP.

Harrison E. Giddes, of Lincoln avenue, is justly proud of the peaches that he has picked this year off of his small orchard of thirty-five trees located on the 50x150 ft. lot on Second street between the residences of Mrs. Marie Hunt and Mrs. Lida E. Parker. As this is a year of abundant peaches it is not the number of baskets that his orchard has yielded him over which Mr. Giddes is proud, but it is the question and the size of the peach. The peach is a California variety of unusual size and lusciousness. It is Mr. Giddes' intention, it is understood, to exhibit a basket of his crop at the Trenton Fair next month.

AN EXCELLENT SERVICE.

Rev. N. J. Sproul, of Newport, R. I., a former pastor, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church las evening. The subject of Mr. Sproul's sermon was the "Sin of Covtousness." The sermon was a most excellent one, keeping the attention of the congregation riveted throughout.

SELLS HER PROPERTY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vliet, on Front street has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stevens, of Portland, Pa., who will take possession on October 1. The household effects of Mr. and Mrs. Vliet will be sold at auction next Monday. They will board temporarily at either Bayonne or Jersey City. Mr. Stevens is an old ex-Plainfield mail carrier. Up to two years ago, when he was placed on the pension list, he had been in the employ of the Plainfield office for twenty-five years.

Miss Frances Hunt, of Second street, is entertaining a Miss Pierce, of New York city.

Postmaster and Mrs. Henry S. Garretson entertained Mr. Garretson's brother, Peter W. Garretson, of New York city.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church held a service in memory of their late member, Miss Nellie Martin Vail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vail, of Dunellen avenue, at the hour of their regular evening service on Sunday, in the chapel of the church.

BUYS A TRACT.

A. H. Burdick has purchased a two acre tract in the borough from Fred Berg, of Orange Valley. The tract, which will be cut up into nine lots, is bounded on the north by Walnut street and on the west by Washington avenue.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

Michael Crameria, of New Brunswick, and Nelson Moody, of this place, were arrested by Marshal Patrick P. Torpey, Saturday night, as a result of a too familiar acquaintance with the "cup." Crameria was arrested by Torpey while sleeping off a spree. Moody was enjoying five bottles of beer while comfortably seated on the lawn of a yard along the main highway when Torpey espied him. Moody had no business to be trespassing in this yard so the marshal locked him up. When arraigned before Recorder David S. Campbell in the borough haal at noon yesterdal, Moody was fined $2 and Crameria was given a suspended sentence.

PLAN A FISHING TRIP.

A party composed of Russell Brakley, Paul Kratzel, William Watercamp and Edward Swaney are planning a fishing trip to Barnegat over the coming week-end.

CAMP FIRE OUTING.

A party of twenty-four young people from New York city, Plainfield and this place enjoyed a camp-fire outing on the top of the neighboring mountain Saturday evening. The party was arranged by Miss France Hunt, of Second street. The young people arrived at the spot, that had been picked out, just above the old stone crusher at 6 o'clock. Two fires, one to furnish light, and the other to cook a supper, were immediately started. The supper, which was a sumptuous one, was ready at 9 o'clock. After it had been served the balance of the night was passed in toasting marshmellows, singing, telling tales, etc. The affair broke up at midnight.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Frank Mohan was tendered a surprise party at his home, No. 316 North avenue, in honor of his birthday, last evening. The affair had been arranged by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Margentino. The surprise was a complete one. The evening was pleasantly passed in playing games, dancing, singing, etc. A dainty repast was served at 11 o'clock at the conclusion of which a few remarks of congratulation were made by Owen Mohan, Jr. The affair broke up at midnight, the departing ones expressing the hope that Mr. Mohan might live to pass many more mile-stones.

Paul Kratzel, of Front street, entertained his son, Paul Kratzel, Jr., of Roselle Park, recently.

'Plains & Fanwood.

In the hopes of having a larger vote polled the Fanwood Township Board of Education has decided to hold another election in School No. 1 on Wednesday, when the voters will be asked to appropriate $16,500 for the purchasing of a plot of land and erection of a school thereon. An election for the same purpose was held September 1, when out of the some three hundred voters in the township and borough only thirty-two cast the ballot. The plot of land it is planned to buy is on Plainfield avenue 750 feet from Jerusalem road. The plans call for a one story fireproof building containing four rooms. The lot will cost $1,000 and the building $15,500. The polls will open at 8 o'clock and remain open for one hour.

Miss Viola Garder, of North avenue, will not return to her studies at the Montclair Normal School this fall but has taken a position as teacher of the first grade in the Washington School at Plainfield.

Sidney Lidgate, of North avenue, has returned from visiting his aunt, Mrs. William Baxter, of New Canaan, Conn.

Rev. J. Madison Hare was in charge of the services at the Baptist church, yesterday, and took as the topic of his sermon at the morning service, "Beginning at New Jersey."

Mrs. Louisa Manchester and daughter, Mrs. S. G. Warager, of Camden, have returned home after spending several days with Mrs. W. S. Cory, of Park avenue.

Arthur Vanderveer has returned to New York city after spending the summer in the borough.

On Tuesday evening, September 29, special services will be held in All Saints' Episcopal church when a large confirmation class will be received into the church. A prominent minister will be present to officiate and will make the principal address.

Duffield Prince, of Martin avenue, is on a business trip in Massachusetts.

Henry L. Jesperson, Sr., is on a business tour of the Middle West for several weeks.

Mrs. James Allen has returned to her home in Westfield with her daughter, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert G. Meggy, of North avenue.

Although it is expected that John VanNosdall, who was stricken by apoplexy several weeks ago in the borough, will recover, it is said he will never be able to re-open his blacksmith shop on South avenue. It is said that the former owner of the shop will again take the business.

James Minminzeck and family, who have been making their home at the "Homestead" for some time, have removed to their new home on Midway avenue.

German Valley. and Chester

Mrs. John Bird, of German Valley, is convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Swackhamer, of German Valley, are entertaining Miss Florence Davis, of Brooklyn.

The corn crop will be a heavy yield throughout Chester township.

Irwin E. Smith, of Chester, has completed a three-week stay at Ocean Grove.

Asa Mower has returned to Chester, after spending two weeks in New York.

Werner Sturzeneggar, of Chester, will return to a training school in Nazareth, Pa., about September 25.

Rev. David C. Kauffman, of New York, is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. John De Camp, of Chester.

Frederick Mulford, of Hoboken, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Mulford, of Chester.

Miss Ethel Rockafeller, of Orange, is the guest of the Misses Mae and Mabel Rockafeller, who live near Chester.

John Chapman, of Point Pleasant, Pa., concluded a visit Thursday to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, of Chester.

High Bridge-Califon.

Russell Waters and Clarence Hann, of Califon, are ill at their respective homes.

Mrs. Lonk Schambury, of Newark, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Belle Philhower, at Califon. Mrs. Richard L. Beatty, of Middle Valley, was also a recent guest at the Philhower home.

Ezra Wolter, about forty-five years old, of Middle Valley, was taken to a Morristown hospital last week to undergo an operation.

The personal property of Gobel W. Blaine, of Little Brook, was sold Friday at public sale.

Peter Alpaugh, a farmer at Hoffmans, was severely kicked on the leg last Thursday by a horse.

Holloway Slater, of Asbury, spent part of the week with the family of Edgar Lance, at High Bridge.

Miss Myrtle Lake returned to High Bridge last week after visiting at Newark.

Harvey D. Alpaugh, of Newark, is making a stay at Califon.

Hunterdon County.

Miss Margaret Wilson, of Hampton, is spending some time in Flanders.

The Ruby Seal Club, of Hampton, will hold a dance in Odd Fellow Hall, Wednesday night, October 28.

Francis Sell, of Hampton, is visiting relatives in Newark.

Norman O'Neil, of Bayonne, is at the home of his father, Henry O'Neil, in Hampton.

Mrs. William Cramer, of Easton, Pa., is being entertained by relatives in Clinton.

Mrs. William Wilson, of Clinton, is spending some time with her sister in Raritan.

Mrs. Charles Garrison, of Clinton, is with relatives in High Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Waterous, of Clinton, have as their guest Walter Mink, of Newark.

The tax rate for Clinton township this year is $2.12 per hundred. In the village of Annandale, which is set off as a fire district, the rate is $2.35.

After spending some time in Plainfield, Mrs. Lydia Eick has returned to her home in Annandale.

Miss Etta Apgar, of Cokesbury, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George C. Apgar, at Annandale.

Mrs. Robert Laws, of Newark, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sturm, at Norton.

Rev. A. B. Williamson, pastor of the Bloomsbury Presbyterian church, preached a special sermon yesterday on "Christian Science."

Mrs. J. H. Hook, of Plainfield, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Smythe, at Norton.

Mrs. B. Stamerton, of Asbury, is visiting her daughter in West Portal.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hulsizer and son, of Jersey City, are visiting relatives in Asbury.

Miss Florence Eveland, of Plainfield, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Chopin, in Glen Gardner.

E. N. Lance, of Glen Gardner, left yesterday for Detroit, where he will spend several months.

Mrs. John D. Stapes, of Hampton, is entertaining Mrs. M. L. Andries, of Oxford.

"Education" was the theme of Rev. Ward C. Peabody in the Musconetcong Valley Presbyterian church

STYLISH RELIABLE

A LITTLE HISTORY

Some months ago an idea was conceived, which, if put into operation, would mean that men and young men in all walks of life could be dressed as well as the next fellows, and at the same time without spending an enormous price.

The idea took on a practical form and the result was the Rothberg store which opened to the public March 30th, 1912.

Since then hundreds of people have taken advantage of the great VALUES we have offered.

And so from this beginning has been developed an INSTITUTION which has for its object not the making of money ONLY, but giving better values for less money than was ever before attempted in our city.

Our new Fall Suits, Fixings and Top Coats are now ready for your inspection; we are pleased to show you at all times, whether you purchase or not.

Store will be closed Monday and Tuesday on account of holiday.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes
"Most Things Men Wear."
214 W. FRONT ST.
Right Next to Proctor's.

Fall Styles Are In

Your Shoes are a most important part of your attire. They must be attractive in appearance, comfortable, correct in style, and made of high grade leather to insure long service and hold their shape; and sell at a moderate price. We have some dandys at—

$3.00 and $3.50

Come in and try them on. We know they will please you.

Boys' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather.

STUART'S SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST.

Girls' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (5 colors)—Portraits of 16 European rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy and Aerial Strength, Populations, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Coin Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Five Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

yesterday.

Mrs. John Knoeppler and daughter, of Changewater, are spending some time in Jersey City.

Miss Mabel Garey, of Changewater, is at the home of her uncle, John Garey, in Elizabeth.

Mrs. Robert Bowlby, of Rockaway, is spending a few days in Hampton.

Miss Emma Ley, of Changewater, spent the week-end in Hampton.

Westfield.

A meeting will be held tomorrow evening at the Baptist church parlors to make arrangements for the tournament of the bowling league of the Sunday-school Athletic Association.

John Crawford, of Mountainside, was sent to the conty jail, last week, for ten days for being drunk in the borough and frightening the children at the Country Home.

Somerville

Mrs. Cecil Hoffman, of Westfield, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. William McClure, of Middaugh street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tobian, of Trenton, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Ehni, of Middaugh street.

Meseroll Jamison, of Ossining, spent the week-end with his sisters, the Misses Jamison, of East Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Klotz, of North Bridge street, are entertaining their granddaughter, Miss Maud Klotz, of Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cawley, of South Bridge street, are in Morristown for a week.

Miss Mae Drake, of Millstone, is visiting in Newark.

Mrs. John Hageman, of Harlingen, is a guest of her son, Andrew Hageman, at Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, who have been spending the summer near Harlingen, returned last week to their home in Brooklyn.

Miss Ella Lowe, of Newark, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mary DeHart, at Middlebush.

The Somerset County Bible Society has elected the following officers: President, Rev. John Hart; vice-president, Rev. Charles G. Mallory; secretary, Clarence E. Case; treasurer, Rev. William S. Cranmer; executive committee, Rev. Charles Corwin, Charles M. Wyckoff, John F. Regor, Andrew S. Coriel and Rev. Morris Church.

Flemington.

Professor Norman Landis will give an organ recital in the Presbyterian church September 29.

The Middlesex Country Club's tennis team played the Flemington Tennis Club here Saturday afternoon.

Andrew S. Arrison has returned to his home in Jersey City after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Letetia McMurtry.

Rev. Dr. A. W. Sonne and former Judge John L. Connet will represent the Flemington Presbyterian church at the fall meeting of the Presbytery of New Brunswick at the Second Presbyterian church, of Trenton, tomorrow.

Whitehouse

M. Irving Demarest, the contractor who is building the Whitehouse-New Germantown macadam road, announces that it will be completed before cold weather sets in. He states that he has been delayed somewhat by the suspension of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Railroad, which causes him to cart all the stone used, instead of shipping it by rail.

Donald Trumbower, son of Rev. and Mrs. William Trumbower, of East Whitehouse, went to Pennington, Thursday, to enter the seminary.

Gilbert M. Bonnell, of Newark, is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. S. M. Bonnell, at Whitehouse Station.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Scudder, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, at West New Brighton, S. I., addressed an assembly of young people Friday night in the Methodist church at Gladstone at the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of that church. The celebration was continued Saturday with special services all day.

Mr. and Mrs. James May, Jr., are spending their honeymoon with Mr. May's sister, Mrs. Raymond Apgar, at Peapack.

Miss Emily Johnson, of New York is spending a week at her former home, near Lamington.

Rev. William A. Schomp, of Walden, N. Y., preached at both services yesterday in the Reformed church at Peapack. He is a native of Bedminster township.

Miss Bessie Blazure has returned to her home at Gladstone after a visit of a week to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blazure, in Newark. While there she also visited her sister, Miss Lulu Blazure.

Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, lectured yesterday afternoon in the schoolhouse at Harlan.

Mrs. William Walker, of Potterstown, spent yesterday in Newark.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

WANTED—White laundress one day a week, references required. 502 West Seventh street. 9 21 tf

New Providence.

Mrs. Margaret E. Kellogg, of Union avenue, Berkeley Heights, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Soderholm, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Lucy Bogart, of New York, is a guest of Captain and Mrs. Bernard Cummings, of Mountain avenue, New Providence township.

There will be a special meeting of the Borough Board of Education this evening, in the Lincoln School to take up the question of submitting plans for a new building or adding four rooms to the present structure.

"The Bylaws of a Christian" was the subject of Rev. N. C. Reeves' sermon yesterday morning in the Presbyterian church. Evening services were resumed and he preached on "Wisdow Writ Large."

Rev. William H. Evans preached yesterday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church on "Paul, the Man of Gog." The evening subject was "Christian Character."

PRESIDENT INCENSED BY PEACE STORIES

Protests Against Unwise Discussion and Loose Statements Being Heard.

Washington, Sept. 21—Incensed by public reports that he was to call a world peace congress in an effort to put a stop to the war in Europe, President Wilson today, repeated his protest against what he had previously termed the unthinking and unwise discussion of peace movements at this time.

The President feels that such loose statements not only are embarrassing to the administration at present, but that they may place the United States in a position from which it would be difficult to make effective offers of its good service when the time arrives for mediation.

Paul Fuller, the President's personal investigator in Mexico, will make a report to the President, Wednesday, on his recent inquiries into conditions south of the Rio Grande. Mr. Fuller arrived in the capital today. The President experssed to inquirers today, his complete satisfaction with the manner in which the new Mexican Government was conducting itself. He said he was inclined to place little credence in the reports of disturbances in northern Mexico emanating from El Paso.

President Wilson will make as quick a trip as steam will permit tomorrow, when he journeys to Princeton to vote for Congressman Allan B. Walsh, who is seeking re-election from that district. The President will leave here at 8 a. m. and expects to be back in Washington by 6 o'clock in the evening.

TRIES TO END HER LIFE BY CUTTING HER THROAT

Despondency caused by ill health led to an attempt at suicide by Mrs. Mary Laird at her home, 940 West Sixth street, yesterday afernoon. The woman cut her throat with a razor.

Dr. P. B. Cregar, who was called, notified the police and Patrolman Martin Flatley was put on the case. The victim was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital, where she was reported as resting easily today. The cut was not a serious one.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Miss Mabel Crounce will conduct the service at the Rescue Mission this evening.

The Ways and Means Committee will hold their semi-annually meeting tonight.

Th emid-week prayer services will be continued at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, at which time the the pastor, Rev. John Zelie, will speak on "The Clean Heart and the Renewed Spirit." The reference for the topic is Psalms 51:10.

Rally Day will be observed at a number of the local Sunday schools next Sunday, among which will be those of Trinity Reformed and the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian churches.

The Industrial Women Workers of the First Baptist hcurch will hold their first sewing meeting tomorrow.

—Could there be more important news in the paper than is contained in the "help wanted" ads?

MAYOR ANSWERS SMALLEY CHARGE

Borough Executive Claims That Money Has Not Been Spent Lavishly.

APPROPRIATIONS MADE

Outlines Expenditures Authorized and Refutes Statements of Predecessor—Speakers Heard at Saturday Night's Meeting.

Continued interest was displayed in the open air meetings on the consolidation question in the borough, Saturday night, when another large gathering of borough voters listened to arguments for and against the proposition. Some excellent arguments were advanced on each side of the question and new facts unearthed that have a direct bearing on the movement. A. C. Pleydell, ex-Mayor William Saunders, ex-Mayor Newton B. Smalley, Judge Delevan A. Holmes and Charles H. Lyman were speakers of the evening.

In addressing the assemblage, Mr. Smalley made an attack on the present administration in the borough, alleging extravagance and citing certain items in the budget which he classed as foolish. According to the former Mayor economy has not been practised in North Plainfield during Mayor Clark's terms and he also implicated the present Council in the charges. Mr. Smalley said that spending $2,000 to get the increased tax assessment levied in 1912 reduced was mere folly.

In defending his side of the argument to a Daily Press reporter this morning, Mayor Clark said that before one single penny of this money was spent a public hearing was held and this meeting was the largest representative gathering ever convened in North Plainfield for this purpose. According to the Mayor, Mr. Smalley was present at this meeting and made no dissent after the subject had been discussed at length and the Council given authority by a unanimous vote to go to any extreme in order to get the assessment reduced. Mayor Clark further stated: "The inference to be drawn from Mr. Smalley's silence at that time is that he favored the resolution. This year the administration is compelled to refund $10,000 worth of fire-house bonds issued in 1905, which fall due January 1 1915. No provision was made to provide a sinking fund for the liquidation of these bonds at the time they were issued and consequently this year we have refunded them to cover the $10,000 for a period of eighteen years, paying off $500 each year in order to make the payment as light as possible on the taxpayer. We put in this year's budget $1,000 which we shall pay off January 1, 1915. This was a legacy that was left over from a previous administration.

"It is unjust to charge the present administration in paying off a debt that should have been provided for. Again we issued for our joint sewerage project $30,000 in bonds. The law states that we must provide for interest of previous years and to place the same in the hands of the collector to be paid when due. The amount of interest is about $675 to come due annually. The interest on the refunded fire-house bonds amounts to $225, which had to be collected in advance.

"We have made a contract during my administration with Muhlenberg Hospital. Formerly we had no way of appropriating money for this purpose, according to law, but in 1913 a law was passed permitting a borough to appropriate money for this purpose. Plainfield has made a contract with the hospital governors appropriating $3,500 for indigent patients. We have appropriated $500 which is one-seventh less than that of Plainfield. I ask in all fairness if any appropriation to care for indigent patients, who have no means at their command to aid them in their sickness, is not a good thing in this enlightened age? I have given you the above information and ask you in all fairness if I have not shown you that every dollar spent by this adminictration has been spent legitimately and Mr. Smalley's charges not proven?"

SISTERS-IN-LAW FIGHT.

Mrs. Robert Donnelley appeared as defendant in the city court this morning to answer to a hair-pulling charge preferred against her by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Donnelley. Considerable testimony was heard in the case and Judge DeMeza effected a settlement by ordering the complainant to move to another part of the city.

LOCAL MAN TRANSFERRED.

Percy Bailey, of the borough, who has been working for the Swift Beef Company in the local office for some time, has been transferred to the main office in the Bronx, New York. Bailey is a bookkeeper and resides in the city.

ROUNDSMAN WILL RETURN.

After an absence from duty of over a month, Roundsman Andrew Saffron will report at headquarters tonight. Saffron recently underwent an operation in Muhlenberg Hospital for the removal of a blood tumor on his shin and has completely recovered.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

CELEBRATION OF ROSH HASHANAH

Observance of Jewish New Year Will Begin at Sunset Today.

New York, Sept. 21—At sunset this evening the Jewish people throughout the world begin the celebration of Rosh Hashanah, or the festival of the New Year. It is the beginning of the year 5678 of the Hebraic calendar, which is traditionally supposed to count from the creation of the world. The celebration of the New Year's festival is more generally observed by the Jews than any other of the numerous feasts and fasts in their calendar, with the single exception of Yom Kippur, or the Feast of the Day of Atonement, which follows close upon it.

Among orthodox Jews, whose numbers in this city have been greatly increased in recent years by immigrants from Russia and Poland, the ceremonies in connection with Rosh Hashanah extend over two days. With what is termed the reformed element, those who have accepted the modern interpretation of the scriptures, while the celebration of the festival is as strictly observed as among the orthodox, it is confined to one day. The religious observance of the festival enjoins entire abstention from business and all labor, and the attendance upon the religious services at the synagogue.

A prominent feature of the services in the synagogues is the blowing of the ram's horn or shofar. The reason for blowing the horn can be traced back to the beginning of the Jewish race and is supposed to remind the children of Israel that the time for repentance is at hand and they should realize that they have committed sins which should be atoned for. After the blowing of the horn special services and prayers are held to commemmorate the occasion.

In addition to the regularly established congregations worshipping all the year round in places of worship owned or regularly rented by them, the need of many improvised synagogues is imperative owing to the great number of Jews, or the East Side in particular, who do not belong to any established congregation, but who desire to take part in the celebration of the festival. To fulfill this need every available hall and place of public meeting on the East Side, many in Harlem and a number in the Bronx, have been fitted up as temporary places of worship. The seats in these improvised synagogues are bought by those who desire to worship at these places, but there is always a provision made for those who cannot afford the expenditure, so that no one desirous of taking part in the services is turned away.

REUNION OF VACATION PARTY HELD IN THIS CITY

Mrs. Louise Bredello, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ripp, their daughters, the Misses Armida and Editha Ripp; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voldenaur and daughter, Miss Harriet Voldenaur, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Gelhaar, their daughter, Miss Jessie Beryl Gelhaar, and son, Harold Gelhaar, of Jersey City Heights, and Miss Elizabeth Ripp, of the Bronx, were guests Saturday afternoon and evening of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Dobbins, of West End avenue, at a reunion of a summer vacation party at "The Maplehurst," East Stroudsburg, Pa.

Outdoor sports were enjoyed in the afternoon, after which dinner was served. In the evening there was an informal program of music, during which there were tenor solos by Mr. Ripp, vocal duets by Mr. and Mrs. Ripp, instrumental numbers by Miss Elizabeth Ripp, Miss Harriet Voldenaur and Harold Gelhaar. Another reunion of the party will be held in Jersey City the latter part of October.

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

The primary election will be held tomorrow, and the citizens of the State are expected to turn out in large numbers and express their choice of the many candidates who are seeking the votes which shall drop into the ballot boxes tomorrow. The polls will be open from 7 in the morning until 9 in the evening. Voters should bear in mind that to vote ealy is to help lift the burden of the Election Boards, who will appreciate the consideration.

It will take a few days before the campaign prior to the general election gets into full swing, the pause giving the successful candidates a chance to get their "second wind." In the meantime, the voters will be doing well to sort out the questions which they desire to have answered before November 3. Prodding the candidates on questions which interests the voters is not out of place, whether the question is raised by the individual or the organization.

Thost who have, as yet, failed to register for the November election might well take the opportunity tomorrow, whether they desire to vote at the primary or not.

Light voting is anticipated at the Progressive and Socialist boxes, as no contests are scheduled. The Socialists, however, should be on the job to nominate a candidate for Congress for this district.

Personalities have been few and far between in the primary campaign which has just closed in this county, and the voters are just as well satisfied. The average voter desires the qualifications of the candidate speaking, rather than the shortcomings of the opponents.

Local candidates for nominations have made campaigns worthy of citizens from the Queen City, and the compliments of citizens should be awarded them at the ballot boxes tomorrow, as the candidates offered by the three parties are all capable men.

The "May the best man win" spirit has prevailed throughout the anti-primary campaign, and it speaks well for the candidates seeking office from the hands of the voters.

North Plainfield, unlike this city, is without a candidate for the larger offices to be filled this fall, although Watchung has one in William de lak. Anderson, who seeks to go to the halls of Congress. North Plainfield should know how to care for its own.

A greater array of talent in the line of candidates cannot be found in all New Jersey, and Union county it is believed, should be justly proud of the facts.

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer, Aaron, newsdealer.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

New Jersey's Greatest Store

Hahne's—The First Store in New Jersey to Adopt Shorter Hours

HAHNE & CO.
NEWARK

Store opens Daily at 9 A. M. Closes Saturday 6 P. M.

New! New! Newness Is the Very Keynote of the Great Hahne Store These Days!

We Cordially Invite You and Your Friends To Attend Our Formal Opening & Display of

New Autumn Millinery Modes

—Embracing the newest and most approved models—adaptations of the leading Paris models. A noteworthy assemblage—in extent and loveliness—affording ample latitude for selection of wearable styles.

—There's a most practical side to this inaugural of the Hahne Fall Millinery Season—prices are exceedingly reasonable—styles are exclusive.

—Black Velvet Hats, trimmed with fancy feathers, wings, flowers, gold and silver braids, at $3.50 up to $12.

—Velvet Turbans, sailors and large dress hats, with new trimmings—at $2.98 to $7.50.

—Untrimmed Shapes, black Lyons velvet shapes, black and colored plush hats—98c to $7.50.

—Children's Hats, velvet and plush rolling brim and Tyrolean hats, at 49c to $2.98.

Second Floor

The Hahne Player-Piano Club Opened Today!

—Player-Pianos, made and guaranteed by Hardman, Peck & Co., of New York—sold on the liberal Hahne Club Plan—terms of $2 weekly—the instrument to be delivered at once.

—Upon the first payment of $5—approximately three days after you have chosen your instrument—it will be in your home.

In Very Small $2 Weekly Payments

These Club Advantages--

FREE—Music Cabinet to match Player.
FREE—Tuning for one year.
FREE—50 Brand new Music Rolls.
FREE—Piano Stool or Bench.
FREE—Delivery on our wagon delivery system or your nearest freight station.

NO INTEREST—NO EXTRAS OF ANY SORT

WE GUARANTEE—
One—If you find the instrument you purchased other than as represented—your money back.
Two—If within one year from date of purchase you desire to exchange the Player for any other instrument of the same or higher price on our floors, you may do so without loss of a penny.

TEAR OUT—MAIL THIS COUPON!

Hahne & Company,
Newark, N. J.:

Without incurring any obligation on my part, please send full particulars of your Player-Piano Club.
Name .....
Address .....

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

Oscar Michael & Co.

(Formerly W. V. Snyder & Co., Newark)

Formal Opening and Exhibition of Authoritative Autumn Millinery Beginning Monday, September 21

In an enlarged, handsome and improved salon flooded with daylight, our formal Autumnal opening display of Distinctive Milllinery will be a style review, interesting and resplendant, as it will be beautiful.

For here will be gathered, with painstaking care and authoritive selection, all hats—and only those hats—which in every line reflect the best in correct style for Autumn and early Winter wearing.

It will be noted that the wide range of styling allows a delightful variety of choice of shape and size—and yet to be still safely within the correct. While the small hat, in new and novel shapes, still holds its own with its Parisian air, the new distinctly note will be the large picture hat. hailed with delight by many because of its permitting the freest expression of one's individuality.

The always correct and dressy black hat will be well represented in new forms, side by side with the gorgeous plumed large hat, resplendant in new and beautiful colorings. Unusual blending of the new tortoise shades, the soft, dainty colorings of chinchilla; the new begonia pinks, papalin blues, mink browns, jasper greens, and the many hued soft plumed ostrich, fancy mounts, with many interesting metallic treatments and new effects in flowers and novelties.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on application.
Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

SEPT. 21ST IN HISTORY.

1792—Royalty abolished and France declared a republic.
1832—Sir Walter Scott, the famous novelist, died. Born Aug. 15, 1771.
1841—London and Brighton Railway opened.
1846—American forces under Gen. Taylor began the siege of Monterey, Mexico.
1852—John Chambers, first Governor of Ohio, died in Paris, Ky. Born in New Jersey, Oct. 6,1780.
1863—Gen. Bragg began the siege of Chattanooga.
1869—The Dresden Court Theatre was destroyed by fire.
1881—Body of President Garfield lay in state in the Capitol at Washington.
1898—Statue of Samuel de Champlain unveiled in Quebec by Lord Aberdeen.
1904—King Peter of Servia crowned at Belgrade.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 21, 1914.

JAMES C. CALVERT.

In many political positions it is wise not to change the incumbent, as the character of the work makes experience an important qualification. The theory of Civil Service should hold in high positions as well as in low. Here in New Jersey there are but two offices to which a man cannot be re-elected—Governor and Sheriff. It is probably best that such a constitutional prohibition is in force, for in no two places, because of the power of the office, is it easier to build up a political machine. But in many other positions the taxpayers benefit by retaining efficient men.

The Republican voters at the primary tomorrow have one contest to which serious thought should be given, before the ballots are cast. We refer to the county clerkship. If a Republican is to be retained in office it should be the present incumbent James C. Calvert. He has held the place for ten years, and because of his conduct of the office during that time has secured unanimous support for re-election by the leading Republican lawyers of Union county. He seeks renomination and re-election clearly on his record, of which there are no beter judges than lawyers, who come in constant touch with the office.

Opposing Mr. Calvert is Sheriff William H. Wright, who is closing a three-year term. No one disputes that he has made a good sheriff, but the sheriff's position and that of the county clerk require an altogether different character of work.

Not a single charge of inefficiency, lack of attention to duty, or mismanagement of the office, the most important in the county, has been charged against Mr. Calvert. He has succeeded, with the aid of a trained group of assistants, in bringing the standard up higher than in any other county in the State, and the records in his care all show the careful supervision and attention of the head of the office. It is to be hoped that he will be renominated and elected by sweeping majorities.

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD.

The primary campaign, which closes tonight, has been a remarkably clean one in all parties. Last year there were several bitter struggles which developed enmities which were not done away with in some cases by election day. There are contests for nearly every office in both Republican and Democratic parties, with the exception of State Senator. In that office Mr. Pierce, on the Republican ticket has the Progressive endorsement, and he is the only one so endorsed.

A number of Plainfielders are seeking office on the various tickets, and in view of the usual attitude of Elizabeth's voters, of gobbling up everything they can get, the residents of this city should vote for Plainfielders, in an effort to secure them the nomination.

In the Republican ranks William N. Runyon seeks one of the three Assembly nominations; John H. Cose and Samuel P. T. Wilbur, that of sheriff, and Frank H. Smith will be named as the party's candidate for Register of Deeds and Mortgages, as he is unopposed.

Mayor Percy H. Stewart will be nominated by the Democrats for Senator, being unopposed; F. Otto Linke seeks one of the Assembly nominations and John P. Owens is a candidate for county clerk. On the Progressive ticket the only name from this city is that of former Mayor George W. V. Moy, who will receive that party's nomination for Congress in the Fifth district.

With this array of talent there is plenty of opportunity for Plainfielders, regardless of party, to vote for home town people, and that all will get a substantial vote in this city from their respective supporters, goes without saying.

Our Democratic readers do not want to forget, in casting their ballots at the primary tomorrow, that William E. Tuttle, Jr., the present efficient Congressman, seeks renomination. He has been faithfully performing the duties of his office at Washington, and has had no time to campaign for the renomination, but the paraphrased saying that "one good term deserves another" fits his case exactly.

Former Mayor Saunders presented so many strong reasons favoring consolidation in the contributed editorial in Saturday night's Daily Press that it seems hard to understand why there is any opposition to the proposition in the borough. He certainly is right in the contention that the people of the smaller community should be the first to ask those on this side of the brook to take them in Primary day tomorrow. The polls will be open all day, and every Repnublican and Democrat owes it to his party to cast a ballot, as there are many contests. With the Progressives not a contest exists, and their vote will consequently be light

---

---

In the advertising columns tonight are to be found appeals of several candidates for office. Their various claims are all worth careful consideration, and we urge our readers to carefully examine all the arguments presented.

THE FORUM

CONSOLIDATION.

The Daily Press has received a large number of letters on the subject of consolidation. Some of these are printed today, but lack of space compels us to hold others until tomorrow.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

In Mr. MuCutchen's letter printed in your paper certain statements were made that are manifestly unjust to the governing body of the borough and if allowed to pass without refutation, might confuse the minds of the people of the borough as to the question to be decided at the election next Thursday.

The matter of consolidation at this time was brought before the Borough Council by the Board of Trade of Plainfield, a representative organization, by the way, of business men from both Plainfield and North Plainfield. The petition was referred to the public affairs committee in the Council and it was upon that committee's report a month later that action was taken calling for a special election. The desirability of consolidation of the two municipalities became apparent to me soon after I became a member of the Council and the advisability of such a union was often the subject of informal discussion.

In the same manner I personally know the attitude on this question of several of the members of the Plainfield Council and other city officials. The Borough Council did not act impetuously on this subject as one might surmise from reading Mr. McCutchen's letter. The vote of the full Council was five to one in favor of holding the referendum election, even the one negative vote being cast with the statement that it was not to be considered as being opposed to consolidation. No councilman yielded his perogatives as a responsible guardian of the affairs of the borough. It was with the deep conviction that it was for the best interests of the people and that if all the facts in the case were known, they would certainly ratify consolidation with Plainfield at the election. As to the method of procedure to consolidate the two municipalities, that question was passed upon by the borough corporation counsel before any action was taken by the Mayor and Council and it must be assumed that that official knows the law and that the borough authorities are proceeding according to law. The consolidation of the two municipalities cannot be compared with the merger of corporations engaged in competitive business, where as Mr. McCutchen rightly states, "terms and conditions would be make known and understood before the merger was consumated."

Municipalities have to act according to the law of the State and as set forth in the Legislative Enactments under which we are proceeding. In our case six commissioners will be appointed—three from Plainfield and three from the borough and they will settle all questions not otherwise settled by statute. With equal rights on such a commission, there is little danger that the interests of the borough will be neglected. It is remarkable in the way that the borough has been able to make itself what it is without the aid of income a town usually receives through taxes from manufacturing plants and a business center. With the heavy additional expenses soon upon us due to a new school building and the complete sewerage system and with the same stationary ratables to produce income, the tax rate is sure to go up. The logical solution to my mind can only be consolidation with the city of Plainfield.

ALLAN COWPERTHWAITE.
Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 19, 1914.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

There is a great satisfaction in being on the negative side. You don't have to do anything. You don't have to originate anything. You don't have to weary yourself thinking. You don't have to believe in anything or anybody. It saves a lot of trouble. Now, if a tiresome subject, like consolidation, comes up, you can say with Pat, "Shure I don't know fwat it is, but I'm aginst it annyhow." There is no work. All you have to do is to hold back and bear down and keep other people from doing things if you can. And if you can't and they drag your along, bumping you over the stones on the road of Progress, you can say, "Well, I'm not enjoying myself very much, but I am certainly making things harder for those other fellows."

You can still look backwards with satisfaction and say, "What fine days those old days were when we didn't have any conveniences and there weren't any trolleys and everybody walked, but us who had horses and carriages. Confound consolidation! Isolation is good enough for me. What I like is the sanctity of a home without a motherin-law or my friends to bother me."

JOHN M. LEWIN.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

There seems to have been considerable unwarranted agitation within the last few days, over the question of having the citizens of the borough express their opinion in regard to the consolidation of the City of Plainfield, and the Borough of North Plainfield.

Representative citizens have recently taken it upon themselves to confound the issue as this election is understood to be nothing more than an expression of opinion from the citizens as to whether they desire a consolidation of the two municipalities.

There is, so far as can be determined, no question whatever at this special election on the 24th, as to the methods or plans by which this result is to be obtained, but so far as the writer can determine what it is desirable to secure is nothing more than an expression of the opinion or desire of the citizens of North Plainfield in the matter.

If the citizens of the borough vote favorably on the proposition, the citizens of Plainfield could then be asked to express their opinion in the same manner, and if both communities vote favorably, the matter would then of necessity be referred to a special committee to be properly handled, at which time, all of the questions, such as county line, equalization of county or local taxes, and benefits derived, etc., which have been being agitated, would be thoroughly discussed, and there is no doubt but that the interest of each community would be protected, as there is no question of doubt but that we have men in our community, large enough to handle a question of this character.

Should either one of the communities express an opinion at the polls against the consolidation of the two communities, the matter would be ended, and no further action be taken.

If the above be true, and from what limited investigations I have been able to make, it appears to be so, what is the objection to allowing the citizens of our borough to express their opinion freely, and in a legal manner, on a question of such vital interest to each and every one of them.

There is no question, but that the merchants of Plainfield need the citizens of North Plainfield, and on the other hand, there is no question, but that the citizens of North Plainfield need the advantages of Plainfield, so why should we stand apart merely because there is a little stream of water (more often dry than wet) flowing between the two communities.

A. G. ADAMS.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

As a member of the executive committee of the Board of Trade, I desire to reply to C. W. McCutchen's article entitled, "Against Consolidation," appearing in your issue of the 18th inst. He says among other things that the Mayor and Council at the behest of the Board of Trade, ordered a special election, and goes on to say that they, the borough officials, commited a grave blunder, etc. I think Mr. McCutchen does the Board of Trade an injustice when he refers to them as an outside commercial body. The Board of Trade is The Board of Trade of Plainfield and North Plainfield and is composed of the leading citizens of the city and borough, a civic body, working for the best interests of the community. The matter of consolidation was discussed from time to time at its meetings by members from both the city and borough. The interest in the subject being such that one of the meetings was given over to a fuller discussion, and at this meeting a committee, consisting of Herman Schwed and myself, were appointed to present the matter to the Mayor and Council of the Borough, and request them to order a special election of the voters. We can hardly be considered outsiders, as we both own property and reside in the borough, and myself a member of the Board of Health. Had the Mayor and Council refused to call the special election they would not be doing their duty to the citizens who elected them and whose servants they are.

I am heartily in favor of consolidation, believing it to be for the best interests of the community as a whole. But more especially so for the borough. From a real estate standpoint the borough has been dead for many years and the only relief in sight is consolidation. You cannot sell or rent property in the borough at hardly any price. People coming to town naturally prefer to locate in the larger community and the borough suffers from it. It's a rare thing to see a new house go up in the borough; most of the requests for building permits are for chicken coops.

I have yet to hear a single intelligent argument against consolidation, while on the other hand there are an number of good reasons for it. Consolidation is bound to come sooner or later and why not let us have it now while we are alive and able to enjoy the benefits from the "Greater Plainfield?"

J. V. E. VANDERHOEF.
September 21, 1914.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

There has just been perpetrated an assault on a vital principle of our political institutions which it seems to me ought not to pass unnoticed. I refer to the deliberate elimination at the approaching primaries of all candidates for State Senator in Union county, except one.

There were at one time three avowed candidates for State Senator, but a coterie of three or four Union county officers of Democratic organizations and certain office-holders deliberately conspired to eliminate all of these candidates save one, and have finally succeeded by cajolery, promises and threats in accomplishing their purpose.

A primary is a farce unless there are two or more candidates. The elimination of many candidates to a very few, preferably two, when those two represent opposing interests or principles, is wholesome and proper, but the elimination of all but one so as to ensure the nomination of that one is most offensive and not only lessens the interest of voters in the primary election but is bound to react on the party on election day, and perhaps cause the election of the candidate of the opposing party. It is, of course, evident that the conspirators had grave doubts whether they could nominate their choice with either of his opponents in the field. They are thus convicted of deliberately trying to circumvent what they feared the people wanted and of thus forestalling the most sacred principle of Democracy,—the rule of the majority. And not content with this political huckstering these supposed guardians of the party's welfare have since set about through the usual machine methods to force the nomination of their choice of other candidates.

This ticket is what is popularly

(Continued on page five.)

We Are Selling More Blankets

This season than ever before. The reason for it is, that we have the "RIGHT BLANKETS" and sell them at the "RIGHT PRICES."

As usual we feature the FAMOUS "AMANA BLANKETS," made by the Amana Society, a community at Homestead, Iowa. The products of their mills are widely known for their excellence. The sizes and weights are just what they say they are. Strictly all wool and guaranteed not to shrink, as the wool is shrunken before being made into blankets. The assortment comprises a full line of sizes and weights in white, sanitary grey, fancy plaids and tan color.

At Prices Ranging from $6.00 to $13.50

The Well Known Beacon Blankets

An all cotton blanket that has the appearance of an all wool blanket. The manufacturers claim that they surpass the heavy all wool variety in comfort, protection from cold, appearance and especially in cleanliness.

"BEACON BLANKETS" are made of clean, long staple cotton by a new process that gives them all the wool advantages and at the same time makes them sanitary. We have a big assortment of attractive designs in white with fancy borders. In plain colors such as tan and grey, army blankets in blue, grey, tan and red; also Indian blankets that are true to color and design. The prices of "BEACON BLANKETS" are as interesting as the blankets—

from $1.75 up to $3.75

Deliveries in Westfield, Fanwood, Scotch Plains and vicinity Wednesday and Saturday.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Deliveries in Bound Brook, Dunellen, New Market and vicinity Tuesday and Friday.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 80 degrees; 11 a. m., 90 degrees; 1 p. m., 91 degrees.

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S

RYE

E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

'TIS TRUE that the prices on many of the chemicals and pharmaceutical products have advanced—but not to such an extent to cause any great uneasiness. Fortunately not many of these advanced articles are being prescribed at present. Prescriptions compounded by us produce the best results, as we use only the highest purity chemicals—which cost you no more.

SCHREINER BROS.

Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.
The Pharmacy that is ALWAYS in charge of registered druggists.

OUR THIRTY-SECOND SEASON

Bonn's 150 EAST FRONT ST

OUR THIRTY-SECOND SEASON

We Shall Exhibit the Correct Styles of

FALL AND WINTER

MILLINERY

TOMORROW, also Wednesday and Thursday

ORGANIZED 1875

Ladies Are Invited

We especially welcome the accounts of ladies and have provided every convenience and comfort for them.

We have small, very desirable check books—and attend promptly to your every banking want.

Bank with the

ORGANIZED 1875

CITY NATIONAL BANK

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

3% Interest Paid on Daily Balances of $500 and over subject to check.

The John Wanamaker Store

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co., Broadway and Ninth, New York

Store open 8:30 to 5:30

Great Half-Yearly Sale of Pianos and Player-Pianos

New and Used--the Latter at Cost to Us, No Profit Added

200 Instruments in the Sale, Beginning Tuesday Morning in the Piano Salons, First Gallery, New Building, Broadway and Ninth

This is the way we clear our floors of all the good pianos which have come to us in exchange for our better pianos during the past six months.

As fast as they come in—square, upright, grand, or player-piano—up they go to the workrooms to be put in condition. Wires are tested, felts gone over, keys put in proper adjustment, cases rubbed or re-varnished; whatever work is required to make them worthy of a place in a good home, that work we do. The cost of it is added to the sum we allowed on the instrument, and that is all you are asked to pay.

Every six months we hold this sale. People wait for it. Many are at the doors before opening time on the day of the sale, to get first choice. It would do your heart good to see the happy faces of mothers and fathers who are planning a surprise for the family, of young people and the children who are so eager for music; to hear the pianos all going together with song and dance and rhapsody in every key—and strangely enough the sound is not in the least discordant.

To accomplish our purpose of clearing, and to give so much happiness is the double satisfaction we get out of these sales; and that is profit enough for us.

Used Upright Pianos

We know the history of each of these pianos. We have put each one in first-class condition. Any one you choose at the price set opposite it is a good investment, a better one than you will find anywhere else.

Bach & Son	$ 50	Lurch	165
Bach & Son	60	Auto (2) each	165
Westchester	65	Janssen	165
Gould	70	Winterroth	165
Kemble & Warde	75	Howard	165
Chickering	85	Stultz & Bauer	175
Starr	85	Sterling	175
Doll	90	Gilbert	175
Schirmer	95	Auerbach	175
Bradford	100	Campbell	175
Sterling	110	Richardson	185
Miller	115	Harrington	185
Starr	115	Kurtzmann	185
Schaeffer	115	Ellington	185
Carl Hofbauer	115	Lindeman	185
Chickering	115	Marscheider	190
Smith-American	125	Marshall & Wendell	190
Hafelin	125	Lindeman (3) each	190
Prince	125	Emerson	195
Draper	135	Crown	195
Auto (2) each	135	Wessell	195
Weser Bros.	135	Knoble	195
Lindeman & Sons	135	Emerson (3) each	195
Schumann	135	Lindemann	195
Horace Waters	135	Marshall & Wendell	195
Opera	135	Lindemann (3) each	210
Weser	135	McPhail each	210
Baus	135	Emerson	215
[illegible]	135	Stultz Bros.	225
Wheeler (2) each	140	Emerson (2) each	225
Campbell	145	Kurtzmann (2) each	225
Billings	145	Emerson (8) each	225
Lindeman	145	Pease	225
Schumann	145	Emerson (2) each	235
Decker	145	Emerson	245
Lurch	145	Caldwell	245
Schomacker	145	Lindeman	245
Schumann	145	Chickering	265
Dusinberri	150	Chickering	275
Autg	150	Chase	275
Needham	155	Emerson (2) each	275
Hartman	155	Emerson (2) each	295
Marshall & Wendell	155	Knabe (3) each	325
Howard	155	Chickering	350
Huntington	155	Chickering (3) each	395
Bush & Gerts	155	Chickering	415
Weser	155
Harmony	155
Auto	155
Mathushek	155
Angelus	160
Campbell (7) each	165
Chickering (2) each	185

Special Prices on 88-Note Music Rolls

3,000 artistyle rolls, slightly used, originally 75c to $2, Tuesday—15c to 75c.
4,500 new rolls, 25c to 90c.
The foregoing will fit any 88-note player-piano.
8,000 65-note rolls, 5c to 25c.

Used Square Piaos

Stoddard	$10
Nunns & Clark	$15
Haines	$20
Lindeman	$25

Used Grand Pianos

Chickering	$ 90
Steinway	125
Chickering	195
Knabe	425
Steinway	465
Chickering	495
Chickering	525
Chickering	575
Chickering	595

New Pianos—Reduced

This store is full of music. These pianos have been used in the Auditorium, on the Bridge of Progress, in the Salons, in the Restaurant. Inwardly perfect; outwardly they show some signs of moving about. So we have made allowances and offer these fine instruments, greatest in their classes, at prices very rarely seen on their price-tickets.

UPRIGHT		GRAND
Schomacker ($400 model)	$340	Schomacker ($650 model)	$535
Schomacker ($400 model)	360	Schomacker ($650 model)	545
Schomacker ($425 model)	375	Schomacker ($800 model)	585
Schomacker ($450 model)	395	Schomacker ($800 model)	675
Knabe ($500 model)	440	Schomacker ($800 model)	695

Player-Pianos

USED—All 88-note

With a player-piano you can have music whenever you wish, any music you wish. Get one of these while you can.

Autopiano	$325	Angelus Piano	$575
Marshall & Wendell	295	Steinway Welte	850
Tremaine	400	Strich & Zeidler Welte	600

NEW—Reduced

These are our own player-pianos. There are no others so good. They have been used in various parts of the store for entertainment and demonstration, and are therefore store-handled, though musically and mechanically new.

Lindeman	$395	model	$345
Lindeman (4)	395	model	355
Lindeman	525	model	415
Lindeman (4)	525	model	465
Lindeman-Angelus			525
Emerson	650	model	535
Emerson	650	model	565
Schomacker-Electrelle	700	model	575
Emerson-Angelus	750	model	575
Schomacker-Angelus	850	model	745
Chickering Ampico	950	model	765
Schomacker-Angelus	850	model	775
Emerson Angelus Grand	1250	model	945
Knabe-Angelus Grand	1650	model	1225

New Pianos in Period Designs

Specially built to show what we can do in the designing of instruments to fit in with the furnishing scheme of any room. We are changing our exhibit, so you may choose from these at hundreds of dollars below their fixed prices.

Knabe Upright		$ 775
Knabe Upright		850
Knabe Grand		1350
Knabe Grand	2040 model	1500
Knabe Grand	$1800 model	975
Kurtzmann Louis XV Grand	850 model	600

Piano Salons, First Gallery, New Building

TERMS—

Whatever in reason each purchaser wants; so much down and so much each month until paid for.

The Regular Wanamaker Guarantee With Each Instrument

The Kitchen Treasure

By universal consent is a good reliable range.

The Ivy Canopy, Othello and Penn Esther Ranges we have sold for many years and fully guarantee.

REGARDING HEATING STOVES

The Glen Oak line embodies in their construction every modern improvement and reasonable in price.

GAS AND OIL HEATING STOVES.

We have an Aluminum Gas Stove, splendid in size, for the bath room, at $3.50

Do not overlook your furnace work—DO IT NOW before cold weather reaches you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

Store Open Saturdays All Day

Kleen Kup

The sanitary vessel for home preserving of Jam, Jelly, Marmalade and Food Products of a similar nature keeps the preserves in a perfect condition, stops light which stops decay. Their value is unequalled. More than 10,000,000 sold in England in 1913. ½-pint size, 25 cents per dozen.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

G. L. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

CALVERT SHOULD WIN

(Continued from page 1.)

Calvert the courteous able official have been used in conducting his campaign. It has been clean. His appeals for support have been clear cut and concise. Nothing has been concealed, for he has nothing to conceal. There has been nothing antagonistic in any of his activity which was directed towards accomplishing the one object—to get himself properly before the people for their approval, and to successfully combat the opposition being made against his return to the position of trust he has filled so capably.

In addition to the personal features of his candidacy, it is conceded after the canvass of the situation from the standpoint of all parties, that Mr. Calvert would make the stronger candidate on the ticket. His popularity throughout the county with men in all walks of life and of all political beliefs, from whom he has received assurances of support at the general election, makes him feared by the candidates of other parties who will oppose him in the event of his being nominated, because they are aware of the strength he would bring to the entire ticket.

The fact that he was elected the last time he ran by the largest majority ever given a Republican in this county is self-evident proof that the fears of the other candidates are well grounded. This majority was attained by the vote Mr. Calvert received even in the stronghold of Democracy—Elizabeth.

Although not a lawyer by education or training, Mr. Calvert is recognized as an authority on the election law of the State. His assistance to election officials and district Election Boards, and municipal clerks around election time would be greatly missed, should he be defeated. The same may be said of the young lawyers of the county who seek his advice as to the proper procedure in filing their first briefs, or other papers that have to pass his official inspection before becoming a part of the county records. If they wish to obtain some information from records that have been made and filed he is the man they seek. In this capacity his aid is also sought by residents who have matters in litigation, title trouble over some of their property, tax releases, or contracts that need straightening out.

Speaking on the outlook from his own personal feelings, Mr. Calvert said the repeated assurances of support he has received, the commendation expressed for his conduct of the office, and kindly manner in which his candidacy has been accepted by the people of the county, has been most gratifying to him, and permits of no other belief than that he will be the victor.

The fact that this is the first contest he has ever been in within the ranks of his own party has had the effect of a spur and has prevented the candidate, much to the pleasure of his supporters, becoming over-confident and slowing up in the race. They are delighted with his moderate expressions of confidence, as they are in keeping with the dignity with which to their minds a public official in such an important position should comport himself.

THE FORUM

(Continued from page 4.)

known as the "Official ticket."

The criticism does not involve the personnel of the "official ticket." It may or may not comprise the fittest of the candidates.

Most Democrats will, let us hope, assuredly resent on Tuesday next this interference with the primary, this effort to thwart the very purpose of the primary, to nullify one of the most important provisions of our Election Laws.

L. J. ELLIS.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

In Saturday's issue of your paper the reporter in telling his story of the Boy Scouts unconsciously did an injustice to the pupils of the Stilliman School by calling the classes "incorrigible and delinquent classes." This error does the pupils in these classes so much injury that I must correct it. There are in that school a number of special classes for children that for one reason or another are not adapted to regular class work. They are not vicious or delinquent children, but need special attention and individual help. To meet these needs, we put them in special classes which we call "Opportunity Classes," since we put them there that we may give them a better opportunity than that given in the regular class. It is true that one class has a small number of boys that have caused their teacher trouble, but they are not "delinquent" and we do not believe them incorrigible. It is, therefore, an injustice to the pupils to call the classes incorrigible and delinquent simply because now and then one of their number may have been troublesome in his class.

HENRY M. MAXSON,
Supt. of Schools.

FOURTH WARD CLUB.

A meeting of the Fourth Ward Republican Club has been called for this evening at the Frost building. This club was recently organized, and it is desired that all of the G. O. P. faith of the Fourth ward become members of the organization. Plans for the coming campaign will be made in detail.

RUNYON'S REPLY MADE PUBLIC

(Continued from page 1.)

irrespective of creed, color or condition, and that in helping preserve these aims, we are but fulfilling our destiny. I believe in the freedom, not license, of speech and press, and regard him, whether great and powerful editor or humble individual who endeavors to instill rancor and bitterness in the hearts of his fellow men; who uses his influence to array class against class; rich against poor; creed against creed, simply for the breeding of trouble and not for the fair settlement of honest differences, as falling far short of doing his duty as an American.

"I am thoroughly in accord with every sincere effort to preserve and uphold our American institutions and shall always jealously guard them so far as any influence which I may have is concerned, ever remembering however, that whether he be prince or pauper, black or white, believer or unbeliever, my fellow man is one of my Heavenly Father's children, and entitled to the best and fairest treatment I can accord him.

"I have said overmuch; if my own personal viewpoint is of no special interest to those whom you represent, I can only say by way of apology that in standing for the nomination for the Assembly, I do not want to display any false colors or leave anybody in doubt as to my belief that so far as their real inalienable rights are concerned, 'all men are created free and equal.'

"Yours very truly,

"WM. N. RUNYON."

As Mr Runyon did not wish to be put in a wrong light, he has given out his reply to the Federation for publication today. Question 4 was "Are you in favor of allowing any organization, sectarian or otherwise, to maintain so-called reformatories or institutions where people are held in restraint, without due process of law and against their will and without inspection by public officials? Question [illegible] elected, can you be depended upon to live up to your convictions regardless of any attempted intimidation or personal considerations?"

The Union County Federation of Patriotic Societies is supposed to contain in its membership all organizations which are known as anti-Catholic bodies.

HURT IN AUTO TRAGEDY

(Continued from page 1.)

noticed that the steel rim on the side was broken. About this time George Hall, a partner in the taxicab company, happened along in another machine enroute to the Plainfield Country Club to get a passenger. He instructed Pierson to keep his car at the side of the road until he returned with a new ring.

Pierson and the passenger, Oscar Anderson, sat in the rear seat of the stalled machine and the first intimation they had of an approaching car was when it was within a few feet of them. The two automobiles came together with terrific impact, none of the occupants having time to jump. The noise of grating iron and steel and the smashing of glass in the windshields and lamps attracted the attention of John Hafner, one of Frank Hedden's drivers, who happened to be near at the time. He went to the scene and with the assistance of the colored men who had picked themselves up after being thrown from the taxi, and several persons who appeared on the scene a few minutes later, he lifted the overturned car, under which Mrs. Farley and Valiant were held prisoners.

Thomas M. Day, who was driving his auto ahead of the Valiant car, heard the crash when he was several hundred feet away and turned his machine about and went back. The victims of the accident were placed in the Day machine and hurried to the hospital. Valiant and Mrs. Farley were in an unconscious state.

Mrs. Farley's injuries consist of a compound fracture at the base of the skull and minor cuts and bruises. Valiant also has a fractured skull and numerous minor hurts. Gwyer escaped with scratches.

Mrs. Farlee is twenty-five years of age, and prior to her marriage two years ago was one of the well known Wildey sisters, expert tennis players known all over this country. She and her husband have not been living together of late, according to the police, and he has instituted suit against her for divorce which is now pending.

RECREATION NOTES

The Italian Social and Educational Club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School. Dancing and music will be the features of the evening.

The Dramatic Club will meet tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Washington School. There will be a rehearsal of the two plays, "My Lord In Livery" and "Sarah's Young Man." These two plays, which will probably be given the early part of October, promise to be very fine.

DEATH OF MISS STOCKTON.

Miss Anna E. Stockton, a sister of Henry W. Stockton, of Central avenue, this city, died Saturday afternoon at Dixville Notch, N. H., after a short illness. Miss Stockton was well known in this city, having visited her brother here for several summers.

GIVE RAILROADS SQUARE DEAL

(Continued from page 1.)

justice to the railroads. The necessity for this is brought out clearly by President Wilson who when recently writing on this subject said: 'The railroads are indispensable to our whole economic life and railway securities are at the very heart of most investments, large and small, public and private, by individuals and by institutions.'

"Recently it was stated, and truly so, that the managers of railroads are as much public servants as Congressmen or Senators, which I emphasize by saying that it is their duty to conduct matters so as to receive the respect and the approval of the public and in most instances the work has reached that standard. Where there may be one case of deserved censure there are many where the directors of railroads are faithfully conserving the interests of those whose property they are operating as trustees.

"Those who unreasonably attack the railroads must not lose sight of the fact that nearly ten million people derive their sustenance and support directly from the railroads and that if you burden the railroads with unnecessary expenses you are practically striking a blow at the earning and investment interests of millions of people. Is it not a fact that if you deny fair compensation for services rendered the policy in effect destroys the ability of the railroads to expand and keep their equipment in shape to meet the growing needs of the country? The railroad situation demands conservatism, wisdom and justice coupled with a progressive anticipation of up-to-date facilities which might contribute to the comfort and happiness of the people so that the true interests of all may be properly and faithfully served.

"Owing to the great calamity which has come to our brothers across the sea it will be very surprising if new capital from Europe will be available for some time for investment in the United States. That means a great deal of railroad improvement and extension must be curtailed unless new capital can be supplied from other sources. As President Wilson points out 'railway securities are at the very heart of most investments,' and that means in many cases the income from endowment funds for colleges, hospitals and charitable enterprises in which the American people are so deeply and humanly interested. It is therefore absolutely necessary for the welfare of the people that every effort should be made to keep the railroads solvent and on a paying basis. There is no theory in this proposition. It is a fact and one that is vital to every savings bank depositor or other form of investor, whether direct or indirect, in railroad securities.

"It is the duty of the hour for the American people to give their strong support to any reasonable suggestion which will strengthen the railroad situation which has become critical through the loss of revenue and perhaps new capital as a result of the European war.

"If the readers of this article agree with the views expressed and would take the opportunity of writing on this subject to their Senators and Congressmen at Washington it would undoubtedly have a most beneficial influence, for the national representatives in disturbed times like these are often helped by their constituents, especially when letters are written expressing saving and constructive ideas."

TEMPLE BAPTIST SCHOOL OBSERVES RALLY DAY

Rally Day was observed yesterday morning by the Temple Baptist Bible School, the affair being largely attended and greatly enjoyed by everyone. The church was attractively decorated with flags, palms, ferns and wild flowers. At the roll call 86½ per cent. of the enrollment responded, and in addition there was present a large number of friends, completely filling the auditorium.

All who had part in the program did their best to make the affair a success and the work of the year gives promise of being better than ever. Prof. I. B. Burgess, secretary of the State Sunday-school Association, was present and gave an excellent address, winning the hearts and attention of everyone who heard him. Music was furnished by the regular orchestra, Miss Carson and Messrs. Frazee, Wheeler and Spier.

After the program the following were promoted:

Beginners to primary, Mary Moore, Alice LeMatty, Octana Staats, Beatrice Cavalier, Dorothea Smith; primary to junior, Joseph Waldron, Henry Schley, Elizabeth Hafner, Edward LeMatty, Helen Waldron, Catherine Curtiss, Catherine Baker, Catherine Harper; junior to intermediate, Elsie Clark, Lillian Ryno, Alice Simmons, Albertino Klemser; intermediate to senior, Lucy Johnson, May Touchon, Anna Hild and Gertrude Montross.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press

—Could there be more important news in the paper than is contained in the "help wanted" ads?

FLOORS

Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished

GEO. E. WATT

314 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

MANY LEAGUE FLAGS HAVE BEEN DECIDED

The Majority of the Minor Leagues Have Completed Their Schedules.

New York, Sept. 21—The season of the minor baseball leagues now closing has been a flivver from the viewpoint of the box office. With few exceptions the clubs in the little leagues have had a bad year of it financially. A few of the championship teams show a balance on the right side of the ledger, but by far the greater number have lost money on the season. Gate receipts generally have shown a falling off. Added to this has been the fact that the minor leagues have developed very few players this season who could be sold to the major leagues. This naturally has caused a considerable slump in the minors' bank rolls. Altogether it has been a tough struggle for the "bushers" to keep their heads above water, but the big majority of the clubs have shown their gameness by playing out the season s schedule notwithstanding the certainty of a financial loss.

The list of pennant winners among the minors this year includes several who copped the flags in their respective leagues in 1913. Among the notable "repeaters" are Ottawa in the Canadian League, Winston-Salem in the Carolina League, Savannah in the South Atlantic League, Houston in the Texas League, and Oshkosh in the Wisconsin-Illinois League.

Several pennant winners of last year failed to get started right this season and landed in the cellar. Among the winners of 1913 who finished in last place this year were Grand Rapids in the Central League, Gadsden in the Georgia-Alabama League, Great Bend in the Kansas League, and Paducah in the "Kitty" League.

Of the new leagues started last spring the Western Association, the Colonial League, the Interstate League, the Piedmont League, and the Middle Texas League weathered the storm and played their full quota of scheduled games.

Pennant winners in the leagues that have closed the season follow:

Atlantic League, Poughkeepsie.
Canadian League, Ottawa.
Central Association, Waterloo.
Central League, Dayton.
Colonial League, Fall River.
Eastern Association, New London.
Georgia-Alabama League, Selma.
Georgia State League, Americus.
Illinois-Missouri League, Champaign.
Kansas State League, Emporia.
"Kitty" League, Cairo.
Michigan State League, (Disbanded).
Middle Texas League, Belton.
Nebraska State League, Grand Island.
New England League, Lawrence.
New York State League, Elmira.
North Carolina League, Winston-Salem.
Northern League, Duluth.
Piedmont League, Spartanburg.
South Atlantic League, Savannah.
Texas League, Houston.
Texas-Oklahoma League, Paris.
Three-I League, Davenport.
Tri-State League, Harrisburg.
Twin State League, Newport.
Union Association, (Disbanded).
Virginia State League, Norfolk.
Western Tri-State League, (Disbanded).
Wisconsin-Illinois League, Oshkosh.

BASEBALL NOTES

When Frank Schulte is hitting at his proper gait the Cubs usually add a game to the won column.

Louisville and Milwaukee, with Indianapolis close by, are putting up a great battle for the American Association pennant.

International League records show that Newark has dropped seventeen and Montreal fifteen games in a row this season.

The Phillies haven't a championship team this season, but they surely have a trio of sweet hitters in Cravath, Luderus and Magee.

Charlie Dooin's Phillies are working hard to overcome the Cubs' lead and finish in the first division of the National League.

"Red" Oldham, the young left-hander recently purchased by Detroit from the Providence club, is pitching like a champion for Hugh Jennings.

Pitcher Long Tom Hughes, the second, whom the Boston Braves recently obtained from Rochester, worked for Manager Stallings with the New York Yankees in 1910.

The Braves seem to do their best work when trying to overcome a lead of a run or two. In game after game this season the Stallings outfit has dogged it for eight innings and then pulled the beans out of the oven in the ninth.

Manager McGraw, of the Giants, certainly overlooked a bet when he released Hank Gowdy. The big catcher's work for the Braves has been one of the real sensations of the year.

Of the 20 games played between the Athletics and the Red Sox, the latter have won 10, lost 9 and tied 1. The Carrigans are the only team in the league who seem to have a little something on the Mackmen.

Jouett Meekin, the one-time famous pitcher of the Giants, has filed a petition as an independent candidate for sheriff in New Albany, Ind., to be voted for in the November election.

Rumor has it that Syracuse will take the place of Baltimore in the International League next season. Jack Dunn, the Oriole boss, is to manage the team.

MAXIMUS TO PLAY WITH HOLY CROSS?

Strongest Man in the World to Learn the Gridiron Sport This Fall.

Holy Cross was treated to a 250-pound boost Saturday afternoon, when Maximus, hailed as the world's strongest human being, made his appearance on Cricket Field to give the gridiron sport the once-over. According to reports the big fellow has designs on a gridiron career and will cast his lot with the borough eleven this fall. Where he will play has not as yet been decided upon, but wherever he is checked up he will prove a valuable addition to the staff of warriors. His massive frame and Herculean strength will prove valuable assets to the organization's line and while a man of his size is generally conceded to be slow on his feet Maximum manages to negotiate short distances in fairly creditable time.

Saturday afternoon's practice was one of the best yet held by the aggregation and every man got the preliminary workout he needs after a winter's lay off. Coach Martin put his charges through a gruelling drill and football sense was drummed into the candidates' heads from A to Z. Early season indications point to the formation of one of the best teams that ever represented this city in the popular outdoor game and those interested in the sport will be able to get their first opinion of the combatants when they line up on Cricket Field Saturday afternoon in a tryout contest with some formidable opponent from a nearby town.

P. C. C. DEFEATS CRANFORD GOLFERS

Local Players Easily Win Team Match by Score of 18 to 4.

The Plainfield Country Club team defeated the Cranford Golf Club representatives in a four-ball match, on the local course, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 18 to 4, points being counted on the Nassau system. The match was an easy one for the local aggregation of players, eight of the eleven pairs scoring against their opponents. The scoring for Cranford was made by Crane and Smith, who won three points and Sloan and Wasson, who tallied one point. The teams will play a return match at Cranford next Saturday. The summary:

Plainfield Country Club—Will T. Glenney and R. S. Rowland, 3; W. Lester Glenney and D. H. Barrows, 3; J. Whitney Baker and A. J. Watson, 1; H. E. Butler and M. J. Dumont, 0; S. D. Lounsbery and W. H. Rogers, 0; H. R. Stockton and H. T. Eaton, 0; D. O. Rogers and Arthur Murphy, 1; J. R. Shoemaker and S. H. Patterson, 3; J. E. Erickson and George S. Schoonmaker, 3; C. B. Morgan and O. H. Fleming, 1; H. D. Hibbard and D. H. Rowland, 3. Total, 18.

Cranford Golf Club—Wild and Bates, 0; Hinman and Conron, 0; Black and Wetherill, 0; Crane and Smith, 3; Sloan and Wasson, 1; Lewis and Miller, 0; VanZandt and Emmons, 0; Hansell and Parks, 0; Blake and Gellatly, 0; Ryan and Coady, 0; Ventries and Frazier, 0. Total, 4.

The leading scores for the golf committee cup were as follows:

H. D. Hibbard, 85, 14-71; D. O. Rogers, 82, 10-72; Will T. Glenney, 77, 4-73; L. G. Carman, 89, 12-77; H. W. D. Rapalje, 92, 15-77.

These scores were returned in the sweepstakes event:

D. O. Rogers, 82, 10-72; H. W. D. Rapalje, 91, 15-76; L. B. Carman, 91, 12-79.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	78	55	.587
New York	76	59	.563
Chicago	72	66	.522
St. Louis	71	66	.518
Philadelphia	67	71	.486
Pittsburgh	62	73	.459
Brooklyn	62	74	.456
Cincinnati	56	80	.412

(There were no games scheduled in the National League yesterday.)

Saturday's Scores.
New York, 5; Chicago, 4.
Boston, 9; Pittsburgh, 3.
Brooklyn, 6; Cincinnati, 0.
Brooklyn, 8; Cincinnati, 6.
Philadelphia, 7; St. Louis, 0.
Philadelphia, 7; St. Louis, 6.

Games Today.
Chicago at New York.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn (2 games).
Pittsburgh at Boston.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	90	48	.652
Boston	83	54	.606
Detroit	75	66	.532
Washington	72	65	.525
Chicago	65	74	.467
St. Louis	63	75	.456
New York	62	77	.446
Cleveland	44	95	.317

Yesterday's Results.
St. Louis, 3; New York, 2.
Washington, 3; Chicago, 1.
Chicago, 6; Washington, 3.
Philadelphia, 4; Cleveland, 1.
Boston, 10; Detroit, 3.
Boston, 7; Detroit, 2.

Saturday's Scores.
New York, 4; Chicago, 1.
Detroit, 4; Philadelphia, 3.
Washington, 4; St. Louis, 1.
St. Louis, 3; Washington, 2.
Cleveland, 5; Boston, 1.

Games Today.
New York at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.
Boston at Detroit.
Washington at Chicago.

FEDERAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Indianapolis	78	60	.565
Chicago	77	60	.562
Baltimore	71	62	.533
Buffalo	70	64	.523
Brooklyn	69	65	.515
Kansas City	63	73	.463
St. Louis	58	78	.427
Pittsburgh	54	78	.409

Yesterday's Results.
Indianapolis, 3; Buffalo, 2 (10 in.).

Saturday's Scores.
Brooklyn, 6; Kansas City, 2.
Brooklyn, 12; Kansas City, 6.
Buffalo, 4; Indianapolis, 3.
Chicago, 7; Baltimore, 6.
Pittsburgh, 10; St. Louis, 3.

Games Today.
Kansas City at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Pittsburgh.
Chicago at Baltimore.
Indianapolis at Buffalo.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Providence	90	58	.608
Rochester	88	59	.599
Buffalo	85	59	.590
Toronto	71	68	.511
Baltimore	72	72	.500
Newark	68	76	.472
Montreal	59	86	.407
Jersey City	46	101	.313

Yesterday Results.
Newark, 14; Baltimore, 8.
Newark, 6; Baltimore, 0.
Providence, 11; Jersey City, 4.
Montreal, 7; Toronto, 2.
Montreal, 6; Toronto, 6 (game called in seventh by agreement).

Saturday's Scores.
Newark, 4; Jersey City, 3.
Newark, 6; Jersey City, 1.
Montreal, 8; Rochester, 3.
Providence, 2; Baltimore, 1.
Toronto, 6; Buffalo, 2.

Games Today.
Baltimore at Newark.
Jersey City at Providence.
Toronto at Montreal.
Buffalo at Rochester.

NEW MARK FOR BURMAN.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 21—Bob Burman broke two world's auto racing records Saturday at the Illinois State Fair, when he traveled 20 miles in 17 minutes 10 3-5 seconds, and 25 miles in 21 minutes 17 3-5 seconds. These records for a circular track were formerly held by Louis Disbrow.

School Boys and Girls

The best place, in Plainfield, to have your bicycle put in shape for the school season is at

George L. Simon's

179 North Ave. Opp. Depot.

BICYCLES TIRES SUNDRIES

FIVE RUNS IN THE FIFTH PUTS KIBOSH ON PETS' CHANCES IN OPENING CONTEST

McLaughlin in Fine Fettle and Experiences Little Trouble in Disposing of Dorflinger Clan—Jennings' Blowup Came in the Fifth After He Dealt a Courtesy Out to McLaughlin on a Gold Platter—Hard Hitting Features Engagement—Slow Work on the Bases a Conspicuous Factor in Plainfield Club's Downfall.

Home talent triumphed over mixed goods on Parker Field, Saturday afternoon, when Brit Martin's exclusive Saurer sluggers came to the front in the fifth stanza of a baseball assignment and pounded out enough hits to give them a wide lead over their opponents, Ernie Dorflinger's Plainfield Pets. A home run by Heinie Alberts, recognized as a lover of Queen City terra firma, but balloting annually in the hamlet of Scotch Plains, and a couple of healthy singles gave the factoryites fire runs. Adding one more in the ninth after Jack Wilson had tapped the pellet for a triple, the Saurer delegation trolleyed home with a 6 to 2 verdict tucked under their belts. The fact that Dorflinger's salaried charges were limited to a brace of runs in the engagement compels us to sign over the gonfalon, significant of the Queen City baseball title, to the Clinton avenue workmen, for another seven days at least. Next Saturday afternoon the Pets get another whack at the Saurerites and a victory will mean a rubber clash. Defeat will put the Plainfield representatives out of the running and incidentally give the Martin clan full claim to the little silver mug that has been offered for competition.

Despite the fact that certain individuals wearing baseball regalia were backward in displaying real baseball and failed to exhibit any startling amount of "pep," the contest was a fair one from the fan's point of view. Some hard bombarding in the ninth canto that were ticked off lent the necessary spice to the fracas and, although the combined hit columns totaled but fourteen swats, they aggregated twenty-five bases. Two homers, a triple and double decker comprised the afternoon's harvest and we might say at this time that the bingles were collected at opportune moments in every case. Few of the smashes went for naught as indicated by the fact that the Saurer club got four more runs than their rivals on hits for three less bases. If you are the calibre of fan that can dope out afore-mentioned baseball fact you will be able to see for yourself just how much superior the winners were. The difference wasn't as great as some will be led to believe, but the Saurer nine won and that's what counts after all.

Dorflinger sent a collection of bushers, local infants and State scrapel to the fore to wrest the opening encounter, but the clan failed to return the bacon. Dorflinger wore his new fall top piece for the first time Saturday afternoon and this is thought by many to have been the cause of the Pets' reverse. We'll admit that the color of the roof was not what it should have been, but will not place ourselves in a class with those who are scouring the baseball world for an excuse for the downfall. Saurers played better ball in the field, they hit the ball when stationed at the plate at opportune moments and they knew enough to get started when on the bases. Several times the Pets fell down when a telling lick was needed, they wasted too much time frolicing on the diamond and they at times glued themselves to the sacks.

Baseballically speaking the contest was a farce. There were but two real fielding stunts pulled off during the two hours of play and these were of such a trivial nature that they are not worthy of mention. In many ways the contest resembled a schoolboy game. Pitted against an average school team and putting up the same article of ball as they did Saturday, either of the combatants would have been treated to a well deserved drubbing.

Teamwork was missing. New players formed the Plainfield excuse for the minus quality in the Pet fold. The Saurer club had no alibi. All it could do was plug away with victory in sight and it won the contest through one brilliant spurt in the fifth. Jack Wilson's lick was the turning point of this issue as it was the Waterloo of the Pets in the contest the week previous.

As the game progressed Warry McLaughlin grew stronger, exhibiting rare control and remarkable cunning. Harry Jennings, the youthful portsider from the college on the Raritan, weakened in the fifth frame and was clouted unmercifully. After he had deliberately sent Warry to first on four balls his old jinx appeared on the horizon and came within an ace of chasing him to cover. There was a howl for a relief man, but Dorflinger had no one in sight. In our opinion, Jennings should have been derricked, but the tenth man was among the missing. Townley's name has been scratched from the calling list of Manager Dorflinger and Jennings was forced to plunge to his doom.

The score:

PLAINFIELD.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.
Seiftes, 3b	4	1	2	0	0
J. Alberts, lf	3	1	1	0	1
Emery, 2b	4	0	1	3	4
Morganroph, ss	3	0	1	3	1
Dixon, 1b	4	0	0	9	0
Harney, rf	4	0	1	1	0
Dorman, cf	4	0	0	1	0
Nelson, c	4	0	1	10	1
Jennings, p	3	0	0	0	4
	33	2	7	27	11

SAURER.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.
Harriman, 3b	5	0	0	1	5
Jaeger, ss	5	0	1	1	4
Mullin, c	3	1	0	8	1
Martin, 2b	4	0	0	6	1
McLaughlin, p	3	1	2	0	1
Garretson, 1b	3	1	0	8	1
Wilson, lf	4	2	2	0	0
H. Alberts, rf	2	1	1	1	1
Miller, cf	4	0	0	2	0
J. Dixon, rf	2	0	1	0	0
	35	6	7	27	14

Erors—Morganroph 2, L. Dixon, Jennings, McLaughlin, Wilson.

Score by innings:

Saurer	0 0 0 5 0 0 0 0 1	—6
Pets	0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0	—2

Summary: Home runs, J. Alberts, H. Alberts; three-base hits, Morganroph, Wilson; two-base hit, Nelson; earned runs, Saurer 1; Pets 2; left on bases, Saurer 5; Pets 6; first base on errors, Saurer 1; Pets 1; stolen bases, Dorman, H. Alberts, Mullin, Miller; double plays, Harriman to Martin to Garretson to Mullin; Morganroph (unassisted); bases on balls, off Jennings 3; off McLaughlin 2; struck out, by Jennings 10; by McLaughlin 6. Time of game, 1 hour and 55 minutes; umpire, Degnan, of High Bridge.

DR. CARROLL AND H. L. MOODEY WIN

They Will Meet in Finals for the Park Golf Club Championship.

In the semi-finals for the fall championship at the Park Golf Club, Saturday, Dr. H. K. Carroll beat Clarence J. Hand, 4 up, and H. L. Moodey beat H. H. Woodland, 2 up. This will bring Dr. Carroll and H. L. Moodey together in the finals on Saturday. The winner will meet the player who holds the spring championship honor for the championship of the club.

These scores were posted for the President's and Oakmont cups.

J. A. Wilson, 95, 16-79; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 88, 8-80; H. L. Moodey, 95, 13-82; Clarence J. Hand, 99, 15-84; H. E. Blazier, 91, 7-84; J. Fred Hillman, 106, 19-87; H. H. Woodland, 96, 9-87.

The Park Golf Club has had an unusually successful season, the attractive competitions tending to bring out a large field of players each week, and beside a number of new faces have been seen on the course. The social features have also been gretaly enjoyed by the members.

FLEMINGTON SCORES OFTEN.

Flemington, Sept. 21—Flemington defeated Riegelsville here Saturday afternoon by the score of 15 to 5 in the hardest hitting game of the season. The visitors touched up Parker for four of their five hits in the initial inning. The score:

Riegelsville	4 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0	— 5
Flemington	0 2 2 4 1 2 4 0 x	—15

GETS $1,000 BONUS.

Philadelphia, Sept. 21—"Alexander the Great," by his twenty-fifth victory of the season for the Phillies, has earned the $1,000 bonus which the club offered him last spring. His twenty-fifth game was won against St. Louis, which he held to two hits, fanning eleven men in his game Saturday.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

SHAKEUP OCCURS IN ELKS' LEAGUE

Eleven Teams Will Compose the Circuit in Race This Year.

CAMPBELL SECRETARY

Local Man Again Named as League Official—Prizes to Be Striven for—Passaic May Join — Orange Drops Out.

At a meeting of the Elks' Bowling League held in Jersey City, yesterday afternoon, one team withdrew from the league, while two new teams joined the organization. This will make the circuit an eleven-team one, where it formerly had but ten teams. Orange dropped out of the organization, while Rutherford and Bayonne are the new teams to enter. The delegate from Bayonne did not have official power to join the league, but he figures that there is no possibility of his lodge not sanctioning his action. The Passaic lodge showed an inclination to join, but it has no home alleys. It is against the bylaws of the league to admit a team without home drives, but for a while it seemed as if this point would be waived. The Passaic delegate then said he was not sure if his team would enter or not and the matter was dropped.

The teams in the league now are Newark, New Brunswick, Paterson, Jersey City, Hoboken, Elizabeth, Plainfield, New York, Rahway, Rutherford and Bayonne. The election resulted in the re-election of George L. Hirtzel, of Elizabeth, as president. Alexander Hinton, of the Newark lodge, was chosen as vice president to succeed Thomas F. Rooney, of the Jersey City lodge. Hugh McGuire, New York's popular representative, was again chosen as treasurer, while John J. Campbell, of Plainfield, drew the secretaryship. It was decided to open the season on the night of Columbus Day, Monday, October 12.

The prize list was left in the hands of the schedule committee, and with the addition of one more team in the league it is likely to be larger than last season. While it was not definitely settled, the prizes will probably be as they were season before last. First high team prize, $75; second, $50; third, $40; fourth, $35; fifth, $30. First high individual average prize, $20; second, $15; third, $10; fourth, $8; fifth, $5; sixth, $2.50.

Edward Radel, of New Brunswick, will again donate a trophy to the team with the high average. Hugh McGuire will also again give a gold watch fob to the man with high individual average. Diege & Clust, a New York firm, will put up, for the first time, an appropriate plaque for the individual with the highest average.

Alex Hinton, of the Newark lodge, made a strenuous plea to allow the league teams to bowl postponed matches on Sundays. A number of lodges were against this, and in a number of towns bowling is not allowed on Sunday. It was finally agreed that if two teams agreed to bowl a postponed match off on a Sunday there was nothing in the constitution to hinder them. A suggestion was made to have the winner of the Elks' League championship bowl the winner of the Athletic League title, but it is doubtful if the Athletic League would be a party to a move such as this. It was decided to let this matter rest with the champions in each league.

The following teams have elected captains for the season: Newark, William W. Weingarth; New York, Lewis Westphal; Elizabeth, D. Maloney; Rutherford, Edgar Oakes; Rahway, Charles Koops; Jersey City, Thomas Congdon; New Brunswick, W. L. Burton; Hoboken, Leo Duffy. Paterson, Bayonne and Plainfield have not elected a captain as yet. The delegates at yesterday's meeting follow: William C. Weber and Alexander Hinton, Newark; W. L. Burton, New Brunswick; H. W. Lawrence, Paterson; Charles H. Jarchow, A. Wright and A. Miller, Jersey City; Leo J. Duffy, Hoboken; Dr. Epstein and George L. Hirtzel, Elizabeth; John J. Campbell, Plainfield; Hugh McGuire, New York; Pat McCartney, Charles Schaefer, J. E. Langton, G. H. Schmidt, Rahway; A. S. Walthers and William C. Rauhut, Rutherford.

The Junior Elks' League will meet Sunday in Newark, when plans will be made for the adoption of the schedule. It was decided yesterday that no lodge can be represented in the junior league unless it is a member of the senior organization. A junior, after rolling four series in the senior league, becomes ineligible to compete with the juniors.

Snappers are plentiful along the Jersey coast and it is almost impossible to get your bait past them. Some of the men angling for weakfish are using a small hook on top, while others stop fishing for weaks entirely and use a small hook on both of their leaders.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30, *11:15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon, 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon, 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 6:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m. 5:00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 3:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 3:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:35 7:30, *11:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4:00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9:30 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 8:15 a. m., bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

J. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130 Plainfield

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL

Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS.

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49.

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL

COKE AND WOOD

Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av

Yard tel. 1911-W.

Fourth and Washington Streets

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES

AT

Leo Zeisel's

222 WEST FRONT STREET.

Next to Proctor's.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN.

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

HIRD DEFEAT BY THE ST. JOSEPH'S

ainfield A. A. Outbat Opponents but Ten Errors Give Brookers the Verdict.

Although they outbatted their opnents, fourteen hits to eleven, the ainfield A. A. baseball team lost to e strong St. Joseph's nine, at Bound ook, yesterday afternoon, for the ird time this season. The final ore was 12 to 7. The locals swatd the delivery of McFadden hard at nes, but ten errors were the real use of defeat.

Maiden, who was injured last week, as again on the firing line, but was rced to retire in favor of VanZandt, ho pitched good ball. Three runs the first and five in the fourth ere enough to give the home team e victory while six of the Plainld runs were made in the seventh d eighth innings, the other being ored in the initial session. A quart of local players were guilty of ro errors each, while two others ch made one. The Saints were edited with two misplays. Teeling d Maiden each hit for a double.

The score:

PLAINFIELD A. A.

	A.B.	R.	H.	E.
anZandt, 2b-p	5	2	2	1
. Rosenson, rf	5	1	2	0
. Rosenson, 1b	5	0	1	2
cidge, lf	4	1	1	2
irsch, 1b	4	0	1	1
aiden, p-2b	4	2	2	0
ogow, cf	4	1	2	2
oulton, c	4	0	2	2
ctorson, ss	4	0	1	0
	39	7	14	10

ST. JOSEPH'S.

	A.B.	R.	H.	E.
randt, ss	5	3	2	0
eagney, 3b	5	2	1	1
all, lf	4	2	2	0
anon, 1b	5	2	1	1
rogley, cf	5	2	1	0
hnson, c	5	0	0	0
eeling, 2b	4	0	1	0
hompson, rf	4	0	1	0
cFadden, p	3	1	2	0
	40	12	11	2

Score by innings:

lainfield	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 4 0— 7
t. Joseph's	3 0 1 5 0 1 0 2 x—12

Summary: Two-base hits, Teeling, laiden; struck out, by McFadden, ; by VanZandt, 2; bases on balls, ff McFadden, 1; off VanZandt 2; off laiden 1; hit by pitched ball, by laiden (Heagney). Umpire, Mr. nglish.

AHWAY HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WILL PLAY TWELVE GAMES

Rahway High School football warriors face one of the hardest schedules this year that any team of that chool has ever faced, which contains n even dozen games, including the est school teams in this section of he State. The Rahway boys were champions last year and expect to annex the title again this season. Plainfield High School appears on that schedule on October 24 for Parker Field.

The schedule:

September 23—Summit High School, at Rahway.

September 26—Central High School, at Newark.

October 2—Barringer High School, at Newark.

October 8—Battin High School, at Rahway.

October 17—East Orange High School, at East Orange.

October 24—Plainfield High School, at Plainfield.

October 28—Westfield High School, at Rahway.

October 31—Dickinson High School, of Jersey City, at Rahway.

November 3—Rutgers freshies, at Rahway.

November 14—Trenton High School, at Rahway.

November 21—Roselle High School, at Rahway (pending).

November 26—Rahway Alumni, at Rahway.

NEW REGALIA FOR P. H. S. FOOTBALL TEAM THIS YEAR

Coach Ralph S. Patch, of the Plainfield High School football team, has just received from Paul Collier, twelve pair of football pants, twelve jerseys, and twelve pair of stockings. These suits will be distributed today to the twelve most promising candidates.

The practice so far has been very light, but today real scrimmage will begin. The tackling dummy has not yet been made use of and there has been no falling on the ball as yet.

THREE WORLD'S RECORDS.

St. Louis, Sept. 21—Three world's automobile records on a one-mile circuit dirt track were broken here yesterday afternoon by Barney Oldfield, who made a mile in 44 seconds, two miles in 1:27, and five miles in 3:40 2-5.

ANNUAL AUTUMN SERIES.

Tomorrow the first of the autumn series of one day tournaments of the Women's Metropolitan Association will be played at the Forest Hill Field Club, Soho, N. J.

THE PETS' DOWNFALL

Saurer, 6; Plainfield, 2.

Thatsaplenty big enough margin to win any old ball game.

Manager Dorflinger tossed the sponge into the air in the stretch frame. He admitted at that stage of the proceedings that it was all up with his Pets for the afternoon and was contented to wait until seven more days had rolled by for sweet revenge.

Although Harry Jennings was experiencing a decided off day in more ways than one he certainly had the Indian sign pinned on Brit Martin. We admit that "Pop" is not as young as he usterwus, but at the same time we do expect something besides three retirements via the strikeout route.

Then our old friend the veteran was frightfully slow when it came to getting down to the keystone sack to play his role in that would-be double sketch in the fifth stanza. Harriman was waiting with the ball ready to toss in Martin's direction, but the big fellow arrived twenty minutes late and but one out was recorded.

It's a ten to one shot that Warry McLaughlin threw fully three times as many balls as the college heaver during the afternoon. When the old slab artist was not pushing the pellet across the platter he was frolicing with Jack Garretson on the first sack attempting to nail a base runner.

We noticed that Jennings was rubbing his salary wing after the third session. That might have been necessary, but it looked pretty bad at this time of the season. Those things are bound to occur in the good old spring training days.

Jim Emery put up one great home coming exhibition Saturday afternoon. The first ball hit traveled in his direction and he turned it into a beautiful putout. The next went to him as an assist and then he came to the pan and cracked out a gilt-edged safety through the mid-station.

Emery got a well deserved ovation when he strode to the plate and his response was all that could be asked for.

Seiftes appears to be one of the "finds" of the season in the Dorflinger camp and is the first genuine ball player that the local manager has singled out for the third base job in a long time. On the first ball pitched Saturday, he cracked a scorching hit over second base. He followed this up with a similar drive later in the fracas.

Alberts Brothers, Scotch Plains, N. J. (one of the dugouts Union county is charged with maintaining), broke into the limelight on Plainfield's ball diamond Saturday afternoon. Joe clouted a four-sacker through his brother's pinions in the fifth and Henry returned the smash for the full ticket in the next round.

From the viewpoint of one who was witnessing his first Saurer-Pet collision Jack Wilson appears to be the candy-kid with the local fans. Jack certainly merited all the praise that was coming his direction for he put up one dandy game of baseball. His clout over second started things going in the fifth and he brought the weary crowd to its feet in the ninth with a three-cushion lick.

McLaughlin, Seiftes and Wilson were the only ones to break through with a brace of bingles in the contest.

At one time there was considerable discussion prevalent among local fans regarding the relative ability of Garretson and Dixon as ball players. From what has been seen this summer it is evident that Dixon is sinking rapidly for Garry now has it on him in a dozen different ways.

Although the hits were divided up on the fifty-fifty basis Saturday afternoon, we note that our scorer has checked up fourteen bases for the Pets and eleven for the Saurers on these bingles. This is rather surprising when the four-run lead at the windup of the contest is taken into consideration.

It might be well for some of the performers to get wise to themselves and cut out the rowdyism. It may seem smart to the player who attempts to annoy an ump or a rival performer, but it invariable meets with disapproval in the eyes of the fans.

We'll admit, however, that our friend the ump was decidedly off on a couple of his hand-outs. He's only human and he would probably be hoeing potatoes Saturday afternoons instead of earning an easy five-spot if he didn't pull the kicker stunt once in a while.

The football fever has hit Jack Wilson. The sandy topped left fielder resembled a line bucker as he dashed for the home plate in the fifth. Jack got his propellers mixed up and stumbled three times between the difficult corner and the scoring station.

Now some of the Saurer players have joined us in wondering where that cup is going to be put if it is really annexed. We aver that someone is going to have a hard job trying to settle it in a place where everyone can get an occasional squint at the trophy.

MONROE FORFEITS TO HOPE CHAPEL

They Walk Off the Field in the Ninth Inning When Hope Had a Two Run Lead.

Hope Chapel ballists took the deciding game of the post-season series from their great rivals, the Monroe team, on the Clinton avenue field, Saturday afternoon, by the score of 9 to 7. The performance was a swatfest throughout for the Fourth street aggregation and they landed on Brick and Patterson for seventeen safeties, Pitcher Schott leading the bunch with four bingles out of as many times at bat. Johnny Heron and Garvel each were credited with a trio of hits. The contest was marred with several arguments and one almost ended in a fist fight.

In the ninth with none down the Monroe players were trying hard to tie the score and a decision by the umpire stopped the game. With none down Hess bunted down the third base line and worked his way around to the third sack. Patterson singled and in an attempt to cut off the man at the plate, the ball was thrown over the catcher's head and Patterson tagged all bases and scored before the ball could be returned. The official ordered Patterson back to second, stating that only one base could be taken on the overthrow. The Monroe players refused to comply with this order and left the field, forfeiting the game and the series to their opponents.

Brick was relieved on the mound by Patterson, but he fared little better, as the Hope batters were in a winning mood. The Monroe players made seven hits and two errors, while the Hope fielders were credited with three misplays.

The score:

HOPE.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Snyder, 3b	4	2	2	2	0	1
J. Heron, ss	5	0	3	2	3	2
Grisley, 2b	4	1	1	1	0	0
A. Schott, cf	4	1	2	2	0	0
Garvel, 1b	4	1	3	7	0	0
Luthman, c	4	0	1	7	1	0
T. Heron, lf	4	1	1	1	1	0
Walls, rf	1	0	0	0	0	0
Thorn, rf	3	0	0	1	0	0
R. Schott, p	4	3	4	1	4	0
	37	9	17	24	9	3

MONROE.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Gunzelman, cf	3	1	0	2	0	0
Savidge, lf	3	1	0	2	0	0
Hendry, 1b	4	2	1	8	0	1
Beekman, 2b	3	1	0	3	3	0
Pennoyer, 3b	4	0	1	1	1	1
T. Apgar, rf	4	0	0	0	1	0
Brown, ss	4	1	2	1	1	0
Hess, c	4	1	2	7	1	0
Brick, p	2	0	0	0	0	0
Patterson, p	2	0	1	0	1	0
	33	7	7	24	8	2

Score by innings:

Monroe	0 0 1 1 1 0 0 3 1—7
Hope	0 0 2 1 6 0 0 0 x—9

Summary: First base on balls, off Schott, 2; off Brick, 1; sacrifice flies, A. Schott, Savidge; struck out, by Schott 9; by Brick 4; by Patterson 3; double play, J. Heron to Garvel, two-base hits, Snyder, R. Schott; hit by pitcher, by Brick (Luthman); by Schott (Gunzelman).

PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL WILL MEET ROSELLE H. S.

The outlook at Roselle High School is not as bright as in former years and it is likely that the schedule will be short.

There will be only five or six contests, including tilts with Battin and Pingry, both at Elizabeth; Carlton, at Summit; Plainfield and Westfield, and possibly a game with Rutgers Prep. Guy Benedict, Westin Hill, Edgar VanCleef and Davies have left the school and, as they were the life of the team, Coach Capp will have a difficult task to whip the candidates into shape.

J. E. SULLIVAN'S FUNERAL.

James E. Sullivan, for more than a decade the dominant figure of American athletics, was buried in Calvary cemetery, Brooklyn, Saturday afternoon. The funeral services were held in St. Aloysius' church, Manhattan. Hundreds of men and boys in every walk of life attended.

WOMAN DOES LONG SWIM.

Miss Nellie Kenny, a professional swimmer of Sydney, Australia, is credited with having made the Battery to Sandy Hook swim yesterday. According to report she required 9 hours and 35 minutes to complete the journey. Miss Kenney is 27 years old and weighs 140 pounds.

K. OF C. BOWLING LEAGUE.

There will be a meeting at Newark tonight for the purpose of organizing a State Knights of Columbus Bowling League. A local representative will be present.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

ST. JOSEPH'S TAKES BOUND BROOK TITLE

McFadden Fans Seventeen Batters and Y. M. A. Errors Help Annex Honor.

Pitching an excellent brand of ball for the St. Joseph's team, of Bound Brook, "Mike" McFadden had a little on his opponent, Gene Mathews, of the Y. M. A. team, in the second game of the series of three for the championship of Bound Brook. McFadden was in his finest form of the season and made seventeen of his opponents fan the air three times and then retire. Mathews, the noted strikeout artist, could only elude eleven of his rivals. The baseball title now goes to the Saints as they took the first game of the series last week by the score of 4 to 3.

All of St. Joseph's runs came in the second and third innings, three being scored in each of these sessions. In the second round, Brandt grounded to P. Koechlein, who threw low to first and the runner was safe. Hannon also hit to third base and Koechlein threw high this time. The first baseman reached for the ball and dropped it. Brogley hit to short and on a low throw was safe. Brandt scored and Hannon also tried to tally but was thrown out. D. Koechlein threw a fast one to first and nabbed Brogley asleep. The shortstop was off again and Johnson landed on first. Ulmer dropped Teeling's high fly and made matters worse by throwing wild to home in a try to get Johnson, who scored ahead of Teeling.

Three runs in the next round was enough for the Saints and their opponents made one in the sixth on a hit and two errors. In this frame McFadden fanned three men. Durkee's triple in the seventh and Wall's double in the third were features of the game.

The score:

ST. JOSEPH'S.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Durkee, rf	5	0	1	2	0
Haegney, 3b	4	1	0	1	1
Wall, lf	4	1	1	1	0
Brandt, ss	4	1	1	0	1
Hannon, 1b	4	1	0	4	0
Brogley, cf	4	0	1	1	0
Johnson, 2b	4	1	2	1	1
Teeling, c	3	1	1	17	1
McFadden, p	3	0	0	0	0
	35	6	7	27	4

Y. M. A.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Hall, s	4	0	0	3	2
W. Mathews, c	4	0	0	12	2
Creagar, rf	4	0	1	1	0
O. Mathews, 1b	4	1	2	7	0
Whitenack, lf	4	0	0	0	1
P. Koechlein, 3b	3	0	0	1	2
Ulmer, cf	4	0	1	0	1
D. Koechlein, 2b	3	0	0	2	3
E. Mathews, p	3	0	0	1	3
	33	1	4	27	14

Errors: P. Koechlein 3, Hall 3, Ulmer 2, O. Mathews 2, Brandt, Wall.

Score by innings:

St. Joseph's	0 3 3 0 0 0 0 0 0—6
Y. M. A.	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1

Summary: Three base hit, Durkee; two base hit, Wall; double play, E. Mathews to P. Koechlein to D. Koechlein; hit by pitcher, by McFadden 1 (P. Koechlein); passed balls, Teeling 3, Mathews 1; first base on balls, off Mathews 1; struck out, by McFadden 17, by Mathews 11; umpires, Casey and Bollinger.

FRITTS WILL NOT ENTER "METS" BUT RUNYON WILL

The Metropolitan Senior Championships, which were to be held last Saturday at Celtic Park, but were postponed because of the death of James E. Sullivan, will be held Saturday, October 3. John Fritts, of this city, who was going to enter the meet under the colors of the Pastime A. C., will now be unable to compete as he had already planned to compete in the Newark police games, which will be held on that day.

Ralph Runyon will be seen in the New York meet as he intended and will also compete for the Pastime A. C. He will enter in the pole vault event and may be in some of the jumping events. He is one of the best vaulters that the New York club boasts of and has a good chance of winning this event. He has made better showings since he received his new fourteen foot pole.

NORTH PLAINFIELD ELEVEN HAS A LONG STIFF PRACTICE

The candidates who are out for positions on the North Plainfield A. C. football team were put through a hard practice Saturday afternoon, on Hyde Oval, which consisted of signal practice, kicking and rushing. Some new materials appeared and about twenty-five men were out in uniform. No coach has as yet been signed but those at the head of the club have a few in view and that matter will be decided soon. As soon as regular work is begun a leader will be elected.

Members of the old Holy Cross Juniors and North Plainfield High School men are out and a formidable eleven will represent the borough. Dan Denny, the manager, has already signed some fast teams and has several other games pending. The first game will be about the middle of next month and the team will have a short season.

MAHONEY SECRETARY OF BOWLING LEAGUE

Elected to That Office at a Meeting Held in Rahway Yesterday Afternoon.

Three representatives from the local Eagles attended the meeting at Rahway concerning the formation of a State Eagles' Bowling League, yesterday afternoon. Two meetings have been held in this city and the one yesterday was to make final arrangements for the opening of the league. The local representatives were Mahoney, Miller and Caulfield.

James Mahoney presided at the meeting until officers were elected, and he was chosen vice president. Clarke Read, of Newark,, was elected president; Charles Reed, Rahway Arie, 1863, secretary, and Netieburg, of Somerville Aerie 2013, treasurer. A schedule committee was appointed to arrange the games and that body will report its progress at a meeting to be held in Newark next Sunday afternoon. The schedule will be a long one and probably run all w ter.

The local lodge will be represented in the league by a fast combination and will undoubtedly make a fine showing. All of the teams have contributed for the $100 prize and there will also be others offered by the various lodges. The meeting next Sunday will be for final arrangements and the pinning will start the latter part of this month. The local team will be composed of Miller, Caulfield, Mahoney, Boyle and Buckley. Miller is the leader of this five and all are good bowlers.

CLOSE COMPETITION FEATURES TOURNEY

Many Thrilling Matches Occur in the First Rounds of P. C. C. Tourney.

Close competition featured the opening rounds of the Women's tennis championship at the Plainfield Country Club Saturday and this morning. Ten matches of the first round were played Saturday and although the scores were not extra close, the rivalry was intense and many hard games were fought.

In the second round this morning there were six mathes run off, two of which were won by default. The heat of the morning had little effect on the players and many deuce sets were played. The results of the first two runds are as follow:

Plainfield Country Club handicap singles tennis tournament—First round, Miss E. Goddard defeated Miss A. Burke, 3-6, 6-2, 6-1; Miss Edith Beers defeated Miss A. Ashwell, 6-4, 6-3; Mrs. Rowland defeated Miss Nash, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4; Miss L. King defeated Miss A. Barclay, 1-6, 6-2, 6-4; Miss DeGroff defeated Miss Rushmore, 6-4, 6-3; Mrs. Brown defeated Miss Williams, 6-3, 6-2; Miss D. Burke defeated Mrs. Tyler, 6-4, 6-3; Miss Bader defeated Miss Martin by default; Miss N. Ashwell defeated Mrs. Baker, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3; Miss M. Brown defeated Mrs. Hodges.

Second round—Miss Miller defeated Miss Gough, 4-6, 6-4, 7-5; Miss Brown defeated Mrs. R. S. Rowland, 8-6, 6-4; Miss Salisbury defeated Miss Waldo by default; Miss Dorothy Burke defeated Miss Pauline Gates, 6-3, 6-3; Miss Elva Burke defeated Mrs. Dana by default; Miss Barbara Fleming defeated Miss Ashwell, 9-7, 6-2.

MR. AND MRS. HOUSTON TENDERED A RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Houston, who were married Friday night, gave a reception to a number of friends at the home of the bride's parents in South Plainfield, yesterday, the affair being arranged as an aftermath of the nuptials. Mrs. Houston was formerly Miss Emma Norway.

The home in South Plainfield was elaborately decorated for the occasion and an excellent program of music was rendered by a stringed orchestra. Entertainment appropriate to such an event was arranged for the guests and Mr. and Mrs. Houston were the recipients of many hearty congratulations. They are now at home in their home in this city.

WILL PLAY RETURN MATCH.

The Plainfield Eagles bowling team will travel to Rahway tonight, and meet their brothers of that place in the second match of the season. The first was taken by the Rahway birds on the local alleys last week, and the Queen Cityites are going to take the match tonight and get even. They will take the trip by automobile and will be accompanied by a large crowd of rooters.

IT'S A BOY.

A boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hogan, of Watchung avenue, Friday.

Miss Burnet, of Madison avenue, has returned from Atlantic City, where she has been spending the past month.

"BUTLER" MAY BE RE-ARRESTED TODAY

Man Apprehended by Police in New York Was Released Saturday Afternoon.

After being arrested in the office of former State Senator Ernest Ackerman, in New York city, Friday afternoon, as an alleged fraud, a man styling himself as Patrolman Butler, of the local police force, was released by the metropolitan police Saturday afternoon when the local authorities failed to make a complaint against him. The conditions surrounding the apprehension of the man are conflicting and it is possible that he will be arrested again today at his home in Camden. Officials of the local branch of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association claim that they have a clear case against the man who attempted to collect subscriptions in money for the support of the organization's magazine and spent yesterday collecting evidence against the man.

According to the local authorities Butler visited several Plainfield business men in New York city and was given money for the enterprise. It was stated yesterday that the man was employed by the officials of the organization in Camden, but had no authority to solicit contributions after Saturday, September 12. He also had no authority to accept cash, according to the Plainfield police.

BOUND BROOK MANOR AGENTS ARRESTED BY INSPECTORS

Evidence secured by Postoffice Inspectors Barber and Schaeffer has resulted in the arrest of James Bottenus, president of the James Realty Company, of $500 capital, and his alleged acomplice, Mrs. Rose Stack. They were arraigned before the United States Commissioner at Fort Wayne, the man being held in $3,000 bail and the woman in $2,000 bail on charges of fraud.

According to the postoffice inspectors, Bottenus in 1906 bought a thirty-acre tract among the Watchung Mountains, about five miles between Bound Brook and Somerville, for $900 and cleaned up $25,000 from it. This property, which consists of brush, cedar, a thick undergrowth of huckleberries, and is partly a swamp, he is said to have named Bound Brook Manor. It is charged that through agents and printed matter it was represented as "fully improved." after the fashion of large cities and that car lines ran close to it. The agents it is alleged, told any kind of a prosperity story to persuade the public to buy lots. A mythical "drug story" figured in the inducements.

ANNUAL OUTING PLANS FOR LOCAL DENTISTS

The fourth annual clam bake of the Plainfield Dental Society will be held Thursday, September 24, at Castels, Gillette. A special program of entertainment similar to that which has featured the previous outings of this organization has been planned and a good day's sport is looked forward to.

The committee in charge of the affair consists of Dr. George Moore Dr. Charles Moore and Dr. Chalmers L. Crist. A dinner will be served in connection with the outings and the program will be featured by baseball, quoits and other sports. All dentists are invited to attend the outing.

N. P. H. S. JUNIORS ELECT JOHN DAWE PRESIDENT

The Junior Class of the North Plainfield High School held its first meeting this noon, when the election of officers took place. The following officers were elected for the following year: John Dawe, president; Thomas Ball, vice president, and Amelia Brezzie, secretary and treasurer. The class voted that dues for the coming year should be fifteen cents.

President John Dawe appointed a committee to find out the price of pins and to act in full power in purchasing the same The committee appointed were Gladys Sullivan, Martin McDonough, Harry Kirch Marjorie Burtis and Grace Townley. Two representatives of the class were elected to represent the juniors in the student council. Thomas Ball and Warren Townley were chosen.

BOROUGH COURT NOTES.

William W. Nagle, of Clinton, was picked up by the borough police Saturday night, being helplessly intoxicated. Because of his age, Recorder Fred Hand suspended sentence this morning. Paul Overbaugh, of North Plainfield, was placed under arrest for being drunk and dosorderly, and will be given a hearing this afternoon.

SUFFRAGE MEETING.

The Equal Suffrage League, of this city, will hold its first meeting of the season tomorrow afternoon at the Public Library at 3 o'clock. Delegates to the State convention are to be elected at this time. Plans will also be made for the various activities of the winter.

WIFE CONFISCATED THE WAITING AUTO

Mrs. O. F. Pierson Tells Police Her Husband Has Affinity He Calls On.

O. F. Pierson, of 1018 West Front street, reported to the police Saturday night, that his automobile had been stolen from Washington and East Sixth streets. He described the car as one of the Buick model and requested the aid of the police in locating it. Sunday morning he learned that his machine had been stored in a barn located at 737 Kensington avenue, by his wife and he proceeded to claim his property. When the police sought an explanation from Mrs. Pierson, she claimed that her husband had an affinity living in the neighborhood of East Sixth and Washington streets and that she took possession of the car when it stood in front of her husband's second lover's home.

According to Mrs. Pierson she went to the place in question Saturday afternoon and when her husband came out he found her sitting in the vehicle. She demanded that her husband drive her home, but he is said to have refused to do this and re-entered the home of the second woman.

In her statement to the police Mrs. Pierson says that she remained in the car for a long time and then concluded that she would remove it to some other place for safe keeping. She had it towed to the Kensington avenue barn and now defies her husband to take it away.

LARGE BARN TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Monster Structure Burned to the Ground Yesterday Afternoon.

Rays of the sun magnified by window glass in the second story of a large barn owned by Frederick Cook, on the Samptown road, yesterday afternoon, started a fire that resulted in the complete destruction of the building and a portion of the contents. The loss involved will aggregate several hundreds of dollars, but the exact figures could not be ascertained this afternoon. Three tons of hay were stored in the barn and the fire started in one section of the loft burning rapidly and with an intense heat.

The family was sitting on a porch near the burning structure but did not notice the flames until they had assumed great headway. One horse was the only live stock in the place and this was gotten out before the blaze reached its stall.

The barn is one of the biggest structures of its kind in that vicinity and a large addition had recently been erected. The Cook family recently took possession of the property which was formerly owned by John Rubenstein who was killed on the Central Railroad two years ago.

INTRODUCE REVENUE TAX MEASURE TODAY

Stamp Tax of Checks Not Included in Bill as Presented.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The administration's emergency war tax bill was introduced in the House today by Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee. The bill is a close imitation of the Spanish war tax of 1898, except for the tax on beer, wines and gasoline. The stamp tax on checks is not included in the present bill, however.

The telephone and telegraph companies will keep account of their taxable messages and remit for them, the principal taxes will be levied on beer domestic sweet wines and dry wines, gasoline and naphtha and other products use in motors. Amusements will be taxed in cities of over 15,000 where theatres will be taxed $100. This includes moving picture houses.

Bonds of the United States or of those of any State, county or town are exempt from taxation. Bonds and stocks of co-operative building and loan associations with a capital stock of not more than $100,000 and muilding and loan associations making loans only to shareholders are exempt.

UNITED HEBREW CHARITIES.

The United Hebrew Charities will hold an important mass meeting Wednesday evening in Abrams' Auditorium, 222 West Front street, at which time several matters will be considered.

LODGE NOTE.

The annual euchre under the auspices of Memi Tribe, No. 242, I. O. R. M., of Westfield, is to be held Thursday, October 1. Members of the local Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, are invited to attend.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

And then, since the American pressed his idea, the king contrived to shift the talk from the question of celebrating the epoch they were making to the question of the probabilities that lay ahead. Here every one became diffident. They could see the world unified at peace, but what detail was to follow from that unification they seemed indisposed to discuss. This diffidence struck the king as remarkable. He plunged into the possibilities of science. All the huge expenditure that had hitherto gone into unproductive naval and military preparations must now, he declared, place research upon a new footing. "Where one man worked we will have a thousand." He appealed to Holsten. "We have only begun to peep into these possibilities," he said. "You, at any rate, have sounded the vaults of the treasure house."

"They are unfathomable," smiled Holsten.

"Man," said the American, with a manifest resolve to justify and reinstate himself after the flickering contradictions of the king, "man, I say, is only beginning to enter upon his heritage."

"Tell us some of the things you believe we shall presently learn, give us an idea of the things we may presently do," said the king to Holsten.

Holsten opened out vistas.

"Science," the king cried presently, "is the new king of the world."

"Our view," said the president, "is that sovereignty resides with the people."

"No," said the king, "the sovereign is a being more subtle than that. And less arithmetical. Neither my family nor your emancipated people. It is something that floats about us and above us and through us. It is that common, impersonal will and sense of necessity of which science is the best understood and most typical aspect. It is the mind of the race. It is that which has brought us here, which has bowed us all to its demands."

He paused and glanced down the table at Leblanc and then reopened at his former antagonist.

"There is a disposition," said the king, "to regard this gathering as if it was actually doing what it appears to be doing, as if we ninety odd men of our own free will and wisdom were unifying the world. There is a temptation to consider ourselves exceptionally fine fellows and masterful men and all the rest of it. We are not. I doubt if we should average out as anything abler than any other casually selected body of ninety odd men. We are no creators; we are consequences, we are salvagers or salvagees. The thing today is not ourselves, but the wind of conviction that has blown us hither."

The American had to confess he could hardly agree with the king's estimate of their average.

"Holsten, perhaps, and one or two others might lift us a little," the king conceded. "But the rest of us?"

His eye flitted once more toward Leblanc.

"Look at Leblanc," he said. "He's just a simple soul. There are hundreds and thousands like him. I admit a certain dexterity, a certain lucidity, but there is not a country town in France where there is not a Leblanc or so to be found about 2 o'clock in its principal cafe. It's just that he isn't complicated or super-mannish or any of those things that have made all he has done possible. But in happier times, don't you think, Wilhelm, he would have remained just what his father was—a successful epicier, very clean, very accurate, very honest? And on holidays he would have gone out with Mme. Leblanc and her knitting in a punt with a jar of something gentle and have sat under a large, reasonable, green lined umbrella and fished very neatly and successfully for gudgeon."

The president and the Japanese prince in spectacles protested together.

"If I do him an injustice," said the king, "it is only because I want to elucidate my argument. I want to make it clear how small are men and days and how great is man in comparison."

So it was King Egbert talked at Brissago after they had proclaimed the unity of the world. Every evening after that the assembly dined together and talked at their ease and grew accustomed to each other and sharpened each other's ideas, and every day they worked together and really for a time believed that they were inventing a new government for the world. They discussed a constitution. But there were matters needing attention too urgently to wait for any constitution. They attended to these incidentally. The constitution it was that waited. It was presently found convenient to keep the constitution waiting indefinitely, as King Egbert had foreseen, and meanwhile with an increasing self confidence that council went on governing.

On this first evening of all the council's gatherings, after King Egbert had talked for a long time and drunken and praised very abundantly the simple red wine of the country that Leblanc had procured for them, he gathered about him a group of congenial spirits and fell into a discourse upon simplicity, praising it above all things and declaring that the ultimate aim of art, religion, philosophy and science alike was to simplify. He instanced himself as a devotee to simplicity. And Leblanc he instanced as a crowning instance of the splendor of this quality. Upon that they were all agreed.

When at last the company about the tables broke up the king found himself brimming over with a peculiar affection and admiration for Leblanc. He made his way to him and drew him aside and broached what he declared was a small matter. There was, he said, a certain order in his gift that, unlike all other orders and decorations in the world, had never been corrupted. It was reserved only for elderly men of supreme distinction, the acuteness of whose gifts was already touched to mellowness, and it had included the greatest names of every age so far as the advisers of his family had been able to ascertain them. At present, the king admitted, these matters of stars and badges were rather obscured by more urgent affairs; for his own part he had never set any value upon them at all, but a time might come when they would be at least interesting, and, in short, he wished to confer the Order of Merit upon Leblanc. His sole motive in doing so, he added, was his strong desire to signalize his personal esteem. He laid his hand upon the Frenchman's shoulder as he said these things with an almost brotherly affection. Leblanc received this proposal with a modest confusion that greatly enhanced the king's opinion of his admirable simplicity. He pointed out that, eager as he was to snatch at the proffered distinction, it might at the present stage appear invidious, and he therefore suggested that the conferring of it should be postponed until it could be made the crown and conclusion of his services. The king was unable to shake this resolution and the two men parted with expressions of mutual esteem.

The king then summoned Firmin in order to make a short note of a number of things that he had said during the day. But after about twenty minutes' work the sweet sleepiness of the mountain air overcame him, and he dismissed Firmin and went to bed and fell asleep at once, and slept with extreme satisfaction. He had had an active, agreeable day.

The establishment of the new order that was thus so humanly begun was, if one measures it by the standard of any preceding age, a rapid process. The fighting spirit of the world was exhausted. Only here or there did fierceness linger. For long decades the combative side in human affairs had been monstrously exaggerated by the accidents of political separation. This now became luminously plain. An enormous proportion of the force that sustained armaments had been nothing more aggressive than the fear of war and warlike neighbors. It is doubtful if any large section of the men actually enlisted for fighting ever at any time really hungered and thirsted for bloodshed and danger. That kind of appetite was probably never very strong in the species after the savage stage was past. The army was a profession, in which killing had become a disagreeable possibility rather than an eventful certainty. If one reads the old newspapers and periodicals of that time, which did so much to keep militarism alive, one finds very little about glory and adventure and a constant harping on the disagreeableness of invasion and subjugation. In one word, militarism was funk. The belligerent resolution of the armed Europe of the twentieth century was the resolution of a fiercely frightened sheep to plunge. And now that its weapons were exploding in its hands Europe was only too eager to drop them and abandon this fancied refuge of violence.

For a time the whole world had been shocked into frankness; nearly all the clever people who had hitherto sustained the ancient belligerent separations had now been brought to realize the need for simplicity of attitude and openness of mind, and in this atmosphere of moral renascence there was little attempt to get negotiable advantages out of resistance to the new order. Human beings are foolish enough, no doubt, but few have stopped to haggle in a fire escape. The council had its way with them. The band of "patriots" who seized the laboratories and arsenal just outside Osaka and tried to rouse Japan to revolt against inclusion in the republic of mankind, found they had miscalculated the national pride, and met the swift vengeance of their own countrymen. That fight in the arsenal was a vivid incident in this closing chapter of the history of war. To the last the "patriots" were undecided whether in the event of a defeat they would explode their supply of atomic bombs or not. They were fighting with swords outside the iridium doors, and the moderates of their number were at bay and on the verge of destruction; only ten indeed remained unwounded when the republicans burst in to the rescue.

(To be continued.)

DULL, SPLITTING, SICK HEADACHE

Dr. James' Headache Powders relieve at once—10 cents a package.

You take a Dr. James' Headache Powder and in just a few moments your head clears and all neuralgia and distress vanishes. It's the quickest and surest relief for headache, whether dull, throbbing, splitting or nerve-racking. Send someone to the drug store and get a dime package now. Quit suffering—it's so needless. Be sure you get Dr. James' Headache Powders—then there will be no disappointment.

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

It would be hard to find a frock easier to make or simpler than this one, while it includes all the newest features.

The raglan sleeves dispense with all fitting, and the frock itself consists of just two pieces, so that there are the fewest possible seams.

On the figure it is made of soft finished pique, and there are slits cut at the low waist line through which ribbon is passed that makes a very pretty effect. Over the back is arranged a collar, the neck edge being drawn up the front. There is no opening, the dress being slipped on over the head, and the making is simplified.

CHILD'S DRESS.

A glance at the three views will give three different suggestions, all of which are practical.

For the medium size the dress will require two and seven-eighths yards of material, with one yard of ribbon to use with slashes, as illustrated.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for children from two to six years. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 8336, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No..... Size.....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

WAR.

"Fiery Scourge of Ages! bestial of Brutes!
Scourge of mankind, whose every name you pollute:
Conquest and humiliation is your Prowess and Right;
Blood and devastation is your Shibboleth in Might!"

"Come worthy brethren, come unto my fold,"
The self-same story as of legions told;
When Might was Right, the ages taught,
Might is Right when fought for Naught!

Pretext or none you shoulder the gun
To despatch either Roman, Greek, Goth or Hun;
Right or wrong, wrong or right
For ever and anon shall Might be Right!

With iron hand you have ruled since days primeval,
Lands and continents uprooted since days medieval.
Ruin and desolation—naught but consecration
To fiendish splendor of war's hallucination.

Knowledge is power and power is force
When yielding to Carnage—a final recourse.
Such is your standard both loyal and true,
Destruction for many and wealth for the few.

Ages of existence have taught us but naught,
Men's lives are forever with danger fraught;
Faith and laws are but loop-holes for flaws,
While ravages of war instil terror and awe.

The paths are many—all strewn with dead,
Into other lands your wild hordes led.
"Strike! Strike hard with main and might,
Strike with brute force for Might is Right!"

"O, when shall man be at peace with his brother?
To multiply—and not destroy each other:
To solve the problem of all future wars,
Eradicate autocracies, Kaisers and Czars."

BERNARD LEVINSON, M. D.
612 West Front street.

Some Cookery Suggestions

TODAY'S DINNER.

DINNER MENU.
Soup Without Meat.
Cucumbers Stuffed with Meat.
Watercress Salad.
Tomato Beef Stew.
Walnut Cake.
Ice Cream.
Coffee.

HERE'S a suggestion for the day's dinner that is economical and palatable:

Nourishing and Cheap.

Soup Without Meat.—Take one cupful of pearl barley, three or four potatoes cut fine, two or three onions, celery or any other vegetable that is at hand and one can of tomatoes. Cook slowly, the fireless cooker being best. Barley should soak overnight and then cook two or three hours before adding other vegetables. Strain when done and add a cupful of cream or milk. The pulp can be used with a can of corned beef for hash for luncheon next day.

Baked Vegetables.

Cucumbers Stuffed With Meat.—Take four medium sized cucumbers, peel and cut in two lengthwise, removing seeds. Prepare a filling of one cupful of minced veal or chicken, two tablespoonfuls of cream, one-half teaspoonful of soft crumbs, one teaspoonful of minced parsley and salt and pepper as needed. Fill cucumbers and pour around them in baking pan a cupful of veal or chicken stock or white sauce. Bake one-half hour, covered; then uncover, strew top with buttered crumbs and brown five minutes.

A Stew That's Different.

Tomato Beef Stew.—Pour into a porcelain saucepan one can of tomatoes, two large onions sliced, one teaspoonful each of cloves, nutmeg and allspice and one cupful of sugar. Let cook until onions are tender, about an hour, and add cold boiled meat, diced.

Walnut Cake.—Take one cupful of sugar and one-half cupful of butter, creamed together. Add two eggs and two-thirds of a cupful of milk, two cupfuls of flour, into which has been sifted two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one cupful of raisins and one cupful of chopped walnuts. This is nice with chocolate frosting thickly covered with walnut meats.

Anna Thompson.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Fairy That Lived In a Seashell.

And Swam Out Where They Were.

"DADDY, what makes that noise in the seashell?" asked Evelyn one night as she and Jack ran to their daddy, Evelyn with a big conch shell in her hand that she and Jack had found at the seashore.

"That noise?" asked daddy, taking the shell and placing it to his ear. "Why, that must be the voice of the fairy that used to live in it!"

"But, daddy, how can that be her voice if she isn't there?" asked Jack.

"Perhaps—just perhaps—that noise is only the echo," said daddy.

"How did she lose her home?" asked Evelyn.

"I'll tell you about it," said daddy. "You see, this fairy lived at the bottom of the sea in the most beautiful coral grove imaginable. There were many other shells there, each inhabited by other fairies. Of course there was the biggest shell of all, which was the palace of the fairy queen. This fairy was called Fairy Silver Spray, and she was given this beautiful shell of her own to live in because she had done a great service for the fairy queen.

"Fairy Queen Natilie made only one request when she gave this beautiful satiny shiny shell to Fairy Silver Spray, and that was that Fairy Silver Spray should never go away from home without leaving some one there to keep house for her. Queen Natilie didn't explain that if the shell lost its tenant even for a moment the house would float away and never be heard of again.

"Fairy Silver Spray obeyed her queen's directions for ever and ever so long. She kept her home bright and shining, and it grew to look more like a big jewel every day, and every time she went to a ball or a party she would leave a little brown gnome to keep house for her.

"But one day Fairy Silver Spray's curiosity got the better of her. A school of singing fishes was forming just outside her house, and the fairy, bearing the peculiar noises, was wild to hear what was going on.

"But the little brown gnome was away that day. Silver Spray listened and listened to the noise for a long time and then ventured to the edge of the shell.

"Then when she saw the singing fish she clapped her hands and swam out where they were and left her beautiful shell, and when she swam back it was gone.

"Sobbing and crying, she went all around the forest of coral and at last swam to the palace of the queen. The queen was very sorry for Fairy Silver Spray; but, you see, she had no other house to give her, so Fairy Silver Spray had to remain in the queen's palace and do all over again the work that she had to do before she was given the beautiful shell to live in. And the sound you hear in the shell is perhaps—just perhaps—the echo of Fairy Silver Spray's voice crying—always crying—for her lost home."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Construction of School Building.

The Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., will receive sealed bids at the Board room in the High School Building, corner West Ninth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at a meeting to be held on Monday, September 28, 1914, at 8 p. m., for the construction of a school building on Evergreen Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Plans and specifications are now on file at the High School Building, Plainfield, N. J., where they can be seen from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on week days, excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, until the day and hour of opening the bids as above mentioned.

Plans and specifications are also on file at the offices of the Architects, Wilder & White, 50 Church Street, New York City.

Copies of the Plans and Specifications may be obtained from the architects by depositing with the architects a certified check for $25.00, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., which will be returned upon the return of the drawings and specifications.

The work will be let in four contracts. 1. For the general construction. 2. For the heating and ventilating work. 3. For the plumbing work. 4. For the electrical work. And separate bids will be received on each contract.

All bids are to be on forms furnished with the specifications and accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J., or a surety bond of a company authorized to do business in the State of New Jersey, in the amount of five per cent. of the estimate submitted.

All bids or proposals are to be in writing and sealed, and addressed to the Secretary of the Board. Each bid must state explicitly upon what portion of the work it is based.

Upon receipt of the bids, or proposals, the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce their contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

No bids will be received by the Board previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any or all formalities.

B. VAN D. HEDGES,
Secretary Board of Education.
Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 10, 1914.
9-11 12 14 16 18 21 23 25 28

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1984.
OPP. DEPOT.

805 North Avenue. Telephone 296-W.
A. Colucci
SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Estimates Cheerfully Given.
All work warranted. Best reference.
6 17 tf

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 8:20 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 6:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5.30 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

—DON'T MAKE DON'T YOUR CREED. If you have something to sell, some quest to pursue—do these tasks aggressively, through want-advertising!

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School
202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,
Corner of Arlington Avenue,
Will be re-opened September 28th.

A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.

MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.
ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades.
Boys received in lower grades.
ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.
General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.
GYMNASIUM
Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.

Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.
For circulars or for further particulars address
Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS
Will Be Re-opened on
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
Main School, 433 W. Front St.
Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.
JOHN LEAL, Principal.
C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.
9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary
A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
Will Re-open On
THURSDAY, SEPT. 24
PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS
COLLEGE PREPARATORY
ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

SECRETARIAL
ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At
HERR'S SCHOOL
(Plainfield Business College and School of English)
"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to.
Call, 'Phone or Write
PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal.
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J
m-w-f

Ninteenth Season.
MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES
Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth
12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York
CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING
AT
SEMINARY HALL
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars
Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914.
Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION
GEO. C. M. SMITH
Tenth Season
51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.
9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS

JAMES C. HANSEN
DECORATOR
DEALER IN
PAINTS, OILS, GLASS,
VARNISHES, Etc.
141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

NOTICE OF PRIMARY ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that in each election district of the four wards of the City of Plainfield, a Primary Election will be held on,

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22d 1914

from seven a. m. to nine p. m., to nominate candidates for the following offices:

For members of the House of Representatives for the Fifth Congressional District.

For County Offices: One Senator, three members of the General Assembly, one County Clerk, one Sheriff, one Register of Deeds and Mortgages, and one Coroner.

For City Officers: At large, One Mayor. From each of the four wards, a member of the Common Council, a Justice of the Peace, and a Constable.

From each of the First, Second and Third Wards four members of each of the County and City Committees, and from the Fourth Ward six members of each of the County and City Committees of each of the Republican, Democratic, Progressive and Socialist parties.

The following places, with district boundaries, have been designated for registration and for the Primaries to be held Sep. 22d:

FIRST WARD.

First District:—At No. 134 North Avenue.
Park Avenue, C. R. R. of N. J., Washington Street, East Front Street, Elm Place, Green Brook, Somerset Street and Front Street.

Second District:—At rear room of store, No. 300 East Front Street.
Elm Place, East Front Street, Washington Street, East Third Street, Richmond Street, Norwood Avenue, Green Brook.

Third District:—At No. 545 East Third Street.
Norwood Avenue and Richmond Street, East Third Street, Washington Street, C. R. R. of N. J., Berckman Street, East Front Street, Farragut Road, Green Brook.

Fourth District:—At No. 249 Johnston Avenue.
Farragut Road, East Front Street, Berkman Street, C. R. R. of N. J., Terrill Road, Green Brook.

SECOND WARD.

First District:—At No. 319 Watchung Avenue.
Park Avenue, Cedar Brook, Watchung Avenue, Franklin Place, East Seventh Street, Washington Street, C. R. R. of N. J.

Second District:—At No. 833 Webster Place, garage.
Park Avenue, the City Line, Putnam Avenue as extended and opened, Franklin Place, Watchung Avenue, Cedar Brook.

Third District:—At No. 420 Richmond Street.
Washington Street, East Seventh Street, Franklin Place, Putnam Avenue, Berckman Street as projected and opened, C. R. R. of N. J.

Fourth District:—At No. 1105 South Avenue.
Berckman Street as opened and as projected, Putnam Avenue as extended, the City Line, C. R. R. of N. J.

THIRD WARD.

First District:—At No. 440 West Fifth Street.
Park Avenue, West Seventh Street, Plainfield Avenue, West Fifth Street, Liberty Street, West Fourth Street.

Second District:—At Fisk's barn on Arlington Avenue between Seventh and Eighth Streets.
Park Avenue, City Line, Plainfield Avenue, West Seventh Street.

Third District:—At Neuman's Barn, corner Spooner Avenue and Essex Street.
West Fourth Street, Grant Avenue, City Line, Plainfield Avenue, West Fifth Street, Liberty Street.

Fourth District:—At No. 937 West Fourth Street, room in rear of store.
West Fourth Street, City Line, Grant Avenue.

FOURTH WARD.

First District:—At No. 200 West Second Street.
Somerset Street, Front Street, Park Avenue, West Fourth Street, New Street, West Front Street, Washington Avenue, Green Brook.

Second District:—At No. 211 Liberty Street.
Washington Avenue, West Front Street, New Street, West Fourth Street, Plainfield Avenue, West Front Street, Geraud Avenue, Green Brook.

Third District:—At No. 205 Grant Avenue.
Geraud Avenue, West Front Street, Plainfield Avenue, West Fourth Street, Grant Avenue, West End Avenue, Green Brook.

Fourth District:—At No. 1219 West Front Street.
West End Avenue, Grant Avenue, C. R. R. of N. J. to City Line, West Front Street, Jefferson Avenue, Green Brook.

Fifth District:—At No. 937 West Third Street.
West Fourth Street, Monroe Avenue as opened and as extended, C. R. R. of N. J., Grant Avenue.

Sixth District:—At No. 316 Lyman Place.
Monroe Avenue as opened and extended, C. R. R. of N. J., City Line, West Fourth Street.

All boundaries are understood to be the center line of the streets named.

First Registry Day is September 8th, from 1 to 9 o'clock p. m., on which day all voters shall appear in person before the Board of Registry and Election and register in order to vote at the ensuing Primary Election. Voters not registered on September 8th can only register September 22nd and October 20 for the General Election. November 3d, and cannot vote at the Primary Election.

J. T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk.
Dated Plainfield, N. J., September 5, 1914.
9-5-14-21

SHERIFF'S SALE—New Jersey Supreme Court. Samuel W. Shipway vs. William P. Buckner, defendant. Fi. fa. de. bo. et ter. In debt.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the sheriff's office in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on WEDNESDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF OCTOBER, A. D. 1914, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that certain lot, tract and parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey: Being lots number 77, 78, 79 on Section B, map of property situate in Netherwood, city of Plainfield, N. J., owned by William Picken, Esq., surveyed by F. A. Dunham, civil engineer, of Plainfield, N. J., March 1892, and filed in the office of the register of the county of Union, May 14, 1892. Bounded as follows: On the north by Radcliffe place, seventy-five feet; on the east by lot number 80 on said map, one hundred and fifteen feet; on the south by lots numbers 102, 103 and 104 on said map, 75 feet; and on the west by lot number 76, as laid down on said map, 115 feet, be the same dimensions more or less.

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.
SAMUEL PRESS, Att'y.
9 14 4m EDJ&PDP Fees, $11.22

UNION COUNTY ORPHAN'S COURT.

In the matter of the estate of Max Smelson, deceased, alleged to be insolvent.

Order directing executor to notify creditors to exhibit claims.

Pursuant to an order of the Orphans Court of the County of Union made on the twenty-first day of August, 1914, upon the application of George Berse, executor of the last will of Max Smelson, deceased, notice is hereby given by the said George Berse, executor as aforesaid, to the creditors of said estate of Max Smelson, deceased, to exhibit to him under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the said estate within six months from the twenty-first day of August, 1914, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., August 22, 1914.

GEORGE BERSE,
Executor.

Robert Newton Crane,
203 Park Avenue,
Proctor.
8-24-9t-M

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
108 Depot Park, Manning Building.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 322-R.

—If you have a really desirable house or apartment to rent, your "ad" will constitute GOOD NEWS to some anxious people in this city.

PHONE YOUR ADS

ONE CENT A WORD

SCOOP, THE CUB REPORTER — SCOOP PREFERS TO CENSOR HIS OWN PROPOSALS — BY "HOP"

SALE OF LANDS FOR UNPAID TAXES FOR YEAR 1913.

Short Notice of Adjournment.

Collector's Office, City of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Notice is hereby given that the sale of lands for unpaid taxes (being for taxes assessed on real estate in said city for the year 1913, remaining unpaid and in arrears) as heretofore advertised by the subscriber in pursuance of the Statute in such cases made and provided, for Monday, the Fourteenth Day of September, 1914, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the said Collector's office, No. 151 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, the last published advertisement of which sale were published in the Plainfield Courier-News and Plainfield Daily Press, on the tenth day of September, 1914, and copies of which advertisement of sale were posted by the subscriber in numerous public places in the City of Plainfield, one whereof was posted on the side window of the Collector's office in the main hall of the building known as the City Building, No. 151 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J., where said last mentioned notice still remains open to inspection by any person interested, to which advertisement reference is hereby made for greater certainty, was at said time and place so fixed for sale, publicly adjourned, at the request of persons interested, for one week, that is to say, to Monday, the 28th Day of September, 1914, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the same place, to wit, at the said Collector's office, No. 151 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

WILLIAM R. TOWNSEND,
Collector.

Dated September 21, 1914.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:41, 5 6a, 5:4, (5:52 except holidays), 6:27, 6 56, 7:22, (7:26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:55 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:30 (except holidays), 8:36, 8 42, 8:59, 9:29, 9:33, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m.; 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:23, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12, 4:01, 4.13, 4 36, 5 39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:36, 11:43 p. m. Sunday—2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9 49, 10:37, 11:52 a. m., 12 39, 12 58, 1 28, 2:09, 2:16, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:27, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27, (7:05 through train to Newark), 7:41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:37 a. m., 12 39, 12 58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m., 2:00, 3:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m., 1:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m., 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19, 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc., 2:41, 8:12, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only) (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:43 p. m. Sundays—2:41, (7:58 Red Bank only), 8:52 a. m., (9:40 Red Bank only), (2:15 Red Bank only), 3:17, (8:13 Red Bank only), 8:35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 3:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m 2:15 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43, 11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:13, 6:44 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sunday —5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10:39, 10:43, 11:41 a m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4.39 4 56, 5:39 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily —8:45, 10:42 a. m., 12:42, 2:45 6:44 p. m

*Except Mauch Chunk.

6-4-tf

Probably

You are not aware that we are selling bulbs of all varieties for pots or planting out cheaper than they can be obtained elsewhere.

We are cutting daily from our fifteen greenhouses quantites of Roses, Carnations, Chrysanthemums, etc.

Floral designs, wedding boquets and decorations at lowest prices; satisfaction guaranteed.

Cut Flowers delivered to any city in the United States.

Let us call on you and submit plans and prices for your landscape work; we have a large stock of evergreens, ornamental trees and shrubs.

Charles L. Stanley

Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St.
Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Telephone 2331 Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St.
Tel. 2094 Gramercy

H. DeMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

DIED.

MULFORD—On Monday, September 21, 1914, Lewis Thompson, infant son of Lewis B. and Ruth T. Mulford, in the 2d year of his age.

Services at his parents' residence, 142 Duer street, North Plainfield, on Wednesday, September 23, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside cemetery. 9 21 2

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage. H. R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; 'phone 1515. 9 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

HAVE your cellars whitewashed and cleaned. 663 South Second street. 9 21 6

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—22 ft. by 5 ft. 10 inches sea-going dory, 6-horse power engine, two years old, prime condition. For quick sale, $160, exceptional motor boat value. Rowland H. Leveridge, 1112 West Eighth street, Plainfield, N. J.; telephone. 9 18-21

GOOD driving horse for sale, or delivery. I. P. Runyon, 212 Park avenue. 9 16 tf

FOR SALE—Antique grandfather's clock. Can be seen at Moraller's, 219 Park avenue. 9 21 3

GRAPES for sale, 50c per basket. Garretson, 1037 Sherman avenue. 9 21 3

FOR SALE—In good condition and a great sacrifice, 1 bassdrum, 8 small drums, 7 flutes, 6 bugles. For information concerning same address G. T. Stumpf, P. O. box 121, Garwood, N. J. 9 21 6

FOR SALE—Electric runabout, like new; complete with charging outfit, battery, tires, etc.; in first-class condition; price reasonable. Address Electric, care Press. 9 21 6

GRAPES for sale cheap. 744 Webster place. 9 21 3

FOUR good working horses for sale cheap. Plainfield Ice Supply Co., 222 Madison avenue. 9 17 tf

FOR SALE—Cheap, canopy top and depot carriage, both rubber tire and in excellent condition; also set single, brass mounted harness. 91 Mercer avenue, 'phone 315-R. 9 18 3

FOR SALE—300 white leghorns, W. F. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue. 9 18 4

LOST AND FOUND.

GOLD watch chain lost on Front street Friday morning. Return to 218 East Front street. 9 18 3

LOST—Pay envelope with Chinese ticket with name and place of employment on it. Finder kindly return to Press office. 9 21 3

LOST—Sunday, on or near road to Bonnie Burn, pair spectacles in case, maker's name "Hoecker." Please return to this office. Reward. 9 21 2

LOST—Silver mesh bag, Plainfield or Dunellen. Finder please leave at Press office and receive reward.

LOST—Friday in Plainfield or Dunellen, silver mesh bag containing Rosary beads; liberal reward. Return to Press office.

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

DINING-ROOM or lunch counter privilege wanted in hotel, club, cafe or amusement places; exquisite service. L. Haslwanter, 728 West Front street. 9 17 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

FURNISHED room with board 440 West Front street, 'phone 418-M. 9 16 1mo

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only, we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED—A competent girl to cook and assist with housework and ironing; only those having good references need apply. 672 West Seventh street. 9 17 tf

WANTED—Maid for general housework. Call Tuesday morning, 99 Rockview avenue.

WANTED—White cook. Protestant, to live in country. Telephone Mrs. H. E. Butler, 1146 Plainfield. 9 18 3

WANTED—Experienced child's nurse (white); highest personal references required. 1424 Prospect avenue. 9 21 tf

WANTED—Ladies, $1 dozen making caps at home; we pay you. Send stamped reply envelope for particulars, Gray & Co., Hornell, N. Y. 9 21 12

WANTED—Chambermaid and waitress (colored). Apply 632 Woodland avenue. 9 21 tf

WANTED—Reliable woman and daughter, woman good cook, girl to be generally useful; short distance in country; references required. 'Phone 2836-W-1 Dunellen. 9 21 2

WANTED—Teacher of Spanish. Apply at Mt. St. Mary College. 9 21 6

WANTED—Laundress to take washing home, must have good references. Call 1000 Central avenue.

WANTED—Colored chambermaid, also laundress; references. 209 East Seventh street. 9 21 3

WANTED—White woman for general housework, no washing. Apply 228 East Ninth street. 9 17 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

TWO girls wish positions together, one as cook, other chambermaid and waitress. 814 Richmond street. 9 18 3

POLISH girl wishes position at general housework, good references. 619 South Second street. 9 18 3

WANTED—Visiting governess or companion by young lady of refinement and experience, English branches elementary, French and German; best references. Address Plainfield, care Press. 9 18 3

YOUNG girl wishes position, chambermaid, waitress. 446 West Fifth street. 9 21 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

YOUNG man, colored, wants a butler's position; present employed. Write or call J. Ford, The Homestead, Fanwood, N. J. 9 21 3

FOR RENT.

TO REAL ESTATE BROKERS—76 ROCKVIEW AVENUE FOR SALE OR TO LET; GROUNDS ABOUT 140x450; BRICK HOUSE; 12 ROOMS, LARGE GARAGE, ETC. FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS AND PHOTOS PLEASE ADDRESS CHARLES HARMS, 17 SOUTH STREET, NEW YORK. 9 19 6

6-ROOM flat, steam heat, central location, $18 month. James Carson, 211 North avenue.

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $10 to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

TO RENT—A very pleasant room in a desirable house and location. L. M., care Press. 9 18 6

ATTRACTIVE apartment for rent, third floor three-family house, 812 Leland avenue, Netherwood section; five rooms, all improvements; reasonable rent to adults. Harvey R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue, telephone 1515. 9 18 3

FOR RENT—One side of the double house 43-45 Jackson avenue, N. Plainfield, 7 rooms, bathroom, hot water heat. Inquire at Keller's, 157 Watchung avenue. 9 21 tf

TO LET—From Nov. 1 to April 1, nicely furnished house with garage; rent reasonable to right party; no children. Call 257 Somerset street, tel. 2253-W. 9 21 6

FOR RENT—House, 6 rooms and bath, all improvements, large yard, fruit, etc.; 1 block from trolley, 3 minutes from station. Inquire 451 Orchard place or J. Abrams, West Front street. 9 21 3

STORE FOR RENT—Stirling building. Apply The Plainfield Trust Co. 9 21 3

FOR RENT—7-room house, all latest improvements, hot water heat, $25; also 7-room house, part improvements, $17. D. F. Dugan, 511 East Seventh street. 9 18 tf

TO LET—House (5 rooms) 508 West Third street, rent $12. Apply Wilson, 125 Elmwood place. 8 17 tf -m-w-s

TO LET—One-half new semi-detached house, all improvements; Henry place, Netherwood; six rooms and bath; rent low to good tenants. C. M. Church, 710 East Front street. 9 17 6

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

TO LET—Two furnished rooms to let for light housekeeping. 308 East Front street. 9 19 3

FOR RENT — Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 19 6

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 8 11 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STERE OPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
200 Baskets
Fancy Alberta Peaches
ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.
ALSO
Fine Bartlett Pears
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.
Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.
Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.
R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL,
TELEGRAM, AMERICAN,
BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864.
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

"The Bank that pays 4%"

Resources $5,000,000.00

SAVING THE "EXTRAS"

Did it ever occur to you that this is one of the easiest ways of accumulating money? Dividends, interest on bonds, mortgages and other securities, gifts of money—anything, in fact, that is not needed for actual living expenses, should be laid aside in a special account instead of being frittered away. The habit can soon be formed and there is a fascination about watching such an account grow. We invite you to test the truth of this statement by opening an "income account" in our Special Department which will be subject to

4% COMPOUND INTEREST.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

WHEN

you travel to another city to buy clothing, hats or shoes on credit, you get no better terms, goods or prices, and you are out carfare and time besides.

Isn't it, therefore, the logical thing to buy in your home city and give it, as it deserves, the benefit of your trade?

Isn't it only doing yourself justice to buy at an established, reliable store like ours?

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS,

J. A. LAURIE & CO.

304 West Front Street,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

FOR THE COMMUTER

The State Trust Company offers the following facilities:

Convenient banking hours: Business may be transacted as early as 8:15 in the morning.

New York checking privileges: Checks may be made payable at the Union Trust Company, New York.

Free collection of out or town checks: Items on points throughout the United States and Canada collected without charge.

Liberal interest: 3% interest on checking accounts of $500.00 or more.

We are now caring for a number of New York business accounts on this basis, and offer our facilities to any New York business man who may be paying exchange on his out of town checks, or who is receiving less than 3% interest in New York.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

CAPITAL $100,000.00

Regular Republican Nominee for Sheriff

S. P. T. WILBUR

No one public improvement adds so much to the value of the real estate, or promotes the growth of Union County, as "Good Roads." Union County is famous throughout the eastern States for its numerous smooth, well graded, macadamized and bituminous roads.

The citizens of Union County are grateful to the Board of Chosen Freeholders for their wise, energetic and painstaking effort in this line of improvement, which has added so much to the County's growth and public benefit.

S. P. T. Wilbur has been a member of the Road Committee for seven (7) years, and is recognized as one of the best posted and active in the State in this line. He is also chairman of the Auditing Committee which brings him in contact with the financial and official affairs of the County. He is now seeking the nomination for Sheriff on the Republican ticket. He has demonstrated that he is worthy of public confidence.

Come out to the Primary and show your appreciation by voting for S. P. T. Wilbur.

—Paid for by S. P. T. Wilbur Campaign Committee.

VINCENT H. SEILER

Democratic candidate for the Assembly at the Primaries

—Paid for by V. H. Seiler Campaign Committee. 9 19 2

For the College Boy

We suggest these striking new English models, as shown in our famous Slater Morrill and Heywood $5.00 and $6.00 lines.

If you are not already acquainted with the splendid merits of these new Fall lines, we urge you to make their acquaintance this Fall.

They have that classy English custom appearance with its flat toe, flat heel, wide shank and blind eyelets.

Shown in rich dark tan, mahogany and black steel calf.

M. C. Van Arsdale
127 E. Front St.

ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY

FOR SHERIFF JOHN H. COSE

OF PLAINFIELD, REPUBLICAN

A business man—not a politician.

A man of broad views—not a bigot.

A man of wide sympathies—not a self-seeker.

His nomination and election will mean an honest, clean and business-like administration of this most important office.

—Paid for by the John H. Cose Campaign Committee. 9 19 2

WHY NOT SELECT AS YOUR NOMINEE THE ONE WHO IS SURE TO BE ELECTED?

VOTE FOR

John H. Capstick

Regular Republican candidate for Congress of the Fifth District.

Has demonstrated his ability to conduct his own affairs successfully and therefore is competent to be trusted with the affairs of others.

—Paid for by the John H. Capstick Campaign Committee.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

RENIE MYERS & CO.
In a Dramatic Playlet
"The Confession"

MABEL McDONALD
Accomplished Singing Comedian

DEVINE & WESTON
They Cut Long Stories Short

ADIO TRIO
Three Singers—Three Artists

RED RAVEN TRIO
Comedy Sketch
"TOO MUCH MRS. JONES"

Photo Plays Changed Daily

WEDNESDAY
The Million Dollar Mystery

PRICES
Matinee—10c, 15c.
Nights—10c, 15c, 25c.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON
Managers

Tonight, Tuesday, Wednesday,
Matinees Daily at 2:30
ANNETTE KELLERMAN
In the Most Talked of Photo Plays

Neptune's Daughter

3 SHOWS DAILY
2:30, 7 and 9 P. M.
PRICES Matinee and Night 15c and 25c.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 24,
HENRY W. SAVAGE
Offers the International Operetta Sensation

SARI

PRICES
25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50, $2.00

FRIDAY, SEPT. 25,
THE YELLOW TICKET
PRICES
25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists
AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

SHERIFF'S SALE. In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Mary Rose Muck and Anna Muck, administrators of the estate of the late Frederick August Muck, complainants, and Ernest H. Muck and Lizzie Muck, his wife, defendants. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue at the Sheriff's office, in the Courthouse, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that or parcel of lands and premises situate, lying and being in the township of Fanwood, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE THIRTIETH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1914,

Bounded and described as follows: On the northerly side the lands of Jonathan Dolbier, on the easterly side the land belonging to the estate of Samuel Lee, deceased, and on the westerly side by lands of the said Jonathan Dolbier, and on the southerly side by lands of Cutler Dolbier, containing seven (7) acres of land, be the same more or less. Also granting unto the said part of the second part an easement for the purpose of ingress and egress at all times over the lands formerly owned by Diedrich A. Schoenbec to the premises herein described.

Being the same premises conveyed to Diedrich A. Schoenbec by deed of William F. S. McLaughlin and wife, bearing date of January 15, 1884, recorded in the county clerk's office of Union county on the 27th day of February, 1884, Book 166. Subsequently conveyed by reason of a foreclosure suit to one John F. McIntyre, by deed of B. Frank Cordell, sheriff of county of Union, dated the 5th day of July, 1905, and recorded in the register's office of the county of Union on the 28th day of July, 1905, in Book 452, on pages 445, etc.

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.
HENRY CARLESS, Solr.
9 7 4-M E7.0 & F10.0 Fees $15.20

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

Wrench Tools

Every useful Tool that's needed to make things snug and tight. You'll find all the little low cost Wrenches as well as the higher grade Tools—and quality for quality, you'll find lower prices than you've ever seen.

Every useful Wrench and Tool that's needed is here and makes it still more interesting for you to "Come in and Look Around."

F. A. KIRCH & CO.,
205 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Phone 578

ROTH & CO.

Anniversary Sale

2nd Day—Tuesday

FRESH PLATE BEEF, lb	11c
CHUCK STEAK ROAST, lb POT ROAST, lb OVEN ROAST, lb	16c
FANCY SALT PORK, weighing 3 to 4 lbs; lb	14c
FLANK STEAK, no bone, all meat; lb	18c
REG. SMOKED HAMS, ANNIVERSARY PRICE, lb	19½c
BONELESS BACON, by strip, lb	19½c
LITLLE NECK CLAMS IN SHELL, dozen	7c

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

PEACE AND PLENTY

Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.

W. W. Dunn
Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

A. H. ENANDER

SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING, STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Contractor for Sewer Connection.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

MANNING & CURTIS
106 DEPOT PARK

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

Hoagland's Express

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

—Is not one of the problems facing you at the present moment a want ad problem?

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.
Consolidation Meeting in Borough.
Business Men's Credit Association.
Fourth Ward Republican Club.
Tax Sale Continued.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.

TOMORROW.
Primary Day.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.
Consolidation Meeting in Borough.

WEDNESDAY.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.
Consolidation Meeting in Borough.
Boro Parent-Teachers' Meeting.

THURSDAY.
Consolidation Election in the Borough.
"Sari" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

FRIDAY.
Building Trades Council.
Central Civic Organization Meets.
"The Yellow Ticket" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3.45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 1200.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

ORGANIZED 1868

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Important Decision

One of the most important things to consider early in life is saving.

You make a wise decision in starting an account with the

Plainfield Savings Bank

where your funds will be secure and earn a liberal rate of interest.

4% INTEREST PAID
ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD

The beautiful dwellings you pass in going about this city, and the stores you enter on your shopping trips are nearly all insured in this agency.

If you do not already know the benefits derived from dealing with us, you have missed something worth while.

Automobile fire at 1%.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO.

Babcock Bldg.
Telephone 205
Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

LOCAL NEWS OF INTEREST will always be found in the classified columns on the page before the last.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight, Wednesday increasing cloudiness, somewhat lower temperature in the afternoon; light to moderate south winds.
Max., 91; min., 59.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

DUTCH ARMS GIVE A DINNER

Fall Activities Are Resumed by Men of Trinity Reformed Church.

SPEECHES AND MUSIC

Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson and J. Campbell White Talk on Timely Topics—Dutch Arms Band Gives a Muscial Program.

The first fall meeting of the Dutch Arms, men's association of Trinity Reformed church, marking the resumption of fall and winter activities, was held in the church, last night, being attended by nearly 150 men, who were entertained with excellent speeches and popular selections by the Dutch Arms Band. Preceding the speeches and music, the men enjoyed a fine dinner which was in charge of the good and welfare committee. Rev. Dr. E. G. Read offered a short prayer before the dinner was served.

Arthur B. Cole, president of the Dutch Arms, gave an address of welcome, in which he said that twenty-eight new members were enrolled last night. He praised the band and its work, adding that since the first of the year it had filled forty-one engagements to date. Edgar F. Sheppard was the toastmaster.

Mr. Sheppard then introduced as the first speaker of the evening J. Campbell White, of New Brunswick who is connected with the Laymen's Missionary movement. The speaker emphasized the fact that in order to get the best results for the church, the laymen and clergy should work in co-operation with each other. He also said that the laymen of the church leave all the church work for the minister and seem to have the idea that there are two standards of morality for preachers and laymen. He also said that because of the business duties of the day that men are liable to set the church aside in a corner and become too worldly.

He referred to his ten years' experience while connected with the University of Calcutta and found that in every case the man who knew his Bible was the best equipped for the work of the world. He said that the laymen had not enough religious convictions and put too much work on the shoulders of the pastor, who should be the one to be helped in his labors. He also gave statistics showing that church memberships only increased about two per cent. a year, and then showed how this could be overcome and gave illustrations of places that were doing a fine work. In closing he said that the duty of the church was to plan for world wide extension.

After several selections by the band the toastmaster introduced Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor of the First Methodist church, of this city, who spoke on "The Work of the Laity and the Ministry Co-operative." He gave personal instances of his work along these lines and also gave one reason why the church of today is not like the church of old. This was that newspapers, magazines and periodicals have partially taken the place of the church and whereas in olden times people went to church for current events, they get it elsewhere these days. The meeting closed with the "Star Spangled Banner" by the band.

The committees in charge are as follows: Entertainment, Fred M. Smith, chairman; A. M. Morrell, E. D. Young, L. N. Leland, E. V. H. Voorhees, C. M. Dolliver, F. S. Cutter, L. M. Leek; good and welfare, Arthur B. Davis, chairman; M. Stevens, E. K. Schomp J. Dean, C. H. Harvey, R. Cutter, S. A. Stover, H. R. Sturges, L. Newman, A. Hedrick, W. H. Olmsted.

DOCTORS WILL BE GUESTS AT DENTISTS' CLAMBAKE

An invitation has been extended to all local physicians to attend the fourth annual outing and clambake of the Plainfield Dental Society to be held at Gillette, Thursday. An elaborate program of sports and other amusements has been arranged and all who attend will find plenty of enjoyment to be had.

A feature of the affair will be a dinner arranged for by the committee in charge which is composed of Dr. George Moore, Dr. Chalmers L. Grist and Dr. Charles Moore.

For County Clerk at Republican Primary, James C. Calvert.

Conduct of his office endorsed by Former Chancellor and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Wm. J. Magie, Former Gov. Foster M. Voorhees, Former Judge Clark Mck. Whittemore and practically all the members of the Union County Bar Ass'n as well as thousands of Republican citizens throughout the county who signed his petition of nomination. —Paid for by James C. Calvert Committee.—Adv. 9 21 1

VICTIM'S CONDITION REMAINS UNCHANGED

Mrs. Hart Farlee's Recovery Still a Matter of Grave Doubt.

Reports from the hospital this morning indicate that there is no material change in the condition of Mrs. Hart Farlee, who was seriously injured in the midnight crash on the upper end of Park avenue Saturday night. The woman is suffering from a fracture at the base of the skull and her recovery is still a matter of grave doubt.

John Valiant, the owner and driver of the wrecked car, is reported as resting more comfortably today and it is said that he will recover. Frederick Gwyer, the third member of the fated party, was discharged from Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday afternoon. Gwyer was the luckiest member of the trio, escaping with slight cuts and bruises. He is able to be about again as usual.

PLEYDELL ARGUES AGAINST SAUNDERS

Prominent Boroughite Says Presiding Officer Did Not Quote Whole Law.

Appearing as one of the speakers at the consolidation meeting held on Somerset street, last night, A. C. Pleydell, a well known resident of the borough, argued in opposition to the proposed plan to consolidate the borough with Plainfield. He contended that Plainfield property values were placed at 100 per cent. in contrast to the 70 per cent. values in North Plainfield. Mr. Pleydell claimed that Mr. Saunders, who presided at the meeting, and Councilman Tingley did not quote the whole law relative to office holders being continued or the number of commissioners to be named from the borough in the event of the passage of the movement.

Mr. Saunders took exception to the latter statement and replied by quoting the whole law in an effort to prove his points. He referred to the statistics given in Saturday's contributed editorial in the columns of the Plainfield Daily Press which was written by him and also to the action of the Building Trades Council taken last Friday night. Mr. Saunders' statements were objected to by Howard Woolston, but the presiding officer was sustained in his arguments by a member of the trades council who happened to be in the audience.

Voters of the borough are manifesting an untiring interest in the nightly meetings and all have been attended by large gatherings. The session will be abandoned tonight because of the primary elections. Besides those named above the following spoke at last night's gathering: Judge Delevan A. Holmes, former Mayor Newton B. Smalley and C. W. McCutchen. The last named put himself on record as being an advocate of consolidation after annexation. He is recognized as one of the biggest taxpayers in the borough and is opposed to the passage of the present proposition under conditions now prevalent.

LOCAL MAN'S SUMMER HOME LOOTED BY VANDAL THIEVES

The wholesale robbery of bungalows, houses and camps along the Morris county shore of Lake Hopatcong was discovered recently by summer residents arriving to spend the week-end. One of the two larger houses to be entered was that of A. E. Janke, of West Ninth street, who annually spends the summer months with his family on the lake's shore.

The place gave evidence that the thieves had taken their time in searching them. Not only did the looters ransack the place thoroughly but they were also guilty of acts of vandalism that increased the loss. Some of the furniture and fixtures in the houses were broken and wagons were used to carry off the loot.

MOTHER DYING, RELATIVES ARE SEEKING MISSING SON

The police of this city have been requested to aid in the search for William Angel, whose mother is dying from the effects of cancer in Parsons, Pa. The young man is said to have come to this city in August and was employed as a conductor on the Arlington avenue trolley line.

The request is made by his sister, Mrs. Walliam B. Edwards, of 526 South Main street, Parsons, Pa.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

HIGHWAYMEN FLED ON A MOTORCYCLE

Held up Milkman on Park Avenue and Escaped on Vehicle.

En route to the barn of the Woodbrook farm on the upper end of Park avenue at 4:15 this morning, Edward E. VanNess, of 1085 Arlington avenue, was held up by two colored men who later disappeared in the direction of Metuchen, leaving no clue as to their identity. As he neared Thomas Brantingham's road-house the driver of the milk wagon noticed a Harley-Davidson motorcycle lying at the side of the road and slowed up as he neared the vehicle.

An instant later two heavy set men jumped out of the bushes, one grabbing the head of the team and the other mounting to the seat alongside of the driver. The latter highwayman demanded that VanNess hand over his money and other valuables. The driver replied that he had no money on his person and claims that the robber replied:

"You're a lair, you got paid yesterday."

The man who had jumped to the seat then grabbed VanNess and proceeded to search his pockets, finding nothing of value. Angered at the result, the man, according to VanNess, then tore his coat from his back and threw it to the roadbed. At the same time the robber jumped to the road and at a signal from his pal the man at the horse's head joined him. They leaped on the motorcycle and were last seen by VanNess as they disappeared in the direction of Metuchen.

In a statement made to Chief Kiely this morning, VanNess described the men as being about twenty-five years of age and heavily set. They were about five feet, ten inches in heighth and wore dark suits and dark caps.

This particular spot on Park avenue is one that has been feared by pedestrians and wagon drivers for many years. A number of similar attempts at robbery have been made recently but in previous cases the victim has been unable to get even a meagre description of the miscreants. Heretofore motorcycles have not been connected with the attempted robberies and the offenders as a rule use the woods that line both sides of the thoroughfare as means of making their escape. The spot is a particularly dark one and the cries of a victim are not likely to attract attention. Chief Kiely is making efforts to establish the identity of the early morning highwaymen.

MISS MELLICK AND MISS SCHUYLER HOME FROM EUROPE

Miss Mary A. Mellick and Miss Sarah E. Schuyler, of East Seventh street, who have been in Europe for several months, returned home yesterday on board the steamer Minnewaska from London. While they were subjected to considerable inconvenience by reason of the war, being more or less delayed, they did not experience any hardships.

While abroad they spent considerable time in Germany, where Miss Edith Mellick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, has been living for some time.

NAME DISTRICT WORKERS TO GET OUT THE VOTE

The Fourth Ward Republican Club, at an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting in the Frost building, last night, completed arrangements for primary work in the ward today. Councilman Francis J. Blatz and William Newcorn addressed those present, urging everyone to be sure and vote at the primary.

The following were chosen as vice presidents, comprising a committee of district workers to get the vote out today and at the general election: First district, John Bowman; Second district, Francis J. Blatz; Third district, A. L. Case; Fourth district, James Morrison; Fifth district, Joel Pennington; Sixth district, Andrew Cowley.

FINAL DECREE IN DIVORCE.

Estelle May Eick Clarkson, of Dunellen, has been granted a final decree in divorce from her husband, Thomas Edward Clarkson, of this city. The decree was handed down in the Trenton courts and Mrs. Clarkson was represented in the proceedings by City Judge William G. DeMeza.

—Yellow peaches will not be in the market for many days longer. Neuman Brothers are able to offer some delicious fruit of this kind, but only for a few days. The assortment of other kinds of fruit continues to be of the hightest class, but those who expect to can or preserve pears, plums or grapes are urged to do so this week.—Adv. ***

AUTO TURNED TURTLE INJURING OCCUPANTS

Charles Stanley and Daughter Are Victims of Accident This Afternoon.

An attempt to fix a broken windshield while steering an automobile nearly caused the death of Chas. L. Stanley, the local florist, and his nineteen-year-old daughter, Elsie, this afternoon. Mr. Stanley was driving his machine west on East Front street and as he neared Washington street he leaned over the steering wheel pulling the two pieces of the shield together. This action caused him to temporarily loose control of the vehicle and it crashed with great force into the curbing in front of P. A. McVoy's house.

So hard was the impact that the heavy machine turned completely over, but Mr. Stanley and his daughter were thrown clear of the wreckage. The fact that the machine had no top on it saved the occupants from being pinioned under it.

Miss Stanley was severely cut and bruised and her father suffered serious injury to his right arm. The victims were removed to a house in the immediate vicinity where first aid treatment was administered prior to the arrival of Dr. Pittis who took charge of the case. Twelve stitches were required to close a gash in Miss Stanley's leg. Mr. Stanley was also cut about the head.

The car in which the two persons were riding is a total wreck. The windshield, radiator and lamps were completely demolished and the wheels also badly damaged.

LOCAL DELEGATES LEAVE TONIGHT FOR CONVENTION

Patrolman McIntyre,, of the local force; Michael O'Brien, of Somerville, and John Hermann, of North Plainfield, leave tonight for Atlantic City as delegates from the local Patrolmen's Benevolent Association to the annual convention of the organization which will convene during the ensuing three days.

The Plainfield representatives will attend all of the sessions on the program and will make a full report of the proceedings on their return. Delegates from all parts of the State will be in attendance and the number is expected to reach 300.

MISS MADELINE REED TO WED ON OCTOBER 10

Corporation Counsel and Mrs. Charles Arthur Reed have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Madeline Reed, and William Arrott, of Philadelphia. The ceremony will be performed Saturday afternoon, October 10, at 4 o'clock, at "Scrub Oak," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reed, on Woodland avenue, opposite Martine avenue.

Miss Reed has been prominent in the younger society set of the city and borough, attending the social functions at the Park Club and the Plainfield Country Club. Mr. Arrott is a member of an old Philadelphia family, where he is also prominent in society.

AUTO COMPANY FILES PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

William A. Coddington, attorney for the company, today filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States District Court, for the Standard Automobile and Tire Company, which has been engaged in business on Somerset street for the past two years. The cause for the failure is said to be due to the heavy expenses incurred in operating the garage.

The assets of the company are placed at $10,000 and the liabilities at about $12,000. The place on Somerset street has been closed, except for the temporary storage of private automobiles. Mr. Coddington will today apply to W. V. Steele, of Somerville, for the appointment of a receiver for the company. The majority of the creditors of the concern are out of town supply houses.

It is the intention of the company to re-engage in the sales business on Park avenue, having leased the store formerly used by the Service Motor Car Company.

ONLY ROUTINE BUSINESS.

The Anti-Tuberculosis League. of Plainfield and North Plainfield transacted only routine business at its regular meeting last night, in preparation for the winter's work.

PATROLMAN RETURNS.

Patrolman James Saunders, of the local police force, returns tonight after a two weeks' vacation spent at nearby points of interest.

STRUGGLE ON AISNE HAS BECOME SIEGE, WITH GERMANS DEFENDING 100 MILE FRONT AGAINST ALLIES

Temporary Fortifications Constructed by the Kaiser's Troops--Allies Making Slow But Sure Progress--Three British Cruisers Sunk by Submarine--Turkey Partially Demobilizes Army--Pope Protests Against Destruction of Rheims Cathedral--Austrian Fleet Fails to Escape From Cattaro.

BORO HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT 215

Large Increase in Number of Pupils Reported by the Principal.

Since the opening of the North Plainfield Public Schools last Monday, the enrollment has steadily increased and is now 1,197, and a large increase is expected before the end of this week. During the past week the High Schoo has enrolled fifteen new members and the total numbers are expected to reach about 215 before long. In the primary and grammar grades there is a total of 708, while the Watchung School, filled to its utmost capacity, has an enrollment of 293.

The kindergarten, which is now in the store on Lincoln place, lately vacated by W. W. Dunn, has been remodelled into a fine spacious room which gives more room than the old place in the Somerset School. That class has an attendance of about 63 and is in charge of Miss Edna French and an assistant, Miss Ruth Stauffer. Because of the large enrollment in the primary grades, it has been necessary to make two shifts a day in order to accommodate them all. One half of the scholars report at 8:30 and are dismissed at 10:30, when another group report and remain until 12:30. At that time those who had been dismissed two hours earlier again report for two hours of work and the second half report the second time at 2:30 and remain till 4:30.

The High School drawing classes, which are in charge of Miss Sydenham, started work yesterday, as did Miss Spencer's classes in domestic science.

COUNTY REGISTER SMITH EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

County Register Smith has sent a personal letter to the nearly 3,000 signers on his petition, expressing his appreciation for their endorsement and soliciting their further support at the polls to make their endorsements effective. He is a candidate on the Republican ticket to succeed himself. The letter says:

"It has been a pleasure, as well as a duty, during the years that I have filled the office, to conduct it on business lines and for the sole purpose of so discharging every duty imposed on me as to make the service efficient and satisfactory to the public."

Mr. Smith's office is one that has to do more with the private affairs and interest of the residents of the county than any other, because of the nature of its functions. It is in his office that the mortgages on homes and furnishings, stock and fixtures, real estate and other chattels are recorded. Deeds and all other papers relating to the transfer or sale of property are entrusted to him for proper handling.

CHURCH BUSINESS MEETING.

The members of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gillberg, of 752 East Second street, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, to talk over business matters of the church. Rev. Karl A. Martin, who is now in charge of the church temporarily, is residing at 29 Washington avenue.

Purchased 1915 Hudson "Six"

Mr. J. K. Larkin, of East Seventh street, has just received a new six-cylinder Hudson car purchased from Thompson Auto Co.

THREE BRITISH CRUISERS SUNK

London, Sept. 22, (Central News Cable)—The press bureau this morning made an official announcement that the three armored cruisers Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy have been sunk by German submarines in the North Sea.

The warships carried crews of about 750 men each and were all of about the same displacement. They had an average speed of 21 knots per hour. They cost more than $3,500,000 each.

The Aboukir was completed in 1902 and the Cressy in 1901.

The Cressy was commanded by Captain Robert W. Johnson; the Aboukir by Captain J. Drummond, and the Hogue by Captain Wilmont S. Nicholson. Some of the crews were rescued by a trawler. One of the sunken cruisers was first attacked and the other two were sunk in going to her aid. The Hogue was built in 1902.

London, Sept. 22, (Central News Cable)—A despatch received from Paris today by the Times on the big battle said:

"The battle of the Aisne continues, having lasted a week, with the allies making slow progress against extraordinary difficulties. It is no longer, properly speaking, a battle but a siege, the Germans having constructed along their hundred mile front a series of small fortresses from the Oise to the Meuse, made of old forts and disused quarries.

"Bombproof shelters, formed of bags and cement and subterranean passages connect the casements on the heights of Pommiers with the open country, by means of which the enemy secures victuals and is supplied with ammunition. These elaborate works were prepared by the Germans before the march on Paris, thus indicating that they had some doubts of success.

"The plains of Champagne are admirably suited for the French offensive. They bristle with trenches and redoubts, but if these hamper French action they also stop German attacks. The battle of the Aisne thus becomes a kind of Sebastopol. Operations of this sort always result in the defeat of the besieged unless reinforcements arrive."

Advices from Berlin say it is asserted in an official German communication that the strong hill positions at Craonne have been captured by the Kaisers troops, and that advancing on Rheims they have occupied the village of Bethany. The German communication says that their troops are attacking the strong forts on the line south of Verdun and that the Germans have crossed the east border in the direction of Loraine, which is defended by eight French army corps, according to the announcement.

The communication says that the French troops camping to the north of Toul, near Nancy, have been surprised by German artillery. It says that in the Belgian and eastern battlefields the situation is unchanged.

Advices from Paris say that at Craonne, after a brief lull, the fighting has become fierce again and that the losses of the Germans were increased. The Belgian recruits of 1914 are reported to have been called to the colors.

Rome, Sept. 22, (Central News Cable)—A despatch from the Constantinople correspondent of the Corriere D'Italia states that Turkey has decided to partially demobilize its army. Meanwhile the troops concentrated on the frontiers of Europe and Asia are being withdrawn.

Paris, Sept. 22 (Central News Cable).—The following official announcement was made by the War Office today: "Along the entire front from the Oise to the Woevre the enemy manifested yesterday (September 21,) considerable activity without, however, obtaining noticeable results.

"On the north bank of the River Oise, the Germans were obliged to retire before the French attacks. Between the Ooise and the Aisne the situation remains unchanged. The Germans have not delivered any serious attack, contenting themselves yesterday (Monday evening) with a continued cannonading. On the centre, between Rheims and Souarin, the enemy attempted an offensive manoeuvre which was repulsed."

The statement further said: "On our right wing in Lorraine the enemy has again passed the frontier, using in this operation a number of small columns. During the days of September 20 and 21 we captured 20 automobiles used in moving provitions, together with all the men attached to them. We also captured on these days numerous prisoners belonging principally to the 40th, 60th, 70th, 80th, 90th, 140th, 150th and 160th regiments of German corps, to the Bavarian Landwehr and to the reserve corps.

The announcement says further, between Souvain and the Argonne we have made some progress. Between the Argonne and the River Meuse there has been no change. In the Woevre district the enemy made a violent effort. We attacked the heights of the Meuse along the front between Treauvaux, Vigneuilles and Hendicourt, without, however, succeeding in gaining position on these heights.

Rome, Sept. 22.—When informed of the destruction of the Cathedral at Rheims, Pope Benedict XV yesterday said: "I cannot believe it possible in such a civilized epoch as the twentieth century to be plunged back to the time of Attilla." He sent an urgent letter of protest to the Kaiser during the day.

Rome, Sept. 22 (Central News Cable).—Operations against the Aus-

(Continued on page 5.)

MILLINERY

(Salon, second floor).

We hold no expensive openings, or make lavish displays—but we are ready for business for new seasons on September 1st and February 1st—but we give extra good values instead. Which do you prefer?

Now Ready

Copies of foreign models, also original designs from our own workrooms. Equal styles and workmanship elsewhere are priced at least one-half as much more.

Many small, close fitting styles are predominating; however, many medium sizes are displayed and larger hats, including French sailors and picture styles are gaining in favor every day.

Plain and novelty ostrich, also wings of many styles, divide trimming favor with conventionalized flowers and metallic braids.

On the whole styles are attractive to the last degree—and there certainly is a becoming one for every woman.

Women's Tailored Suits

Smartly Designed--Extraordinary Value at . . . $15

Black, navy, green and brown colors; novelty cut and straight line models; self of velvet collars; straight and yoke top skirts. Coats are satin lined to waist; all sizes; would be a good $21.50 value, at only .....$15.00 each

Window Shades

Made-to-Order

Also big stocks of ready-made shades in all colors. Best workmanship and best materials in made to order shades. Estimates furnished without cost; all work guaranteed.

Shoe Dept.

Cor. W. Front and Madison Ave.

New Fall Styles Now In

We are sole agents for the famous "Sorosis" Shoes in Plainfield. The best kind of school shoes for boys and girls at popular prices.

NOTE—How many seeds in Pumpkin—See window display for full particulars.

Our Men's Furnishing Department

The best place to buy your Shirts, Underwear, Ties, Pajamas, etc. No fancy prices for latest style furnishings, but extremely good values for every item. Now ready:

New Fall Shirts...50c and $1.00
Root's Underwear..$1 and $1.50
New Neckwear.....25c and 50c
Fine Underwear at.....50c
Men's Night Shirts.....50c
Men's Pajamas....$1 and $1.50

BAGS AND SUIT CASES.

A complete stock in all sizes at popular prices.

CONTINUING ALL THIS WEEK IN THE BASEMENT.

Sale of Granite and Galvanized Ware

AT 10c AND 15c
Regular values 15c to 29c.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

IN THE BASEMENT.

Everything for caning and preserving. We have Mason Quart Jars.

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Miss D. Belle Stites, daughter of Tax Collector and Mrs. Isaac J. Stites, has returned from a two weeks' visit at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Charles Spidmore, of Perth Amboy.

Miss Mamie Swackhamer, of Camden, is spending two days in the borough as the guest of her niece, Mrs. J. Newton Apgar.

Leslie Latham, son of Mayor and Mrs. E. B. Latham, has returned from a month's vacation spent in the State of Maine.

COUNCIL TO MEET.

The Mayor and Common Council will meet in the upper room of the borough hall this evening.

Real Estate Agent John Fedderman is a business visitor in the city today.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A LITTLE HISTORY

Some months ago an idea was conceived, which, if put into operation, would mean that men and young men in all walks of life could be dressed as well as the next fellows, and at the same time without spending an enormous price.

The idea took on a practical form and the result was the Rothberg store which opened to the public March 30th, 1912.

Since then hundreds of people have taken advantage of the great VALUES we have offered.

And so from this beginning has been developed an INSTITUTION which has for its object not the making of money ONLY, but giving better values for less money than was ever before attempted in our city.

Our new Fall Suits, Fixings and Top Coats are now ready for your inspection; we are pleased to show you at all times, whether you purchase or not.

Rothberg's will be open at 6 this evening.

ROTHBERG'S
Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes
"Most Things Men Wear."
214 W. FRONT ST.
Right East to Proctor's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Eckerson, of Lincoln avenue, are entertaining Mr. Eckerson's mother, Mrs. Ellen Eckerson, of Gloversville, N. Y.

Mrs. M. J. McManaro and children, of Newburg, who have been spending three weeks in the borough as guests of Mrs. McManaro's parents, Constable and Mrs. Edward Ayers, of Second street, returned home today.

Miss Edith Jeffries, of Plainfield, is spending a week at the home of Mrs. W. J. Smith, on Dunellen avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fern, of Whittier avenue, entertained relatives from out of town on Sunday.

Louis L. Block and Louis L. Block, Jr., returned last evening from a visit since Saturday in Brooklyn, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner.

Mrs. Grace Gangloff, of Greenbrook road, entertained Miss Elsie Goodwin and Arthur Gankloff, of New York, over the week-end.

William VanNuis, Harry Piddington and Judge René P. F. vonMinden will attend the firemen's convention at Jersey City on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, as delegates from the New Market fire department.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Haight, of New Market road, entertained relatives from Westfield on Sunday.

E. G. Lewis and son, Walter, visited Mr. Lewis' sister, Mrs. T. H. Barry, at Hampton, on Sunday afternoon.

Grocer and Mrs. H. S. Titsworth, of New Market road, entertained Mrs. William VanBuskirk and daughters, of Jersey City, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Giddes, of Lincoln avenue, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. John Garretson, from out of town.

PURE FOOD SHOW.

There will be a manufacturers' demonstration of pure foods given in the Presbyterian chapel under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, on Friday evening, September 27. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Morse, of New Market road, spent Sunday in Bayonne as guests of Mrs. Morse's sister, Mrs. William T. Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. George Terrell, of Front street, returned this morning from a week's visit at Portland, Me.

Mayor and Mrs. E. B. Latham, Mr. and Mrs. J.Z. Kelly, of Second street; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter and Mrs. Mary Carpenter, of Prospect avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cutter and Mr. and Mrs. Collie Deacon, from out of town, with their families, enjoyed an outing at Lake Ruth, Spotswood, on Sunday.

Tax Collector Isaac J. Stites and daughter, Miss Lilla R., spent Saturday afternoon at Brooklyn. Among the places that they visited was the Methodist Hospital, which they went through.

AUTUMNAL SUNDAY.

The first Sunday in October will be devoted to Autumnal Sunday by the Methodist Episcopal church. The services of the entire day will be special. The choir is at present arranging a special musical program for the day. Mrs. J. F. G. Kinney has been appointed the chairman of a committee to take care of the decorations; Mrs. F. H. Gise the chairman of a committee to procure fruit and vegetables, and J. M. Barto, chairman of an invitation committee. Other special features will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson, of Dunellen avenue, are the parents of a boy.

Borough Engineer Churchill and force gave line and grade this morning for a curbing to be laid by Contractor Firman H. Gise in front of Dr. T. H. Platt's new residence on Dunellen avenue.

There was no meeting of the Board of Trade last evening owing to the inability of assembling a quorum of its members.

COLUMBUS TROOP SCOUT.

A meeting of the Columbus Troop of Boy Scouts was held in the rectory of St. John's Catholic church on Thursday evening. Scoutmaster James Ryan was ill and Assistant Scoutmaster Egbert J. Gessner was in charge of the meeting. Routine business was transacted. Another meeting of the troop will be held in the rectory of the church on Sunday afternoon, Scoutmaster James Ryan has recovered from his illness and will be able to be present. The troop had been fully recruited by this meeting and everyone of the twenty-four scouts were present. They were given a thorough drill in military tactics by Rev. E. J. Dunphy, assisted by Scoutmaster Ryan. After the drill some routine business was disposed of.

MRS. PITTMAN INJURED.

Mrs. Rachel Pittman, who has been spending a week in the borough as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Morse, of New Market road, had a bad fall on Sunday morning while she was in her room preparing to return to her home in Bayonne. Mrs. Pittman is subject to dizzy spells. The fall came as a result of one of these spells. In falling she went over backwards, striking her head against a door. Her condition was such for a time that Mr. and Mrs. Morse, who had planned to accompany her home and spend the day there, decided to change their plans and remain home. Mrs. Pittman, however, rapidly recovered from the effects of her fall and insisted upon making the trip. It was with considerable apprehension that Mr. and Mrs. Morse finally yielded to Mrs. Pittman's entreaties. Mrs. Pittman accompanied by them arrived at Bayonne all right. When they left at night, Mrs. Pittman, other than complaining of a slight curious feeling in her head, appeared to be none the worse for her experience.

HAS FRACTURED RIB.

President Sigurd Nicolaysen, of the Standard Investment Company, is traveling around with a broken rib. The rib was broken last week, but Mr. Nicolaysen, although experiencing a number of sharp pains in his side in the meantime never suspicioned the cause until he consulted a physician a couple of days ago. Mr. Nicolaysen is very fond of athletics. One day last week he decided to put some of his dormant muscles into play, so he challenged Joseph Fisher, son of Mrs. Albert J. Meyer, the proprietoress of the Mansion House, where he boards, to a wrestling match. Joseph accepted. Now Mr. Nicolaysen weights in the neighborhood of a hundred and ninety pounds while Joseph tips the beams at 240, which fact shows how anxious Mr. Nicolaysen must have been for exercise. A mat was placed on the front porch of the Mansion House. The two stepped to the mat and the match was on. Joseph rushed at Nicolaysen and succeeded in securing his famous "bear hug." He quickly forced Nicolaysen to the rug and it was while he was endeavoring to pin both of his shoulders down that it is believed the rib was broken, as Nicolaysen, who was struggling violently, says he now remembers a sharp pain in his side at the time.

—DON'T MAKE DON'T YOUR CREED if you have something to sell, some quest to pursue—do these tasks aggressively, through want-advertising!

'Plains & Fanwood.

The polling places for primary day are the same as heretofore, the Fanwood fire-house in the borough, and Excelsior Hall, in the township. The polls opened at 7 o'clock this morning and will remain open for twelve hours. The nominations in the borough are practically decided as there is no opposition. Albert I. Nichols is seeking a re-nomination to the Borough Council and W. G. Britton is seeking the nomination for the vacancy in the Council left by the expiration of the term of Frank Erner. Dr. Wescott is seeking a re-nomination to the Republican County Committee. Things in the township promise to be more lively, as besides several Democrats seeking the nomination for various offices, several Republicans are after the same office. Samuel Hetfield is seeking a re-nomination to the Township Committee on the Republican ticket and is opposed by Hezekiah Hand, a Democrat. Edward L. Hand is out for the re-nomination as township clerk on the Republican ticket, and is opposed by William Guest, also a Republican. George H. Johnston, a Republican, is a candidate for the County Committee, and Charles H. French, a Democrat, is also after the position. At last some one has come forward to run for the office of justice of the peace in the township in the shape of William E. Spain, a resident of the "Big Woods." The record in both the township and borough is expected to be broken today in the number of votes cast.

An illustrated lecture on "Emmigration" will be held in the Baptist church on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's Club of the church. A prominent speaker is to be present and will lecture with the aid of stereopticon views taken at Ellis Island and other of the nation's gateways.

Mrs. William Lidgate, of the borough, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Baxster, of New Cannaan, Conn.

Miss Dorothy Beeken, of North avenue, leaves the latter part of the week to resume her studies at Vassar College.

Considerably more interest is being shown in the school election to be held in School No. 1 tomorrow evening, than was the case in the one held on the first of the month and the number of votes cast will likely be far greater than those of the previous election and more widely distributed over the township. The polls open at 8 o'clock.

The delegates that are supposed to represent the Fanwood Fire Company at the annual convention to be held in Atlantic City beginning tomorrow are: H. P. Robinson, F. J. Palmer and W. M. Maxim.

Mrs. William Hoar, of Martine avenue, is visiting at Blue Point, L. I., for a few days.

Miss Edith Lidgate, of North avenue, has been entertaining Miss Ella Hall, of Bayonne, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hand, of Park avenue, are entertaining Miss Elizabeth Hunt, of California.

Lambert's Pond, situated in the Willow Grove section of the township, has been the scene of several drowning accidents this summer, and in fact for a number of summers, and because of this it has been thought that there was some reason for the casualties. A prominent Westfield swimmer has, in trying to find the reason, says he found that there is a spring directly in the centre of the pond and over this there is a whirlpool that draws a swimmer under. It will be remembered that all those who have been drowned went under in the middle of the pond and failed to come to the surface three times, as is said to be the case with a drowning person, but has stayed on the bottom until the pond has been dragged for the body.

A dinner and entertainment will be given in the Methodist church Thursday evening, by some members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church to others, the result of the recent membership campaign with the dinner as the prize to the winning side to be prepared by the losers. Plans for the coming bazaar to be held by the society in the near future will be discussed.

Somerville

Mrs. Lyman Demaray returned yesterday from Lake Hopatcong, where she spent a month.

The Misses Florence and Helen Swan, of Harlingen, are visiting in Plainfield.

Mrs. Oliver G. Allen returned recently from Asbury Park, where she spent two months.

Mrs. Cecil Hoffman and daughter, of Westfield, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. William McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Apgar have returned from Ocean Grove, where they spent the summer.

Miss Mary Griggs returned yesterday from Lake Hopatcong, where she spent two weeks.

Mrs. Ida Beard, of Elmira, N. Y., is a guest of Mrs. Ella Westcott, of South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Labaw are guests of their son, Ernest Labaw, of Millstone.

Miss Katherine Deetz, of West Main street, has entered the Mercer Hospital in Trenton to take a professional course.

The Raritan Ministerial Association met in the chapel of the First Reformed church, yesterday morning. Rev. William Jean Wahl read a paper on "The Possibilities and Sublimity of Dogmatics."

John Roy returned Saturday from Sheepshead Bay, where he spent his vacation.

Warrenville.

Andrew Colosso gave a dance at the Mountain House Hall, Saturday evening, and a large number attended. Bert Naylor, of Plainfield, furnished the music.

Mrs. Alice Corey and Mrs. Ro. Mundy, of Bound Brook, are visiting friends at Hill Side Farm.

Mrs. Oliver Ulmer, who has been visiting Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, has returned to her home in Plainfield.

Miss Kathryn Williams, of Plainfield, is visiting Miss Gertrude Gunton, of Mt. Horeb.

Miss Ruth Miller spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, of Sunnyside Farm.

Miss Myrtle Cooper has returned to her home after spending a few days with Mrs. Alice Pennale, of New York.

Sidney Woods, of Newark, visited friends in Mt. Bethel last week.

Michael King, of Liberty Corner, has the contract for the remodelling of Philip Mundy's house in Springdale.

Mrs. John Bowers visited relatives in El Mora, Sunday.

Charles Jennings has purchased a new motorcycle.

Jerome Allgor, of Califon is visiting friends here.

Miss Anita Posberg, of Mt. Horeb, is entertaining friends from New York.

Ellsworth Bowers has been confined to his home by a serious sting from an insect.

The Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting in Fairview Hall, Mt. Bethel, Saturday evening.

Herb Ortman, of Meyersville, visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Lulu Herlich, of New York, is visiting Mrs. Peter Williams, of Mountain Boulevard.

New Providence.

Mrs. Mattie Canmeyer, of New York, spent the week-end at her country residence on Long Hill, Passaic township.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gieselman, of Montclair, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Adams, of South street.

Joseph Kuntz, of Berkeley Heights, took on a strawride to Summit, Saturday night a party of thirty, made up of employes and patients of the Bonnie Burn Sanitarium in New Providence townsnip.

Mrs. Louise M. Schultz Sievers, of South street, and Mrs. Heda Brigham and family, of Mountain avenue, Murray Hill, returned Saturday, after spending the summer at Thousand Islands.

Mrs. Daniel G. Webster, of Passaic street, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Bessie M. Riker, of Cranford.

Mrs. Mary G. Nason, of Union avenue, West End, is visiting Mrs. Olive M. Quackenbush, of Hackettstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Swidorski and daughter, Miss Ethel Swidorski, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Offenberger and daughter, Miss Emma Offenberger all of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuntz, of Snyder avenue, Berkeley Heights.

The first soccer football game ever played in this town took place Saturday afternoon on the Passaic Oval, when the Crescent eleven, of Brooklyn, met the Bensonhurst team. On the Crescents are three local men, George and James Jeffers and Walla Watson. At the close the score stood a tie, each team having a goal.

Watchung.

The regular weekly fellowship meeting will be held this evening in the Wilson Memorial Union church. Harold W. Schenck will be in charge.

Rev. Conrad Blunk, formerly of St. Peter's Lutheran church, Plainfield, but now of Williamsport, Pa., visited his many Watchung friends yesterday. Mr. Blunk is kept very busy in his new home as he has two churches to supply.

Miss Agnes Belfour Davis, of Mountain boulevard, left this morning for Quebec, Canada, from where she expects to sail Wednesday morning, with the Red Cross nurses for England.

William Wyckoff, a resident of Watchung, is seriously ill with blood poisoning.

Arthur J. Hershmann has returned safely from Europe, where he has been singing in opera at Berlin. When the war broke out Mr. Hershmann went to Rotterdam and from there came to America.

Miss Dorothy H. Underhill, of the Muhlenberg Hospital staff, is spending her vacation at her home on Sterling boulevard.

Miss Margaret H. Schick, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George A. Schmidt, of Sterling boulevard, has returned to her home in Staten Island.

Miss Isabel Hurd, of Jersey City, and Mrs. Lizzie Evans, of Brooklyn, have closed their bungalows on Washington Rock road for the winter months.

Mrs. George W. Schmidt, of Woodledge road, has been visiting friends in Metuchen.

German Valley. and Chester

Mrs. Amanda Swartz, of German Valley, is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Baldwin, of Caldwell.

Mrs. Eugene Woodruff, of North Branch, is the guest of her son, William Savage, of Chester.

Chalmice Fleming, of Matawan, is visiting his father, Daniel Fleming, of German Valley.

Miss Iva Nunn, of German Valley is on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Burrell, of New Germantown.

Mrs. James Nunn, of German Valley, is suffering from an injured hip which she sustained in a fall recently.

The Chester Vigilant and Protective Society has chosen the following officers and trustees: President, William E. Collis; vice president, Albert Bunn; secretary, Harry W. Cyphers; treasurer, Joseph D. Budd; trustees, William E. Collis, Albert Bunn, John W. Van Arsdale, Lewis P. Salter, James G. Case, Joseph D. Budd, Charles M. Quimby, James Anthony and Charles A. Baker.

Flemington.

Ryman Herr left yesterday for East Lansing, Mich., where he will enter upon his last year of study at the Michigan Agricultural College.

Bernard G. Volk returned to Bound Brook, yesterday, after a visit to his mother, Mrs. Catherine Volk.

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Fulper, of Hampton, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Atwater for a few days.

Belmont Worman, of Trenton, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Roche.

A COLD BLOODED THIEF.

The family of Frederick L. Blendenger, of 520 Central avenue, reported to the police that eight quarts of ice cream were stolen last night from the back porch of their home.

Fall Styles Are In

Your Shoes are a most important part of your attire. They must be attractive in appearance, comfortable, correct in style, and made of high grade leather to insure long service and hold their shape; and sell at a moderate price. We have some dandys at—

$3.00 and $3.50

Come in and try them on. We know they will please you.

Boys' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather.

STUART'S SHOE SHOP
215 WEST FRONT ST.

Girls' School Shoes $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. Guaranteed Solid Leather

War Map Coupon

Latest European War Map

Given by THE DAILY PRESS

to every reader presenting this COUPON and 10 cents to cover promotion expenses.

BY MAIL—In city or outside, for 12c. Stamps, cash or money order.

This is the BIGGEST VALUE EVER OFFERED. Latest 1914 European Official Map (8 colors)—Portraits of 16 European rulers; all statistics and war data—Army, Navy and Aerial Strength, Population, Area, Capitals, Distances between Cities, Histories of Nations Involved, Previous Decisive Battles, History Hague Peace Conference, National Debts, Gold Values. EXTRA 2-color CHARTS of Five Involved European Capitals and Strategic Naval Locations. Folded, with handsome cover to fit the pocket.

W. & J. SLOANE

LINOLEUM

Made in America

Our domestic Linoleums are equal to the best foreign goods in all respects.

Inlaid qualities for use in Kitchens, Halls and Bathrooms.

Battleship and other heavy qualities in plain colors for use in Public Buildings, Hospitals and Offices.

Cork Carpet, Bath Mats, Cocoa Matting.

All of the above are offered at very moderate prices.

FIFTH AVENUE & FORTY-SEVENTH ST., NEW YORK

Scene from Henry W. Savage's Production of the International Operetta Triumph "SARI" At Plainfield Theat e Next Thursday.

A scene in A. H. Woods' absorbing drama, "The Yellow Ticket," at the Plainfield Theatre Friday Evening.

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Julius Wilhelm and Fritz Grunbaum, who wrote the original German version of the plot of "Sari," Henry W. Savage's big operetta success which comes to the Plainfield Theatre on Thursday night, made truth into fiction. The chief character in the story of "Sari" is Pali Racz, the gypsy leader and violinist, who like all gypsy musicians scorns all notes and systems and plays from the heart as his emotions surge up in his mind. His son, Laczi, belongs to the new school and plays the violin by note and as a musician is scorned by his father. In the story of the operetta the elder Racz is overtaken by fate in Paris, whither he goes on invitation of Count Irini to play at a fete given in honor of the King of Massilia. Laczi, whom his contempt has driven from home, is at the Count's as leader of the hired orchestra. Both he and his father play the violin. Laczi is hailed as a great artist and the father as nothing but an old-fashioned gypsy fiddler who plays out of tune.

On Friday night, September 25, "The Yellow Ticket," a play by Michael Morton, dealing with life in modern Russia, which is the latest production of A. H. Woods (producer of "Within the Law"), will be seen at the Plainfield Theatre. The new play, which is in three acts, is said to be the most intense and powerful drama on the subject of the present day status of the Jew in Russia, which has ever been written—it is indeed doubtful whether the subject has ever before been touched upon for dramatic purposes. Michael Morton, the author, has contributed many plays to the stage, perhaps the best known in America being "Resurrection," the dramatization of the Tolstoi novel which he wrote in collaboration with Henri Bataille, and in which Blanche Walsh starred successfully for a number of seasons. The principal characters in "The Yellow Ticket" are taken from official and diplomatic life in St. Petersburg, where the action takes place. The leading male role, that of a young American newspaper man in Russia, will be played by Warner Oland; Miss Maud Gilbert will appear in the principal feminine role, that of a young Russian Jewess, while the other chief characters will be portrayed by such eminent players as: Edward Foley, William Macauley, Louis Hartman, Edwin Maxwell and Mary Ward Holton.

PERSONAL.

Arthur Utzinger, of Mountain avenue, the borough, has returned from Asbury Park, where he has been spending his vacation.

A. M. Vanderbeek, of Verdon street, returned yesterday from Manasquan, where he has been sojourning for some time.

Mrs. Amanda Wolfe, of East Third street, who has been stopping at Lebanon for the past week, has returned to her home.

J. W. Jackson, of Crescent avenue, has returned home after stopping for some time at Alexander Bay, N. Y.

Mrs. Sherman Joost, of Belvidere avenue, has returned from Quogue, L. I., where she has been stopping for the summer.

Addison Newkirk, of Willow avenue, returned home this morning after spending the summer at Point 'o Woods.

George T. Patten, who has been spending some time at Asbury Park, has returned to his home on East Second street.

Mrs. E. P. Smith, of Allen place, the borough, has returned from New York city, where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. James Strapp, of John Street, is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Anna Marr, Mrs. Frank C. Krewson and son, Clarence, of Watchung avenue, have returned after spending some time at Brooklyn.

Charles P. Pope, of Summit avenue, the borough, has returned after spending his vacation at Ocean Grove.

N. H. Morrison, of Rockview avenue, is spending some time at Middleburgh, Va.

A. E. Smith, of Myrtle avenue, is visiting at Andover, Mass.

H. C. Nash has returned after spending some time at Sag Harbor, Long Island.

William S. Zimmerman and family, of Jackson avenue, this city, have returned from Martinsville, where they have been spending some time visiting friends.

Dr. Marc L. Clawson, of Park avenue, has returned after spending some time at Bethlehem, N. H., where he was registered at Hillside Inn.

Mrs. Chaplin Fisk, of West Seventh street, is stopping for some time at Woodstock, Vermont.

O. B. Hill, of Martine avenue, is spending the week at Deal Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schmidt, of Somerset street, have returned from their honeymoon, which was spent at Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Swedish Lutheran church, will meet with Mrs. Mattson, 222 East Front street, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

POLITICAL NOTES.

September 22—Primary election day and registration day for general election.

September 29—State convention of each party at Trenton and date on which county committees meet and organize.

October 20—Last registry day for municipalities over 5,000.

November 3—Election Day.

Blank spaces have been provided upon the primary ballots, in which the names of candidates may be written today. All those candidates who filed petitions at a certain time have their names printed upon the proper ticket, of course, but many citizens may want to vote for aspirants other than those who appear upon the ballots. There are a few nominations for which no one's name appears upon the ballots, including Socoalist Congressman, Democratic coroner and Progressive coroner. Candidates for these positions will be nominated by having their names written in, and crosses put in the squares before their names.

Socialists have been urged to write in the name of George Seeholzer for the Congressional nomination today. No one's name was printed upon the Socialist ballots for Congressman, and the use of the pencil will be doubly necessary to have this corrected on the November ballots.

That the Republican county ticket will be splendidly constituted from a geographical standpoint is considered certain. With Frank H. Smith, of this city, assured the nomination of registrar again; with Carlton B. Pierce, of Cranford, likewise assured of renomination for State Senator, and with Arthur N. Pierson, of Westfield; William N. Runyon, of this city, and one Elizabeth man considered sure bets for the Assembly, the result of the rest of the contests could scarcely affect the geographical balance of the ticket.

The New Jersey election laws are very explicit in defining what voters are privileged to do and what poll workers and others actively interested in behalf of their parties and candidates may and may not do.

The constitution provides that no citizen shall have the right to vote unless he has been a resident of this State for one year and of the county for five months next before election, and Section 69 of the election law provides that every such legal voter shall be entitled to vote in the election district in which he actually resides, and not elsewhere.

The election law makes it a misdemeanor to make use of or threaten to make use of any force, violence or restraint, or to inflict any injury, damage, harm or loss, or in any manner to practice intimidation, upon or against any person, in order to induce or compel such persons to vote or refrain from voting at any election, or to vote or refrain from voting for any particular person; or to forcibly by any fraudulent device or contrivance whatever, to impede, prevent or otherwise interfere with the free exercise of the elective franchise by any voter.

The corrupt practices act makes it a misdemeanor to pay, lend or contribute, or offer or promise to pay, lend or contribute money or any valuable consideration to induce a person to vote or refrain from voting; to give offer or promise any office or place of employment in order to induce a person to vote or refrain from voting; to pay the board of any voter or to furnish money for bribery; to colonize voters; to vote illegally or make a false count.

The law also prohibits the selling or giving away of any spirituous, malt or vinous liquors on election day.

Primary day is not a legal holiday, which explains why the polls will not close this evening until 9 o'clock. Commuters, as well as those who work in this city, will have an opportunity to get home and eat before casting their primary ballots. Of course, the earlier one votes, the better. The polls was opened at 7 a. m., and remain open all day. The late closing will affect the securing of the returns, in that those who retire at a fairly seasonable hour are not likely to have any idea as to the drift of things until they arise the next morning.

Representative William E. Tuttle, Jr., is expected to be home today in order to vote at the primaries. He will return to Washington on Wednesday, his friends say. This idea of "duty first" includes all the merits of "safety first," and then some, Mr. Tuttle's friends declare.

Between the primaries and September 29, the State expects a breathing spell from politics. The State conventions for the formulation of the platforms will be held September 29, and after that it will be a case of fireworks and oratory at city corners and country crossroads for the ensuing month. The Senate and Assembly candidates to be chosen today, as well as the hold-over members of the Legislature, and the State committees, will comprise the personnel of the conventions in their respective parties. Governor Fielder will be a member of the Democratic convention.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

J. J. VARLEY

The Paris, 142 and 144 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Autumn Millinery Opening

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of This Week

YOU ARE INVITED to attend our formal Millinery Opening on the above days, when we will have on display an assemblage of artistic Millinery that no doubt will evoke enthusiastic praise from women who love the beautiful and artistic in fine headwear.

There's a hat for everybody, moderately priced, that can't be duplicated outside of Varley's.

FURNITURE

Medium Priced Furniture

that we can offer in competition with the exclusive high grade lines. We have selected a variety of new pieces including a number of the most popular period designs that we can offer you at surprisingly low prices. The style, workmanship and construction as well as the quality of material is far above the ordinary. The new goods are being placed on our floors as rapidly as possible and you will find the new things especially attractive.

Furniture Novelties

TELEPHONE STANDS ..... $5.75 up
TEA WAGONS ..... $7.50 up
BOOK RACKS ..... $5.50 up
COLONIAL CLOCKS ..... $29.50 up
SMOKERS STANDS ..... $2.90 up
MAHOGANY CANDLE STANDS— $2.50 pair up
SCRAP BASKETS ..... $1.10 up

FURNITURE FOR EVERY PLACE IN THE HOME.

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

FALL MILLINERY EXHIBIT

Today, Tomorrow and Thursday

DALY'S

172 East Front Street

AMERIGANS ARE PAYING BIG INCREASE IN DRUG PRICES

New York, Sept. 22.—The people of the United States are already paying a heavy war tax in the higher prices for drugs and medicines. Since the beginning of the European conflict the prices of some of the popular remedies have advanced as much as 300 per cent.

South Belgium, Germany and France grow many plants possessing medicinal virtues, and Germany, with her established research laboratories, has led in obtaining the derivatives and utilizing by-products.

Derivatives from belladonna leaves are cited as among the drugs that have been soaring in price. One article, formerly selling at $45 an ounce, now commands $180, and another has advanced from $20 to $120. Crude opium has gone up 33 per cent. and 100 per cent has been added to the cost of gum camphor from Formosa.

Glycerine, produced in the manufacture of soap and used in explosives, is 40 per cent. higher as a result of the war. Ichthyol, a dried fish product, is off the market entirely. Salvarsan, an arsenical preparation selling at $3.50 before the war, is now quoted at $10.

A patented preparation selling in Canada at 25 cents, under a label "not for exportation to the United States," commands $1 here, and a mineral oil, from Russia, is up 300 per cent.

All bristle goods are higher. England, France and Germany produce 50 per cent. of all the brushes, and of the remainder, 50 per cent. comes from Japan. Caustic potash, for soap making, is quoted at 23 cents a pound, against 3 7-8 wholesale while Europe was at peace. France has led in developing perfumes and toilet articles, as Germany has in chemicals; and the dainty extracts, such as still are available, are bringing fabulous prices.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the German Reformed church, will hold the monthly meeting at the church tomorrow afternoon.

—"A want ad task" is half done when your want advertising is well begun!

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor.

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300. Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

SEPT. 22ND IN HISTORY.

1604—Ostend, the leading seaport of Flanders, surrendered to the Spanish.

1761—George III. and Queen Charlotte of England crowned.

1770—Convention met in Faneuil Hall, Boston, to protest against standing armies.

1838—Lord Durham resigned the Governor-Generalship of Canada.

1843—Prince Albert, consort of Queen Victoria, gazetted Captain-General and Colonel of the Honorable Artillery Company.

1851—Louis Kossuth and other Hungarian revolutionists were sentenced to death.

1864—Federals were successful in the battle of Fisher's Creek, Virginia.

1869—Duke of Edinburgh, son of Queen Victoria, was received by the Mikado of Japan.

1885—Several hundred lives lost in a cyclone in the Bay of Bengal.

1896—Czar and Czarina of Russia arrived at Leith on a visit to Queen Victoria.

1905—Great meetings in Calcutta to protest against the partition of Bengal.

Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 22, 1914.

A CHRISTMAS SHIP.

One of the noblest ideas that has come out of the war is that which inspires the Washington Star and the Chicago Herald, jointly, to urge upon the citizens of the United States at peace, the sending of a Christmas ship of toys for the little children, orphaned by the frightful war. The severities of war always fall heaviest upon the children bereft of fathers and brothers. It will be a terribly sad and lonely Christmas for the humble peasants of Europe. Thousands of children will never see their fathers again. They lie buried and molding in the trenches of alien soil or upon battlefields that yield nothing they have claimed. Once happy and comfortable homes ring with the mournful wail of wives and children abandoned for the colors. The great toy shops of Europe are idle, the makers of the things that bring happiness to the hearts of children everywhere are being shot down on battlefields. There are no toys, no money or means of any kind to make Christmas merry. Instead there is privation and distress. The wolves are growling at the huts' doors. Childhood is deprived of everything worth while. A Christmas ship of toys is an idea fitting with the spirit and great heart of the people of United States.

Chattanooga, Tenn., is one of the cities of the country governed by a commission. The commissioners publish monthly a concise little pamphlet, the "Municipal Record." It is full of facts and figures about the city, the improvements made, and contains a synopsis of all the activities of the city government presented in a manner that makes it readable to all who receive it. In the September issue is presented a piece of advice that would be good for every city in the country. It is short, and to the point, on the Josh Billings's style, and by substituting Plainfield for Chattanooga, it would be a good thing for our citizens to quote when they hear a knocker talking here: "The fellar who knocks his home town either has a bad liver or his credit is in the same fix. You can't go wrong patronizin' home industries, so why not give Chattanooga made goods your preference."

A correspondent of the Daily Press who is now visiting in California writes the following about his first impression of a fig tree: "You know I always thought it was an easy matter for Eve to dress, when all she had to do was to yank a fig leaf. But since seeing a real fig tree, it seems to me she must have puzzled quite a good deal every morning, as to which one she should wear, there are so many shapes and sizes." The same kind of a problem confronts the Democratic and Republican voters today. There are so many good men seeking nomination and election in the various parties that it is hard to pick and choose.

The Daily Press has been editorially supporting the movement in the borough for the consolidation of that municipality with Plainfield. We hope to see it brought about, but it would be an idle waste of words for us to try to add anything to the scores of splendid arguments which are being presented daily by well known correspondents in the Forum column. We refer our readers, especially those "over the brook" to the letters which appear elsewhere today, and every argument presented has our heartiest approval.

President Wilson came all the way from Washington to Princeton to cast his ballot at the primary election today, in order to fulfill his duty as a citizen. There are a lot of voters in Plainfield who have not visited the polls today, who should profit by the example set by the President.

"Eleven years ago we had the big rain storm," says a newspaper headline. We knew that it did rain once, and are glad to have the time fixed. It begins to look as if it would be another eleven years before it comes again.

We in Plainfield have no right to kick about the tax rate. In Asbury Park it is $2.94 on the $100, which is $1.03 higher than in this city. And yet former Mayor Smalley, of North Plainfield, says we are an extravagantly governed city.

They couldn't say "How natural they look" when they held the funeral services over the victims of that explosion in Union the other day.

Some excitement with a primary election and a consolidation election both in the same week.

THE FORUM

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

Dear Sir—When the letters concerning the management of the High School were published, I did not intend entering the controversy, but Mr. Anderson's reply to Mr. Conlin aroused me to substantiate the latter's statements and show the experience my son Frank had at the hands of Mr. Best.

Mr. Anderson said that Frank, who was president of the class of 1912, failed in a chemistry examination on June 1 and had every opportunity from then on to make up the points necessary for graduation.

But Mr. Anderson failed to say that only one pupil in the entire class passed the examination given on June 1, and she received a bare 71 per cent.—70 per cent. being the passing mark. (The chemistry class had two teachers that year, and while not criticising either teacher, they employed different methods, which worked a hardship on the class.) The next examinations Frank took were also below 70 per cent., but his mid-year examination mark of 93 per cent. together with the regular year's work gave him an average of 74 per cent. for the subject according to the system of marking used in the High School, as set forth in the official handbook.

However, Mr. Best claimed that in order to pass the subject he must obtain 60 per cent. in his final exam., whereas he only received 56½ per cent. There never was such a rule in the High School, nor does it appear in the Hand Book and, moreover, his class, full of resentment because of the unjust treatment he was receiving, signed a petition and sent it to the Board of Education, stating that they had never heard of such a rule. But if that were a rule known only to Mr. Best to use when he wished, why did he allow others to graduate that same night, who had not received 60 per cent. in their final chemistry exam.? Is this not discrimination? This is no "petty grievance." And also recall that Mr. Best said he "lightened the burden because he had been class president" for one boy, so why should he make it harder for Frank, who held the same office?

One might say there is a "proper tribunal" for such complaints. That there should be such a tribunal I heartily believe, but were I to seek redress I should enter the complaint in the civil courts, after my experience in attempting to lay the matter before the Board of Education. My son and I appeared before the Board in July and asked permission to state our case, but as Mr. Best was then away Dr. Maxson (who, by the way, although professing ignorance of the case, was positive that Mr. Best was in the right) postponed the case then and thereafter several times, until October, at which time Frank was away at college. So the matter wore away and on Frank's return from college we decided to let it slip by.

As for lowering the standard of the Yale Cup, it is not many years ago that a boy received it who had never played on a football, baseball, or basketball team representing the school, who never held offices or positions showing leadership and whose scholarship won no prize.

The sooner that such disgraceful conditions in our High School are remedied the better it will be, but isn't it really a shame that publicity should be given such a state of affairs or that the taxpayers should know anything of what goes on in their High School?

Thanking you kindly for your valuable space, I am,

Sincerely yours,
FRANK CULLEN, Sr.

BORO TAX RATE WILL BE $2.36 ON THE $100

The tax bills of North Plainfield borough are now in the hands of the printer, and the figures announced by the Daily Press September 12 will give an itemized list of the amounts to be raised for borough purposes, the total aggregate of which amounts to $42,020, of which $6,000 will be raised through licenses, etc., thus leaving $36,020 to be raised through taxation.

The amounts to be raised for purposes outside the borough are as follows: County tax, $25,189.60; State school tax, $11,957.62; special school tax, $37,310; total for purposes outside of the borough, $74,457.22. The percentage for this year is $2.36 on the $100, made up of the following items: County tax, .56; State school tax, .26; borough fund tax, .72; special school tax, .82; total $2.36. This rate shows an increase of ten points over the rate of last year.

"NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTER."

Capacity audiences enjoyed the portrayal of "Neptune's Daughter," by Annette Kellerman, at the Plainfield Theatre, last night. The theatre was crowded for both the 7 and 9 o'clock performances. The picture comprises seven reels and is one of the best yet presented at the popular playhouse. Miss Kellerman is given ample opportunity to display her fine form and her unusual ability in fancy diving and swimming. The pictures were taken in Bermuda, where the natural beauty of the scenery furnish an ideal setting. The pictures will be shown today and tomorrow.

ADMITTED TO REGISTRY.

New York, Sept. 22—It is reported that the United States Government has granted registry to the German tank steamer Excelsior, owned by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. The vessel cleared from this port on July 23 for Copenhagen and arrived at the Azores on August 29 where she remained owing to the danger of capture. The American Government, according to reports, will take the responsibility of the steamer's safety until she reaches an American port, after which full protection will be given.

HELD NO MEETING.

Owing to the fact that there was no quorum present the Business Men's Credit Association held no meeting last night. The executive committee will arrange for a meeting soon to dispose of some important matters on hand.

—It pays to use the advertising columns of the Press.

FOUR PLAYERS ENTER SEMI-FINAL ROUND

All Matches Were Interesting That Were Played at the Country Club Today.

Four matches were played in the third round of the women's singles tennis championship now in progress for the title of the Plainfield Country Club, this morning. Two of the matches were close and Mrs. Foster Burke had to go three sets before she took the measure of Miss Hope Ivins. She lost the first set, but took the next two after most of the games had gone to deuce. The scores were 3-6, 6-0, 6-2.

Miss Edith Beers was also forced to the limit in her match with Miss Miller, but the former finally won after the first set had gone to 7-5. Miss Barbara Fleming, who is now on the road to annex another title, defeated Miss Elizabeth Burke in straight sets, 6-3, 6-3. The semi-final round will be played tomorrow. The results of this morning's play follows: Third round Mrs. Foster Burke defeated Miss Hope Ivins, 3-6, 6-0, 6-2; Miss Edith Beers defeated Miss Miller 7-5, 6-4; Miss Barbara Fleming defeated Miss Elizabeth Burke, 6-3, 6-3. Miss King defeated Miss Salisbury by default.

MELODRAMIC PLAYLET SHOWN AT PROCTOR'S

Proctor's opening bill for the week is conspicuous for its two-feature production, "The Red Raven Trio" and "The Confession." Clever acting and the complicated plots involved lend interest to both of the acts. "The Confession" portrays the work of a detective who employs a clever piece of strategy in running to earth a man guilty of a murder for which another is sentenced to die. Plenty of excitement prevails and the audience is kept spellbound from curtain rise to curtain fall.

"The Red Raven Trio" gives the audiences fifteen minutes of genuine amusement and keeps everyone in a continuous round of laughter. Two Jewish comedians add zest to the sketch and the woman in the case takes her part with credit. Stevenson & Nugent, comedians, give a fine exhibition of dancing, story telling and singing; and Mabel McDonald renders a number of pleasing vocal selections. The Million Dollar Mystery, in motion pictures, will be shown tomorrow afternoon and evening.

REORGANIZING CLAFLIN'S.

New York, Sept. 22—The plan of reorganization for the H. B. Claflin Company will not be made public before Thursday of this week at the earliest. A member of the noteholders committee says that before it can be made public it will have to receive the approval of all of the various interests identified with the reorganization and rehabilitation of the Claflin property. He also states that meetings will be held daily this week as there are many details yet to be worked out.

CAN IMPORT MEXICAN CATTLE.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Hereafter cattle from the quarantine districts in Mexico which are intended for immediate slaughter in the United States can be shipped direct to slaughtering centres in this country without the 60 day detention on the border to which they have hitherto been subjected. An amendment to the regulations governing shipment of cattle from tick infested regions providing for this has been signed by the secretaries of Agriculture and the Treasury.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kahn, Miss Esther Kahn and Louis Kahn, of New York, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Berse, of East Fifth street.

Miss Nora Meaney, of Watchung avenue, has returned from a month's vacation spent at High Bridge.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated by some of your "logical buyers."

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

TWO large connecting rooms on second floor, large closet, also single rooms on third floor, to rent, with first-class board; bath on each floor. Mrs. Taggart, 104 East Ninth street. 9 22 2

MONROE AVE. CHURCH NOTES.

Bishop Luther B. Wilson, LL. D., resident bishop of New York, will preach in the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, Sunday morning, Oct. 4.

The church school will reopen on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

On Friday evening of this week the cantata chorus will hold its first rehearsal for the season, with William Holmes as conductor, and all interested will please present themselves at that time.

MRS. MARY SMITH.

Mrs. Mary Smith, colored, aged 42 years, wife of John Smith, of 246 West Third street, died this morning at Muhlenberg Hospital, where she was taken September 13 for medical treatment. The notice of funeral will be announced later.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephoned or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 1300

Headquarters for GIBSON'S RYE

E. C. WESCOTT, 115 East Front Street.

'TIS TRUE that the prices on many of the chemicals and pharmaceutical products have advanced—but not to such an extent to cause any great uneasiness. Fortunately not many of these advanced articles are being prescribed at present. Prescriptions compounded by us produce the best results, as we use only the highest purity chemicals—which cost you no more.

SCHREINER BROS.

Prescription Druggists. Park Avenue, corner Second Street.

The Pharmacy that is ALWAYS in charge of registered druggists.

We Are Selling More Blankets

This season than ever before. The reason for it is, that we have the "RIGHT BLANKETS" and sell them at the "RIGHT PRICES."

As usual we feature the FAMOUS "AMANA BLANKETS," made by the Amana Society, a community at Homestead, Iowa. The products of their mills are widely known for their excellence. The sizes and weights are just what they say they are. Strictly all wool and guaranteed not to shrink, as the wool is shrunken before being made into blankets. The assortment comprises a full line of sizes and weights in white, sanitary grey, fancy plaids and tan color.

At Prices Ranging from $6.00 to $13.50

The Well Known Beacon Blankets

An all cotton blanket that has the appearance of an all wool blanket. The manufacturers claim that they surpass the heavy all wool variety in comfort, protection from cold, appearance and especially in cleanliness.

"BEACON BLANKETS" are made of clean, long staple cotton by a new process that gives them all the wool advantages and at the same time makes them sanitary. We have a big assortment of attractive designs in white with fancy borders. In plain colors such as tan and grey, army blankets in blue, grey, tan and red; also Indian blankets that are true to color and design. The prices of "BEACON BLANKETS" are as interesting as the blankets—

from $1.75 up to $3.75

Deliveries in Westfield, Fanwood, Scotch Plains and vicinity Wednesday and Saturday.

Woodhull & Martin Co.

PROFIT SHARING COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES.

Deliveries in Bound Brook, Dunellen, New Market and vicinity Tuesday and Friday.

OUR THIRTY-SECOND SEASON

Bonn's 160 EAST FRONT ST

OUR THIRTY-SECOND SEASON

Invite the Attendance of the Public to Exhibits of Correct Styles of

FALL AND WINTER

MILLINERY

TODAY, TOMORROW and THURSDAY

ORGANIZED 1875

Ladies Are Invited

We especially welcome the accounts of ladies and have provided every convenience and comfort for them.

We have small, very desirable check books—and attend promptly to your every banking want.

Bank with the

ORGANIZED 1875.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

3% Interest Paid on Daily Balances of $500 and over subject to check.

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

COUNIHAN & SHANNON, Managers.

TONIGHT and TOMORROW Matinee Daily

ANNETTE KELLERMAN

In the Most Talked of Photo Plays

NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTER

PRICES—Matinee and Night—15c and 25c.

3 Shows Daily—2:30, 7 and 9 P. M.

Thursday, Sept. 24th

Henry W. Savage

Offers the Overwhelming Wave of Melody

SARI

Emmerich Kalman Operetta Sensation

Sets the Heart to Singing—The Feet to Ringing

An Unexcelled Cast, Chorus and Orchestra

PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00.

Friday, September 25th

Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50

CASH or CREDIT

CLOTHING CLOAKS

BERNSTEIN OUTFITTING COMPANY

HATS SHOES

204 W. Front Street Plainfield N.J.

1 Flight Up Over the Lyric. Open Evening Till 9 o'clock.

Formerly Nat. Bernstein, of 222 West Front Street.

A. C. SMITH, Prop. Plainfield Tel. 2327-W. Dunellen Tel., 2842-R.

SMITH'S AUTO EXPRESS

Furniture and Pianos Boxed, Packed and Shipped

MOTOR VANS for Long Distance Moving

159 NORTH AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J. OFFICE 239 FRONT ST., DUNELLEN, N. J

WAR NEWS

(Continued from page 1.)

trian port of Cattaro in Dalmatia, which has twice been bombarded by the French fleet, has been suspended pending the arrival of additional guns. The Austrian fleet, numbering about twenty warships, which is sheltering in the port of Cattaro, today made an unsuccessful attempt to escape and join other Austrian ships lying in the Gulf of Venice, off Pola, the vilgance of the French fleet causing the Austrian vessels to return to Cattaro under forced steam. Thanks to the arrival of large number of batteries of artillery and other munitions of war from France, the Montenegrin army is now in excellent order.

It is announced that Sarajevo has been occupied by the joint forces of Servians and Montenegrins, following an overwhelming defeat of the Austrians.

London, Sept. 22 (Central News Cable).—It is officially announced that the Montenegrin army has arrived before Sarrajevo, the capital of Bosnia, and has effected a juncture with the Servians. A battle of considerable magnitude between the combined forces of Servia and Montenegro and Austria Hungary is in progress.

Advices from Antwerp say that Belgian sorties continue from the shelter of the fortifications, but there has been no change in the position of the Belgians or Germans. The Germans have erected fortifications north of Louvain and their heavy siege guns are being advanced toward Antwerp.

The military expert of the Times says that the line of the allies now extends on the east from a point near St. Die through Luneville, Jont A Mousson, Etain, Consenvoye, Montfaucon, Souain, Rheims, Craoone, Loyon, Lassigny and Roisel to Lecalelet. The news of the day, this expert says, is the appearance of fresh forces around Peronne, 17 miles northwest of St. Quentin, attacking the German extreme right at St. Quentin.

The English army is near Soissons. On the British left are French troops, which probably reach through to Lassigny, toward Ham, 12 miles southwest of St. Quentin, and are endeavoring to close in upon La Fere 14 miles northwest of Laon.

An official list has been issued by the Admiralty of the casualties on the Carmania, which sank an armed German merchant steamer on the South American coast. It shows that nine men were killed and five seriously wounded. No officers' names appear among the dead or seriously wounded.

Amsterdam, Sept. 22 (Central News Cable).—Despatches from Berlin say that the newspapers there, in commenting on the bombardment of Rheims, assert that the damage to the Cathedral was due to the action of the French in bringing their artillery in a position near the edifice forcing the Germans to concert their fire there in reply.

The commander of the Dutch garrison at Maestricht has telegraphed the commander-in-chief at The Hague a report of a bomb being dropped on Dutch territory. Details are lacking.

It is announced in Berlin that General Steinmetz, in command of a division of German artillery, was killed in the fighting in France on September 15.

Reports from Liege say that the Germans have brought the Liege fortresses again to a state of efficient defense, and are operating searchlights there nightly.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Stories of Servian and Montenegrin successes were contained in a despatch received at the British embassy and made public today. The despatch, a belated one, was received through the British foreign office and reads as follows: "A Servian official communication dated September 18, gives a highly favorable account of operations against Austrians and states that an Austrian corps was demoralized and panic stricked and was flying before the Servian advance." The Montenegrin army, the despatch adds, is at present (September 18), only 15 kilometres from the Bosnian capital, and has captured a large amount of booty.

New York, Sept. 22.—The steamer Potsdam, of the Holland-American line, left for Rotterdam this morning with 16 saloon, 27 second class and 97 third class passengers. No German or Austrian passengers were on the liner. She took about 500 bags of mail.

The steamship Zeeland, of the Red Star Line, arriving from Liverpool today, brought 363 first cabin passengers, all from the war zone of Europe. The report that the Russian troops are in France was again confirmed by passengers on the Zeeland, one of whom said that the manager of one of the great English railroads, a friend of his, had assurance that 250,000 Russians have passed through England on their way to Belgium.

London, Sept. 22 (Central News Cable).—Alfred J. Rorke, Central News special correspondent, has been arrested in Amiens by the French on a charge of espionage and has narrowly escaped execution.

DANIEL DENNY PRESIDENT OF N. P. H. S. SOPHOMORES

The sophomore class of the North Plainfield High School held a meeting this noon for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The following were chosen: Daniel Denny, president; Robert Hebert, vice-president; Margaret Brezzie, treasurer; Dorothy Lee, secretary.

The class dues were voted the same as last year. The class elected Lillian Spencer to the student council. Daniel Denny was elected captain and Almond Doty manager of the class basketball team.

22 LOST IN SHIPWRECK.

Trebizond, Asia Minor, Sept. 22.—Twenty-two persons were drowned by the sinking of the British steamer Belgian King, near Cape Kureli. The Belgian King carried 120 passengers and crew, 98 of whom were saved by a Russian steamer. It is believed the steamer was sunk by a floating mine.

RED CROSS DELAYED BY FOG.

Falmouth, Eng., Sept., 22.—Rear Admiral Aaron Ward, U. S. N., retired, received a despatch by wireless today from Captain Rust, of the American hospital ship Red Cross, saying the vessel had been detained by a fog during the last three days and would not reach Falmouth until Wednesday night.

—There's no good "alibi" for the unsuccessful work seeker who fails to utilize want advertising.

AUTOMOBILE HIT CARELESS YOUTH RIDING A BICYCLE

Negligence on the part of a boy bicycle rider in West Front street, this afternoon, was responsible for a collision between an automobile owned by County Physician F. W. Westcott, of Franwood, and Leslie Compton, the wheel rider. In the automobile at the time of the accident were Mrs. Westcott and her chauffeur.

The boy turned out in front of the machine and was knocked to the roadbed, the front wheel of his vehicle being demolished. Patrolman Sullivan brought the occupants of the car to police headquarters, where the trouble was settled satisfactorily to all concerned by Chief Kiely.

GIVE A PRE-NUPTIAL DINNER AND DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lawrence Blendinger, of Central avenue, gave a pre-nuptial dinner at their home, last evening, for their daughter, Miss Marguerite Blendinger, who will be married this evening to Herbert William Schaefer, of New York, and the mother members of the bridal party. There were twenty-six guests including several guests outside of the bridal party. After the dinner, all were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Harrington, of Central avenue, at a dance.

Miss Blendinger and Mr. Schaefer will be married at 8 o'clock this evening by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue church. The affair will be one of the most brilliant of the season.

SENATOR MARTINE IN TOWN FOR PRIMARY

United States Senator James E. Martine made a flying visit to Plainfield today to vote in the primary. He is looking well, and says that he expects to come home again in November to help elect Congressman Tuttle and the rest of the Democratic ticket. He has no expectation of getting through with the session of Congress this year, as there are still many important matters to be considered. After he had voted he spent the day greeting his many friends in the city, and he will return to Washington tonight.

OIL TANKS AFIRE.

Port Arthur, Texas, Sept. 22.—Seven oil tanks, owned by the Gulf Refining Company and the Texas Company, were set afire here by lightning. The loss of the Gulf Refining Company is estimated at $250,000 and the Texas Company at $125,000.

PRESIDENT VOTES.

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Wilson, accompanied by Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Grayson, left at 8 o'clock this morning for New Jersey. The President and Secretary went to vote in the New Jersey primaries today and will return tonight.

IT'S A GIRL.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Underhill, of Rockview avenue, the borough, are parents of a girl, born to them a few days ago. The little "Miss" arrived on the date of Mrs. Underhill's birthday.

CUTTING UP LILLIAN.

Pittsburg, Sept. 22.—Lillian Russell, the actress, wife of Alexander P. Moore, was operated on for appendicitis in the West Penn. Hospital today.

Near Laurels.

A certain major in the Philippines, who seemed to be favored with the good will of the powers, managed in some way always to get leave just before trouble with the natives was due. His colonel suspected him of having no stomach for fighting.

"Some day," remarked the colonel, "they'll want to give that fellow a decoration, and I'll suggest one. It will be a wreath of leaves of absence."—New York Post.

Ladies First.

"Some day you may be president of the United States," said the candidate who was out getting next to the hearts of the people.

"You won't make any hit with that kind of talk around here," replied the small boy. "We're a votes for women family. Go tell it to sister."—Washington Star.

This Habit Still Holds.

It was Noah who was voicing the complaint.

"My wife made me get up and shut the windows every night it rained," said he.—New Haven Register.

Doing Good.

He that does good to another man does also good to himself, not only in consequence, but in every act of doing it, for the conscience of well doing is ample reward.—Seneca.

Emerald Isle.

It was Dr. W. Drennan who, on account of its verdure, first called Ireland the Emerald Isle in his poem, "Erin."

Love labor, for if thou dost not want it for food thou mayst for physic.—William Penn.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

FIGHTING DEATH IN ARCTIC FLOES

Thrilling Story of Adventure by Kariuk Survivors.

BARTLETT LAST TO QUIT SHIP

Phonograph Reeling Off a Lively March as Vessel Sank—Soup Made of Hot Water and Ducks' Bones Only Sustenance When Food Gave Out—Dead Buried on Bleak Wrangel Island.

W. L. McKinlay and J. R. Hadley, two of the survivors of the wrecked steamer Kariuk of the Stefansson expedition, have told of their experiences while the Kariuk was hard and fast in the grip of the polar ice pack from early last October up to Jan. 10, when the ship was crushed and sunk. The story is sent from Nome, Alaska, by Lieutenant Ralph Dempwolf of the United States revenue cutter Bear.

Up to the time of the sudden disaster all those on board were well and in good condition. During the drift to the north and northwest the scientists aboard looked forward to a drift across the pole.

One peculiar discovery was made when the ship drifted across the locality supposed to be Keenan Land, found on the polar charts north of Point Barrow. Apparently this land does not exist.

On Christmas day, 1913, all hands got out on the ice pack around the ship and played football and other sports for prizes given by Captain Bartlett. The games were followed by a Christmas dinner.

McKinlay took daily meteorological data and is the only scientist to survive who has been able to keep his notes. James Murray, the naturalist of the expedition, who is missing, also took many meteorological observations. His data and notes are lost.

During the drift Captain Bartlett, no doubt thinking of possible disaster, had skin clothing made for all the ship's company by Kalilak and his wife, Eskimos from Point Barrow. He also had the sledges and gear put in order, and as a daily routine the ship's crew chopped the ice around the Karluk into small pieces to make a cushion against the pressure of the ice pack.

On Jan. 10 the Karluk was crushed by the ice along the water line. All on board at once set to work getting supplies and stores off the ship, and a temporary camp was established on the ice near Wrangel island.

Bartlett Last to Leave Ship.

Captain Bartlett was the last to leave the ship, and as she took her final plunge the phonograph in the galley, which he had set going, could be heard playing a stirring march.

Dr. Mackay, Murray, Henri Beauchet and the seaman, Morris, were the first to leave the temporary camp. They insisted that an attempt to reach land should be made at once. Dr. Mackay, who was in charge of this party, insisted on pulling the sledges by hand, making the mistake of trying to use antarctic methods in the arctic.

In the antarctic, after passing the barrier, one is on a firm foundation, but in the arctic the entire ice pack is continually moving and is affected by the winds and currents, necessitating a greater amount of traveling. Using dogs to haul the sledges saves the strength of the men for marching.

The Mackay party had not been gone many days when they lost half their provisions. Beauchet had both of his hands frozen. When they were last seen they were making slow progress toward Wrangel island.

The other missing party, which was in charge of First Mate Anderson, was the second to leave shipwreck camp.

The gale made the enormous pressure ridge on the north side of Wrangel island, which was afterward conquered despite almost overwhelming difficulties by Bartlett's party, the last to leave camp. Although the gale had died down when they reached the ridge, the great mass of ice, fifty feet high and three miles wide, was still grinding together under the momentum the ice had gathered in the gale, and they had to wait two days before attempting the passage.

After Bartlett left to attempt the crossing of Bering strait to get help McKinlay, Hadley, Bredin and Kurliluk, the Eskimo, with his wife and two children, established a camp near Warring point, on the east coast of Wrangel island. They named the bay near by McKinlay bay.

Lived In Dugouts Under Snow.

Monro, Malloch, Mamen, Williamson, Chafe, Templemen, Williams and Mauer camped at Rodgers harbor, on the south coast of the island. They lived in dugouts under the snow until May and then moved into the tents.

On Wrangel island, near the tent of the living, Bjarn Mamen, assistant to the geologist, and George S. Malloch, geologist and topographer, were buried. It is not known just what they died of, but it was not scurvy.

The provisions gave out the first week in June. From then on three polar bears, several young white foxes, seagulls, walrus, seals and ducks without salt were their fare.

For three months and some days not even meat was to be had. On these days breakfast consisted of hot water and dinner of soup made of hot water and cracked ducks' bones, which Kurliluk's wife had the foresight to save from the last meal.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

25 S&H TRADING STAMPS FREE

--COUPON--

Cut out this Coupon, present it at our Store this week and by buying 50c worth or more of Tea, Coffee, Spices, Extracts or A&P Baking Powder, you will receive

25 S&H STAMPS Besides Regular and Extra Stamps Given on Sales FREE

FROM MONDAY, SEPT. 21st, TO SATURDAY, SEPT. 26th.

This Coupon not good after Saturday, Sept. 26th, 1914. D. P.

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS AND COFFEES

125 Stamps with 1 lb Very Fancy Tea 70c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Fancy Tea 60c
80 Stamps with 1 lb Fine Family Tea 50c
50 Stamps with 1 lb very good Tea 40c
10 Stamps with 1 lb Iona Coffee 25c
15 Stamps with 1 lb Sultana Coffee 30c
25 Stamps with 1 lb Ambosa Coffee 32c
30 Stamps with 1 lb El Ryad Coffee 35c

TOMATOES Extra Special Reductions No. 3 CAN 3 Cans 25c No. 2 CAN 4 Cans 25c

CHEESE, lb This week only at... 18c

TOMATOES, can Strained. This week at 4c

Double Tipped Matches 7 Boxes 25c USUALLY 5c A BOX

LAUNDRY STARCH 2 lbs 7c

A&P PEAS, can Best Quality Canned; 15c

SULTANA BAKED BEANS Usually 10c a can 3 Cans 25c

OTHER LEADERS THIS WEEK

Clothes Pins, 100 for.... 12c
Clothes Lines, each 12½ & 15c
Mops, each 25c
Tuna Fish, small can,.. 12½c
large can 18c

19 STAMP SPECIALS AT THE STORE THIS WEEK

137-139 WEST FRONT ST. TEL. 117

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO. THE LARGEST GROCERY HOUSE IN AMERICA ESTAB. 1859

Free Delivery

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

The Kitchen Treasure

By universal consent is a good reliable range.

The Ivy Canopy, Othello and Penn Esther Ranges we have sold for many years and fully guarantee.

REGARDING HEATING STOVES

The Glen Oak line embodies in their construction every modern improvement and reasonable in price.

GAS AND OIL HEATING STOVES.

We have an Aluminum Gas Stove, splendid in size, for the bath room, at $3.50

Do not overlook your furnace work—DO IT NOW before cold weather reaches you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

SPECIAL EXCURSION

UP LONG ISLAND SOUND

—TO—

NEW HAVEN Via Steamer "MONMOUTH"

Sunday, September 27th

Direct connection with steamer at PIER 1, JERSEY CITY, adjoining Passenger Station.

Round Trip Tickets $1.00 CHILDREN 50c

Connecting Train on which tickets are good leaves Clinton Ave., 7:52; Grant Ave., 7:55; Plainfield, 7:58; Netherwood, 8:01 A. M.

Returning, Steamer Leaves New Haven, 4.00 p. m.

ARE YOU GOING AWAY?

If you are, get a Tourist Policy and DON'T FRET

The coverage is liberal and the Company's treatment of its policy holders is always satisfactory.

The Little Trunk (or a big one) contains more in value than you probably think. Figure it up.

Baggage insurance in our Companies costs very little for Fire, Transportation, Theft and Navigation risks.

J. C. POPE & COMPANY

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING

112 E. FRONT STREET PLAINFIELD, N. J.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

THEY'RE PICKING ON US "RUBENS"

Eastern Association Flag Winners Go on a Strike Because of Paddy Green.

SAY HE PLAYED HERE

Twirler Accused of Lowering Himself to the Level of Sunday Baseball in Plainfield—His Appearance is One on the Local Public.

According to a story published in the New York Times this morning, the New London baseball team is mixed up in a strike caused by the appearance of one Paddy Green in this city in a Sunday baseball game. As far as can be learned here at the present time no one sporting the Eastern Association reputation has graced the local sand-lots on a Sunday afternoon this season and it looks as though someone was being wrongly accused and the Queen City treated to a little free advertising.

The following story appeared in the Times this morning:

"New London, Conn., Sept. 21.—Commodore Morton F. Plant's New London baseball team, which won the pennant in the Eastern Association and is now playing Lawrence, pennant winner in the New England League, went on strike just before the players departed by train tonight for Lawrence, where they are scheduled to play the sixth game for the New England championship tomorrow.

"Picher 'Paddy' Green, who was slated to pitch today, was sidetracked because he pitched in a game at Plainfield, N. J., under an assumed name on Sunday. Eugene McCann, the club manager, refused to take Pitcher Green to Lawrence. Then the players rebelled, and told McCann they would not leave New London if Green was left behind. McCann was forced to accede to the players' demands, and also had to promise the ball players that 'Paddy' would be allowed on Lawrence Field in uniform.

"All hands left under a flag of truce on the 6 o'clock train for Lawrence via Boston.

"Lawrence won the fifth game here this afternoon at Plant Field in the post-season series with New London. Lawrence has won three and New London two games. The next game is scheduled at Lawrence tomorrow afternoon. Should New London lose tomorrow's game Lawrence will win the championship—four out of seven games. If New London wins, however, a seventh game will be necessary, and the toss of a coin will determine in which of the two cities the final game will be played."

ROD AND REEL

High Water Today.

	P.M.
Sandy Hook	9:36
Morgan Station	9:46
Sewaren	9:56
Governor's Island	9:49
Jamaica Bay	10:06
Corson's Inlet	8:36
Centre street (Newark)	10:44
Princess Bay	9:41
Wreck Lead, Elizabethport	10:06
Newark Bay Light	10:25
Canarsie, Hammel's	10:19
Raunt, Goose Creek	10:33
Sheepshead Bay, Sandy Hook	9:36

Passengers aboard the Taurus last week caught plenty of blackfish and sea bass. From now on blackfish will be the principal catch until the cod arrive. Nearly all of the blackfish caught ran from two to six pounds.

Fall fishing at Barnegat is enjoyed by a number of knowing fishermen because of the scarcity of mosquitoes. During the summer months the mosquitoes are used for bait in some sections down that way, and Captain Kennedy has invented a machine to chum with them.

Weakfish are biting at Great Kills on shrimp.

Striped bass are leaving the fresh water streams for the ocean and the surf fisherman is waiting for them. Two were caught at Townsend's Inlet last week.

Snipe feed on the newly-made ground of the municipal docks on the Newark meadows. Two anglers went there early Saturday morning and killed eleven. One man brought down a mud hen and started two wild ducks that found the pools to their liking.

Eels are biting and potting. The fishermen who fish at Sewaren for weakfish could pick up a number of eels by putting out a hand line. Shrewsbury River eels are big and plentiful, and the same can be said of the waters along Staten Island from Tottenville to Midland Beach.

Big weakfish are working south and a good place to catch them is in the lower bay between Old Orchard Shoal light and the Romer Shoal light. Three and four-pound weakfish are being caught in the nets off Bellford, and if the nets leave any they will take shedder bait.

There is a good run of sea bass at the Seabright fishing banks and the Long Island boats go there after them. Many humpbacks have been taken during the past week and catches of twenty-five were made Saturday and Sunday with the wind west.

One man had a fine catch of black bass at Branch Brook, Saturday. He had three fish of three-pound weight.

HETTY GREEN BUYS CUBS?

According to a story circulated by one of the party travelling with the Cincinnati team, Charles J. Taft has sold the Chicago National League club to Mrs. Hetty Green. The author of the story declared that he had been instrumental in arranging the terms of sale which included the entire property of Chicago's West Side ball park as well as the franchise. It was stated that Mrs. Green's advent into professional baseball was the result of purely speculative motives and a desire to add to her real estate holdings of that part of the Windy City.

RUBIEN SUCCEEDS SULLIVAN.

Fred W. Rubien, of the St. George A. C., for many years closely associated with the late James E. Sullivan through his position as vice president of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, was elevated to the presidency held by the deceased leader for more than twenty years at the annual meeting of the District Board, last night, at the Bohemian Gymnastic School, East Seventy-fourth street, New York, which was attended by nearly 200 delegates.

JACK MARTIN WILL WRITE BASEBALL FOR THE DAILY PRESS.

Jack Martin, shortstop of the Philadelphia National League baseball club, will "cover" the world series games for the Plainfield Daily Press sporting department. Last year Martin reviewed each of the contests played in New York and Philadelphia in this paper and his comment was the subject of much favorable discussion.

In the event of the Boston Braves winning the National League flag, and that seems probable at the present time, Jack will be peculiarly fitted to deal out information concerning the individual performers who will meet the Athletics. At the beginning of the present season Martin was one of the men who played under Captain Johnny Evers and he is personally acquainted with each of the Braves and knows their strong points and weaknesses.

Whether the contests will be played in New York and Philadelphia or Philadelphia and Boston remains to be seen, but in any event the Daily Press will have first hand information from Martin's pen on the series.

CENTRAL BOTTLING WORKS

Phone 229. cor. Somerset & Chatham Sts.

HENRY HAURAND, Proprietor.

Headquarters for High Grade Beers, Wines, Liquors and Carbonated Beverages.

SPECIAL SALES

of the Celebrated California Sparkling Asti Special Sec.

Sale price, per quarts.....$1.00

Sale price, 2 pint bottles.....$1.00

Regular price, quarts, $1.50; pints, 75c.

We carry a large assortment of Wines and Liquors (foreign and native) and our prices are of the lowest.

We regret to state that we can not deliver goods in Plainfield, but if you consider quality and prices you will find it will pay you to send for them. We call for empty bottles.

TEAMS WILL BOWL ON THEATRE ALLEYS

Games of Fraternal Bowling League, of Westfield, Will Be Played There.

At the meeting of the Westfield Fraternal Bowling League held in Arcanum Hall on Wednesday night it was decided by a majority vote of the representatives of the six lodges represented that the league bowl on the alleys of the Westfield Theatre this coming season. This was decided upon after propositions of both the Westfield Theatre proprietor and the managers of the Playhouse had been read to the members of the committees representing the lodges.

The league decided to have a six team league this season and to bowl three nights a week, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights. The first games will be rolled on Monday evening, October 5. And each team will roll one night a week. H. E. Cline was appointed official scorekeeper by President Brown.

It was decided that in the games rolled this season that the captains of each team rolling on any night shall select a foul line man and that he shall be on the line before the games start and if he is not, the game shall not be started until he is.

The schedule committee and the prize committee reported progress.

When the meeting adjourned it was with the understanding the members should meet again in two weeks when the captains of the teams are to put up the forfeit money and to present the names of the members of those who are to bowl on the several teams.

B. S. S. CLUB DISBANDS AFTER FOUR YEARS WORK

At a meeting of the Boys' Secret Society, of the borough, Sunday, it was decided to disband after being organized for four years. The meeting was held at the home of Dave Randall, of Mercer avenue, and the present officers were Sandford Roome, president, and Dave Randall, secretary and treasurer. The other members of the club were Nelson Kenworthy, Robert Ball, Alec Milne and Douglass Stewart.

This club has been represented on the baseball field and gridiron for the past three years and have made some good records.

MOTORCYCLE SPARKS

Paul Newman has returned from North Carolina.

W. Groff entertained Paul Phillips and J. Guttridge when they were in Bareville, Penn., recently. Groff sent word that he would be with us again in about a week.

F. Fleming and father tandemed to Atlantic City and return in one day recently. Both riders weigh over 200 apiece.

Freddie Rich, of the local club, in his winning of the 5-mile motorcycle race at Somerville recently made a track record for that course of 7 minutes flat. This is excellent time for a stock machine on a flat dirt track. Freddie also got second in the two mile and should have had another first but his chances were spoiled by a bad start.

Sunday the club had a shore dinner at Morgan's Station.

Wednesday will be club day at the Allentown Fair and September 30 the club will visit the Trenton Fair.

Our president, Ralph Auerback, has returned from Budd Lake.

Harry Uhler, Jr., is proudly showing a picture of a string of fish caught at Manasquan.

Al. Herrlich has promised to attend the Trenton Fair outing and bring back Mrs. Herrlich.

Henry Dresselt called at headquarters a number of times recently, after a long absence.

MILLER vs. MATHEWS.

George Miller, of the local Eagles' bowling team, will meet Mathews, of the Somerville quintet, in the first one man match of the season between these two organizations tonight on the local alleys on Second street. Both men are good pinners and lead their respective teams in high scores. A return match will be played in Somerville.

SHORTSTOP MARANVILLE FALLS.

Boston, Sept. 22.—The engagement of Walter E. Maranville, the shortstop of the Boston Nationals, and Miss Elizabeth R. Shea, of Springfield, his home city, was announced last night. The marriage will take place in the fall.

BLATZ MADE SWEEP IN K. OF C. TOURNEY

Took All Six Games He Played Last Night and Had High Average.

Blatz carried away all honors in the fourth night's play of the Knights of Columbus one-man bowling tournament, last night, when he won all six games in which he took part. Sullivan proved to be his hardest opponent, but only in the second game of their match did he near his rival's score. There were nine points difference, the scores being 189 and 180. Blatz bowled an average of 202 for the night's play.

The other matches were close and it took all three games in every case to decide the winner. Kiely and E. Taylor had a hot time in the first match of the night, the former winning the first two by a few points. Taylor won the third with twenty to spare. In the match with Blatz, Taylor pinned low, his highest being 187 and Blatz was not compelled to work much for the games. In the last match, between Kiely and Sullivan, the former made the high score of the evening and incidently broke the high score record of the tournament by one point.

The scores:

Kiley	203	210	180
E. Taylor	192	204	200
Blatz	227	189	201
Sullivan	202	180	156
E. Taylor	149	173	187
Blatz	197	194	203
Kiely	163	202	258
Sullivan	191	176	190

Tomorrow night the following men will be matched:

Pasch vs. Wilson.
Duffy vs. Hillman.
Pasch vs. Duffy.
Wilson vs. Hillman.

ELECTRICS ARE CHAMPS OVER PUBLIC SERVICE

The second game of the series between the Public Service Railway and Public Service Electric teams was played at Hilton yesterday afternoon, and the electric won, giving them the championship. The trolley men presented a new line up, with only one of the Paterson champions in the game. Furman and Walker were the battery and Thompson and Stanton were in the points for the electricians. It was a close contest till the eighth inning, when the score was 4 to 3. The electrics then put in a new battery consisting of Hightower and Werlich, and in the eighth inning, aided by errors, they made three runs, giving them the game. Score by innings:

		R.	H.	E.
Electric	0 0 0 0 0 2 1 3 x	6	7	0
Railway	0 0 0 0 3 0 1 0 0	4	7	12

HIGHLANDERS DEFEAT INTERHAVENS AGAIN

The Highlanders took the Interhaven A. C., of North Plainfield, into camp, Saturday afternoon, on Hyde Oval by the one sided score of 13 to 2. The Highlanders banged the delivery of Eddie Conshay for an even dozen hits, three of which were made by Hanzel. W. Conover led in the batting for the Interhavens, getting three singles and a double out of four times at the bat. Hoffmeister pitched a good game for the Highlanders and was given good support.

The score:

HIGHLANDERS.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
N. Kyle, 1b	5	2	2	6	1	0
Betzenberger, 3b	2	1	1	0	1	0
Hoffmeister, p	4	1	0	1	0	1
Denny, ss	4	1	1	6	2	0
Hanzel, lf	4	2	3	1	0	1
Dodd, c	4	3	2	3	1	0
Luthman, cf	4	1	1	1	0	0
A. Stebor, 2b	4	1	2	3	1	1
T. Stebor, rf	4	1	0	0	0	0
	35	13	12	21	6	3

INTERHAVENS.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E
Howe, rf	4	0	0	0	0	0
G. Conover, 2b	4	2	2	4	1	0
W. Conover, 1b	4	0	4	6	0	1
J. Kyle, c	4	0	2	7	1	1
Connolly, ss	3	0	0	2	3	1
Hann, 3b	3	0	0	0	1	0
Fritz, lf	3	0	1	0	0	0
Smalley, cf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Conshay, p	3	0	2	1	2	0
	31	2	11	21	8	3

Summary: Two-base hits, Hanzel, A. Kyle, W. Conover; struck out, by Conshay 8; by Hoffmeister 3; bases on balls, off Conshay 2; double play, Denny to Kyle. Umpires, Dodd and Walker.

—If you have a really desirable house or apartment to rent, your "ad" will constitute GOOD NEWS to some anxious people in this city.

B. C. KENYON AND D. O. ROGERS TIE FOR TROPHY

Burnett C. Kenyon and D. O. Rogers are now tie with 6 points each for the Golf Committee cup at the Plainfield Country Club, the two points won by Mr. Rogers on Saturday putting him in first place with Mr. Kenyon. H. T. Eaton and W. Lester Glenney are in second place with 5½ points each.

The point-winners on Saturday are as follows:

Henry D. Hibbard, 3; D. O. Rogers, 2; H. D. W. Rapalje, ½; L. G. Carman, ½. This weekly competition will continue for three weeks.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	79	55	.590
New York	76	60	.559
Chicago	73	66	.525
St. Louis	72	66	.522
Philadelphia	67	72	.482
Brooklyn	64	74	.463
Pittsburgh	62	74	.456
Cincinnati	56	82	.406

Yesterday's Games.

Chicago, 6; New York, 0.
Boston, 6; Pittsburgh, 5.
St. Louis, 6; Philadelphia, 3 (10 innings).
Brooklyn, 9; Cincinnati, 2.
Brooklyn, 8; Cincinnati, 2.

Games Today.

Chicago at New York.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn.
Pittsburgh at Boston.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	90	49	.648
Boston	83	54	.606
Detroit	75	66	.532
Washington	73	65	.529
Chicago	65	75	.464
St. Louis	63	76	.453
New York	63	77	.450
Cleveland	44	96	.314

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 4; St. Louis, 3.
Boston, 8; Detroit, 8 (11 innings, darkness).
Cleveland, 5; Philadelphia, 4.
Washington, 6; Chicago, 1 (13 innings).

Games Today.

New York at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.
Boston at Detroit (2 games).
Washington at Chicago.

FEDERAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Indianapolis	79	60	.568
Chicago	77	60	.558
Baltimore	72	62	.537
Buffalo	70	65	.519
Brooklyn	69	66	.511
Kansas City	64	73	.467
St. Louis	59	78	.431
Pittsburgh	54	79	.406

Yesterday's Results.

Kansas City, 11; Brooklyn, 3.
St. Louis, 5; Pittsburgh, 2.
Indianapolis, 9; Buffalo, 1.
Baltimore, 3; Chicago, 2.

Games Today.

Kansas City at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Pittsburgh.
Chicago at Baltimore.
Indianapolis at Buffalo.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Providence	91	58	.611
Rochester	88	60	.595
Buffalo	86	59	.593
Toronto	71	68	.511
Baltimore	72	73	.497
Newark	69	76	.476
Montreal	59	86	.407
Jersey City	46	102	.311

Yesterday Results.

Newark, 3; Baltimore, 2.
Providence, 8; Jersey City, 3.
Buffalo, 6; Rochester, 4.

Games Today.

Baltimore at Newark.
Jersey City at Providence.
Toronto at Montreal.
Buffalo at Rochester.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF N. P. A. C. FOOTBALLISTS

A meeting of the candidates for the North Plainfield A. C. football team will be held at the home of Bob Hebert, of Verdon street, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All those interested are requested to be present as several matters will be discussed including a new coach. The one first mentioned has declined the position and the management is after George Linke, of this city.

A captain will probably be elected. Addison Newkirk, has signified his intention of trying for the eleven and he will prove a big addition. Manager Dan Donny already has six games booked, three with a Montclair team and three with the Cranford Boys' Club. He has about eight other games pending. The full list of candidates that will be present tonight are Jack Hull, Jack Brennan, Harry Todd, Bob McNabb, Robert McGonnigel, Sheldon Coudray, Pete VanMater, Dan Denny, Jack Harper, Addison Newkirk, Jack Hebert and Bob Hebert.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered—probably investigated—by some of your "logical buyers."

PLAINFIELD EAGLES LOSE SECOND MATCH

Went to Rahway Last Night and Lost to Their Brothers for Second Time.

Playing on new alleys which resembled a looking glass, the Plainfield Eagles lost two games out of three to the Rahway Eagles at that place, last night. The home pinners took the first game with twenty-five points to spare, but the locals came back in the second and swamped their opponents.

The Queen Cityites evidently had an off night, as they could not seem to hit the pins at angles that meant points and in the first game the high score was 187, made by Boyle, while Rahway's highest was fourteen points lower than that, but consistent pinning won the home boys the verdict on the first roll. Mahoney did the starring in the second game with a 217, which was the high score of the night's play. He hits the pins with great accuracy in this game, but fell short in the deciding match. The scores of the second game were 895 to 736.

An accident in the third and deciding game put the local team at a great disadvantage. While picking up a ball Crowley was struck with a returning ball and it split his index finger. As a result of his injury Crowley only made a 78 and the locals lost the match 786 to 702. Kelly was high score man for Rahway with 181. After the match the local delegation was royally entertained at a feed and several of the local birds helped to entertain. The local party took the trip in three automobiles and were accompanied by a large number of rooters. The scores:

Kelly	172	158	181
Collins	167	121	155
Lukash	152	159	152
Repcke	147	176	104
Crowell	167	122	194
	805	736	786

PLAINFIELD.

Crowley	139	157	78
Buckley	144	138	120
Boyle	187	141	178
Mahoney	143	217	172
Miller	167	152	154
	780	805	702

FIGHTS SCHEDULED TONIGHT.

Johnny Kilbane vs. Johnny Dundee, 20 rounds at Vernon, Cal.

Frankie Callahan vs. Tommy Murphy, 10 rounds, at Brooklyn.

Frankie Burns vs. Joe Azevedo, 10 rounds, at Oakland, Cal.

Patsy Brannigan vs. Cal Delaney, 10 rounds, at Columbus, Ohio.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The Boys' Athletic Association held its annual fall meeting in the auditorium of the High School, this morning, for the purpose of nominating officers for the coming year. The election will be held this afternoon. The following were nominated for the board of directors: McNamee, W. Peacock, Runyon, H. Peacock, Noonan, Rosenson, Updike, Carey, Cockburn, Moyer, Wheelan, Greene and Herrman.

The Girls' Athletic Association held its annual fall meeting this morning. The following girls were nominated: President, the Misses Good, Mendell, Stelle and Alpaugh; for secretary, the Misses Martin, Simons, Britton and Morris; for treasurer, the Misses Crane, Cockburn, Rothberg, Dickerson and Coddington.

The first practice of the minstrel show was held yesterday afternoon, forty-eight fellows turning out.

RECREATION NOTES

The Washington Dramatic Club will meet tonight at 8:15 in the Washington School. There will be a rehearsal of the two plays, "My Lord In Livery" and "Sarah's Young Man." These two plays, which will probably be given the early part of October, promise to be vvery fine.

The Italian Social and Educational Club will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 82 degrees; 11 a. m., 93 degrees; 1 p. m., 97 degrees.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

EAGLE BOWLING ALLEY

Open to the Public

117 EAST SECOND STREET

Under the management of George Miller.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:30, 9:00, 11:45 a. m. x1:00, *1:30, 4:00, 5:00, 6:15, *7:00, 10:30, *11:15.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9:00 a. m. 12:00 noon, 2:00, 4:00, 5:00, 9:00 p. m.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—7:00, 9:30 a. m. 12:00 noon, 1:30, *2:00, *4:30, x4:45, 5:30, *7:15, 7:30, 10:50, *11:45 p. m.

*Saturday only. xExcept Saturday.

SUNDAYS.

Leave South Plainfield—9:30 a. m. 12:15, 2:30, 4:30, 5:30, 9:30 p. m.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

Leave Plainfield—6:25, 8:15, a. m. *1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 5:25, *10:00, *11:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:00, 10:30 a. m., 3:00, 4:30, 6:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35, 8:25 a. m., *1:10 3:10, 4:40, 6:35, *10:10, *11:10 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:10, 10:40 a. m., 3:10, 4:40, 6:40 p. m.

Leave Stirling—8:50 a. m *1:35, 5:00, *10:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 11:00 a. m. 5:00 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:50 a. m. 3:30, 6:50, *11:30 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:30 a. m. 3:30, 6:50 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:00 a. m. 7:00 p. m. Sundays and Holidays, 9:45 a. m. 7:10 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6:25 a. m.; 3:00, 6:25, *11:00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6:35 a. m., 3:10, 6:40, *11:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6:55 a. m., 3:30 6:50, *11:30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7:10 a. m., 7:15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7:20 a. m., 3:30 7:30, *11:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7:30 a. m., 3:45, 7:40, *11:45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7:50 a. m., 4.00, 7:55, *12:00 p. m.

*Saturday only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9:00 a. m., instead of 6:30. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STIRLING.

Leave Plainfield—8:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—8:25 a. m., 4:45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9:20 a. m., 5:15 p. m. 15 a. m. bus connects with 9:27 a. m. train at Stirling for Newark. 4:30 p. m. bus connects with 5:15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

SATURDAY EXTRAS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—1:00 p. m.

Leave Stirling—1:30 p. m.

SUNDAY ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—10:30 a. m., 4:30 p. m.

J. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. Phone 130 Plainfield.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Tel. 2081-J-2, South Plainfield, or 1155.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS.

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-19

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 South Ave. Tel. 115

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL

COKE AND WOOD

Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av

Yard tel. 1911-W.

Fourth and Washington Streets

MID-SUMMER SALE OF BICYCLES AND TIRES

AT

Leo Zeisel's

222 WEST FRONT STREET.

Next to Proctor's.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN.

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

CONSOLIDATION COMMUNICATIONS

CONSOLIDATION LETTERS.

The Daily Press has already in its possession all the letters that it can guarantee to publish in tomorrow night's issue on the consolidation question. If any more are received we will try to give space to them, but can give no assurance of so doing, as the recording of the events of today's primary election must be given preference over any communications which may be received after this issue of the Press appears.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

In connection with the present agitation by the Mayor of the borough of the subject of consolidation;—it has doubtless passed out of his memory, and perhaps that of other citizens, that the whole matter was thoroughly investigated by the constituted authorities of the two municipalities in 1906-07. The proceedings at that time were formal, dignified, and such as would be expected in a case where the governing bodies of the two municipalities desired to reach a common mind on the question of the merging of the city and borough under the Act of 1902.

This investigation was conducted by the Bi-Municipal Consolidation Commission, composed of three citizens from Plainfield and two citizens from North Plainfield, appointed by the joint action of the two Councils. This Commission was directed "To fully consider the advantages and disadvantages of the consolidation of Plainfield and North Plainfield under one municipal government, and to report plans and methods by which the same may be brought about."

The Commission held regular weekly meetings, beginning January 7, 1907, and extending until the end of April. These meetings were attended not only by the members of the Commission—Alexander Gilbert chairman; Mason W. Tyler, Floyd T Woodhull, Elston M. French and Charles W. McCutchen—but by the Mayors, attorneys and citizens of the two communities. A hearing was impartially conducted, and the views of prominent citizens of both communities were presented, setting forth their opinions and arguments in favor of, or in opposition to, the question under review.

The Commission sought and received from the attorneys of the two municipalities—Mr. Craig A. Marsh and Mr. Charles A. Reed—professional advice in connection with questions which arose, and were largely guided by the counsel thus received in forming and formulating their conclusions.

In brief, their exhaustive report of the subject to the Councils of Plainfield and North Plainfield, by whom they had been appointed, which covered eight two-column pages, carried the opinion that consolidation under the Assembly Bill 155, which contemplated a city located in two counties, was not practicable, and their recommendation was against its adoption.

This being therefore the deliberate judgment of an impartial Commission, created by the constituted authorities of the two municipalities, why does the Mayor of the Borough of North Plainfield consider it wise at this time to order an election on consolidation without conference or consultation with the authorities of Plainfield, and without the regard to the official action heretofore taken by the Councils of both municipalities?

I quote from published report of the Commission its conclusions as follows:

"There is unquestionably a strong and growing movement in both communities in favor of consolidation, and while the Commission has no desire to hinder or discourage this movement, it has reached the CONCLUSION, THAT CONSOLIDATION WITHOUT ANNEXATION IS IMPRACTICABLE.

"If by simply holding an election in the borough and city the result of which should be favorable to consolidation, the merger of the two municipalities into one could be effected, it would seem a very simple matter to proceed under Assembly Bill No. 155; but the fact remains that while consolidation might be effected in this manner, the union would not be complete. We would find ourselves without the necessary legal machinery to properly govern the new municipality. The present statutes of the State of New Jersey do not contemplate a city located in more than one county, and new legislation would be necessary to properly adjust the many general laws which now apply to Plainfield in Union and Somerset counties. Many statutes would have to be amended, which doubtless could be accomplished in time, but, in the meantime, we would be constantly running up against new legal difficulties affecting the rights of individuals and property.

"Appended hereto are the opinions of the corporation counsels of the city and borough, which more fully cover this phase of the subject.

"In view of the legal difficulties so clearly set forth in these opinions, especially in the case of Corporation Counsel Marsh, THE COMMISSION CANNOT RECOMMEND CONSOLIDATION WITHOUT ANNEXATION.

"The logical plan to pursue is to secure the passage of a bill authorizing both annexation and consolidation. In our opinion it will be more difficult to secure such legislation than it will be to secure satisfactory legislation to consolidate without annexation.

"The recommendation of the Commission therefore, is that your Honorable Bodies cause to be prepared a bill for submission to the next session of the Legislature which shall provide for BOTH CONSOLIDATION AND ANNEXATION, to take effect only after a majority of the legally authorized voters of both municipalities shall have voted in favor of the same at a regular or special election held for that purpose."

Respectfully submitted,
Alexander Gillbert,
Floyd T. Woodhull,
Mason W. Tyler,
Commission for Plainfield.
Chas. W. McCutchen,
Elston M. French,
Commission for No. Plainfield.

With this carefully prepared opinion of the officially constituted Bi-Municipal Consolidation Commission, on file in the records of the Borough of North Plainfield, why is it necessary to project an election, at great expense to the taxpayers of the borough, contemplating consolidation without annexation? It is absurd as it is serious, a veritable fool's errand, by which the Borough of North Plainfield will be carried into No Man's Land. It will be deprived of its freedom to act in the matter in the future if its citizens vote in favor of this irrevocable merger.

Let it not be forgotten that a vote in favor of the Act on Thursday commits the borough to consolidation without recall, and leaves it helpless and at the mercy of Plainfield in any negotiations which may hereafter be made when it may suit Plainfield to avail of this "give away" by North Plainfield of its independence, its autonomy, its franchises and its self-respect.

Yous very truly,
C. W. MC CUTCHEN.
North Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 22, 1914.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

Those of us who know the earnest disinterested and conscientious work that Mayor Clark has done for the borough during his long term of service feel thankful to you for your editorial in a recent issue, in which you give as one of the reasons for consolidation the fact that Mayor Clark advocates it. You omitted to say that in addition to the Mayor's two terms as Mayor he served for five years in the Borough Council. Mayor Clark is a large property holder and is loved and respected by all who know him. He is also an intelligent man, good at figures, careful and anxious to serve the people in their interest. It is very unfair to criticise the Mayor for showing the exact condition of the borough, as he has done. He has been trusted by the people to govern its affairs and he tells us plainly that the borough does not grow as it should, that its future is dark, and he gives reasons and good ones, too, why we should be merged with Plainfield in order to protect the interests of the property holders and the people of the borough. Mayor Clark has shown by figures that the borough tax rate after consolidation should be reduced ten points.

This seems to be a reasonable and conservative statement when we know that the laws of the State provide that after consolidation the property of the borough shall be treated like that of Plainfield, that it will share in Plainfield's prosperity, due to its constantly growing values, and every intelligent person knows that in a small community like this, when united, it will be cheaper and more efficient to run the government under one system of offices than under two. It is better to be honest as Mayor Clark is and tell the truth than to fool ourselves by covering up our deficiencies, for we are sure to get the worst of it in the end.

It is interesting to note that most of the Mayors of the borough, after serving their terms, have been, or are advocates of consolidation. Ex-Mayor Hegeman, ex-Mayor Saunders and ex-Mayor Townsend are all earnestly in favor of this movement and they are all large property holders. Ex-Mayor Smalley has done a great deal for the borough; he led the annexation movement twelve years ago, and at that time, and on several occasions since, he has publicly advocated consolidation. At the mass meeting held on May 22, 1902, Mayor Smalley made a speech advocating consolidation. At that time he was interviewed in the Daily Press and made the following statement:

"Mayor Smalley frankly gave his views and said that the dividing line has been detrimental to us. I am convinced that we will get along better by becoming a part of Plainfield. There has always been a certain community of interests and only the division in law has kept us apart. The condition of business along Somerset street alone shows how we are hampered."

As late as 1910, ex-Mayor Smalley is reported in the Daily Press of December 8 of that year as follows:

"The talk of a union of the two places, as you know, has been of long standing. Personally, I regret that there was not a merger years ago, for if there had been, I believe the progress of the community would have been more rapid, and today we would be enjoying needed improvements which as yet appear a long way off.

"One of the chief obstacles to every suggested improvement, considered on either side of 'the brook' has been the attitude assumed, by force of law or otherwise, of the other. Both may equally need such an improvement but the one without the other is helpless to accomplish it.

"As matters stand at present, disunited politically and geographically, satisfactory results can be obtained by neither independent of the other. This condition, through annexation, could be removed for a consolidation would effectually bring the desired results. North Plainfield is nothing more or less than part of Plainfield's expansion. We are a residential section of Plainfield in every respect except in law. And there is no reasonable argument against that barrier being removed and for us to be all one, working for our common good.

"While the new county idea would solve the problem, the loss of so important a territory to the three counties involved would bring formidable opposition, which in the event of our failure, would result in delaying the prime object. North Plainfield holds the key to the property solution of important questions affecting the future of the whole community. And if you succeed in arousing public sentiment, along the lines we aim at, I am certain North Plainfield will meet you at the door of hope.

"I do believe that a consolidation could be effected. The reasons are too well known and have been too oft repeated to need any comment. We are at the door of Plainfield and of Union county and there our interests lie. This is true of both the borough and the township. I may add that I have never lost hope for the ultimate success of the cause."

This is strong and convincing argument from one who knows so much about the borough as ex-Mayor Smalley. His friends do not believe the current reports that he is now against the proposition.

L. B. WOOLSTON.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

We have heard a good many arguments against consolidation, but no reasons. It is no argument to say that bigness is not a good thing because big cities get in the hands of politicians. To unite Plainfield and North Plainfield would mean a community of but twenty-five or thirty thousand which is in no sense big. If there was anything in the argument about bigness Netherwood would be benefited by being separate from Plainfield, for Netherwood is really not as much a part of Plainfield by nature and because of its closeness to Plainfield as the borough is. We people of the borough cannot help ourselves because Nature has put us closely along the line of Front street and the brook. The borough line is within a stone's throw of Front street in many places along the line. The mountains prevent growth away from Plainfield and it is only when a community grows away from another that it becomes desirable to have it independent, because being separate from it and not close to it the interests of the two may be different. This is the real and only reason for separate governments in any community, but where a community lies so close together that all the interests are identical it is plain common sense and good economy to have them administered under one and not under two governments.

Even in the case of Brooklyn it is argued that her interests were not identical with those of New York, but it is a fact that since Brooklyn was consolidated with New York the value of property over there increased enormously. Bird S. Coler, who lives in Brooklyn, is authority for this statement, but Brooklyn is a large city, separated from New York by a river, while the borough is a small place separated by a brook, which one might jump across.

The Oranges do not offer a similar condition to those we have here. The people of the Oranges do not wish to be joined with Newark, a large, commercial city. Besides the Oranges are communities complete in themselves, with their own postoffices and banks, and the people who live in one of the Oranges do not necessarily come in contact with the people in the other. Their interests are not identical and to combine all of them would result in a community which could not so readily be governed because of conflicting interests. The Oranges are strung out over a large territory. North Plainfield hugs the city along its entire length.

It is a specious and academic argument to talk of the borough losing its autonomy, that it would be a simple ward of Plainfield. The laws of the State provide the machinery for consolidation and require that the division shall be made according to population. This would give the borough about four wards, each having a representative in the Council. Four councilmen out of eleven would be a strong minority, stronger than Netherwood or any other section of Plainfield would have, and it is plain that it would not be to the interests of the consolidated community to neglect any portion of its territory. One might just as well say the legs of the body should complain because they are occupied carrying the stomach around while the stomach does no work, or that the arms are laboring to provide food for the idle stomach. This is but a fable and the argument is fallacious because the interest of one is bound up with the interest of the other,—neglect of one means that the others suffer. With Plainfield having a larger number of wards there would be a greater representation in the county committee and the increase in the population would give more delegates to the county conventions, thus making Plainfield a more potent faction in political affairs. It really savors of humbug to talk about the borough's autonomy. Autonomy is a function of government which should be maintained where aggregations of people live at a distance from and are distinct geographically and otherwise from those who govern. Staten Island really should not belong to New York city and it is quite properly a separate borough in Greater New York for the reasons stated. The demand for autonomy arises from the fact that people do not wish to be governed by those who are not familiar with and have no interest in their welfare and the conditions that surround them. Is this the case with the borough? Quite the contrary. Even the strongest opponents of consolidation will admit this. We are in daily contact and if united there is no more reason for the neglect of the borough by the governing body than there is for the neglect of Stelle avenue by the city. Nowhere in the history of the United States do we find municipal governments dividing themselves up to get better government and nowhere is there a case where the reasons for union are as strong as with the city and borough.

The borough has no independence. An independent community is one that can take care of itself. If we wish to spend a dollar we go over to Plainfield. If we want to get a dollar we go over to the banks there to get it, for we have no banks in the borough. They started one and able men made strenuous efforts to maintain it as a local institution, but it was transferred to Plainfield. If we want to be amused we go over to the city. We get our lights and our water from the city. We must go there to get books from the library and though it is a free library we residents of the borough must pay for this privilege. Where is the independence in such a situation as this? We are the most dependent community in the world.

Our population is about 23 per cent. of the combined municipalities since we have practically no business property or stores of our own, but shop on Front street, it follows that we create 23 per cent. of the values there, which impounds our ratables and enriches Plainfield to that extent. Does anybody regard such a situation as fair to ourselves It may be independence. I call it stupidity on our part to let it longer continue.

GEO. T. ROGERS.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

It is difficult to see how any taxpayer of the borough can object to consolidation in view of the telling argument given by the tax figures. Everybody knows that a tax rate is governed by the ratables or property values, that if these ratables are increased it tends to decrease the tax rate and vice versa. It is also well known that there has been a tendency to equalize the tax ratables throughout the State. This is especially true of Plainfield and North Plainfield. The ratables have been brought up to as high a figure as the properties will stand in order to keep the tax rate down, and it is fair to assume that while there are many exceptions no doubt the general tax values of property are as near their actual values in the city as in the borough, yet for the year 1913, the city tax rate is 1.87 while the borough tax rate is 2.26. This large difference cannot be accounted for by the difference in the county tax, nor can it be accounted for by the difference in valuation. It can, however, be accounted for by the fact, which is plain to everybody, that Plainfield grows, and as it grows there is more property to tax and the property which had been valued before is able, through increased values, to stand higher valuations. This is especially true along Front street and Park avenue, and it applies to all communities which put in improvements. They pay for them mostly out of increased values in property and not out of increased taxes.

The borough has no sewer system yet the reports recently published show that its tax rate in 1914 will go up ten points higher to 2.36.

What is going to happen when the borough installs a sewerage system? It has been estimated that the interest alone on the sewer bonds will add twenty-five points to the tax rate. There is no surer way to discourage capital than by high taxes and high taxes always tend to depreciate values in real estate and to retard healthy growth.

EDGAR F. SHEPPARD.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

In connection with the present movement to unite the borough and city governments it is of interest to note the following interviews, clippings of which are before me, published in Plainfield, on March 8, 1906:

"Former Mayor Saunders began by quoting a remark by Dr. H. K. Carroll, who said, some years ago, 'Every fair minded citizen must admit that the two towns ought to be one, but I don't expect to live to see it, for you can't get the politicians to agree upon it.'. He said: 'There is a bill, Assembly bill 155, now in existence and under this act we might consolidate.'

"'It is not an unusual thing to have a city in different counties. As an instance New York, which is in several counties.

"'We are located on the brook and are growing along the line of Front street and the Central Railroad of New Jersey. This makes Plainfield and North Plainfield three times as long as it is broad. North Plainfield simply represents the overflow from Plainfield and in this respect we are not like Dunellen or the Oranges. We have tried to build stores in the borough, but they did not prosper as we had hoped.

"'North Plainfield is growing alongside of Plainfield and naturally is a part of it. Plainfield is to the borough like a circus in town; it takes our money away and we are building up Plainfield, but not getting a cent in return.

"'Plainfield in 1900 had a property valuation of $8,329,500; in 1905 its valuation was $10,192,000, a gain of twenty-two per cent. The borough in 1900 had a valuation of $2,302,225; in 1905 it had a valuation of $2,655,700, a gain of twelve per cent. As to population, Plainfield in 1900 had 15,377; in 1905 it had 18,478. The borough in 1900 had 5,009 population and in 1905 5,616, a gain of about twelve per cent.

"'This must mean something to us in the borough. It indicates that there must be some advantage in consolidation. Some may think we ought to change the county line first, but this line will change itself after consolidation."

"James E. Martine said: 'It is the merest farce to maintain two sets of government so near together. I believe the people are honestly in favor of consolidation. I believe it would advance the interests of both city and borough to put the population in its true light before the community. I want to see a combination of city and borough and the municipal ownership of sewers, water and gas.'

"Former Senator Charles A. Reed said:

"'Ihave concluded that when we begin advocating a great public improvement a large part of North Plainfield will go up against it. The only way to do is to sit down and wait till the opponents see the wisdom of the proposition, and then they will come around. It may take them years to learn, but they will learn in time. They are beginning now to see that sewers would be less expensive than the present cesspool system. The very ones needing the sewers most, because they have cesspools under their windows, are the ones who have fought against the sewer proposition the hardest. Those who need sewers least, having plenty of room for cesspools without annoyance, and who would be taxed most for this improvement, have been the ones willing to advocate the sewer system.

"'If you want consolidation the only way for you to do is to go ahead and consolidate. If you wait till you can see twenty years ahead and all that is to be gained by it before you consolidate you will never get it. But I believe consolidation is coming. It may not be in our time, but when it is done every one will wonder why it was not done long before.'

"Andrew E. Kenney said: 'The time is ripe to begin again on this matter of consolidation, but I would like to see it started by a different lot of men from the ones who started it before, so as to eliminate all charges that it is a political measure. Several of the strongest opponents before, are now in favor of consolidation. Let this sewer element take hold and start it up. If such men as W. C. Smith, W. G. Debele and L. E. Barkalew would start in and undo what they did during the first attempt at consolidation we could get it in a short time.'

"W. R. Coddington said: 'I fail to see why Plainfield should object to consolidation with the borough, and I see why it would be to her advantage. The sewer system, for instance, could be conducted for both towns more cheaply than each could maintain its own system. I feel that both towns would be better for being united.'

"W. G. Debele said: 'I was one of the 'kickers' a few years ago, but I feel differently about it now. I know others, also, who feel about now as I do. In a conversation later Mr. Debele said that when consolidation was up before there probably would not have been so much opposition to it in the borough if the volunteer firemen had not had their hopes set on a new firehouse, and had not been afraid that it would absorb them and the firehouse project.'

"William C. Smith said: 'When we were voting on the consolidation measure the proposition was not fully understood. We could not get it clear whether we would get annexation along with consolidation or whether we were simply to be consolidated and still remain in Somerset county. If this had been fully understood the vote would probably have been different.'"

JOHN P. EMMONS.

EAGLES ELECT LOCAL MAN GRAND BARD

Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan Honored by Knights of the Golden Eagle.

Trenton, Sept. 22—Representing seventy subordinate castles throughout the State the delegates to the thirty-first annual session of the Grand State Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, convened here yesterday in the Ribsam building with Grand Chief Walton H. Chew, of Pitman, presiding.

The session began at 10 a. m. The most important items of business being considered are the election of officers for the ensuing year and the project to establish an orphans' fund in the State, which also came in for some consideration at the convention of a year ago.

Officers were elected last evening as follows: John D. F. Morgan, Camden, grand chief; Frederick P. Cook, Point Pleasant, vice-grand chief; Horatio Clayton, Spring Lake, grand high priest; A. L. Clark, Trenton, grand master of records; Samuel W. Wyckoff, Trenton, grand keeper of exchequer; Percy W. Owen, Bridgeton, grand sir herald; Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, Plainfield, grand bard; Grover B. Slosson, Trenton, grand first guardsman; Robert S. Turton, New Brunswick, grand second guardsman; Walter H. Chew, Pitman, representative to the grand council of the United States.

Owing to the fact that many of the delegaes are anxious to return home in time to vote at today's primary election the elaborate celebration planned for last evening to observe the eighteenth anniversary of the grand castle's organization was called off. A short observance of the occasion took place yesterday afternoon.

HOME CIRCLE NEWS

The arrival of new Fall shipments from America's greatest furniture factories enables us to include in next week's offerings the most up-to-date, and the handsomest home furnishings ever displayed in this city. War talk has had no effect on our prices. You will find bigger bargains this coming week than ever before.

DINING-ROOM SET

Extension Table and six Dining Chairs. The Table is a handsome 6-ft. solid oak 42-inch round top, with heavy pedestal and carved claw feet, golden oak finish. The Chairs are solid oak, box seat with cane, or saddle seat, golden oak finish; the regular price of this combination is $27.25; special..... 20.50

Take Advantage of Our Liberal Terms.

$1.00 a Week Buys $50.00 Worth

OPEN AN ACCOUNT—YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

THIS BEAUTIFUL BED

is a massive 2-inch continuous post design, with large husks on each post supported by seven heavy fillers in the head and foot. The entire bed is made of extra heavy brass tubing, finished in bright, satin or pollet; guaranteed indestructible lacquer; special at 19.25

MIRON & LIFSON

134 E. FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, 163-165 FIRST ST. ELIZABETH

Free Auto Deliveries Anywhere. Easy, Liberal Credit.

The industrial depression requires the election of a Republican Congress to remedy the situation.

Why Not Vote For

John H. Capstick

Regular Republican candidate for Congress of the Fifth District,

Who when nominated is sure to be elected.

A successful business man for

A responsible business position.

—Paid for by the John H. Capstick Campaign Committee.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING.

The first fall meeting of the North Plainfield Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the Somerset street school building tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. An address will be made by Supervising Principal Aungst and J. A. Van Mater, the latter a member of the Borough Board of Education. All of those interested in the association are invited to be present.

VETS TO HOLD REUNION.

The twenty-fourth annual reunion of the Thirtieth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteer Association, will be held in the armory at Somerville, Wednesday, October 7, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. There are a number of Plainfield members who are planning to attend the reunion.

The World Set Free!

By H. G. Wells

Copyright 1914, by H. G. Wells.

CHAPTER X.

The Strange Aeroplane.

ONE single monarch held out against the general acquiescence in the new rule, and that was that strange survival of mediaevalism, the "Slavic fox," the king of the Balkans. He debated and delayed his submissions. He showed an extraordinary combination of cunning and temerity in his evasion of the repeated summonses from Brissago. He affected ill health and a great preoccupation with his new official mistress, for his semibarbaric court was arranged on the best romantic models. His tactics were ably seconded by Dr. Pestovitch, his chief minister.

Failing to establish his claims to complete independence, King Ferdinand Charles annoyed the conference by a proposal to be treated as a protected state. Finally he professed an uncovering submission and put a mass of obstacles in the way of the transfer of his national officials to the new government. In these things he was enthusiastically supported by his subjects, still for the most part an illiterate peasantry, passionately if confusedly patriotic and so far with no practical knowledge of the effect of atomic bombs. More particularly he retained control of all the Balkan aeroplanes.

For once the extreme naivete of Leblanc seems to have been mitigated by duplicity. He went on with the general pacification of the world as if the Balkan submission was made in absolute good faith, and he announced the disbandment of the force of aeroplanes that had hitherto guarded the council at Brissago upon the approaching 15th of July. But instead he doubled the number upon duty on that eventful day and made various arrangements for their disposition. He consulted certain experts, and when he took King Egbert into his confidence there was something in his neat and explicit foresight that brought back to that ex-monarch's mind his half forgotten fantasy of Leblanc as a fisherman under a green umbrella.

About 5 o'clock in the morning of the 17th of July one of the outer sentinels of the Brissago fleet, which was soaring unobtrusively over the lower end of the lake of Garda, sighted and hailed a strange aeroplane that was flying westward and, failing to get a satisfactory reply, set its wireless apparatus talking and gave chase. A swarm of consorts appeared very promptly over the westward mountains, and before the unknown aeroplane had sighted Como it had a dozen eager attendants closing in upon it. Its driver seems to have hesitated, dropped down among the mountains and then turned southward in flight, only to find an intercepting biplane sweeping across his bows. He then went round into the eye of the rising sun and passed within a hundred yards of his original pursuer.

The sharpshooter therein opened fire at once and showed an intelligent grasp of the situation by disabling the passenger first. The man at the wheel must have heard his companion cry out behind him, but he was too intent on getting away to waste even a glance behind. Twice after that he must have heard shots. He let his engine go, he crouched down, and for twenty minutes he must have steered in the continual expectation of a bullet. It never came, and when at last he glanced round three great planes were close upon him, and his companion, thrice hit, lay dead across his bombs. His followers manifestly did not mean either to upset or shoot him, but inexorably they drove him down, down. At last he was curving and flying a hundred yards or less over the level fields of rice and maize. Ahead of him and dark against the morning sunrise was a village with a very tall and slender campanile and a line of cable bearing metal standards that he could not clear. He stopped his engine abruptly and dropped flat. He may have hoped to get at the bombs when he came down, but his pitiless pursuers drove right over him and shot him as he fell.

Three other aeroplanes curved down and came to rest amid the crushed grass close by the smashed machine. Their passengers descended and ran, holding their light rifles in their hands, toward the debris and the two dead men. The coffin shaped box that had occupied the center of the machine had broken, and three black objects, each with two handles like the ears of a pitcher, lay peacefully amid the litter.

These objects were so tremendously important in the eyes of their captors that they disregarded the two dead men who lay bloody and broken amid the wreckage as they might have disregarded frogs by a country pathway.

"Look! Look!" cried the first. "Here they are!"

"And unbroken!" said the second.

"I've never seen the things before," said the first.

"Bigger than I thought," said the second.

The third comer arrived. He stared for a moment at the bombs and then turned his eyes to the dead man with a crushed chest who lay in a muddy place among the green stems under the center of the machine.

"One can take no risks," he said with a faint suggestion of apology.

The other two now also turned to the victims. "We must signal," said the first man. A shadow passed between them and the sun, and they looked up to see the aeroplane that had fired the last shot.

"Shall we signal?" came a megaphone hail.

"Three bombs," they answered together.

"Where do they come from?" asked the megaphone.

The three sharpshooters looked at each other and then moved toward the dead men. One of them had an idea. "Signal that first," he said, "while we look." They were joined by their aviators for the search, and all six men began a hunt that was necessarily brutal in its haste for some indication of identity. They examined the men's pockets, their bloodstained clothes, the machine, the framework. They turned the bodies over and flung them aside. There was not a tattoo mark. Everything was elaborately free of any indication of its origin.

"He can't find out!" they called at last.

"Not a sign?"

"Not a sign."

"I'm coming down," said the man overhead.

* * * * * * *

The Slavic fox stood upon a metal balcony in his picturesque art nouveau palace that gave upon the precipice that overhung his bright little capital, and beside him stood Pestovitch, grizzled and cunning and now full of an ill suppressed excitement. Behind them the window opened into a large room richly decorated in aluminium and crimson enamel, across which the king, as he glanced ever and again over his shoulder with a gesture of inquiry, could see through the two open doors of a little azure walled antechamber the wireless operator in the turret working at his incessant transcription. Two pompously uniformed messengers waited listlessly in this apartment. The room was furnished with a stately dignity and had in the middle of it a big green baize covered table with the massive white metal inkpots and antiquated sand boxes natural to a new but romantic monarchy. It was the king's council chamber, and about it now in attitudes of suspended intrigue stood the half dozen ministers who constituted his cabinet. They had been summoned for 12 o'clock, but still at half past 12 the king loitered in the balcony and seemed to be waiting for some news that did not come.

The king and his minister had talked at first in whispers; they had fallen silent, for they found little now to express except a vague anxiety. Away there on the mountain side were the white metal roofs of the long farm buildings, beneath which the bomb factory and the bombs were hidden. (The chemist who had made all these for the king had died suddenly after the declaration of Brissago.) Nobody knew of that store of mischief now but the king and his adviser and three heavily faithful attendants; the aviators who waited now in the midday blaze with their bomb carrying machines and their passenger bomb throwers in the exercising grounds of the motor cyclist barracks below were still in ignorance of the position of the ammunition they were presently to take up. It was time they started if the scheme was to work as Pestovitch had planned it. It was a magnificent plan. It aimed at no less than the empire of the world. The government of idealists and professors away there at Brissago was to be blown to fragments, and then east, west, north and south those aeroplanes would go swarming over a world that had disarmed itself to proclaim Ferdinand Charles, the new Caesar, the master, lord of the earth.

It was a magnificent plan. But the tension of this waiting for news of the success of the first blow was—considerable.

The Slavic fox was of a pallid fairness, he had a remarkably long nose, a thick, short mustache and small blue eyes that were a little too near together to be pleasant. It was his habit to worry his mustache with short, nervous tugs whenever his restless mind troubled him, and now this emotion was becoming so incessant that it irked Pestovitch beyond the limits of endurance.

"I will go," said the minister, "and see what the trouble is with the wireless. They give us nothing, good or bad."

Left to himself, the king could worry his mustache without stint. He leaned his elbows forward on the balcony and gave both of his long white hands to the work, so that he looked like a pale dog gnawing a bone. Suppose they caught his men, what should he do? Suppose they caught his men?

(To be continued.)

805 North Avenue. Telephone 290-W.

A. Colucci

SEWER & GENERAL CONTRACTOR

Estimates Cheerfully Given.

All work warranted. Best reference

6 17 tf

Hoagland's Express

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.

Telephone 883-W.

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

—You find the "short road" to employment when you tell what you can do—interestingly, frankly—in a want ad.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

This apron is the simplest garment possible, there being only underarm seams, and mothers will recognize the fact that the kimono sleeves mean no danger of rumpling the frock or blouse that may be worn beneath.

GIRL'S APRON.

The apron is made of dotted percale trimmed with bands of plain color to match the dot, but ginghams are liked for such aprons, as well as natural colored linen and all sturdy materials.

For the ten year size the apron will require two and five-eights yards of material twenty-seven inches wide with one-half yard twenty-seven inches wide for the bands.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for girls from eight to twelve years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 8394, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No..... Size.....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

Hunterdon County.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell, of New York, were week-end guests of Mrs. Russell's mother, Mrs. Jeannette Dean, of Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller H. Potter and daughter, Miss Alice Potter, of Glen Gardner, are spending a week with relatives in New York and Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sims, of Jersey City, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, in Hampton.

Mrs. Eva Sells, of Hampton, is visiting her uncle, J. P. Castner, of Changewater.

Mrs. Frank Hoppock and daughter, Miss Mildred Hoppock, of East Orange, are spending some time in Annandale.

Mrs. O. B. Philhower, of Annandale, has as her guest her mother, Mrs. John Smith, of Califon.

Mrs. A. B. Smith and son, of Philadelphia, are spending a few days in Clinton.

Mrs. Asher Capron, of Canada, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Potter, of Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Miller and son, Robert Miller, of Glen Gardner, were week-end guests of relatives in Allentown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crater, of Glen Gardner, were with relatives in Easton, Pa., over Sunday.

COMING EVENTS.

TODAY.

Primary Day.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.
Consolidation Meeting in Borough.

TOMORROW.

Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.
Photo-play at Plainfield Theatre.
Consolidation Meeting in Borough.
Boro Parent-Teachers' Meeting.
United Hebrew Charities Mass Meeting.

THURSDAY.

Consolidation Election in the Borough.
"Sari" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

FRIDAY.

Building Trades Council.
Central Civic Organization Meets.
"The Yellow Ticket" at Plainfield Theatre.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

SATURDAY.

Baseball—Plainfield vs. Saurers, at Parker Field.
Vaudeville at Proctor's Theatre.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

Some Cookery Suggestions

PICCALILLIS.

THESE popular relishes may be now put away by the housewife. There are various ways of making them and various ingredients for their composition. They are inexpensive and useful.

Popular Relishes.

Green Tomato Piccalilli.—Take one peck of green tomatoes, one-half peck of onions sliced, one cauliflower and one peck of small cucumbers. Let stand in salt and water twenty-four hours, drain and put in a kettle with a cupful of grated horseradish, one ounce of turmeric, one ounce of whole cloves, one-fourth pound whole pepper, one ounce of cinnamon, one pound of white mustard seed and one pound of English mustard. Cover with cold vinegar, put on to cook and when the mixture comes to a boil cook it a quarter of an hour. Seal while hot.

Cucumber Piccalilli.—Take one peck ripe cucumbers, one-half teacupful salt, two green peppers, six onions and spices if you like. Peel and chop the cucumbers, using the coarsest knife of the chopper. Put in a strainer, cover with salt and press to get the water out. Then add peppers and onions, chopped fine. Put in kettle, cover with vinegar and cook until soft.

A Convenient Method.

Piccalilli Without Cooking.—Take one large head of cabbage and half a peck of green tomatoes, two quarts of ripe tomatoes, six onions, six green peppers, two red peppers, half a cupful of grated horseradish, half a teaspoonful of black pepper, an even teaspoonful of mustard, an ounce of white mustard seed, an ounce of celery seed, a tablespoonful of ground mace, a gill of Dutch mustard and either a pint and a half or two quarts of sugar, or even more if a very sweet pickle is wanted. Pack all the peppers, onions, tomatoes and cabbage, after chopping them fine, in layers, in a coarse bag, with salt between the layers. Place the bag upon a rack with a big bowl beneath to catch the droppings. Place a weight over the bag and let stand overnight. In the morning the vegetables in the bag will be quite dry. To them add the ground pepper, the mustard, mustard seed, celery seed and other seasonings. Add the sugar last of all, tasting to see how much is required. Put the chowchow into sterilized stone jars and cover it with cold vinegar. Divide the horseradish among the jars just before putting on the covers.

Anna Thompson

Daddy's Bedtime Story—A Monkey Warns His Master Of Robbers.

Such a Fuss as Tony Made Then.

"I HAVEN'T told you a story about a monkey in a long time, have I, kiddies?" asked daddy.

"No, daddy; not in a long time," said Jack and Evelyn, who were sitting upon the broad settee by daddy's side.

"I heard a good one the other day that I'll tell you. Down in the lower part of New York city there is a settlement of Italians. Among them is a man named Pasquale Fiorella.

"Pasquale owns a monkey and a tiny old fashioned hand organ, which he carries around with the monkey perched on top of it.

"The monkey's name is Tony, and when Pasquale takes him out on the top of the little hand organ he wears blue breeches with a scarlet stripe down the sides, a scarlet jacket buttoned with brass buttons and a little pill box cap cocked jauntily upon one side of his head.

"The little chap runs up and down the fire escapes to get the pennies for his master. So one evening when Pasquale was playing in the street he was not surprised to see Tony come flying down the fire escape which led from the flat where Pasquale lived with his wife.

"What did surprise Pasquale, however, was the fact that Tony was tied up in a pillowcase.

"Pasquale caught the little fellow as he reached the ground and, untying the pillowcase, let Tony scramble up on his shoulder, where he sat and chattered and grimaced and trembled until Pasquale thought he had better see what had caused all this tempest in a teapot.

"He reached the flat and burst through the door. Lying upon a bed in one corner of the room he found Mrs. Fiorella, bound and gagged.

"Such a fuss as Tony made then! Around and around the bed he ran, giving a very good imitation of a fight.

"When Pasquale's wife regained her consciousness she told Pasquale that two men had entered the flat, bound and gagged her and, catching Tony, had tied the pillowcase over Tony's head.

"But Tony had fought so like a little demon that he frightened the would be robbers away. Then he had bounded out of the window and down the fire escape.

"Tony is very proud now of the new clothes which his master has bought him to reward him for having scared the burglars.

"And Pasquale is very proud of his little pet and tells every one the story of how Tony saved the flat from being robbed.

"Good night, kiddies, and pleasant dreams."

Store Open Saturdays All Day

Kleen Kup

The sanitary vessel for home preserving of Jam, Jelly, Marmalade and Food Products of a similar nature keeps the preserves in a perfect condition, stops light which stops decay. Their value is unequalled. More than 10,000,000 sold in England in 1913. ½-pint size, 25 cents per dozen.

FOR SALE BY

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

New Furniture and Bedding

The new styles for Fall and Winter can now be seen on our floors at prices that will prove of interest to you.

New Rugs

Large variety from which to make your selection direct from the mills of the leading manufacturers.

WINDOW SHADES

Special Sizes Made to Order

L. B. Van Camp

Front & Somerset Sts.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Hartridge School

202 WEST SEVENTH STREET,

Corner of Arlington Avenue,

Will be re-opened September 28th.

A private school carefully graded throughout. Special arrangements for children not prepared for regular grades. Number in each class limited. Modern equipment. Eighteen instructors. Special teachers of French, German, Art, Music, Calisthenics and Dancing.

MONTESSORI and OUTDOOR CLASS for children under six years.

ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT seven grades. Boys received in lower grades.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT five grades.

General and College Preparatory Courses. Certificate admits to Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.

GYMNASIUM

Regular morning classes in Calisthenics and Aesthetic Dancing. Special afternoon classes in Gymnastics, Basket-ball, Fencing and Hockey.

Emelyn B. Hartridge, A. B., Principal.

For circulars or for further particulars address

Miss Hartridge, Oakwood, Tel. 35.

MR. LEAL'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS

Will Be Re-opened on

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

Main School, 433 W. Front St.

Junior School, 450 W. Seventh St.

JOHN LEAL, Principal.

C. D. WARDLAW, Associate Principal.

9 8 tf

Plainfield Seminary

A PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Will Re-open On

THURSDAY, SEPT. 24

PRIMARY AND ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS

COLLEGE PREPARATORY

ISABEL S. ARNOLD, Principal

Ninteenth Season.

MR. FREDERICK F. DAWES

Assistant Teacher with Mr. T. George Dodworth 12 East Forty-ninth Street, New York

CLASSES FOR DANCING AND POLITE TRAINING

AT

SEMINARY HALL

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Commencing Tuesday, October 13, 1914 9 8 2mo

Miss Rae Pla de Villars

Will reopen her school for young children at 95 GROVE STREET, NORTH PLAINFIELD, on Monday, September 28, 1914. Unspared individual attention. 9 9 1mo

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION

GEO. C. M. SMITH

Tenth Season

51 CRAIG PLACE. TEL. 740-J.

9 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

EAST FRONT STREET.

Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET

Newly Painted and papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.

Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.

W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.

97 Somerset Street Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE

GENERAL NEWS TICKER.

Stock quotations.

Up to the Minute.

'PHONE 1527.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

May 20th, 1914.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:20, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:20, 2:30, 5:00, 5:20, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 7:45, 10:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:30, 5.45, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:45 a. m., 12:45 and 7:08 p. m. Close—6:20, 7:45 a. m., 1:20, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:20 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:20, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1.30, 3:50 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:20, 11:20 a. m., 1:20, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:20, 11:20 a. m., 1:20, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:20 a. m., 1:20, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:40 a. m., 1:20, 2:00, 5:20 p. m. Close 7:45, 10:00 a. m., 12 noon, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:45 a. m., 1:20, 2:20, 5:20 p. m. Close—6:20, 7:45, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:45, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 5:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 8:30 to 10:30 a. m.

A. E. HOAGLAND, P. M.

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JAMES C. HANSEN

DECORATOR

DEALER IN

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, VARNISHES, Etc.

141 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's Pure Colors Ready Mixed Paints, Etc.

Gibraltar Fire Resisting Paint

will spread farther and will last longer than other goods, and gives you fire protection at no more cost.

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE

SOLE AGENTS

will give you an estimate on painting your home with these goods.

L. B. Woolston. H. F. Woolston.

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE CO

Painters and Decorators.

143-145 NORTH AVENUE.

Established 1880. 'Phone 1086.

4 28 tu-w tf

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. —Adv.

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOMS

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues.

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1954.

OPP. DEPOT.

FLOORS

Laying, Scraping, Finishing, Refinishing of Thin and Heavy Hardwood and Softwood Flooring.

Estimates Cheerfully Furnished.

GEO. E. WATT

214 NEW ST. Tel. 966-W

FLOORS

HARDWOOD AND PARQUET

Old Floors Refinished.

S. E. WARD & CO.

108 Depot Park, Manning Building,

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 823-R.

—You may have an immediate task for a want ad—and yet not act wisely in failing to read them day by day.

PHONE YOUR ADS

1300

ONE CENT A WORD

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — The Boss Is Very Brave When He Hasn't Anything Else to Do — BY "HOP"

Weiss says

When you have any slight sickness use one of the

"Rexall Remedies"

—One for each ill—each one guaranteed.

Weiss' CORD DRUG STORE

The Rexall Store

SOMERSET ST. & CRAIG PLACE

Free Delivery

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2:10, 3:47, 5:08, 5:40 (5:52 except holidays), 6:27, 6:55, 7:22 (7:26 except holidays), 7:41, 7:44, (7:58 except holidays), 7:58, 8:12, 8:30 (except holidays), 8:36, 8:42, 8:59, 9:29, 9:53, 10:26, 11:27, 11:52 a. m.; 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:25, 2:39, 2:55, 3:12, 4:01, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:27, 9:30, 10:15, 10:36, 11:42 p. m. Sunday—2:10, 3:41, 5:40, 7:23, 7:58, 8:52, 9:34, 9:49, 10:37, 11:52 a. m., 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:15, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:27, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:21, 10:36 p. m.

For Newark—5:08, 6:27,. (7:05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8:36, 9:29, 10:26, 11:27 a. m., 12:34, 12:58, 1:44, 2:39, 2:55, 4:13, 4:36, 5:39, 6:25, 6:47, 7:41, 8:27, 9:30, 10:36 p. m. Sunday—7:23, 8:52, 9:34, 10:37 a. m. 12:39, 12:58, 1:28, 2:09, 2:55, 3:17, 4:29, 5:34, 7:14, 8:13, 8:35, 8:39, 9:27, 10:36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5:18, *8:20, 9:44, 11:27 a. m.; 2:00, 5:24, 5:44, (6:59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5:19, *9:44, 10:57 a. m.; 1:58, 5:44, 7:05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5:18, 9:44 a. m.; 5:44 p. m. Sunday—5:19, 10:57 a. m., 5:44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3:41, 8:12, (9:29 Red Bank), 11:27 a. m., (12:34 Saturday only) (12:58 Red Bank only), (3:12 Red Bank only), 4:36, 6:25, 8:27, 11:42 p. m. Sundays—3:41, (7:58 Red Bank only), 8:52 a. m.; (9:40 Red Bank only), (2:15 Red Bank only), 3:17, (8:13 Red Bank only), 8:35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3:41, 9:29 a. m. (12:34 Saturdays only), 5:12. Sunday—9:40 a. m. 2:15 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6:38, 7:39, 8:45, 10:43 11:53 a. m., 12:42, 1:54, 2:45, 5:13, 6:44 8:47, 9:46, 10:48 p. m., 1:20 a. m. Sundays—5:19, 8:45, 9:39, 9:57, 10.39, 10:43, 11:41 a. m., 12:42, 1:44, 2:45, 3:42, 4:39, 4:56, 5:39, 6:39, 6:44, 8:47, 9:46, 10:55, 11:54 p. m., 1:20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8:45, 10:43 a. m., 12:42, 2:45 6:44 p. m. *Except Manch Chunk. 6-4-1

Probably

You are not aware that we are selling bulbs of all varieties for pots or planting put cheaper than they can be obtained elsewhere.

We are cutting daily from our fifteen greenhouses quantites of Roses, Carnations, Chrysanthemums, etc.

Floral designs, wedding boquets and decorations at lowest prices; satisfaction guaranteed.

Cut Flowers delivered to any city in the United States.

Let us call on you and submit plans and prices for your landscape work; we have a large stock of evergreens, ornamental trees and shrubs.

Charles L. Stanley

Store 159 E. Front St. Phone 928
Greenhouses South Ave. Phone 331-J

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St.
Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
612 E Sixth St.
Tel. 741-R

CLASSIFIED RATES.

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

Estab. 1868 Tel. 2354
J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS
UNDERTAKERS.
Private Funeral Chapel
109-111 West Fourth Street
Auto Cortege for Long Distance.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. | Telephone 2331 | Residence 417 W. 3rd St.
N. Y. Office, 10 E. 22nd St.
Tel. 2094 Gramercy

H. DEMOTT
UNDERTAKER.
56 Somerset St 'Phone 1128-W

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

DIED.

MULFORD—On Monday, September 21, 1914, Lewis Thompson, infant son of Lewis B. and Ruth T. Mulford, in the 2d year of his age.

Services at his parents' residence, 142 Duer street, North Plainfield, on Wednesday, September 23, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside cemetery. 9 21 2

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

$6,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. W. H. Abbott, 134 North Ave. 5 7 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage. H. R. Linbarger, 146 Park avenue; 'phone 1515. 9 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on mortgage Manning & Curtis, 106 Depot Park. 10 14 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY C. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

HOME baking of all kinds made to order; light bread and self-rising bread a specialty; tea, card and luncheon parties served on short notice; excellent service guaranteed. Address Mrs. M. Reid, caterer, Richmond street, or 'phone 459-W. 9 14 1mo

HAVE your cellars whitewashed and cleaned. 663 South Second street. 9 21 6

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT—House and large barn; house 9 rooms, all improvements, large lot 65x215 ft.; numerous fruit trees and grape vines. Reason for selling moving to Harburger property on West Front street. J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 6 27 tf

AUTOMOBILES TO HIRE.

SEVEN passenger touring car for hire. 'Phone 389-R. 9 3 1mo

FOR SALE.

GOOD driving horse for sale, or delivery. I. P. Runyon, 212 Park avenue. 9 16 tf

FOR SALE—Antique. grandfather's clock. Can be seen at Moraller's, 219 Park avenue. 9 21 3

GRAPES for sale, 50c per basket. Garretson, 1037 Sherman avenue. 9 21 3

FOR SALE—In good condition and a great sacrifice, 1 bassdrum, 8 small drums, 7 flutes, 6 bugles. For information concerning same address G. T. Stumpf, P. O. box 121, Garwood, N. J. 9 21 6

BOOKCASES, desks, chairs, pictures, box couch, cherry bed and bureau for sale. 91 Rockview avenue. 9 22 2

FOR SALE—Parlor stove and man's bicycle, almost new. 253 Jackson avenue. 9 22 3

FOR SALE—At Fanwood, N. J., blacksmith shop, tools and stock; fully equipped; reasonable. Apply Scheelen Bros. 9 22 3

FOR SALE—Electric runabout, like new; complete with charging outfit, battery, tires, etc.; in first-class condition; price reasonable. Address Electric, care Press. 9 21 6

GRAPES for sale cheap. 744 Webster place. 9 21 3

FOUR good working horses for sale cheap. Plainfield Ice Supply Co., 222 Madison avenue. 9 17 tf

FOR SALE—300 white leghorns, W. F. Sims, 865 Clinton avenue.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Two small houses, Nos. 660 and 662 South Second St. Apply J. T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 6 3 tf

TWO splendid building lots at South Plainfield, Amboy avenue near Plainfield avenue; $300 for the two. L. V. Walters, 357 West 34th street, New York city. 9 14 12

GOOD opportunity to secure a home on reasonable terms—for sale, ready for occupancy September 1, five double houses, 6 rooms on each floor; also three single houses, 8 rooms; all have modern improvements; corner West Front street and Giraud avenue. Inquire J. Sachar, 612 West Front street. 7 8 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

YOUNG girl wishes position, chambermaid, waitress. 446 West Fifth street. 9 21 3

COLORED woman wants days work or washing to take home, also curtains. Dixon, 617 West Fourth street. 9 22 3

RELIABLE laundress wants washing at home. 626 West Fourth street. 9 22 3

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Pay envelope with Chinese ticket with name and place of employment on it. Finder kindly return to Press office. 9 21 3

LOST—Sunday, on or near road to Bonnie Burn, pair spectacles in case, maker's name "Hoecker." Please return to this office. Reward. 9 21 2

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Tinner's helper for roofing and furnace work. C. Jacobson, 441 West Third street. 9 22 3

WANTED—Boy over 16 years old to deliver telegrams, boy with wheel preferred; good opportunity to learn telegraphy for bright, energetic boy. Western Union. 9 22 2

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, 326 West Front street, near Grove street, for reliable help only; we always have good situations for such and only charge a very moderate fee. 'Phone 666. 3 6 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, Polish preferred. Apply 306 East Second street. 6 15 tf

WANTED—A competent girl to cook and assist with housework and ironing; only those having good references need apply. 672 West Seventh street. 9 17 tf

WANTED—Experienced child's nurse (white); highest personal references required. 1424 Prospect avenue. 9 21 tf

WANTED—Girl to assist with housework. 463 East Seventh street, 'phone 290-W. 9 22 tf

WANTED—Laundry work by the day. 315 Plainfield avenue. 9 22 4

WANTED—Experienced waitress, chambermaid. 'Phone 2187. 9 22 3

WANTED—White girl for general housework, references required. 807 Hillside avenue. 9 22 tf

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Apply 523 Madison avenue or 'phone 320-R. 9 22 2

WANTED—White woman as cook in small family. Mrs. Hatch, 202 West Eighth street.

WANTED—Ladies, $1 dozen making caps at home; we pay you. Send stamped reply envelope for particulars, Gray & Co., Hornell, N. Y. 9 21 12

WANTED—Reliable woman and daughter, woman good cook, girl to be generally useful; short distance in country; references required. 'Phone 2836-W-1 Dunellen. 9 21 2

WANTED—Teacher of Spanish Apply at Mt. St. Mary College. 9 21 6

WANTED—Colored chambermaid, also laundress; references. 209 East Seventh street. 9 21 3

WANTED—White woman for general housework, no washing. Apply 228 East Ninth street. 9 17 tf

WANTED—White laundress one day a week, references required. 502 West Seventh street. 9 21 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—By the Charity Organization Society second-hand clothing for school children. Any clothing for boys or girls of school age can be used. Many children whose fathers are out of work cannot go to school unless helped with clothing by this society. Telephone 103 and a wagon will be sent to collect the packages. 9 10 12

DINING-ROOM or lunch counter privilege wanted in hotel, club, cafe or amusement places; exquisite service. L. Haslwanter, 728 West Front street. 9 17 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

BACHELORS, teachers or married couple may select apartment, two attractive rooms and bath with board, exclusive neighborhood; easy access to station. 502 Woodland avenue. 9 22 3

FURNISHED room with board. 440 West Front street, 'phone 418-M. 9 16 1mo

TWO large, sunny rooms on second and third floors, with board. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 9 12 tf

LARGE front room with board in private family. 149 Crescent avenue, 'phone 447-J. 9 14 12

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

YOUNG man, colored, wants a butler's position; present employed. Write or call J. Ford, The Homestead, Fanwood, N. J. 9 21 3

FOR RENT.

TO REAL ESTATE BROKERS—76 ROCKVIEW AVENUE FOR SALE OR TO LET; GROUNDS ABOUT 140x450; BRICK HOUSE; 12 ROOMS, LARGE GARAGE, ETC. FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS AND PHOTOS PLEASE ADDRESS CHARLES HARMS, 17 SOUTH STREET, NEW YORK. 9 19 6

FOR RENT.

HOUSES, $12 to $50; flats, $1' to $30; stores, $7 upwards. D. McInnes, 824 West Third street, Tel 1198-W. 6 30 tf

FLAT TO LET—New two-family house, all improvements; just completed. 1222 West Third street near Clinton avenue. 9 2 1mo

TO RENT—A very pleasant room in a desirable house and location. L. M., care Press. 9 18 6

FOR RENT—One side of the double house 43-45 Jackson avenue, N. Plainfield, 7 rooms, bathroom, hot water heat. Inquire at Keller's, 157 Watchung avenue. 9 21 tf

TO LET—From Nov. 1 to April 1, nicely furnished house with garage; rent reasonable to right party; no children. Call 257 Somerset street, tel. 2253-W. 9 21 6

FOR RENT—House, 6 rooms and bath, all improvements, large yard, fruit, etc.; 1 block from trolley, 3 minutes from station. Inquire 451 Orchard place or J. Abrams, West Front street. 9 21 3

NICELY furnished house to rent to small family, no children, from Oct. 1 to May 1; seven rooms, all modern improvements, good neighborhood; rent reasonable. Address Very Reasonable, care Press. 9 22 3

HOUSES TO LET OR FOR SALE in good sections; farms, factory sites, building lots; get prices and terms. 148 North avenue, Plainfield; 'phone 333-J. E. Byers.

STORE FOR RENT—Stirling building. Apply The Plainfield Trust Co. 9 21 3

FOR RENT—7-room house, all latest improvements, hot water heat, $25; also 7-room house, part improvements, $17. D. F. Dugan, 511 East Seventh street. 9 18 tf

TO LET—One-half new semi-detached house, all improvements; Henry place, Netherwood; six rooms and bath; rent low to good tenants. C. M. Church, 710 East Front street. 9 17 6

TO RENT—8-room house, all improvements, large lot, well shaded; low rent to good tenant. Inquire C. Van Herwerden, 1312 South avenue. 9 5 tf

TO LET—Four rooms, rent reasonable. 402 West Third street. 9 2 tf

SIX-ROOM flat to let, all improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Brothers, Watchung avenue and Fifth street. 8 24 tf

TO LET—Two furnished rooms to let for light housekeeping. 308 East Front street. 9 19 3

FOR RENT — Large, pleasant rooms connecting with bath. 313 West Sixth street. 9 19 6

FOR RENT— rooms, very cheap. J. Manley, 321 Park avenue. 8 20 tf

TO LET—Six-room apartment, all improvements. 416 East Fifth street. 8 11 tf

TEN-ROOM house, 418 East Second street; all improvements. William Newcorn. 9 11 t

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

TO LET—5 room apartment, central location; all improvements. Inquire 306 East Front street. 4 25 tf

TO LET—Office in the Kresge building, 130-138 West Front street; every improvement, rent reasonable. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

FOR RENT—Large corner store and office in the Depew building, corner of Park and North avenues. Chas. H. Lyman & Son, 220 Park avenue. 5 9 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let or Webster place, near Seventh street with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

WE WILL RECEIVE EVERY DAY THIS WEEK
200 Baskets
Fancy Alberta Peaches
ESPECIALLY FINE FOR CANNING.
ALSO
Fine Bartlett Pears
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage
WAREHOUSE
North Avenue
OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE
125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.
OLD RELIABLE
STORAGE
All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry
Furniture Packed and Shipped
Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS
THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.
AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.
Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.
Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.
R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading
Auctioneers
W. A. SCHORB & CO.
Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.
120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg
Telephone 1707-W.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL,
TELEGRAM, AMERICAN,
BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Low cost, liberal policies, with high guarantees are issued by

The Prudential

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President

"The Bank that pays 4%"

Resources $5,000,000.00

SAVING THE "EXTRAS"

Did it ever occur to you that this is one of the easiest ways of accumulating money? Dividends, interest on bonds, mortgages and other securities, gifts of money—anything, in fact, that is not needed for actual living expenses, should be laid aside in a special account instead of being frittered away. The habit can soon be formed and there is a fascination about watching such an account grow. We invite you to test the truth of this statement by opening an "income account" in our Special Department which will be subject to

4% COMPOUND INTEREST.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

ANNIVERSARY SALE

ROTH & CO.

Spring Lamb for Roasting, lb	12½c
Forequarters of Spring Lamb, lb	12½c

LAMB! ANNIVERSARY PRICE

HINDQUARTERS of GENUINE LAMB, weighing 5½ to 7 lbs; lb	18c
TOP LAMB, lb	18c
LEGS OF MUTTON, lb	15½c
Flank Steak, all meat, no bone, lb	18c
Anniversary Sirloin Steak, lb	20c
Anniversary Porterhouse Steak, lb	22c
Pure Sausage, link or meat; lb	20c
Fancy Salt Pork, weighing 2½ to 4 lbs; lb	14c
Boneless Bacon, by strip, lb	19½c
Little Neck Clams, dozen 7c / Oysters, 25 for	25c
Anniversary Top Sirloin, weighing 3 to 4 lbs; your choice, lb	22c

Electrical Goods

Complete Lines of

SEMI-INDIRECT LIGHTING FIXTURES,

SHOWERS, ELECTRIC LAMPS,

IRONS, HEATERS, STOVES, AND TOASTERS.

JOSEPH W. GAVETT

318 WEST FRONT STREET

Insurance is a commodity which has to be bought on faith. You have to have faith that your agent gives you a form that properly covers your requirements and faith in the company he represents.

When you get insurance from us, you can rest assured that your protection is absolute.

FREDERICK A. MARTIN CO.

(Successor to Elston M. French Insurance Agency)

171 NORTH AVENUE Telephone 2304

Insurance Mortgages Real Estate

The Oldest Insurance Agency in This City.

$2.50 TO GETTYSBURG AND RETURN VIA New Jersey Central

Special Excursion SUNDAY, OCT. 4, 1914

SPECIAL TRAIN

Leaves Plainfield 12:46; Grant Ave., 12:48; Clinton Ave., 12:50 a. m.

RETURNING, Special Train leaves Gettysburg at 3:00 p. m. October 4.

Consult

C. K. Armstrong, D. P. A.

Broad Street Station, Newark. 'Phone Market 5300.

QUAKER ICE CREAM

"THE BETTER KIND"

40c QUART at store 50c QUART Delivered

SUNDAY DELIVERY

Orders for Sunday Delivery must be received by twelve o'clock on Saturday.

DELICIOUS "PURE FRUIT" SUNDAES

QUAKER CANDIES

The Real Old-Fashioned CHOCOLATES

Pure and Wholesome

One Grade The Best — One Price 40c lb.

THE QUAKER SHOP

174 E. FRONT ST. Plainfield

Phone 1913-J

REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

MANNING & CURTIS

106 DEPOT PARK

—it pays to use the advertising columns of The Press.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT CASH PRICES

$1 WEEKLY TO ALL

EXPERT knowledge of clothing, hats and shoes enables us to buy to such advantage that it is a difficult matter for newer, less experienced concerns to meet our prices and easy terms of credit.

That this is more than a mere advertising claim is a matter which you can easily prove with a little effort.

Shop around a bit and compare our goods, prices and terms with others. We're not afraid!

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS

J. A. LAURIE & CO.

304 West Front Street, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye-trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.

Hours 10 to 4:30.

Keep cool during the summer. Buy your bread and cake at "THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE" 207 Park Ave. Tel. 850.

DR. MANDEVILLE SPECIALIST

565 Broad St., opposite Shubert's Theatre, Newark, N. J.

Twenty years' experience as a specialist on all chronic diseases of MEN AND WOMEN.

Catarrh, Nervous Diseases, Diseases of Heart, Kidneys, Stomach, Liver or Bladder, Rheumatism and all Lung Diseases. Office Hours Daily, 2 to 4 p. m.; 6 to 8 p. m. Mornings: Tuesdays and Fridays, 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Closed all day Saturday.

ADVICE FREE.

Don't Forget Name, Place and Number

22 tu-th-s tf

TAKE NOTICE!

We will sell at PUBLIC AUCTION at Hand's Storage Wareshouse, 69 Somerset Street, North Plainfield, N. J.,

MONDAY, OCT. 5, 1914, at 2 P. M., all the goods and chattels stored by the undersigned unless the storage is paid in full by that date.

T. H. Karney, Mrs. F. Quidort, W. D. L. Huillier, Mrs. Fred Carter, Miss Carrie Randolph, Mrs. John Reid, Mrs. Carrie Higgins, Wm. McDonough, Nettie VanDoren, Mrs. Garfield Nelson, Stuart M. Ronaldson.

THE HAND STORAGE & EXPRESS Co., Inc.

Dated, Sept. 19, 1914.

9-19-22-26 10-3.

UPHOLSTERING

WINDOW SHADES

AWNINGS

Frank G. Wikoff

721 W. Fourth St. Tel. 2525-J.

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

FOR THE COMMUTER

The State Trust Company offers the following facilities:

Convenient banking hours: Business may be transacted as early as 8:15 in the morning.

New York checking privileges: Checks may be made payable at the Union Trust Company, New York.

Free collection of out of town checks: Items on points throughout the United States and Canada collected without charge.

Liberal interest: 3% interest on checking accounts of $500.00 or more.

We are now caring for a number of New York business accounts on this basis, and offer our facilities to any New York business man who may be paying exchange on his out of town checks, or who is receiving less than 3% interest in New York.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

CAPITAL $100,000.00

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

Tuesday & Wednesday

RENIE MYERS & CO.

In a Dramatic Playlet "The Confession"

MABEL McDONALD

Accomplished Singing Comedian

Stevenson and Nugent

Comedians

ADIO TRIO

Three Singers—Three Artists

RED RAVEN TRIO

Comedy Sketch "TOO MUCH MRS. JONES"

Photo Plays Changed Daily

WEDNESDAY

The Million Dollar Mystery

PRICES

Matinee—10c, 15c.

Nights—10c, 15c, 25c.

PEACE AND PLENTY

Every citizen of our great country should be thankful that we are at peace with all nations, have good crops and plenty in store. This is the place to get your Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, etc., at Reasonable Prices. Prompt Deliveries.

W. W. Dunn

Park Ave., Near Fifth Street.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling).

Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a Specialty of Olive Oil.

211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 386-W

A. H. ENANDER

SANITARY PLUMBING, GAS FITTING. STEAM AND HOT WATER HEATING.

Contractor for Sewer Connection.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

The departure of the cook or maid does not prostrate the lady who knows the efficiency of Press want ads.

And want ad-reading servants are of the desirable class.

The Van Arsdale Arch Support Shoe

For raising and strengthening a fallen arch; made over the proper lasts and patterns, and recommended by the leading physicians for this trouble. Anatomic Heels, Riveted Shank and Counter to Ball.

Men's and Women's	$6.00
Boys'	$4.50
Youths'	$4.00

Also the celebrated Ground Gripper or Flexo Shank, for men and women.

Van Arsdale's

127 E. Front St.

You'll find a strong line of FALL CLOTHES here; clothes that will stand up against the stiffest kind of criticism.

The kind of clothes you like to wear, the kind you admire.

We especially want you to see our $16.50 FALL OVERCOATS AND SUITS; also the SAM PECK Boys' Clothes, $6.00 up.

Hats—$1.50, $2.00 and $3.00

Sale on $1.50 Shirts at $1.15

SCHWED BROTHERS

Front St., Opp. Park Ave.

Over 29 Years Right Here.

Queen Quality Shoes

Our assortment of these shoes is about complete, and for Style, Fit and Quality, well! you will have to see them. When you buy don't forget Queen Quality Shoes are the leaders in Stylish footwear.

"Oldest Shoe House in Town"

A. K. Willett

107 Park Ave.

The beautiful dwellings you pass in going about this city, and the stores you enter on your shopping trips are nearly all insured in this agency.

If you do not already know the benefits derived from dealing with us, you have missed something worth while.

Automobile fire at 1%.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO.

Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

LOCAL NEWS OF INTEREST will always be found in the classified columns on the page before the last.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Unsettled and cooler tonight and Thursday, moderate, variable winds. Max., 95 ; min., 59.

Established May 10, 1887. TWELVE PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 23, 1914. TWELVE PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

MISS BLENDINGER CHARMING BRIDE

Becomes the Wife of Herbert W. Schaefer, of New York.

DR. ZELIE OFFICIATES

Ceremony Performed In Presence of Two Hundred Guests—Reception Follows—Couple Will Reside In Upper Montclair.

Miss Marguerite Blendinger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lawrence Blendinger, of Central avenue, and Herbert William Shaefer, of New York, son of Rev. and Mrs. John Schaefer, of Milwaukee, Wis., were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of about two hundred relatives and friends from New York, Brooklyn, Newark, this city and several distant points.

The bride was gowned in white Salome velvet, trimmed with princess lace. She wore a tulle veil, caught up with orange blossoms and carried Easter lilies. She was attended by Mrs. Birney B. Pettigrue, of New York, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Zelie, as matron of honor, for whom Miss Blendinger was a bridesmaid at her wedding; Miss Dorothy Blendinger, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and the Misses Anna Yerkes, Mary Rushmore, Abbie Holstein, Helen Harrington, of this city; Gretchen Schaefer, sister of the bridegroom; Dorothy Droste and Marguerite Jacquette, of New York, as bridesmaids. Mrs. Pettigrue wore her wedding gown of white satin and carried yellow roses, while the maid of honor wore a gown of yellow taffeta trimmed with lace and carried yellow roses. The bridesmaids were gowned in green taffeta, trimmed with cream lace. They carried a chain of smilax through which the bridal party walked to the music room, where the ceremony was performed.

Dr. Leon Cornwell, of New York, was the best man and the ushers were Henry Sheldon, Lawrence Coit, Kenneth Underwood, Edward Campbell, George Shedden, Merritt Smith, Jr., Benjamin Young and Clement Burnap, all of New York city.

The ushers led the wedding procession, as the march was played by an orchestra. Then followed the bridesmaids, maid of honor and matron of honor and the bride, acompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage. Following the ceremony, there was a reception, during which congratulations were offered and an elaborate supper was served.

The house was attractively decorated for the affair, green and yellow being the prevailing colors, except in the bridal room, where the decorative scheme was white. This was effectively carried out with a profusion of Easter lilies. In the dining and reception room, the colors green and yellow predominated, there being Southern smilax and yellow chrysanthemums. The arrangement in the dining-room was especially attractive. There was a wedding cake weighing fifty-three pounds, which was the admiration of everyone. This was ornamented with a bell, cupids, swans, while beneath an arbor sat two lovers in miniature. The cake was displayed in the library.

The large veranda was enclosed with awnings and plants, presenting a tropical scene, and this was a popular place during the reception for the guests. The whole decorative scheme was in charge of Stanley, the florist.

The bride was the recipient of an unusually large collection of gifts, comprising about everything that she would wish for. They were displayed in a large room, being greatly admired by the guests. Mrs. Schaefer is a graduate of Miss Dana's School, at Morristown, Class '11. She has been prominent in the younger society of both Plainfield and New York.

Mr. Schaefer is a graduate of Syracuse University, and is a governor of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, of Newark. He is a member of Squadron A and the West Side Club, of New York. He is connected with the New York insurance and bond house of the W. H. Schaefer Company. His father is a well-known Presbyterian minister. The couple left last night on a two weeks' wedding trip and upon their return will reside in Upper Montclair, where a furnished home awaits their occupancy.

—Boroughites, read the opinion by Judge Gilbert Collins, and Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, on the last page today.—Adv. ***

—Could there be more important news in the paper than is contained in the "help wanted" ads?

—Daily Press want advs. pay.

FOWLER DEFEATS CAPSTICK HERE

Former Congressman Gets a Majority of 33 Over Morris Co. Candidate.

COSE WINS IN THE CITY

William N. Runyon is Nominated for Assembly by Big Vote—County Clerk Calvert Successful—No Councilmanic Contests.

The returns from the primary election in this city, yesterday, will give students of political history much food for thought. They furnish not a few surprises among those who were making confident pre-election predictions. The voting during the day was rather slow but toward night it became more brisk, ending up with a normal primary day vote.

John H. Capstick, Republican, for Congress, was defeated here by Charles N. Fowler, by a majority of 33 votes. Another close contest was for the shrievalty nomination between John H. Cose and S. P. T. Wilbur, Republicans. The former won out with a majority of 47. Mr. Wilbur carried the First and Second wards, losing in the Third and Fourth.

While it was generally expected that Fowler and Capstick would run pretty close, the former's supporters were not willing to admit that he would be defeated, considering his vote of a year ago. Capstick's greatest strength was in the Second and Third wards. Rev. W. T. Stuchell, from whom much was expected, ran a poor third in the race, receiving a total of sixty votes in the city.

The many friends of William N. Runyon are pleased with the showing he made for Assembly honors. He swept the city, receiving a total of 1,063 votes, carring every ward. His vote was the largest in the city's eighteen districts and he appears to have been very strong in other places throughout the county.

Mayor Percy H. Stewart received the nomination for State Senator on the Democratic ticket by a large vote, which indicated considerable strength generally in the county. County Registrar Frank H. Smith was renominated by a flattering vote.

County Clerk James C. Calvert, who was renominated, polled a large vote, showing his popularity here as well as in other parts of the county, where he was given good suupport. As stated elsewhere in the Daily Press, the councilmanic candidates were nominated without any contest.

CONGRESSMAN KINKEAD TO SPEAK HERE OCTOBER 12

Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, will celebrate Columbus Day on the evening of Monday, October 12, in an appropriate manner. Instead of holding the customary banquet, the program will be changed. The committee in charge has secured several excellent speakers, who will talk on timely topics. Among the speakers will be Congressman Eugene Kinkead, who will be heard on a selected topic.

Former City Judge William N. Runyon will also be one of the speakers, the announcement of which fact is sure to arouse considerable interest. There will be several other speakers, announcement of which will be made later.

The program will also comprise vocal and instrumental soloists and specialists. Refreshments and then dancing will be a feature for the balance of the evening. VanEps Brothers, well-known banjoists, will provide the music. The committee is endeavoring to provide an evening of real enjoyment for the members of the club and its friends who will attend the function.

TAKE STEPS TO AID JEWISH PEOPLE ABROAD

Seven hundred dollars were subscribed for the fund to relieve Jewish people in Europe and Palestine at a meeting of the directors of the United Hebrew Charities at Temple Sholem, last night. Aid will be given those who have suffered so much by reason of the war. A further appeal wil be made to other Hebrew organizations in the city.

The committee appointed to take charge of the fund is comprised of Moris Abrams, Henry Rosenbaum, Louis Shiff, Harry Pearlman, Kalman Rothberg, Jacob Sachar, Hyman Adelberg and Jacob A. Fass.

MRS. SMITH'S FUNERAL.

Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of John Smith, of 216 West Third street, died yesterday, after a short illness. The funeral services will be held from Mt Zion's A. M. E. church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Hillside cemetery.

MISS GILES BRIDE OF WILLIAM MULLER

Rev. T. E. Vassar, Jr., Officiates at a Home Wedding in New York.

Miss Gertrude Evelyn Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Giles, of New Market road, and Walter Muller, son of Mrs. Emilie Muller, of Lincoln avenue, Dunellen, were married at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. T. E. Vassar, Jr., pastor of the New Market Baptist church, officiated in the presence of about seventy-five guests from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, New Brunswick, Stelton and this city.

The bride was gowned in crepe meteor with Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her traveling gown was of blue broadcloth.

The attendants included Lillian Johnson, a cousin of the bride, who was flower girl, and Charles Johnson and Arthur Giles, also cousins, who were ribbon-bearers. They were all dressed in white. The single ring ceremony was used by the officiating clergyman.

The ceremony was performed beneath an arch of maiden hair fern and white roses. The decorations throughout the hallway and dining-room comprised autumn foliage.

The bride received a large collection of gifts, including cut-glass, silverware and linen. After the ceremony supper was served. Later the couple left for Virginia on a wedding trip. They were followed to the Plainfield station by a party of guests in a touring car and given a lively send-off. Mr. and Mrs. Muller will reside on Whittier avenue, Dunellen, in a new home acquired by the groom. Mr. Muller is employed at the Ransome Concrete Works.

MISS COOLEY WEDS H. M. SANDERSON

Rev. J. O. McKelvey Officiates at the Home of Bride's Parents.

Miss Agnes M. Cooley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Justus H. Cooley, of North Plainfield, and Harry M. Sanderson, son of Mrs. F. G. Sherman, of Woodland avenue, this city, were quietly married at 7:30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Westervelt avenue. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, performed the ceremony in the presence of just the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride wore a traveling gown She was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Cooley, while John Sanderson, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception, during which supper was served. Later the couple left on a ten days' wedding journey. Upon their return they will reside in this city. Mrs. Sanderson received a large collection of gifts. She is a graduate of the North Plainfield High School, and both she and the bridegroom have a large circle of acquaintances. Mr. Sanderson holds a position with the New Jersey Central and has been a resident of this city for several years.

BEEKMAN WINS OUT BY 350 MAJORITY

Somerset Returns Also Indicate Choice of Hutchinson and Walsh.

The late returns from Somerset county indicate that Azariah M. Beekman, Republican candidate for State Senator, will receive the nomination by a majority of 350, and that Elijah Hutchinson, Republican, and Allen B. Walsh, Democrat, for Congress, were nominated by good sized majorities.

Frederick G Thomas, Democrat, for State Senator, polled a large vote in the rural districts, but could not overcome the lead of his opponents in the larger communities of the county. The effect of his aggressive campaign throughout the country districts was indicated by the vote given to the aspirant for office.

There were no contests in Somerville, the regular tickets being nominated. The Progressives polled a small vote. W. de La R. Anderson, Republican, for Congress, received a good vote in and near his own home, but failed to run as well as expected in other parts of the district.

—Your "situation wanted" ad will be read by your next employer.

CAPSTICK BESTS CHAS. N. FOWLER

Morris County Man Gets Congressional Nomination Over Former Representative.

TUTTLE BEATS PIERSON

Calvert Wins Easily Over Wright—Wm. N. Runyon, A. N. Pierson and Charles L. Morgan Republican Assembly Candidates.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.
Congress—John H. Capstick.
State Senator—Carlton B. Pierce.
Assemblymen—William N. Runyon, Arthur N. Pierson, Charles Morgan.
County Clerk—James C. Calvert.
Sheriff—George C. Otto.
Registrar of Deeds—Frank H. Smith.
Coroner—Henry P. Dengler.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.
Congress—William E. Tuttle, Jr.
State Senator—Percy H. Stewart.
Assemblymen—Francis V. Dobbins, Charles E. Dooley, William F. Callahan.
County Clerk—William A. Leonard.
Sheriff—Michael Divine.
Registrar of Deeds—James P. Kelley.

PROGRESSIVE NOMINATIONS.
Congress—George W. V. Moy.
Senator—Carlton B. Pierce.
Assemblymen—James B. Furber, William D. Jones, Theodore F. VanDyke.
County Clerk—Edward A. Leach.
Sheriff—William R. Richart.
Registrar of Deeds—Harwood Fish.
Coroner—J. B. Stevens.

Charles N. Fowler, of Elizabeth, failed to "come back" in the political limelight, having lost the Republican nomination for Congress at yesterday's primaries, after a hard fought contest in which John H. Capstick, of Morris county, was the winner, and William T. Stuchell, of Rahway, took a part big enough to beat Fowler in the district. Fowler served sixteen years in Congress, having been retired four years ago when he was succeeded by William E. Tuttle, Jr., of Westfield, who was renominated yesterday for a third term. Tuttle easily defeatd Thomas J. Pierson, of Elizabeth, his only opponent. Former Mayor George W. V. Moy, of this city, was selected by the Progressives without opposition. Capstick carried Morris county by about 1,200 and Fowler won in Union by about 750.

Aside from the Congressional fight a contest which created county-wide interest was that for the nomination for county clerk. James C. Calvert, who has held the office for two terms, was opposed by Sheriff William H. Wright, and Calvert had no trouble in securing renomination, his majority being about 1,600. On the Democratic ticket there were five candidates for the office, including John P. Owens, of this city. The coveted plum was won by Assemblyman William A. Leonard.

Carlton B. Pierce was nominated by the Republican and Progressive parties for re-election as State Senator, and he will be opposed on the Democratic side by Mayor Percy H. Stewart. Both were unopposed in the primary.

On the Republican primary ticket, from a field of five, William N. Runyon, of this city; Arthur N. Pierson, of Westfield, and Charles L. Morgan, of Elizabeth, were chosen, the defeated candidates being W. Edmund Clum and Arthur E. Warner, both of Elizabeth. The Democrats named were Francis V. Dobbins, renominated; William F. Callahan and Charles E. Dooley. The unsuccessful members of this party were F. Otto Linke, of this city, and Vincent H. Seiler, of Elizabeth.

In both Democratic and Republican parties there were hot contests for sheriff. Two Plainfielders sought the nomination on the Republican ticket, John H. Cose and Samuel P. T. Wilbur. George C. Otto, of Elizabeth, got the nomination, with Cose second and Wilbur third. The other candidates were Richard B. Fordham, Joseph H. Neill and George J. Stewart. Among the Democrats Michael P. Devine, of Elizabeth, secured the nomination defeating Frank C. Englehart, Bradford Jones and Hugh J. McLoughlin.

Frank H. Smith, of this city, was unopposed for the Republican nomination for registrar of deeds, and James P. Kelley beat out James J. Potts for the same nomination in the Democratic party.

The county vote will be found in a table in another column, as will the list of all who were nominated.

Purchased 1915 Hudson "Six."

Mr. C. C. Alexander, of Evergreen avenue, has just received a new six-cylinder Hudson car purchased from Thompson Auto Co.

LEFT WING OF ALLIES CONTINUES TO MAKE PROGRESS WITH FEARFUL LOSS REPORTED ON BOTH SIDES

Decisive Phase of Battle Being Fought Today on Which Depends the Continued Occupation of French Soil By the Germans--Details of Sinking of British Cruisers Received--Great Heroism Shown by Rescuing Crews--Aeroplane Squadron Makes Raid on German Aviation Camp.

Paris, Sept. 23.—An official report issued at 3 p. m. today by the war office reads: "The left wing of the allies' army is making steady progress against the Germans commanded by Gen. Von Kluck. The left wing has advanced about 17 kilometres in the region of Oise.

London, Sept. 23, (Central News Cable)—A despatch to the Times from Amiens says that severe fighting is going on not many miles southeast of Amiens. The message says it is the beginning of a decisive phase of the battle of the Amiens, upon the issue of this fighting depends the continued occupation of the French soil by the German invaders, or of their retreat to strongly intrenched positions which have been prepared for them on the Sambre.

A correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs from a place in France, the name of which is not given, that the German right appears to have been turned between Peronne and St. Quentin, after terrific fighting. All night the wounded have been coming in. They say that there are nine miles of dead in the trenches between the two towns.

Peronne was evacuated by the Germans four days ago. They occupied a strong position with the hills behind them and marshes in front. The French received orders to take the position at all costs. Driven from here the Germans would be enveloped by the outspreading French left wing.

First the trenches were combed by artillery fire, but the Germans still held and their guns on the heights behind were doing execution among the French. Then it was decided to storm the position across the marsh. In the half light before the dawn the French advanced in a number of narrow columns. They suffered badly but never wavered or flinched. When they reached the trenches the Germans, contrary to their custom, waited for them. There was a fierce and deadly struggle, breast to breast. The French had the advantage of dash and vigor. They were the attackers. They stabbed and stabbed till their arms ached, as one of the wounded put it. Of course their losses were heavy but they gained their point.

The Germans fell back of St. Quentin. The French with fresh troops coming up pursued them hotly into the suburbs of the town. There was savage fighting in the streets. Yard by yard the Germans were driven back until they received orders to abandon the town.

"Just as I am sending this off I hear that the battle is still going on at St. Quentin and that the Germans are making an effort to retake the town."

Amsterdam, Sept. 23. (Central News Cable)—A press representative at Ymuiden has learned the following details of the sinking of the three British armored cruisers near the Hook of Holland yesterday. The Aboukir was struck on its starboard side. It was thought she had struck a mine, but while the Hogue was lowering four lifeboats she was struck on the starboard by a torpedo. It was then understood that submarines were in action. Four were seen and fired at.

The Aboukir sank in ten minutes and the Cressy also approaching to give aid was torpedoed and sank. Two submarines are reported to have been hit but this is unconfirmed. It is supposed there were at least four German submarines.

A Red Cross hospital has been opened at Ymuiden for the wounded, who are too fatigued to talk. Some are seriously injured with ribs broken. Most of the survivors of the Cressy state that they were three hours in the water swimming before they were picked up by small boats. The men will probably be conveyed in a couple of days to Gaasterland, or Bergen, since there is no British depot here. The survivors were nearly all undressed in their berths when the torpedoes struck. They jumped overboard.

The captain of the Titan, which helped in the rescue work believes that it is possible in the circumstances other survivors may have been picked up by fishing boats. The captain of the steamer Flora has been honored for his splendid behavior when, with a crew of only 18 men, he succeeded in rescuing 267 survivors of the cruisers.

Harwich, Sept. 23, (Central News Cable)—A member of the Aboukir's crew said today that the ship was torpedoed at 5:15 o'clock yesterday morning. The Hogue went first to her assistance, picking up 10 of her men. The Cressy also appeared and lowered boats. The Aboukir was struck admidships and buckled up. Her wreckage was strewn over a wide area. The Hogue was torpedoed twice a quarter of an hour later, then just before the Aboukir sank, the Cressy, going to her assistance, received four torpedoes below the water line.

London, Sept. 23 (Central News Cable)—According to a despatch from Antwerp a successful raid by a squadron of five English aviators on the German aviation camp at Biscken dorf, near Cologne, is reported by the Handelsblad. Bickendorf is the centre for the Zeppelin aircraft and according to the story the Britishers from a height of 1,500 feet dropped bombs that set fire to the hangars. Four of the aviators returned to the point of their departure, while the fifth was obliged to descend owing to engine trouble. He succeeded in landing in Belgium.

A despatch from Nish says after a nine days struggle the Austrians, whose both wings have been beaten completely, are in full retreat along the whole front from Liubovia to Losnitza. The Servians are pushing them vigorously. Servian columns from Vishegard and Baina Bashta continue their progress into the interior of Bosnia.

Details of the occupation of the strong Austrian fortress of Jaroslax, 35 versts from Przemysl, and 30 versts from the Russian frontier by the Czar's troops are lacking. The Austrians continue to retreat behind the fortifications of Przemysl.

The Russians have seized all the railway lines leading to that place

(Continued on page 3.)

SPIRITED CONTEST IN BORO PRIMARY

Endrosement of Administration Shown in Councilmanic Nominations.

The primaries in North Plainfield were marked by several spirited contests which served to bring out a fairly large vote, despite the apparent apathy on the part of many people in both the Republican and Democratic parties. W. de La. R. Anderson, who was opposed by Blackman, Hutchinson and Pope for the Congressional nomination on the Republican ticket, surprised many by polling a total of 171 votes in the five districts. He received his largest vote, 55, in the Fourth district.

Senator W. W. Smalley, who was seeking a renomination, was high man on either one of the three tickets, polling 289, which gave evidence of his continued popularity in that part of Somerset county. Hammond, for Assemblyman on the Republican ticket, received 266 votes. Congressman Allan B Walsh, Democrat, ran way ahead of his opponent, Blake, in the borough, receiving 179 votes, against 51 for the latter. Azariah M. Beekman, for State Senator on the Democratic ticket, received 158 votes, while his opponents, Steele and Thomas, polled 13 and 83 respectively.

There was unusual interest in the borough in the contest for councilmanic honors among the Republicans, with the result that Edmund Rushmore and Julius J. Stahl, the present incumbents, were renominated, the former receiving 188 votes, while the latter polled 215. Howard Woolston, who entered the race as the representative of another faction, lost out, receiving only 117 votes.

The Democratic nominees for Council are Charles L. Force and Frank Mobus, neither one having any opposition. The former received 183 votes, while Mr. Mobus polled 217 votes.

Hammond, Republican, for Assembly, received 266 votes, while Francis E. Bodin, Democrat, showed his strength by receiving 217 votes.

The Progressives did not show much strength in the borough. Thorn for Congress, Kenyon for State Senator and Whitney for Assembly each receiving eight votes. The complete vote in North Plainfield is as follows:

NEW TAILORING FIRM.

Wanamaker, a well-known popular priced tailor, has leased the premises at 219 West Front street. The firm is engaged in the made-to-order clothing business at popular prices. On the opening day, on Saturday of this week, as an added attraction, gold pointed fountain pens will be given to men visitors to the store, and handsome tailor's shears to the women. The firm operates stores in other cities, the nearest one being Elizabeth, and it is well known in the East.

Consolidation Is Legal.

Bernardsville, Somerset County, N. J., Sept. 23, 1914.

Dear Mr. Saunders:

I have examined Chapter 83 of the laws of 1900, which provides for the organization of the government of new towns or cities created by consolidation of former towns or cities, or parts thereof, and it is my opinion that this act applies to the proposed consolidation of the city of Plainfield and the borough of North Plainfield.

Very respectfully,
Adv.— FRANK BERGEN.

—Could there be more important news in the paper than is contained in the "help wanted" ads?

MILLINERY

(Salon, second floor).

We hold no expensive openings, or make lavish displays—but we are ready for business for new seasons on September 1st and February 1st—but we give extra good values instead. Which do you prefer?

Now Ready

Copies of foreign models, also original designs from our own workrooms. Equal styles and workmanship elsewhere are priced at least one-half as much more.

Many small, close fitting styles are predominating; however, many medium sizes are displayed and larger hats, including French sailors and picture styles are gaining in favor every day.

Plain and novelty ostrich, also wings of many styles, divide trimming favor with conventionalized flowers and metallic braids.

On the whole styles are attractive to the last degree—and there certainly is a becoming one for every woman.

Women's Tailored Suits

Smartly Designed--Extraordinary Value at . . . $15

Black, navy, green and brown colors; novelty cut and straight line models; self of velvet collars; straight and yoke top skirts. Coats are satin lined to waist; all sizes; would be a good $21.50 value, at only ..... $15.00 each

Window Shades

Made-to-Order

Also big stocks of ready-made shades in all colors. Best workmanship and best materials in made to order shades. Estimates furnished without cost; all work guaranteed.

Shoe Dept.

Cor. W. Front and Madison Ave.

New Fall Styles Now In

We are sole agents for the famous "Sorosis" Shoes in Plainfield. The best kind of school shoes for boys and girls at popular prices.

NOTE—How many seeds in Pumpkin—See window display for full particulars.

Our Men's Furnishing Department

The best place to buy your Shirts, Underwear, Ties, Pajamas, etc. No fancy prices for latest style furnishings, but extremely good values for every item. Now ready:

New Fall Shirts.. 50c and $1.00
Root's Underwear.. $1 and $1.50
New Neckwear.... 25c and 50c
Fine Underwear at 50c
Men's Night Shirts 50c
Men's Pajamas.... $1 and $1.50

BAGS AND SUIT CASES.

A complete stock in all sizes at popular prices.

CONTINUING ALL THIS WEEK IN THE BASEMENT.

Sale of Granite and Galvanized Ware

AT 10c AND 15c

Regular values 15c to 29c.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"THE WHITE STORE"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

IN THE BASEMENT.

Everything for caning and preserving. We have Mason Quart Jars.

SMALL VOTE POLLED AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD

Like many of the outlying districts, the primary vote at South Plainfield was a light one. Scully, Democrat, for Congress, receiving a vote of 24 further demonstrated his popularity, his opponent, Hetrick, getting one vote. The Republican aspirants, Ramsey and Haven, received about half of Scully's vote. The vote for the Assembly, sheriff, county clerk and other offices were pretty evenly divided. The complete vote follows:

South Plainfield Congress—Ramsey, R. 42, Haven, R. 18, Hetrick, R. 7, Scully, D. 24. Hetrick, D. 1. Assembly—Applegate, R. 43, Bedell, R. 26, Haight, R. 28, Soy, R. 18, Anderson, D. 14, Grace, D. 18, Lubkein, D. 18, Quinn, D. 19, Sharp, D. 9. Sheriff—Tenbrook, R. 42, Applegate, D. 7; Ely, D. 6, Houghton, D. 14. County Clerk—Conger, R. 21, Johnson, R. 11, Gaunen, D. 27. Coroner—Hoagland, R. 27, Hubbard, R. 29, Hirner, D. 14, Mullin, D. 17, Pressler, D. 14, Thompson, D. 7. Township Committee—Nelson, R. 13, Nelson, D. 26. Township Clerk—Day, R. 30, Day, D. 7.

—Your "for sale" ad will be found and considered, probably investigated, by some of your "logical buyers."

Edna Porter in "Everywoman," at Plainfield Theatre, Monday, 6September 28.

THE PROPER COURSE.

Information of Priceless Value to Every Plainfield Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Plainfield citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived.

Thomas Haskard, 927 South Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Randolph's drug store, have relieved me time and time again when I have been suffering from kidney trouble and I owe a great deal to them. I never hesitate to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know of their merit."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Haskard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

STOPS HEADACHE, PAIN, NEURALGIA

Don't suffer! Get a dime pack- of Dr. James' Headache Powders.

You can clear your head and relieve a dull, splitting or violent throbbing headache in a moment with a Dr. James' Headache Powder. This old-time headache relief acts almost magically. Send some one to the drug store now for a dime package and a few moments after you take a powder you will wonder what became of the headache, neuralgia and pain. Stop suffering—it's needless. Be sure you get what you ask for.

—DON'T MARK DON'T YOUR CREED—If you have something to sell, some quest to pursue—do these tasks aggressively, through want-advertising!

DUNELLEN

All the Happenings of the Day In Plainfield's Hustling Suburb.

Mrs. William Van Duser, of Whittier avenue, is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Seabury, of Patchogue, L. I.

Miss Alice Fenner was shopping in the city yesterday.

ENJOY AUTO TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schnidler and Mr. and Mrs. Alden Willmot and children enjoyed an automobile trip to Easton, Pa., on Sunday, in Mr. Schnidler's Regal touring car. They left the borough at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and arrived at Easton 1 o'clock in the afternoon. It took them a half hour longer to make their return trip, leaving Easton at 2 o'clock they did not arrive home until 6.

MRS. ELIJAH PENNINGTON.

Recorder David S. Campbell received a notice of the death of Mrs. Elijah Pennington, of Elizabeth street, Orange, yesterday. When Mr. Campbell was married in 1872 he and his late wife boarded with Mrs. Pennington at Plainfield. Mrs. Pennington lived at Plainfield for quite some time. Her husband, Elijah Pennington, followed the carpentry trade there for twenty-five years. They moved to Orange from Plainfield ten years ago. Mrs. Pennington survived by her husband. She was sixty-four years old.

LEAVE FOR ATLANTIC CITY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vail, J. Newton Apgar, John P. Fenner and Charles S. Starker leave this evening for Atlantic City. With the exception of Mrs. Vail, the above go as delegates from the local fire department to the convention of the New Jersey State Firemen's Relief Association, which will be in session three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

MISS RYNO IMPROVING.

Miss Anna May Ryno, the nine year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ryno, who has been in the Muhlenberg Hospital at Plainfield for four weeks as a result of an abscess on the hip, is getting along very nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Ryno confidently expect to be able to bring her home next week.

